

LISABELLA

Intro:

Today am turning 18 years and lord am so happy. I got up from bed just as a knock came through and my aunt voice.

“ angeke ziziwashi izits ha we sisi” The dishes wont wash themselves. Well this is my life. I have a tiny tin roof house at the back. Well its a storage while my aunt and her kids live in the main house. My parents died when I was 12 in a car accident and let just say life have been lemons ever since. Am basically a maid in my own house. My father trusted his sister to take care of me but long story short. She takes care of her own children with my inheritance. The only good that my father did was creating a schooling fund that makes sure I go to Crawford. One of the best schools in Durban and pays for my tuition and uniform and canteen. School days I only have one meal and that is whatever I buy at school. Weekends I only have dinner and that if any leftovers are there. I clean the house like a slave and I mind my business. I let my aunt speak to me however she wishes and let her children treat me however they see fit. The only thing that has been keeping me sane is knowing that once am 18 I will no longer be considered a child and I can leave. I have been saving a lot. At school i have been allowing kids who have cash to use my card like crazy and pay me ofcause so i have enough to run away. Iv already applied in Johannesburg. Its big and i can be lost in there. So we shall see when January comes if am accepted or not. Iv already saved 10 thousand in a year and of cause i steal the money she leaves lying around in the house. Its my money anyways so its more like taking back what mine. I went outside on the sink and poured water in a bucket than went in my little shack and took a bath. Winter or summer that how I bath. I wore my black leggings and top than tidy up the room and when done I started my day. Luvuyo my cousin daughter who is 8 came. She is the only family I have. The only person who loves me in this family.

Luvuyo: Unjani ncane(how are you aunty) i laughed. She knew I hated being called Ncane.

Me: Am good babe. Wena?(you)

Luvuyo: Am good. She rolled up her sleeves and started helping me with my chores. If it wasn't for her ill be dead of labour.

Luvuyo: mom never came back izolo(yesterday) gogo left after waking you and feeding me a sugarless oats and malume zwe passed out by the sofa drunk.

My aunt kids are spoilt brats. My cousin Thembi has 4 kids. The other 3 are at they different fathers house and luvuyo stays here because her father passed away and the family sent her back. All Thembi knows is having a good time. She has no matric after her mother tried a million times but nothing. Than Zweli. His just a lazy ass. Very smart but just lazy. Then Senzo the oldest. Last time I saw him was when he matriculated and never came back. His the one who planted this idea in my head for the last 6 years. Yes he calls but his calls are always short. We cleaned and i cooked lunch and we at with luvuyo. Yes I eat when no one is home. When done I cleaned and just than the doorbell rang. I walked to the door and there stood two smart looking people. One guy in a black suit and a beautiful lady in a navy pencil skirt and white top.

Them; Hi

Me: Hi and just then a car pulled up and I knew that car. It the car that has the power of having everyone in the house treat me like a human being. It was my father lawyer. I opened the door and they all got in and sat by the dinning area.

Mr khumalo: I called and your aunt said she 5 minute away

Me: cool,i placed the juice and biscuits. J ust than aunt Thandeka walked in panting like a dog. I know she was scared that I might spill her secrets but am not about to ruin my chance of leaving this place. J ust December left and they hardly home than J anuary am off to varsity.

Aunty: sorry to keep you waiting. She kissed my cheek and I stood there frozen the young lady looked at me and then scribbled something down.

Mr khumalo: its okay we were not waiting long.

Aunt Thandeka: is something wrong?

Mr khumalo: Its Lisabella birthday today. She turning 18. I smiled as he took out a tiny red velvet box and pass it over to me. I saw my aunty look at me with evil eyes and I knew this gift wont be mine for ever once khumalo is gone. I opened them and found beautiful silver with diamonds earrings.

Me: wow, They beautiful. Thank you.

Mr khumalo: try them on they from your mother.

I took out the plastic studs I had on and put them on.

Mr Khumalo: you look beautiful

Me: Thank you I blushed. He took out an envelope and gave it to me.

Mr khumalo: That big envelope is for you to read at your own time. Now moving on to bigger things.

I have Miss Ncindi here and Mr Kubheka all the way from J ohannesburg.

Aunty T: J ohannesburg

Mr Khumalo: Yes. Now ill read this testimony from your parents and all will be clear.

Me: Okay.

Mr khumalo: have a seat. I even forgot that i was standing. I sat down and looked at them.

Mr khumalo: well let me begin:

Ill like to thank my sister for being such an amazing soul in taking care of my daughter until she is old enough to become her own woman. For that there is 100 thousand that Will be deposited into your account by end of today.

AuntyT: ow kodwa bhuti.

She smiled as if she just won a million

“ but its now time for her to start her own journey.

There will be no more monthly allowances towards the house as she will be no longer living there”

I looked at the shock on her face. I wonder how much she was getting monthly.

AuntyT: what does he mean no monthly allowance?

Mr Khumalo: Since Lisabella wont be staying here there would be no need for that anymore

AuntyT: where she going? She applying in unisa next year. Going to stay right here and study in unisa. Tell them baby. I kept quiet and looked at Mr Khumalo with my heart doing a mini dance. My dad is taking me out of this hell hole.

“ My beautiful daughter know that all I do for you I do it with a kind heart and always wanting what best for you and your future. Its with a proud heart that I let you know that you are to leave today and leave with the people accompanying Mr khumalo. They are to take you to you new home. And trust me I did this for your own good. I love you”

AuntyT: you can't take her

Mr khumalo: am afraid its done. He passed a paper to her and she looked so shocked.

AuntyT: Married???? The smile on my face disappeared. What does she mean when she says married! Married to who? Married how? I don't have a boyfriend, never had one and how can I be married???

Follow me in my journey. I am Lisabella Johnson but i rather be called Lisa or Bella. This is my story of an arranged marriage to a stranger and how I navigated life after I was thrown to a world I never knew existed.. Hope you enjoy!!!

Insert 1:

The door opened and I looked up and found my older brother walking in looking grim.

Me: What up?

Sipho: well dad wants to see you

Me: And you know why?

Sipho: am not saying anything bro

Me: I thought mom said your loyalty is to me!

Sipho: I knew dad long before I knew you and plus its best you find out from dad not me.

Me: give me a hint.

Sipho: Salizwa!!

I knew when he calls me by that name the conversation is over. So I got up from my chair and walked with him tagging along to my dad office. The minute I got in he closed the windows to dark and the steel widows rolled out. He usually does this when he knows Ill go ballistic and my powers over takes. Last time I changed into a full wolf something we never knew I had in me. J ust than mom emerged from the joining room and she looked frightful with grandma and Aunty J ayla. This is going to be huge for dad to bring all the supernaturals just than Avery walked in with Dion looking like a statue. What have they done now that might made me go crazy. I knew i was the most powerful supernatural in the world and immortal but i will never hurt them, they my family.

Me: dad

Dad: well now that the family is here we will like to talk to you about something. He walked to me holding an envelope.

Mom: Its your birthday in two days and we though it best to give you your gift today.

Dad handed me the envelope . I looked around the silent room tore the envelope and looked in and the first words were Marriage certificate. I looked at it it and saw my name and Lisabella lisakhanya Johnson. They have to be kidding me. Did mom and dad got me married without my consent? Are they for real?

Lisabella

I looked at them and looked at the piece of paper Lizwe Salizwa Musk. That my husband. What is my dad thinking?

Me: I want a divorce

Mr khumalo: That not an option for you

Me: what you mean? People get divorced all the time.

Mr Khumalo: not you

Me: an annulment

Mr khumalo: You married and that it. They here to take you to J ohannesburg. Now that I didn't expect. Now its makes my load a whole lot less. Ill leave with them but run away in the process. 10 thousand is enough for me to live by in one month in the city. Than come J anuary ill be in school.

AuntyT: she just a child. Am her guardian and what you two did is wrong

Mr khumalo: you her foster guardian and that besides the point her father signed on this and that it. Now Please pack your essential and Ill wait here.

Miss Ncindi: Ill help you. My aunt jumped off the chair. I knew she never wanted them to see where going to pack.

AuntyT: Ill help

Mr Khumalo: You have some papers to sign. I got up with my envelope and marriage certificate and walked out the house with Miss Ncindi following me in silence. I got in a packed a few things that I had with fitted in one bag and all my important documents and if cause the money. When done I turned found Miss Ncindi in tears.

Me: Uhm

Miss Ncindi: Am sorry

Me: that what happens when you have no parents. She helped me carry the bags and we bumped into luvuyo crying.

Luvuyo: Take me with you

Me: I can't but I promise you will visit me when school closed.

Luvuyo: they closed now

Me: next time. She hugged me like her life depended on it. We walked in the house and found my aunt crying and I was confused.

Mr khumalo: I just showed your aunt a contract that says if you we're mistreated in her care she loses it all. The house, car and money. Now ill ask you. Were you mistreated? I looked at my aunt. What the point she already hated me so I don't want to fuel her hate.

Me: No. she can have it. I heard Miss Ncindi inhale sharply and i looked at her shake my head no.

Mr khumalo: okay if you say so. He signed something and my aunt sat there shocked. I opened the door and went and stood outside waiting for them to finish up.

Lizwe

Me: Are you guys kidding me right now?

Mom: No, normal people get married and start a family. I laughed at her so loud and she looked hurt but I didn't care right now I was angry.

Me: Mom am not normal. I don't know how many times I must tell you that. We are not normal.

Mom: You human

Me: an immortal human. People like me are not meant to be happy or even have a life

Mom: that not true, I found happiness with your father.

Me: not everyone is born to be lucky like you two. If you want a daughter you could have just made one. I felt a fast hot slap on my cheek from my father and everyone was so shocked. I was so shocked my father have never laid a hand on me ever.

Dad: You angry i get it but not in my presence ill allow you to speak to my wife like that. Now sit down and let talk like adults

Me: You did what you did dad. If you wanted us to talk about things you would have asked me but no you married me off. I closed my eyes and teleported to my bedroom at home. I locked it and sat there with the marriage certificate on hand. Yes I always wanted what they had growing up in a loving home was amazing and knowing my dad adored my mom kind of made things magical. But for me I knew I wasn't going to go that lane. I wasn't going to put another soul through my turmoil and insecurities. I changed into track pants and a black vest. I looked at the certificate again. Lisabella. What an unusual name...

Lisabella

It was my first time in a plane and I must say it was the most amazing 1 hour ever. The pilot was kind enough to walk me through the driving process. We got there and i was nervous as we walked to a series of black cars. I was still in my leggings and top and sandals. I looked at the classy Miss Ncindi.

Me: Sorry

Miss Ncindi: Please call me Moume.

Me: Mpume, am sorry to ask but where can I stop to freshen up?

Mpume: we can go to my apartment.

Me: will we pass a mall or a store?

Mpume: Yes. She directed the driver.

Kamo

I did finishing touches on the table when Siyabonga walked in.

Me: They not here yet.

Siyabonga: The driver reported they left the airport it might be traffic

Me: am so nervous and Lizwe is not out of his room yet

Siyabonga: I feel bad for slapping him

Me: He had the right to be angry

Siyabonga: but not the right to disrespect you. Just than Siphoh walked in frustrated and his horns out.

Me: You need to control your moods honey, you know if you angry or irritated they show

Siphoh: Am just nervous

Me: I know, now close your eyes and breathe.he did as I told him and slowly they went in.

Me: you see

Sipho: I wouldn't want my new sister to see me like this.

Me: she will like you horns or no horns

Sipho: how can you be so sure

Me: Your father has never led me wrong. Trust him.

Lisabella

I looked myself in the mirror. I was now wearing a long sleeve black dress and a blue head wrap that I brought to hide my afro and blue sandals and of course the diamond earrings.

Mpume: You look lovely

Me: Thank you. I feel nervous though. I don't know what to expect.

Mpume: They are a lovely family that much I can promise you

Me: let me go. I took the plastic that now have my old clothes and left with the driver and my nerves.

Lisabella

My heart was pounding so fast as we drove in to the most beautiful house iv ever laid my eyes on. It was huge and beautiful. Iv never seen such in my whole life. He parked right on the front door and I jumped off as the driver open the car door for me.

Me: Thank you. I slowly walked in with my pack back. I have no idea where he went with my suit case.

Lizwe

I was at one of the clubs that I own and my phone was ringing none stop. It was my mom. I kept disconnecting it every time she called just then Lindiwe the girl who I been fucking with came by. Yes am half wolf but am not like my dad. I can sleep with other woman without hurting them. Yes I don't let go completely as I fear I might do damage and I have been cautious using condoms like crazy so I don't father a child that a pers on will have no idea how to raise.

Lindiwe: You looking stressed, come let me help you release some tension.

Me: Nah am cool

Lindiwe: well an not I want you in me

Me: not today Lindiwe. She pouted her eyes like she hurt I open my wallet and took out a couple of hundreds she loves money that am aware of and gave her. I took the last sip of my drink.

Lindiwe: you leaving so soon

Me: If I don't my dad might just kill me for stressing his wife. Later. She dragged her leg around me and kissed me. But nothing happened in my jeans.

Lindiwe: are you sure?

Me: yep. Goodnight. She really looked disappointed and I untangled myself and left driving home in a speed.

Lisabella

The house was tense. I was introduced to the shy big brother Sipho who had amazing weird looking birth marks on his forehead. The father I've seen a couple of times in the news and so did the wife. I know this family is filthy rich with the clothes they wearing and this beautiful mansion.

Me: The food is amazing Thank you. I nibbled a bit I was too nervous to eat

Mrs Musk: Glad you enjoying. The door opened and closed and I heard footsteps after a while the most handsome man I've ever seen stood there looking like a dream. I don't know where to start. Am not sure if I should speak about how tall he was and buffed up but not too much or too little. He was brown in colour. Not too light skinned nor too dark. Perfect thin line lips and his beautiful grey eyes. He looked like Hrithick Roshan that Indian actor. Eyes to the body and I felt my heart do a mini dance while we stared at each other without blinking. Its like the world disappeared and only me and him existed.

Lizwe

In all the time that iv been born and all the woman that I have been with iv never seen such a woman. I felt my whole body vibrate as if all my senses are awoken. Felt my heart beat faster and do a flip flop kind of a thing. Felt my mind explode into a million pieces. I felt her in my sense. Her beautiful fair face. She was n't fair but just okay. Her eyes were light brown and had very kissable lips. I found myself only seeing her and the little guy in my pants reacted in a way Iv never seen him react. I closed my eyes and looked at her again wow. I cleared my throat and she looked down turning pink in embarrassment.

Me: Sorry am late, was at the club sorting out some stuff. I lied and I knew they know but she doesn't, she human right!

Mom: Your food in the oven.

Me: Thanks mom. I walked in kissed mom cheek and sat in front of Lisabella who I couldn't keep my eyes off.

Dad: Does your phone have a problem son?i took it out seeing the messages and calls they have sent.

Me: Sorry. I looked down as Lisabella smiled and nibbled on her plate.

Sipho grunted. I knew he wanted to laugh.

Mom: Lizwe meet Lisabella and dear that Lizwe. She looked up and smiled in acknowledgement and gosh that smile. I swear I think the love at first sight thing has just happened to me. I now get it when they say connect in mind and soul. We still need to figure the body part.

Lisabella

I think ill embarrass myself with lack of knowledge in men. Let me scratch that handsome man that looks like a million bucks. I understood his parents were disappointed in him and they never hid it but wow give my liar a break please finding out you married is a hard pillow to swallow he was just blowing off steam.

Lizwe: I like your head wrap. I found my cheeks turning red.

Me: Thank you.

Lizwe

I like your head wrap out of all the things I could say that what I said? Lord kill me now please poor girl might think am cheesy. Why am I worried about what she thinks?

Siyabonga

I looked at the two and I stopped feeling guilty in trying to create a loving environment for my son. Being who he is alone is hard. You need that strength and reassurance that you are perfect the way you are from a person that you hold dear to heart and by the looks of things looks like his head over heels in love with her, he might not see it but we do and that brings so much joy in my heart. Head wrap did he really just complimented iduko lakhe. Wow.

Lisabella

The family spoke on basic things here and there and I listened in on the love they mother had for them and the respect they addressed each other with.

