PROLOGUE

Life narrowed his eyes around and sat across me

Me: Cuz

Him: Where is everyone?

Me: You just missed Daisy as for aunt she went to Grace's house

Him: That will give us time to talk

Me: What's up?

Him: At my work place they are looking for cleaners and I thought of you

Life is a security guard at the hospital. Unlike Daisy he didn't finish school but for someone who doesn't have lot of qualifications he is doing better

Me: Don't joke with me mzala (Cousin)

Him: Have I ever done that? You have to apply right away

Me: Thank you mzala crossing fingers. I really need something and relocated to Limpopo and the rest is history. My father dumped me at his sister's house and I've been staying with her since. Aunt Joyce is a teacher; she has two children Daisy and Life. I am close with Life; Daisy is her mother's daughter. I try to tolerate my aunt's abuse but every day she come with new tactics to torment me. Aunt Joyce was kind enough to let me finish high school but after that she washed her hands off me I became their housemaid. My cousin Life gave me money to register for Computer Literacy and I did so much to my aunt's approval. I'd like to move out of this house because it has been nothing but hell but with qualifications like mine I am finding it hard to get a job. But that doesn't mean I've lost hope no matter what I am going through there's light at the end of the tunnel

Chapter 1

NOMTHANDAZO

Life left 30 minutes ago he is working day. I am so proud of my cousin he is really trying to not sit and fold arms something my cousin Daisy is good at.

Daisy is a lost case she went to University but she doesn't want to work. Imagine lazing around with a qualification

The door opened Daisy walked in with a box of pizza and few plastics

Her: Are you just going to stare or you will help me?

I dropped the broom and took the things she was holding

Her: Where is mom?

Me: She went out

Her: Okay. Go ahead and unpack this for me when you are done I want you to run some errands for me

That's what I am. Their needs come first mine don't amount to anything

Me: Aunt asked me to cook tripe if I go out I won't be able to cook it

She looked at me annoyed

Her: I won't repeat myself Nomtha

I nodded and walked away

Living in this house is a nightmare; I honestly have no good memories in this house

JOYCE

Ever since I got here Grace hasn't stopped praising her granddaughter I don't understand how one can go on about her achievements at the expense of someone's company. I am not jealous but it's exhausting hearing same thing over and over. God knows how much I wish to shut her mouth

Her: I talked with Amy she promised to find something for Nomtha

Amy is the golden granddaughter; she's a consultant for a big marketing company

Me: Oh you did?

Her: Ha Joyce why don't you sound happy? Finally your daughter will have something to do-that poor girl need to get out and mingle a bit

I chuckled softly

Me: You don't know what you are talking about; Nomtha has rejected so many job offers. I really don't know what her problem is

She took a sip of her tea and shook her head

Her: You are lying Joyce how can that young girl not want to work? Youth of these days

Me: Story of my life imaging having to force a grown woman like Nomtha to go and look for a job

Astor walked into the sitting room

Him: Good day

Me: How are you my boy?

Him: I am good ma Majoro. Granny I am going out I will be back late evening don't expect me for dinner

Her: You are going to the car wash?

Him: Yes. Ma Majoro it was nice seeing you

He walked out

Me: Such a young good man

Her: They grow up so fast soon he will be bringing me a girl. Let me boil for tea we've talked so much that we even forget about our tea

Daisy sent me to buy toiletries. I don't understand how can a person go to town and forget toiletries if really they wanted them Daisy just enjoy sending me around

I was on my way to town I really don't know if I'll be back in time to finish cooking the tripe because I've half cooked it. On my way to the taxi station I noticed Astor's car coming my way. The music was loud enough to attract people's attention. When he noticed me he slowed down the speed

Him: Going somewhere?

Me: Yes

I really don't know if I'll be back in time to finish cooking the tripe because I've half cooked it. On my way to the taxi station I noticed Astor's car coming my way. The music was loud enough to attract people's attention. When he noticed me he slowed down the speed

Him: Going somewhere?

Me: Yes I am on my way to town

Him: Jump in I'll take you there

Astor is one guy you can never resist but he is trouble-one trouble I don't need. I got lot of that already. Besides dating in my aunt's house is forbidden I once tried it and when she finds out-she was so furious. So much that she forced me to break up with the guy and if that was not enough she grounded me for a whole month saying it's my punishment for embarrassing her

Me: No I think I will manage

In all honesty I needed a ride taking a taxi will take forever

Him: Come on Mtha climb in. I promise to behave

I laughed and opened the door

Him: Was that hard?

Me: You can't blame me but since I am desperate

He scratched his chin

Him: Let's rather not talk about that. Mind if I play some music?

Me: It's your car

'I don't know what I did wrong

Didn't do this right didn't do that like you need

I don't know what going on think I need space now but

You right here with me

I don't wanna be alone'

I couldn't contain my excitement; he was playing DVSN and boy! I love them

I started singing along

Him: Okay if I knew that would do the trick would have done it already

I smiled and continued singing

DAISY

I opened the closet and started looking for something to wear. Late tonight I have a dinner date with Tebello. Tebello and I have been dating for 3 years and this guy is still not showing signs of putting a ring on my finger. He is financially stable if he was really serious about our relationship he'd show me. What does it matter anyway? I'll enjoy his money so long

The door swung open my mother walked in cussing

Me: Privacy mother

Her: Where is your cousin?

Flip! I completely forgot that I sent that good for nothing at the store

Her: The tripe is half cooked and I told her to cook it. What are going to eat tonight?

Me: She went out

Her: I can see Daisy but where?

I bit my nails

Her: You know what never mind. She will hear from me when she gets back

She closed the door

I took my phone and called Nomtha

NOMTHANDAZO

My phone vibrated it was Daisy

I looked at Astor

Me: We have to go

I don't know how I lost track of time but I got lost in the conversation with Astor. For once I was laughing and engaging in a normal conversation

Him: What's wrong?

Me: Take me home Astor

Him: Relax Mtha it's not even 17h00

Me: You either drive me home or I am climbing off and catch a taxi

Him: There won't be need

A message came through

“If you know what's good for you you'll come back now and if mom asked where you were tell her you went to buy yourself toiletries”

The nerve! Today I'll show her that I am not her doormat

Astor starts the car and drove off

JOYCE

Daisy: Mme how is all of this going to work?

Me: I've explained to you countless times and still you don't understand? Ha you are so useless

Lilu is non-human and repeated sexual activity with an incubus may result in the deterioration of health mental state or even death. Nomtha is as good as dead

Her: You can't blame me mother

Me: Lilu is going to be Nomtha's spiritual husband. Nomthandazo won't be able to know what's going on with her; she will soon start to experience wet dreams

Her: But we both know that Lilu is jealous of any man what will happen when she finds someone?

I looked into the basin

Me: She already has two suitors

Her: Who are they?

Me: Lilu reveal to me your wife's suitors

I commanded him. The water inside the basin divided into two with a hollow space

Her: What? Tebello is one of them?

I smiled

Me: Yes and not only him but him also

I pointed at Astor

Her: No way! What's so special about Nomtha anyway?

Me: That doesn't matter. Question is between these two who is going to be hers?

Her: I don't believe you right now

I thought for a while

Voice: Tebello Maseko

The sound echoed through our ears

"What?" We said in unison

Her: Mom...

Me: He is the chosen one. Now we have to bind them together. Don't worry it's more than just being his...

Her: What do you mean?

Me: Spiritual husband are jealous so any man who will be in Nomtha's life will be in danger. The man himself will be a danger to Nomtha. Incubus will have sex with Nomtha and when her partner smells her he will assume that Nomtha is cheating. He is going to loathe her

Her: And then he might kill her?

Me: You got it right but we don't want him to kill her at least not now

Her: Then why go extreme measures to find her a partner?

Me: Sometimes Lilu comes in a human form. His soul will live inside that body for a short time when his soul enters then the other soul will be wandering around

Her: What if the light overpowers the dark?

Me: That's where Queen Anganes come in. She is the greatest demon of darkness she's going to darken Tebello's heart and not even Nomtha will be able to light it when his heart is dark then Lilu will be able to enter his body whenever he feels like

Her: You want to join forces with Queen Anganes remember what happened last time?

Me: She was angry

Her: And her anger nearly killed you

Me: Nomtha have a golden heart and that will work in our disadvantage. When she loves

Sponsored

she loves wholeheartedly and if she loves her man then that is going to anger her spiritual husband and it means he will want to kill the man in her life. So we need to possess Tebello's heart if Tebello is not possessed then Nomtha's pure heart will make it impossible for Lilu to enter Tebello's body

Her: I get what you are saying but why is it important for Nomtha to have a boyfriend if Lilu will be jealous?

Me: How do you explain a pregnancy to people if you are not in a relationship?

She widened her eyes

Her: Pregnancy? I didn't know incubus can conceive with humans

Me: Yes time will come where a child will be required and Tebello will be the father of the child until it's time for her to go in the underworld. That child is referred to as cambion our half-human offspring

Her: Yoh. So my grandmother was half-human?

Me: Yes she was cambion

Her: Wow

Me: I was born evil and so were you

Her: And Life?

Me: Life wasn't chosen Lilu doesn't go after men.
Our doom will always be a son

Her: What if Nomtha birth one?

Me: It's impossible to birth one with Lilu but if she cheats then chances are high. That's where you come in; you need to be with Astor. We are going to cast a spell on him; he will see Nomtha in you until Nomtha bear a child. He will not be able to resist you

Her: Now that's more like it

Me: But you have to know that the love won't last this is forced love. Evil doesn't stand a chance against the wrath of God. This is one trick that can backfire at any time and when heaven retaliate not even hell can save us. We can die

NOMTHANDAZO

I narrowed my eyes around but I couldn't tell where I was. The light came through; it was so bright that it pierced my eyes

Voice: They have started

Me: Who are you?

Voice: My daughter you need to be strong

I took a step towards his direction

When I got closer I saw Prophet Zuri

Me: Prophet?

Him: They got you my daughter but your heart will save you

Me: Who got me? What are you talking about Prophet?

Him: It's now a war it's you against them

He disappeared

Me: Please come back (Yelling)

Someone shook me. I opened my eyes

Amara: Hey you are having a nightmare

Me: No that was not a nightmare Mara

It felt real to be one

Me: What time is it?

Her: Witches' hour

Me: We have to pray Amara. Come get up

My heart was beating out of my chest

DAISY

Last night we performed the ritual and it was a success. It's just a matter of time before Lilo attack Nomtha. As for Tebello I don't care he broke my heart thinking that he will be with Nomtha but was he not wrong?

Me: Ma can I ask you something?

Her: What?

Me: Why do you hate Nomtha this much?

Her: That's a story for another day

Me: But mme...

Life walked in

Him: Good morning

Ma: Morning. Tell me where is your cousin?

Him: Do you care?

