I have other kids who I last saw them when the girl was born. Their mother is Michelle Daniels. When my wife told me what those Sililo's did to her I was so angry... And I was Revenge for her because she's weak that one even though she has the Bipolar side. I wake up and walked Downstairs and my wife was there eating with my kids

Bonolo's Pov

Well life has been good... I finally moved from the place I used to call home and I'm staying in my apartment. Well things are looking quite good with my lovely brothers and my little Angel except for Nkosi... That guy is kinda off because he doesn't want me to date and mostly communicate with guys except my brothers like come on I'm Nineteen and I'm about to turn Twenty I need to live a little but NO Nkosi doesn't want that... He would say 'No Nolo wam omuhle these guys will play you then leave you like a trash Because they don't care' or he says 'Wait for the right person Miss Williams but don't worry he's just around the corner and that guy digs you' and that leaves so much confusion .Well anyway I have made a Friend named Naledi and she's super cool.She has been here for these past months but it feels like forever.I've been saving money Wich means I'm going to school ... Yes the school are opening and I'll be doing my 1st year I'm Medicine...I woke up and went to take a bath... I dressed in my black denim Jeans

Finally Nkosana said those three words he's been afraid to say 'I love you' But was it true..? Or is it only because she reminds him of Bokamoso..? We'll find out anyway. So after he dropped Nolo he left all the Niggurs and drove off to his house and stuffed himself with alcohol. He was looking so depressed as he remembered her words 'I don't love you' 'I see you as a brother'

Nkosi: Maybe that's what I am... Nothing but a Brother

He says as she drank his 8th bottle of beer before opening a Vodka and drank

Nkosi: I don't deserve to be loved... First the love of my life dies and Bonolo sees me as a Brother... Life is unfair

He continued drinking from the bottle

Nolo: Friend I'm going to work

Ledi: I'll see you Friend... Don't you have plans...?

Nolo: No not today

Ledi: Let's go Clubbing

Nolo:No you know I don't like clubbing besides.y Brothers won't allow me to

'Im going to see her... She's my wife I love her and I'll die without her... Let me go and see her because I really need her'-
His thoughts

He took his car keys and walked away while his phone kept ringing it was his mom but he ignored it and there was a message
-Nkosana please don't go anywhere my baby Please-

'Fuck woman don't tell me to not go anywhere I need to see my wife'

He drove off going to Bonolo's Apartment... On the way he lost Balance and he was about to hit the brakes it was too late... The car rolled over the road with him...

Paramedics were all over with Police. They managed to take Nkosana out and rushed him to the hospital while they called his family and they arrived

'Nkosana didn't sleep in our bedroom last night and I know he slept with her... It's not even a week she's been here but they are already shagging or maybe it's because I don't give her sex but yet I'm not ready... I'll sleep with Nkosana but not now and what she's doing right now it doesn't cut it, he's cheating right under my nose'-Bonolo's thoughts

Buhle:I hope What ever it is... You'll forgive me even though I don't know what it is I've done to you

Bonolo's Pov

Today its my Trial and I'm so nervous but prayer is what keeps me going it's good because they placed me in a holding cells not those Once with bullies. I wake up as I take a bath and wore My meroon pensil skirt,Black shirt with meroon blazer and Black block heel. I was called then the police escorted me to the High Court. Luckily my brother hired the best Lawyer for me Mrs Buthelezi

I arrived and there were so many people,the press and the media. My brothers were there even the Sililo's but there was no sign of Nkosana. The judge walked in looking all kind of intimidating if I may say.

Police officer:All rise in Court

We all stood up as they make their introduction while I'm Looking scared but I kept on saying silence prayer.

"You may be sitted"

We all sat down and the trial started

Judge: This is the case of Miss Bonolo Cleopatra Williams charged with attempted murder as her cousin Mbali Williams is in hospital as we speak. We may proceed

Prosecutor:We may delight the evidence found your honour

Judge:You may proceed

Prosecutor:The defendant literally stabbed the Victim leaving her to death

Judge:As it states that Miss Bonolo Cleopatra Williams is Charged with attempted murder and she plead not guilty. We may proceed Prosecutor: On the 14th of April the defendant went to the Victim's house. As it says they don't get along very well which led them to fight. They were busy with their own staffs as they started arguing. The defendant slapped the Victim that's when the fight started. They fought and the Defendant saw there she was losing the fight she took a knife and stabbed the victim on her stomach when she got a chance, the DNA research states that. She left the victim lifeless on the floor. The prosecution charges the defendant with violence under section 179 of The Law 2000. The defendant was part of the scene your honour.

It's all a shame that I would kill someone. Never in my life I have ever faced such assault. All the things the Prosecutor said it's all a lie. Just a lie because I'd never kill a soul. Me Bonolo Cleopatra Williams can never kill a person and out of all people my Cousin sister...