Sipho: Ever heard of vampires. There was silence as he looked right in my eyes and I swear I saw them change colour for a second.

Me: Yep in books. Read about them. Fictional stuff I must say.

Lizwe: why?

Kamo

This reminded me of my first time i was in the Musk family and it was a test. I hope she passes.

Lisabella

Me: Ill believe it when I see it but vampires are overrated in my opinion. So you suck blood and then???

They all looked at me and Sipho laughed. I got easy and relaxed.

Lizwe: what about fairies

Me: Another myth. Life will be so cool if we had those. A little bit of dust here and there and life will be in place. They kind of fixers and we all know the world needs a lot of fixing.

Mrs Musk: Its not that easy

Me: I know for a tiny person with wings and so much power. I saw Mr Musk trying so hard to hold his laughter but he couldn't and he bursted out laughing and I swear the table was shaking.

Mrs Musk: What your take on werewolves?

Me: Hmmm tricky. Protective, kind, loving and the most peaceful loyal creatures ever. Would be nice having one as a friend that will always be there for you high or low. Another myth its not genetically possible for your bones to shift and transform. The pain you will go through. Plus wolfs are stronger to lock down they preys. You will have to be one tough human to be able to transform into one.

Lizwe: if these were true and you find out people close to you are those creatures. What would you do?

Me: Tough question. Let me think.

I looked around the table and everyone was silent waiting for my answer like they life deepens on it.

Me: It will depend how close they are.

Sipho: Husband and his family.

I felt the room tense up and I smiled.

Me: Like you guys?? They looked at me weird.

First let see. If Mrs Musk could be anything she would be a fairy. You have a kind soul and they do too. Mr musk is definitely a were wolf.

I smiled shyly.

Sipho: and me?

Me: I would put you as a vampire. You too cool yet shy.

Lizwe: And me?

Me: Whatever you get when you put a fairy and wolf together.

They all in unison uttered one word “Warlock”. Mrs Musk laughed nervously.

Me: what a warlock? I mean what powers they have or what do they eat?

Lizwe: pretty much all the powers that a supernatural have.

Me: You guys are really into mythical creatures. Well if I ever had to find out that I've been living with such ill faint.

Mr Musk : Faint???

He asked confused.

Me: Yep

Lizwe: why?

Me: why shouldn't I. It too much to wrap my head around it. Imagine being surrounded by people who could have had you for dinner and just like that you disappear from the face of the earth like you never existed .

Lizwe: Fairies don't eat humans

Me: but they can cook. The whole room erupted with laughter. It was really nice having dinner and having a family that indulges you even if it just talking about mythical things that don't exist but that bond we shared. I really like them.

Mr Musk: You one funny lady. I smiled and blushed.

Lizwe: after fainting what are going to do?

Me: ask who ever told me the news if they kidding if not ill just pray that my husband not a vampire.

Sipho: what wrong with vampires?

Me: me nothing but the thought of almost being dinner any time of the day just freaks me out. He smiled knowingly.

Me: Overall i wish these creatures existed. For some excitement. Imagine giving birth to such glory? Giving birth alone is a miracle then you find out your child is unique. That feeling must be great.

Mrs Musk: best feeling ever.

Me: Biggest flex ever. Other parents flexing about they kids being able to read they ABC and you like my Adam is flying or my Adam just teleported from one room to another or you wake up to check the crib and Adam not there but his bottle is flying in the air. Creepy but fun.

They all looked at me with so much care in they eyes like they were happy about something.

Me: sorry. I tend to lose focus in reality sometimes

Lizwe: Its fine

Sipho: I just liked you more little sister

Me: Thanks. Never had a big brother before.

Sipho: They suppose to be fun, ill try my best.

Mrs Musk: You are a wonderful delight. Thank you for blessing us with your presence. I thought you would run away

Me: I considered it a million times on my way here.

They all kept quiet

Me:but now am just leaving everything in Gods hand.

Mrs Musk: Ameen

We all laughed at her. This was nice. Am at peace for the first time in a long time. I looked at lizwe and he smiled at me and I blushed and looked away...

Goodmorning

Insert 3

Lisabella

I finished helping Mrs Musk clean up and when we were done we I turned to find lizwe standing there looking at us with a smile.

Mrs Musk: we coming with desert go wait for us in the lounge. He nodded without a word and left.

Mrs Musk: I need you to understand something. As much as I love my sons to death but am your mother too. Come to me for anything. Am never going to treat you like an outsider. You home now. I smiled with tears in my eyes.

Me: Am scared.

I have no idea where that confession came from but it slipped out of my mouth.

She gave me the warmest smile.

Mrs Musk: being scared means you care enough to worry about it. Ill always be here. Am not going to lie to you and say it going to be easy but its will work its elf out.

I smiled feeling a little better as we walked with a tray of desert. We found the guys by the fire place have a strong beverage.

Mr Musk: Thank you. He smiled while I handed him his dish. I sat on the single couch and Lizwe sat on the side of the couch while siphos sat with his feet on the couch.

Mrs Musk: We going out tomorrow. The right wing is going to be yours so we going to pick things and see an interior decorator to help with it.

Lizwe: Thank you.

Mr Musk: Pleas ure.

Sipho: Do you know how to drive?

Me: Oh I have the theory of it.

Sipho: Ill teach you

Lizwe: That my job

Sipho: oh no,if you teach her it will be one more bad driver in the world and we need less of those.

Me: uhm.

I than kept quiet, maybe its not the time to voice out my dreams

Lizwe: What is it?

Me: nothing. He looked at me and I looked away.

Sipho: I think ill go to bed.

God bless Sipho heart. I knew what he was trying to do. The Musk slowly got up hugging me saying good night. I was now left alone with Lizwe.

Kamo

Call us eavesdroppers but we really want this to work so yes I casted a channel to hear what she wanted to say and we were all in the library listening in.

Sipho: when I get married am not going to stay here. Dad laughed as mom shushed me.

Lizwe

I finished up my dessert and watched her finish up hers than i picked her up while she squealed in delight and sat on the sofa and had her sit on top of me and we had direct eye contact. Remind me to thank my parents for this. I never knew I need a person until now.

Me: Now talk to me.

Lisa: Its nothing

Me: I know we just meet and we sorting out things between us but am your husband. And you need to talk to me.

Lisa: I wanted to study next year

Me: what stopping you now? She looked up with tears in her eyes and I swear my heart tied up in knots.

Lisa: You don't mind?

Me: why should i?

Lisa: I don't know. I just figured you might object to it.

Me: well am not. What you want to study? She wiped away her tears.

Lisa: Biological researching. Want to be a Cyto technologist.

Me: will go look for a school in J anuary for now focus in making those 15 rooms into a home and try to enjoy your December and let the family spoil you. She nodded like a baby and I looked at her for a second then i lowered my lips to hers and slowly kissed her with sparks flying. It was everything I pictured. I moved my lips from her and looked at her. She looked down and I placed my fingers underneath her chin to look up at me.

Me: You okay?

Lisa: Yes

Me: Than why you have tears in your eyes? She swallowed hard and blinked letting one slip down her cheek and I wiped it away

Lisa: am afraid Ill wake up and learn that all this is a dream.

Me: want me to pinch you? She smiled and somehow seeing her smile meant a lot to me.

Me: Or we can sit her all night to make this last longer.

She nodded and I snuggled her closer to me and we spoke about everything and anything until she dozed off and I picked her up and walked to my room with her in my hands. I put her in bed and kissed her forehead.

Me: I know you dead asleep but I just want you to know am a warlock and an uncontrollably in love with.

That felt much better and I felt much lighter. I tucked her in and i went to the other side and got in and slept peacefully for the first time ever.

J oshua

I looked at my wife crying by the corner.

Me: I don't understand

J ocelyn: we needed the money

Me: and you thought the best way to do it is to sell out our son? Those people took him in. Raised him as they own you have seen how close she is with him and you thought the best thank you, you could give them is to sell our son out? What kind of a mother are you? I took a back pack and stuffed some clothes in them.

J oycelyn: what are you doing?

Me: being a father to him. Yes am late but Ill warn them about the vampires that You sold him too and the researchers. When I come back I want you gone from my house!! I took the envelope with that money and left while she cried at the top of her lungs. I left and never looked back.

Insert 4:

Lisabella

I woke up to feeling hands around me and I smiled and snuggled closer to him. So it really wasn't a dream. I stayed like that for sometime.

Lizwe: You up?

He spoke from behind me sending thrills Down my spine.

Me: yes

Lizwe: slept good?

Me: yes

Lizwe: want to turn around.

I kept quiet for a while and turned around and looked at him. He looked more handsome, how is that even possible. He smiled and I swear I melted.

Lizwe: am not going to see you much today

Me:why?

Lizwe: You going shopping with mom.

Me:is that a bad thing?

Lizwe: let me know when you come back.

He smiled and looked at me.

Lizwe

Waking up to the one you love. This is one of the most amazing feeling ever. We were quiet for awhile looking at each other.

Me: What are you thinking

Lisa: Nothing

Me: Remember I said we talk things through.

Lisa: I was wondering how my dad knew your family? How he came up with this idea? And mostly how he got my mom to agree.

I looked at her for sometime.

Me: tell me about life after your parents death.

Her eyes immediately got full of tears.

Lisa: It was hard. She wiped away the tears and I snuggled her closer.

Lisa: He left me with his sister. I never knew mom side of the family so when they died I knew my aunt alone and dad left me with her. Worse thing he could ever do.

Me: why?

She took a deep breath.

Lisa: my aunt is money driven not really a nice person. I think she took care of me because of the money she will receive.

Me: am confused

Lisa: can we talk about this some other day pleas.

I looked at her and I saw pain in her eyes and nodded.

Me: hungry yet?

Lisa: Not really

Me: well am hungry. How about we take a shower than go eat.

Lisa: Together?

The shock in her eyes was too adorable.

Me: Married people shower together.

Lisa: Really?

Me: Yep.

Lisa: you going to see me naked?

Me: Unless you bath with your clothes on.

She laughed nervous as I got out of bed and I saw the shock in her eyes and where she was looking.

My morning wood. I felt heat go up my face in embarrassment.

Me: Sorry about that. I quickly range to the bathroom took a pee and washed my hands as it slowly wet down. I got back found the bed already made and she was looking at the pictures in one wall. I found her looking at a picture were I had my wings in full force big and strong and black and Sipho in his full face with horns. She slowly took the picture and stared at it for sometime and looked at me.

Lisa: You two are close.

Me: Yes, his my best friend.

Lisa: Did your mom seriously made you guys dress up for Halloween.

Me: Why you say so?

She laughed and pointed at my wings.

Lisa: you have angel wings and your brother have horns. I can pretty much say the theme was Lucifer and Abraham here.

Me: you know you bible

Lisa: you'll look nice

Me: Thanks. She placed the picture and moved then one more picture caught her eye. It was when I was 7 and hovering over Sipho will he was struggling to catch me.

Lisa: Is that you. She pointed at me.

Me: Yep

She got closer to the picture evaluating it.

Lisa: looks like you flying. Nice capture. She placed it back and turned to look at me and I brushed my face.

Lisa: Are you okay? Did I say something?

Me: oh no no... How about that shower. She blushed.

Lisa: Iv never bathed with a man in my life.

Me: Am glad to hear that. Come. I promise to behave....

Sorry for the short Insert... Sundays are the craziest days ever... ill try to create one more before I sleep!!

Insert 5:

Lisa

We walked to the bathroom it was one of the most beautiful bathrooms iv seen. He open the sliding door to the shower. I can't believe that a whole me is about to share a bath space with a man. I watched him from the corner of my eyes undress.

Lizwe: Are you okay? I nodded and room my dress.

Lizwe

I watched her from the corner of my eye and I have never seen such curves. She had an hour glass figure and Tiny boobs that am pretty sure could fit in my hands. When she saw me staring she had her hands on top of her boobs covering them. I smiled and got naked and got in the shower. I watched her remove her panty and lord she shaved Felt my guy do a little twitch.

Lisabella

I watched him adjust the taps and water started coming from all directions even from above. Its was nice bathing with warm water for a change. He took gloves and squeezed something to it.

Lizwe: Turn Ill scrub your back. I did as he asked and he washed me then me all over leaving tingling sensations all over my body. I helped him do the same and when we were done bathing we let the water wash us and before i knew it he held me closer to him and kissed me senseless and I swear the steam filled up the room making it extra steamy in there. He kissed my neck and I lost all my senses and he slowly picked my leg up and I felt his bulge by my doorway and I closed my eyes waiting for the pain that they always tell me about but instead I found him going down and my leg on his shoulder he kissed me all around my tummy planting butterflies all over my time and before I know it his head was in between my thighs and his tongue doing unimaginable things to me. I heard myself moaning and screaming and just then my whole body went tense and lord I shock from head to toe. After a while he got up and bathed me again and I was blushing like I was on fire. Iv never experienced that in my life. I was even afraid to ask what he just did to me. I couldn't stand properly and I guess he knew that cause he picked me up and walked to the bed where he gently placed me on it with a wild smile on his face. I looked away since he was fully naked and his huge guy was pointing at me. Thank god he hasn't tried pushing it in cause I would have died.

Lizwe: You have a life time of being naked around me, are you going to hide forever?

I smiled at him and looked away and automatically hid my boobs which is stupid after what he has done to me.

Lizwe: Are you going to sit there all day smiling? He asked smiling and I looked at him.

Me: am a virgin. I whispered and closed my eyes thinking this is the moment where he swears me with all the names my cousin once threw at me. I felt the bed give in to his weight and next thing I was on top of him.

Lizwe: Look at me

I did as he asked.

Lizwe: I know you a virgin and lord I wish i could ravish you right now and have my way with you but we building something here right?

I nodded.

Lizwe:until you comfortable we going to keep on having our shower sessions and when you stop hiding your boobs from me than we will move a step ahead. I nodded at him.

Me: are you going to do that shower thing everyday?

Lizwe

I looked at her big round eyes and her question kind of almost made me want to laugh.

Me: Do you know what we just did. She looked embarrassed and lowered her head and I move it to my eye level.

Me: we just had oral sex and what I did was go down on you. You still a virgin. I slowly moved my hand to her ass and spanked it and she squealed in laughter.

Me: and what I did now is spanking. She laughed.

Lisa: I know what spanking is.

Me: really now. I rolled her over and kissed her and moved my hand to her honey pot and slowly inserted a finger as she jumped and I deepened my kiss on her and she relaxed. I went in and out in tiny circles and I felt her breathing go higher and her muscles close up on my finger and I slowly went fully in and played with her in walls and I felt her squirt and she screamed and made a tiny dam on the bed. She looked flushed and radiant.

Me: what I just did now is called fingering and you just squirted. I smiled picking her up for a shower. Its going to be so much fun having her around. She truly is everything that I need..

Goodnight

Lisa

I wore one of my black leggings and one of Lizwe black and red shirt and combed my afro up then cleaned a bit around the bedroom and he came out of the closet looking like a million buck wearing his black skinny ripped jeans and black top and black sneakers and was wearing a black watch. He looked at me looking at him and i looked away

Lizwe: you look nice. I love your hair. He walked closer and picked me up. I think he has a thing with picking me up.

Me: thanks.

Lizwe: today ill be mostly at the clubs and restaurants. Ill ask mom for you to swing by for some lunch.

Me: okay. He looked at me for a second than kissed me senseless and grabbed his keys and phone and left. I finished cleaning up and walked out of his room to the kitchen. I got there and found a slim tall lady.

Me: Hi

Her: hi, am Avery

Me: Lisabella

Avery: oh yes Lizwe wife. I blushed at the mention of Lizwe. She smiled at me.

Avery: come let start on breakfast and catch up. Is everyone in this family so kind??

Lizwe

I got to the club counted stocks of things and placed orders for what short. It was Friday so things were about to go crazy.

Barman: Lindiwe and her friends are upstairs in your apartment.

Me: Doing what?

Barman: she was too intoxicated to drive.

Me: Get her out of there and I dont want her to go in there ever again. From today I want nothing with Lindiwe and she no longer my girlfriend.

Barman: her tab? I took it and looked at the 10k worth of drinks and food they ate. This girl don't know me. I grabbed it and Walked up. I got to my bachelor pad and found her and her friends spread up on my expensive couches and my bed. I opened up the windows and curtains.