Ma: I am asking because I care I was just angry when I threw her out of the house

Him: Go and fool someone else

He sat down

Me: The way you love your cousin

Him: How is it any of your business? I lost my appetite

He stood up

Ma: Sometimes I feel like killing him hay suka

ASTOR

Tebello made his way to the kitchen

Grams: My grandson

Him: Grams

Me: Big brother

We fist bumped

Him: You looking fresh

Me: Watch it

My grandmother looked at him and shook her head

Me: Are you fine grams?

Grams: I don't know but I suddenly felt like there's someone in the room with us. I am feeling cold

We laughed

Him: Come on grams

Me: Let's sit down and eat

NOMTHANDAZO

I was very restless after the dream I had in the early hours. Only Prophet Zuri will be able to interpret the dream I had hopefully

I sat opposite him

Zuri: My daughter

Me: Father

Zuri: What a pleasant surprise

Me: Eish father I am not okay

Zuri: I can sense that

Me: It means you are aware about your visit to me last night

He looked at me confused

Zuri: Elaborate my daughter

Me: Father you visited me last night in my dreams.
You told me about the war that has started and how they've gotten to me

He placed his hands on the bible

Zuri: My daughter sometimes I come to people unaware that is God using me to pass a certain message

Me: I saw you father

He smiled faintly

Zuri: And I am not disagreeing with you you are not the first one and definitely not the last one but you have to see this as a blessing. Not many can see what is about to happened to them or what is happening to them

Me: I see

Zuri: What exactly happened in the dream?

I started telling him. He gave me his full attention

Me: And when I attempted to walk towards you you disappeared

Zuri: I'll look into this I'll ask God for guidance and soon as everything is revealed then I'll be able to help you. Because right now I don't know what is going on but whatever it is is definitely not right

I nodded

Zuri: What you can do whilst we wait for God to show us the way is pray. You hear me pray! Nothing beat the prayer when you have faith

Grandmother was really acting cold towards me and it has never happened before

Astor: I really don't know why grams was like that

Me: She was really not comfortable with me being there

Him: Don't take it to heart bro

Me: I'll try... And you what's new in your life?

Him: I just sealed a deal

Me: Legal one I am sure

Him: Come on

I bought grill&eat

Me: Congratulations. Didn't know you were interested in it

Him: Honestly I wasn't but something pushed me. Or let me say someone pushed me to go ahead with him

Me: Is that someone a girl?

He laughed

Him: Yes

Me: Who is she?

Him: Not telling right now but you will be the first to receive a wedding invitation

Me: My little brother and marriage? Someone shoot me now

Him: I getting old man. And you why is your girl working at my spot?

Me: I don't know. We broke up

Him: Is that why she is throwing herself at me?
Fuck!

Me: Trust Daisy to do that

Him: You and attracting psycho girls (Laughs)

Me: But now I've met someone worth marrying and she is not crazy

Him: You don't say

Me: But she is Daisy's cousin

Him: Nomthandazo?

His voice cracked at the mention of her name

Me: I know it's crazy but love doesn't choose. And I've fallen in love with her

Him: Wow...

Me: Is all you gotta say? Come on I know you bro

Him: I am just wondering if it's the right thing to do I mean you dated her cousin bro. That is super weird

DAISY

I kept on checking Astor's car. I don't know why today he hasn't show up

Keletso shook me

Him: Earth to Daisy

Me: What do you want?

Him: He is coming late afternoon today so if I were you I'd focus in my job

Me: What's wrong with you?

Him: I am just saying

Me: Focus on your job and let me be

My mother gave me something to spike in Astor's drink he will be all over me soon as he drinks it

I threw myself on the couch and closed my eyes

Voice: Hey

I opened my eyes it was Amara

Me: There goes my sleep

She chuckled

Her: You back early

Me: He wasn't busy

Her: How are you feeling now? You were not looking good

Me: I feel better. I need to be in the presence of God

Her: It's good thing you staying with us sometimes we will hit church together'

Me: You and change? Since when? (Laughs)

Her: Since now

She took my hand into hers

Her: For you I'll climb mountains

Me: And she's poetic (Laughs)

I stared into the wall and my mother appeared

Ma: You summoned me

I went down on my knees

Me: I wanna know if the curse was successful

Ma: It was

I put the joint down and rested my legs on the table

I wasn't ready for what Tebello has told me it was a blow in the face. I will never fight my brother he's my blood but I love Nomtha

Daisy: Astor

I looked at her

Me: What?

Her: I figured you were thirsty and I brought you this

It was a can of Hunters Gold

Me: What do you want?

Today she was dressing like a lady maybe she has listened to what I've said to her yesterday

Her: Nothing at all. And this can is a peace offering

Me: Thank you

Her: Let me go back to work

She turned around

I took a sip and rest my back against the chair

NOMTHANDAZO

My rang it was Life

Him: Ntwana

Me: When are you coming to see me?

Him: I'll see you tomorrow. Astor invited us for chillas

Me: You are not working tomorrow?

Him: No. And I didn't call for that...

Me: What's up?

Him: You got a job

I stood up

Me: What? But they haven't called me

Him: Not as a cleaner. A friend of mine called me today; he is looking for someone to work in his office as Admin. The person who was working resigned with immediate effect. It's a private school and also there isn't too much work. It's a primary school

I don't care even if it was a high school filled with kids

Me: Oh my word! Thank God

[THREE WEEKS LATER]

Tebello picked me up and kissed me

Me: You missed me?

Him: Do you even have to ask?

Me: I miss you too

He put me down

Me: Where is Amber?

Him: Still sleeping. Aren't you going to work?

Me: On my way. I wanted to see you

He circled his arms around my waist

When it's your time it's your time not even the Devil can stand in your way. My life changed for the better the day Life called about the job. I didn't believe it until I stepped into the office. Right there and then I knew I've escaped my aunt's clutches I knew God has come through for me. And if that was not enough things between me and Tebello took a quick turn I suddenly felt a need to be with you. I still can't explain the urge but there was something about that feeling. I couldn't prolong playing hide and seek with him and for a moment I thought Daisy will make a commotion. Even my aunt didn't. I find it weird but I don't know

Him: Maybe you should move in Me: Never. Well not before you come and ask for my hand in marriage

I wanted to move out of Amara's house but her mother refused

Him: Don't play with me

Amber: Eww guys get a room

She walked up to us

Her: Sister-in-law

Me: Sisters

Her: Brother can we go now?

He looked at me

Him: Don't forget our date later

He kissed me

Him: Let's go

Astor hugged me from behind

Him: What does it say?

Me: Babe wait they said 2 or 3 minutes

Him: What if you are pregnant?

I turned around

Me: I will abort

He gently pushed me; I fell on the bed. He got on top of me

Him: I'll kill you ntwana no joke in that

Me: I'll haunt you

Him: What are you?

I smiled. He leaned for a kiss

The spell worked as a charm Astor is head over heels. If it turns out I am pregnant then there's no doubt he will marry me. Everything is going according to plan. He went as far as appointing me as a manager at grill&eat

Him: Check now

I reached for the pregnancy test and eyed it

Him: And?

I smiled at him

Me: We are pregnant

He picked me up

Him: Thank you so much babe. I love you

GRAMS GRACE

I listened to them laughing in the bedroom

Amy: Do you enjoy torturing yourself this?

Her: Them

She pointed at Astor bedroom

I walked to the kitchen she followed me

Me: I don't like this girl at all Amy

Her: Because she is not Nomtha? You were rooting for her and Astor went for Daisy

Me: Something is not right I can feel it

Her: You are just upset grams. Things took a different turn Nomtha with Tebello and Daisy with Astor Me: Exactly my point. How can Tebello go for a girl who is related to his ex? Don't you find that somehow?

Her: Grams things have changed and the heart want what it wants. They found love and decided to go for it

Me: You youngsters

I can't shake off the feeling I have. There's something going on and I don't like it one bit

Voice: Thandaza

I turned around

It was Sky. Sky is the owner and also the principal of the school. He is very patient with me and I am grateful. When I first started to work it was a mess at one point I thought I will never make it but he held my hand and teach me everything I needed to know. The salary I am earning is enough and understandable I am earning R3000.00

Me: Sir

He walked to my desk

Him: I told you to call me Sky

Me: Unprofessional Sir (Smiles)

Him: I can never win with you. Anyway is the report ready?

I opened the drawer and took out the file

Me: Yes it is

Him: I can't believe one of my learners stabbed another kid

Me: How is the kid?

Him: He is surviving. I don't even know how to explain all of this to the parents

Me: It happens you can't blame yourself

My phone rang it was Tebello

Me: Sorry I forgot to turn on the silent mode

Him: It's okay. Let me go back to my office

Nomtha crossed my mind. My heart was beating fast and I was sweating. I felt her presence with a man

She answered after 3rd ring

Me: Smiley

Her: Babe

Me: Am I disturbing you?

Her: Yes you know I am at work

Me: Sorry I guess I wanted to hear your voice

Voice: Thandaza can you please come to my office?

Thandaza?

Me: Who is calling you?

Her: It's Sky babe I'll call you later. I love you

I opened the door and walked inside

Grams: Glad you came back alone

Me: Grams?

Grams: Where is that girl?

Me: I drove her home

I stood next to her

Me: Tell me grams why don't you like Daisy?

Grams: Because I don't like her

Me: Daisy is pregnant and the sooner you start liking her the better

Grams: She's pregnant? What have you done Astor?

She threw a dishcloth at me

Grams: Are you bewitched? What happened to Nomtha? You wanted that girl and now you are busy impregnating Daisy

Me: I never loved her

Grams: She bewitched you no doubt about that

Me: I won't allow you to badmouth the mother of my child

Grams: Astor!

Me: Urg get off my case! You are not my mother

I clicked my tongue and walked away

NOMTHANDAZO

After that horrific scene that took place I felt the need to connect with God not that I haven't been praying. No there's no day that pass without me kneeling before God but there's something shaking my faith in Him. I am starting to feel like I am going crazy there's something setting me off. Who was that man I saw? And since when do I see things that others can't see? I asked Sky to knock off early; I need go and see Prophet Zuri. Something is wrong and I can feel it

Prophet Zuri gave me glass of water

Me: Thank you

Him: You don't look good...

Me: That's why I am here Father

Him: Talk with me

Me: I feel like my grandsons are in danger

Him: Mmmh go on...

Me: it's a sudden feeling and it is accompanied by the presence of a certain girl

Him: Now that you say it I had a vision. God showed me something and I asked Him to bring forth something so that I can be sure. There's evil surrounding your family

Me: I knew it

Him: There's someone who doesn't belong here but in the underworld. This evil spirit was released by someone with intentions of hurting another person

Me: Then does that mean “the evil spirit or whoever that person is” is near us?

Him: With no doubt. I’d like to believe your grandsons are in great danger. They are targeted

Me: We have to stop this spirit at any cost

Him: I have started already. ‘Cause three weeks back Joyce’s niece came and told me about the war that has been set in motion. She had a disturbing dream

Me: Nomthandazo?

Him: Yes her. She took me through her dream which now I think it was a vision

Me: Now I am convinced Joyce is behind this

Him: Grace we don't say such things...