Prosecutor: The Court will go through Investigation officers. They will testify against the Defendant Miss Bonolo Cleopatra Williams on what they had discovered at the crime scene. The medical examiner who will state the victim's body in how it was found and The last victim is Unknown. Thank you your honour

Mrs Buthelezi:It is missed that my client have about Five months without Visiting the victim stated Because of school. Most importantly she has nothing against the victim. It is stated that my client was abused both emotionally and physically by her family... The victim's family. They always treated her bad . She wasn't allowed to go outside either. There's a Violence Protection Order Act Wich allows a family member or a law of enforcement agencies to petition the court for a protection order. But my client wasn't allowed to go out

Advertisement

why is that so Huh...? The High Court confirmed that insuring the safety of woman seeking reproduction healthcare is a valid reason to restrict the intimidation behaviour but my client here wasn't allowed to. My client has been through a lot but she's not a killer... As we all see she's a Christian. Thank you your honour

Judge: Court will continue at 13:30 after the break

My brothers walked over to me as they give me hugs

Bukho:How are you feeling..?

Mr Steinberg:Yes

Mrs Buthelezi:Tell me how it works

Mr Steinberg: Police Laboratories throughout the world use DNA Profiles from biological evidence left at the scenes of crimes to track down obtained from biological evidence such as blood samples or items of clothing match the obtained suspect, then we safely say that the evidence comes from the suspect

Mrs Buthelezi:How is the sample made..?

Mr Steinberg: The sample is Broken up into small pieces. These small segment of DNA are marked with Radioactive probes and exposed on X-RAY film

Mrs Buthelezi: How do you identify them...?

Mr Steinberg: The pattern of black bars Behind the X-RAY film

Mrs Buthelezi: So if the DNA Profiled Produced From two different samples match the Two samples probably came from the Same person..?

Mr Steinberg: Yes

Mrs Buthelezi: What if there are little mistakes made in the Laboratories..?

Prosecutor: Objection your honour...!!!

Mrs Buthelezi:Your honour I need to Make sure if there weren't any mistakes made from the Laboratories

Judge: I'll allow it, please answer the question Mr Steinberg

Mr Steinberg:Can you reapeat the question

Mrs Buthelezi:What if there are little mistakes made in the Laboratories...?

Mr Steinberg:Then someone may have agand in a particular purpose

Mrs Buthelezi:Is DNA Profile unique..?

Mr Steinberg:No

Mrs Buthelezi: So the suspects who are unable to provide their own DNA expect may not be able to adequately defend themselves against charges based on DNA evidence right..?

Mr Steinberg: Yes

Mrs Buthelezi: No further questions Your honour

Judge: Trial will proceed on the 17th of April 2019 Court adjourned

They left as we ate then we walked to where we were

"All rise in Court"

We all stood up

"We may be sitted"

We sat down

Judge:At the Trial continues... We will like to call Mr Smith to the stand. He came up as they placed his hand on top of the Bible

"Do you vow to speak nothing but the thruth..?"

Mr Smith: Yes

"State your full names"

Mr Smith: Albert Einstein Smith

"You may be sitted"

He sat down

Prosecutor: Good day Mr Smith...

Mr Smith: Good day

Prosecutor: What Is your profession..?

Mr Smith: I'm a Medical Exeminer

Prosecutor:What do they do..?

Mr Smith: That job falls under the Medical Examiner who is a physician, a typical serves by appointment. The coroner's role at the crime scene depends on the jurisdiction. Some coroner's serve as Administrator while other's oversees the handling of the body

Prosecutor:How did you find the Victims body..??

Mr Smith:Full of blood wich stated that she was stabbed

Prosecutor:Can you please Analyse Your Report regards
Medical Examiner

Mr Smith: Medical Examiner and Coroner's Report depending on jurisdiction has the responsibility for establishing cause, manner and time of death or the Victim with survived. They also comment of the nature and origin of wounds. The is a Forensic report on Medical one. Depending upon the laws regulating the area where the crime committed and the nature of an autopsy have been performed.

Prosecutor: Do you also look at the fingerprint..?

Mr Smith: Yes

Prosecutor: Tell me about that

Mr Smith: Latest prints are left by the contact of Palma surface of hands or bare foot of a person are probably the most variable piece of evidence. However for the purpose of the instruction a latest print is considered as one which obtained conjunction with an investigation

Prosecutor: What did you find those fingerprinting..?

Mr Smith: Nothing... It seems like they were wiped

Prosecutor: Thank you no further questions My Lord

Judge:Cross Examination

Mrs Buthelezi:Yes Your Honour

Judge:You may proceed

Mrs Buthelezi:Mr Smith right

Mr Smith:Yes

Mrs Buthelezi:Good day Mr Smith

Mr Smith:Good day

Mrs Buthelezi:Your a Medical Exeminer right..?

Mr Smith:Yes

Mrs Buthelezi: Tell me how it is done

Mr Smith: The crime scene examination and subsequent search should be done in a careful and methodical manner. After talking to the officers who were the first one in the scene and leaning from them and the changes that might be made from the scene. We carefully observe the body. We make close visual examination of the body and area.

Mrs Buthelezi: So The Officer also give you reports..?

Mr Smith: Yes there are certain notification that must be made during the preliminary investigation. The Medical Examiner officer should be notified and apprised of the situation as soon as possible after the scene.