Me: Lindiwe!!

The whole room vibrated with my voice and everyone looked at me.

Lindiwe

In all the time iv been with him iv never seen him this angry. His eyes were darker than usual.

Me: Babe

Lizwe: Dont babe me. I want you out of my apartment now!!!

His voice was so rough and I looked at him. What did I do to anger him like this. My friends quickly got up and got dressed while he stood there by the door with a piece of paper.

Me: Babe

Lizwe: I really have no time for this, i give you 10 minute to get out of my house and club and oh don't forget your receipt. Pay up at the front desk. He turned before I could say anything.

Pinky and the girls ran to me.

Pinky: what did you do? Iv never seen him like this ever.

Me: angazi chommie

Khumbu picked up the receipt and it was 10k and she screamed.

Khumbu: how the fuck did we spend so much?

I looked at it, I don't have that much money even in my savings.

Pinky: We all drank and we all going to contribute towards this. Niyambona unjani lumuntu plus kade siyidla imali yakhe.(as you can see his not himself today) thank good for Pinky they all started transferring money to my account and it was enough to pay. We cleaned up our mess in his apartment than went downstairs.

Thokozani the Barman was there.

Me: Hi

He greeted me. I saw the workers knew about what happened.

Thokozani: Hi. I gave him my card and he took it to swipe and when he was done.

Thokozani: ay Sisi Lindiwe angazi what you did to him but he says you and your friends are not allowed in the clubs anymore.

Me: all of them?

Thokozani: wonke!!

Me: I didn't do anything to him. I always spend this much plus he has money so what his problem? He shrugged his shoulders and I turned away to go to the girls. I got to the parking lot where he got me a Yaris to find it gone. I walked to the car guard.

Me: My car. He looked at me up and down and got in his little room and took out a black plastic.

Guard: These are all the things that were in the car that belonged to you he got steve to drive it to a dealership.

Me: angizwa?

Guard: ay sisi angazi uyenzi kodwa angingaze ngimbone enje ubass(i have no idea what you did to him but iv never seen him like this) i took the plastic bag and felt tears threatening to come.

Pinky: don't cry babes we will figure it out

Me: his cutting me out of his life. Am sure he taking the apartment too.

Pinky: No ways, he wont do that to you, he knows you have no where to go.

Me: kuyafana Pinky if he doesn't pay my rent I wont be able to pay it.

Pinky: you will move in with me. You have been there for me through it all and ill be here for you. J ust than the phone rang and i answered

Voice: We from the movers, Mr Musk asked us to pack up things in apartment 12 b in sandton city and said to ask you where you want us to deliver it.

I gave them Pinky address and sat by the steps and cried while we waited for uber. My girls were there with me. We got in to Pinky as the car came through and it was sad to see that the only thing they brought was the chest of drawers and my bed that i brought with my money and my clothes only. I cried harder i was hoping to sell the expensive furniture and make money. I tried to call him and it said the number doesn't exist. So fast in less than a few hours i was broke and had no money and the expensive life i lived was in shambles. Kanti what happened over night that made him change like this ???.....

Goodmorning

Insert 7:

Lisa

My feet were killing me. We literally went everywhere. The best part was exquisite furniture. I went gaga in all that beautiful furniture in there.

Mom: Oh my world. You have to have this rug Avery who I learnt was a family friend since she married to the family head of security. Oh I forgot to mention I have two personal body guards. Two!!! They literally follow me everywhere am going. Right now am looking at rugs and they looking at rugs too.

Avery: And it grey too. Lizwe favourite colour. I sat down on the couch I was exhausted.

Mom: You look exhausted.

Me: shopping is not my thing.

Mom: Iv noticed. How about we go lunch. And just then a whole van of people jumped off with cameras flashing everywhere and the guards trying to protect me from people in microphones screaming who Am I? Good thing Mom decided we go do our hair first I was in long brownish gold braids and since we went clothes shopping first I ended up changing to a white short jumpsuit and brown sandals. We almost brought the whole store from lengerie to new dresses, shoes, jeans and tops. I never knew that one can own so many clothes but here I was a happy owner of clothes that were to be delivered to the house later on. I usually buy and leave with a small nyana plastic but here I was shopping for things to be delivered. This black card that mom keeps swiping really makes things moving.

One camera guy touched me and I saw my guard going ballistic pushing him into bushes by the side of the store. Avery helped me to the car and when we got in my heart was pounding so fast. I was quiet for sometime with Mom and Avery talking frankly I didn't hear a thing until mom gave me a phone.

I placed it on my ear

“you good?” I heard his voice and my body relaxed and I was calmer and the beating of my fast went down.

Me: Yes

Lizwe: You don't sound okay, am coming home.
Mom says you no longer coming here since the news is out.

Me: News?

Lizwe: We kind of celebrities

Me: You?

Lizwe: The family!

Me: Oh

Lizwe: someone from the places you have been might have leaked the news of a new face in the family and now everyone wants to know who you are?

Me: Oh

Lizwe: Am driving home

Me: Okay

Lizwe: Lisakhanya

Me: hmmm?

Lizwe

I was panicking now, she wasn't herself and the one word answers were making me panic, i was waiting for questions.

Me: Ill see you in a few minutes okay?

Lisa: Okay

I hung up and looked at Siphho.

Me: Find out where the leak came from.

Siphho: Cool. Glad you ended things with Lindiwe

Me:Me too

Siphho: You hurt her Ill kill you

Me: I won't, she everything that I ever needed in my life. She filled that emptiness that I had.

Siphho: Look at you all grown

Me: I got her a ring

Siphho: Let me see

I took it out. My mom took a piece of her wedding ring to give to me to have it added here on the one I found in my great great grandmother things when I went to visit my grandmother.

Siphho: wow

Me: Beautiful isn't it?

Sipho: Huge ass diamond. She will love it. I showed him my left finger I had on a black wedding band that had a bit of blue that complemented her ring.

Sipho: Fast as lightening you are. You did a lot today!!

Me: couldn't have done it without your help.

Sipho: that what family for.

Lisa

We got and I excused myself and went up to lizwe room and I got there and got in bed and rolled in a big ball.

Am I ready for this kind of life??

Kamo

I know how she was feeling so I gave her the space that she needed. 5 minute later my sons walked in. Lizwe looked around and didnt see her so he looked at me with worried eyes.

Lizwe: where she?

Me: Upstairs

He was about to go up and I stopped him.

Me: You grew up in the spotlight and its natural for you. This is all new to her plus the environment too. Bare that in mind when you talk okay. He nodded and rushed up.

Lizwe

I got there and her in a tiny ball in bed. I removed my shoes and got in the covers with her. I snuggled her closer to me and she allowed me. I knew she wasn't sleeping. We curled up in a ball for some time until she spoke.

Lisa: They just came out of nowhere with lights flashing everywhere.

Me: Am sorry

Lisa: Does this happen all the time?

Me: not all the time

Lisa: Like that

Me: Not all the time.

She turned and looked at me with tears her eyes.

Lisa: I thought i was being kidnapped and things were so bad. I froze. I don't think ill ever get use to this.

Me: ill always have your back. No reporter will harm you. She looked at me fore a second and I saw she did braids and lord she looked amazing. I smiled at her.

Me: You look good and she blushed.

I looked at her one more time.

Me: I.wanted to share something with you. She looked at me and I felt myself go crazy with nerves.

Me: Before I was told about you and our marriage. I was seeing someone. More like a fuck buddy.

She froze and looked at me with tears in her eyes.

Me: The minute I heard of us I ended things. Am telling you this because trust is important and I never want you to lose that on me.

A tear rolled down her eyes and she got out of bed took a small bag emptied it out on the bed.

Lisa: This is my runaway fund. If you have my back. I have yours too and I guess I wont be needing this anymore.

For the first time in my life I felt like crying. Here she was giving herself to me. I looked at her.

Me: I need you to know that am not as human as you think I am. There are mysteries about my origins and what I am but I promise you, you will never be hurt and Ill never hurt you.

She was about to say something and I stopped her.

Me: when the time right and your brain can take it, ill share.

She nodded.

The way she trusted me made me want to cry but instead I slowly walked to her. And kissed her slowly as I removed her clothes and she removed mines and I slowly placed her on the bed.

Lisa

I knew I was ready to lose my virginity to him today. He slowly placed me on the bed and my body was already feeling like a million pieces. He kissed me all over and when he went down on me I lost all my senses and exploded within minutes. He hovered over me with his guy pushing slowly my entrance he then crushed his lips on my mouth and with one push was in and the pain vibrated throughout my body. He was still as my body adjusted to him.

Lizwe: You okay.

I nodded as a tear broke free from my eye and he wiped it away than started kissing me as fire started building in me and he started moving and I swear I was like a mad woman with my moans. With each stroke he went deeper awakening my senses and making me lose my mind. I felt him grow more inside me and I felt myself squirt as he went faster as the tension grew. I heard him growl like animal as he went deeper and deeper making me weak. I felt my legs go numb as he went faster and harder and I exploded into a million pieces with my screams as he growled like an animal and I swear the whole room vibrated. After sometime he went to the side with him still in me and moved me to be on top of him still tangled. i felt him twitch a million times and within seconds he grew bigger and bigger making my breathing uneven and my body excited. I really don't know what got to me but I found myself saddling him as he went deeper in me. He had a lazy smile on his face and I blushed as he slowly moved my hips helping me with moving. He pushed harder up and I exploded in to pieces and I lost my mind as I went faster trying to catch my breath in the process as he groaned the same before howled. I knew he was near to exploding as he did a few minutes ago so i took all the energy that I had and rode him faster with him gripping into my waist and the pain and pleasure both took me to the highest climax ever and he growled so loud and the room shake with him holding me into place as we were both trying to catch our breath. I moved to the side of the bed with him holding me. He was still in me as he snuggled me from the back as we were breathing.

Lizwe: You almost killed me. He whispered in between breaths and I smiled satisfied with him and I moved as he started growing. Instead of feeling weird i somehow got excited to the adventure as he grow more and he pinned me to the bed and lifted my ass up as he was behind me. He went in once and I felt him touch everything that needed to be touched and i squirted. That drove him crazy as he went in harder and faster making me scream from the ravish attack that got me going crazy all over. I felt myself cling to the sheets and bite them as he went harder all you could hear was my groans and his and of cause ass whopping as he went harder. He went out and pushed in faster and hard and we both exploded into a million pieces as he went in hard and held me into place as the whole room shook a bit. Maybe am crazy but I swear the room was shaking.

Lizwe

Thank god the bedroom are sound proof and shock proofs after dad and mom went flying out of they room.

I sat in bed with her peacefully sleeping on me with half her body on me. For the first time ever i let go while making love and I knew I connected with her more than on body but in mind and soul. I took my phone and ordered some pizza and I knew that I was going to spend the rest of the afternoon in bed with her and some pizza and maybe a bottle of wine. Iv never felt like this in forever and as she shifted I felt my need for her grow and I slowly touched her to find her wet and ready as I slowly inserted myself in her.

Lisa

I slowly moved to find him in me growing and him kissing my neck and sucking on making me more wet.

Lizwe: You up. I giggled as I adjusted myself and he went in deeper making me scream in delight as I saddled him and he got up sucking my one breast as he played with the other one as I slowly moved making him stop doing what he was doing and look at me in shock. I stopped moving in circles as I was thinking something wrong.

Lizwe: Why you stopping?

Me: You stopped kissing me. He smiled at me and I laughed as he started kissing me and I moved in circles and I heard him growl and it vibrated from his chest. He held me tight and went deeper and we lost it as we were reaching our climax as I broke into a million pieces and I swear my cookie was on fire and I don't think I'll ever be able to walk. There was a knock on the door while we were too lazy to even move.

It was Siphos laughing.

Siphos: I'll leave the wine and pizza and snacks here while you two master the courage to get to the door. He laughed out loud and I was mortified.

Siphos: Oh you owe me. I had to pay for this Lizwe: Fuck off maan. And he laughed so loud and lizwe brought me closer to him and we dozed off....

Insert 8:

Joshua

I got to Johannesburg and after two days of trying to see Mr Musk I finally decided to just walk up to his office. I got there and I was shaking but I saw the lovely lady by the front desk and asked to see Mr Musk.

Lady: Do you have an appointment?

Me: No, Tell him Joshua is here. She nodded and dialed the phone and spoke softly into it next thing 2 body guards came and showed me to a black room. There I found the mighty Siyabonga looking as hard core as ever standing there.

Me: am not here to fight you

Siyabonga: didn't think you were.

Me: am sorry I just popped up like this but my wife did a stupid thing and am trying to rectify it.

Siyabonga: 26 years later?

Me: I know but its my sons life we talking about.

Siyabonga: Your what? I looked down ashamed.

Siyabonga: You lost that opportunity when you and your wife wouldn't even hold him. Now here you are saying what exactly?

Me: she told researchers and the crew what he is.

Siyabonga

I felt my head spinning. Can this family be any more cruel.

Me: what the fuck is wrong with you people?

I threw him against the wall and saw a picture falling.

Joshua: Am sorry. He tried to pick himself up and I just left him there and walked out.

Sipho

I was sitting by the lounge watching Tv laughing at my brother. I sent the food up to irritate him and I knew he will answer me after I knocked on the door.

Just then my phone rang and it was dad. I looked at it and then answered.

Me: dad?

Dad: can you come to the office for a minute please.

Me: sure. He sounded off and I didn't ask but got in the car just as the furniture guys drove in and I told the guard where to place they things. I drove off to the office got there and was directed to the boardroom. I quickly checked my phone to see if I missed any messages but there was none. I walked in and the minute I walked in a skinny man started crying. I looked at him closely and I knew he was my biological father.

Lindiwe

I switched on to entertainment news.

Anchor: Just in today is The Musk family.

According to a secret source there is a dashing new member to the family.

There was a tiny footage of Mrs Musk and two beautiful ladies. I know the other one wife the wife to the head security and a best friend to Mrs Musk but I didn't know the other lady. She was tall but not too tall and fair and had beautiful long braids and she was picking a rug up and the ladies were too focused then she threw herself on the couch exhausted.

Anchor: very clear that the young lady is exhausted from the day adventure. Who is she? And what is she to the Musk family? I sat there as pictures of them leaving the store were captured. Something about her elegance and quiet nature bugged me and am not sure why.

Pinky walked in and looked at me.

Lizwe

I looked at her smiling with tears in her eyes, she been teary and smiling ever since. I have just given her the ring and she was in tears looking at it. I took a picture of her in my blue night gown sitting on the chair with Pizza slice and wine glass. The ring was visible there and I took another one with us holding hands and our rings visible and posted on instagram:

“I have found my peace after years of being restless... Meet Lisabella Musk.. God created a partner for I in you ...Here you have it folks am a married man”

And tagged my family since they have a million followers and tagged her too since I created an account for her before posting.

In less than a minute I had a million likes and comments

Lisa: so do you know all these people

Me: some yes

Lisa: I see... so now I also have instagram?

Me: Yes. I switched to it since I posted a picture of myself that she took of me having a short of whiskey and pizza with my ring visible and One she took that I wasn't looking where I was resting my head on her thigh with eyes closed and she placed her hand on the side of my face and took a picture. Her post read:

“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

I have found what I've been searching for but mostly I have found everything in one place. My everything in one. A man that holds many titles in my life.

My Mr Musk... Its with great joy that I start this new journey”

I saw that in less than 5 minutes she already had 5 thousand followers and already had inbox of sponsors. That the joy of being influential you get sponsors who think if you wear their products or use them, your followers do too.

Me: remind me to order a phone for you too. You about to get busy. She nodded and sat on me. I like how free she started being with me.

Lisa: Today have been the best day of my life. Thank you.

Me: to many more

Lisa: many more. She kissed me.

Lindiwe

She had her phone to her chest and just then my phone rang and when I was about to take it she snatched it away.

Me: what wrong with you.

Pinky: Am sorry chommie. She gave me her phone and right there in his instagram was the same beautiful lady I saw with the Musk earlier. Now she was more beautiful wearing his gown. His name was on her right side and the huge diamond ring was flashing brighter than her smile. He tagged her and I saw she also posted him looking handsome as ever. No wonder he never wanted me to post him nor go out other than his club. He just got married!! When? I was with him every weekend!! I couldn't hold it as I cried like my life just ended....