Me: No Father her daughter is dating my grandson and since she came into his life Astor has become someone I don't understand or know. That girl has a hold over my grandson

Him: You have to bring him to church

Me: He will never agree. He has never set his foot in church

Him: Then you have to pray for his heart he must be saved before it's too late. There's evil spirit surrounding us and the sooner we fight it the better

Me: Let's pray Father

He held my hand

If I say I know what is going on then I'll be lying. If is not Nomtha then it's unexplained scratches on my back. Is the intense feeling that I get when I am intimate with Nomtha. Or my anger! Sometimes I hate Nomtha because I have this feeling that she is cheating on me I smell another man's scent on her skin. That evoke the anger I never knew I existed

Astor set his glass on the table

Him: And grams is going on about us being bewitched can you imagine...

Me: What if we are?

Him: Don't tell me you believe this shit of witchcraft? (Scoffs)

Me: Then how do you explain everything that is going on?

Him: That's a thing. I see nothing going on. You got yourself a girl that you love on the other hand I am about to become a father. Like come on!

Me: I still can't believe you are about to become a father. And Daisy is the mother of your child

Him: It's insane I know but hey man...

Me: Do you trust Daisy?

Him: Do I have any reason to not?

Me: I am just asking...

Him: If I ever find out that she is fucking me over I am gonna kill her

Me: Get that off your mind I know you bro

He sipped on his drink

Him: I am being honest. I'll kill her... and I won't even think twice

NOMTHANDAZO

I told Prophet Zuri everything I didn't leave anything out. And surprisingly when I told him

Sponsored

he said God has already showed him a vision

Me: Father why do I have this need to have sex all the time?

Him: It's not a need you are forced to... There's something inside you that is forcing you to engage in sexual intercourse all the time

Me: What must I do? Because prayer alone is not working... there's no day that I don't pray Father I pray every day and when I pray I start to see that man in my dreams. I start to hallucinate and sounds erupt in my ears

He placed my hand on the bible

Me: Father I feel like my power is fading. Something is dragging me back; something is fighting my connection with God. It is eager to tear me apart

Him: Where your power ends God takes over. God will find you in your knees; He will find you waiting for Him. He will never let them enjoy afflicting pain hold onto the cross and say I will fight them no matter what. God is in control

Me: This is too much to take in Father

Him: That's why you have to pray you must pray.
There's nothing that God can't do

Me: Please evoke the warrior in me. Please Father

DAISY

I was on the phone with my mother

Me: The odds are altogether on our favour. Grace is clueless about everything

Her: You sure?

Me: I am mme

Her: Then we have nothing to stress about. She is just a dog barking

Me: You stress too much

Her: I just don't want mistakes; I don't want to focus on one thing only to find that the other is my doom. The last thing we want is for her to see what is going on she's a true believer and if she ask God to intervene then...

Me: Then everything is over for us?

Her: You got it right. If she gets to Astor and Tebello then we are doomed

Me: Can she really cast Lilu and Queen Anganes out of Tebello?

Her: There's only one person who can do that and not even Prophet Zuri can Me: Huh?

Her: Lilu is not just any demon he an ancient demon. I don't even know how my grandmother managed to make a pact with him. But Prophet Zuri can lift off the curse

Me: Nomtha's?

Her: Yes and that will anger Lilo. He can kill Tebello in the process

Me: Mme you are busy going on about Nomtha what about the spell you've casted on Astor?

Her: That's not important right now Daisy. What is important is stopping the cast out of Lilo

I am dead! All these thoughts I've feared seems like they are about to come true. My mother is threatened by Grace and that is going to weaken her

(Doorbell rang) I set the bible on the table. I went to open the door

Me: Babe

He kissed me

Me: What are you doing here?

Him: I came to see you is that a problem?

Me: What's with the attitude?

We walked into the sitting room

Him: Where were you?

Me: Excuse me? Since when do you ask where I was don't you know that I work?

Him: I went to your workplace and you were not there. And guess who wasn't there also?

Me: I am sure you will tell me since you are playing mind games now

Him: Sky! Apparently he left the school early

Me: So how is that my business Tebello? I went to see Prophet Zuri

He walked up to me

Him: You even smell like him. No make it SEX!

Me: Get out Tebello. I won't stand your insults

He slapped me across the face

Him: You are cheating on me with him? How dare you Nomtha?

Me: You slapped me Tebello?

Him: Yes and I will do it again if I have to. You are nothing but a hoe. Now it all makes sense you are fucking him. You even bring him into our bed that's why you moan in your sleep. That's why you masturbate you thought I didn't know?

Me: Get out before I call the cops! (Yelling)

(Door closes) It was Amara

I ran to her

Her: What's going?

Him: Nothing I was just leaving

DAISY

I am woken up by Tebello's call. What does he want so early in the morning?

I answered and kept quiet

Him: The least you can do is saying "Hello"

Me: How can I help you?

I knew it was Tebello and not Lilu

Him: Are you pregnant with my child?

I lifted my head from the pillow

Me: What? You are insane

Him: That wasn't the answer I was expecting

Me: Astor is the father of my child and I don't like what you are accusing me of

Him: I'm not accusing you of anything

Me: Then we have nothing to talk about

Him: You are carrying my child and if Astor comes to learn about it (Scoffs) I don't even want to think...

Me: Then don't think... This child is his no doubt in that

Him: You forget that I'm a lawyer

Me: Bye Tebello

I hung up

My hands were trembling

I got out of the bed and wore my robe... Tebello hasn't stopped blowing my phone; I even blocked him on WhatsApp. When he pushed me I thought it was just that but last night he went too far

The sudden fear crept in; I saw the reflection of the shadow on the wall reflected by the slight light from the window. The shadow stood still and moved towards me

I took the bible and placed it on my chest

Me: You won't get near me in Jesus name. Go away!

The shadow disappeared

Me: Mara

Her: Who were you talking with?

Me: I was praying

She walked inside

Me: No...

Her: Do you want me to go and confront him? Or even worse tell Life?

Me: Don't tell him a thing

Her: Then talk...

I sat on the bed

Me: Tebello hit me

Her: He did what? Who the hell does he think he is?

Me: It's not that deep he was angry

Her: Does that justify his actions? Don't make me angry Nomthandazo hey don't even start! Yeses...

Me: It must be stress from work; I mean there's lot going on at the moment

Her: You are so stupid Nomtha it starts with a slap.
But next time it will be more than a slap

Me: I am scared Mara... The look in his eyes... (Sobs)

She sat next to me

Her: Don't cry... He will never lay his hand on you

I laid my back on the bed one leg slimly raised up. A cigar was resting between my lips

I was in deep thoughts I've been thinking about what Tebello has said to me. What if Daisy is taking me for a fool? Almost everyone is against our relationship but I love her. And

I've been thinking about what Tebello has said to me. What if Daisy is taking me for a fool? Almost everyone is against our relationship but I love her.

And now there's a child involved. But Daisy would know better than to mess with me. No one will save her!

The door was opened by Amy

Her: Astor! Do you ever stop smoking?

Me: Amy that door is there for a reason. Why don't you knock?

Her: I'll start knocking today? Leave me alone

Me: How can I help you?

She sat on the bed

Her: I've been thinking about mom...

Me: What about her?

Her: I want to see her. She invited me for lunch with her family

I sat up straight

Me: Stop annoying me

Her: But brother...

Me: Stop Amy we don't have a mother

Her: She's trying...

Me: Try... trying? Don't be crazy. You are fine without her

Her: You won't stop me

Me: What did you say? Hey wena do you want me to beat the shit out of you? That woman left us; she left you when you needed her the most. We only have one mother and that is Grams

My mother doesn't deserve any respect from me; no mother can do what she has done to us...

DAISY

I stood in front of my mother and crossed my arms

Her: Morning to you too

Me: I was stupid to think your witchcraft will work

She stood up and looked at me

Her: Don't test me wena Daisy; don't even think about insulting me in that degree. I am your mother

Me: Then how do you explain Tebello becoming suspicious?

She walked to the window

Me: At some point I knew this whole thing would come back to us but it's too soon. You need to fix this

Her: What did Tebello say exactly?

Me: He asked if the child is his or not. He is questioning the child's paternity and it's a matter of time before Astor start

Her: How is it possible?

Me: You failed! Admit that you FAILED (Yelling)

Her: Don't you dare raise your voice on me... He is playing mind games with you and you are falling into his trap

Me: There's no trap Mme. You messed with the wrong family

Her: No family is stronger than me. I am the greatest

Me: The GREATEST you are about to be defeated

She turned around and looked at me

Her: That's what they are thinking. If Grace is behind this then she will lose one of her own

ZIVAI KEITA

I followed the trail of blood

I kept on darting my eyes around... The girl appeared before my eyes

Her: You have to help me please

There was blood between her legs. A creature stood behind her

Her: Only you can save me. Save me

Me: What is your name?

Her: Save me...

The creature grabbed her arm and stood before her

I woke up...

I've been dreaming about this girl for some time now. Her cry has become part of me she keeps on asking for my help

LIFE

I walked into the sitting room I found Chloe watching TV alone. Usually she is with Daisy; I wonder where she is today

Me: Good day

Her: Boipelo

Me: Where is my sister?

Her: Out...

Me: Out? Daisy never go out without you where is she?

Her: She didn't tell me where she was going

Me: You have been acting very weird for the past few days and I am asking myself if you are up to no good

Her: Not at all

She focused on the TV

There's something she is not telling me

Me: Let me call her

Her: No don't!

Me: Why don't you want me to call her?

Her: Because... because you might be disturbing her Boipelo

Me: If Daisy is not back in 60 minutes I am going to call her and I will not ask permission from you

Her: There won't be need for that

Me: I will be the judge for that

AMY

I have been coming to the hospital hoping for a miracle but there's nothing happening. Amber is still in Coma and the doctors are also starting to get worried

I moved to the window and rang my boyfriend Tebogo

Tebogo and I have been dating for a year now but we haven't come out and let people know. He is currently residing in Gauteng I wish he can come back home. The distance is starting to affect our relationship

Me: Sweetheart

Him: Honey how are you?

Me: Fine and you?

I looked at Amber

Him: Good. Are you at work?

Me: No I am still on my leave. I am visiting Amber

Him: There's still no change?

Me: No we are starting to lose hope

Him: Don't she will come back...

Me: Praying for that. Am I still seeing you later?

Him: Yes my place?

Me: Yeah

Him: I love you

Me: I love you too

I hung up

I noticed Amber's hand moving I ran to the bed

Me: Amber?

Her eyes moved but they were still shut

I ran to the door

Me: Doctor! (Yelling)

DAISY

I was trying so hard to not show this man that I am scared I can't let him sense fear. I know what I am about to do is dangerous but that's the risk I am willing to take. Maybe after this I can forgive myself Tebello deserves justice and people are not crazy to think Mr Mayor did it

Cowen: My wife should be home anytime now

Him: You are not woman of words or you are just shy?