Mrs Buthelezi: There are Disadvantages of that right..?

Mr Smith: Yes

Mrs Buthelezi:Wich are...?

Mr Smith:Poor Quality of coroner's investigation

Advertisement

poor intergration across jurisdictional boundaries, poor information-gathering. A coroner's system can approximate the high quality of medical Exeminer system

Mrs Buthelezi:Wich can give you False results right..?

Mr Smith:Yes

Mrs Buthelezi:The value of medical experience is apparent in screening process. I one country for example 8000 cases are reported to medical Examiner's office but 2000 are accepted. Screening when ilimates three-fouths of potential cases must be handled in a scientifically defensible manner by people... There can be Mistakes right..?

Mr Smith:Yes

Mrs Buthelezi: Now tell us about the Evidence and how does it come from...

Mr Smith: Crime scene evidence comes in many forms, footprint, broken vase or fingerprint. However the body usually indicates the cause of the crime. The cause of the crime may tell us how the scene took place.

Mrs Buthelezi: How is it detailed..?

Mr Smith: Some autopsies provide a much better change of revealing the relevant details. These include cases where the Victim's identity is known and where the body is discovered soon after the crime. Ultimately the information delivered from the autopsy findings will find their way into the prosecutor's case as evidence used to convict the perpetrators of the crime.

Mrs Buthelezi: How sure are you that this evidence belongs to the Defendant..?

Mr Smith: We Found the Information contained points at her

Mrs Buthelezi: That doesn't mean it her right..?

Prosecutor: Objection Your Honour

Judge: Question Withdrawn

Mrs Buthelezi: No further questions My Lord

Judge: Thank you Mr Smith you may leave the stand

Mr Smith walked out

Judge: We may proceed

Prosecutor: My Lord... The defendant has to be locked up as there evidence was found that she's the main suspect who little wanted to kill Miss Mbali. As it states... Law of Evidence and

Criminal Procedure Act Amendment Act 1992 Act 43 of 1992 and we found the Solid evidence contained pointing at the Defendant

Mrs Buthelezi: Your Honour as I said my Client is innocent, she's not a threat. Firstly she was violeted..

As it states Section 4 of the Prevention of Family Violence Act 1993 Act 133 of 1993 - Repealed in terms of section 313 of the Children Act, 2002 Act 38 of 2005 on the 1st of April 2010.

Secondly she was Harrassed... As it states Protection From Harassment Act 2011 Act of 2011 and lastly She was violeted from her rights... As it states Human Rights Commission Act
1994 Act 54 of 1994, South African Human Rights Commission Act 2013 Act 40 of 2013. She's been through a lot but My Lord she's not a killer. Thank you Your Honour

Linda:We have arrived they said we have to get inside

Me:I had never thought I'd lose my virginity this way

We turned to find Samantha there

Sam:I'll be there for you...

Them:Yes sir

Matt: Five of you here are going to be selling on the streets

Five will serve our consumers and these five Virgins will be escorted to their buyers

Oh my God please protect us All. I can't be a sex slave... I can't break my virginity I'm this way no I'm not ready. It's either I compromise or I let this go and be a sex slave I just can't...

Matt:You may leave

We all walked to our room to take a bath

Linda: (Crying) My Friend

Me: (Hugging her) All will be fine my love

Linda: I can't afford to lose you

Me: (Sniffs) I love you... Samantha please look after her

Sam: I promise

I hugged Samantha too... Then I walked out. Is this my faith..?
Am I even supposed to live...? I'm damaged...! I'm angry..!
Sad...! Emotional...! Why can't I find happiness. Is it all worth to fight for...? The life is it..? I'm tired of Drama... I wish I could vanish...! I wish I could live in my own space full of love and peace nothing else. Just waking up to smile it's all a dream.
When reality hits me I know I'll never find peace... I'm Broken, broken beyond repairs I'm alone in this world. I just wanted a Normal like all the other kids but mine...? (Chuckling) Mine is full of drama, comprising and sacrifices. I had to compromise and sacrifice my happiness all because of heartbreak and sadness. I miss my life when I was just A baby... Things were simple without stress until I was 7 years where Aunti started Abusing me. It pains so hard that nobody cares no one at all but I still believe that is destiny. God will heal me and someone will Mend The Broken Pieces. Yes I still believe crazy right but I have hope. I hope that there shall be happiness in my life, it might not be now Tommorow or next week but I still believe that I will find happiness it doesn't matter how long it takes.

I'm in a car with Two girls and a driver. No one is talking anything... (Sighed) What will you mutter if you decide to open your mouth. It's all over, My dream it's gone and drained. I'm going to become a sex slave. I'm going to become a sex toy of another man..I bet he's older than me. Old enough to be my father. Man disgust me I don't know why I felt for that stupid guy, Daniel I thought he digs me but I was so wrong in y ways.... We were passing by the bridge I wonder where were going but maybe I might as well die, there nothing to live for. I opened the door and rolled out off the car while it's still moving

(Sighed) I rather die God Forgive me. The car stopped as the driver walked slowly to me

Driver:What the hell is wrong you...?

