

[11/15, 00:42] Lynne: IT ALL STARTED BY BEING HIS FAKE BABY MAMMA

Prologue!!

You have been a great child ever since you were born,you made me proud with your Grade 12 final results..Baby please don't let boys change you and never let Varsity corrupt you-Mom

"Thanks mom I promise I'll never let you down"-Me

"I've been there baby I know how varsity can be.And I don't want to hear that you've started this Satanism of dating with other females mtanam you know how much I hate it"-Mom

Well yeah it's time for me depart to varsity.I got A's on all my subjects but I declined the offer of going to study in the states so I settled for UKZN not knowing what awaits me there

Well I've always been a lesbian all my life up until mom knew about it last year, You don't wish to know how bad it was. I was almost disowned by my whole family haha drama huh?

So I had to end my relationship so as to save my family from the embarrassment they were gonna face. Up until then I never loved again I'm just broken. I'm afraid to give my life and to be bare before someone again as it never ends well

I'm Melokuhle Davids and I'm 19 years old, I'm from a family of 4 and I'm the last born. 2 guys and 2 girls including me. Well I live with Mom as my daddy died long time ago so basically she's a doctor and a single Mom

Well I got dreadlocks, I don't have a figure but just an average stomach, no full hips but haha yeah I have them just for the sake of having them. Well I got ass for days baby!! Oh and I'm Xhosa with a beautiful flawless skin. I just love me for me

#Hlelokuhle

I watched my 10 months daughter sleeping peacefully on my chest knowing that I love her unconditionally. Just after I read her a story she was breathing heavily haha she was even drooling, but my stupid brain had to revive the day she was born. It was not a happy day but rather a sad day. Her mother had complications regarding to the pregnancy but she made me chose that whatever that will happen I'll have to choose our baby . Unfortunately she died while giving birth to her

I lost the love of my life, but then she left me an ever fixed Mark which is our daughter who I love so much

I'm Hlelokuhle Lindsay 25 and I'm an engineer. Haha a bachelor man yeah I've made sure my life will be better than the life I lived while growing up. My daughter is Misokuhle and I love her so much

Well I'm your typical handsome man

Haha a panty dropper with style, I'm caramel in colour and yeah I got those six packs that make ladies stare no I'm not arrogant or having an oversized ego it's the truth

Comments guys I need feedback please

I still remember the doctor's words just after my daughter was born. I still remember how I was thrown away of the operation room just because Bella couldn't give birth the natural way and because I was very emotional I was asked to leave the room. But immediately after the operation was successful I was called in, and when I first laid my eyes on my little princess she was so tiny and very pink. My Bella asked me to kiss her and take a family photo, I mean I and still a proud father so I did capture that moment. After that I kissed my Bella all over her face while she was giggling lightly probably because she was still sore. Just then after we named our daughter Misokuhle the machines started beating faster while Bella was screaming her lungs out telling us how much she loves us. And again I was thrown out of the operation room and I had to sit at the waiting area waiting for the doctor to tell me what was going on. I spent nearly half an hour up until the doctor appeared looking rather disturbed, and I just knew that there were bad news coming

"I'm sorry we did everything we could do to save her but we didn't succeed "-Doctor

I was hurt very hurt about what Bella did to me. My princess cried and I just realized that I was day dreaming yet again reviving painful memories

#Melokuhle

I hate goodbyes but then it's not like I won't see my family again so yeah I gotta be a big girl and face the world on my own this time around. So I got in the bus with my luggage and sat next to a beautiful handsome girl, Haha you know what I mean so yeah the journey was very long I won't lie and what was worse was the fact that I left my comforter throw in my suitcase and there was no way I'd be able to take it as all our suitcases were locked in that shelf. I started getting cold but then the girl I was with Cuddled me haha there was no time to have ego or to resist as I was getting cold. Her name is Asanda she's a talker that one, her cologne was intoxicating me in a good way. I felt warm and safe in her embrace. Well we arrived at our destination and yena shame she already had people who were gonna fetch her and yeah she left without leaving her number

I was doomed

Your comments matter!!

See you later maybe at 21:30

Well so the time was already 6:30 am.Haha so yeah it was a little bit strange I mean I'm just 18 and getting 19 on the next coming months,normally I'm mamma's baby so I'm sure some of you know how I feel at this moment so yeah don't blame me.Well my mood was down I mean I still smelled like her except that she just kissed my forehead and left,she did not even give me her number I was so sad I mean it just felt like I knew her since forever or she was my missing piece .Well I'm 75% a virgin if I can say so to my self since I've always been with girls and a year has passed since I got laid so I'm sure Spider webs were more like mansions on my nuna yhuu hayi kaloku the time we were cuddling I was so turned on oh I know I'm weak like that Phela it's been long hahaa .How would you react being cuddled

by someone who has pinkish tiny lips, a well made fade hayi these childish things y'all do to your heads .Okay so I called a cab and went to Glenside Center so I could have breakfast haha when I got there hay marni I was out of place yhuu bendimbi marn so I quickly went to the toilets made my towel wet and wiped some places .I opted to wear a navy body hugging dress with baby blue stilleto heels. Hayi I looked fly so I'm not a friend of make up I didn't even have it so I just opted for my dark maroon matte lipstick and made 2 cute little barbie buns with my dreadlocks heading to spur ,Hay sanurhala chii ndilambile kaloku .I got in hee marn people were literally drooling over me,so I just sat on my table took the menu and started looking through it

#Hlelokuhle

So yeah today I took a day off and did not go to work,well not by choice it's just that Miso's nanny didn't come through for me today. She's been literally flirting with me since Bella died I mean she's just not my type I slept with her once but now she caught feelings yhuu nzamthini mna umntu ongenafuture ufuna ugcwalisa indlu ngabantwana? hay sorry shame yhu ndizithanda too much for that . So yeah now I just finished bathing my princess after I told my boss the situation I was in so I thought maybe God is giving me a sign for a bonding session day with my First lady . So we wore matching outfits no babe wam we were on fleek with our navy shorts, black vans and white T-shirts yhuu umtanam bemile kaKuhle kaloku . I got out of the house with her on my arms, what bothers me is the fact that she's 10 months old but she hasn't even said her first word . So yeah we headed to Spur first we had a long day ahead of us nePrincess yam, we got in and looked for a table to sit so yeah we did that quietly up until when I moved to my table my princess was looking behind me wanting to cry if I went away from what she was seeing so I started to look at what she was looking at.

Boom! I swear I just saw an angel and I knew that I wasn't gonna act I mean she looked a lil bit young for me So yeah I was just gonna go to my table ,but my princess betrayed me she cried for her and that was the first time she ever did that.I was embarrassed but my princess held out her arms to her even thou the lady was sitting down .The lady just got up quietly and took my daughter away from me and told me she got her,immediately my princess stopped crying she was busy laughing her lungs out I swear I never heard her laugh that hard.I just sat down with them it's not like I had a choice

Feedback babies

If I get more feedback I'll bless you again

Yhimnci cross my heart hope to die

Please don't forget to invite your friends sanuvimba apha they also want the news chiini

#Melokuhle

As I was Still waiting for my breakfast I saw a beautiful view coming near my table. Heee sana in all my days of living I don't remember seeing a handsome yet beautiful guy with pink pouty lips. He was wearing exactly like his beautiful little daughter haha she has a crazy long Afro and by the looks of things she was coloured, she was just perfect I'm telling you it was like God took his time in creating her.

Just as they were about to pass my table the Princess started to cry as his father was about to go past me. Haha she held out her little arms to me, at first I didn't know what to do coz the guy seemed a little bit annoyed and the baby wouldn't stop crying .So I just stood up and went to the guy haha Yhoo the guy was mesmerized and I won't lie shame I looked perfect almost like a princess futhi I fitted his category ,a girl can never stop dreaming kaloku I mean he could be the perfect son in law that my mother always wanted NOT A GIRL

So I went to the guy and took his daughter who immediately engulfed me in a little hug with her little arms wrapped around my neck,Haha what's surprising is the fact that when I took her she immediately stopped crying

So I sat down with her still in my arms,I love kids too much and whenever I see a kid I just want to hold him or her.Whenever I have a dull day I just know my antidote and My remedy, my problems just seem to fade away once I'm with a kid that's how much I love them

Me:'Hello Princess Sofia,Haha and you look cute exactly like her don't you"?

Haha she laughed so hard probably the way I talked coz bendimteketa shame so you know how a voice automatically becomes when you talking to a baby.I swear I saw her father's eyes widen in shock and just after that he sat awkwardly with us haha

If there's one thing that I don't have is to be shy, I'm never shy even if it's my first time seeing you and that's why I have many friends ,so to ease that awkwardness I held out my hand to the man

Me:"I'm Melokuhle "

Him:taking my hand and kissing it,mmh it's a cheesy move right? But I paid no attention and besides it was like my hand was electrocuted with electric shock and he sure felt it too "I'm Hlelokuhle and that's Misokuhle"he said with a side smile

Me"Haha you really feel how that sounds?it's just clichè"

Him"Haha yeah basically all of us here have same name endings "

Me"Wiping an imaginary sweat...What a coincidence

Haha hee they laughed so hard and yeah they ordered and obviously I didn't eat alone so they ate with me while waiting for their own food haha Miso was actually greasy from all the sauce.I. was so sad

ngoba I wasn't full so yeah their food arrived also and so we dug in all of us I'm never shy when it comes to food even if I have to impress someone

So yeah we got to know each other, and thank God that I actually had my face wipes on my purse so I just took them out and wiped Miso. Suddenly she just held my face in her tiny hands, kissed my lips and said "Mami" then buried herself in my neck

Hehe you should've seen the way her dad jumped out of his chair charging towards us

#Hlelokuhle

"Wow baby you can talk, I was really starting to get worried thinking that something was wrong with you"-Me

Surely theres something about this girl I mean my baby girl Is so happy and carefree

Melo-"Is it her first time talking"?

Me-"Yeah and what's surprising is the fact that her first word is Mami,that she never had a chance to meet"

Melo"What do you mean?"

Fuck I just cursed under my breath that totally slipped out of my tongue

Her-"No it's fine you don't have to tell me I mean we both strangers who will probably never meet again"

But she's already a huge impact on my daughters life,I mean she just said her first word after she met her and showed love and affection toward's Melokuhle

She said she had to go to res and I totally understood but Miso wouldn't let go of her so she held on to Melo for dear life haha and the girl sacrificed her time with Miso and I promising that she will go when she's sleeping

We went to Ushaka Marine where I also learnt that it was Melo's time coming there so It was fun

We sat down near the swings making a little picnic with Miso between us,Haha whoa Melo is a talker and It was actually fun hearing her talk and be carefree towards me.Many people we were meeting there were always saying that we are a beautiful family

Old folks "Wow you're so beautiful together can I please take a photo,how long have you guys been together "?

At this point we No longer argued that we were not a couple

Share and invite your friends

Oh and comment as much as y'all can

Guys exams are starting tomorrow so I'll probably be scarce sometimes but not abandon you

[11/15, 00:45] Lynne: #Insert4

#Hlelokuhle

The old couple waited anxiously for our answer, I mean how do I tell them that we are not even there, that we are strangers who just met today?

They kept on nudging each other blushing haha yho they even told us that we are a match made in heaven because we look good together .Haha yhoo they kept on throwing compliments and now it was kinda getting awkward but I thank God that Melo isn't a shy person because she started to interact with them

The Oldies: So how long have you guys been together?,you even made a little cute bunny chow Melo -"Haha well we've been together for almost a year now"

Grandma"And you already have a child who is this old mmmh youngsters and their stamina you surely worked huh?,they remind me of you babe"

Grandpa "Haha hay wifey these are kids they don't have to hear those...so guys tell me about you how did you meet? "

Me"When would you say it started babe"?,Haha I said
as I kissed the side of Miso's head

Miso :mcmxfj Mami...well y'all know all those baby talks and Miso was definitely into them while pointing at Melo,so I had to kiss Melo too.My daughter and the old couple clapped hands .Plus we had to act like a real couple so trust Miso in the match making department, Haha haha the oldies were impressed saying I was indeed a family man

#Melokuhle

Hlelo "We have been dating since, When would you say we started dating sweetheart"? he asked his fingers were squeezing my waist

And I sucked in a breath what was this man doing to me

Maybe he wasn't providing a merciful exit for this question after all. Maybe he'd devised his own little torture for me, that's okay because I could play right along. I'm a good actor after all

"Oh, you know.." my eyes darted around as I looked for an exit... "sometimes it feels like I've just jumped into this relationship"

He tilted his head back and laughed like I've just said the funniest thing in the world while Miso also joined in. Meanwhile The oldies were looking rather amused

"I'm sorry Hlelo..I"

Hehe he just looked at me and smiled probably looking at this blabbering person also looking rather bored by what was happening

"No..when would you say it all started" ..he posed the question with a curious tilt in his head probably wondering what i was gonna say

"Coffe shop?" ...I echoed a sounding a little light headed "I'd quite forgotten"

"I didn't"..He grinned and looked at me straight on.."I think about it all the time"he said

My heart skipped a beat.I gazed into his eyes smitten

"That's sweet".That was all I could say

"You two met in a coffe shop?"said the woman sounding a little bit surprised

I nodded "I broke up a fight.Hlelo was about to get his ass beaten by this huge body building dude"

#Hlelokuhle

Hehe i was surprised i mean the girl is a very good actor which makes me wonder why she took nursing instead of acting

"I had the situation completely under control "..I said
"Did you,darling? Or you're just lucky i was able to sweet talk that dude and buy him a cup of coffe"..she said

"I think he was just smitten with you as i was"..I said
"I'm so glad i was running late or I would've never met you.I think it was fate that we ran into each other i wouldn't trade it for the world"

I softly kissed her hand

"Since the day we've met, you've completely captured my heart babe"

She kissed my cheek and hugged me haha even Miso wanted to be included

Question: What do you think is gonna happen now?

Bare in mind that it's still Melos first day in Durban, she hasn't even seen her Res or Her roomie

And they do not know each other like that

[11/15, 00:45] Lynne: #Insert5

#Hlelokuhle

Well now we were back from our little picnic, we were now in my car with Melo and Miso at the backseat because Miso bengafuni uhlala in her car seat. She's very clingy today so she's basically in Melo's arms snuggled peacefully haha she slept at last because whenever she was drowsy today when you think she's sleeping and placing her down she would cry for Melokuhle which kinda confused me.

So I stopped the car from Ushaka Marine mosi we were going to the mall again so that Melo could catch an uber to Res so I took Miso from Melo's arms and placed her on her car seat. I looked at my daughter she's very beautiful as she's also sucking her thumb with long eye lashes, God surely took his time when he was making her

Then Melo went to Sit with me in the front seat as she was fumbling her bag clearly looking for something. She looked like an angel, she was cute with an innocent face and a bubbly personality. She didn't just blink but rather took her own time to blink, when she talks she's slow but not boring ,when she walks she doesn't just walk but rather walks like she's stepping on roses.and the way she's so natural and seemed to worm her way in my daughters heart in just a minute ..She definitely got It All.

#Melokuhle

It's almost 16:30pm and I haven't called home to think that I got here in the morning but I haven't called home

Well I looked for my phone in my purse only to find out that it was out of battery including my power bank I'm sure Mom is mad as hell.To think that I arrived early in the morning but I'm already hanging out with people that I dont know

Hlelo:"I had a good day today thanks for this and agreeing to come with us it means a lot"

Me:"Oh its nothing boo trust me I know how babies can get so I truly understand,...Can I please charge my phone? "

So basically my cellphone was kinda connected to the radio so I waited for it to get at least 5% so that I can turn it on,it's J7 by the way while Hlelo and I were engaged in a conversation

So I switched my phone on and suddenly messages and missed call notifications got in,I had more like 17 Missed calls from home and I called Mom first not caring that Hlelo will hear our conversation

#Call_Conversation

Mom:"Whoa Jesus finally the prodigal daughter blesses me with a phone call after 17times of trying to call her"

Me:"Mom I can see you rolling your eyes I'm Surry just thay When I arrived i was very tired so I slept"

Mom:"I'm so glad that you're safe baby and please don't forget why you're there in the very first place "

Me:"I'd never forget lovey wam"

Mom:"Good I love you standwa sam"

Me:"Love you too Mom".

Mom:"I swear God is testing me right now, Melokuhle what happened to the "I", I see you forgot my broom"Trust my mother with being dramatic

Me:"I love you too Mom I really do"

Mom:"Was that really hard to say"

#Hlelo

I envied and enjoyed their conversation shem,they were pretty close and lovely.I couldn't help but want the same thing for my daughter.i chuckled and ended up asking her

Me:'You're pretty close with your mom huh?'

She first smiled and beamed showing those dimpled cheeks of hers

Melo:"Yeah we're very close"

Me:"Like you and Miso?"

Melo:"Well yeah not for long though since I'm just a stranger probably see me now and see me no more "after. That she selected a playlist. I WONT lie and say her words didn't hurt me.After a long silence

Shayne ward played- Breathless..."If our love was a fairytale I would come and rescue You,on a hatch baby we would sail.To anf island where we would say I do,if we would habe babies they would look like you"

There's so much chemistry between us and unspoken words.but anyway i went to drop her in her uber forgetting to ask for her numbers or where she will reside here

Three weeks later!!

[11/15, 00:45] Lynne: #Insert6

"Why are you in denial baby you know that you love me"-Unknown

#Hlelokuhle

It's been two weeks already since my last encounter with her, I still fantasize about her almost every day and every chance that I get. It's like I'm always daydreaming about her, what I hate more about myself is the fact that I didn't even ask for her number I guess I was caught in the moment on how she did certain things in a certain way.

Miso has been acting up and sometimes she would say Mami randomly then cry very hard but then I thank God that I took photos of them while we were on that little picnic because now they came in handy when Miso is acting up. I would just open my laptop and view Melo's picture for Miso And that's when she would touch the screen of my laptop busy screaming Mami, what I still didn't understand was the fact that she never forgot her

It's now Tuesday and I had just put Miso into her beauty sleep in my room upstairs. My sister,Culolethu and my three best friends,Mandla,Thabo and Zack came to visit me since I've been scarce and not going out with them ever since I lost Melokuhle.We've been friends since Primary so basically we're in each other's lives forever

See?,I'm always caught in the moment and I totally forgot to tell y'all that I still have both my parents and my sister and I are their only children well we're not rich but not poor either haha lemme just say we're rich but not that much I mean Moola is never

Well my sister is 20 and doing her first year in UKZN doing law

So I just descended down the stairs to the play room where I found my friends and sister playing play station while eating pizza, and i was totally not in the mood for them because they like to pry in my business

I had told them about Melo and they said I was a fool how can I not take her numbers, I mean it's a little too late for that so they should be giving me a way forward instead of that

Zack: "Man you're still mourning for the girl you never got to know ?"

Culo: "Haha its love at first sight Zacky"

Mandla: "Hay hay y'all leave Hlelo alone can't y'all see he got it all bad " ...he said stifling a laugh hehe I swear I was being tested

Culo:"Well anyway Saturday is a freshers party are y'all gonna be there?"