Me: The latter

He chuckled

Him: Sorry if I am making you feel uncomfortable but soon as my wife comes back I will give her the ropes she is the lady of the house

I faked a smile

Him: Let me get you somethin to drink

He stood up and walked to the kitchen

I ran my eyes around the house. My plan is to gain access in his personal space I can bet with my life that I will find interesting and incriminating information

Me: Thank you

I downed the whole glass

Him: You were thirsty

I don't know if he is acting or being himself. But his actions are too good to be true if I don't watch out I will be the one dead

After some few minutes the door closes

Him: That must be my wife

A beautiful curvy woman walked into the lounge. She looked very beautiful I don't wanna lie; I just don't understand how she can live with the man like Cowen. I am not judging her though

Cowen stood up

Him: Wife can we talk for a moment?

She dropped her bags on the floor and moved to the other room. I could only hear their voices but can't make out what they are saying. I pray she doesn't reject the offer I really need this job

Few minutes later the classy lady walked back in the

Her: Daisy right?

Okay she doesn't recognize me. Astor's mother left the hood when I was still young so she can't really recognize me

Me: Yes ma'am

Her: My husband told me you are looking for a job is that correct?

Me: Yes

Her: Where are you from? I hope you understand I can't just take you in my house without asking some questions

Me: I totally understand. Well there's not much to tell about me I grew up in some Orphanage. My parents died when I was 10 y/o and since then I've been in and out of orphanages until two months ago when my uncle come and fetch me. I am now living with him and his wife but they don't treat me well

I wiped my tears

Oh Daisy girl

I wiped my tears

Oh Daisy girl you deserve an Oscar. Thank you Joyce you made me the best actress

Me: I haven't eaten anything in days my aunt's wife told me to go and look for a job

Her: Don't explain any further. My husband has already told you we have a maid but I can squeeze you in. As you can see this house is too big for one person you can divide work with her. My husband usually host parties and we need extra hands

Mh I like the sound of that

Her: Can you start tomorrow?

Me: Yes I can

Her: You will find your contract tomorrow. And one more thing whatever that happens in this house doesn't leave that door. You don't breath a word you get it?

I nodded repeatedly

I also noticed that there are no cameras but I will have to confirm as time goes

AMBER

I don't know if I understand what is going on but surely someone will shed light. I still want to know what I am doing here and where my brother is

The door opened Grams walked in

Doc: She is stable now

Amy: You sure Doctor?

Doc: 100% sure. She didn't lose her memory there's no damage. She is looking good

Amy: Thank you Doc

Doc: Don't stress her take it easy with any news you want to break to her

The Doctor walked out

Grams walked up to my bed

Me: Grams what is going on here? Amy doesn't want to tell me

Grams: Oh my poor grandchild you have no idea how happy I am to see you alive and well

She cupped my face

Me: Why are you crying? What's going on here? Amy?

Grams: You don't know how much I love you I love you so much and if it was up to me nothing was ever going to happened to you

She is still not telling me what is going on. Why do I feel like something is wrong?

Me: Where is Tebello? I don't see him where is he?

Amy ran out of the room

Grams: Oh Amber Tebello is no more

I looked at her and shook my head

Grams: Forgive me but he is dead

Me: No not my brother! He is not dead

Grams: He is

Tears welled in my eyes

He can't be dead

NOMTHANDAZO

Astor texted me that he want us to meet I wasn't sure about meeting with him but I also didn't want to sound rude. So I agreed

Me: Would you like something to drink?

Him: No I am good

I sat down

Him: Where is Amara and her mother?

Me: They went to work

Him: I see...

(Silence)

Him: I've been calling you

Me: I know

Him: Obviously you don't wanna talk with me

Me: It's not that

Him: Then what it is? From how I see it you want nothing to do with me. And I just want to offer moral support; I have no intentions of bothering you

Me: I know; I just need time...

He nodded

Him: That's not why I am here Tebello's lawyer called us

Me: Okay...

Him: He will be reading Tebello's Will in two days and your presence is requested

Me: Me? What for?

Him: Tebello must have left something for you ever thought about that?

TEBOGO

I was on the phone with the Station Commander
Miss Naidoo

The transfer request will rub her the wrong way but I've been telling her about moving down here

Her: Are you sure about your decision Tebogo? I thought you enjoyed working with us

Me: And I did but now I wanna be close to my family

Her: It's a real loss-this Station will never be the same without you but I know you are going to make me proud there. I have already emailed your transfer to two Police Stations; you will choose which one you'd like to work in Me: Thank you again Miss Naidoo

Her: All the best Tebogo

She hung up

I turned around; my big brother was standing at the door

Me: It's rude to listen to other people's conversation

Lungelo: Does dad know you are coming back home?

Me: Haven't told him

Lungelo: I have a feeling you are scared to tell him.
Dad wanted you to work in Gauteng for a reason and now you wanna come back home

Me: I wanna be close to you guys I miss my family

Lungelo: Okay...

Me: And I am gonna start by arresting you and your buddy

Lungelo: You think Amy will be pleased about that?

Me: Who told you?

Lungelo: I know everything. Astor will twist your neck

DETECTIVE MOKOENA

I am crossing my fingers for Naomi to come through for me I really need her help to get Cowen. I don't want to waste State's resources by dragging the case

My phone rang it was unknown number

Me: Bonita speaking

I sat down and took off my shoes

Voice: Miss Mokoena It's Daisy

I was shocked to see this young lady on my door step saying that she is willing to help with the case. It was very brave of her to approach me. At first I was against her idea of working as undercover but she convinced me that she will be careful. Seeing that Cowen has eyes everywhere I asked her to not come anywhere close to me whatever she has to say will be over the phone. I don't want to risk her life

Me: How did it go?

Her: Well I got the job

I closed my eyes and sighed loudly

Her: It wasn't hard which is making me doubt Cowen's intentions

Me: You think he might be onto you?

Her: I just don't trust me; my instincts tell me to no let my guard down

Me: Exactly how I feel. Here's what I need you to do first find your feet before you can snoop around. In whatever you do don't show him that you are scared. Block anything that can make him suspicious

Her: I will do that. I have to go

Me: Daisy?

Her: Mh

Me: Be careful

DAISY

I set my phone on the table

Chloe walked in few minutes later

Her: Daisy... You have no idea how scared I was. You took longer than what we anticipated

Me: Relax we did it

She sat down

Her: You got the job?

Me: I did and no one is suspicious of me. Or so I think...

Her: Don't think be sure. I don't want your brother to question me when you are murdered

Me: Stop with the drama no one is dying here.
Don't underestimate me Chloe

Her: Hay suka!

Me: You said something about my brother?

Her: He was looking for you

Me: What did you say to him?

Her: What we agreed on don't worry he bought our story

Me: Okay. I talked with the Detective and there's no going back

Her: I applaud you what you are doing is scary and heavy

Me: I am braver than I let on Chloe

COWEN

I looked at her and clenched my jaw

Her: What?

She acknowledged my presence

Her: Why are you looking at me like that?

Me: I am thinking

Her: Do you want me to force it out?

I stepped closer to her

Me: Are you fucking with me?

Her: Huh? I am not

Me: You are sure that you are back here because you want to?

Her: Other than you threatening me? Yes

She was avoiding eye contact with me. Oh Naomi!

I grabbed her arm

Me: If I find that you are lying to me I will make you pay Naomi and that is a promise

Her: Let go of my arm

I let go of her arm

She opened the drawer and took out papers

Her: The divorce papers...

I took them and tore them apart

Me: That wasn't hard now was it?

She clicked her tongue

Her: Now stop with your threats. I am here and I am not leaving you

She stood up

Me: Not so fast

I pinned her against the closet

Me: I want you so bad

Her: No Cowen I am tired

Me: I wasn't asking

I tore her shirt and squeezed her breast

Me: You will not deny me my right you are my wife and what I am doing is right

Me: Dammit

Shane: Mommy?

Me: Go and attend to him

NOMTHANDAZO

Me: Thank you for the treat the way I am full. It's not even funny

Life laughed

Him: If I don't feed you who is going to?

Me: No one but you my brother

Him: Let me massage your legs

He took them into his lap and started massaging them

Me: Oh the feeling is out of this world...

Him: I charge by hour just so you know

I laughed

Him: Before I forget Daisy asked if she can see you

Me: What makes her think I would agree to see her?

Him: I know what I am about to say will sound crazy but it is the truth. Since my mother passed on Daisy is a different person she has shown me another side of her I didn't know existed

Me: In other words you are saying Daisy has changed?

Him: As crazy as it sounds yes

Me: I refuse to believe that. Daisy will never change how is it possible?

Him: I don't know how but it happened

I shook my head and laughed in disbelief

Me: Okay tell her to come around. She is my sister after all

Him: We don't choose family sister

Me: Unfortunately. Talking about family when last did you talk with your Uncle?

Him: It's been days when last did you talk with your Uncle?

Him: It's been days he last call asking for money to buy Electricity

When I called my father to tell him about what has happened I thought he would come but that sorry of a father gave me excuse of money. Life is right we can't choose family; my father is definitely the proof of that

Him: I was thinking I will see him

Me: You don't wanna know his excuse. I gave up on that man

My cell phone rang it was Tebego

Me: Buddy

Him: I hope I am not disturbing

Me: Not at all I am just chilling with Life

Him: Greet him for me please

Me: I will... What's up?

Him: I am the one who called I should be asking that not the other way around

We both laughed

Me: Stupid!

Him: Anyway I just wanted to tell you that I've decided to stay your words hit home and a person should learn to listen and take advices

Me: That's amazing I am glad you took that decision

Him: I might have just saved my relationship

Me: I am sure you did

Him: We will talk; I just wanted to let you know. See you around

Me: Sharp

I hung up

Me: Tebogo said hi

Life: Tebogo Motaung?

Me: The one and only. He is back I bumped into him yesterday

Him: It's been long. Oh he is the friend who fed you?

Me: Yes

I ran my eyes around

Me: Let's gossip before Amara come and join us

Him: You and gossip...

Me: Listen man that lady I told you about is back and I think we should take Amara to her

Him: Mtha you should be focusing on her health. We will deal with Amara later

Me: No Life I wanna take my mind off things. I want to do this

NAOMI

I tucked Shane into sleep as he was having difficult time in sleeping... I kissed his forehead and walked out of his bedroom

I made my way to the bedroom I found Cowen sleeping. I am about to risk my life right now but if I really want Cowen arrested I will have to do this... I slowly closed the door and made my way to his study

Me: God show me something please. I am doing this for Tebello

I opened his drawers and flipped through the files...
I stumbled upon the file that was set aside

Me: God help me

I captured the information that was on the file fast I don't know what is but hopefully it will come in handy

(Footsteps)

No no! I placed the file back and hide under the table

The door opened he closed it and sat down

Him: Come out Naomi

Did he saw me? Is he aware of what I am doing?

Him: You can't hide from me. I know you are in here

I crawled and looked at him

He is going to kill me. Why did I think I will be able to trick him? It's obvious he tricked me

Him: What are you doing in here?