Me: (Sniffs) I'm not going to be a sex toy for another man

Driver: What...

Me:No... Don't tell me otherwise I'm not a prostitute either way

"Your going like it or not"

Daniel:Your going like it or not

Where and How the hell did he get here. This is witchcraft

Me:No... (Crying) I'm not... N...

There were surrounding me with my body near the end of the bridge.

Daniel: Sweetheart there's no way out so don't waste time

Me:I'd rather die...

After that say... I just jumped off the bridge. Imagine the whole lot bridge to the ocean what if there are sharks and Snakes but I don't care. It's better than being a sex slave. I got deeply in the ocean as I drown and saw my life flashing by I wanted to breath but I was failing, I couldn't breath... I guess This is the end of Bonolo Cleopatra Williams

Me:Who...?

Kamo:The Princess need you My Queen but I'll let you know when you have to save her

Me:Kamo why are you speaking in riddles

Kamo: She's...

"Hey Little one"

She turned as she walked over to hug her brother

Me:Where are your friends..?

Lumko:Just around princess are you good..?

Me:yes I'm good Biggie

Lumko:Let's go To my house

Me:Why are we going to do there

Lumko:Come Princess

I walked upstairs to change my outfit then we walked out to Lumko's House and there were many Cars packed there

Me:Biggie what's going on here..?

Lumko:Let's go..

We walked in and there were people and it's a Small party

Me:is it a party..?

Lumko:Yes, your party

Me:Oh Thank you

We walked to where the guys were sitting and there was Nkosana with his wife (Mxn) She was being bitchy all this time so I stood up to take an one hour walk to a forest not far from Lumko's House I always did this of how I miss it and nothing would disturb me. This time something happened that I didn't even expect in these woods. At first I heard a low growl and thought it was just a dog and it's owner. Then it got louder, sounding like it was getting closer.

My head jerked in a direction where a twig snapped, causing my heart to start beating faster than normal.

It was a bit dark in the forest, considering it was winter. That's when I saw it. The red eyes coming from the bushes. My feet were frozen to the spot. I wanted to run but my feet didn't want to move.

I felt a hand go on my shoulder. Turning my head, I saw a man, probably in his late twenties. "Run!" He whispered but loud enough for it to be a shout. I looked at the eyes and a hand grabbed mine, pulling me off in a different direction.

We must have ran for twelve minutes before we made it out the forest, my chest was hurting so bad and the guy who just saved me, didn't even look like he was the least bit tired.

"Thank. You." I barely got out between gasping for breath, the man looked down at me and he looked mad.

Man:Why didn't you run, it could have hurt you

Me:I...Uhm... I always come here but none of these things would happen why do you care anyway

Man:I was just wondering why you would walk in the forest by yourself when it's nearly dark.

I was about to ask him again why he really cared but we got interrupted by another guy shouting from across the street.

"Langa!" We turned our heads and Langa's stance changed from tensed to relaxed. Well I guess this is Langa

The other guy walks over to us

Guy:What are you doing here and who is this foxy lady?

I heard Langa sigh and clip the other guy on the back of his head.

Langa:Vuyo behave!

And I guess he's Vuyo

Vuyo:What did I do bro? I'm just trying to make this sweet girl feel better

He replied, taking my hand and kissing it. It would be sweet but this guy looks about twelve years old. I would be Blushing Shem but nuh

Vuyo:I'm Vuyo... And this Pig is my Brother Langa

Me:Well I'm Bonolo

Vuyo:Nice to meet you my dear lady

Me: (Chuckling) Uhm... I should be going home, So bye

I said as I started running thank God Lumko's House Is about Five blocks from the forest. But the Guy 'Langa' grapped my arm as he slipped a paper in my pocket

Langa:Call me

I turned as I continued running and I finally arrived. I took out the Paper from my pocket walking inside thinking about about My Hero Prince Charming

Langa's Pov

'She's my mate Damn' I thought to myself. Damn I can't believe I found her. Well Me..? I'm Langalakhe Cullens and I'm a coloured. I'm 27 years old business man. I'm a Werewolf infact we as a family we are werewolves and I'm the future Alpha. That Sweet Smell with was drawing me so Lovely and Powerful. I never thought I would meet her "My Mate" I had already given up to find but I'm glad I did. Thank you Moon Goodness. Well Selene is like our God... About her ...Selene, goddess of the moon has two siblings: Eos, the goddess of the dawn and Helios, the sun-god. Her grandparents are Gaia, (Mother Earth) and Uranus (Father Sky).

She is dressed in the finest silk robes and travels in her silver moon chariot drawn by luminous steeds across the heavens. Several lovers are attributed to her in various myths, including the mighty God Zeus, Pan, god of the wild, shepherds and flocks, and the mortal Endymion, a handsome shepherd, hunter, or maybe even king who was said to reside on Mount Latmus in Caria, on the west coast of Asia Minor.

In classical times, Selene was often identified with Goddess Artemis, while her brother, Helios, was identified with Apollo. Selene and Artemis, on the other hand, were also associated with Hecate, and all three were regarded as lunar goddesses but only Selene was the personification of the moon itself. You just don't see her, But Yet I once did I don't know how but I did.