Me:"Haysuka we're all too old for that dude, it's like perving on children"

Thabo:"Hehe yho you're so uptight man When last did you blow off some steam?"

Me" They catch feelings moss "

They just laughed

Me :Fools

Them" Dickhead"

Me" Pussy, so Culo how's your roomie?"

Culo" Oh well she's a nice girl with a very big heart, very friendly and a neat freak"

Me" Haha whoa I feel for the poor girl you lazy ass"

#Melokuhle

What can I say I was staying at Edgewood Residence and well my roomie is kinda of a mess person while I on the side I was a neat freak

We were not friends and not enemies either than that we just got along

I haven't seen Hlelo since the day we met,as I said see Me now see me no more,well res life I was adjusting just fine.

There was a Buzz at skool almost everyone was talking about the upcoming party but then I just ddint understand what was the big deal about it and well actually me and party doesn't mix,just give me weed and a bong I'll show you flames

I'm always on doors stuffing myself with food, i was even gaining complection haha trust me and well the orientation week was just fine and I also made friends with a squad of 4 second year popular guys and I was the only girl

That's one thing about me I love befriending guys ,it's just less dramatic ...

And today was our outing day haha we were gonna wear similar outfits with same colours.I don't wanna lie it was fun, they kept on perving at the mall yhoo

I had a good day with them but I still thought of my baby Misokuhle,I wanted to see her one last time
I missed her so much that It hurt

I wanted to see her even if it meant going to spur and just look for them or even go to where we had our picnic I would go

[11/15, 00:45] Lynne: #Insert7

#Melokuhle

It's now Thursday meaning tomorrow morning will be the day people been fusing about

Haha I mean I actually don't see no need to go there and watch people dance,getting drunk while some are being taken of advantage

Well my lecture for the day has just ended and I'm on my way to meet the Squad at the cafeteria ,they are a crazy bunch I tell you. Well my squad is best known as arrogant,sexy fuckboys haha oh and they are pervets too at times

So I went and sat on our table, heard that?..I said our table,there's litterally no one who sits on that table except us.Girls would usually throw bitchy stares at Me,not that I minded though because that's one of the reasons I'm friends with guys

I haven't ordered anything well they're basically rich

so I ain't buying no Shit with my money yhuu ..So yeah they arrived making a grand entrance haha trust them for acting dramatic

Me:'Hello boys how are you, Okay sit down'

Haha they looked at me amused like I was some sort of a retard

Craig:'Haha whoa soze ubhadle kewena'...Hes white but talks isixhosa like no buddies business

Me'Tsek y'all pussies'

Them:'Ewww dude what the fuck,that Shit ain't pretty but nice especially if it's tight'

Me:'Haha them how is it gonna be tight if I use it,8 rounds is very good for me'

Kevin:'what hay that's impossible'

Loyd:'Then you have a town hall in there'

Kamva:'A town hall?,hay no she got Moses Mabhida stadium in there'

Craig:'Haha no she got inkunzikazi yePussy'

Me:'So what?,if it's a town hall then I'll let people do auditions and perform and the best may win..Then if it's a stadium haha kuzodlalwa just fine

Haha one thing about me I'm a straight talker, I don't sugarcoat I'm just blunt like that.

Craig: 'Oh we all know that ain't true Melo,I mean you literally look stiff and well you can't really lie because when you do you blink a lot'

Me:'Mxm creepy I see,so let's all go to Kevin's place today for a sleep over I'm not planning to be alone again In my room today'

So we went to Glenside Center and off to Debonairs and bought 3 large pizzas with a dry red wine ..So we had our own little party,in there but then there was a knock at the door so Kamva went to open and boom Craig's girlfriend was there while I was literally sitting on top of him with Kevin's Boxers and vest..

#Hlelokuhle

These past two weeks I was lacking at work because of a girl I never got to know and cannot seem to find.

I think it's now time for me to start understanding that she's now just one of those people that are out of my reach

Let me convey the emotions that rip through a young man like me when he is convinced that he's someone's forever. Let me express the hope and loyalty that is instilled inside a guy who built wall after wall only to feel as though

They were peacefully torn down by a girl who pulled him deeply into her love without her knowing so, after

Bella's death I knew happiness was not for me but that changed when I saw Melo. I cannot formulate these emotions into words then same way I cannot describe the way it felt to have Melo rip all that into pieces

I still didn't agree to go to the Freshers party thou,I was just gonna bury my self with work and my daughter. Well I now have a maid who's also Misos nanny, haha she's middle aged and married with kids.

I couldn't risk it again of employing a young maid who will try to flirt with me.

I'm now in my office opening blind folds and Windows spraying a sweet scent spray while Kiara has just finished pulling her Skirt down,she's my PA actually .

Me: 'Wow that was intense'..I said to her trying to break the awkward silence while I was also disposing a used condom in a dust bin.Haha I always play it safe trust me

Kiara:'Well uh yeah I should go'

Me:'What?,Why?...I thought we were still gonna eat
our Lunch together'

Kiara:'Hlelo I'm in love with you Okay?..'

Me:'What you know what we agreed on Kia so don't ruin it with feelings'

Kiara: 'What should i do then?,unlove You?...Well then im sorry but i don't have a switch on and off feelings button'

Me:'Then maybe you should leave and we're done,
You chose to put feelings in it so it's spoiled.The next thing you'll be clingy girlfriend busy acting like my wife'... I said opening a door for her to get out,I was pissed I'm really being tested really. Shes a good fuxk nothing more

She aint fitting my category, she will just want to be a house wife spending my hard earned money and a house full of kids

MY cell phone rang and it was my mother

Me'Mom

Her:'Hey when am I meeting your girlfriend, are you sure you're not gay?

Me:'Haha haybo I have a daughter shouldn't that tell you that I ain't no gay?

Her:'You'll never know even Somizi has a beautiful daughter..

I was speechless shame

Mom:'Where's your rebellious sister I swear I'm gonna look for her mother that one because she definitely cannot be mine'

I'll post another one for now let's reach 300 likes on this one

Don't forget to like and share the page or to invite your friends

The girl entered the lounge which is where we were, She looked at my way haha ubani I sat on top of him unbothered by her presence. Its no lie that the girl never liked me futhi I switched to drama mode in that instance

I mean I ate pizza and drank wine so basically

I was feeling my self ...She was a one night stand who happened to be a good fuck so they have been fuck buddies since then but now she's acting as if she's his girlfriend basically ucinga umclockile ulife kanti nah I'm the boss. Im Melokuhle David's after all, my friend has been trying to avoid the girl but yhoo haysana ayifuni Nokuva

So now it's basically time to put her into place, I looked good In those boxers plus our sitting position looked as if there was more

She came towards us without even greeting, mxm

talk about a girl with lack of manners

Her:"So Craig this is what you've been doing,is it because of this bitch that you were not answering my calls?"

Me:"Haha oh baby girl please get out of here before your friends laugh at you while you lose that little dignity you have"...Haha I was so calm Marn ndithi it was like ndifunxa ulife ngestraw ,Haha or playing skipping rope with sausage. Petty labelle has been awakened and there was no going back I'm telling you.

I'm with my baby and she's currently on Clingy mode

I'll post later when she's sleeping

Her:"So Craig this is what you've been doing,is it because of this bitch that you were not answering my calls?"

Me:"Haha oh baby girl please get out of here before your friends laugh at you while you lose that little dignity you have"...Haha I was so calm Marn ndithi it was like ndifunxa ulife ngestraw ,Haha or playing skipping rope with sausage. Petty labelle has been awakened and there was no going back I'm telling you.

I was straddling him totally unbothered by what was happening around us.

Her:'Craig you'll just let her talk to me like that'

Craig: 'How did she talk to You?'

Haha yhuu man I badly wanted to laugh because she was fumbling with anger while I on the other side was completely cool,ndithi bendphole apha entloko mntaka dad ndithwele iFridge entloko

Me:'Craig baby please put your dog in a leash because I'm sure she definitely do not want to feel my wrath'

Craig:'Aria you heard the Madame so please go'

Aria: 'What does she have that I don't?'

Craig: 'Are you sure that you really wanna know about that? '

Aria:'Ofcourse why wouldn't I wanna know about the bitch who took my man away from me'

Craig: 'Actually she's my girlfriend and I told her about You, she's matured and definitely a wife material. You are in war zone while she's just calm. What would I do with a girlfriend who acts ratchet and like a straat mate while I have my Lady right here with me. You said you wanted to know

Me: ' Oh my God.. Fuckbudy didn't tell you that he's got a girlfriend?, I told you to get out of here with that little dignity that you have but you didn't and it seems like by the time you get out of here you won't be having any'

Aria: 'no it's all an act you are not his, you're not his type'

Me: 'And you're his type right?, Haha bitch please don't test me. Now babe where were we before we were rudely interrupted by a bitch with lack of manners... I ain't gonna leave you for a girl who was kind enough to open her legs for someone else's man, now come and give momma some sugar

I put my hands around his neck while his hands brought me closer to him for a kiss

We smooched totally forgetting that we were not alone, I felt him getting very hard under me such that his bulge was a little bit poking me , this had to look like it was real kaloku

I was so scared haha trust me, I looked at him and just then I found him looking at me too with his blue eyes slightly small and red. I guess I have that kind of effect on him. His eyes were inviting and I was totally invited. We were still making out in the couch

Just then we heard a glass breaking to the floor and we got startled a bit only to find out that it was Aria looking for attention as always but then she didn't even get it ...

When you're no longer wanted just go. When you're being disposed be disposable marni don't be like an old Chewing gum busy by all means to trap almost everything that you come across with Haha she went towards the door looking soo embarrassed such that she also had tears running down her face. And if awufunwa awufunwa mtanam suzinyanzela why don't you just find your Nemo?

Just after she got out I stood up too busy wiping my mouth looking all sorts of disgusted. Yes he's a good kisser shame no wonder this girl didn't want to stay away from him.

Just then I heard a loud laughter

Kevin: 'I'm totally posting this on YouTube..,so much drama ay girl you know your thing

Me:'Mxm shut the fuxk up and you wouldn't dare
Kevin trust me'

Kamva:'Girl you can surely act yhoo,Haha Craig is even turned on look at the tent between his legs

Craig:'he looked at me looking all sorts of adorable shame...Where did you learn act like that, wow I mean your kissing game is on point...Whose Melokuhle?

Me:'mmh a lady doesn't kiss and tell so stick around and you'll find out,but just know that it was all an act boo I don't do things like those'

Kamva:'Haha awundfuni kaloku wena Miss lesbian....Oh yes they know totally. Everything about me. So I just went to the kitchen for another glass since Ice Queen Aria broke it

#Hlelokuhle

Mr Lindsay....Mr Lindsay

Mr Lindsay..said a tiny voice calling me from a far, seems like after the call from my mother I passed out. Haha Perks of being a boss

I was tired I mean it's no secret that Kiara is a sex freak pity that she wants the more she can't get

It was even time to go home, I guess I was held captive by my own mind ..

I arrived at home and went to the playroom where I got to a beautiful sight where by my daughter was on a Mat crawling around

I live for my daughter. So as I was about to ascend the stairs my sister descended down the stairs looking beautiful as always I mean she's got a fashion sense

So we went to the playroom and my daughter seemed genuinely happy after she saw Culo. SHE had braids and held them the exact way Melo does with her dreadlocks. My daughter said the first thing that was in her little mind

Miso:'Maaaami'...it was like she was talking slang language such that my sister chuckled as Miso repeated that word over and over again

Culo:'Seems like the girl made quite an impression there'

Me:'She was caught off guard so it was all natural '

My sister never stays at my house for too long so i knew that there was something she was running away from but i didn't ask shame i don't pry on people's businesses. So I told her about that phone call from my mothe we laughed about it and jokes around

We were eating supper just then we heard a very loud bang coming from the door.My sister was startled looking all jumpy

Just then a man came towards us without even greeting, my sister jumped out of her chair

Culo:"I'll come with you no need to make dramatic gestures "

Me:'Baby what's going on'

Culo:'Stay out of it Hlelokuhle Lindsay you got a daughter to worry about not me,just know that Im okay"

I was left dumbfounded shame

#Culolethu

I'm sure you're all wondering who I am so let me tell you about me.Im Culolethu Lindsay and I'm 20 years old.I'm not perfect and in simple words I'd like to say that I'm the black sheep of the family. I'm a rebellious party freak who has failed twice in high school

My brother is 25 years old and already he is his own boss. While I on the side I failed grade 10 and 11. I'm not envious of my brother because we're actually best friends of some sort since we talk everything so basically we're good

So I'm doing my first year this year at UKZN and even though home is almost near the school I wanted the independence.

I'm sure you're all asking yourselves about what happened today earlier on but I have no answers because I'm actually confused even myself.

We met at a party that I was at with Aria to be exact. We talked and yes we clicked, we also found out that we have so many things in common with the guy but that was it and nothing more.

He called me and I didn't even give him my number,

he came to my apartment and I never gave him my address,he came to Hlelos house and I never and ever gave him anything about me but now he was starting to be a little bit creepy.

We were now outside his house and it looked more like a mansion it was beautiful and my jaw dropped even more when I saw the interior of the house I was mesmerized by everything in there

We got inside the house and that's when he led me to a beautiful bedroom which I assumed that it was his.He ordered me to take off my clothes and take a bath as we were about to sleep and I did.

By the time I got outside the shower I saw a shirt that was on top of the bed so I just wore it without asking any questions shame I mean who was I to ask anything to the man I knew nothing about

He came with super and I told him that I was full but because he doesn't take a no for an answer he forced Me to eat and after that we went to bed. We were actually cuddling and we did nothing I tell you

Morning came and I was the first person to wake up, so I took a shower and made English breakfast haha I love my stomach babe trust me

When I was almost done he came down the stairs looking fresh and came towards me without breaking the eye contact. He snaked his arms around My waist and kissed me very hard leaving me wanting more and feeling a little bit dizzy and I was so mad at myself for not being able to put my emotions on leash during that entire time

Carl: 'This is my first time bringing a girl over at my house'

Me:'Oh ohk,I dont even know why you brought me here... I said mumbling

So after breakfast he drove me to campus and I was totally early for my lectures so I went to the Cafeteria and I received a call from Melokuhle.

She's a girl with a beautiful heart and I just love her from moon and back I just can't help to feel over protective of her sometimes which is why I always go away.And this thing of mine with Carl has been on since 6months ago I don't even know what we are

#Melokuhle

Fuck....I cursed under my breath I had mother of hangovers and it was like I was hit by a train pity there is nothing that I can add to make a remedy for hangover since these fools eat takeaways,I'm never drinking during the week again..So i was bunking classes to day and I wasn't alone because these idiots were bunking too

From then I knew that I wasn't gonna go for my lectures so I just called Culo

Culo:'Hey babe'

Me:'Babe I need a very big favour from you '

No babe chill i ain't got no time to ask how she's doing I mean airtime is too expensive for me to be busy asking about how she slept

Culo:'Okay I'm all ears '

Well that's what i wanted to hear actually

Me:I'm bunking classes to day and I need you to please sign me present at the register please I'm counting on you '

Culo:'Consider that done babe see you at the party '

#AtTheParty

Well we were wearing matching outfits with my crew members haha I told you guys that drama lives in here with us

Well I was now left alone because these idiots got fresh pussies to pry on haha I actually hooked them up thou trust me I'm good at that Shit

They didn't wanna leave me but I didn't mind them leaving me I mean my efforts of bringing them girls so that they could get laid were not about to be waisted yhuu

So I sat next to the bartender alone while drinking Strawberry daiquiri. Just then a man came and sat next to me and started to touch my thighs. I was uncomfortable so I slapped his hands away from me

I was wearing black bum short with a lazy crop top which is baby orange in colour with a white relay big cherk shirt and it was unbuttoned so I guess that's how he actually had a chance to touch me.

I got up and went to the ladies, I did my thing there and when i came out someone grabbed me from behind busy blindfolding me while his other hand was in my mouth preventing Me from crying and shouting for help

Him:'Bitch I know you want this so if you still want to live you'll have to promise me that you'll cooperate with me'

He said with his deep voice that sent shivers down my spine while he made me feel the knife in my neck. My breath hitched

I felt my palms sweating I was doomed like totally doomed ..Then it dawned to me that I'm about to get raped

#Melokuhle

You what's worse?, it's the fact that he's not alone there are two guys and I'm only one in between them .I saw my life flashing in front of my eyes without even making it in life.

I became angry at myself for telling my friends to go hunt for pussies, it's my first time in Durban and also my first time at a party but already I'm in trouble. It seems like ever since I came here my life hasn't been mine, it is going on a very fast pace and I can't control it but to let it be

He had his big hand on top of my mouth while the other one was grabbing my tight shorts hurriedly as if he was stealing diamonds in between my thighs. I cursed myself for wearing such a short thing because if I didn't I'm sure this wouldn't be happening to me right now.

My zip was a little hard to pull down so he just took his Okapi and tore my shorts. He succeeded until my cries were no longer audible, I stopped fighting because it was clear from the start that I was fighting a losing battle, it was only my tears that spoke volumes and my heart beat

He pulled my shorts down along with my panties, my freshly shaved Cookie starred at him and he returned the favour also staring it with hunger written all over his face. I felt sick in my stomach because not even one person has come ever since this has been happening.

They put me down on the cold tiles and pulled my thighs away from each other creating more room for him to be comfortable around my father's cows and my mother's pride. I felt his tip in my entrance and I became startled by it's warmnes when it came in contact with my vagina. I knew that I was either gonna get pregnant or diseases as he didn't even bother himself to put on a condom. He tried to push himself in and I felt my cervix dilating as he was about to push again the door broke open, I didn't even notice that it was closed

#Narrated

Zack....Well Zack is Hlelo's friend I'm sure y'all

remember him.

Well Hlelo's friends did go to the party except Hlelo who said they were perving on kids such that he was gonna stay home with his daughter

Zack

I saw this girl while she came in with what looked more like crew or was it her friends? I don't know but I've been looking at her since the whole night and it seemed like she was uncomfortable or should I saw stiff?...It looked more like she's not those party types

She's got a great body and she's beautiful too with her locks down on her shoulders

I saw everything that happened at the bar and how she was disgusted when that dude touched her

I saw her when she stood up and went to the ladies and I noticed that she hasn't come back while i saw those two shady guys followed after she went there

And i knew that something was wrong, I went near the toilets and I heard not so audible snifs

I looked under the door and these pervets were not clever enough because they were doing it on the passage

I called police and luckily they were around so they saw everything too and kicked the door open.

She laid there helplessly without even moving or trying to cover her assets and i just knew that they broke her

These fools looked startled and also scared, I guess they feared jail. They surely didn't think they were gonna be busted,

I took off my jacket and covered her while she looked very scared, she was even shaking

The party was on pause as the police went away with these fools with everyone looking at them confused

I got out too with the girl in my arms and she was holding me so tight shame. Her friends saw me looking shocked and confused busy asking what was happening

Question..'What's gonna happen now to Melokuhle?