Me: I wanted to be far from you

I can't let him know what I am doing here

He stood up

Him: You are testing me Naomi

He grabbed me by the neck and slapped me across the face

Me: I only wanted to sleep in here

Him: Since when do you sleep in my study? We have plenty of rooms in here. I did say you are playing me Naomi and I was right

He took the belt that was on the couch and started to whip my back

Him: Why are you doing this to me baby? Huh tell me

He kept on whipping my back. My face is off limits Cowen has never touched my face except slaps that come once in a while. It's always my body that take the pain

Him: Look at me! I said look at me

I looked at him

Him: Don't you dare make noise my children are sleeping

He kicked me on the stomach; I fell down on my stomach. He pressed his foot on my neck

Me: Co... Cowen please!

Him: I decided to give you the benefit of the doubt but you are only here to fuck me over

I was now struggling to breathe he pressed his foot harder

Him: You are ungrateful and stupid! I should have killed you long time ago but I decided to give you chance

I was now in pool of my own blood; I was bleeding through the noise and coughing blood. He whipped me again this time he took all his anger on me. He kept on whipping me

Me: Cowen...

Him: You make me do this sweetheart I don't want to but you don't listen...

Me: I am sorry (Crying)

He got on top of me and kissed me... He moved his hand on my tummy and squeezed breast

Him: I am going to make you pay next time you will think twice before you decide to betray me

He twisted my clit and inserted his finger inside of me... he took off his briefs and shoved himself

inside of me

I felt my coochie tearing I was so dry and he didn't even care about any of that

NOMTHANDAZO

I was sitting on the floor naked a razor was resting in my hand; I silted my wrists and closed my eyes. I took in the pain and cried

Truth is I am not coping; I've been emotional blackmailing everyone to think I am coping. Talking is pointless when situation won't change... I feel like I am one step close to peace. I am finding peace in pain. One moment I feel happy one moment I am feeling sad

Me: Unfortunately. Talking about family when last did you talk with your Uncle?

Him: It's been days when last did you talk with your Uncle?

When I called my father to tell him about what has happened I thought he would come but that sorry of a father gave me excuse of money. Life is right we can't choose family; my father is definitely the proof of that

Him: I was thinking I will see him

Me: You don't wanna know his excuse. I gave up on that man

My cell phone rang it was Tebego

Me: Buddy

Him: I hope I am not disturbing

Me: Not at all I am just chilling with Life

Him: Greet him for me please

Me: I will... What's up?

Him: I am the one who called I should be asking that not the other way around

Me: Stupid!

Him: Anyway I just wanted to tell you that I've decided to stay your words hit home and a person should learn to listen and take advices

Me: That's amazing I am glad you took that decision

Him: I might have just saved my relationship

Me: I am sure you did

Him: We will talk; I just wanted to let you know. See you around

Me: Sharp

I hung up

Me: Tebogo said hi

Life: Tebogo Motaung?

Me: The one and only. He is back I bumped into him yesterday

Him: It's been long. Oh he is the friend who fed you?

Me: Yes

I ran my eyes around

Me: Let's gossip before Amara come and join us

Him: You and gossip...

Me: Listen man that lady I told you about is back and I think we should take Amara to her

Him: Mtha you should be focusing on her health. We will deal with Amara later

Me: No Life I wanna take my mind off things. I want to do this

NAOMI

I tucked Shane into sleep as he was having difficult time in sleeping... I kissed his forehead and walked out of his bedroom

I made my way to the bedroom I found Cowen sleeping. I am about to risk my life right now but if I really want Cowen arrested I will have to do this... I slowly closed the door and made my way to his study

Me: God show me something please. I am doing this for Tebello

I opened his drawers and flipped through the files... I stumbled upon the file that was set aside

Me: God help me

I captured the information that was on the file fast I don't know what is but hopefully it will come in handy

(Footsteps)

No no! I placed the file back and hide under the table

Him: Come out Naomi

Did he saw me? Is he aware of what I am doing?

I crawled and looked at him

He is going to kill me. Why did I think I will be able to trick him? It's obvious he tricked me

Him: What are you doing in here?

I can't let him know what I am doing here

He stood up

Him: You are testing me Naomi

He grabbed me by the neck and slapped me across the face

Me: I only wanted to sleep in here

Him: Since when do you sleep in my study? We have plenty of rooms in here. I did say you are playing me Naomi and I was right

He took the belt that was on the couch and started to whip my back

Him: Why are you doing this to me baby? Huh tell me

He kept on whipping my back. My face is off limits Cowen has never touched my face except slaps that come once in a while. It's always my body that take the pain

Him: Look at me! I said look at me

I looked at him

Him: Don't you dare make noise my children are sleeping

He kicked me on the stomach; I fell down on my stomach. He pressed his foot on my neck

Me: Co... Cowen please!

Him: You are ungrateful and stupid! I should have killed you long time ago but I decided to give you chance

I was now in pool of my own blood; I was bleeding through the noise and coughing blood. He whipped me again this time he took all his anger on me. He kept on whipping me

Me: Cowen...

Him: You make me do this sweetheart I don't want to but you don't listen...

He got on top of me and kissed me... He moved his hand on my tummy and squeezed breast

Him: I am going to make you pay next time you will think twice before you decide to betray me

He twisted my clit and inserted his finger inside of me... he took off his briefs and shoved himself inside of me

I was sitting on the floor naked a razor was resting in my hand; I silted my wrists and closed my eyes. I took in the pain and cried

Truth is I am not coping; I've been emotional blackmailing everyone to think I am coping. Talking is pointless when situation won't change... I feel like I am one step close to peace. I am finding peace in pain. One moment I feel happy one moment I am feeling sad

Last night I didn't get any sleep I kept on turning and tossing. It was as if someone was cutting my insides the feeling was very intense

I switched on the kettle and rested my arms on the kitchen counter... Amy made her way to the kitchen

Her: Morning Grams

Me: Morning nana

Her: You look tired you didn't get any sleep?

Me: I didn't. I was up all night

Her: Are you coming down with cold?

Me: I wish I knew

Her: I will get you some remedies you can't afford cold

Me: Thank you nana

Her: I am going to fetch Amber today I have prepared her room

Me: There's Amber Yoh problems don't end

The doctor said she can come home but must be in bed rest. Amber is very shattered and broken when she learnt about her brother's death she broke down. The whole hospital felt her pain even the nurses cried. To see her crying like that evoked pain and memories. My family is broken; we are going to need a miracle to survive this

Me: Where is your brother?

Her: Haven't seen him

The sharp pain pierced again in my heart

Me: Ouch...

Her: Grams are you fine?

Me: I just felt this sharp pain but it faded quickly

Her: Maybe it's the stress. The past few days were not easy; your heart might be failing

Me: Let's hope it's not that

I walked downstairs

The children were already sitting at the table having their breakfast; it means Martha is here already.

Martha is in her 50s I've always preferred someone old to work for me they don't bring problems. But I decided to take a chance with Daisy I couldn't chase her away especially at the state she was in

Me: Morning kids

Them: Morning daddy

Me: You are already eating without me

They laughed

Rethabile: Where is mom?

Me: Still sleeping she is not feeling well

Shane: Can I go and see her?

Me: No let her rest. You will see her after school

I managed to find school for Shane it wasn't hard to. As the saying goes money talks

Martha walked to the kitchen

Me: Martha can you please come here?

Her: Yes Sir

Me: There's someone who will be starting today you will show her the house. Like everything what is expected of her-what to do and not to do

Her: Okay Sir

Me: Don't worry about your salary it's still the same

She nodded

Her: Should I take something to Madam? I haven't seen her...

Me: No I will prepare something for her. You can go ahead and start with your work

I scratched my head and looked at Lungelo

Him: So just like that we are cancelling the mission?

Me: It seems so. I can't afford to send Grams to an early grave

Him: I can still do it for you. Clean job straight

Me: I don't expect you to do that Lungs

Him: I can't watch you suffer like this when I can help

I ran my eyes to the entry

Me: Am I being tested?

Him: What?

Me: Daisy... I really have no time for her please tell her to leave

She made her way to us

She stood in front of us and cleared her throat

Her: Can I please have a word with you?

Him: I don't think that's a good idea

Her: Astor please I am not here for myself. I want to offer you justice

I looked at her

Me: What did you say?

Her: I am here to help you catch the person who killed your brother

I looked at Lungelo and then Daisy

Me: What are you?

Her: Question is; can I trust you?

Me: If you know something about Tebello's killer tell me now Daisy

Him: Calm down Astor

Her: Today I am starting to work as a maid at Cowen's house. But I am not just a maid; I am working for the police

Me: Are you insane? I know you are not my favourite person at the moment but risking your life?

Him: Yeah it's insane

Her; It's anything but insane

Me: Why are you doing this?

Her: I want justice for Tebello I loved him Astor and his soul will never rest until his killers are behind bars

Me: You can't blame me when I say I don't trust you

Her: And I don't blame you. I've done some pretty bad things and I'd like to forget about them

Him: You are sure about this?

Her: I am

Me: How is it going to work?

Her: My aim is to find something that connect Cowen to the murder

Me: Cowen is not stupid

Her: You will be surprised. I've already stumbled upon things that can be used against him he is human and mistakes are bound to happened

Me: Okay...

Her: You will wait for me to contact you don't try and reach out. I still don't trust Cowen and I am sure he doesn't trust me. When I find something I will send it to you and the Detective also my wish is to find the Assassins' details fast so that you can beat the truth out of him

Me: The Assassin?

Her: Long story but let me fill you in Me: You better not be playing tricks with us because I won't like it one bit

She shrugged her shoulders

Me: Fill me in...

The Captain called me to his office. I wish I knew what he wanted better not be about the case

I knocked and opened the door

Me: Morning Sir

There was another man with him in the office

Captain: Please take a seat Detective Mokoena

I sat down and greeted the young man

Captain: Let me not waste time meet Tebogo Motaung he will be working with you as of today. He is our new Jnr Detective

I extended my hand for a handshake; I just pray I am not working with a person who is going to sink me deep

Him: Looking forward to work with you Detective

Me: Me too

Captain: If I may ask how is the latest case coming along?

Me: Still struggling with evidence and waiting for the Warrant

Captain: I trust you with this case Mokoena

I like to believe the Captain is not under Cowen's payroll he always try to make sure justice is served where it's needed

Me: I am working on that Captain: That's all. You can leave my office now

We stood up and walked out

Me: Detective Motaung welcome to the team

Him: Thank you. Which case are we solving?

I looked at him

Me: What/how do you know about the corruption in this Station?

Him: A lot. The same corruption you are talking about killed my mother she tried to fight it but she didn't win the battle. She was killed in duty

Me: I am happy to know I am working with someone who is against corruption. And I am sorry about your mother

Him: I stand for justice and truth. Life goes on Me: Let's get to work

We walked into my office

DAISY

I finished reading the Contract and looked at Cowen

Me: I am okay with everything

Him: You sure? I don't like my employees to be unhappy

I signed and placed the pen on top of the envelope

I am earning a fortune rich people and flourishing money

Me: I am happy Sir trust me

Him: Call me Cowen please

Me: Okay Sir... Cowen

Him: It will take time but will get there. Martha is going to show you around the house and then you start working

Me: Okay

Him: I am hardly in the house and when I am I don't like to be disturbed. My wife is the only one who is allowed to enter my study unless I call you

I nodded

That's what you think!