Fascinated by his beauty, Selene asked Zeus, the leader of the Greek gods, to give Endymion eternal life and to make him sleep forever. Zeus agreed because he loved Selene very much and on some occasions was her lover. The young Endymion remained young and asleep for all time, as Selene wished. From now on, Selene would visit her beloved every night when he was asleep.

It happened in a grotto in Asia Minor.

In another version of the story, it was Zeus who wakened Endymion and asked him what kind of life he would like to live. The young man, who had fallen in love with the lovely moon goddess, Selene, asked that he might sleep forever beneath her lovely and soft light.

Each night, he dreamed of a beautiful woman who came and made love to him. Selene gave birth to 50 daughters as a result of her visits to Endymion. That's how the spell casted amongst our Family generation. My Great Grand mother is one of them.

About Werewolfs

Not much is known about the history of werewolves. All that is known is that werewolves will attack humans but instinct and centuries of rivalry have hardware them to hunt their prey of choice which are vampires; especially after the vampires drove werewolves to near extinction.

Werewolves have higher body temperatures than humans. Werewolves are strong and agile predators. Not much is known about the history of werewolves except that they existed before vampires were created over 3,000 years ago. Who created them, how they were created, when exactly they were created and the reason for their creation is currently unknown but since they call their supernatural condition a curse; it may very well be a magical curse placed on the original members of their species by witches.

Werewolves actively populated the New World during the early middle ages as viking invasions began in Europe. Most of the land inhabitants were werewolves and they lived along side one another in villages. They also lived alongside humans in order to protect their loved ones; they made sure that they had access to natural means of protection for them. One of the most notable locations of a werewolf village was the location of Chance Harbor, Virginia.

Beneath the area was a series of tunnels that provided protection for the humans when the werewolves turned on the full moon. One clear rule of the village was that the humans were forbidden from being with the wolves when they turned. The war between vampires and werewolves came to a head when vampires discovered that a bite from a werewolf could eradicate them and therefore set about eradicating the entire lycanthrope species.

The werewolves were driven to near-extinction by the eradications. Vampires began to believe that werewolves were a mere myth. In reality, werewolves had survived and reorganized themselves into packs to help one another evade the vampires and also help each other through their very painful transformations. Well that's Me, My family, Our pack and the many more of the packs

About 30 minutes later, we were all sitting on the couch, munching away on pizza while watching a random movie on the Television, when I checked my phone for the time and realized I had a message.

Why did you give me your number? - Bonolo

I smiled, she actually sent me a text back! I couldn't believe it, I was smiling to myself.

In case you need more help when you run into the forest by yourself. - Langa

I saw Vuyo lean over my shoulder to read the text but I pulled my phone out of his eyes.

Me:'Dude!

'Vuyo: Sorry, I just wanted to see who was making you smile. You rarely smile and that's a fact Nothing else

David replied and the rest of the guys nodded.

Langa:Luxolo I do smile. Tell them!

Jordan just shrugged and my phone went off again.

I can tell you're laughing at your own joke, stop! - Bonolo

I was smiling but I wasn't laughing.

I'm not, I swear. Besides, why would I laugh when you're probably smiling reading this. - Langa

I'm not smiling! - Bonolo

I thought of something that would probably get her to smile.

Okay then. How about after this? Your eyes are as beautiful as the sweetest Blue sky - Langa

Probably not the best saying but I knew her eyes were blue because I was staring at them, when she was talking to Vuyo.

My eyes aren't that beautiful, besides, why are you flirting with me? You barely know me. - Bonolo

That still doesn't stop people from flirting. What I said about you was true, your eyes are beautiful. - Langa

Oh god, I was totally hitting on her over text. Why? I really wanted to get on her good side but she probably thought I was a creep.

She didn't send a reply back that entire night but looking at the time when I sent the last text, she probably fell asleep.

I would say, it's been a boring day but it hasn't. I met my mate, that I saved from a wolf, in which I became the knight in shining armor, so to speak. I still don't know who that wolf was. That's something I'll have to find out.

I said good night to everyone and called it a day by hitting a pillow.

Langa's Pov

Another week went by.It's the first week of May. At July is the total lunar eclipse, also referred to as the Blood Moon, was the longest lunar eclipse of the 21st century.

In light of this spectacular and rare phenomenon that we were lucky enough to bear witness to, we contemplate the prowess of this celestial satellite that has been orbiting our Earth, guiding mankind each and every night throughout the entire existence of our solar system.

A fascinating entity, the moon, it belongs to the things that transgress the boundaries of astronomy, astrology and religion. I have to mark my Mate.

I just wonder how she will react when tell her this thing. It's not long since I met her but I already want mark her, but she's mine anyway. We've been spending a lot of time lately. She told me how she met her brothers and i must say she's been through a lot. I woke up the next day and walk over to take a shower, wore a naive Chino with Black Golf t-shirt then I walked downstairs and found Vuyo.

Me:What are you doing Vuyo...?