Insert 9:

Kamo

I looked at Siyabonga in our bedroom after 2 hours ago Siphon walked in with his horns angry as a bull and Siyabonga following him trying to reason with him. I was beyond furious at the situation more so at my husband way of handling it.

Me: Where is his father now?

Siyabonga: hotel

Me: am going to kill him

Siyabonga: You won't.

Me: My son is in turmoil right now because of him.

Siyabonga: It will pass. Just let it be please. I kept quiet and took a shower.

Lizwe

I looked at the sleeping Lisa and covered her then teleported to my brother room. I found him in his full varko form and I knew the tingling feeling that I felt was beyond me. I looked at him and saw his eyes in tears. I walked up to him and hugged him as he let go of things and cried. In all my life iv never seen him like this. Yes we nine months apart but still. He grows faster then I but we still 9 months apart. When he has composed himself I looked at him and he looked at me.

Sipho: My biological dad is in town

Me: to do what?

Sipho: let me know mom betrayed me again. She told a bunch of researchers about me and ofcause told the crew of my existence. It just a matter of time till any of them come through. I looked at him.

Me: you my brother. Whatever is coming is coming at us. Ill be right beside you. No one will be poking at you without your consent while am alive.

Sipho: You immortal

Me: exactly that. No one will touch you for as long as I live.

He smiled and his horns went in.

Sipho: now stop touching me don't know where your hands might have been. We laughed and I left him after spending some time with him and went to my room.

Lindiwe

I had my phone on and I looking at her beautiful picture and the million comments of congratulations. I was with him for a year and meantime he was busy planning his wedding to her. Where is she from? What does she have that I don't ? I switched off the phone and sat on the bed and cried. When done I got up took a shower and dressed to kill today am going to Sandton hotel am sure I can pick up a guy there. I took out my longest weave and called uber and left.

Lisa

I woke up and felt a heavy arm around me so I turned to find lizwe dead asleep. I looked at him for some time and smiled at him then closed my eyes and prayed.

“oh lord please make this last for forever” i opened my eyes to find him staring at me with a smile.

Me: Hi

Lizwe: hi

Me: You look cute when you wake up.

Lizwe: Thank you, you not so bad.

Me: hmmm. I looked at him and He wasn't his happy self.

Me: You good?

Lizwe: Its my brother Sipho

Me: what about him?

Lizwe: earlier on his biological father came by. I was shocked. Siphos is adopted?

Me: Am confused.

Lizwe: My mom helped a woman long ago give birth. But since Siphos was born with some complications she didn't want him. So mom came home with him.

This just made me love her more.

Me: Your mom is remarried

Lizwe: she is the best ever.

Me: How is Siphos holding up?

Lizwe: shaken but good

Me: well what does he love doing ?

Lizwe: apart eating he likes bowling.

Me: well if you not too tired we can go bowling and then have something to eat just to cheer him up.

Lizwe

I looked at her, will she really want to do that for my brother.

Me: are you serious?

Lisa: yes. You can go together and I can stay home.

Me: oh no we going together. He will love that. Let me call him. I called him and told him of Lisa plan and he was excited so the plan was to meet in an hours time.

Lisa

I had on black skinny jeans and top and sneakers. Lizwe was in full black too and so was Siphos, i guess the theme is black. We drove in one of the black hummers and of cause two guards accompanied us. We got to the bowling pit and I could see that he was excited.

Siphos: do you know how to bowl?

Me: Oh iv never bowled am just going to be a cheerleader

Lizwe: who side are you on?

I thought for a second.

Me: Today you alone dear husband. Am betting on my brother here. Lizwe acted hurt while Siphosmiled.

Lizwe: Just like that? I smiled at him and he laughed as they changed shoes. And got ready to start the match. I was excited even though I had no idea what the game about all I know is that the bottles have to fall that all. As the game began Lizwe was leading and time went Siphos was beginning to win. I had on a scarf that i was using to cheerlead and make noise and make fun of Lizwe while Siphos and I sang and laughed.

Lizwe

I looked at my joyous wife laughing and singing and cheering my brother who forgot all his worries and was literally having fun. From a distance I saw people laughing. Her joyous mood was rubbing off people and it right then i saw one of the journalists recording. I didn't mind him as he was within distance and not making a scene. As we both had one ball to ball and we both had to strike all sticks.

Lisa

Me: Okay gentlemen this is the ball that names our winner are you ready? she laughed and I smiled at how beautiful she was.

Lizwe: Ill need a good luck kiss from my wife.

Me: Come take a little peak

Sipho: Hyyyy who's side are you on?? He screeched. I laughed at him as I kissed him and spanked his ass as he bowled making him lose. He cried out loud as I laughed as he chased me playfully until he caught me and we watched Sipho bag all the points and we celebrated screaming and making fun of lizwe Lizwe: You guys cheated!!!

Me: we sorry. I showed him a tongue as I ate my ice cream. He then hugged me and we left laughing and Sipho forgetting all his worries.

Sipho: Am driving to the Sandton hotel we will dine there.

Lizwe nodded at him as we drove listening to music and talking about silly things. We got there and parked and there was commotion of camera crews taking pictures of celebrities there.

Sipho: Flipped I forgot that today there is a small chill sessions of DJ playing.

Me: Wow Iv never been to a concert. They both laughed at me.

Me: What did I say?

Lizwe: Not a concert just a little jam session for an hour or two. We won't be able to dine since they have converted the restaurant to a little drink and snack.

Me: Iv never beeb to that. Good thing am wearing jeans.

Lizwe: What that got to do with this? He asked laughing.

Sipho: its about to get down. He did a halfway vosho and we laughed as we made our way in after a few snapshots from the camera crew...

Lindiwe

I had one of my marks and I was milking him dry. This time around was going to save this money. Just then Dj's fill in the set and it was a night of fun and loads of drinking.

Lisa

We were eating and they were drinking he introduced me to so many people. They were always by my side. We were having fun and he smiled the smile that I loved.

Sipho: Thank you

Me: For?

Sipho: You know. Thank you. I smiled and hugged him.

Lizwe: what you two on about

Me: Uthanda izindaba(you like news) he held his heart as if his heart broken. He handed me a can if something.

Lizwe: Try this

Me: I dont drink, iv never drank.

Lizwe: Try it. He opened up the can for me and then I tried it and I must say it was not bad.

Me: what is it?

Lizwe: Bernini blush.

Me: its not bad.

Lizwe: I knew you will like it. A few minutes later my favourite Dj came on set and I lost it. Did I mention that I can dance? I didn't know lizwe cab dance until I saw him and I dancing as if we have practice. The whole crowd was looking at us as we laughed and danced. When the song was done he picked me up and made sure I sit by his lap as a few friends came by while they drank and I sipped the one can I had.

We ate and laughed till it was slow jams time.

Me: am going to the bathroom.

Lizwe: am coming with. i laughed.

Me: I go to females toilet remember?

Lizwe: Barman. One guy came and he whispered something and she left after a while he came back and lizwe picked me up and place me gently next to him and we walked to the bathroom. We passed a line of people and he stop outside.

Lizwe: Go on. I shyly went in with the ladies giving me an evil eye.

Lizwe

I stood there as the ladies stood waiting they turn.

Me:Sorry about the wait. They all mumbled something and I shyly waited after awhile she flushed and rinsed her hands than came out. We walked and she looked at me with twinkles in her eyes.

Lisa: Thank you

Lizwe: anything for my queen. I spanked her ass and she squealed and we walked back to the crowd and found Siphos with a bunch of ladies and we got there I sat down and had Lisa on my thigh while Siphos entertained his ladies. We ate and drank like there no tomorrow.

Lisa

Who knew going out was this fun. I turned to find a girl who kept on staring at me from a distance and every time i looked back she will be at the back looking at me. I looked at her then looked at Lizwe who was conversing with a friend. I shifted and he held on to me and I leaned back and whispered for him.

Me: Ill be back

Lizwe: where you going?

Me: trust me. I got up and he watched me walk.

Lizwe

I watched her walked right to Lindiwe and I felt my heart clench.

Sipho got sober within minutes.

Sipho: Why did you let her go

Me: I only saw now where she going.

Lisa

I walked and I saw a bunch of girls around her. I know her type and I grew up with a cousin like her.

I got there as she stood up tall in her heels and pushed her long ass weave.

Me: Hi

Her: Hi

Me: You been staring at me for sometime hence I came closer.

Her: Am Lindiwe

Me: Lisabella

Lindiwe: You stole my man

I don't know where I got the courage to laugh but I did.

Me: how about we take this outside away from people. I turned to find Lizwe and Sipho looking like they saw a ghost. I smiled and waved at them as we walked to a more quiet place and less cameras.

Enews

I was packing up when I saw the New Musk family member walk out with the girl who was a fuck buddy of her husband and her friends. I hid by the bushes with my crew and rolled the mic and recorder.

Lisa

I looked at the four people and smiled my calmest smile.

Me: So You say I stole your man.

Lindiwe: Yes

Me: how?

Lindiwe: don't play smart here. You just came out of nowhere then boom you married? When? How when iv been the one fucking him the whole year whenever he wanted it and wherever.

Me: And that makes him your man? She looked at me confused. Yes it hurts that iv been with him only when he was busy but then again I can't hold him accountable for his past before me.

Lindiwe: what else makes a man a woman man?

Me: I don't know, you labeled him as yours so i figured you know what you talking about.

Lindiwe: I can hit you right now.

Me: And will that make him yours again?

Friend: As ambe mngani you won't win with her.

Me: If I was you ill listen to your friend and go

Lindiwe: Or what??

I smiled. I don't know what got over me but i just had the courage.

Me: Let me tell you something that not even your friends or your mother will ever tell you. I grew up watching a cousin of mine who was just like you. I know your type. Am sure he showered you with gifts and money and at that time you spent it all without a care of tomorrow. I know that you invested in him when all he did was chow you and plan his future. I know you hate me and I would hate me too if I was in your position too. But I never asked to marry him. I never asked him to leave you, I never knew you before he told me about you as his past. But hitting me or fighting me ain't going to make him yours. If I was you I would move on and focus on myself and future. I would excel in everything that I do and be a better version of myself and right now you can hate me all you want but it will not change your situation. Am his wife. You his past. Deal with it and move on.

If looks could kill she would have killed me with it.

Lindiwe: I can have him again if I want too

Me: Then go right ahead and have him. But that wont change the fact that am his wife and you....

i looked at her.” Well i dont know what to call you but you are you. And you do you but know one thing if you come at me, dont you think for a second ill watch you. Ill come at you harder”

Lindiwe: Am pregnant with his child. She grinned the most evil smile and somehow I didn’t believe that.

Me: And you telling me this because?

Lindiwe: ill go to every newspaper and every television station.

Me: and be known as a girl that every man will want to stay clear off? I saw her quiver in her stand. And I knew she made that up. I smiled at her and her crew

Me: now that you have made your presence known, am I free to go or is there anything else you wish to talk to me about? She looked at me with so much hatred and her friend pulled her.

Friend: Asambe

Lindiwe: Your days are numbered

Me: Iv heard that a million times before yet here I am.

Lindiwe: You think you smart?

Me: Think or know?

I knew I was making her angry. People like her hated being patronised.

She moved closer and I stood my ground and looked at her right in her eyes and I saw she was shocked.

Me: Never underestimate your opponent. I turned and walked towards the bathroom. I was shaking and breathing hard. I remembered the ground floor will be full so I went to the first floor.

ENews crew

As soon as she went up the stairs we took the elevator to the first floor and saw her going to the bathroom. I slowly open the door and picked my camera in and saw her washing her face and she looked herself in the mirror.

“ dear lord please protect and guide me in all that I do. Please protect my husband for the likes of lindiwe and please never let me lose my cool ever again in public. Please give me peace and sanity to manage myself and stay true to who I am. Ameen” she wiped her face and looked at herself one last time and turned and we hid just as her husband and brother in law walked out of the elevator.

Lizwe: Been looking for you all over. Saw lindiwe and her crew come by but not you. He hugged her and she smiled at him with tears in her eyes.

Lisabella: am cool, come let go enjoy out night out. Her husband looked his brother confused and they shrugged and followed her. I turned to the crew.

Me: is that all in tape?

Him: Yes

Me: I just became a fan of Mrs Musk junior and tomorrow morning we having a segment called “slay queens” they looked at me as I was excited...

We went home so late. I was happy to see Siphohappy. He was beyond drunk with Lizwe so one of the guards. Lizwe was sleeping on my lap and Siphoh turned from the front and looked at me.

Siphoh: Thank you again

I smiled at him

Siphoh: His in love with you

Me: what makes you say this?

Siphoh: Iv known him all my life and his and his never welcomed a woman into his world like how he has welcomed you.

Me: That not what Lindiwe says

Siphoh: You know her type right? They will say anything to remain relevant thinking if you and your man fight they can get an opportunity to get in.

Me: You two really care about each other, here you are fighting his battles.

Sipho: He has done more for me than my own family.

Me: Am sorry

Sipho: its okay. I just pray that when you learn our differences you still love us as you do now.

I laughed at him as I brushed Lizwe head.

Me: The only time I can stop caring about you Sipho is if you stop treating me with the same love and respect that you have given me ever since iv been here. You could have easily hated me or make your brother choose between you and I Sipho: Ill hold you to your word one day. I smiled at him and closed my eyes.

He laughed.

Me: What are you thinking?

Sipho: It was always us against the world but now we have you and somehow I feel lighter. Thank you.

Me: I smiled at him. We drove in the gate into the house and he dropped us at the door as we both held Lizwe up and walked. The minute we opened the door we found mom and dad and Avery and Dion standing there.

I smiled nervously. We placed Lizwe on the couch as he grabbed my waist in his sleep to make me sit on his lap. I whispered to him.

“babe behave your dad here” iv never seen a person get sober in a minute.

Lizwe: dad

Dad: You were out half the night. No text nothing if it wasn't for that instagram thing we wouldn't know were you were!!

Lizwe: calm down. We fine

Dad: will talk in the morning

Mom: had fun? She asked me and I nodded.

Mom: glad you did and thank you.

How did she know it was my idea? I smiled at her and looked down. They left and the minute they did we all busted out laughing.

Lizwe

I woke up alone and took a shower and went down stairs to find the family silent watching E news.

Anchor: marriage is the most sacred union ever and here is a woman that I think everyone should take note to be like her. If i was her i would have ripped off the other head.

Lisa

I watched in horror as they played everything that happened at the hotel and when it was done they showed the part where i was in the bathroom praying and afterwards the comments where everyone was behind me supporting my reaction . Others even volunteering to be my back up if we go fight. I kept quiet

Anchor: I just want you to know a Lisabella that woman like you are rare and I think God have heard your prayers as you have the whole nation behind you.

The news ended and went to business and when it was done they switched off the tv. I looked down and next thing I heard a big bang and I looked up to find Lizwe stuck to the wall. I looked at him confused. Wasn't he standing by the entrance

Dad: I've been with your mother for more than 20 years and not once have I ever disrespected her the way you have disrespected this young woman. Uwakuphi lo lindiwe esingamazi thina. I watched in horror as my husband moved out of the cracked wall without being hurt.

Lizwe: I can explain dad.

Dad: Explain what? That you took your wife to the same place your side dish was it

Sipho: dad

I watched in horror as my father in law eyes change and just as I was watching that I saw my mother in law hair change. I was confused.

Sipho: Guys.

He didn't finish his sentence as Lizwe was now flying in the air and thrown to the wall next thing big black wings came out of nowhere and he was flying. I stood there frozen to the spot watching this commotion.

I saw Dion run in and Avery at some point and just than my father in law changed into a big as wolf and howled so loud with my mother in law flying in the air. Sipho looking at me with so much fear on his face and I saw his face change as horns started growing out of them. I sat on that couch and I don't know what happened but everyone slowly turned and looked at me and just like that in a blink of an eye everyone went back to they normal self and the whole house was silent. I slowly closed my eyes for a second and counted to 10 and open them again. I watched as everyone looked at me with mix emotions and I slowly got up.

Lizwe had fear all over his face.