Him: Since we don't have Camera's in the house make sure you don't open for anyone first check with the Security if you are feeling uneasy about the visitor

Me: Noted

Him: That's all. You can go to Martha. I am going now

He stood up

Him: Have a great day

He walked away

I ran my eyes around the house. I found Martha cleaning the kitchen

Me: Good morning

She turned around and smiled at me

Her: Welcome Miss Daisy

Me: Thank you. Is there anything I can help with?

Her: Yes you can start by preparing lunch for Madam

Lunch now? What are we cooking?

Me: Talking about Madam where is she? I thought

Her: She is not feeling well

She looked away

Me: Is everything okay I saw her yesterday

Her: Sir said she is not feeling good. Probably one of those days

Me: What did you say?

Her: Mh? I was just thinking out loud

Me: Martha I don't know you but I can feel you are hiding something from me. What is it?

I might be pushing it but my instincts are telling me to ask

Her: It's not my place to say Daisy but Eish... This house is full of secrets some are deadly

This might be a trap from Cowen let me tread well

Me: I am sure it's not that bad... What are we cooking?

I balanced my hand on the couch and got up

We prayed and God listened...

The door opened

Amy: Grams?

Me: Mh

Her: Did I disturb you?

Me: No I was done praying. Are they back?

Her: No but I talked with Astor few minutes ago.
They should be here soon

Me: I am coming; you can go ahead and start setting the table

Her: Okay Grams

She closed the door

I took my phone and rang Amber

Her: Grams

Me: How are you feeling?

Her: I feel good can finally sleep peaceful. We finally got what we've been waiting and praying for Me: Amen to that... Now we can finally move on

Her: You are right Grams. How is Aunty Naomi?

Me: They are on the way back to the house

Her: I wonder how she is feeling; people are talking in social media saying all sort of things

Me: We can never stop people from talking. They are best when it comes to that your Aunty will have to be strong and face them

Her: With you by her side she will definitely make it

Me: If you are not busy come by the house. We are having Lunch

HANNAH

The threats are now getting out of hand Amahle's mother is vowing to hurt my son and we have no choice but to pray for him and lift off the curse

We are at Light & Peace church

Prophet Zuri: Do you think it's a good idea for his wife to be present?

I looked at Amahle who was sitting near the Podium

Me: It's best she is here

Zivai made his way to us

Zivai: You are ready?

Me: Yes

Zivai: I'll go and sit over there

I took the bible and walked up to Sky

Me: Come son

Prayer is a mighty weapon in the battle of good and evil... and nothing can defeat a prayer

Sky knelt before me

Me: Psalm: 118:17 "I shall not die but live and declare the works of the LORD"

I put my hand on Sky's head

Me: I pray for evil spirit that is embodied in this body to leave at this instant you have no business in this body. God I ask for your hand reach out to your son. Release him from any spirit... I pray for any plots that were made by his name it can be against his flesh or his marriage. I pray in your name Father

Sky stood up and yanked my arm

Sky: I don't know why you keep on meddling in my affairs I've warned you but you didn't listen

Me: You have no business in this body out in Jesus name! Out!

Sky: Do you know what I've done to finally reach this stage? I sacrificed a lot to get them separated. Amahle will never be a mother I sacrificed with her womb. I cursed their love and you will never undo what I've done

He threw his hand in the air

Sky: My daughter will leave your son and I will not stop until that happens. So let me be (Shouts)

Me: I command you to leave this body and their marriage alone. I cut anything that ties you to Sky and Amahle

Sky: I will never never

Me: I command you in one powerful name! Out...
Leave and go back where you come from

Sky fell on the floor and rolled

Me: No one can stand between what God has blessed He blessed this marriage and you will not separate them. Evil will never win

My phone rang it was Daisy

Honestly speaking Daisy is gunning for Best sister of the year. With no doubt I am sure Joyce is turning in her grave. It's true what they say about mothers corrupting their children's mind is what they hear from them that makes them behave... Daisy has turned to be someone I can rely on and have a talk with without even thinking twice

Her: Nana

Me: Big sis

Her: I was watching the news; I am over the moon about the outcomes

Me: You have no idea how I am feeling right now it feels unreal

Her: Best believe it because it is real

Me: Bit if credit goes to you hauw

She laughed

Her: Stop it! I am just glad the risks were worth it...

Me: You are right... Enough about that when are you coming back to visit? I miss you

Her: I thought you will say I am coming to visit you

Me: Me

Her: What's wrong with Gauteng?

Me: I've never been to Gauteng yoh! I don't want to get lost

Her: There's a first for everything

AMAHLE

As much as it hurt but the truth will never change.
My own mother is a witch; she is behind my tears...
How can she do this to me? Her own flesh and blood? I spent years crying and telling her my pain of failing to fall pregnant. All this time she knew what was the reason and not once did she feel bad.
She pretended to feel my pain meanwhile she is the cause of that pain. My marriage nearly failed because of her. I will never find it in my heart to forgive her for this act

I took one step forward and put my hand on Sky

Me: Skat

Sky raised his head and smiled faintly

Him: Sthandwa

I sat next to him

Me: I am sorry this had to happened to you if you didn't meet me none of this would have happened

Him: You also didn't know what your mother's capability

Me: I am feeling so ashamed right now; I can't even look into your parents eyes

Him: They are used to this it's nothing new

Me: But they have never dealt with a daughter-in-law like me I am coming with lot of baggage

Him: Don't stress yourself about that

He kissed me

Me: In church? (Giggles)

Him: We are married even God knows

My phone rang

I looked at Sky

Me: It's my father

Him: Go ahead and answer

He held my hand

Me: Baba

Dad: Mahle sorry to call you but there's problem here

Me: What's wrong?

Dad: It's your mother she is admitted to hospital

Me: What's wrong with her?

Dad: We don't know now but we are on our way to the hospital I just wanted to let you know

Me: Please keep me updated

He hung me

Sky: What's wrong?

Me: My mother is admitted they don't know what's wrong with her

NAOMI

I spent the rest of my day with my family and it was one of the best days of my life... For once I forgot about my problems but now I need to have a talk with the kids

They already aware of what has happened it's very hard hiding things from children when there's social media

I sat on the edge of the bed; Shane was busy with his books

Me: Can I have a talk with you?

He dropped his pen on the table... Rethabile sat on the couch

Me: I am sure you've seen and read what is being said about me and your father

They nodded

Me: Some are true but some are not. Reporters are just saying things to get paid that is why I need you to hear this from me so that you don't get confused

Shane: Is it true dad is no longer coming back? Kids from school have been sending me memes and calling you names

I sighed loudly

Me: Yes dad won't be coming back home anytime soon. He is paying for his actions and seeing him is going to be hard

Shane's eyes welled up

Retha: Good riddance

Me: But as time goes on you can go and visit him but not anytime soon. Now it's only the three of us

Shane: Okay mommy (Low voice)

Me: Bile you are so quiet?

Retha: I was ready for this mommy we just have to accept it and move on with our lives

COWEN

Warden: Move it!

He pushed me

Me: Is there need for that?

Warden: Stop talking and keep on walking

The minute the inmates saw me they started shouting and calling out my name. You'd swear they've been waiting for me

Inmate: Look who is finally here

Warden: They know about you they watch TV in here

Inmate 2: The mighty Mayor welcome home

They shook the cells and kept on shouting

Inmate 1: New meat

Warden: Shut up prisoner!

The Warden unlocked the cell and unchained me

Warden: Get inside your new room...

He looked to the guy who is inside the cell

Warden: Say hi to your new cellmate. Just so you know he enjoys the back more

The guard gave me a towel and a pillow

Warden: See you Mr Mayor

He locked the cell and walked away

Cellmate: I love what I see

I kept quiet

I put my things on lower bed

Cellmate: Welcome to your worst nightmare

I noticed how his body was tattooed; he got a huge scar below his left eye

Cellmate: I can make your first night wild and joyful no need for blood spill. What do you say?

I walked to the kitchen with plates in my hands

Astor followed me to the kitchen

Me: My teddy bear following me around need a hug?

He laughed

Him: Keep on doing that Nono I dare you to

I put the plates in the sink

He hugged me from behind

Him: Now you don't know how to talk? Mrs Teddy bear?

Me: You like taking chances so I just let you be

He held on me tight

Him: You smelling nice

Me: Stop seducing me (Laughs)

Him: I am not... I got tickets for movies tomorrow

Me: You asking me out?

He loosen the grip

Him: No I am taking Lungs out

I turned around and laughed

Me: I'd love to go with you

My phone rang

Him: I'd rather go alone Nono

I winked at him

Me: Mahle

Her: My mother is dead

I widened my eyes

Me: What did you say?

Her: Baba just called me now they couldn't save her

Me: I am sorry Cuz

Her: I don't even know how to feel right now

Aunty Mpume was warned

[ONE YEAR LATER]

I opened my eyes slowly and smiled whilst leaning for a kiss

Her: Lover

Me: Wake up

Her: No I just need few minutes of sleep. Please (Whispers)

Me: Really?

I ran my fingers on her belly button

She giggled and

Her: Stop it I am trying to rest

Me: You have rested and it's enough

She opened her eyes

Me: Morning

Her: Morning care to tell me why you are disturbing me so early in the morning?

Me: We have an event to prepare and you owe me something

I bit my lower lip and raised my eyebrow

Her: You woke me up because I owe you something? You are not serious...

Me: Dead serious

I slowly pulled the duvet and got on top of her

Me: You know you can't resist me

Her: I can never

I stared into her eyes and cupped her face

Me: I love you Nono

She put her arms around my neck as her breathe warms my neck. Her tits were pointing at me sight to sore eyes. I lifted her hips and moved my hands on her thighs. There's no time I make love to this woman and not want more it's the way she screams my name that makes my dick to harden. Running my hands on her naked body kissing her all the way down whilst she moans my name in between. I slowly parted her thighs and went down on her. As my tongue starts playing with her clit she moans my name

Her: Astor oh! (Whispers)

I circled my tongue around her clit leaving my saliva... I moved my hand to her tit and squeezed it my head still buried deep in her wet pussy. There's nothing I love than eating her smooth shaved pussy in the morning how it is always ready for me. With her pussy on my face I kept on eating it gently

Her: Oh baby don't stop (Screams moans) aah!

Her: Oh shit! Mh

She glanced on my dick as I slowly enter her pussy...
I pressed my lips against her; with our lips still kissing I shoved my whole dick inside her

Her: Ah...

She moaned in between the kiss and I knew I entered right. This woman is my whole life she is all
I ever wanted on a lady and now that I have her-I will live to please her at all times.

Her warm pussy accommodated my dick; I felt my dick resting inside her pussy. I went on slowly and gently

Me; You are so tight Nono oh God!