[11/15, 00:47] Lynne: #Insert11

#Melokuhle

Everything was for once in my life ever since I came here happening in slow motion .The situation I was in hasn't sunk in my head because I wasn't reacting on what happened today earlier but I thank God for sending his angel to save me when I'm already in a dungeon,in a lions mouth in it's Den

My heart was thumping and beating very fast.People looked at me with nothing but pity maybe they heard the explanation the guy gave out to my friends,but I didn't want that I really didn't because I wanted them to carry on like nothing had happened. I know the wound is still fresh but I wanted to forget about it already. Everything happens for a reason, and that reason may be my wakeup call or whatever it may be . God doesn't give you a heavy load when he knows that you won't be able to carry it, he is always there what happened to me today was a wake-up call for me to find myself because ever since I came here I haven't been me

My cookie was burning shame I won't lie .

I was thankful to God for seeing through me, he sent his powerful angel to me so that he could save me and he did. I told the guy to put me down because I was fine but he insisted on taking me to Hospital where I got checked in case there was any spill of semen in my vagina so that those fools could be locked in jail forever

The time was now 3:30am and Zack was Still with us and that only showed Me that he cares about me

even thou He knows nothing about me.My Squad including Culo were all here next to me asking me what happened and we were already in my Dorm

I told them everything not leaving a thing behind, they say talking helps right?so it has to work for me also but nothing seemed to work as much as I talked with them,when they stopped asking questions I stopped talking too and starred into space

I took my phone and went to my photos and there I found what I was looking for, I knew she's the only one who would be able to console me pity I don't have his daddy's number to call her and that's frustrating

My Crew and Zack went away after Zack came to kiss Me on the Forehead .He's such a sweet guy shame.Would you believe me when I tell you that it will be our First time sleeping together in our Dorm today with Culo?

I knew that I wasn't gonna be able to sleep alone today, I never sleep alone so why should I change that just because I'm in varsity now??

Bad habits don't die easily

So we slept together in her bed, I was behind her cuddling her from behind with my legs in between hers while my hand rested on her flat stomach playing with her belly button

Out of the blue she moaned breaking the comfortable silence, I didn't say anything I just froze on the spot

So she just turned her body to face me. I knew exactly where this was going but then I didn't want it to stop as I wanted to forget about everything that happened today,I kissed her.

Me:'Culo please i can't do this to you,yes i agree that my brain tells me that if I do this with you right now the pain will be less painful but I can't '

Culo:'Im already wet for you so please don't do this to me '...she said that as she took my hand to her Cookie and made me feel her wetness

Me:'Culo just so you know that you can stop me right now or forever hold your piece because once I start I won't be able to stop '

Culo:'I don't want you to stop she said as she kissed me'

Her arms were around my waist so that i cannot leave her.Rock solid with muscles rooted in place

#Culo

I've been fantasizing about her since I saw her, no I'm not a lesbian but it just happened and right now I'll do it with her

I relax and tip up my chin for another kiss and I'm rewarded with fire and ice. With the warm wetness of her mouth telling me how much she wants this.

Now we're naked intertwined in silk sheets, the brush of her hair covered legs against my own smooth shaved legs this is so different and refreshing. I bring my nose close to her chest inhaling her scent in order to memorize it like an imprint

Her hot palms cup my breasts making me moan her name. Our cheeks brushed while her breath fanned my neck turning me wet even more

I released my hand from her waist so that I could touch my self. She's torturing me and i felt like my clit was swollen

God this is all new to me and yet I enjoy everything oh yes we did it and I had the biggest orgasm ever. I even squirted which actually made me suspicious of her because the way she did it

It showed me that it was not her first time she was so perfect. I love how she kissed my collar bone totally driving me insane. We slept in each other's arms

I'm so drowsy

#Culo

I was the first person to wake up in the morning. I felt refreshed and rejuvenated and my body was very fresh, I mean it's been 6 months without me getting it so y'all will have to understand that I've been sexually frustrated far too long. I fitted perfectly in her tiny arms, after our session last night she dozed off immediately. I didn't I was awake for some time just laying on her chest listening to her heart beat and the way it rhymed in sweet harmony together with mine

Do I regret what I did last night?,no and I totally don't but I'm afraid of her reaction when she's up.What if in her mind she thinks that i took an advantage of her after she's been on a hell hole already?..She couldn't sleep last night she was even shaking a bit but eventually slept

I couldn't help but stare at her,she's very beautiful and I couldn't help but to overwork my brain on who this girl really was.She had on her pink pouty lips slightly parted,God she's a goddess

Melo:'You should stop starrng and take a picture instead '...She said with her eyes still closed with her hulky voice still full of sleep

Me:'Nag I wasn't starrng but I was just admiring God's creation'

Melo:'Haha is that you trying to make me blush?,trust me it's working '...She said chuckling a bit

Me:'Haha is that a bad thing thou?'

Melo:'Haha no it ain't in fact I love it'.....She said that while she opened her beautiful eyes.I couldn't help but stare at them,they're beautiful in fact I'm totally fascinated by everything she owns or does

Melo:'Culo...My Song'?...I felt her shaking me a bit..Oh snap I guess I got too lost in her eyes that I even zoomed out,she calls me Her song wow I couldn't help but blush

Me:'Can I kiss you?'I blurt out startling myself even more,that's what I was thinking but then I guess my brain has a mouth of its own.Universe was totally against me this time around, fuck I became so embarrassed when she took her time looking at me totally not saying anything so i just closed my eyes praying for the bed to swallow me up

She didn't say anything still but I felt her breath fan my face,our cheeks touched and there was some kind of electricity in there that totally sent me overboard sending shivers down my body and activating some places down there

I moaned so loud, that I even forgot this was just a kiss..She stopped this kiss and just looked at me

Melo:'What's going on?,I know that you have a boyfriend and i totally don't wanna put myself in a messy situation where i don't know where I stand '

Me:'Uh mmmh yeah let's just be friends Okay?'

Fuck I mentally hit myself after saying that because my brain spoke itself again whereas I wanted to Speak my heart.

Melo: 'wow okay.'

She was sad shame so we took an innocent shower, ate breakfast and lazed around watching series on her laptop

I got up quickly seeing that we slept in the floor with the laptop still on. So I wrote her a note telling her that I went to my Boyfriend's place

I showered again and wore my Burgundy jumpsuit with Heels, I had a perfect body yes but not like Melo. I stared at myself in the mirror thinking about how she worshipped every place I never thought existed in my body last night

I went out to find answers I've been in the dark for 6 months and Carl is not even talking about exactly what we're doing .He lived in a complex but i was totally not bothered because the security knew me so he just motioned for me to get in.

The door was not looked so I just got in and the place was a mess everywhere with clothes making a line to the bedroom.I followed the path and pushed the door open.

I found him with a girl in his bed,I couldn't help but sob while I was busy trying to think what does he really want from me

Carl:'Baby please this is totally not what you think it is'

The girl:'Baby?who's She?

Me:'Haha oh wow and i forgot that he knows what I'm thinking '..i said sarcastically.. I ran for the door

as he got up from the bed coming towards me.

And after so long, I finally did it. I finally called it off. I finally ended it. I finally walked away from it. I finally let it go. I finally moved on from it. Because for so long, he made me feel like I was so hard to love, I was so hard to understand, and I was so hard to be with. Even though he is the one who hurt me, he acted like it is always me who is hurting him. Even though he is the one who always makes mistakes, he acted like it was always my fault. Even though he is the one who always wants to argue, he acts like it's always me who's being crazy. It's finally caught up to me. It's finally taken a toll on me. It's finally pushed me far enough. To be honest, I don't care enough to try anymore. Quite frankly, I'm too tired to make it work anymore. As much as I thought loved him, I'm deciding to love myself just a little bit more. If you were to ask me, I'm much happier now. I thought I wouldn't be alright without him, and yet I'm okay doing so much better without even shedding a tear. Yeah, it's gonna take awhile for me to learn how to be Myself again. Yeah, it's gonna be hard when I miss him from time to time. But, I know. I know that it's time. I know that it's not worth it. I knows this is something I need to do, and I'm gonna be alright in the end.

I found myself going to Hlelo's house

#Hlelo

As I was home today having a Daddy and daughter day with my daughter. Taking photos in between I heard a car driving in on my drive way,I got up from the couch with my daughter snuggled peacefully in my arms haha she was totally not sleeping ke

I went to see whose car was it only to find my sister getting out of a cab.Shes being a regular her and I couldn't help but revive what happened 2days ago when her boyfriend was her.

She came towards me with a forced smile on her face,I know my little sister very well trust me and right now she wasn't okay but as always she wanna be this tough cookie girl

She threw herself in my arms,I hugged her back kissing the top of her head.We didn't say anything but got inside the house and stuffed ourselves with the snaks I was eating with Miso

Me:'So tell me what's eating you up little sister because I know you're not okay'

She sighed and told me what happened today at her boyfriends house.i was so angry when I got to know the whole story on how they met shame and then the Bastard had guts to show up his white ass here as if they had something special nxa.!

Me:'Okay so what happened yesterday at the party because my friends were here brewing with rage whose this girl Zack saved?'...I said changing the topic

Her:'Oh that Kuhle♡.. .She said that telling me the whole story futhi I kept wondering who this Kuhle was

Me:'Do you have her photo maybe? '

Her:'Yes she's my roommate '

She said that showing me a picture, oh universe is totally with me this time

Me:'I know her,she's the girl that I met that day.Thats Misos Mami,let me show you her pics with us'

I showed her and she was totally mesmerized and looked hurt in the process.

Her:'Wow you know her,great just great.Im seriously doomed '

She said that and left me wondering about what actually she's talking about but as for me I was so angry at those fools who tried to take an advantage of her

#Melokuhle

I don't know whether I regret what I did last night or do I?

I mean she has a boyfriend so what did i actually think that was gonna change?

I'm not one to catch feelings but I surely thought that she would.

But then I totally don't blame her,who would wanna be in a relationship with me?,I'm just broken

I was almost raped but thank God I wasn't, I don't even trust myself that I'm capable of loving someone else right now

My girlfriend from the villages left me the day my mother found out about me being a lesbian. She didn't even want to hear me when I said I love her and we can be low-key just so that my mother can get off my back but nah she moved on just easily after a week she left me

Which left me wondering and pondering if she ever loved me the way she said she did. If she ever cared about me the same way I did with her

So what happened between Culo and I didn't bother me one bit, I mean why should it?

I'm no stranger to pain anyway. I know how it feels to be almost disowned because of something I was never able to change, I know how it feels when someone decides to change my wardrobe so that i could look more like a girl

I know how everything trust me. Bottling pain never helps so they say but to me it does, why should i show the whole world that I'm hurting instead of getting out there with my head held high?

I'll finally be okay right?

I was almost raped, that's also okay too

So why should I be bothered by Culos actions?

I just couldn't wait for the day to be Monday so i could go to the Police station and drop the charges. They didn't rape me so why should they be there?

No haha hell no I'm not doing it for them but rather me. I wouldn't be able to live with myself knowing that they're arrested because of me when they didn't succeed in raping me.What if they have their future ahead of them

I dont want to kill their dreams.if they hate me that's their fault,if they're sorry that's totally their baby to nurse because i want nothing to do with them

This one needs 400likes

What do you think of Melo now?

And What's wrong with Culo?

It was getting late,that shouldn't be a problem to you right?

To me it was,after all the nightmares I had last night i was scared to even close My eyes for a while because everything would come back and haunt me.

I would still see their faces whenever I try to close my eyes, Even if I would meet them again in darkness I would notice them immediately that's how much my memory serves me.

As for Culo?..I really don't know if she used me or not but hey whatever happened between us happen it's not like it's gonna change or something right?...

Hey it was really getting late and I just knew that Culo wasn't coming back, she didn't even leave me a message or even a phone call, so much for being Roomies ...So i called her I wasn't about to sleep alone no I'd never shame

#PhoneConvo

Culo:'Hey babe'

She sounded a bit surprised and I don't know why maybe she didn't think or she never thought I'd call her after she left me that silly not but guess what I called her

Me:'Hey are you coming back?'

Haha yhuu I sounded like a clingy girlfriend but what was i to do,I really needed someone to help me sleep at night and at the moment she's the first person I thought of Culo:'Mmh no I'm not coming back babe'

Fuck I mentally cursed under my breath it's not like she was gonna tell me Her whereabouts or something futhi I totally understood...I took a long pause without talking and i heard her sigh and curse on the other side of the phone '

Culo:'(mumbling) fuck how could i be so inconsiderate,how could i leave her alone knowing that this is the time she needs me the mostMmh Melo can I please call a cab to come and take you so you could be here with me?

Yhuu the way she said it,it was like I'm some kind of charity case,if it were any day i would've thought of declining but instead I didn't

Me:'You'd really do that for me?..Thanks a lot Culo you're the best'.....I quickly pack my overnight bag and wait for the Cab

the 18-year-old me I am now with unruly long black hair, questionable fashion sense, and a sex life as uninhibited as an 80-year-old nun in hospice care. This woman is worldly and experienced, and she seems to know what she wants...and it isn't a second cup of tea. I suddenly realize I'm in for a wild ride during this dream. And I'm all in. The man and I smile at each other like lost lovers reunited. That face, so familiar... He grazes my cheek with his long fingers, as if I were a fascinating work of art by Michelangelo or Donatello. I shudder at his touch. I don't want him to stop. I feel I will die if he stops.

I've never had a dream like this. He tenderly kisses my neck and I pull him closer, an invitation for more, an unspoken "yes" to what his body is asking from me. "I've waited so long for this Melokuhle," he whispers into my neck, in between sultry kisses. That voice...I know it from somewhere. But I can't place it yet. If only I could see his face more clearly. Happily, he doesn't drain me of my blood, but instead leans into me, his weight a welcome intrusion. His mouth meets mine for the first time. He kisses me slowly at first, and then loses control and consumes my lips with his, feasting on me.

I want more—much more—than what he is giving me and I'm actually afraid he may stop or I might wake up before I find out what happens next. Don't stop. Don't stop. Stay asleep Melo, My thin, silky robe is open, and my soft breasts unite with his firm chest. He slides his hand down the inside of my thigh and I instinctively open up for him. Our bodies merge in a sensual pleasure I don't yet understand as a naïve teenager, but I'm more than willing to explore in this dream. Unknown pleasure radiates and overtakes me. I moan in my dream, his mouth to my neck...a climax of sensations ripple through my body. Oh. My. God

My lucid mind inhabiting my still-virgin body wonders: Is this what it's really like? It's breathtaking. It's the best dream of my whole life. Please don't let it end...I want to find out who he is. The morning sunlight breaks through the window over the calm ocean outside. For the first time, I can see his face clearly over me. The mature woman in my dream seems to love this face, but the teenager I am now jolts awake in utter shock. Him? Not him! Has my subconscious turned on me? Could it really be this cruel? The cab

hooter startles me

I'm day dreaming about the man I saw when I first came here and I'm wet down there

The cab came and i got In,the cab driver drove in an estate and left me in a door way, I knocked and someone opened the door from inside and the person was Culo.She attacked me with a hug but my mind went to the sound of the baby who was crying bitterly

#Hlelo

So today is Saturday obviously which means that I'm home with my daughter and my sister, I wouldn't trade them for anything .

Culo seems far more better than the time she got here,I was actually worried about her seriously and it seemed like she's spending the night here.

So we were watching T.v when she got a phone call which i assumed was from her roommate who is also Melokuhle ...I heard her apologising that she left Melo alone after what happened last night so she told the girl to come here and sleep over this side which meant that Miso will be seeing her mommy

I heard the door bell ring while Culo went to attend to it,I heard my daughter's cry in a high pitched tone.Shes been emotional,way too emotional today and she was being a cry baby too which made me wonder why because she wasn't even burning up or anything she was just restless

When I thought I had successfully placed her into sleep using my charms she wouldn't budge but to sleep for just 10 minutes maximum.

So Culo and her guest entered the lounge which Is where we were,Wow guys you won't believe who it was!!!

It was Melokuhle,my heart beat changed, my inner self made a happy dance while my heart did that lump dump beat ...It was clear as a white cat on a black fire veld pasture that she was caught offguard and actually shocked. I looked at her and she did the same but totally broke it when Miso's cries filled the room

Her nanny descended with her on her arms down the stairs, she was even pink because of crying

Nanny: 'I've tried all my best Mr Lindsay but she isn't budging'

Me: 'What seems to be the problem Ma?'

Nanny: 'Ay I don't know my son, I really don't know'

Then the girl spoke

Melo: 'Mah have you tried giving her a bath maybe she's tired'

Nanny:'That also didn't help my child'

I was so mesmerized on how much she knew about babies and actually made me love her more since she cared about my daughter

#Melokuhle

I never thought we would ever meet but then I guess the universe has another plans for us.The way I heard the baby cry my heart ached especially after i found out who the baby was

Me:'Sorry Mah can you please give her to me?'...All this time Culo was looking at me weirdly while Hlelo looked a bit shocked

Mah:"Okay Mntanam"....She have me The kid and immediately she stopped crying,opened her eyes and looked at me..

Miso:'Mami!!...She said that smiling in between the hiccups she had while burying her face on my neck busy wrapping her tiny hands around my neck also.

She was even planting wetkisses that were added with her tears.

Me:'Soso'...Im the only one who calls her that so that was reassurance that i was really her mommy as I used to call her that when we first met.She jumped happily with a hoarse laughter that brought light into my dull day she is really my remedy,she's what I needed

So I hugged her back not wanting to let go so I turned to look at the people we were with and they were totally shocked by what I also don't know shame I mean I'm too busy to be asking. Such

...Mah broke the silence

Mah:'Wow how did you do that?

Me:'Do what Mah '

Mah: 'How did you get her to stop crying like that without even saying anything?

Me:'I really don't know really I guess it just happened, you want to take her for her sleepwear? '

I tried to give out uMiso to her nanny but she cried when i did that so i ended being the one who goes upstairs in her room for her sleep wear,marni she's only 11 months now but she has a big room painted in purple and white

So I took her out of her day clothes and made her wear her pyjamas, then we went downstairs where everyone was having Supper

She was Still clinging on me so i sat down with her on top of my thighs.I would shove a spoon full of food on my mouth and Miso would open her mouth too,Hlelo was watching all of this in amusement.

There was an aggressive knock on the kithen door then we heard some very loud voices totally disturbing the comfortable silence that we have on the table #Tableamanners

A drunk coloured man came In, suddenly Culo got up

Culo:' What are you doing here Carl isnt it enough that you finally succeeded into breaking my heart'?

Carl:'Baby please give me a chance to talk please i can't lose you '

Culo:'Okay you can talk'..she said that with her arms around her chest

Carl:'Not here please babe, you know exactly howmuch you mean to me'

So i guess that was her boyfriend hayi shame he totally lacked manners,he didn't even greet us as if we slep with him or in the same house as him ...They went out wit Culo and the time passed without her coming back

So i got up with a sleeping Miso in my arms while Hlelo also got up

Hlelo:'Let me help you with that i dont think you would be able to ascend the stairs with her because she can be a little but heavy at times'

I chuckled and gave him the baby, I literally had literally nothing to say anyway

Hlelo: 'I never thought we would ever meet again the first weeks after we met were hell with Miso because she would just say Mami randomly then cry very hard'

Me: 'Wow I'm surprised even now that she hasn't forgotten me'

Hlelo: 'Thanks for loving my daughter it truly means a lot, now can I take your number so that whenever she's crying I can call you to talk to her

Can you really be her mommy'

What is this man saying?