Lizwe: Lisa. He tried to move closer to me. I raised my hand stopping him to take a step closer.

I took a deep breath

Me: Please don't come any closer. I watched his face crumble.

Mom: we can explain.

Me: I know you can but right now I need to go out. I need space. I need to think and I need that away from from you.

Dion: I can drive you. I looked at him. He looked normal. I saw his wife eyes change yellow.

Dion: am human like you. I looked at him and I looked at Siphon.

I really didn't trust anyone in this house. I looked at them and I saw a tear roll down on Lizwe face and I remembered him saying there are parts of him that I'll get to know soon. Is this it??.... Myths have just become a reality right in front of me....

Insert 12:

Lisa

I slowly moved away from the family and they were all quiet. I didn't know how to drive so that limits me to being around the yard. I was just stepping out of the house when something was shot at me and I froze in place as it paused just in front of me. It is then that I felt strong arms pick me up and I knew it was Lizwe. Bullets were flying everywhere and there was grunting and noise. I saw my father in law change to this majestic being and I knew that shit is about to go down. I closed my eyes as people were screaming. He placed me behind the kitchen counter and put his hands both at my sides and I looked into his dark grey eyes same as his father and his wings fully out.

Am a praying woman and did God literally sent me an angel? Is this the angel of protection that I always prayer for.

Lizwe: I have to help. I nodded and he disappeared in front of my eyes. I closed them and opened them as I slowly walked to watch and the scene in front of me was horrific. Men in uniforms were piling on the floor. Mom and dad were flying and attacking.

Sipho had his horns and claws out and a fucken tail that was chopping people heads off and my dear husband. Was shooting fireball with his bare hands. I watched the magic unfold until no one was left and guards were placed and heavy surveillance was around. I listened to my father in law speak in the most bone chilling voice to the president and when hell was done I touched my face and it was wet in tears. I was really silently crying. While they were busy I quickly ran upstairs packed a bag and took his phone. Iv seen him do the uber thing for food. I was going to order food and have the guy drop me off where ever. I tried to do that but I couldn't than I figured the right wing was my home but they didn't know i would go there so I packed and walked to the other side of the mansion and walked in to the most beautiful set up ever. I laughed of cause she can do this my mother in law is a fairy. I locked the door and walked in to the little heaven on earth.

Everything was perfectly set up. I walked to the huge master bedroom and I loved it. How on earth she know what I wanted? But who am I kidding, iv just watched her fly. The closet had everything that I could possibly want and need. I got to the huge ass bed and threw myself on it and cried myself to sleep” lord what did I get myself into. What is happening”

Lizwe

I looked for her everywhere and couldn’t find her. I looked at the room with my x Ray vision and I saw her back pack with all that money was missing but did she walk since can’t drive, its not safe.

Mom walked in.

Mom: I found her.

Me: where?

She touched me and I teleported to the room and she was in a ball curled up sleeping. I breathed a sigh of relief. I took off my shoes and got in bed snuggling her. I knew my dad was handling the independent research lab since he had a deal with the government.

Sipho

The next two weeks were a night mare. Lizwe was depressed. Lisabella was giving us silent treatment. Every day she wakes up helps prepare breakfast eat and leave to her bedroom where Lizwe tells me she just lays there looking at the blank wall with tears in her eyes and she sleeps. I was by the lounge with the depressed Lizwe.

Lizwe: she allows me to cuddle her and she cries herself to sleep every night.

Me: have you tried speaking to her.

Lizwe: she never answers me nor anyone. Its like she is a zombie. We suppose to be in honeymoon phase.

Me: Am so sorry

Lizwe: am losing her

Me: you not

Lizwe: I can feel it. The way she looks at me. Its hurts bro its really does. And just then She walked by and open the door walking across the yard to Dion.

Lisa

I stood there for a second and knocked.

Avery: Hi. She welcomed me in and I looked at Dion.

Me: Thank you for having me over

Avery: our pleasure. Let me leave you two here.

Avery

I quickly ran over to the Musk. I found them with the channel casted and they were already listening in on the silent. This time Kamo went extra and used her big mirror by the wall for us to watch them. Basically it was like we watching an intense movie.

Lisa

He poured me tea and we walked to the couch and I took a sip.

Me: Thank you for allowing me to come over

Lizwe

Hearing her voice even though it hoarse was the best thing ever.

Lisa

Dion: Glad you okay

Me: I don't know if I am

Dion: why you say that.

I took a sip of my tea.

Me: I love him. I felt tears roll down my face and I wiped them away.

Me: I saw his family being crazy with unimaginable things and all I can say is I love lizwe. Am in love with a mythical creature. Am in love with a man who have big huge strong wings. Am in love with a man who has a brother who have horns, a mother that a fairy and a father that turns to a wolf and you want to know what the funny part? Dion looked at me feeling my pain.

Me: The funny part is every night I log for him to come to bed and every night without fail he comes in and snuggles me closer to him and whispers that he loves me. I pretend like am sleeping but I hear him. I feel every touch he give me and every kiss and mostly when his fast asleep i place my head on his chest just to see if his still alive.

I kept quiet for awhile. And looked at him.

Me: My father in law threw his only son to a wall because he disrespected me. Now tell me how can I not love them. Mom set up the house just the way iv always wanted my house to be. And Siphho. His the bigger brother I never had. He cares for me deeply. I see the way he looks at me. The little things he does like filling up my junk cabinet. Checking in on me when Lizwe at work. The crazy family that I want so much to hate are the same people that I love and respect. Tell me how did you accept it?

Dion: Love

Love is one simple world but holds so much power.

Me: but they are super-beings

Dion: ever wondered why you? Why you have to go through all of this? You are the chosen one for the reason. Find that and you will get your answers !!!....

Goodnight

Insert 13:

Lizwe

I watched my wife let go in another man and find comforts in his words and they sat talking about random things.

Sipho: At least you know she still loves you for you wings and all

I knew he was trying to help but today he wasn't. We watched as they bid each other good bye and we switched on the tv and acted like we watching whatever was on.

Lisa

I got in the house took a deep breath and brought my hoodie hat up and slowly walked.

Mom: Dear. I turned to find all the Musk family looking at me.

Mom: I understand you in the processing process there are books in the library that can help and feel free to come ask me anything. I nodded and looked at Lizwe he really was hurting. I was hurting but I wanted to take away his pain too.

Me: If you not busy can you come with?

Lizwe: who me? The hope in his eyes was to much that it choked my voice I nodded only and he jumped over the sofa and came by my side and we walked out.

Kamo

Everyone turned to look at me. I laughed

Me: am not going to spy on them

Siyabonga: are you not curious at all?

Me: I am but am giving them privacy.

The whole room laughed.

Sipho: do you even know the word they laughed more and I looked at them. Yes I wanted to see if they fine but I'll respect they privacy for once. My hands were itching to cast the spell but i did not.

Me: What happens with the research team that wants us as lab rats? I looked at Siyabonga as he got angry and i closed my mouth.

Lisa

We walked in silence. We got in the library and we was quiet for sometime and I looked at him.

Me: I love you

He looked at me shocked. Iv never said it and so did he but I think he need to hear it now more then ever.

Lizwe: I never knew what love was until i meet you and my heart did things it has never done before. I love you more than life it self. I blushed and looked at him.

Me: You should have told me. I whispered.

Lizwe: and say what exactly? Hy look at me? He spread his big black wings and I looked at them. I reached out and touched them.

Me: I don't know, you should have said something instead of me finding out the way that I did.

Lizwe: I know

Me: What are you guys? I know mom is a fairy

Lizwe: witch fairy.

Me: what the difference. Oh my God am living in the tinker bell world. I felt vibrations and I knew I wasn't imagining them.

Kamo

Me: shhh Lizwe will know we listening in.

Lisa

I looked at him and calmed myself down and threw myself on a sofa. I never in a million years thought I'll be facing this situation.

Lizwe: Am sorry

Me: For what? You were born like this? Did you mom get some type of a radio active poisonous effect. What happened?

Lizwe: born like this. I kept quiet and looked at him and looked away

Me: I need time to figure this out. Process it .

Lizwe: okay

Me: Am not saying am giving up on us but just saying I need space to process it.

Lizwe: I hear you. I love you

Me: I love you too.

We were both quiet.

Lizwe: I feel better with you sitting on my lap. He gave me a shy smiled and I got up and sat on his lap and then he touched my waist bringing me closer to him and I leaned back as he kissed my neck slowly sending shivers down my spine. In a second clothes were torn out from me and I was but naked as he slowly inserted himself on me. I felt shivers down my spine as he rode him slowly with all my emotions. I felt him vibrate and I knew he was letting go. In all my life I've never been fucked the way that he fucked me. From the couch to the floor to the wall. He was so deep I thought my organs will explode. I was now on the floor screaming with delight as he smashed into me faster as I squirted vibrating all over leaving me breathless. He came going deeper as I screamed as another climax hit me hard making me vibrate head to toe. We cuddled with us panting so hard trying to catch our breath.

Me: Are you trying to kill me?

He laughed and looked at me and I saw and felt all the love.

Lizwe: You are everything to me. You my heart. My soul and always on my mind. I promise no one will ever harm you or isolate you because you married to our kind. We as human as we can get and we always put our own first. And right down you are everything that we ever needed in life. I've done crazy things in my life and my dad has never laid a hand on me but for you he threw me across the wall. That how important you are to me and them.

I looked at him with tears in my eyes.

Me: Why me? Am just a normal kid no powers nothing.

He looked away and then looked at me.

Lizwe: I've just made love to you with no boundaries . Look at the room.

I looked around to seeing books half all over, couches and lamps broken and overturned. The wall was crushed into I remember him pushing me against the wall as he went in faster until I vibrated with my climax.

Me: Oh my God

Lizwe: and yet you have no bruises no a single broken bone nor any bruising. When I go deeper you allow me. I've completely let go and you take it all on. You were born for me and I for you. I was so shocked.

Me: I have powers

Lizwe: Am not saying you have powers, am not saying you have supernatural means but am saying you my chosen one and for that to happen they have to be something about you that makes you so other than your amazing character. I know my mom knows more about you than she letting on because she has the ability to see the future. They did this because they know our future.

Me: so your mother is the most powerful?

Lizwe: I am

Me: yet you don't know what it is about me that has me linked to you?

Lizwe: other than my love for you. No I don't.

I was quiet for some time.

Me: Am taking a gap year

Lizwe: why?

Me: To read all these books. To know more about you and us and this family. To find out answers.

Lizwe: You always wanted to study

Me: Which I'll do but right now I need answers and am going to do my research.

Lizwe: The people we killed were researchers. I looked at him.

Me: Do you know what they wanted?

Lizwe: No

Me: I need to find out what they want. He looked at me for some time.

Lizwe: You not leaving me?

Me: I love you and I meant it. Till death do us apart.

He grinned that adorable smile and I kissed him saddling him as I slowly went down with him opening me wider than I've ever been as I slowly rode him driving him and myself insane. He went deeper making me climax and I lost it and went faster riding out the climax and building another as he held on tight to my hips gripping me in place as we both neared our climax that left me without a voice and him shaking like a leaf. I threw myself on top of him as we were catching our breath still in tact. I swear love making has just become a new favourite for me.

Lizwe: You want to give me a heart attack. I moved in a circular motion and went hard so fast making me scream in excitement. I don't know what got to me as I turned and started riding him in a reverse cowgirl kind of a move as he was right on my G-spot as we both were groaning like small bulls as we rode each other climax after climax until my body was like a mash mellow. He got up and started a fire and brought me closer with scatter pillows there and slowly lifted my leg and went in and stayed there not moving.

Lizwe: I love being in you. You so warm and always ready for me. I blushed as he was slowly moving building up my tension for move and before new it he was pounding on me like there is no tomorrow as he was attacking my G-spot making me go crazy

The noise and banging of things falling down and tearing of clothes made me stop the listening but they were in the study and that one of the rooms that not sound proof. This went on for hours with Siyabonga laughing all the time when they start again.

Sipho: Is he trying to kill her?

Me: am not going to comment

Siyabonga: make up sex is the best. Come help me with something in my room.

Sipho: yeah sure rub it in guys am going to see Joshua. Siyabonga looked at Sipho assessing if his okay and he was satisfied as he kissed his my neck. As Sipho left and he placed me on the counter moving my panty to the side as he roughly entered me and riding me till we both exploded. We cleaned up just as the room vibrated and I knew the other two were at it again.

Me: Should I tell them?

Siyabonga: Tell Them what?

Me: That Lisa is a fallen Angel! He looked at me.

Siyabonga: not now let them figure it out themselves that she is a fallen Angel making her immortal too....

Goodmorning guys

Insert 14:

Lisa

Its been 3 months since iv embarked on the journey of finding out about my in laws and lord I never expected what I found.

The facts are:

My father in law: his a werewolf that feeds on the power of his wife. His the strongest and most loyal one in the whole family and most importantly his the alpha of all werewolf's and of cause has more the 30 powers

My mother in law: God bless this woman soul. The kindest witch fairy ever. Has more than 30 powers one of them being the power of sight and healing. She is nature bonded and has the kindest heart ever Sipho(my brother in law): He is a varko vampire. The kind of vampire you get when genetic mutations happen. His kind and sweet and is loyal to his family and has a heart of gold. His only power is strength and being the fastest vampire in the whole world.

Than we get my husband the beast of all supernatural beings half human and half werewolf with a blood of a fairy in him. He has over 50 powers and one of them is being invisible and teleporting. His the smartest individual and the most intuitive person ever. Hard to love but when the love they love with they all. He can kill a person without thinking it in the heat of a moment. Yes he can be a werewolf too when angry but he always result in having his wings that with one clap can cause a building to crumble.

Than there was me. One of the fallen angels. My faith is unknown yes am a fallen angel but not as the disobedient angel. Am one of a few that were just innocent by standers when lucifer rebelled against God. The funny part is that I had mind powers. I have the ability to control individuals and what I want them to do. I can fry your brains by a single touch and oh I have wings so the book says and believe me i have tried a million times with all the pets that Lizwe been buying and all the things that the book says I can do. Iv never exceeded in any of them. Lizwe has tried teaching me activating my wings but to no extent. The only thing iv mastered is driving.

Me: Maybe this is not me. Mybe your parent's got it wrong am not a fallen angel.

Lizwe: explain why you immune to all our powers. You pain resistance and no power thrown at you can hurt you. We can't even read your mind. Dad tried throwing you against the wall and he couldn't. My father the strongest man on earth couldn't lift you up.

Me: how come you can pick me up?

Lizwe: that because am your husband and you allow me too.

Me: I still can't believe am an angel. No wonder i pray all the time. Maybe I dont have powers because God thinks am one of lucifer friends.

Lizwe: you an Archangel. You falling with the fallen angels was not a punishment but you falling with them to help guide them back home. You are the voice of reason between the mortals and the immortals. The humans beings and supernatural beings. You are the highest rank of the Malaika. By a clap of hands you can kill a whole nation. Fuck baby you even more powerful than any of us.

I laughed at him and looked into his eyes.

Me: do you really think so? I cant even light a single fire with my hands yet alone spread my wings. All i can do is pray.

Lizwe: when I first saw you, i was blinded by you beauty the noor(light) on your face that was the light of God. His favour onto you now don't you doubt yourself for a second.

I looked at him and smiled and he hugged me.

Me: today am going to the library to get a book.

Lizwe: what time?

Me: after breakfast.

Lizwe: I have back to back meetings today will you be okay alone?

Me: yep, ill take one of the guards. Yes you dad has place a lid on the researchers but i dont think that fight is over yet and plus the crew too haven't shown themselves.

Lizwe: alright. You can ask Siphon to come too his been listening to your findings and practising like crazy.

Me: ill ask him. I put on my sneakers and helped him with his shoes.

Me: I still can't believe a powerful person like you don't know how to tie his shoes. I laughed as he made a face and when I was done I looked at him.

Lizwe: no stress okay. I nodded and he kissed my forehead and left. I took my bag and walked out of our house to the main house and found it a buzz the whole family was here.

Mom: I thought I had to wake you up.

Me: I slept late

Dad: You know this studying And researching is too much. You need to take a break.