I love making love to this pussy; I love how it is always ready for me. I lifted her hips and squeezed her ass as I went harder on her. I started pounding faster and faster she dug her nails on my chest. Followed by my name escaping her mouth I know I am doing the right thing when she moans my name. No matter how hard she tries to she knows she can never win my dick always hit the right spot leaving her to call out my name

Her: Uh... uh! Astor oh! This is... is too nice Uh...
(Moans) don't stop

I am planning to... I pulled out and rubbed my dick against her clit she lowered her hand and pleased herself. She started playing with her clit; I lifted my one leg and balanced the other one on the pillow... I pushed in my dick again and started going in and out slowly leaving her to want more. I shoved my entire dick inside her and leaned for a kiss still buried deep inside her we played with our tongues. Breathing the same breath I stared deep into her eyes and started moving inside her slowly. Her eyes are filled with so much pleasure she bit her lower lip

She grabbed the sheets and curled her toes... I pulled out and spread her legs; her pussy was more open to my eyes. I inserted my finger and gently played it inside her. Her pussy is already filled with milky cum; I leaned and kissed her again... With her legs still spread wide I held my dick and pushed in

Her: Oh... Uh

I moved my hand to her breast and massaged it... she was now breathing heavily

Her: This is too nice Astor oh don't and don't stop

speed

Me: Fuck baby!

Me: Oh fuck Nono I am about to nut

AMARA

Me: Babe stop dragging your legs I am already late for work

I said to Life as we walked out of the Pharmacy... LJ was resting on his chest whilst sucking his tiny fingers

Him: You can go ahead I will call an Uber. You can take the car; I can't be driving in hurry with two children

Me: No I want to make sure you and the kids are fine

Him: Sweetheart you need to have little faith in me. Your mother is already at the house to help me and I am sure the medication is doing a number on LJ. He is sleeping as you can see

I put my hand on LJ's forehead

Me: His temperature is fine now

Life looked at me and smiled faintly

Him: You see? You have nothing to stress about

My pregnancy was one of the hardest things in my life not even when I was pregnant with Calvin did I experience that... It was a battle of life and death I still remember very well the day I was delivering. It was like the Universe called out the demons to come and fight me I fought a battle I never knew thought existed. I always heard about people fighting spirits and what I saw was near death experience. I am forever grateful to the Keith's what they did to me is unforgettable. They prayed for me whilst I was delivering the whole hospital stood still and joined forces of fighting the evil spirits that were hovering around because what was happening was battle of Devil. Joyce was serious about taking my child she was adamant about snatching his soul the minute he arrived in this world but God was not having any of that... He made the impossible possible after all his word is law. My son was born healthy and well we named him Life Junior... Our lives changed for better since that day my relationship with Life just blossomed and we grew to be the best parents to our children. Now we are just waiting for our son to turn a year then we can start planning our wedding. He paid Lobola for me a week after LJ was born; I would never change what I have now for anything in the world

Him: I will take Calvin to school and I will head home after that

Me: Calvin daddy will take you to school. Okay?

Calvin: Fine mommy

I kissed Life

Me: I love you

Him: I love you too

Every day I wake up with a huge smile on my face just thinking about everything that God has done for me is enough to invite smile on my face. I am now doing my first year in Law at UNISA; I sometimes spend weekends at the firm alongside Amber just learning the basics. Amber has finished with her studies and she has recently started practicing. She is finally working at the firm as divorce lawyer and she has also sold 10% of her shares to Romeo. Romeo has really been helping in keeping the firm up float talking about true friends... I've made huge progress on my health as well; I am no longer depending on antidepressant

I walked out of the shower and put on a shirt...
Astor was lying in the bed facing the ceiling

Astor and I finally decided to make our relationship official six months ago I can say at that time I felt the need to accept his love and move on with my life. There was no room to hold things back-the chemistry was there and everyone gave us their blessings. Well except for Amber at first she was against the whole thing but as time goes she opened her heart and gave us her blessings. Today it's Amy's birthday and her husband is planning on surprising her. I always underestimated young love/marriage until I witnessed Tebogo and Amy's love. There's no such thing as young love/marriage it's all in the head. Your committed is what matters in a relation

My mother has been helping me; sometime she comes with her church ladies and just lift their spirits with word of God... Karma has dealt with Cowen in a remarkable way; he was shot in attempt of escaping. It resulted in him being crippled; the kids stopped visiting him after learning about his acts

Her: You need something?

Me: Yeah we have a girl that just arrived and she is not in good shape. I think you should go to her

Her: Was she beaten?

Me: Yes

She sighed loudly

Her: This will never end

Me: We are here to make sure it ends it might be coming slow but it will soon

Her: Let me go to her

My phone rang; it's my ex-husband Tebza. He reached out few months ago saying asking if I was doing fine after the whole fiasco. And from there we just started talking more I even begged him to seek help and go to rehab. I was surprised to hear from him but he said he forgave me long time ago and I've paid for my sins

Me: Hey

[ONE YEAR LATER]

I opened my eyes slowly and smiled whilst leaning
for a kiss

Me: Wake up

Her: No I just need few minutes of sleep. Please (Whispers)

Me: Really?

I ran my fingers on her belly button

She giggled and

Her: Stop it I am trying to rest

Me: You have rested and it's enough

She opened her eyes

Me: Morning

Her: Morning care to tell me why you are disturbing me so early in the morning?

Me: We have an event to prepare and you owe me something

I bit my lower lip and raised my eyebrow

Her: You woke me up because I owe you something? You are not serious...

I slowly pulled the duvet and got on top of her

Me: You know you can't resist me

Her: I can never

Me: I love you Nono

She put her arms around my neck as her breathe warms my neck. Her tits were pointing at me sight to sore eyes. I lifted her hips and moved my hands on her thighs. There's no time I make love to this woman and not want more it's the way she screams my name that makes my dick to harden. Running my hands on her naked body kissing her all the way down whilst she moans my name in between. I slowly parted her thighs and went down on her. As my tongue starts playing with her clit she moans my name

Her: Astor oh! (Whispers)

I circled my tongue around her clit leaving my saliva... I moved my hand to her tit and squeezed it my head still buried deep in her wet pussy. There's nothing I love than eating her smooth shaved pussy in the morning how it is always ready for me. With her pussy on my face I kept on eating it gently

Her: Oh baby don't stop (Screams moans) aah!

I raised my head and kissed her thigh going up to her tummy... I left kisses on her body aiming to her breasts. I started sucking her nipple her hand moved to my dick. She circled my dick around her hand she massaged it slowly. I continued sucking her nipple; she continued with hand job until aimed for her mouth and kissed. I couldn't wait any longer to be inside her but making her body ready for me

is more important

She glanced on my dick as I slowly enter her pussy...
I pressed my lips against her; with our lips still

Her: Ah...

She moaned in between the kiss and I knew I entered right. This woman is my whole life she is all
I ever wanted on a lady and now that I have her-I
will live to please her at all times.

Her warm pussy accommodated my dick; I felt my dick resting inside her pussy. I went on slowly and

Me; You are so tight Nono oh God!

I love making love to this pussy; I love how it is always ready for me. I lifted her hips and squeezed her ass as I went harder on her. I started pounding faster and faster she dug her nails on my chest. Followed by my name escaping her mouth I know I am doing the right thing when she moans my name. No matter how hard she tries to she knows she can never win my dick always hit the right spot leaving her to call out my name

Her: Uh... uh! Astor oh! This is... is too nice Uh...
(Moans) don't stop

I am planning to... I pulled out and rubbed my dick

against her clit she lowered her hand and pleased herself. She started playing with her clit; I lifted my one leg and balanced the other one on the pillow... I pushed in my dick again and started going in and out slowly leaving her to want more. I shoved my entire dick inside her and leaned for a kiss still buried deep inside her we played with our tongues. Breathing the same breath I stared deep into her eyes and started moving inside her slowly. Her eyes are filled with so much pleasure she bit her lower lip

She grabbed the sheets and curled her toes... I pulled out and spread her legs; her pussy was more open to my eyes. I inserted my finger and gently played it inside her. Her pussy is already filled with milky cum; I leaned and kissed her again... With her legs still spread wide I held my dick and pushed in

I moved my hand to her breast and massaged it... she was now breathing heavily

Me: Fuck baby!

Me: Oh fuck Nono I am about to nut

Me: Babe stop dragging your legs I am already late for work

I said to Life as we walked out of the Pharmacy... LJ was resting on his chest whilst sucking his tiny fingers

Him: You can go ahead I will call an Uber. You can take the car; I can't be driving in hurry with two children

Me: No I want to make sure you and the kids are fine

Him: Sweetheart you need to have little faith in me.
Your mother is already at the house to help me and I am sure the medication is doing a number on LJ.
He is sleeping as you can see

I put my hand on LJ's forehead

Life looked at me and smiled faintly

Him: You see? You have nothing to stress about

My pregnancy was one of the hardest things in my life not even when I was pregnant with Calvin did I experience that... It was a battle of life and death I still remember very well the day I was delivering. It was like the Universe called out the demons to come and fight me I fought a battle I never knew thought existed. I always heard about people fighting spirits and what I saw was near death experience. I am forever grateful to the Keith's what they did to me is unforgettable. They prayed for me whilst I was delivering the whole hospital stood still and joined forces of fighting the evil spirits that were hovering around because what was happening was battle of Devil. Joyce was serious about taking my child she was adamant about snatching his soul the minute he arrived in this world but God was not having any of that... He made the impossible possible after all his word is law. My son was born healthy and well we named him Life Junior... Our lives changed for better since that day my relationship with Life just blossomed and we grew to be the best parents to our children. Now we are just waiting for our son to turn a year then we can start planning our wedding. He paid Lobola for me a week after LJ was born; I would never change what I have now for anything in the world

Him: I will take Calvin to school and I will head home after that

Me: Calvin daddy will take you to school. Okay?

Me: I love you

Him: I love you too

Breathing the same breath I stared deep into her eyes and started moving inside her slowly. Her eyes are filled with so much pleasure she bit her lower lip

She grabbed the sheets and curled her toes... I pulled out and spread her legs; her pussy was more open to my eyes. I inserted my finger and gently played it inside her. Her pussy is already filled with milky cum; I leaned and kissed her again... With her legs still spread wide I held my dick and pushed in

Her: This is too nice Astor oh don't and don't stop

[ONE YEAR LATER]

I opened my eyes slowly and smiled whilst leaning for a kiss

Me: Wake up

Her: No I just need few minutes of sleep. Please (Whispers)

Me: Really?

I ran my fingers on her belly button

She giggled and

Her: Stop it I am trying to rest

Me: You have rested and it's enough

She opened her eyes

Me: Morning

Her: Morning care to tell me why you are disturbing me so early in the morning?

Me: We have an event to prepare and you owe me something

I bit my lower lip and raised my eyebrow

Her: You woke me up because I owe you something? You are not serious...