Vuyo: Both the, let's go visit Bonolo

Me:But I...

Vuyo:Let's go

"What are we doing today" Vuyo asked

Start from the beginning Image

She just shrugged.

Nolo:Definitely not sports

She started and we couldn't help but laugh, she's got that bit right.

Me:What is wrong about sport..?

Nolo:it ain't my thing

Vuyo:It's not bad

Nolo:What do you like..?

She walked to her bag taking out a drawing book.

Nolo: Apart from Gynaecologist I like Drawing

Vuyo: Drawing...?

Nolo: Yes but many people don't know that

Me:Why..?

Nolo:Id like it to keep this way

She said as she handed the book to us. There were different fantastic Drawings

We both froze to this drawing

She drew a picture of a wolf, she's got every detail perfect.

"Guys!" She shouted, getting us to come out of our trance and getting a few stares from people around us.

Vuyo placed the paper down and I looked at her.

Me:What made you draw that? It's amazing!

Nolo:Wolves fascinate me. They're agile, they've got speed

She started and she looked up, my gaze met hers and we were just staring at each other.she continued ",they're beautiful... they've also got really gorgeous brown eyes..."

She shook her head and stopped looking at me.

Nolo:I mean, they're dedicated to on another. I've got some more at my room,coloured ones, not just black and white.

When I first met her, I knew her eyes were beautiful but staring at her just then, they were breathtaking.

Vuyo: I don't want to be rude but could we see them?

she nodded.

"Holy shit!" Vuyo exclaimed, I clipped him across the back of the head. He know's better then to swear, I might stick him on gardening duties again.

Me:Watch your language

I shouted, while he rubbed the back of his head.

We were currently in her bedroom, she has loads and I mean loads of pictures of wolves, all different colours and sizes.

I noticed one on her desk, one of a group. It was in a frame so I walked over and picked it up. "Becareful with that one." She said suddenly, causing me to slightly jump but I still had the frame in hand.

I felt her stand beside me.

Nolo:That one is my favourite.

This picture was a little bit scary.

I mean, in my pack, you have. Me, the future alpha leader, I'm pure black.

Vuyo, who is grey with a hint of black. Aiden, who is Ginger. Luxolo, who is brown and Zoe, who is grey.

And those were the exact colours of the wolves on the picture.

*Dude, this is crazy. How has she got this perfect?*

I asked Vuyo through our mind link, he didn't answer though.

I shook my head after standing there speechless for a couple of minutes, and I placed the frame back down.

Me:So Vuyo? Looks like someone is a huge fan of wolves.

Bonolo chuckled and it was like music to my ears, I couldn't help but smile.

Nolo:I've been interested in them since I was a little girl,I u used to read stories about them but I lost focus when things started going bad at home

"Little one we're home!"I head someone shout from downstairs and Bonolo's stance change, I'm guessing that's her brothers.

Nolo:Oh crap! Both of you get in the bathroom.

She whispered, I opened my mouth to ask why but she cut me off.

Nolo:Don't question it, if my brothers find you in here they'll kill you then me they don't want any guy near me because of the past.

She pushed us in the bathroom and shut the door, we heard some shuffling around and someone walk into the bedroom.

I heard her start a conversation with her Brothers when Vuyo spoke to me through the mind link. *What's going on?*

*Nothing, she's just talking to her brothers.* I replied, getting closer to the door. I know it's not the best thing to do, to eavesdrop but I can't exactly go through her stuff.

Nolo:You can come out now boys!

We both walk out and sat on her bed

Advertisement

she turned around to face us.

Nolo:Sorry about that. My brothers are protective and they don't like me hanging out with guy anymore. I'm sure they will get over it though.

It was late when we got home, Vuyo and I walked through the door to the spell of burgers. I could go for a good one of those right now. God, she makes the best.

Zoe:You're finally back

We heard Zoe shouting.She continues "I was wondering when you were going to arrive, the burgers have just been cooked." She told us as we walked into the kitchen.

We ate then left for the living room, I stayed in the kitchen with Luxolo for a while. "You spent time with your mate today."

I nodded.

Luxolo:Does she know that you like her?

I shrugged my shoulders, life could be so cruel.

Luxolo:Look man, I know it's going to be hard but let the girl show her feelings to you first. It might take a while but it'll be worth the wait.

Me: And what if she doesn't show that she likes me? What do I do then

Luxolo:Then you tell her yourself. Look, you're a good guy Langa, you just need to stop taking control of your whole life. Just spend some more time with her and she'll come round, I promise.

Me:How can you promise? You don't even know her or what she's like.

Luxolo:The way you smile everyday since you've met her. I can tell she's your mate, you've never once smiled that way about another girl. Just please don't mess this up, I like seeing you happy.

I nodded and Luxolo left the kitchen leaving me sitting at the table, trying to think things over

She's my mate therefore we have to mate

The mating process is a three-step procedure which can be taken between any couple with at least one werewolf.

The First Sight. This seals the previously-dormant bond between true mates. In human/were couples, proper matings (as in, not true), vampire/were, etc., this step is never completed. Therefore, their bond is never sealed, and their mating is merely superficial.