Me: I will when I get to the bottom of this. He gave me a light squeeze. My father in law was a father to me. He cared about me and my well being like how a father should. Actually the whole family was amazing.

Mom: They just passing through. Am driving them to the airport after lunch, want to come with?

Me: I have to go to the library

Mrs Musk Senior: where my grandson?

Mrs Musk Senior: bummer.

Sipho: Can I drive you please. Or mom will ask me to tag along and I have no meetings today.

I nodded as the family was going on and on laughing than when they were gone I helped clean the kitchen with Sipho help and then we left.

Sipho: How are you with everything?

Me: am good and you?

Sipho: Good

Me: what is it?

Sipho: nothing

Me: oh we hide things from each other now

Sipho: You my baby sister.

Me: Oh now am your baby sister

Sipho: Fine. I meet a girl. I got so excited that I squealed.

Me: Lizwe never said anything to me. He looked at me

Me: his my husband we talk about everything.

Sipho: Well I asked him not to tell anyone.

Me: Tell me about the girl!!

Sipho: its nothing really am telling you now because she works as a librarian.

Me: wait a minute? Which one?

Sipho: well not the library you usually go to but the one at central.

Me: than we going there

Sipho: you hate going to J ohannesburg CBD

Me: well am going to see my potential sister in law so i can stomach it. We drove in silence for awhile.

Me: Tell me about her

Sipho

I looked at her smiling and told her.

Me: She is amazing. Talk, not too dark or light. Got some shape nyana and a little crazy. I like her for wittiness and craziness.

Lisa: You in love

Me: She makes me feel good about myself and she love the birth mark

Lisa: does she know?

Me: She reads a lot and the books I was getting for you were not really hiding it. She kinda knows but we never spoke about it.

Lisa: at least you two dont have secrets

Me: we sorry about that

Lisa: we over it. We finally got there and we walked in and she went to look for her books while I walked to her office.

Me: Hey

Thenjiwe: Hi. She gave me the brightest smile ever.

Me: I brought my sister in law with to see you

Thenjiwe: why did you say? She touched her hair.

Thenjiwe: I look a mess

Me: A hot mess. I pushed her gently to the book of shelves and kissed her madly.

Thenjiwe: behave

Lisa

I checked out the books and asked one of the assistant who greeted us earlier to show me where my brother went and he pointed to the office on the left and I walked there and lightly knocked and open the door.

Me: Siphon

And just then I watched as the girl eyes changed to dark black and she sprinted to me and My neck. Out of shock I raised my hand and she froze mid air. Siphon looked at me with so much shock.

Me: Am so sorry

Siphon: Your wings. I looked at myself and the most beautiful white wings were visible. There were fluffy and beyond cute. I shrieked in excitement.

Me: I have wings!!!!!!.....

My long afternoon have started ill see you guys later hopefully

Insert 15

Lisa

I slowly moved the girl to her chair and then tied her to the chair. I really don't know how i did that. Siphon moved the desk and we both looked at her.

Me: Am sorry

Siphon: She attacked you first remember!!! You didn't even say anything apart hi and she jumped on you like a rabbit.

Me: How did you meet her?

Siphon: she came to me when I was searching for books and we clicked.

Me: hmmm

Sipho: What are you thinking

Me: Nothing. Then her cellphone rang.

Sipho: Answer it

Me: Why me?

Sipho: you have a woman voice. It rang until it stopped and a few seconds later a message came through. I took her finger and scanned it to open:

Have you collected enough intel the crew is getting uneasy? Call me asap!!!

Iv never seen Sipho so angry. His horns popped up out of nowhere.

Me: Calm down

Sipho: She was using me.

Me: you don't know that.

Sipho: read the message again.

Just then she came through and looked at me with so much fear in her eyes. I never made anyone fear me in my life and yet here we are.

Thenjiwe: Hi

Me: You attacked me and am not understanding why? She looked at me confused.

Thenjiwe: How do you know her? He asked Siphonot looking my way.

Siphonot: We ask questions and you answer. She broke down crying. Siphonot and I looked at each other confused.

Me: You need to calm down and talk to us. She tried to control her crying but it was difficult.

Me: How can we help if you don't speak to us?

Siphonot: Come let go. He looked really pissed. I pulled a chair and sat in front of her

Me: come on

Thenjiwe: People like you kill people like me

Me:like me? That took me back.

Thenjiwe: Yes like you.

Me: And how am I?

Thenjiwe: don't play dumb with me I can see the glow!!!

Me: lady you speaking in riddles not making sense at all. Now let start from the beginning and be slow. Why did you attack me?

Thenjiwe: You were going to kill me.

Me: I don't know you, how am I going to kill you?

Thenjiwe:That what your kind do

Me: And what is my kind?

Thenjiwe: Archangels? Helpers that are trying to put some sort of balance after Lucifer big betrayal.

Me: Woooooah am not that.

Thenjiwe: You have the glow.

Me: Am just a regular person. In a split second she changed and lord I saw the most horrifying face ever.

Sipho: What the fuck?

Thenjiwe: You both saw that?

Me: were we not suppose to see that?

Thenjiwe: Normal people don't. I know his a varko so if you not an archangel what are you?

Sipho: The crew?

She looked down.

Me: We saw your text with them.

Thenjiwe: After I meet Sipho they offered me money to record our conversations.

Sipho: and you said yes?

Thenjiwe: I needed it.

Sipho: You couldn't talk to me? I thought you and I had something.

Thenjiwe: We do

Sipho laughed.

Sipho: You just attacked my sister, than I find out you can change to a skeleton and now you say you been helping the crew spy on my family.

Thenjiwe: I love you

Sipho: People you love you don't treat them like how you have treated me. You thrown my family into a den and you did that for money??

Thenjiwe: I needed the money

Sipho: I have money, you could have told me and I would have given you that what couples do for each other or am I wrong in thinking that?

Thenjiwe: Am sorry

Sipho: to late now you never even told me what you are. She looked down.

Thenjiwe: you don't date my kind. She spoke with tears in her eyes.

Me: what your kind? She looked at me.

Me: a demon?

Sipho laughed louder.

Sipho: can my day get any worse.

Thenjiwe: I don't suck souls

Sipho: I think we need to take a break. Ill give you the money that you took from the crew and stay the fuck away from them. He left and I untied her.

Me: Do you really love him?

Thenjiwe: his the only guy in my whole life who has literally listened to me. I was normal with him. I know what I did was wrong but I had no choice.

Me: we always have a choice.

Thenjiwe: Am sorry for trying to attack you but it was more for me to run away before you return me back to hell.

Me: That not my job. But I hear you. Now how you going to handle the crew.

Thenjiwe: I really don't know what ill say. I took a piece of paper and wrote my number down.

Me: here Will talk but for now give him space for him to sort himself through this and will take it from there.

Thenjiwe: Why you so kind to me?

Me: one thing I know I can do is read people aura and right now it says you genuine. If you fooling me than so be it but am going with my feeling and it says you right for my brother. Just waiting for him to see it.

Thenjiwe: Thank you so much.

Me: See you. I picked up my things and left. Got to the car. Siphos was quiet so I kept quiet too.

Siphos: she lied

Me: Not really, she did the same you did to me. You should be understanding and know where she coming from.

That got him quiet.

Lizwe

Mpumeh walked in looking like she just seen a ghost.

Me: what up?

Mpume: Lindiwe.... she didn't finish her sentence and she walked in. I smiled at her and nodded for her to go. She left and I looked at Lindiwe in her skimpy dress and heels and the longest nails and lashes.

Me: You got an appointment?

Lindiwe: you can't use me like this and throw me away just because you married. I don't mind being your side. I got up from my chair and walked to her. I touched her neck and tightly squeezed lifting her up. The shock in her face was enough.

Me: Now let me say this once and never again. Come near me again nor my wife will break your neck within seconds. Do I make myself clear? She nodded with tears rolling down her face. I let go and she started coughing.

Me: Now leave. She did so running and Mpume walked in.

Mpume: Anything you need sir?

Me: Nope, no more walk in.

Dad: Did I just....

Me: not now dad, she wont be coming in again ever

Dad: good. I have the team looking for the crew.

They on standby watching they every move. Looks like they have surveillance on us. You need to make sure that you have your eyes open because anything can happen anytime.

Me: cool. I looked down and dad was quiet for some time and I looked up and found him looking at me

Dad: What wrong?

Me: nothing

Dad: I know you

Me: I know you do

Dad: now talk to me. I closed my laptop and looked at dad.

Me: I think Lisa is pregnant. In all my life iv never seen my dad so happy.

Dad: am going to be a grandfather. Wow.

Me: I think so

Dad: Than what wrong

Me: I saw mom struggling with raising us and the fear she always had for our safety. Now the crew and her powers. I have fears. My dad laughed lightly and looked at me with the most loving eyes ever.

Dad: a child is a gift. You have the best supporting structure ever and that child will be the most loved kid ever irregardless of him or her having powers or not. We protect our own come high or low.

Me: I know am nervous

Dad: That a sign that you going to be the best dad ever. I smiled at him.

Me: Now We wait for her to see.

Dad laughed.

Dad: your mom found out about you when you gave her a kick after her mom told her a million times and she said she ain't feeling anything. I smiled.

Me: Thank you for always being a constant in our life.

Dad: That what fathers do and thank you for being the best kid a father can ask for.

Me: did you just call me a kid?

Dad: kanti awusiye yini??

We laughed.....

Goodnight

Insert 16:

Lizwe

I walked in home and found Mom sitting alone at the lounge. I know it was way past dinner and dad was having a late meeting.

Me: What up?

She smiled like she hasn't seen me in years.

Mom: Thank you

Me: for?

Mom: making me a grandmother. Am so excited. I looked around for Lisa and looked at mom.

Me: mom it not verified yet

Mom: I know she doesn't know but am so excited.

Me: keep it to yourself for now. I want her to find out herself.

Mom: Ill try

Me: No trying. Please.

Mom: okay, ill shut up.

Me: good, where Siphos?

Mom: His not himself today and am not sure why?

Me: Let me check in on him. I kissed her forehead and went to his room and knocked. He opened the door and found him drunk.

Me: What did she do?

Sipho: how you know its a woman problem?

Me: you drinking with mom downstairs!!

Sipho: I had the sage on so she cant spy on me.

Me: so you think, what eating you?

Sipho

I told him everything and when done I looked at him for advice.

Lizwe: I would have done the same, actually i did the same as her to Lisa

I looked at him confused.

Lizwe: I know you feel like you can't trust her and all but there really nothing that you can do. She did what she did because she thought it was best. Now you give her room to try and fix it.

Me: are you hearing yourself?

Lizwe: Iv known you for like forever and in all my life you have never spoken about a girl the way you spoke of her. Yes she made a mistake but she was scared. I kept quiet for awhile and looked at him.

Me: Did you bring ice cream with you.

Lizwe: why? He looked at me confused.

Me: I watched your wife finish a whole tub of ice cream earlier on in one go.

Lizwe: Ill go buy get some from mom fridge. Thanks

Me: Is she pregnant? I watched my brother face glow.

Lizwe: she don't know yet

Me: how can she not know when all she does is eat!!

Lizwe: Well you know how these things go

Me: am not sleeping in tonight am going to Thenjiwe

Lizwe: Check in when you get there if in 2 hours you dont ill assume it as a threat. Remember the crew is here.

Me: I got it.

Lisa

I sat on the counter as I looked out the kitchen window and ate the grilled chicken I made. I've been eating a lot these days but not gaining. I heard the door and after a while he came in holding the crushed cookies ice cream. I swear this man is everything I need. He placed it next to me and sat in between my legs. He looked tired.

Me: Tough day?

Lizwe: Yeah. I opened up the tub and started eating.

Me: want to talk about it?

Lizwe: not really.

Me: Well I had wings today. I quickly looked side to side to see if there anything I will break then open them. I saw his face light up.

Lizwe: They look beautiful.

Me: I know hey. I called them in and continued with my Ice cream.

Lizwe

I watched as she was about to finish the whole tub.

Lisa: What you looking at?

Me: Nothing let me go bath then We can watch a movie? She nodded and Just then I felt a small tug on my. I looked at it and I saw blood oozing out of it and I knew something was wrong with Siphho.

Lisa: You bleeding

And there was a next shot of pain on my left and before I reacted I felt my panic watch vibrate.

Me: Something is wrong with Siphho and before I could finish my sentence I heard gunshot outside and our security detail team screaming.....

That all I managed to write... I had visitors today

Insert 17:

Lizwe

I saw my mom running in our house worried. She came to me and closed her eyes and the minute she disconnected us my wounds started healing.

Mom: Your dad in the lounge with Dion and Avery. The pack is on they way. I looked at Lisa who just went mute and had big eyes.

Me: look at me

She turned and looked at me.

Me: You need to stay with mom okay!! She nodded and I opened the last drawer in the kitchen and took out a gun and let

Lisa

I turned to my mother in law.

Me: We got to do something

She looked at me for a second then looked at the door and I knew she wouldn't let anything happen to her kids.

Mom: I need to protect you too.

Me: Hey I can be of help,

Mom: of anything happens to you Lizwe will never forgive me.

Me: nothing going to happen to us. Now come around this side and let go see what happening. I walked around got my sneakers and walked out the door. I looked behind to find my mom in law holding a gun. Why she needs it since she is a fairy is beyond me.

Lizwe I ran our dodging bullets from everywhere to my father who was ripping necks like no one business. When I got to him I found Siphos down and I ran to him flapping my wings and throwing everything everywhere. Once I had him I dug out the bullets from him and took out the tiny bottle mom always gave me to have around and gave him a sip. He looked up to me with pained eyes.

Siphos: They bullets are laced with something.

Me: I know dad signalled for me not to be hit.

Sipho: Its the researchers again and this time they prepared

Me: Mom and Lisa are inside. You need to go in.

Sipho: but..

Me: You been hit with something we don't know in your system and we dont know what else might be happening in there. Go to mom and stay there

Sipho: But

Me: No buts... remember the deal?

Sipho: yes

Me: Good. I take of you in times like this and you take of me in my times of need.

Sipho: I know

Me: Good. Now go ill cover you.

I turned to look at the million people coming out and helicopter dropping people like flies.

Sipho

I ran into the house and literally looked everywhere and didn't find them.

Lizwe going to kill me. I switched on the watch intercom to speak to him. When he gave me this watch i was like" what the hell his doing" but here I am.

Me: Bro

Lizwe: You messing with my concentration

Me: They not here

Lizwe: Who

Me: Mom and Lisa.

Lizwe: Check my house

Me: That were Am at right now

Lizwe: Find them. He disconnected and I walked out the door from they lounge and found a trail of dead bodies and followed them and felt some movements in the bushes. I quickly moved around the fountain and stood there. And Just then I watched as a figure in full black moved out. I got my horns out and jumped on him only to feel boobs.

I rolled her on the floor and looked in to the most beautiful eyes iv ever seen in my whole life.

Her: Please don't hurt me.

Me: Who are you and what are you doing here???

She started a few times and then just fainted. I carried her into the tool shed that the Gardner usually use and I walked in and found Lisa with a gun in her hands and mom with a ball of fire. I smiled looking at them.

Mom: Oh God its you, she had tears in her eyes

Lisa: Who you holding??.....

Good morning zithandwa ... Sorry for the short piece ill make it up to you!!!

Insert 18:

Lizwe

After some time we were able to remove most of the researchers with my dad fuming. He took a long shower and drove to the government base to do as his threat. He had a whole team and I while Dion stayed at home with Siphon and the ladies.

Dad: looked at me pissed.

Me: you need to calm down.

Dad: Am calm son. The way he said that was threatening and when we got to the head office and in all my life I've never seen my father this. He was barking at the president and ministers. He withdrawn all the funding he was giving them and when he was done with making them sign all the papers.

Dad: Am a kind man but when you attack my wife and kids, you waking up a monster.

President: Can we please talk about this

Dad: I spoke the last time. He turned and we left with the room going upright with roar as they fought amongst themselves.

Lisa

Iv never seen Siphon like this not even with Thenjiwe. He was sitting there looking at the young beautiful lady waiting for her to wake up.

Me: Go take a shower and Ill call you when she up.

Siphon: am fine

Me: You have blood. He nodded leaving and when he wad gone I made sandwiches and sat down with the young lady waking up. Mon was cleaning the mess with Avery.