I kissed little Soso on the Forehead and slept with her on top of my chest. I watched her sleep peacefully on top of me, she had her thumb inside her mouth sucking on it gently while her big soft long scruffy Afro covered the other side of her face and my chest. It was a beautiful view watching her take her long soft breaths with her heart on top of my heart beating all in the same way

I smiled still, watch I this beautiful princess on top of me, part of me wishes that I could cover her so that she won't be seen and be noticed by these vultures that are all around the world, part of me wishes that she never grows up and experience the toxic and poisonous things that I have experienced so far. But I know that may never happen,as she will grow into a beautiful mature woman.

It seems like i slept while I was in those thoughts..I could see them,I see them

I saw the way he looked at me like I was a piece of meat.I see how his hand ached to touch my thighs, He finally touched them and i could see the rage after I slapped his hands away from me.I can still hear the dirty things he whispered into my ear when he was taking advantage of me.I never wanted to go there but my friends plead me and I couldn't say no,I'm broken I don't think I'd ever trust anyone again

I felt someone or should I say something getting inside the bed,I was already sweating and right now I was sweating more than before,I felt Miso being taken away. She was taken off my chest,I started to scream.

I screamed out loud and I felt someone turning on the light, how come it was off? because I never sleep without a light. ...I was shaking vigorously with sweat all over my face. I felt something getting near the bed coming towards my side, it touched me.

I screamed again..

Me: 'I'm sorry please leave me alone I'll give you everything that you want please don't do this I beg you'

Hlelo: 'Cakes it's me Hlelo please open your eyes now it was just a nightmare'

Me: 'It felt so real and I'm scared they will come again'

He didn't ask me anything but he just took Soso and placed her on the couch that was inside the room,opened the wardrobe pulled out a throw and placed it on top of Soso.He was doing all of this silently and softly too.

He then got inside the bed and pulled me towards him,He then placed me on his hard bare tattooed chest and wrapped his arms around My tiny waist.I don't wanna lie I felt so safe as if nothing could ever get me.Sleeping with a guy has never bothered me before as i used to sleep with my friends also but with Hlelo it was different it felt like home.He kissed the top of my head as if assuring that I was now safe

I don't wanna say anything about love as I don't think I'd ever be able to love again,I said it before that I'm broken.Once you get hurt and you know that you've been hurt before,you get scared to be attached again because you think that everyone you love will hurt you also.And that's me,I don't see myself getting into a relationship anytime soon.Loving someone is a choice and also not being in a relationship is also a choice and right now I'm choosing me.

Me:'How did you know?'

Hlelo:'I came here to check you guys and you were sweating and talking in your sleep'

Me:'Mmh'....

I slept peacefully I don't wanna lie

#Morning

When i woke up the time was 09:30am,yhuu i got Soo embarrassed but then my body needed the rest.Hlelo was not in bed so it was just me and Miso I guess he took her to bed when he was getting out of bed.I looked at Miso and i found her starring at me also and when our eyes locked she skilled showing me Her 8 teeth

She said Mami and kissed me all over my face haha i guess everything I do is contagious so I kissed her back and tickled her. Shes so lovely and has a big beautiful heart too.

So We went to shower both of us and then i made two bunnies with her long afro and i did the same with my dreadlocks I think it's safe to say that we looked so fly. I wore the shirt again and out a nappy on Miso and made her wear her shirt night dress the one she was wearing at night also.

I took her with me downstairs, mind you i was Still wearing the shirt and my but cheeks were almost out but they weren't ... We arrived downstairs for breakfast and there was some noise in the kitchen. there was no going back because we were already inside and i was welcomed by 8 eyes including Hlelo.

They all looked at me,the guy who saved me was there also,there was an awkward silence in the kitchen but Miso broke it as she called for her Dad to take her

Last night when I cuddled with him it felt so wonderful and natural as if whatever chemistry that we have is meant to be.I looked Good on his shirt as it showed almost my firm butt cheeks and my long legs .Sometimes life has it's way with you.It peels back the layers of your existence like the skin of an onion until the real you glows underneath,raw and painful to the touch .It's in those moments on that hour that you look to those who give you strength.

-For me that person is Miso and her daddy

As I was already in the kitchen the man who saved me spoke first before I could even utter a Good morning.

Man:'Hey how have you been,are you okay now?'

I was gonna fake memory loss as I saw the side of Hlelo's face stiffen so knew for a fact that he does not love the fact that the man knows me

Me:'Yeah I'm okay why?'

Him:'You don't remember me do You?'

Me:'Unfortunately I don't, am I a bad person for that?'

Him:'No and I totally understand that by that time you were kinda unconscious '

Hlelo:'Zac how do you know Melo?'

There was no time for that as Miso clearly wanted her father so he was kindoff distracted shame.He took her and kissed her all over her face then lastly kissed her small lips,Miso mentioned for me to come closer to her as if she wanted me to take her only to find out that she was actually asking her father to kiss Me also.

So he just kissed me on the Forehead only so Miso started to cry calling her daddy.I knew for a fact that his friends were attracted to me since they were all staring at me.

There's a difference between looking and staring so i just gave Miso the satisfaction I went to her father and kissed him. I don't know what's with me and kissing people these days but I definitely liked it Suddenly he stopped looking at Miso, and I automatically stopped with him too. He slowly turned and looked at me, gazed deep into my eyes.

Then I felt it. Everything I had tried ignoring from the past month seemed to be tumbling down on me. And the look I saw in his eyes wasn't helping. They seemed to have gotten darker and were so seductive that I was beginning to feel dizzy. Evidently, I swayed a little because he quickly grabbed my hand and captured me around the waist.

“Mami?”

He whispered the name Miso usually calls me with because I'm sure he didn't understand what was happening between us. That fact have shown in his expression because I tightened my hold around him as I began taking my mouth toward his.

"Don't think right now, Hlelo," I whispered, just inches from his lips. "Just close your eyes and feel."

He did just as I asked and, the moment he felt my mouth take possession of his, he released a moan from deep down in his throat. I felt the quiver that ran through my stomach when he folded me closer into his arms, closer to his muscular frame.

And then his mouth went further as he took the kiss deeper in such a way that it almost overwhelmed me. The moment his tongue invaded my mouth, taking control of mine, something hot and fiery shot straight to every part of my body, but mainly to the area between My thighs. I couldn't help but moan too.

When he finally lifted his head, I opened my eyes and stared at him, trying to clear my mind, reset my pause button and slow down my heart rate. Then I was hit by the realization of what We had done. They had actually shared a kiss. We had actually put a show for the guys

#Hlelokuhle

Later that same night I met Melokuhle for the first time, I sat across the table from a woman, thinking I had made a grave mistake. All week, anticipation had clawed at my insides, and then there was that intense sexual desire that had almost gotten the best of me, nearly driving me over the edge.

I had looked forward to that night and hadn't been disappointed when I had arrived at Kiara's house. She was a looker, and the outfit she wore did wonders for her body. And I knew that had I pushed, we would have ended up making love before leaving for dinner. But I hadn't pushed.

And I wished I had.

At least that would have given her something to talk about other than herself...which seemed to be her favorite topic. The woman had been talking nonstop since I had walked her out to my car. And she was still talking. The only time she had taken a break was when we were eating, only because she had the decency not to talk with food in her mouth. But now it seemed she had gotten a second wind. I didn't remember her being a talker of this magnitude before, and it was getting to me big-time.

"So, will you be spending the night, Hlelo?" she asked in a sultry voice.

I was hard up, but apparently I wasn't as hard up as I had thought. I refused to find sexual solace with this chatterbox. "No, I need to go home to my daughter ."

She leaned closer across the table, giving me a good look at her cleavage. "In that case, maybe I should come over to your place."

Not hardly. "Thanks, Kiara, but I can handle My daughter."

Beneath the table I felt her rub her foot against my leg. "So can I," she all but purred. I sighed and took a sip of my wine. Our date wouldn't come to an end fast enough to suit me. I had thought all I had to do was find a woman and relieve some of his sexual pressure, but this woman wouldn't do. In fact she was not even close to be Melokuhle

I never thought a woman would turn me on since after my fiancée and also Miso's mom died but Melokuhle came without even trying she's already under my skin

#Hlelokuhle

She is a good kisser. For me our kiss spoke volumes and left me paralysed from my brain to my body, it made me totally forget that I was still with my friends

The kiss totally left me confused, but when she told me to just close my eyes I did while my hands were placed gently on her tiny waist as if they belonged there. The way our kiss was heated, how our tongues were dancing and how much the kiss awakened old habits. Ever since I met her it's been always my dream to kiss her and from how I imagined it it was like in my dream and more

She looked beguiling, sexy, a total turn-on.

For the first time in 11 months since Bella died, I felt long buried sensations. Sexual chemistry to a degree I'd never known before it nearly drove me to take her in my arms. Instead, I regained control of my senses and we stopped the kiss. From the first time I saw her I wanted her to be mine, not like that I didn't want a relationship with her but an affair with her.

When she showed up with my daughter, she had still been wearing what I gave her last night, my shirt. From the length of the shirt you could see her lovely legs clearly. For the second time after we shared a bed last night, she had stirred my hormones and for a split second. I was glad I didn't make such a move last night. That would have been the worst thing I could have done. My mind knew that, but, at the moment, my body wasn't so sure. I counted backward, trying to remember the last time I'd been intimate with a woman, and was surprised to recall it had been well over 11 months.

When I would try to have hookups or one night stands my mind would rather show me her face, and immediately I would stop whatever thought I had for releasing my sexual tension on some random girl. I gave Melo her breakfast and while she was trying to get out of the kitchen Miso cried for her, She took her and got out. I couldn't help but think of the bad dream she had last night it was as if she was being tormented, and the bond she shares with Miso it's just priceless. I was still lost in my thoughts when suddenly someone cleared their throat

Zack: 'How do you know her?'...

He asked looking surprised and that got me thinking how HE knew her too but I was gonna answer anyway

Me:'She's the girl that I told you guys about,the one I forgot her to ask for her number'

Mandla:'Oh so She's the who made you miserable?,and you just had to remind us that we don't have girlfriends by putting that little show huh'

Me:'Yeah you could say that but by fate we met again ..How do you know her Zack?

I decided to totally Ignore the comment Mandla just made and focus on the matter at hand

Zack:'She's the girl that i saved Friday...Oh wow and you couldn't wait to put her into your bed you Bastard'

Me:'Fuck you man'....

Zack Is bipolar so anything is possible with him I'm sure he has already told himself that Melo will be his and that thought made me question my baby

Momma's safety

Zack:'You son of a bitch I hate you,do you have to have every girl that I have eyes for?'

Me:'Im the one who saw her first unless you want me to show you the pictures we took '

Zack:'Fuxk you man okay I'm out of here dammit'

Just like that he went away wow what a way to start

It's been already two weeks after my encounter with Hlelo and his friends and apparently Zack has been a regular visitor at my dorm and he's kind of a darling though

I don't know how he knew where and which room I stayed in and I never bothered to ask. He would come almost everyday at school to take me out for lunch after my classes without me telling him that my classes are over and that was kinda creepy but I never paid attention to it because I'm sure he's just being a friend that he was.

He would take me immediately after my classes without me even telling or seeing my friends that I won't chill with them at the cafeteria which made me wonder why I felt like he wanted me all to his self. As for Culo we were just roommates and we never talked about what happened between us which was good because I wouldn't know how to face her shame yhuu

As for Hlelo we were co-parenting because I would go to his house and he would act all weird around me not that i care anyway or he Still thought about our kiss .Still remember those fools who tried to rape me well I heard they died in their cell,apparently some hit his head on the ground as he was trying to climb down his double stair bed while the other one overdosed on drugs

All of this happened after the first week i became close with Zack,we were eating lunch as usual so I just zoned out and when he tried to touch me I freaked out and he asked questions on why was I reacting that way.I told him because he's a very good listener and he did listen futhi I also told him that they've been calling me asking for forgiveness and when the did it would put me straight to that day

it all happened and how they were so eager on getting in between my thighs as I was telling him he would clench his jaws with his fist snuggled tightly such that his knuckles became very white futhi I won't lie and say I wasn't shocked by his reaction because I was . Suddenly after I told him they die both at the same day isn't that weird?, I couldn't help but wonder if he didn't have something to do with It

So today is Thursday and surprisingly so I'm in my room, I said no to Zacks lunch I don't know why. I just feel like he's spending all his time with me, he's not giving me a breather as he's always down on my throat. I still remember our last conversation on how he told me that he likes his ladies thick and a little bit fat, but I'm not I'm just size 34 with full hips and full butts. My bottom is much way more bigger than my upper body so I would gladly say that I have an hourglass body .

As he said all this about how he likes his women I couldn't help but wonder why he's telling me this?.Thats why he's been feeding me all the junk and soul food maybe it's because he wants me to join the statistic of his women haha but nah I don't wanna be his.In fact I don't wanna be anyone's property to own relationship are totally not for me

So the time is 18:30 and I just can't help it but miss my Princess and tomorrow is her birthday.I know that by this time she's still wide awake,and luckily Vodacom gave me R200 airtime to spend.I called home and talked to my Family and they're all well and I couldn't be happier . My airtime was Still surprisingly enough for me to call the whole world haha so I opted to call Hlelokuhle no not what you're thinking but for my Princess,I wanted to hear her voice as it always brings a meaning to my dull day.

I called Hlelo and suprisingly a woman answered the phone with some attitude haha kaloku Hlelo saved my number as Baby Mamma so I'm sure she felt threatened or she wanted to give me some Shit attitude which is childish

Her:'Baby Momma what do you want'

Haha hee sana she's sbindificated I mean unesibindi se leather..(She's liverficated,she's got a liver made with leather..Shes very brave If you ask me)

Me:'Where's the owner of the phone?'

She didn't greet me so why should i bother?,ugh I'm soo allergic to people who lack manners shame so I was gonna give her double attitude

Her:'We're busy don't you have something to do maybe than calling a man who doesn t want you after you left a new born baby a his door step'

Wow I guess he didn't tell her that I'm not a real mother of his daughter, Hlelo is a very private person so i guess it's understandable that some people don't know that her real mommy died

Me:' Oh sorry to interupt your perfect time but you're not gonna play happy family with my daughter and please stop saying things that you don't know.Is that what he told You?

Her:'Mxm fuck you...Hlelo someone's on the phone...what did I tell you about answering my calls huh stop doing that and why are you so insecure?, it's not cute marn...(then there was some shuffling)....Hello?'

That was his deep voice,the one that sent cold shivers down my spine,I'm talking about the one that made me questin my insanity..

Me:'Hey sorry to interupt your perfect time to play happy family with my daughter but I'm calling because I wanna talk with her'

I couldn't hide the sarcasm in my voice haha trust me so he didn't even say anything but just called Miso and gave her the phone.She could make little sentences now and she was even walking steady like a good girl that she is

Me:'Soso'

I told you guys that im the only one who calls her like that because she immediately screamed at the phone saying Mami and by the way she said the word Mami I could hear from her voice that she was smiling

Soso:'Mami'

Me:'How are you baby?'

Soso:'Good Mami'

Me:'Why don't you ask me also baby?'

Soso:'Mami?,Didi take me naa otty corner say ah moshah'

Haha every time I call kesana she always has something to tell so now apparently her daddy took her to the naughty corner because she was mischievous.She never says Daddy but instead she just calls her father Didi

Me:'Sorry baby be a good girl for Didi i love you okay?'

Soso:'E.e Mami,Lovie Mami okay? '

Hlelo:'She's drowsy so I'm gonna put her to bed okay and I'll have to take the phone from her'

Me:Okay take care of her okay..?

I heard my baby cry my heart ached especially after she said Mami I knew exactly that she didn't wanna give away the cell phone

Me:'Hlelo put me on speaker next to her on her bed please'

Hlelo:'Okay I just did'

Me:'Soso?'

Soso:'Mami?'

Me:'Sleep baby I'll tell you a bed time story'

Soso:'E.e Mami'

Me:'There was a little princess who was named Miso, she lived in her palace all by herself as she had no friends to play with. She had many dresses but the only ones she liked were only 2. A blue sparkling dress, A yellow sparkling dress with flowers all over it . The yellow one usually brought her luck and when she wore the blue one people would look at her mesmerized as she would look like an angel..

As i was Still telling the story I heard her snoring so I said my goodbyes to her sleepy self and switched off my cell phone

I slept too and I was alone I'm sure Culo was at her boyfriends place I don't know these days she looks more of a junkie than the Culo I first knew and I don't know her problem

So i just slept.The nightmares have stopped so my beauty sleep was what kept me sane,plus I don't have classes tomorrow so I'm probably gonna go dress my Princess up for her first birthday

I just put Miso to bed talking with her Mommy.The bond that they share amazes me because I never thought I would see the day that my daughter actually calls someone Mami,I didn't leave the room instead I listened to how Melo was able to read my daughter or should I say tell my daughter a bed time story even if she's not here but just through a cell phone

I heard that Zack has been visiting Melo at her school and i seriously don't know how to control that, because I'm sure Melo doesn't know that Zack is mentally unstable and that got me wondering if he has been drinking his prescribed medicine.I think it's only a matter of time before he starts to monitor who Melo should chill out with and what she should eat.I should strike fast,these past few weeks haven't been easy to me because I missed her and our kiss so much but I couldn't bring myself to tell her

I had a fight with Culo,I don't know what the fuss is about when it comes to Melo.Seems like everyone loves her,my friends couldn't close their mouths after the intense kiss I had with Melo and Culo came home that night after Melo went to her dorm and they told her about the kiss. I never saw Culo as a lesbian so I don't know why she's so mad because she has a boyfriend.

Culo: 'I don't get why you had to kiss Melo'

Me: 'It just happened, Why do you have a problem with it?'

Culo: 'Because i love her okay?, and we made love Saturday please don't do this to me'

Me: 'Did she say she's a lesbian?, are you a lesbian Culo?'

Culo: 'I dont know okay but I love her'

Hay shame I was so shocked by Culos outburst and the fact that they made love wow, but i wasn't gonna back down on this one

Me:' You left her alone at your dorm, you left her alone here. Your boyfriend came and you didn't even think twice by leaving her with a stranger. When you love someone you make sure that she's safe and has been completely introduced and what about you did you do that?'

Culo:'You just had to take everyone that I love away from me, first it was Bella and now it's Melo. I hate you Hlelokuhle I hate you '

That was the very first time she has ever called me by my whole name and I knew for sure that she's mad, I saw her first and I'm not giving up on her shame I don't care how much she's mad. So that was the very last time we spoke so tomorrow is my daughter's first birthday i was excited shame because my Family is gonna be here.Melo is the one who chose the decor for everything I guess she knows her daughter best,yes you heard me her daughter

So I went downstairs to Kiara,I guess she doesn't wanna stay away from me.At first she left because I said i don't want more other than fucking,the more that she wanted was a relationship and I wasn't gonna give her that.The more that she wanted belonged to my Fiancee and it will feel like I'm replacing her and I'm not ready especially not with Kiara.