I slowly pulled the duvet and got on top of her

Me: You know you can't resist me

Her: I can never

Me: I love you Nono

She put her arms around my neck as her breathe warms my neck. Her tits were pointing at me sight to sore eyes. I lifted her hips and moved my hands on her thighs. There's no time I make love to this woman and not want more it's the way she screams my name that makes my dick to harden. Running my hands on her naked body kissing her all the way down whilst she moans my name in between. I slowly parted her thighs and went down on her. As my tongue starts playing with her clit she moans my name

Her: Astor oh! (Whispers)

I circled my tongue around her clit leaving my saliva... I moved my hand to her tit and squeezed it my head still buried deep in her wet pussy. There's nothing I love than eating her smooth shaved pussy in the morning how it is always ready for me. With her pussy on my face I kept on eating it gently

Her: Oh baby don't stop (Screams moans) aah!

I raised my head and kissed her thigh going up to her tummy... I left kisses on her body aiming to her breasts. I started sucking her nipple her hand moved to my dick. She circled my dick around her hand she massaged it slowly. I continued sucking her nipple; she continued with hand job until aimed for her mouth and kissed. I couldn't wait any longer to be inside her but making her body ready for me

is more important

She glanced on my dick as I slowly enter her pussy...
I pressed my lips against her; with our lips still

Her: Ah...

She moaned in between the kiss and I knew I entered right. This woman is my whole life she is all
I ever wanted on a lady and now that I have her-I
will live to please her at all times.

Her warm pussy accommodated my dick; I felt my dick resting inside her pussy. I went on slowly and

gently

Me; You are so tight Nono oh God!

I love making love to this pussy; I love how it is always ready for me. I lifted her hips and squeezed her ass as I went harder on her. I started pounding faster and faster she dug her nails on my chest. Followed by my name escaping her mouth I know I am doing the right thing when she moans my name. No matter how hard she tries to she knows she can never win my dick always hit the right spot leaving her to call out my name

Her: Uh... uh! Astor oh! This is... is too nice Uh...
(Moans) don't stop

against her clit she lowered her hand and pleased herself. She started playing with her clit; I lifted my one leg and balanced the other one on the pillow... I pushed in my dick again and started going in and out slowly leaving her to want more. I shoved my entire dick inside her and leaned for a kiss still buried deep inside her we played with our tongues. Breathing the same breath I stared deep into her eyes and started moving inside her slowly. Her eyes are filled with so much pleasure she bit her lower lip

I made my way to the lounge

If someone had told me a year back that I will be happy the way I am today I would have laughed at them at one point I was just a security guard but not once did I look down on my job. I knew for me to be someone I will have to start somewhere and that's what I did. I had faith and hope for change and that's what I got. Today I am called a father not forgetting a wonderful woman in my life

Nomtha: Where is Cal?

Me: He went to his grandmother

Her: I wish you were coming to the party

Me: Work comes first; I wish I was coming too. And stop sulking because you will be lingering on Astor the whole night

Her: Guilty (Laughs)

She stood up

Her: I am to take a piss I am coming

(Knock on door)

I ran to the door... I opened my mouth and opened my arms for Daisy

Me: Why didn't you say anything? Would have come and fetched you

Her: And ruin the surprise? No thank you

Me: I miss you so much

I broke the hug

Me: Look at you wow Daisy

Her: Come on stop doing that

She ran her eyes around the house

Her: You can tell there's a woman staying in here; it is different from last time I was here

Me: Your sister-in-laws doings we even fought about all this changes but she won in the end

Her: You can never win with women and it's time you accept that

I took bags from her and put them on the couch

Her: Where is my nephew?

Me: Sleeping. He is coming down with cold

Her: Is it serious?

Me: No we took him to the doctor. He should be fine soon

Her: That's better

Me: But there's someone who will be happy to see you

Nomtha: Who are you talking with?

Nomtha asked making her way to us... When her eyes met with Daisy she ran to her arms

Daisy: Hey...

They hugged whilst sobbing

Nomtha: You don't say that you are coming back?
Ha Mosadi why mara?

Daisy: You and your brother are enemies of surprise ha! (Laughs)

They broke the hug

Me: That's what I said to her as well

Nomtha: I am so happy to see you sister

Daisy: I miss you both

Nomtha: Tell me everything how are you? Did you come with someone? Talk Mosadi!

Daisy laughed and sat down

Daisy: Came back alone in department of relationship things are still rough and tight

ASTOR

I darted my eyes to the seller and then Lungelo

Lungs: Stop doubting yourself this ring is beautiful and Nomthandazo is going to love it

Seller: He is right; your girlfriend is going to love it. I'd love to have a ring like this on my finger. It is simple and eye-catching

Me: Why not? Two people can't be wrong

I've decided to ask Nomtha to be my wife I've waited for so long to be with her and I would be stupid to let her slip. I've talked with Tebogo and he doesn't have problem with me proposing to her during the party. Planning something else when there's a ceremony was going to cost me

Seller: Thank you for shopping with us and congratulations

I smiled and took the box from her hand

Lungs: When am I getting a girl again?

Me: How many girls have you turned down? I am starting to think you are Gay

Lungs: Get out of here

Tebogo walked in with bunch of flowers in his hands. I smiled and closed my eyes

Me: Why are you spoiling me like this?

Him: It's your birthday and I am doing what is expected of me. Happy birthday sweetheart

He kissed me

Me: Thank you husband

Him: And why are you not ready? I told you that we are going out

Me: Ah is it really necessary?

Him: What kind of question is that? Of course it is it's your birthday and I promised you something special remember?

Me: I love you so much

Him: I know; I am the best husband. Now go and get ready. We are leaving in an hour

Me: Where are we going exactly?

Him: It's a surprise but I have another surprise before that

I looked at him

He took out car keys and gave them to me

Me: Okay is this what I am thinking it is?

He nodded slowly

Me: Oh my word! Thank you babe

I jumped and ran outside

NOMTHANDAZO

Daisy Amara and I made our way inside the venue

Me: It looks so beautiful

Tebogo really went out to celebrate his wife's birthday. Everything looks beautiful and symbolizes love

Amara: Some people are just lucky Morena

Me: As if you don't get this we know girl so no need to pretend as if this is foreign to you

Daisy: Tell her

Guests were starting to come in numbers and filling the place

Daisy: It feels good to be back at home. I missed feeling like this feeling of belonging

Amara: At some point we thought you'd never come back

Daisy: Ha never home is home sister-in-law

I watched them talking whilst laughing

(Cell phone rings) It's Astor

I moved aside and answered

Me: Lover where are you? Guests are already here but you are nowhere. Even Amy is about to come

Him: About to leave home Grams is not feeling well. Unfortunately she won't make it

Me: Is it serious?

Him: It doesn't seem so; she just started feeling somehow just few hours ago

Me: It doesn't sound well maybe she is reacting to something she has eaten

Him: Maybe. I will see you later I will just wait for her to calm down and sleep

I opened the car door and helped Amy get off

Her: What place is this?

Me: A place your husband knows about

Her: You are full of surprises Mr Motaung

Me: You should know that by now

I held her hand as we made our way inside the venue

The music was playing softly Nomthandazo texted me saying almost everyone who was invited has arrived

Me: Ready?

She nodded whilst smiling

I opened the door and everyone yelled “Surprise”

Me: Happy birthday once sweetheart

Her: Thank you this is beautiful. First the car and now this? Didn't even think you'd do something like this...

“Happy birthday to you” the crowd started singing for Amy

I wheeled my wheelchair in the yard and looked at the warden

I winked at him; he made his way to me

Me: Do you have it?

He nodded and slid the cell phone between my hands

Warden: Make it fast; the guy's number is on speed dial

The money in the offshore account is the one I am using to pay few people inside I've lost everything. My money my children and dignity there's no rising from this but I will make everyone pay especially Naomi. I've waited for the right moment to strike and today their luck has run out

I called the guy... he is Warden's contact I no longer have contacts so seeking help from others seems to be working for me

Me: Are you set?

Him: I am; I got my eyes on the target

Me: I want you to make no mistakes and no one must catch you

Him: I got it covered. It will be a quick and clean job

Me: Sharp

NAOMI

I kept on checking my phone since Astor said mom is not well I've been feeling uneasy. It's also a shame she couldn't attend the party her absence is felt Tebza: Not enjoying the party?

Me: No I am. I am just thinking about my mother. Maybe I should go and check her what do you think?

Tebza: The party just started I am sure she is fine. If you leave Amy will feel sad it's bad enough that Amber is not here so if you leave she is going to feel somehow. We will check on her later

Amber is out of the City handling some case I am so proud of her

Me: I guess you are right

Tebogo took the mic and stood next to Amy

Tebogo: Can I get everyone's attention... Thank you... I just want to thank everyone who managed to honour our invite and come to celebrate my wife's birthday. We are very happy to be celebrating this day with all of you

Amy: My husband is right thank you so much. Your presence means a lot to me to us spending my birthday with family is something precious and for that thank you. Do enjoy the party and drink as much as you want

Everyone: Hear hear! (9Shouts)

Tebogo: While we still at that Astor have something to say. Brother-in-law the stage is yours

Astor stood up and took the mic from Tebogo

Amara: The boyfriend wanna dance with you?

Me: He can't even dance to save his life

Astor made his way to me

Him: May I steal this lady please?

Amara: Go ahead

Me: What are you doing? (Whispers)

Him: Come on stop asking questions

Astor and his games he better not force me to dance because I will never forgive him

Lungelo joined him on the dance floor... mic was also resting in his hand

Astor: First of all I'd like to say happy birthday baby sis may God bless you. Secondly brother-in-law thank you for allowing me to steal the spotlight of your wife

I am getting confused now what is he doing and what is Lungelo doing with Astor on the stage?

Astor: Nono I love you so much

I laughed and looked around

Me: I love you too silly

Astor: This is for you Nono

He started singing with Lungelo by his side

“It’s a beautiful night

We’re looking for something dumb to do

Hey baby

I think I wanna marry you

Is it the look in your eyes

Or is it this dancing juice?

Who cares baby

I think I wanna marry you?"

I covered my mouth with both hands

He went down on his one knee and took out a ring

Him: I don't want to spend another day without you by my side; I want to grow old with you. You are my dream girl and dreams come true look at me today.

Allow me to make you the happiest girl alive and marry me. With that will you marry me?

I nodded slowly

Me: Yes I will marry you Lover

(Crowd cheering)

He slid the ring on my finger and got up

Me: I love you

Him: I adore you

I glanced at the ring and smiled

There's a saying that goes like if Jesus says yes nobody can say no. and that's the naked truth where God is involved no one can tamper with fate. I was once down and out lost hope and planned my painful death. I suffered under the hand of someone who was supposed to take care of me. I thought God had forgotten about me but that was when he showed his power. He rose and rebirth my faith in him. I once again stood in his word and trust his capabilities. Life comes with obstacles there are no shortcuts in life and whatever challenges we come across nothing will ever be beyond our strength. We are stronger than our challenges; your today will never determine your tomorrow. I am the living testimony; the saviour I've been longing for was not a person but God himself

Voice: Amy no! (Shouts)

We turned and followed where the voice was coming from... It belonged to Naomi

She ran to Amy and pushed her resulting to her falling down after that gun shots echoed the room

Astor: Amy! Mom! (Shouts)