Her: Where am I. I gave her a glass of warm milk to calm her down and she drank it and looked at me with some sort of fear but then she calmed down as I smiled at her.

Me: Am Lisabella

Her: Nokuthula

Me: pleasure to meet you.

Mom walked in with dad looking like a monster and my husband. I stood up with the lady behind me.

Me: before you all start. Let me talk okay.

Lizwe: What going on?

Me: Please. I begged and in minutes I had Siphon next to me backing me up.

I turned to look at the young lady. She was older than me by maybe 5 to 6 years.

Me: It will help you if you speak to me. Focus on me and forget the others okay.

Nokuthula: Okay.

Me: Cool, how did you end up in our bushes?

Nokuthula: I heard about the work sting operation of getting a Varko vampire, witch fairy, werewolf and a warlock into custody to studies that will be used to improve our soldiers. This have been studies that been going on for a while now and we have a team that been tracking vampires but if they have no unique genetic coding they deemed useless and killed or released deepening on how much they know.

Me: and you a what?

Nokuthula: Methodical researcher of genetics.

Basically I help see determine if theory can be made practical.

Me: I see. And you got here how?

She smiled nervously quiet proud of herself.

Nokuthula: I waited for them to plan the covert mission since no one knew were we would find such creatures and if they even existed. But then the president came to our head office and started screaming at us for attacking the Musk family in the last attack . That when I knew it was here. I remember the last mission address and I knew it was yours so I drove here to warn you all about this but then I was late as I saw what was happening when I drove here.

Dad: Warn us why?

Nokuthula: i lost my parents at a young age. When I got to matric your wife came to my school and spoke about having impossible situations and making it through irregardless. After her motivational speaking she gave me the courage to apply even though i had no cent to apply to study further. And I got in. Got a bursary from your foundation and life was bearable afterwards.

The whole house was silent. I watched mom go to her touch her and close her eyes and I knew she was reading her. We kept quiet and when she was done, she smiled and looked at her husband passing a message because he relaxed.

Lizwe: You work for a closed facility...

Nokuthula: we only have trackers in our phones and cars and I left those at home and rented the car I used to come her not using my credit card but a friends.

I watched Sipho smile.

Me: So what now?

Nokuthula: Uhm I know this sound weird but if they are supernaturals. What are you? I read the reports they have on them but they have nothing on you but that you just normal.

Lizwe: You read?

She looked into the small bag she had on her took out tiny blue files and gave us and we read it with dad getting angry again.

Nokuthula: so!

Mom: You a normal vampire with no powers just turned into one by the man who killed your parent's Nokuthula: Yes. Sometimes I forget am one the way am so normal. I have no powers. I tried but Am just a regular person who was turned.

Sipho: Must be lonely.

Nokuthula: It has it moments but you get used to it.

I watched as Sipho looked alive. What going on with him.

Lizwe looked at me and signalled for the kitchen and I excused myself.

Lizwe: I dont like how his looking at Sipho. I laughed until tears came out. Mom walked in.

Me: Sorry.

Mom: Its his turn now. Don't ruin it for him with your suspicions

Lizwe: I never said anything.

Mom: You my son, i know you

Lizwe: How convenient that she just landed here.

Mom: I sensed her

Lizwe: Am not saying your powers are wrong but mom

Mom: You act like you the only one who cares about Sipho survival.

Me: Lizwe please. Dad looked at his wife and Lizwe.

Dad: Am sorry Kamo am with lizwe here. This is just too convenient.

Mom and I looked at the two stubborn people defeated.

Mom: why ask me to read and sense people energy when you wont trust me.

Dad: That my son we talking about

Mom: Did you just say that our loud???

And Sipho and Nokuthula walked in looking at us confused.

Me: I think we tired from today event's. How about we sleep and attend this matter in the morning.

Lizwe and dad: What about her?

Avery walked in looking amazing in all black.

Avery: She will sleep at my house guest bedroom. The perimeter is secured. She looked at dad and he nodded.

Sipho: there no need for that. We have so many rooms here. I watched dad and lizwe look down.

Mom: can you give us a moment. She looked at Nokuthula who nervously smiled and walked back to the lounge.

Sipho: What the fuck is wrong with you people?

Dad: This is your life we talking about

Sipho: My life!!! You right, its my life!!! Let me be. He was getting angry.

Me: I think everyone is just looking out for you being that your genes are the ones the want more since they have vampires they can test it on. So we need to be more selective in people we welcome to our family.

Sipho: Mom vetted her.

Dad: You mom is the kindest soul ever. Sometimes she overlooks things. I watched mom get angry.

Mom: you know what let just end this conversation before we say things we might regret.

Me: She can stay here. Sipho squeezed my shoulder as a thank you. I didn't even look at the skeptical Lizwe. I hugged mom goodnight and dad kissed my forehead and they left with Sipho. I walked to the lounge still not looking at Lizwe.

Me: come this side please. She came and I nodded bye to Avery and walked her to her room.

Nokuthula: Am sorry

Me: Its okay. I showed her the room and shower.

Me: If you not being truthful with us. I feel sorry for you the day that the family will find out. But if you are, ill like to apologise for the way they behaving.

They nice people just not top trusting.

Nokuthula: Its okay. Uhm the other guy, Sipho.

Before i could even answer Lizwe stood by the door looked at her with one evil eye. She swallowed and looked away.

Lizwe: Goodnight. His goodnight was as tough as a board. I turned to her and smiled.

Me: Sleep well.

Nokuthula: sleep well sisi...

Insert 19:

Lizwe

I finished bathing and found her sitting on the bed having some chocolate biscuits. I wore my sleeping pants and got in bed.

Lisa: Good night

I kept quiet. Am not sure which I was angry about? Was I angry at how Sipho was backing her up of the relationship she has with Sipho or was I angry because of the unwanted guest in here. Or was I angry at my family being a target? Which was it that made me so angry at her. I closed my eyes and I heard her finish up eating and felt her move to a comfortable position. After that it was silent. I turned around and watched her fall asleep. I kissed her forehead.

“goodnight my love” i turned and went back to sleep.

Sipho

I couldn't sleep thinking about Nokuthula. I looked at my vibrating phone and it was Thenjiwe. I just closed it and tried my best to go back to sleep.

Thenjiwe

Me: his not picking up

Doctor: He better pick up.

Me: maybe he got hurt in the attack. Maybe they confused about what you guys shot him with.

Doctor: he better picks up and you invite him over and we capture him or else you are dead

Me: I don't have to give you guys anything, i gave you back your money. They nearly killed me. If it wasn't for that lovely lady he was with I would have died. I kept quiet, I wasn't about to snitch on an archangel. Yes I was recording the conversation between me and him and the plan was if I go to Siphon play him this just maybe things might go back to normal.

Doctor: I own you. I want that red boy and I want him end of the week

Me: What are you going to do with him anyways? He flogged me one of the files he was holding.

Doctor: Why the sudden interest

Me: Am working for you remember

He looked at me for some time then walked off

Nokuthula

I woke up washed my face and heard so sound from outside my room and walked out and saw the lizwe and Siphos in the lounge talking.

Lizwe

Me: Look, i don't want you to think we don't want you to be happy but your happiness shouldn't risk our family. Its family first remember.

Siphos: You worried about a girl that doesn't even know I exist. I haven't even made my move on her. I kept quiet and looked away then looked at him.

Siphos

Lizwe tends to over react on things but the worry on his face was too much. Sometimes he tends to forget that am older than him.

Me: Hey

I know you always got my back and thank you for that. Am okay.

Lizwe: Sho

I ruffled his hair and before we could say anything we heard some vomiting and we ran to the bathroom.

Lizwe

I watched as Lisa was bent over the toilet vomiting until I couldn't take it anymore when she was done I helped her wash her face and pick her up to the lounge. She looked at me with watery eyes and out of nowhere Nokuthula came with a glass of lemon.

Nokuthula: This helps with morning sickness. She handed her the glass and Sipho and I looked at her for spilling the beans. But Lisa didn't say anything drank the water and closed her eyes for a while.

Lisa

I calmed down then I heard what the young lady said. I opened my eyes wide and looked at them.

Me: Did you say morning sickness?

Nokuthula: Smiled, yes. Congratulations

Me: Congratulations?? Am not pregnant.

I looked at the confused girl. Oh lord dont make me pregnant. I jumped out of the couch and ran to the bedroom and opened a drawer and took out 3 of the sticks with Lizwe calmly looking at me. I went in the bathroom pee on them left them on the counter and paced.

Lizwe

It was my first time seeing her like this and I walked to her.

Me: hey come here. She threw herself on me and started crying.

Lisa: What we going to do? This is not the plan.

Me: look at me. She looked at me with her pink nose.

Me: We will make it our plan. You will carry our baby to full term. Give birth and love him like no other human being in the world. And Ill be right here all the way supporting you and you will still go study next year like you planned and Ill be right here supporting you.

Lisa: You promise?

Me: Have I ever broken my promises to you? She shocked her head no.

Me: Then why would I start now? I kissed her so hard and she left go. I slowly moved her to the bed and took off her dress and made love to her twice. Then snuggled her close to me with my guy still in her.

Me: I love you Lisabella. I'll always do come high or low.

Lisa: I love you more. I slowly moved as I flipped her over and went crazy on her until she had no voice when we were done I picked her up and had a nice warm bubble bath.

Me: do you want to see the tests? She nodded and I scratched my arms to the table and took all 3 positive test.

Lisa: Am going to be a mom

Me: A wonderful mother

She looked at me and kissed me as she turned and slowly inserted my guy in her and rode me slowly with so much emotions as I felt her every core and I felt myself coming closer to the edge. Trust this woman to drive me crazy....

Goodmorning

Sipho

I walked in my brother house found Nokuthula having tea and she smiled when looking at me.

Me: Hi

Nokuthula: Hi

Me: slept well? She nodded and I did the same. There was an awkward silence for some time.

Me: Am sorry about last night

Nokuthula: Its okay.

Me: I can drive you home if you like?

She looked around and nodded.

Nokuthula: let me get my bag.

Nokuthula

I walked to the room that I was sleeping at took out a paper and bed and wrote a note and left it by the side of the table. Took my small bag and walked put to Siphho.

Siphho

We walked out to the car and she got in. I activated my watch as a precaution and also took the bullet proof car. We drove out to her place in silence. I had no words to say to her and she made me so nervous.

Nokuthula: Your family is very protective of each other

Me: Yeah

Nokuthula : its nice and congratulations on being an uncle. I looked at her and figured Lisa now knows.

Me: Thank you. I drove into the complex. I parked by the parking.

Nokuthula: am on house 12D. I nodded.

Me:look I know we meet on questionable circumstances but when You free we can meet for breakfast lunch or dinner.

Nokuthula: You can come in now and have some breakfast if you like. I looked at her smiled nervously and nodded.

Kamo

I woke up to a buzzing sound and I knew I was in a version as I saw troops of vampires walking. And just that I saw his mom amongst those marching, hand cuffed and bleeding on the edge of losing her life.i knew that the Crew and Community were closer to taking Siphoh. I woke up panting with Lizwe and his dad looking at me with worried eyes.

Me: Its about to happen. The biggest war amongst us supernaturals is about to take place.

Siyabonga: What did you see

Me: They after him. Siphon is the only Varko of his kind living and they want him dead before he reproduces.

Lizwe: He could be reproducing now

Me: where is he?...

Siphon

She was really a smart calm person and I liked that about her. I helped her clean the dishes and when we were done. I stood next to the door ready to leave.

Me: I hope to see you sometime.

Nokuthula: Ill love to see you too.

I kissed her forehead and I really don't know what pulled me but I was all over her undressing her throwing her clothes everywhere as she directed us to the bedroom.

Nokuthula

In all my life iv never felt like this for a person. In less then a minute he had all my clothes ripped off me and we were both naked. My body was boiling hot and i felt him pick me up and push me against the wall as he roughly went in. And lord iv never been fucked like this in my life. He made me come a million times as he ravished me and when he was near I cling on for dear life as he went deeper and faster and we both exploded into a million pieces and threw us on the bed as we caught our breath.

Me: Wow

Sipho: sorry

Me: No need to apologise. I opened up the drawer next to me took out a little pouch of blood. I know that the kind of thirst I have only blood can quench.

Sipho looked at me.

Me: Animal blood. I drank and passed to him as he had some and snuggled closer as his phone rang. I passed it to him seeing it not a saved number.

Sipho: Hi

Voice: Its me. He slowly lets goes of me and sits up.

Sipho: What is it?

Voice: You never called since that day.

Sipho: Look, i cant talk right now.

Voice: Sipho

Sipho: ill be in touch later.

Thenjiwe

They were tracking our call and I didn't know how to warn him.

Sipho

Thenjiwe: Remember the first time we meet and you had the spy code book?

I was confused because I didn't have the spy code book. We spoke about it on our second date. And then it clicked.

Me: its been nice. Bye. I quickly hang up.

Me: Get dress and pack a bag

Nokuthula: Why

Me: J ust do it. She did as I asked and I left my phone on the bedside table and rushed her to the car. I drove like a maniac back home with her silent. J ust then my brother called. I knew mom has connected us again and he senses trouble.

Lizwe: You driving at 185

Me: Yep

Lizwe: i have the drones following you and armed just incase you run into trouble. Did you take the girl with you

Me: Yep

Lizwe: Cool. Ill let mom and Lisa know she coming . Is she okay?

Me: been quiet ever since we left her place

Nokuthula

I kept quiet as they spoke about me as if am not there. What have I gotten myself into.

Lizwe

Me: well, drive safe. We tracking you guys, you should be home in 10 minute

Sipho: cool. I felt that he was calm and cold.

Me: Hey. We got this.

Sipho: Will see you when I get there

Me: Tiger tiger

Sipho: Tiger tiger

I hung up. Lisa looked at me confused.

Lisa: Tiger tiger?

I smiled

Lisa

I watched him blush and looked at him curious.

Lizwe: You not going to let it go

Me: Nope, not with you grinning like a child.

Lizwe: fine. Its I love you. We started it when we was in school and didn't want other kids to label us gay. We already did so much together and people never understood how we were so connected. So we invented a code to say I love you when we part and Tiger tiger is what we came up with. I blinked tears. That was so sweet.

Me: You guys are too sweet

Lizwe: Whatever. We having a full house later on. You mom and aunt are on they way. Am not even going to suggest that you go stay with my grandma because you won't.

Me: You figured.

Lizwe: Mom going to link you to her so that if anything wrong she helps you heal fast.

Me: Oh

Lizwe: you good? Before he finished i rushed to the bathroom to vomit. When done i looked at him.

Me: can mom take away the vomiting?

Lizwe: it will be over soon. The house was pilling up with packs from different families. When the Alpha calls everyone turns up. I was in my room with Nokuthula who we kind of connected with and were close. She adopted the role of being my helper. I don't know why but today I felt every bit pregnant. I was vomiting all that I ate. I was weak and being in bed was the only option.

Nokuthula: we had sex.

She blurted it out and I looked at her blushing.

Me: With who? I asked being dumb

Sipho

I was bring up the water mom made for Lisa and the door was half open and I entered before i turned the corner to the I watched as Nokuthula blurted out our sex life

Nokuthula: Your brother

Lisa: Ewww his my brother. Please don't tell me.

Nokuthula: He was nice, full and thick and lord he knows how to use it

Lisa: Nokuthula stop

Nokuthula: Even right now I can feel where he was.

Lisa: I know that feeling girl. When he goes deeper as if he wants to leave himself there Nokuthula laughed all excited.

Nokuthula: I know it too soon to tell but his the one. I've never connected with a person like this in my life.

Lisa looked at her.

Lisa: Am going to share with you the easiest way to keep him forever yours.

Nokuthula: What that?

Lisa: Love him like you have never loved before. Accept him with his horns and moods. But mostly never come between him and his brother. Trust me I know. Sometimes the bond they have might get on your nerves but never let it bother you.

Nokuthula: Is it that bad?

Lisa laughed.

Lisa: Once we were watching a movie and it was really nice next thing I was busy texting and am asking him was he up? His like “I asked Siphon to watch the same movie we talking about it” I got so angry at him. Like dude we being romantic here and you busy with your brother who you spend your whole day with at work.