Me:'Kiara what did I tell you about answering my calls? '

Her:'Sorry it's just that it was ringing non stop and i couldn't help but take it '

As she was saying this she was already fiddling with her fingers

Me:'What did you say to her?'

Her:'Nothing but she just shouted at me and she also insulted me'

Me:'If you're gonna lie about Melo I suggest you go away because that doesn't sound like her at all'

We both ate with awkward silence, whenever i come with girls in my house they don't sleep on my room but rather we sleep at a guest room with a bed that I named Iqonga labatsha (a stage for youth where they get to show me what they got)

She went to sleep there alone and i also went in my room. I am a private person and I very hate people who are snooping around busy prying on my business

Next morning I woke up to someone who was at the door I went there only to find Melo.

Melo:'Hello how are you?, oh im good too thanks'

Just like that and then she pushed her way into the house,ay this girl is crazy .

Me:' Oh I'm good too you may come in'

Haha as I say this she was already inside near the stairs,she just gave me a fuck you then ascended to Miso's nursery

Me:'It takes two to Tango and I'm on top baby..And

Miso needs a brother or a sister you know?'

Melo:'Ewww stop being a perverted ass,Miso is still young for a sibling'

She said that as she was already with Miso they came and hugged me haha I took the opportunity to kiss my little cute family

#Melokuhle

I don't know what's going on between HLelo and I futhi I didn't care enough to pay attention to it.

Me:'Hlelo I haven't took a shower yet,where's my shirt?'

Hlelo:'Mmmh seems like someone is obsessed with my clothes,where did you leave it baby momma?'

As we were still talking someone cleared their throat behind us and we both looked at the direction where the sound came from and funny enough she was wearing my shirt..she didn't even say good morning but she just went to Hlelo hugged his waist and went to sit in front of the television

Me:'My shirt Hlelo?'

I just took my baby put her on top of the kitchen counter.i made her wear her Apron while I also wore mine haha they were matching so i made pancakes,scrambled eggs,beacon a squeezed a fresh orange juice.I took only two plates for Hlelo and I,Miso was gonna eat with me

I went to give Hlelo water to wash his hands haha trust Miso with copying so she also washed her hands while the Madam was typing furiously on her cellphone. I brought food for Hlelo and I

Me: 'Soso pray for the food baby' haha Hlelo looked surprised shem

Soso: 'Close ah eyes Didi, thanks Lord for giving us food. Please love mommy and Didi and ...'

Yhoo haha she prayed for everyone she knows and after a long time she said amen. immediately after she said that we dug in and ate

Madam: 'Where's my food?'

Me: 'Wow I didn't know that you were able to talk and besides you got two hands that you could use effectively you know?'

Haha my inner goddess has been awakened she was looking at me in amazement while she was busy stretching her arms waiting to back me up for more punchlines

Haha she looked at me deadly in the eyes,my inner Goddess was busy squealing with happiness saying "Somebody tell this bitch that starring game ain't for kids because I'll surely win "

As we were still starring at each other Miso suddenly spoke

Soso:'Avi Mami okay?'

Oh mayne uBabe she just said that randomly and I loved her too,to the moon and back till every star in the galaxy die

Me:'I love you too baby Happy birthday'

Soso:'Bhesday Mami'

My heart just melted and as for Hlelo I couldn't quite get the mood he was in but he was so quiet and in deep thoughts.So I just took the dishes to the kitchen and put them on a dishwasher leaving the Madame or should I say the Dragon lady busy spitting fires through her breathing

I went back to where we were eating and took Miso as she was already next to the door taking steady steps towards the kitchen haha she's a follower because she was busy following me around. We went towards the stairs no Baby wam and we saw pictures oh yes they've been always there ever since I came here but I never gave myself a chance to look at them but today I did, I saw a beautiful white woman with perfect teeth and petite body, there were also her pictures with Hlelo they looked very happy and the way she died she didn't deserve it but then she brought a beautiful princess into this world after we finished looking we then went to her room. I got the dress she was gonna wear during the whole day for her birthday haha

Me: 'Mmh baby?'

Soso: 'Mani Wowa?'

And i knew who she was asking about,she was asking about her mother because her hand was pointing to the direction of the stairs,a lump formed in my throat and tears welled up on my eyes,I couldn't answer her no I wasn't able to.Suddenly a voice spoke startling us and I looked towards the door it was Hlelo he had a bit of tears in his eyes and I knew that he remembered the past.

Hlelo:'It's your Guardian angel baby,your mommy number 2'

Soso:'Ha.ana nayi Mami wam Didi chiin'...

Haha she had an attitude for days you should've seen the way she said those words she was emphasizing every word

Hlelo:'I still remember how she asked me to take photos of us immediately after she gave birth,I still remember how she asked me to kiss her,I still remember how she asked me that whatever happens our baby's life should be the first thing that I consider.'

Me:' Wow she was a good person and beautiful too'

I seriously didn't know what to say to him and I'm not good on the department of consoling people

Hlelo:'she basically sacrificed her life for our daughter and I'll forever be greatfull for that but what about her?,she won't see her grow'

Me:'You've just said she's her guardian angel,so definitely she will see her'

Soso:'Mami Didi atefa bethe Mami'....(Mommy daddy is being a cry baby beat him)

Haha yhuu we cracked at what Miso just said so I took a bath with Miso and dressed her on her dress, as I was about to wear my dress also Miso was already sleeping immediately after the bath so I put her on her cot. Hlelo called for me to go to his room and I did with the towel wrapped around my body

I didn't knock so I just let myself in and Hlelo was shaving

Hlelo: 'I noticed that you're very hairy and that's a turn on to me so I don't want other people to be turned on by you so please Can I shave you?'

Me: 'No you're not about to shave me I love my hairy self thank you... Hlelo I forgot my undies can you please borrow me?'

Haha i know that's embarrassing but I didn't care because I wanted to wear something I can't be pantyless thank you

Hlelo:'Only If you allow me to shave you,he said having a mischievous grin on his face'

Me:'Okay just so you know I'm on my periods and because I want the undies I'll agree'...

My nuna was clean and shaved haha so he wasn't gonna see a forest if it happened that he saw a small peak of it.He made me sit on a chair that is on his bathroom but i stood up and made him sit

Me:'You haven't finished with yourself so I'm gonna help you so sit!'...

"Sit," I muttered again.

He blinks at me, not understanding. I push him gently toward the lone white stool in the bathroom. He sits down, gazing at me puzzled, and I take the razor from him.

Hlelo: "Melo," he warns as he realizes my intention. I lean down and kiss him.

Me: "Head back," I whisper.

He stares at me with wary, amused disbelief.

Hlelo: "You know what you're doing?"

he asks, his voice low. I shake my head slowly, deliberately, trying to look as serious as possible. He closes his eyes and shakes his head then tilts his head back in surrender. Holy shit, he's going to let me shave him. My inner goddess flexes and stretches her arms outward, her fingers interlocked, palms out, limbering up. Tentatively I slide my hand into the damp hair at his forehead, gripping tightly to hold him still. He clenches his eyes closed and parts his lips as he inhales. Very gently, I stroke his razor up from his neck to his chin, revealing a path of skin beneath the lather.

Hlelo exhales.

Me: 'Did you think I was going to hurt you?'

Hlelo: 'I never know what you're going to do, Melo, but no—not intentionally.'

I run the razor up his neck again, clearing a wider path in the lather.

Me: 'I would never intentionally hurt you, Hlelo.'

He opens his eyes and circles his arms around me as I gently drag the razor down his cheek from the bottom of his sideburn.

“I know,” he says, angling his face so I can shave the rest of his cheek. Two more strokes and I’ve finished.

“All done, and not a drop of blood spilt.” I grin proudly. He runs his hand up my leg so that my towel rides up my thigh and pulls me on to his lap so that I’m astride him. I steady myself with my hands on his upper arms. He’s really very muscular. As I was still looking shocked at what he had just done he immediately put me on chair

Hlelo: 'It's pay back time Miss Davids'

The way he said it, it was so erotic. He left me alone in his ensuite bathroom and came back moment later with a new razor, his shaving brush, soap, and a towel. He puts the water, brush, soap, and razor on the bedside sink and gazes down at me, holding the towel.

Oh no! My inner goddess slams down her hands, leaps up from her armchair, and puts her hands on her hip

Me:'No. No. No,'...I squeak.

Hlelo:'Miss Davids, if a job's worth doing, it's worth doing well. Lift your hips." His eyes glow.

Me:"Hlelokuhle ! You are not shaving me."

He tilts his head to one side. "Why ever not?,because you've just shaved me and i didn't complain'

I flush . . . isn't it obvious? "Because . . . It's just too . .

"Intimate?" he whispers. "Melo, I crave intimacy with you—you know that.

Besides, after some of the things we've done, don't get all shy on me'

Me:It's just wrong!' My voice is prissy and whiney.

Hlelo:'This isn't wrong—this is hot Or should i say sexy?

Me:'This turns you on?'... I can't keep the astonishment out of my voice.

Hlelo:'Can't you tell?'...He glances down at his arousal. "I want to shave you," he whispers

Oh, what the hell. I lie back, throwing my arm over my face so I don't have to watch.

"If it makes you happy, Hlelokuhle, go ahead. You are so kinky," I mutter, as I lift my hips, and he slips the towel beneath me. He kisses my inner thigh.

FUCK!!

Me: 'Mmh ah Hlelo what are you doing to me?'

Fuck I caught myself moaning so hard and that is one thing I'm not used at.

Hlelo:I'm giving My baby Mamma some sugar and well admiring God's creation'

The way he said it oh Lord it got me wanting to pray and praise Jerusalem and mountain of Zion,this is not the first time I'm saying this.Hlelo's voice always send shivers down my spine and make me questin my insanity once again .Like the niggah knew what he was doing and which words to give and at which time to deliver them

I think I'm addicted to Hlelo and his kisses because I never get tired of them,Do y'all still remember when I kissed Craig?...After our kiss I wiped my mouth like seriously but for Hlelo his kisses make me want something more,I don't know what's wrong with me

but what i know is I love girls and right now I think i also like Hlelo

I'm confused like that Am I a lesbian or what? Or bisexual maybe?, but no my subconscious yells at me I can't date both parties and have my bread buttered on both sides haha hayi ngaba ndimclokile ulife kaloku .I hate the Idea of dating both genders so I'm gonna lay low a bit when it comes to dating because it never ends well anyway

“Why are you setting yourself up for failure and heartbreak?”

I whispered to my self well it was a rhetorical question because I knew the answer. Falling in love with Hlelo is something I didn't plan on. In fact, I have been prepared not to like him, and, initially, he had made it quite easy to do just that. The totally different attitude, the caring, is obvious because he actually cares about us and has never for once made me feel like I am not Miso's biological mom.

Falling in love with him is my problem and one I will have to deal with while doing everything I can to maintain my dignity because I surely don't want him to think I'm some kind of skank or should I say bitch who is always ready to open her legs to every dick Tom and Jerry. Hlelo is a handsome man who can easily arouse me silly with just a kiss. I can't let my emotions overwhelm me. And, no matter what, I have to consider the consequences of loving a man who doesn't love me back because surely his heart is with his fiancée the one he cried about earlier on

Disappointment filled my heart at the thought that Hlelo doesn't see me as anything but his fake baby Momma or the girl who is loved by his daughter because I'm sure as hell that he's only keeping me for his daughter because he doesn't want her to cry for me while I'm no where to be found. And Maybe now he's looking for something that will destruct his emotions away from what he's feeling about losing his lover

He was busy planting kisses here and there and we were both startled by a door opening and that actually saved me because I was already lost in the moment. The Dragon Lady entered the bathroom which is where we were looking pissed as hell and guess what I was unbothered one bit by her presence instead I moaned more and loudly this time haha .Im here now so she should know her place and I was actually jealous of Hlelo if you ask me .She came to us and tried to kiss Hlelo also trying to moan rhaa the bitch is actually used to a threesome this ain't no threesome so she gotta fuckoff rhaa she's too desperate

Hlelo:'Kiara please leave my Family and friends are on their way and I'm sure as hell that you haven't even took a shower so please go'

Kiara:'No I'm not going anywhere I wanna join you guys'

Hlelo:'Kiara this is the mother of my kid please you know that we're not dating and you're even wearing her shirt for that matter'

Kiara:'Hlelo please dont do this '

Rhaa the bitch is testing my patience yeer she's too desperate nxa and I had to act fast because my inner Goddess has been knocking down the gates wanting to be let out and I'm gonna do just that

Me:'Khariya?'

Kiara:'I'm not Khariya I'm actually Kiara'

Me:'Whatever your name is,were you here when me and Hlelo were making baby Miso?'

Kiara:'No Ofcourse I wasn't '

Me:'Oh yess Khariya I'm sure you were wherever you were and you were undisturbed right?'

Kiara:'Mxm yes So what should i do with that information? '

Me:'Well that information little Missy is to tell you that today we're actually celebrating the results of what we did and special because today is our daughters birthday so that should tell you something right?,but obviously you wouldnt know since you're too dumb to notice even when you're not wanted'

Haha she just went away banging the door after her,we were left laughing our asses off noHlelo

Hlelo:'why were you so rude and why do you hate her so much cakes?'

Me:'Mxm leave me alone wena'..

I said that and went to wear my Olive body hugging dress with my chick black buckle style block platform heel from miquinha and inserted my gold whoop earrings and applied my dark purple matte lipstick then made a lazy bun with my hair.I looked so fly i mean uLife bendimclockile rha bendipopa mtshanam

My baby was already awake so I placed her on my hip and we went downstairs. I mean her first birthday party was about to start so yeah she had to be ready. As we were going downstairs I met with a middle-aged woman who looked so much like Culo and Miso screamed towards the woman so she clearly knew her, I greeted and gave her Miso as I was about to introduce myself. Hlelo was already there for that because he immediately filled her in on everything that has been happening and haha hee was about to say I'm his girlfriend but I chipped in and said I am his friend.

Me: 'So Ma should I make you something to eat since it's still morning and you're only arriving now I'm sure you haven't eaten'

Ma: 'Oh thanks baby I would like that but please call me Mom'

Me:'Okay Mom I'm going to the kitchen and I be back now now'...

As i was going to the kitchen Miso cried for me saying Mami so i took her with me,yhuu so many people were arriving such that you wouldn't even believe that it's only a first birthday. I placed Miso on the kitchen counter I boiled water and put them on a basin making them Luke warm with cold water and I put Miso down and hold her hand while we were going to the guests in the living room.Haha obviously i was walking like a tortoise busy answering her senseless questions and her calling me every now and then.

We finally arrived gave people the water and a cloth to wipe their hands and they did so now i wanted to leave Miso with her granny but she refused so i took her to an empty chair and placed her there

Me:'Princess '

Haha she wasn't looking at me as she was busy sulking so i called her again

Me:'Soso kaMami'

Soso:'Mami'

Me:'Sit here baby okay?,I'll be back now now with Didi'

Soso:'Didi Mami'..She said that bouncing up and down and she finally settled in as I was about to get out she called for me with her lower lips quivering showing that she was about to cry

Me:'Princess wam'

Soso:'Avi Mami'...Yhuu my heart melted on the spot such that i went to her and kissed all over her face

Me:'Mommy loves you too baby okay? '

Soso:'E.e Mami'

When i looked around the table almost everyone had smiles while some were almost close to tears wow i guess they know about the fiancée because they are family Ofcourse

I served them and the party started wow my princess was soo beautiful well as well as Culo but she was avoiding me and i don't know why so I don't beg where i don't benefit and i let her be

Haha you won't believe who was also there looking like a video vixen with an over applied make-up

There she was with an over applied make-up on her face looking like a Goth or someone who is about to do Voodoo .She was wearing a shortest dress that I have never seen yheey I'm sure she is thinking that this is a modeling agency or a dating site because it's clear as still water that's she's here to find a man where she will be able to be someone's one night stand and dig their pockets deeper.No don't look at me like that it's what she does right?,well it was none other than Aria who was Craig's one night stand futhi I'm even wondering on who invited her here because I'm sure as hell that I didn't.

As I was Still looking at her Culo got out of the house screaming towards the Goth oh well seems like they know each other Wheeew I'm so relieved because I don't want anything that will spoil this day.

There were jumping castles and slides with so many kids who are the same age as Miso I'm guessing they were kids of family friends and colleagues.The day went out well,my baby had many photos and on all of them she looked happy and we also had photos as a family that's me,Hlelo and our little princess

Later we had dinner well i prepared it because the were no left overs and I was the only girl left as Culo dissapeared and only came when I was setting the table and by then Miso slept after I gave her a bath,that was before I started to prepare dinner.

Culo appeared as I was giving Hlelo's parents and relatives to wash their hands before I give them their food so I also gave her,what was i to do anyway because I didn't mind.As we were about to eat Miso cried upstairs and Hlelo got up quickly and went to take her but quickly came back without her,he sighed then sat down and

Hlelo:'Miso doesn't want me,she says she wants her Mommy'

Haha everyone laughed around the table saying that Miso is silly and all whatever things y'all know how old people are.I got up and went to her room,I took her then went downstairs where everyone was.I heard them talking about me well his parents talking about me on how much i am a precious gem and i had qualities of a wife.They talked on how much I got along with Miso then Hlelo told them that we are not dating I am just his baby momma, they told him on how much he's a fool to let me go as people will snatch me away from him. He told them my age and they were amazed saying that my mom taught me so well because I have respect and manners. Mxm so much gibberish so I knew that I heard enough so I might as well show myself.

As we got there Culo was about to shove her spoon in her mouth and that's when Miso shouted saying Mami startling almost everyone on the table

Soso: 'Maaami!'

Me: 'Mmh Princess?'

Soso: 'Lolo ayatsa uh uh paying'

She said that Ponting Culo who looked at Soso absent mindly,I was the only one well as well Hlelo to know what Miso was saying.

Mom:'Mami what is she saying? '

Haha hee I'm Mami now okay but I'm not complaining so i might as well answer seeing that Hlelo is not planning to Me:'She's saying that Culo is eating without praying'

Them:' Wow,who taught her that'

I shyly looked at my hands not able to answer

Hlelo:'She did,Melo taught her that'

Dad:'Wow she is a good influence,let's pray'

Me:'Soso pray nana'

They looked shocked haha and Soso was quick enough to tell people to close their eyes

Soso:'Close ah eyes and pay,thanks Lord for food you give us please love Me and Mami and Didi and Lolo..

Haha she counted everyone not that im suprised.we dug in and ate the food while his mom would smile at me,they would ask me questions on who am i all about my Bio and I was kind enough to tell them.Culo said she was gonna take care of dirty dishes and she did I said my goodnights and went to sleep in my room with my princess

That night Hlelo came in my room and asked for a kiss and I gave him,after that he told me on how much he loves me but he cannot be with me as love only isn't enough. See I knew that he doesn't love me, he never did anyway. I can't say I wasn't hurt by his words I don't know why I was hurting but I did anyway.