The Mating. You got it right: sex. This step can be completed by any couple, supernatural or otherwise, and connects the two physically.

They Marking. When a were bites the neck of his/her mate, he/she injects their blood into the other's veins, sealing them together. This is the final step in the process, and in true mates the mark never fades, even after death. In proper mates, the mark can be erased when he/she finishes Step Two with their true mate, no one else.

Weres can NOT mark anyone other than other weres.

The mating process can be overridden if one or both from the couple meets and sleeps with their true mate.

All true mates were chosen individually before birth by the Moon Goddess. No one can have two mates, but after their true mate dies the were does have a second-chance mate. The second-chance rule does NOT apply after rejection, JUST DEATH! They can meet their mate on their sixteenth birthday or after.

Rejection:

The rejection is, like the mating process, three-steps. I cover this in "Back From the Dead," in the chapter titled "Slut Much" I think.

Oral Rejection. You know the words: "I reject you." They're only in every other werewolf story ever made. This is a superficial severing, and can be reversed.

The Deflowering. Lol, I just came up with that. Anyway, this step means both the rejector and the rejectee must sleep with another wolf. Not a human, a vamp, or anything else--just a were.

Keep Away. It is vital, until both are fully mated to someone else, to stay away. As soon as the two are near each other, their bond begins to repair itself. The longer their wolves are in contact, the harder it is to finish the mating process with someone else.

When the rejection process is completed the wolves can be near each other as much as they want and won't be attracted. The rejection can still be reversed by true mates if they sleep together without the pull, but most don't.

Now I must say I'm scared... Scared of rejection. I might as well die if she does that because I'm in love not because she's my mate but because she caught my eye. Being alongside with Alpha it's quite a lot of work I just wonder if she would manage...

LUNA, as she is called... Let me tell you about Luna

Wattpad werewolves on the other hand, the "Luna" is still the female Alpha, but her role is much simpler, she is the Female leader of the pack, and the Alpha's chosen mate (The more Human side of the werewolf showing through I assume). But since werewolf packs work using a mix of both Wolf and Human social dynamics her tasks are more comparable to that of a Queen or Empress, she rules the roost alongside the Alpha.

She may be a good Queen... My Bonolo, My Luna

Nkosana's Pov

Things have been good and I miss Bonolo so much. I wish I can just hold her in my arms but that can't happen now van it..? I'm married to Buhle and I don't see myself divorcing her... She's been a lot of help lately And I appreciate that. It would be inappropriate to Divorce her for Bonolo yes I know I made some of my mistakes and flaws but I won't do anything to Break my Family for Nolo no matter what happens.

"Baby... How are you.."

Me:I'm fine, Hou are you...?

Me:Lumko...!!!!

I shouted from the sitting room Even though there was no answer, I knew he could hear me as his room is not far

Me:Lumko..!!!!

Still no answer. I leave the sitting room and walk into his, finding him and Nomhle (Remember her...? Kamo's Friend) doing the nasty. "Lumko!" She screamed, I couldn't help but laugh.

I turned my head and stared at the wall.

Me:Erm, I was planning on asking if you could help me organize Lisa's party but if you carry on doing that, I'll think against it.

I hear moving behind me and I feel a hand on my shoulder.

Nomhle:Sorry about that, I thought I locked the door. Anyway, we could do the party this evening I'll help.

I turned around and thank god Lumko was in his boxers.

Me: Thanks

I smile and leave the room, hearing the door lock I know that they were going for round two.

I shake my head and walk downstairs, finding Bukho on the couch I wonder when did he get here.

Me: Where Sakhile...?

He turned his head from the TV show to look at me.

Bukho: Oh, he had to go across to his company it's emergency matters.

I nod and pull out my phone, dialing Nompumelelo's number. I mean, speaking to her is better than sending her a text. Right?

"Hello" I heard My sister's sweet voice answer, a smile hit my face... How I love my Sister

Me: Hey Lelo. I just wanted to ask you if you would like to come for a party This evening for my little princess

Lelo:{I don't know Little bro I just can't stand your evil wife}

I let out little laugh, hopefully she didn't hear me

Me:t's only going to be Lisa's party... Not your cat fighting

Lelo:{Arrg what do I have to wear, is there any code...?}

Me:Nuh just wear anything

Lelo:{Oh Ohk I'll see you then}

Me:Bye

I hunged up before she could say anything and sat next to Bukho just as Lumko and Nomhle walked Downstairs

I looked at them and started laughing at Lumko, he just stood there dumbfounded.

Lumko:What?

Me:It's good for her

We are in a light conversation

After that I paid The Bill.

We walked out the store, carrying probably more then ten bags. I unlocked the car and Nomhle jumped in, I placed the bags in the boot.

As I got in the car, a group of people were already crowding. I heard Nomhle sigh.

Nomhle:Here it comes.

Me:What? When people admire the car, you know I have to show off.