Nokuthula laughed.

Lisa: I love Siphon. He is a nice guy, at least now you here maybe the focus will shift.

Nokuthula: Do you think he cares about me?

Lisa: Why else did he bring you here?? They kept quiet for a while.

Nokuthula: But the love making... she vibrated and Lisa laughed so hard. I walked in while they were laughing.

Me: Ladies. Lisa looked at me ripped again with Nokuthula giving her an elbow. I pretended like nothing happened.

Me: Glad you guys having fun

Lisa: we are.

Me: Mom says this will help. I gave her and she drank it all.

Me: Feeling better? Just like that she started vomiting blood and I heard Nokuthula scream as I help Lisa.

Me: Go call for help. She nodded jumping out of the bed like a cheetah

I helped her vomit and with each she was gasping for air.

Lisa: I can't breathe.

Me: Stay with me please....

Lizwe

I watched in fear as my mom rolled her to the side and Jasmine saying some words to her and rubbing her tummy with some things. I watched in fear thinking that I might lose her.

After a while she stopped vomiting and mom made something for her and she kept drinking it. Her eyes light blue.

Jasmine: I need you all out.

I looked at my grandmother crazy green eyes.

Me: am not leaving

Jasmine: The next part of this is not going to be nice.

Me: What happening

Mom: Its the baby

Me: What wrong?

Mom: Its stronger then her

Me: Is it killing her?

Jasmine: No, its making her stronger for her to be able to carry him to full term. This is a process that her body is taking so it can carry her.

I felt the fear in my heart. Yes i know she said that its not killing her but making her stronger but i had to ask.

Me: Can she die from this? There was silence and I knew my answers but angels don't die pr do they. I walked closer to my wife and had her weak body half on me and kissed her on top of her head.

Me: Am here baby, we got this.

And I must say it was the longest night of my life. It was like she was giving birth from the screaming and crying. At some point i heard all her bones break and mom was saying they connecting being stronger. Her eyes was changing colours every hour and she was sweating .

I don't know when I dozed off but I woke up to find the whole room dozed off and Lisa next to me looking so beautiful and so radiant with light brown hair from her roots. She looked stunning. Her lashes were long and she looked so fair it was unbelievable.

Lisa: You staring at me.

She whispered with her eyes closed.

Me: how can you see when you suppose to be sleeping?

She opened her light blue eyes and I swear i just felt in love with my wife all over again.

Lisa: How can I sleep when you staring? I moved closer to her and I felt tears in my eyes.

Me: I want to thank you for carrying my child. I know it's tough but thank you.

Lisa: Tiger tiger.

I laughed at her. “tiger tiger”

My mom woke up and looked at us snuggled and walked to us.

Mom: Feeling better?

Lisa: Yebo ma

Mom: let me see. She lifted her top and placed her hands on her and closed her eyes and she smiled.

Me: What you see?

Mom: They okay.

Lisa: They?

Mom: The babies you carrying.

Me: Mom babies are plural. Baby is one. Which is it

Mom: ay ke sifundiswa, go to the doctor if you don't believe me

Dad: what are you two arguing about

Me: mom says Lisa is carrying babies. I saw my dad face light up and jump to his wife

Dad: How many? Two

Mom: You won't believe me if I told you

Lisa: Mom? She whispered with shock in here yes

Lisa: You saying am carrying twins

Mom: I never said that

Me: want to go bath?

Lisa: Yes

And we left with me picking her up and taking her to shower.

Kamo

Siyabonga: How many are there

Me: It what we wanted for ourself. I watched as his face crumbled in a smile.

Siyabonga: Am going to be a grandfather

Me: Yes old man. Now help me go make breakfast for our guests. I woke my mom up and Siphos to follow me and we went to the kitchen to find Nokuthula already working her magic in the kitchen and I smiled. Siphos might not know it yet but she is the one for him. Its will get rocky but they will pull through.

Lisa

We drove to the doctors with Siphos and 3 body guards.

Me: we could have waited you know

Sipho: You scared us yesterday.

One will think his the father the way he was panicking

Lizwe: Its not that I don't trust mom but she loves hanging news like sweets.

Me: I know.

Sipho: I think she just wants you guys to have a normal pregnancy. she big on us being normal.

Lizwe: Yeah

Sipho: am going to be a father.

He grinned like a baby.

Me: Guys I need you two to tone it down.

Lizwe what are you talking about?

I looked at him and looked at the hand that he has on my tummy.

Sipho laughed.

Sipho: Yeah you need to tone it down.

We got in the doctor and sat down while Lizwe was filling out the form. When he was done he came to sit with me. We waited in silence. I guess everyone was thinking what they were thinking and then they called us and yes i had Lizwe and Sipho go in with me.

Doctor: Hi

Me: Hi

I was kind of shy about this.

Doctor: How can I help?

Me: We know we pregnant we just need to find out if everything is fine in there. He nodded.

Doctor: Let me run my own tests and we take it from there. Who the father?

Sipho: Am not leaving

Lizwe: His not asking you to leave bafo

Doctor: Is the father willing to run some test too so we can build up a profile for the child?

Lizwe: We just need a scan for now, ill do tests some other day.

He nodded and I started the whole process when done he placed me on the bed, spread cold gel on me and moved his scope. He adjusted the screen to us and he smiled.

Doctor: Child A here, B here.

Lizwe: twins?

Doctor: Hold on here is C and D and E. he moved it to the side. “oh here is child F”

Lizwe: 6 kids. The shock on his face as Siphon laughed.

Siphon: Am moving out when they born. You were a racket on your own imagine 6 kids.

Me: Can you give me a photo please. He moved it a bit and moved back in shock.

Doctor: Uhm i think I need to refer you to a specialist that deal with a multiple pregnancy

Me: why? What did you see?

Doctor: I Think there is 8 in there

Me: 8? As in 8 kids? Like number 8? The fear was on my throat.

Lizwe: Uhm. I think we will go. Thank you

Doctor: But this is a risky pregnancy. You need....

Lizwe: We okay. He picked me up and signalled to Siphon to do something I saw Siphon taking the file and ever paperwork with out names and walking to the doctor desk taking the surveillance video tape for the day and look at the doctor.

Siphon: Utter on word of this and I swear ill kill you. We left driving to the house in silence. So I might be carrying 8 kids? 8 full blown supernaturals. What did we just do???

Insert 22:

Lisa

We drove home and Siphon braked hard. I looked up to find the road closed by people and I knew that shit is about to get real...

Siphon: shit

Lizwe: The guys are on they way iv alerted them about this.

Guard: Everything you might need is in the seat behind.

Lizwe: Babe, will need you to move a bit. I shifted as they took the seat and guns out.

Me: Guns

Lizwe: it will slow them down.

Me: who the lady? They all turned to look right in to the eyes of a woman who was tied up and had horns.

Sipho: she like me

Me: Yes

Lizwe: For now we just need to make sure that we survive this. Use me as a shield

Me: I can help.

Lizwe: Not now Lis a please. All I need from you is to stay in the car. I nodded not because i was going to do as i was told but because i didn't want him to fear that am going to do anything stupid. I watched my husband and Sipho and they guards leave the car and at the corner of my eyes i saw movement in the bushes and white flash of fair and I knew my father in law was here with his herd.

Kamo

I watched from the distance as o was working up water from the near by pond making its current stronger so that I can wash away the weak ones. Some vampires feared water and I was going to use that to my advantage. J ust than when i was about to use water out of nowhere i watched in speed of a lightening as lisa ran out of the car using her wings as a shield from the fire works as she covered Lizwe as he killed everything that by they way. I stood there as i watched how with one touch people were falling down to the floor with face beyond recognition. She was glowing more with each dropped body. Lizwe looked back in horror to see lisa just behind him protecting him from any attack. Within a minute there was a flock of dead bodies on the floor and there stood Lisa with her big white wings and Lizwe with his black wings. Siyabonga changed to his human form and looked at me confused at what just happened.

Me: She just killed them with one touch.

Siyabonga: I saw

Me: she glowing

Siyabonga: I can see

She slowly lowered herself standing right in front of Siphos mother.

Lisa: You are?

Her voice was so calm and angelic

Joycelyn: Am his mother. She slowly pointed at the shocked Siphos.

Siphos: its because of you that we are here today.

Joycelyn: I can explain

Siphos: Ill give you a 5 minute head start run. She turned and ran.

I watched as she slowly got back to her usual self. She held on to the car to balance her. Lizwe walked up to her.

Lizwe: I said stay in the car for godsake woman.

Lisa: Its wasn't me

Lizwe: what you mean

Lisa: Its wasn't me. Its like my body was in control of me and I had no choice but to do as it was doing.

Lizwe: What are you talking about.

Me: Its the kids. Everyone looked at me with confused faces.

Lizwe:she not even 3 months

Me: Its they power. Its running through her veins plus her power.

Lisa: Am sorr.... she fainted and i caught her and saw a syringe poking her from her neck..

Insert 23:

Lizwe

Mom has been in our bedroom with Lisa for sometime now and dad been standing guard not allowing me in. Siphos been in and out of that room helping but yet not allowing me in.

Lisa

I woke up feeling much better and looked around.

Mom: Hi

Me: hey,

Mom: His outside, thought you will want some room.

Me: Thanks. His going to kill me.

Mom: not when you carrying two sets of Quintuplet.
I looked at her shocked.

Me: 10 kids?we saw 8

Mom: the other two were hiding

Me: oh my gosh!!! 10??? 8 was a lot and now 10.

She smiled at me.

Mom: We will be fine.

Me: we have researchers after us and once they find out am pregnant more trouble will follow.

Mom: hey calm down.

I felt myself panic and I heard the door open and I looked up to find Lizwe standing there looking at me.

Lizwe: You been in here for an hour

Mom: she needed rest and your pacing wasnt helping

Lizwe: is she fine?

Mom: yes, the kids combined power helped her kick it off

I looked down to my tummy when she said that.

Mom: let us leave you two.

Sipho

My phone vibrated and it was a Video and I clicked on it and watched as Nokuthula and a doctor was running tests on a Varko vampire who died. When I was done a text came through “you like them with skeletons in they closet” than a picture of Nokuthula and Thenjiwe popped up of Nokuthula in a lab coat and Thenjiwe in her casual clothes having coffee. I felt myself get furious and walked to the lounge. Grabbed her out to the patio.

Me: You played me

Nokuthula: with what?

Me: how can I be so stupid? I looked at her with eyes blazing.

Nokuthula

I watched in fear as the man who was slowly capturing my heart was a monster.

Thenjiwe

We watched via satellite as the two fought. The doctor somehow hacked the satellite saw one of the girls who works for him in the video at the Musk homes than sent videos of me and the girl. She really didn't deserve it and she and I were not plotting anything, she was just friendly towards me when I was here.

Doctor: Step one complete. See you are coming in handy!! He laughed his evil laugh.

Sipho

Me: are you feeding them information, are you they inside job? First they send Thenjiwe and now you?

Nokuthula: I really don't know what you on about. I threw my phone at her and she watched.

Nokuthula: so? This is my boss.

I felt myself losing it and I looked at her.

Nokuthula

In all my life iv never seen someone look at me like that. So much coldness.

Sipho: I want you to leave

Me: To where? What have I done wrong?

Sipho: are you fucking kidding me?

Me: No sipho, you been huffing and puffing the last 30 minute and am not getting it. I told you I worked there and I told you what was they plan and why I came to warn you after iv learnt who you are. Not once have I lied to you or have an agenda.

Sipho: The girl you with?

Me: Some girl that the doctor had business with, iv never asked.

Sipho: You lying. He used her and when her advances were not working they sent you. I want you out of her. I looked at him shocked and confused as to where his getting this from.

Me: Sipho.... he held me roughly and had fire in his eyes.

Sipho: Did you inject Lisa? The room went quiet.

Sipho: where were you when we were attacked?
What your game plan? What your mission??? As he rattled this questions forcibly bringing me closer to him,i realised how my presence and timing was all out. These video are making him question my me. Just than Mr Musk came out of the house aimed his gun to the sky and took a shot and we watched as a drone fell from the sky.

Mr Musk: both you you get in and Sipho leave her alone.... he spoke with a cool calm voice and I felt myself shiver. If I run will I make it home??

Mr Musk: Don't even think about it!!!....

Goodnight guys

Finale:

Nokuthula

I watched as Mr Musk looked at me as we were all gathered in the lounge.

Mr Musk: Now young lady you going to talk and Siphos let her finish.

Me: Yes worked with gene mutation and I didn't know about you guys till a few days ago and no I wasn't sent here to spy on you and report back.

Siphos: You and Thenjiwe?

Me: The girl was recruited a few weeks back she reported to the doctor directly and in that video I was having my lunch and she sat with me. I had no idea we being recorded unless he taped the surveillance.

Everyone looked at me.

Siphos: how can we trust you?

Mrs Musk: I believe her

Mr Musk: Young girl, if I ever find out that your intentions were or are otherwise might as well call your relatives and let them know to prepare for your burial. I nodded and he turned and left us there.

Siphos stood there looking at me for awhile than left.

Mrs Musk: He will come around.

Me: I doubt. I think its best I leave

Mrs Musk: Let me tell you, i saw you carrying the most beautiful baby boy iv ever seen and guess what?

Me: What?

Mrs Musk: He had horns just like his father and beautiful birth marks and had the most adorable smile ever.

I looked at her shocked.

Me: Really?

Mrs Musk: Leave now and you wont be able to see what I have seen.

Thenjiwe

I knew i had to get myself out of this. Demons can seduce any Tom Dick and Harry.

Me: Come closer, i forgot to tell you something. He moved and I closed my eyes and turned sucking the soul out of him giving me strength to break free and snap his head. I cleared all the data he had and poured petrol all over the place and set it alight and left.

1 year later

Lisa

I woke up to lizwe side of the bed empty, it has been for the past two days since he been gone on business. I went to look in the cribs and found my kids fast asleep. The last year has been eventful but my marriage have gone stronger and more loving and full of happiness. Having 10 kids in the house was a pain but a delight too. We had 6 boys and 4 girls and I must say they really had me going crazy. I cleaned up then took a quick shower and when done went to make something for the kids and I was to go fetch them when the door rang. Figuring its my mom in law and Avery and the nannies coming to help with today. But I opened the door and had a gun pointed at me by a talk black guy.

Him: You move, i shoot, you scream, i shoot.. i nodded.

He walked in with a bunch of people and he signalled to them and I saw them one by one taking my kids bottle and going to the room we were sleeping at then coming back confused.

Him: What wrong?

Guy1: The cribs are empty. I felt my heart getting a little weak and I did my best not to cry. He looked at me.

Him: where are your kids?

Me: they slept at they grandmothers today

Him: we had the whole house surveilled and your mother in law left alone yesterday.

Me: they not in they cribs clearly they at they grandma

He stood there for awhile and signalled and just than I heard the sucking sound. I knew it was Lithemba the oldest. He makes the most noise when his sucking his pacifier.

Him: what that? Before he could say anything I watched in fear as the guys he was travelling with were dropping down like flies.

He moved towards me and had a knife on my neck with fear in his eyes and just then my mother in law walked in with my father in law in his full form.

Mom: If you know what good for you. You will leave and never come back.

Him: Am going with her

Mom: That your biggest mistake and just then I felt his blood all over me and I turned to find no one behind me or him. We were in a room full of bodies but no attacker. I ran to my bedroom in fear and found all my kids in they cribs covered in blood. I looked at my mother in law.

Mom: The power of your kids saved you.

Me: How?

Mom: We shall see in time. I walked to my oldest Lithemba crib and found him with his light grey eyes like his father.

Me: Thank you. He smiled at me taking out his pacifier and raised his hands up. I picked him up as he placed his tiny hands on both sides of my face and I watched as my kids disappeared. I watched how with a touch of his finger they fell off and I watched at Lumile slaughtered their necks with just a finger. Here they were at 6 months doing things beyond my imagination and when they were done I watched as they slept like nothing ever happened.

We truly are about to see amazing things with these kids.....

.....The end.....

Thank you for being with me in this book... hopefully you find the next one as interesting. Here is the link <https://www.facebook.com/My-arrangement-106141211644069/>