3 Months later it's now June and I have been trying to go on a date with Asanda, still remember her?. She's that beautiful handsome girl that I saw on the bus while I was coming here, funny enough that I saw her after Miso's party while I was lost at the campus and she was kind enough to show me around haha I wasn't gonna rely on my Friends for everything kaloku. She was doing her third year in Horticulture

Whenever we would try to go on a date Hlelo would show up with Miso saying that she's crying she says that she wants me and I would immediately don't go. we were Co-parenting. I Don't know how he always knew about my dates but then he would gate crash them and I'm thinking Culo is the one who would tell him.

I would gate Crash his dates also,he was trying to move on with Miss Dragon Lady.He also told me to stay away from Zack as he is bipolar well that was news for me.I was more closer with Craig from all my friends and with uAsanda we decided to be friends seeing that it wasn't working out with me always allowing Hlelo to gate crash our dinner date plans

Hlelo

Almost everyone loves Melo,my parents too.It seems like wherever she goes she leaves an ever fixed Mark without even knowing because my mother can't stop thinking or talking about how respectful and beautiful she is.

After that night I felt like an ass because i saw the hurt in her eyes. Love only isn't enough yes i love Melo but I don't trust myself enough to be in love with her. What am I saying argh I'm in love with her as if I'm gonna lose my sanity but i cant be with her.

Im afraid I'm going to hurt her and I don't want that. So I would crash her dates whenever she's about to go out. I don't want her to date with anybody i just can't bear to see her moving on and she would do the same too.

I decided to give Kiara a chance because well it's what she always wanted so yeah but my heart isn't with her at all

I feel at ease and In peace when I'm with Melo, she's home well my home but I'm not ready to hurt her because I know I will not intentionally though because the only tears I want to see on her are tears of joy so I don't trust myself enough that is why I'm pushing her away

Zack

I have been spying on Melo,if I can't have her no one will.I saw her when she was playing all lovey dovey with that girl,I was about to attack but seeing that Hlelo sabotaged everything so i had nothing to worry about.

The only thing that i hate is the fact that she's always with that friends of hers who is a boy.I even hate the fact that she's mothering Hlelo's child fuck I hate that.I guess i should act fast and give her my baby

Culo

I am very much a no strings attached type of girl

now.I made peace with Melo,so we were very much best friends and happy.i don't want relationships no and I'm very happy that Carl decided to let me go.

If you want to sleep with me tell me don't sugar coat it by saying you love me when you know exactly that you don't and you're only saying it to get inside my pants.No be straight with me maybe I might deliver if i like you enough and no I had a no strings attached partner don't tell me you thought I slept almost with everyone

I was done with all my semester tests futhi I passed them with flying colors, anyway who would i have took after if I failed?..So it's now Tuesay and I'm counting days till I go home and I just can't wait shame I miss my first lady and my crazy siblings. I'm currently out of my Dorm with Craig and we're in town at Debbonairs, haha it's his treat and I can never say no to food.

The rest of our Squad are in their flats, they don't live in dorms, no they rent their own flats and that can only mean one thing that they are rich or maybe they afford not that it's any of my concern anyway. We ordered a large Pizza, something meaty triple decker with extra chesse and drinks.

Haha would you believe me if I told you that we finished the whole pizza?,well yeah we did and by the way Craig is from Cape town so obviously he was gonna go home.As we were talking he just stared at me and said nothing,I stopped talking too

Craig:'Come with me '

Hayi I was confused I mean like come where?

Me:'Come where?'

Craig:'come with me to Cape town'

Uh yess I wanted to go but I also wanted to go home,my heart was already home

Me:'I can't'

Craig:' What do you mean you can't please Melo I beg you'

Me:'You're going home,so I'm also going home like you because my home is very much safe futhi its not even raining so if it was I'm sure as hell that I would come with you'

Craig:'Please Melo,I can even kneel down so that you can come with me'

Fuck okay he got out of his chair and grovelled in front me taking my hands into his,almost everyone around us was staring at us.Im sure they thought that he was about to propose,I tried to get him up but he didn't want to so I had no choice but to agree.

Me:'Okay Okay you're lucky that I don't wanna turn you down in front of these eyes,so since the holiday is 3weeks how are we gonna do this?'

Haha he was smiling like a retard,oh my god ichomi yam.I loved him anyway

Craig:'Yo will spend a week or whatever you feel like with me at Cape town then go home '

This sounded like harmful fun so why not go with him when I won't be paying any ticket?,we were going on Thursday so yeah I had more days to know what I wanted to take with when going to Cape Town yazi being excited was an understatement compared to how I felt shame

So I'm now in my room with Culo busy packing on what to take with,you won't believe what Culo packed for me.She only packed the shorts and short skirts for me and obviously I declined that reminding her that Craig is my Friend so I'm totally not looking or see him that way but she brushed me off saying that one day I was gonna date Craig.

Haha trying to reason with Culo is a waist of time I tell you because she always wants to win,not that I'm suprised.She then caught me offguard asking me something I haven't thought of ever since Hlelo decided to end whatever was happening between us before it even started

Culo:'When are you dating my brother?'

Me:'Uhm why would I date him?'

Culo:'Because you love each other'

Me:'maybe he does but mna I don't,not even a tiny winsy little bit '

Culo:'Keep on fooling around because that's the only thing that you guys do.why don't you just face y'all's demons head on'

Me:'The truth is complicated Culo and you'll never understand but if we're meant to be,we will be as fate will bring us together'

Culo:' Wow so you agree that you have feelings for him?'

Me:'What's the use of having feelings for someone who doesn't want me?,he said that love only is not enough not that I understood what he was saying.He also asked for a kiss futhi I was sober as a judge and 100% on my senses and I did give him,he then left me there like I was some sort of call girl'

Culo:'I didn't know you felt that way it's just that you guys love each other but you both have pride to accept that'

Me:'No Culo right now I don't want to be in a relationship,I don't think I'm ready for all the heart breaks whereby I get to be cheated and lied on'

Culo:'You do know that not everyone is the same right??...Anyway I met this guy!!'

Me:'Haha oh is there a day where you don't meet a new guy and then blush about him?'

Culo:'Mxm this one is different or I atleast thought he was different but yeey Mngee!'

Me:'Haha tell me more or just get out because I'm not about to ask again',

I said that typing on my phone totally ignoring her, she will have to tell me without me having to dig her futhi I was totally not in the mood anymore and she saw that too

Culo: 'You know what guess what i saw?'

Me: 'Yes you saw Somizi'.. Haha I said that with attitude

Culo: 'Nooo!! I saw on Tabloids and Internet that Areecce is dead'

Yhuu my heart leaped and I asked again on what she was saying yhuu she said it again

Me: No, he can't not without me seeing him'.. My day was officially ruined he can't die not when he's my imaginary husband

Culo:'Yes I have your full attention now and first of all you Hubby is not dead..So I've been crushing on this guy for about 3 months and I've been showing him that boy I'm into you,yhee sana I knew that I had to up my game'

Me:'How?'

Culo:'chin up and upped my game.No I didn't let it show,I wasn't impossible but I became a lady or a cherry as you like to put it with me

I went to where he always sat,yhee sana I was classy and not too coconutish cheesse girl type.I talked with some guy he was with,yaas his friend and flirted a little'

Me:Hee slut And?'

Culo:'He got overprotective and started talking with me,so we did the did yhuu wasuka wabanda umntu,became cold just like a shampoo.'

Haha I've never laughed like that ay these Crushes crush the soul

#Hlelokuhle

Kia:'Hlelo are you Okay?'

Me:'Yes I am'

I wanted to talk about it,damn it I wanted to scream.I wanted to yell,I wanted to shout about it but all I can do is whisper that I'm fine

As i was in front of the Tv staring at nothing she began to switch on a music player and suddenly Wish by R.KELLY started to play

"I wish that i could hold you now"

"I wish that i could touch you now"

"I wish that i could talk to you"

"Be with you somehow"

It was depressing shame and then her song,Melo's song played and that's Shayne Ward-Breathless

"If our love was a fairy tale"

"I would charge and rescue you"

"On a yatch baby we would sail"

"To an island where we'd say I do"

"And if we had babies they would look like you"

"It'd be so beautiful if that came true"

"You don't even know how very special you are"

"You leave me breathless"

"You're everything good in my life"

"You leave me breathless"

I jumped and stopped the song from even reaching the chorus,that song is Melo's so she doesn't have a right to play it and also the playlist she selected long time ago.yes i memorize everything about Melo

Home was cold and i now saw the stupidthat everyone saw in me when i let her go.I'll go and ask for forgiveness.i just hope that she hasn't moved on yet Kiara will have to forgive me because Selena Gomez saw this too that the heart wants what it wants and unfortunately mine wants Melo

#Melokuhle

It's the day for our departure already and I have already packed everything that i was gonna need while I'm in Cape town,I already knew that I am going to be there for only 3days and depart on the fourth day.

I slept alone yesterday Culo went out and never came back but atleast she told me not to wait up for her because she won't be back.I no longer wanted to sleep with someone as I was now brave enough to sleep alone without cuddling someone

I just wore my Black highwaist shorts,black crop top shirt with my baby blue jean jacket and my old school vans.I gotta give it to my self I was popping and my booty was out there,for a change my dreadlocks were loose and I also had on a purple matte lipstick.Im not a fan of make up not even ponds for that matter so obviously my skin looked like that of a kid but I'm a cute way

I was about to get out and go to town because I was going to meet Craig in town then go together at airport when suddenly there was a knock at the door, I wondered on who could it be so early in the morning but anyway I went to open only to find someone I didn't wanna see

We looked at each other with no words exchanged

Hlelo

I couldnt come yesterday as Miso got sick so I had to take her to the doctor and that took longer than I had imagined and that meant I couldn't see Melo.

Miso hates Kiara so I couldn't even leave her with as she would cry the whole day if she doesn't see me. I now lived on take outs because Kia couldn't cook, my home was no longer warm. It was cold and I now preferred work than home, Culo came here last night to tell me about Melo who is going away with Her friend Craig and that was the last nail on my already made coffin but I knew I have to take my chances

I was now face to face with her on her dorm futhi I could see the bags next to her

Me: 'Can I come in?'

She just opened a space for me to enter without even opening her mouth and that hurt because usually we're playful when we're next to each other and right now things are awkward

Me: 'Melo I'm sure you're wondering why I'm here'

Melo:'Yeah why are you here?'

Me:'I realised that I love you Melo,I've always loved you but I didn't want to hurt you and right now I promise that I'll never hurt you atleast not intentionally'

Melo:'Huh you love me?,after you ruined soo many dates that I had?,you don't want me to be happy because while you were doing all that you slept on a warm bed so why can't I do that also?'

Me:'Melo I'm not perfect Baby and I have never been in a relationship ever since my fiancee died and I felt like if I dated I would have been betraying her,but I'm willing to try again with you please Bunny'

I already had glasses in my eyes because I really loved her fuck those who say a man doesnt cry

because it's all lies

Melo:'I don't know what to say'

Me:'Please don't go,I'm willing to try and be a better man for you and a good father to Miso.Baby they say that love conquers everything so why can't we just conquer this also?'

Melo:'I'll see that after you have left Kiara,you were more than ready to start a relationship with her Hlelo,and how did you think I felt that time?you say that you don't want to hurt me but you did'

Me:'I've been having sleepless night because of you,you're the one who understands me Melo.You're the one I wouldn't mind losing sleep for. You're the one I will never get tired talking to. You're the one who constantly crosses my mind throughout the day. You're the only one who can make me smile with just your presence. You're the only one who can influence my mood in many ways you can imagine.

You're the only one who can make me happy, sad, angry, and emotional. Everything you do affects me. You're the only one I would love to spend an entire day with.

There's just something about you that I can't fully explain into words but I hope you know that you're the only one. It's you. It's always been you. Because at the end of the day, you're the only one I want to keep for the rest of my life and not Kiara'

At this stage were were both crying shame

Melo:'How do I trust you,how will I know that what you're saying is all true and not just flattery?'

Me:'Just look in my eyes I hope you will be able to find answers..Please stay Melo,don't go'

I just feel like I'm asking for a lot from her already

Melo

I want to stay but i can't yes I love Hlelo very much but I dont trust myself that I will be able to love him the way he wants to be loved.As i looked into his eyes I saw that he was sincere he was almost crying

Me:'No I can't stay but i promise I'll be back'

I already promised Craig so I cant just cancel he is my friend who has been with me through my ups and downs so i can't just act like he won't be hurt if i cancelled so I was still going

Hlelo I took out his cell phone and played Writings on the wall by Sam Smith I think it was a way of asking me to be his girlfriend

And I listened...

I've been here before

But always hit the floor

I've spent a lifetime runnin'

And I always get away

But with you I'm feeling something

That makes me want to stay

I'm prepared for this

I never shoot to miss

But I feel like a storm is coming

If I'm gonna make it through the day

Then there's no more use in runnin'

This is something I gotta face

If I risk it all

Could you break my fall?

How do I live? How do I breathe?

When you're not here I'm suffocating
I wanna feel love, run through my blood
Tell me is this where I give it all up?
For you I have to risk it all
Cause the writing's on the wall

I didn't say anything because the song spoke volumes already,so i just went to where he was standing asking my self if two broken hearts would be able to heal each other??..I kissed him and he gladly kissed me back

Hlelo

When she kissed me I was more than happy to accept her mouth on mine.I turned my face up to hers, wanting more than anything in my life to be kissed by those lips.She gave me what I desired and leaned into me, pulling my face to hers.

Her kiss was slow and soft, and then her lips parted and forced mine to yield to her. We tasted each other...coffee, blueberries, mint...and I drank in her scent, so clean and sweet.

The rest of my body responded readily and I could feel a small fire ignite inside, growing bigger each time her lips made contact with mine. When she pulled away slowly, it was as if she was drunk. I steadied her against my chest. And wrapped her up in my strong embrace and I moved my arms around her neck. This time, I kissed her. I had barely kissed anyone before who was worth kissing, and I thought there would be more science to it, but I soon realized that i love her

As we kissed, his mouth trailed down to the hollow of my neck. My breasts tingled in anticipation of his touch. Don't stop, I chanted silently to myself. His hand lightly moved my breast, seductively. He looked up at me with his brown, piercing eyes.

Hlelo:'Melo', I should ask you something'

He said with his voice husky, low. I didn't want to stop for a chat. I wanted him to continue.

Me: "Yes?"

I answered, softly, caught in the moment.

Hlelo:"Do you...want this?"

he asked carefully, hoping I caught the meaning of his words. I did. I wanted it more than anything. I loved him.

Me: "Yes."

He wasn't quite convinced.

Hlelo: 'Have you ever...done this before?'

he asked again.

Me: 'No,'

I answered, feeling a twinge of embarrassment. I knew I was inexperienced compared to other girls at 18.

Me: "And you?"

I asked as I ran my hand down his cheek. He turned his face to kiss it while holding my gaze.

Hlelo: "I've been with women."

Me: "Women, as in plural? How many?"

I was suddenly jealous. He was mine. I couldn't imagine another girl touching him, kissing him...and sharing his body in the way I wanted to.

Hlelo: "A few, Bunny. I can make a list later if you like."

I turned on my side to face him. Never in a million years would I guess that we ever be lying like this on the floor

As soon as the words were off of his lips, he gently pushed me on my back and leaned into my body with his. He kissed me hard, hungrily this time. I kissed back, passionately...with a deep need to satisfy my appetite. My arms raked his back...I desperately needed to feel his warm skin underneath. Reading my mind, he pulled off his sweater and shirt, revealing the chiseled muscle of his chest. He leaned over me, hungry, in a trance, and efficiently took off my jean jacket and crop . I lay there, a willing victim.

Hlelo

I couldn't do this to her,yes I want to do it but I want her first time to be special especially after what happened to her.My body was betraying me but I know better than that,She has a plane to catch and I won't deprive her of going with her friends.

No I won't be that type of a boyfriend and act all insecure by trying to control her, she was already under my spell because she laid there a willing victim ready to give me her pride. I actually never thought she would be one, I mean the kisses that we shared and all those intimate things we used to do she was actually a pro.

I actually found out that love is not what I thought it was, but the capacity of love gives depth to human relationships and brings people closer to each other physically and emotionally. People tend to think expansively about themselves, they think love is about being together and make love.

But love is something rare and precious, it's whereby you do something for your partner without looking for a payback but rather you do it with your heart. I got up from her, she looked at me with her eyes wide open I'm sure she thought I didn't find her attractive. I gave her my hand so that she could get up but she didn't take my hand she just looked at it and just got up on her own

Me:'Baby i can't do it atleast not on your floor,I want your first time to be special and memorable'

Melo:I'm sorry it's just that i thought you didn't find me attractive and please this doesnt happen often to me I don't know what happened to me to allow you to take off my clothes especially that I just agreed to be your girlfriend '

I looked at her as she was busy explaining,she's so beautiful like a Goddess with her pink pouty lips and those two deep dimples that show everytime she talks.She is the one.Beauty with brains not beauty without brains. She doesn't just blink , she takes her time.

She doesn't "just walk" she takes time as if the land is a flower that she doesn't want to spoil.

She is very feisty ,She talks slow but not boring.Her voice got a bit of a bass ,She's clean, classic and Too sensitive.She basically got it all,I'm whipped really like a love struck teenager.

A lot of people forget that you fall in love with the humans soul.The skin colour,religion,height,age,gender and status doesn't matter in fact its just an extra.You fall in love with the soul,the laughter,the million dollar smile,the walk and you fall in love with the way they say your name or the way they look at you.It's just little things that make them stand out from the rest like how she didn't throw herself at me and also the way she cares and loves my daughter.You fall for the person and not what they have because material things will vanish, beauty will vanish too then what?.it so be over because you didnt love them for who they are

Love a person for who they are and what they build you to become. Melo was already late so i quickly took her to the airport and returned home feeling like a new man, I was in love.

I got home Culo told me she was going and Miso is taking her midday nap so I thanked her as i was about to give her something I got her from town she was already gone so I just went in my room and i got the shock of my life

Kiara was there in her red lingerie waiting for me and i stared at her for the longest time she smiled and came towards me.

Kiara: 'Mmh you like?'

the first words that got out of my mouth stunned me too

Me:'What are you doing here?'

Kiara:'You left me here silly?'

She said that seductively busy touching my groin,I fought the urge to slap her and my body betrayed me because my member was already standing waiting for action but i wasn't going to give in,I wasn't going to cheat on Melo.

Cheating is usually a symptom of an unhealthy relationship.It destroys friendships,breaks trust,causes guilt,anger and many other negative emotions.Cheating in relationships is not going to last,people know all these facts but they still go on cheating on others but right now I beg to differ.

So I pushed her away from me.