I missed Her, Nomhle we used to be so close when Kamo was still here. I haven't thought about Kamo these past few years and right now I feel guilty

Bonolo's Pov

Unfortunately Nkosana organised a party for her little girl, I don't know the girl but anyway it's no sweat. I took a bath as wore my black Denim Jeans, Naive Off-shoulder t-shirt with black block heel. Tied my hair into a neat bun and I was good to go.

I walked Downstairs as I walked out and drive off. I arrived and there were Many cars outside but yet I thought it's for a Three years old kid. I parked my car as I walked over to where everyone was.

As I walked over Arabella saw me because she ran to me

Arabella: Mommy

I picked her up

Me: Hello my little Angel

Arabella: Mommy why did you leave me...?

Me: Mommy was busy sweetheart

Arabella: Don't you love me anymore..?

Me:Oh No My Baby... Mommy loves you Ohk

Arabella:I love you too Mommy

I placed her down then walked over to sit down...

Lumko:Hey Small

Me: (Giggling) Oh Now Im small

Lumko:You know muc Small

Me:Mnx 😊

Bukho:Are you good..?

Me:Yeah I'm Good

Bukho:Yo...

We were disturbed by the MC... Nkosana's sister Lelo

Lelo: Hellow people as we're all here to celebrate the Princess's birthday Is like to Thank all who were able to come

They crowd cheered. Then Buhle and Nkosana walked over to her hand in hand

Lelo:Now let's welcome Our dear Couples Wich are Lisa's parents

The crowd clapped Their hands

Buhle:I'd like to thank everyone who came to celebrate this day with us. We really appreciate it. Well I'd also like to thank my dear Husband... Ndiyabulela Zungu for the love you've given me and support I love you... All with my family.

Nkosi: Yeah Well... I'm so happy, I'm happy with everything God has given me. My two beautiful princesses and My lovely wife. And Again Happy Birthday To my Princess

The crowd: Happy Birthday

Wow...! I'm hurt really because I still love Nkosi... He's my first boyfriend but with all he has done I doubt I'll ever forgive him. He's happy and smiling without me. I sometimes wish to be the one who would put that smile on his face but no... It had to be Buhle. I love him, Oh God Knows how much I do love him but as we all know love one is not enough. What about how I feel. He doesn't care because if he actually did. He would have tried... He should have divorced Buhle but he didn't. Even though I love him but clearly he's not worth it.

I walked outside after that as I took out my phone as I dialed Lunga's number... He's the one who understands me

Langa: {Hello Bonolo}

Me:Can you come and get me

Langa:{Where are you...?}

Me:I'll send the address

Langa:{Ohk then I'll be there}

I hunged up and sat down the big Stone next to the gate. After about 10 Minutes he was here

Langa:What's wrong..?

I just cried...

Langa: Sweetheart what's wrong..?

Me:Please just hold me...

He immediately hugged me

Me:It hurts... It hurts so much please never let me go

Langa:I will never let you go Sweetheart

I hugged him... I felt so safe in his arms and I didn't want to let go. I just wanted to be in his arms. I calmed down as we walked over to his car and he drove off to his home. We walked in to a lounge as he bought Junk.

We were watching a movie in the Television and eating Junk food without saying a word to each other... I just love how he makes me feel. I like how well he knew me without spending more time with him. Yes I know it's too soon or I'm being forward but I don't want to let him go...

I just want to stay in his arms . You know when your breaking you have that look of betrayal knowing life knocked your hopes up . And the mind being stupid enough to go back to default telling you your alone but to me I know I'm not alone... He's here with me, Langalakhe Cullens.

Langa's Pov

She looked so fragile the way she was you could see she's been through a lot behind. I just wanted to grab her hand and help her get over her pain.

Luxolo walked in followed by Zoe

Luxolo: We didn't know that your busy so we'll just... Uhm...
Yeah

He said as she pulled Zoe out of the house

God know how long we spent watching the movie but now I think Nolo was asleep on my shoulder, she looked so peaceful.

I slowly got up and picked her up, bridal style. Slowly and gently carrying her upstairs to the spare bedroom, where I placed her on the bed and under the covers.

I couldn't help but smile at her sleeping form. She still has no idea what effect she has on my body.

He picked her up as he made his way upstairs.The Room was filled with Rose Petals, the lighting is dimmed, the doors are locked and a sensual song is playing

The space was so warm, clean and inviting. The Burning scented candle was more delighting. The bedroom was so quiet sanctuary.

He kissed her so passionate wrapping her arms around her neck and Nkosi held Her waist. He picked her up still kissing wrapping her legs around his waist. Nkosana walked to the bed

He made her Kneel on the floor with her lying on the edge of the bed. Raising one of her legs and asking her to support her leg by wrapping her hands around her hamstring just below the knee. With one hip raised, as she's able to add some movement to aid in his stroking Encouraging her to wriggle a little to help you get the rhythm right.

Nkosi positioned himself as he slowly entered making her scream his name "Nkosi... Aaah..!"

Nkosi: Should I stop

Bonolo shook her head as tears gushed Down

Nkosi:Words Sweetheart words against her pubic bone for greater pleasure. Nkosana held her waist as she was doing this ... Nkosi started moving making Bonolo to moan...