Me:'Don't touch me'..i said to her angrily

Kiara:'I can smell her all over you,see I'm not dumb
Hlelo I will take you down'

Me:'And when you do that you will already be jobless'

I saw her flinch a little

Kiara:'I don't care about your job but you better keep Melokuhle safe because I'm coming back'...

She said that and got out

Melokuhle

We have just arrived at Cape town and the only thing that i did immediately after landing was to call Hlelo telling him that I have arrived,I don't know if it was just me being paranoid but he sounded so down and deep in thought but he assured me that he was fine.There was a car that came and Parked next to us Craig motioned for me to get in and that the man was one of their drivers

I got in and the car drove off to sea point and entered a mansion,wow it was so beautiful I dont wanna lie and on the way to the house were grape trees Craig had told me before that they had a grape vineyard

As the car came to a stop we both got out leaving our bags as the driver was gonna take them to their respective places .A white girl maybe my age got out and when she saw me she screamed that Craig brought a girl home,they all got out and hugged me busy telling me that I am the first girl ever to be brought home by Craig

He told them that i am a friend so they just laughed I'm sure they thought he was kidding so we let them be.I had a great time shame and we took as many pictures as we can then I went to airport and returned to Durban. I went to Hlelo's house he was alone, Miso went home to his mother so it was just the two of us.

He was drinking wine and I don't drink so we made a deal that I will put a joint on a bong then we will share it and also share his wine. We did all that it was so nice shame and we laughed so hard like there was no tomorrow. He started to kiss Me and I responded, I was so horny I'm sure it must be the weed but then I wanted him.

I took out my shirt and I was left with my bra so basically I was half naked and he did the same too, His hand brushed over my bra. So close...but not close enough. I reached behind my back and unclasped my bra. He helped to undress me from it and set my bra down next to the shirt. It suddenly occurred to me that I was naked from the waist up...and I fought the temptation to cover myself with my arms. Instead I watched him look at me, studying my breasts and my pale brown skin. Before I could wonder what he must think of my humble chest, he spoke.

Hlelo:'You're beautiful, Melo. Perfect, A goddess'.

He slowly traced a pattern down my chest and over my breast with his hand, as if drawing some ancient symbols with his fingers, marking his territory. Then he leaned onto me, his naked chest against mine.

He kissed me hard on the mouth and then traveled down my neck and stopping at the firm nipple of my breast. He kissed it softly, then suckled, the warmth of his mouth sending new sensations throughout my body. A soft moan escaped my mouth. I wrapped my hand behind his head as confirmation of my approval. He moved up my body, kissed my ear and whispered.

Hlelo:'Melo, are you sure you want to keep going? I should warn you that I don't think I could stop myself if we continue like this.'

I could feel the hardness of his arousal pressing into me. I suddenly thought about birth control, diseases and all the other things that my high school sex ed class had drilled into my head. It was a mood killer, but I didn't plan to get pregnant at 18.

Me: 'I'm sure. But I don't have anything...for protection.'

He kissed me quickly and smiled slyly.

Hlelo:'I have something. Don't worry, I'll take care of everything, my love.'

My love. He called me his love. The fire danced in shadows around the room as he pulled my jeans down over my hips. I instinctively held my knees together for modesty's sake.

Hlelo:'Melo, I'm going to help you relax...so you'll enjoy this more.'

Me:'Okay. Care to elaborate?'....I suddenly became nervous

Hlelo:'Do you trust me?'

he asked. I looked up at him, his eyes full of desire, full of...love.

Me:'Yes-

I whispered. He reached for my white lacey panties—my best pair, thank god—and carefully pulled them off. I almost stopped breathing I was so nervous lying there, completely naked. I duly noted that he still had his pants on. Not fair. His eyes moved over my nakedness. I wondered, did I look alright? Did I look like he expected? Were my thighs too big? My stomach flat enough? Did I miss a spot shaving my legs this morning?

Melokuhle

In answer to my silent distress, he lifted my left leg to his mouth and kissed the inside of my knee. The he smiled devilishly at me as he cradled my naked thigh in his hand.

Hlelo: "Your legs are very long, Melo. It will take me some effort before I reach my destination."

I tried to steady my breathing as I melted in his hands.

Me: 'And where is that?' ... Yey I just became dumb I tell you

He scrunched up his face while looking up and down my leg and pretended to make a serious mental calculation.

Hlelo: 'twenty-four and a half kisses from the tip of your toe.'

I said nothing in reply but exhaled the breath I had been holding while awaiting his answer. He began his journey, his lips soft and teasing on my skin, and I started to feel the way he saw me at that moment: beautiful, young, soft...entirely female. All traces of my previous self conscious anxiety seemed to evaporate as my primal desire for him and the pleasure his warm, skillful mouth promised to give took over

Hlelo:'Twelve...'

he breathed into my skin, followed by kiss number 13. I started to squirm as he made past the halfway point, the anticipation slowly killing me in the most delicious way.

Hlelo:"Twenty-four..."

he finished, his face buried in the crook of my thigh.
He threw in what I assumed to me a tiny half kiss before landing at his destination, and I moaned in reply, my back arching at this new delicious sensation. He moved his tongue expertly, building my pleasure and ripening my body for what was to come. It was desire. There was nothing else I could give him, nothing more I could show him of myself.

It was the most intimate offering we both made to each other in that moment. My breathing quickened as the tension built in my belly. He moved faster with his mouth in response to my intoxication. Then it hit me. Waves of delicious warmth radiated from within me. I couldn't stifle a primal moan, and I nearly screamed his name as I dug my fingers into the back of his head ensuring he would not move away and disrupt my orgasm.

And it was over, the pleasure faded from me. My body pooled on the rug, liquid and tired. Hlelo reclined next to me, stroking my hair, kissing my neck.

Hlelo: 'Melo, did you like that?'

he asked, the stupidest question of the year.

Me:'No, it was horrible. You'll have to do it again'

I teased through my satisfied smile.

Hlelo:'Your wish is my commandMami. But I should let you know that I'm so aroused right now, it's bordering on painful.'

I tugged at his belt and kissed him, letting him know I was ready for what would come next. His hand unbuckled and unzipped faster than mine could. He tugged his pants off. My eyes were closed when I realized we were both naked now, lying face to face next to each other.

Did I dare open them? It was exhilarating...and nerve-wracking to think what lay beneath. What do I do now?Hlelo grabbed my hand and moved it down his body, showing me what he wanted. He let go and I hesitantly explored on my own...his taunt, firm muscles of his stomach, and then below, I found him, his hardness smooth against my skin. He was bigger than I could have guessed, and I had brief moment of panic when I realized what would happen soon. I glided my hand carefully down his length in wonder and rapture to his nakedness

He moaned at my touch with his breath hot in my ear
Hlelo:'Mami...Wow Oh God this feels so nice '

I thought he would pass out because he seemed so overwhelmed by my touch, he then pulled away

Hlelo:'I need a moment Sweets'...he said that reaching to his pants took a foil and opened it,I didn't dare look at him as he put the condom on his length

In a moment he was on top of me supporting himself with his arms so I wouldn't be crushed by his heavy weight. I could feel him in between my thighs and I opened them wider giving him a room so he could enter

Hlelo: 'Mami this could a little so I'll try to go slowly and it's important to tell me what feels good and what doesn't'

He then stared deeply in my eyes I guess he was looking for an approval. I felt him enter me and it did hurt a little. It took me to that day that I was almost raped but Ofcourse I blocked those flashbacks away and concentrated on Hlelo. He kept his eyes locked on me while he was holding back a bit

Hlelo: 'Cakes im sorry, I'm trying to be carefull'....

He whispered then the pain slowly gave way to intense desire to feel him inside me, all the way inside my cookie.I moved my hands down his back pulling him to me.

Me:'I'm ready daddy please i want you'...

I swear i blame the weed and wine because this was so not me ,yes im shy but right now I wasn't.

He didn't need me to ask again because he obeyed already moving deeper inside me ,it was pleasure and pain married together.I sighed

Me:'Hlelo'

He just kissed me repeatedly and it seemed as if he changed into a wild animal while lust overtook his body

Hlelo:'Melo you feel amazing baby'....he breathed on my neck 'Please stop me if it hurts'

He moved his hips in sync with mine creating a new sensation to me, it felt amazing in the deepest part of my being truly becoming one with him in this physical act so I rocked with him in a smooth wavelike motion with our breathing one and heavy.

It wasn't long before his body stiffened and his climax overtook him, I stared in his eyes like they were possessed in an intoxicating pleasure connecting to him with a level that will bond me with him forever.

He disposed the condom and also came with a warm towel and wiped my Cookie, I noticed that I bled and I freaked out. I bled on top of his cream couches oh my god the stain

Hlelo: 'Calm down Cakes it's normal for virgins to bleed so it's totally cool with me now are you sore?'

He asked tracing his finger over my breast,so i tried to feel if I was

Me:'Mmh I dont think so,should i be?'

Hlelo:'No Sweets but it wouldn't be uncommon if you were but I promise it will be better next time'

I smiled at at him

Me:'The next time Hlelo?,when will that be?'

Hlelo:'Anytime you want Sweets im officially your slave'

He kissed my neck and i melted at his touch,would I always feel this way with him??

We made love again for the second time and i didn't see him putting on a condom because i just felt him entering me from behind and this time he didn't move carefully it was animalistic and delicious

.He watched my responses carefully and touched me in ways that brought me over the edge in pure Bliss with him.

Finally we fell asleep wrapped in each other's arms in the early morning hours.As i drifted off,I felt safe,secure,loved and treasured for the first time in my life.I was a complete woman,complete in my heart and completely inlove.I heard him whisper "I love you Melo"

And i knew that i loved him but i pretended to be asleep.

Kiara (Khariya)

Hlelo made me a fool,he led me on knowing exactly that he loves his baby momma more than me. I hate him and I also hate Melokuhle for sabotaging my relationship with Hlelo.I've been getting drunk since the day he turned me down and today i was planning to go to A nearest club

So I washed and got ready,I wore my shirt dress and out my hair in a pony tail then called a cab. I got out and payed then got inside the club,I sat next to the bar and there was a man next to me not that I cared but he looked deep in thoughts. I took 10 shooters one after another,the man looked at me amused

Him:'Hey go easy on the alcohol I wonder who hurt you but it's not worth it'

Me:' you don't wanna know'

Him:' Oh trust me I do'

I told him everything about Hlelokuhle and bloody Melo and he knew who these people were and we were both out for revenge as i was about to go home because it was already late he gave me his hand

Him:I'm Zack by the way, i was his friend'

Hlelo

I know that I have know Melo for a short period of time but everything that I did with her felt right and I knew for sure that she is the one for me.You see everything that I wanted in a relationship when I grew up is not what I want now,I know y'all had dreams on how you want your wedding to be like and how you want your boyfriend or girlfriend sweep you off your feet with just a perfect relationship that has no arguments, that only happens in movies

I no longer want someone who promises to always love me and never leaves me, I need someone who understands that life happens and sometimes things don't work out. I don't want someone who sugarcoats things and never gets angry with me, I need someone to tell me how it really is and put me in my place. I need to be able to go five hours without talking to you and not feel lost or incomplete.

I am complete without you, but with you I want to be so much better. I want to be stronger with you, I want to grow with you and help help each other grow individually. I don't need you but I want you and I know that with Melo I have it all and the fact that She loves my daughter whole heartedly is the cherry on top

She was snuggled safely in my arms and she looked really peacefull more like an angel,God love her and I haven't felt like this ever since Bella died.The connection that we have is amazing and I thank God and Miso everyday for her

What we did yesterday was very fun Haha I mean we basically smoked weed and drank together,She gave me her pride yesterday and I just wish she doesn't wake up regretting everything.

Me:'Fuck Marn Fuck Dammit'...

I said that out loud,I have just remembered that I didn't use a condom when we made love the second time, I mean she's still young to be pregnant so I have to act fast and go to the stored because I'm sure she's not on birth control and what's worse is the fact that she's going home today

Melo:'Hey what's up are you Okay?'

She said that trying to snuggle out of my embrace but I didn't let her

Me:'Yeah Sweets I'm okay sleep it's still early'

Melo:'No you're not and you better tell me,Ahh my head it's like I've been hit by a train and fuck I'm sore down there'

She said the last part more to herself haha I never thought I would see the day where she becomes shy'

Me:'I'm sorry babes Okay?,see baby you're not like all the other girls that I have been messing with,I want to give you everything,Will you please accept My heart?,I won't let anything tear this love apart.I say no way now I'm gonna prove my love to you, breaking your heart something that I would never do'

Melo:'Is that your way of asking for another round?'

Me:'haha No marn did you even hear what i said?'

Melo:'Um yeah'

Me:'i really can't believe you pouring my heart to you and you're busy having sex scenes in your mind, you're so dirty'

Melo:'but babe I love you too'

Me:'okay which part did I say I love you?'

Melo:'mxm you don't love me?'

Me:'Noo'

Melo

I got up and went to the bathroom haha and he also came too so we took an innocent shower,I was torturing him because his member was standing firmly.I wanted him to swallow his last words so we got done and went to the room with only towels on our bodies

Hlelo:'See my member is already standing,that's the effect you have on me'

Me:'Me?,and me alone?'

I said that coming next to him so I pushed him to the bed and got on top of him then put his hands on my ass.

Me:'I want you so bad,you make me feel good'

He got up trying to put me underneath and i spanked his ass unexpectedly then told him that I own him.So. I got up too and kissed him hard as he was about to drop his towel

Me:'No chill babe I just want to enjoy you

Hlelo:'No baby please I can't take it anymore'

He put me underneath and took off the towels on both of us,he licked me starting from my collar bones to my cookie.He focused his attention on my clit. He didn't focus all of his attention on my clit only because I'm sure it would be boring.

He took his time to kiss me savouring every moment. He Kissed and nibbled my inner thighs, then blew an air on my labia. If felt like i was gonna burst, he then got in unexpectedly driving me to the edge I felt all of him from my stomach and I felt him him my G-spot then we both orgasmed and both slept.

I felt him waking me up.

Hlelo: 'Babes when is your plane taking off?'

Me: 'At 14:30'

I said with my voice deep with sleep

Hlelo: 'Wake up it's 13:45 already'

Yhoo I woke up and took a very quick shower and wore the clothes that Hlelo chose for me then we both got inside his car to the airport

He first stopped at a pharmacy and have me pills

Me:'What are they for?'

Hlelo:'We didn't use a condom last night and today and im sure you're not on birth control so those are morning after pills'

Me:'oh Okay hurry up tye plane is about to take off'

We got to the airport and I hurriedly went to to enter.

As i was already settled so i could drink those pills I didn't see them maybe left them on Hlelo's car,fuck I'll have to buy another ones when i land

Hlelo

As soon as the plane took off I went to my car feeling Sad and yet happy,I got in and played our Song the one by Shane Ward-Breathless.I took off singing along I pictured the way she was sitting before she went out and what I saw made my blood to turn cold,the pills.She practically forgot them and calling her or texting her is not an option because her phone is on flight mode obviously.

I don't want her to get pregnant,she's still young and i don't believe in children out of marriage so I want her to be done with school.I know I ejaculated inside her but I'm praying and hoping that the pills work in my favour.She will be gone for 2weeks and I'll miss her so bad.

Melo is different,she is engulfed with divinity and purity. Her words represent tranquility. she holds my hand and our galaxies collide.

She's the goddess of the sky, cancer is cured through her smile. As she rebels against demise, all the violence, she passionately despise. she constantly exudes intelligence, non-existent are all her irrelevance. Her melanin radiates eternal relevance.

Our attraction, defies the forces of gravity. She is the interdimensional , I got to the mall and brought Miso's diapers as she was almost out of them and her toiletries Ofcourse with her cereals. She was coming back today and i missed her so much.

I got inside my yard and I noticed my Mom's car in the driveway and I knew for sure that the Princess is back, I quickly parked the car, took all the plastics that I had and practically ran inside the house screaming Miso's name . I got in,they were nit in the kicthen or living room so i went to the lounge and when she saw me she stood up and came to me running slowly like a tortoise with her big afro bouncing on top of her little shoulders.

I hugged her then put her down,she quickly and quietly went to her toys she was building a tower.I then looked at my Mom she was looking at me sweetly and I knew that i was gonna get dissed so i greeted her too.

Mom:'Hello Son'..

She said that almost squealing and she had this grin on her face

Me:'okay mom out with it'

Mom:'Out with What?,baby what are you talking about?'

Haha okay my Mom was now making a fool of me because I knew for sure that she was gonna talk anyway

Me:' You know what Mom so don't beat around the bush'

Mom:'It's good to see that you're moving on and getting laid Bobby'

I laughed like literally I mean how did she know but i wasn't going to give her tye satisfaction so i was going to beat around the bush too.

Me:'Mom you know how much i hate that name.Okay what are you talking about?who said anything about moving on?'

Mom:'When I got in here there were two cups on the sink and a bra on the sofa.So what do you think?'

Me:'Well yes Mom I'm moving on,but I won't get on that laid part because it just doesn't feel right talking to you about it'

Mom:'Well seems like Miso knows who the bra belongs to because when she saw it she said Mami,I'm guessing that you got your act together and got that girl'

Me:'yeah I'm with Melo mom but seems like there's gonna be a problem'

Mom:'What problem?'

I didn't talk,minutes went by with me not able to tell her that Melo might be pregnant, but I needed her help. She's a nurse so she will know if the pills might work or not. I saw her getting alarmed and getting curious

Mom: 'You know you can tell me everything right?'

I nodded

Mom: 'Now tell me'

Me: 'Mom I slept with Melo yesterday, well I practically took her father's cows, her mother's pride and her dignity'

Mom: 'She was a virgin?'

Me: 'Yes but that's not what I wanna ask you, I slept with her without a condom yesterday and also today then she went to catch a plane forgetting the morning pills so if she can drink them now can they work?'

Mom:'Well baby that will depend on which pill she took as there are three types of morning afters,the LNG,EllaOne but I'm not sure she got those as they always get finished in most pharmacies futhi I won't even talk to you about Condoms because it seems like you are allergic to them.

Me:'Mom please it just happened i swear i didnt plan it.Can you elaborate please'

Mom:'Actually “morning after” is a bit of a misnomer. The pills containing LNG (Norlevo, Levonelle, Plan B) can be taken up to 72 hours (three days) after the unprotected intercourse; EllaOne can be taken up to five days after. But the sooner you take it, the more effective it is then there's the third one,it only works

if you took it right after 5 hours of sex

Shit i knew that the pills might not work but i hope she got these two that my Mom was talking about.

Me:'Are there any side effects?'

Mom:'Emergency contraception pills are very safe and do not harm future fertility. Side effects are uncommon and generally mild.

The most common side effects are nausea, vomits and menstrual abnormalities (your period may come earlier, later, with more or less blood than usual); more rare side effects are fatigue, breast tenderness, headache and abdominal pain.

There is some controversy as to whether the morning after pill is associated with an increased risk of ectopic pregnancy (a pregnancy outside the uterus, usually inside the fallopian tube). Available evidence suggests that ECPs do not increase the chance of ectopic pregnancy; moreover, like all contraceptive methods, ECPs reduce the absolute risk of ectopic pregnancy by preventing pregnancy in general.

Me:'Wow that's extreme,so even if the pills didn't work she might think that its the side effects eish'

Mom:' You willbe okay son don't worry'

Me:'Yeah thanks Mom-

I got up and went to my room,I found myself looking at our pictures and I laughed alone.I mean almost all of our photos are crazy and doing weird things,when I'm with her i just become a teenager.I just feel free and wild

I guessed that by now she has arrived and I wrote her a poem so it goes like this.

"Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?"

Are the words you'd hear Will Shakespeare say.

But, my love, I'm not the bard.

This poetry thing is very hard.

I'm going to try with all my might

To get the way I feel just right.

Feelings that go deep inside,

Feelings that I just can't hide.

From the day you came in to my life,

These feelings have been running rife.

So what I say I swear is true.

I want to spend my life with you.

I see your face, I see your smile,
I see your love, and all the while,
I think of what the future brings,
Of hope, of love, of many things.

There is no doubt within my mind
That you really are the loving kind.
I'm grateful to the Lord above
That he gave someone like you for me to love.

There will NEVER be anyone else for me,
And I'll show for all the gods to see
My love for you in every way
And prove the truth in what I say.

In my eyes, my love, you are
The most beautiful, by far.
And my Princess, you will see
I will love you for eternity.

It's taken a lifetime for me to find Someone who can blow my mind
And fill my heart the way you do,
But best of all you love me too,I love you Sweets

I'm scared of the outcome,on how our relationship will be like I mean we've only been together for a week and now she might be pregnant

The plane landed at East London airport and I'm pretty sure that the journey only took approximately 1 hour and 10 minutes maximum from Durban to East London. The first thing that I thought about was to call a cab to take me everywhere including the pharmacy, so I called the Cab and the driver said he would be here at the airport in 10 minutes. I went to chill at Parranottis but didn't buy anything, I mean I had no appetite at all.

I don't want to get inside a taxi like I have so much luggage so it will be uncomfortable as people will be looking at me with talking eyes. If it was for me I could go with my own car pity I don't have it

The cab arrived and the first thing that I said to him was that he must take me to a nearest Pharmacy and I got in at Clicks the Cashier was an older woman who was already feasting her eyes on me, If eyes could drill holes im sure I would have them all over my body or died even as I said the words "MORNING AFTER PILL"

Me:'Afternoon Mam can I please have a morning after pill?'

Fuck I was embarrassed even as I said those words and she just looked at me like I was dirty or something

Her:'You know they are morning afterpills not afternoon'

Woman who said I don't know that nxa yazi some people have the nerve

Me:' Yes I know but I heard that there are some that Could work even after time has elapsed'

Her: 'well Girly those are finished but I have some that might work,I don't even know why you didn't use a condom busy killing unborn children nxa ay youth of today'

Me:'Please give it to me and still water please?'

I'm annoyed beyond levels,she's making me mad and I hate her for that.She must just give me the damn pills and stop acting like she's God or something This old hag was getting under my skin but I wasn't gonna show her that.I gave her R200 and she was taking time I give me change because she was busy cursing on how careless I am

When she finally gave me everything I drank the pill rightaway.I don't want any mistakes,I then request the uber to take me to Butterworth taxis.I give him his money that is accompanied by a big fat tip,his services are good

I have no other choice but to use the taxis and Ofcourse when I arrived the taxi was only left with two people to take off at the front seat and back Seat, as I was about to sit in front seat a limping man also came to the taxi.I let him have the front seat I'm sure it would've been uncomfortable to be at the back Seat in his condition

I hate the front seat but today I was gonna seat there if it wasn't for my good heart that went out for the limping man,what I hate is the fact that in most taxis you have to be the one counting money and giving people their changes.It doesn't happen because you pay right before the taxi takes off,so i took off the R70 and got to the back.

Holly mother fucker it's basically 3thick mummies at the back so I'll be the fourth, Lord of Frogs I'll be squeezed and turned into mince or should I say sausage?oh Thixo womsamariya olungileyo (God of the Good Samaritan)

I settle in and my my luggage is all in the taxi takes off,it's one long boring,bumpy and tiring ride with the driver who is drowsy.Its boring and i can't be able to breathe,as I am squeezed.I now hate myself for not sitting next to the Window,but then I remember that when I climbed the taxi everyone was already settled.

My perfume smells so bad for me including the ones of these ladies,oxygen is limited, air is hot and I'm sweating.Suddenly tasteless more saliva fills my mouth, I'm trying to reduce it but i now have this urge to vomit.

This is not the first time this is happening,it happens almost every time when im having a long distance and I always make sure that I eat 3 or two hours before i take a long distance drive.I take few deep breaths and I'm better

I fish for my phone in my bag,I open it and im welcomed by a message from Hlelo.I read it and it's sweet,I seriously didn't know that he is into writing and poetry like me.

I think about him then suddenly I'm filled with mixed emotions, I dont regret sleeping with Hlelo but what I regret is allowing him to enter mw without a condom several times i mean I saw him but did nothing.Well everything was mind blowing so I didn't have the strength

You know yesterday Hlelo was obsessing about my breast and thighs,Well to be honest before I met Hlelo I have never found anything interesting about sex so much that I didn't experience all these climax, cloud nine, speaking in tongues all that shit. I didn't even miss having sex.

My first girlfriend that kinda broke my virginity was very rough her hands had nails and im pretty sure I was the first girlfriend to experience lesbian sex with. The pain I felt was close to labour pains though I never gave birth but I am sure it was similar. I was bleeding afterwards. I dumped her right there and I hate her with my life.

She has tried so many times to contact me but I refused to see her. Nelisa was a second

Girlfriend that I've had sex with. I fell inlove with her and decided to give her a chance under my skirts. She was gentle but still I have not one time felt what other women felt during sex. I just did it to satisfy her that's all otherwise to me it was waste of time and energy. I even felt dirty and guilty for days after doing.

She thought I enjoyed it like she does that's if she cared at all or maybe I gave out wrong impression. We would do it in school toilets, she would go to my class as she was at 11c while I at 11a Then say to the teacher in charge that the principal wants me or make whatever lie and we would make up in the toilets then go back to our classes like nothing happened

Anyway i take out my phone and write an sms to Hlelo

“Babe I miss you all of you.”

Suddenly the taxi stops, yes i have arrived in Butterworth

The taxi suddenly stops everyone gets out with their luggages including me,I see those boys who are always with Trolleys and I ask one of them to help me with the bags of which he does.I'm going to my Rank which is Ibika,I pay the boy his money then again I ask a street vendor to keep the bags for me as I was going to buy some goodies for my sisters kid.

Haha I'm Aunty so I have to,My pumpkin is only three years old so she knows that whenever I come home I bring her goodies.It was already late So I bought the goodies and I had to buy from the street vendor just because she kept my bags for me

Yazi cost of living is to high and I totally understood that she was doing this for her children,she was doing this in order to survive and she was also doing this to maintain herself and not suffer from starvation.

Street vendors are the strongest people that I know,sometimes we may not buy from them but that doesn't discourage them because they know that they have a life too

I got inside the Taxi then to my township got off at my stop that is almost 10 houses away from home and walked.Along the way I met Elisa,still remember her?.The one who left me for someone else when my mother found out about my sexuality?

Nelisa:'Hey babes,man you're so grown'

Nxa who the hell is she to tell me that nonsense,is she keeping records of me now I rolled my eyes showing her that I was bored

Me:'Leave me the fuck alone woman'

I know that was rude but I just wanted her to go away but what she does next brings my world at standstill,she grabbed my ass

I just didn't know what to do so i just left her there but she yelled

Nelisa:'Geez girl you are back with a bang'

I arrived home opened the gate and got inside the yard and I'm welcomed by a pleasant smell so I know already that Mommy is cooking.

I get in I greet everyone,My younger brother the one I come after hasn't came back yet so it was my older brother Yanga, My big sister Sisipho and my mom

I sit at the lounge and my mother is already giving me a hot chocolate, this has been happening for so many years. Whenever I come from school with Mom she would always make me a hot chocolate, I thought things would have changed by now but she's still doing the same thing

We gather around the table pray and dig in

Mom: 'So how's school baby and Dubarn Ofcourse'

Me: 'School is great Baby it's actually fun because I'm enjoying the path that I chose'

Sisipho: 'You're glowing and gaining weight too'

Me: 'Thanks big sis'

We talk everything together so she knows about

Hlelo, She's my elder sister she is 9 years older than me we talk almost about everything at times we more like friends than sisters

I'm done eating as well as everyone so I take the dishes to the kitchen and wash them, my brother comes in and helps me out by wiping the dishes.

Yanga:'Makhanya'

Haha yazi this name, apparently as I was growing up I never said love Pirates Club but I would say I'm Faving Makhanya. And now whenever my brothers want something they would call me by that name and I would easily soften up

Me:'Ntwana'

Yanga is doing his last year at university of Fort Hare doing Business Administration there.

Yanga:'I missed you man and I want to tell you something'

Haha whoa I knew for sure that it's about girls but Then he's the romantic commitment type of guy. We were already done and I was so tired so I started to yawn.

Yanga:"You know what go to sleep I will tell you tommorrow"

I quickly went to my room,a shower was not something that I had in mind this time so I just wanted to sleep. I took off my clothes,wore my pajamas and slept right away

My phone is ringing, time its 3:45 am. Who could be that at this ungodly hour?

I barely can open my eyes and I just want to sleep so i just take the call without checking who's calling me

Me:“Who is this?” I ask with my bored annoyed voice

Him:“Melo it’s me sorry to wake you up, I can’t sleep”
He says in his very awake voice but clouded in worry.

Me:“Hlelo are you crazy? What is wrong with you?
This is not the time to call anyone.”

Hlelo:“Yes I am crazy you are driving me crazy I can’t sleep I’m thinking about you. I love you, can’t you see?” His voice sounds sincere.

Me:“Listen to me you have to learn to control yourself.love you too Bunny”

I say that with my mouth but my heart is saying the opposite because I love that he's giving me so much attention

Hlelo: "Melo I don't want you to be my girlfriend you are very special and rare to find I really love you Mamsuthu wami."

I'm now out of the bed sitting with my legs crossed on the floor, I'm confused.

Me: "I need to sleep baby and don't call me at this hour ever again okay." He keeps quite for a while I'm thinking of hanging up but I know he will call back.

Hlelo: "Okay Mami sorry Okay?"

Me: "Its fine can I sleep now?" I ask.

Hlelo: "Yes you may. I will sleep too now that I have heard your voice. I love you so much and you've just helped me from my insomnia."

I've switched my phone off incase he calls back again and slept

There's only one week left for me to go back to Dubarn and Hlelo has been texting and calling me now and again, to be honest I just hated him and every time he calls I wouldn't answer

Then he would write an sms and I wouldn't reply but if he didn't write any I would cry

So today I was taking myself out

It's okay to buy yourself flowers , go shopping alone, take yourself on a date even if it's just to the nearest coffee shop , go to the movies or go out to eat alone. Buy yourself a book, or a chocolate . It's okay Enjoy your own company.Be happy with yourself.

The only thing that I missed was Miso

It's Thursday on the second week of the holiday and I'm also going back to Dubarn since the holidays are over. Honestly being home is what I needed although my mother has been complaining about my laziness, so this means that this is the second week since I drank the pills also

About uHlelo he Still hasn't stopped sending me text messages seeing that I wasn't taking his calls, his last text was

"We can't wait for you to come back Mamsuthu, we love you"

Mxm who is he trying to flatter?, who told him my clan name. The universe doesn't want me it's obvious because it's now turning its back on me.

I didn't even reply but I would call him for Miso and if he dare talked I would be disgusted nxa why would he talk, as usual we all got ready for my departure and my family was accompanying me as usual

These past few days my mother has been telling me that I'm glowing and more beautiful and that I have gained complexion.

We all got done and drove to KFC for breakfast well my Moms treat and I would never say no to free food

We all settled in and bought everyone his or her order while I ordered Box Master the spicy one with Regular chips and Oreo Krusher. Everyones order came while mine the only thing that came was Regular chips and the Krusher saying that they are still busy with The boxmaster

We were chatting a storm and within no time I finished my Chips and the krusher futhi I was the only one who was done while they were still indulging on their foods.

I sat maybe 3 more minutes and I couldn't hold my tears and sobs in so I actually cried and I saw that almost everyone inside was looking at me

Mom: 'Baby why are you crying?'

Did she just ask me that isn't it obvious that they are taking too long and I want my boxmaster now?

Me: 'I'm hungry and they are taking too long to come with it'

Haha well my mother actually looked at me like I was some kind of an alien that came out of nowhere

I stood up and went to the waiting area with tears all over my face and the assistant asked on why I was crying

I told her that they are taking too long to make the boxmaster and I want it now well the boxmaster came and when I took a bite it wasn't spicy meaning they gave me a wrong order so I just cried again futhi I even lost my appetite so I went on to buy some pizza ate then took a taxi to Umtata Airport

My ticket was already booked so I just got inside the aeroplane and Hlelo insisted on waiting for me at the Aiport so there was no need to call a cab when I arrive

Ever since Melo went home she's been giving me hard time and cold shoulder but what I loved the most is the fact that She still called our daughter

But I wasn't gonna give up no not that easily without finding out on exactly whats Going on with her.

What beats me is the fact that it's said that the Side effects of Morning After pills is Nausea,vomiting,Dizziness,Fatigue,Headache,Breast tenderness,Bleeding between periods or heavier menstrual bleeding and Lower abdominal pain or cramps

See there's no hate on those side effects so I dont know why she's hating me but I still love her anyway

She's my light in the dark like she fell from a falling star she's the queen of my heart...

She the only good thing in my life together with Miso Like i died and came back to life She's my Moon In Paradise Likes she's the second coming of Christ

She's my light in the dark like she fell from a falling star she's the queen of my heart...

She's my Valentine She's the best thing since water turn into wine She's Like the ripe grapes falling off the Vine, She the reason why we have 4 seasons in time

She's my light in the dark like she fell from a falling star she's the queen of my heart...

She the only good thing in my life Like i died and came back to life She's my Moon In Paradise Likes she's the second coming of Christ

She's my light in the dark like she fell from a falling star she's the queen of my heart...

She's my Valentine She's the best thing since water turn into wine She's Like the ripe grapes falling off the Vine, She the reason why we have 4 seasons in time

She's my light in the dark like she fell from a falling star she's the queen of my heart...

I wanna Love her 4 the rest of my life forever too be my Boo.

This song played as Miso and I were on our way to the Aiport

When we arrived there there was a bit of a commotion and some ambulance,I saw someone being taken to there and i got closer only to find out that it's Melo

Miso screamed her lungs out saying Mami,so i went to the porter Ofcourse i told her who I was and my relation to Melo

Me:' What happened?'

The Porter:'She fainted and We've been trying to wake her up hence were now taking her to Hospital'

My walls broke down closing me in,My palms were sweating and i was crying

Seeing her with so much drips and pipes made me relieve that day, the tragic yet so beautiful day where Bella gave me a beautiful princess and then died

Right now I didn't want to think of the worst, it's been 4 hours already since she fainted and I've been around since then. It's only now that I'm seeing her after so many hours waiting for answers and I had already called Culo to come fetch Miso since it's already late.

I didn't want my daughter to see her mom like that, you know it's often said that babies know nothing but that's not true. Babies know everything that is happening around them futhi their memories are sharp because they never forget, in fact they are the most clever people that I know

I touched her face and it was burning hot, her lips were a bit pale forming some cracks. It's too early for this but this hospital is already eating her out. The doctor finally came

Doctor:'So what is this lady to you?'

I didn't know how to answer that because she's my everything,my baby mamma,my lover,Miso's world and my world al although I don't know where we stand right now

Me:'she's the mother of my kid'

Doctor:Well then congratulations again'

I was lost in the mist and I wanted to be found fast and quick

Me:' What do you mean by that? '

Doctor:' Well that means you'll be a father again she's two weeks pregnant '

I was dumbstruck,angry at me for being careless because this will now affect Melo's life but happy at the same time

Me:'Can I please be the one who tells her this?,please don't tell her anything'

Doctor:'It's okay sir'

She said that then went out I wasn't even interested in knowing what happened for her to be here.i have to keep her in the dark until she sees for herself and by then it will no longer be an Embryo it will be a foetus and cannot be aborted even if she wants to.I know she loves kids but i can't take a risk

It's been a month already since Melo was in hospital and that means she's now one month two weeks pregnant or just 6weeks pregnant

Since then I've been sending her food everyday at school and her dorm,pizza and hot wings to be exact.She doesn't want to see or talk to me but she eats my food

She's currently vibing with her friend the one she went to Cape town with and I don't think she has noticed that shes pregnant yet and she hasn't stopped calling Miso

There's This other day where Culo called me and told me that she's suspecting that Melo is pregnant and I asked her why she just said that she's been vomiting a lot lately and sometimes doesn't wanna eat because she's scared that it will come out

I felt bad for her that i wasn't there for her and my child,i love her and i won't stop now just because our baby is silly and doesn't want me

Today she said that she was coming to take Miso out and that it's a girls outing and she told me to make her wear a black jean short,old school vans and a white T-shirt

She arrived wearing exactly like Miso,when she was about to get in,I stood on the doorway

Me:'Hello'

She looked at me clearly annoyed by all this

Melo:'Mxm hello'

She said that rolling her eyes

Me:'I So wish those eyes could get inside your skull,so what have I done to you to get silent treatment?'

Melo:'I thought you would get it by now but it's clear that you're dumber than i thought well it means I don't want to talk to you because you disgust me and i hate you

I was wounded by all of This but i wasn't gonna show it

Me:'okay can I please get one last hug then I'll leave you alone'

She came close to me and when we were about to hug she freaked out and quickly ran to the bathroom

she got in and vomited

She cried saying that she hates me and that i smell awful,not so long ago she liked my smell but now she hates it and me because I disgust her

Low battery I'll bring in an early long breakfast

AN:what's gonna happen next?

We spent our day lazing around the park and my daughter seemed ecstatic and joyful for spending time with me.After playing catch me and hide and seek at the park I was soo exhausted but my baby girl was very much energetic must be the sweets that she was eating.

We then went to town, I was very much hungry and I wanted pizza right now. Yazi these past few days I've been feeling a bit weird, it's like I'm hollow or even empty because I eat a lot and I'm never full and that's all thanks to Hlelo because he's been a darling because he would just come to give me pizza even if I didn't call him to say I want it.

Hlelo has been trying to communicate with me but I just hate him and I don't want to talk to him but I want his food .

If I'm mad at you please buy me pizza and an oreo krusher I swear I'll forgive you at that instant you come with them through my door Culo and Craig know these things , when I get dizzy spells they would be there for me but I'm sure it's nothing serious.

When I fainted the doctor just told me that my bile was acting up and I should reduce my intake of sweets and I shouldn't let my sweet tooth control me because that would be a dangerous situation for me

We then went to Debonairs and ordered same time, our order quickly came thanks God because I was close to fainting. We immediately indulged with the Princess and Craig called me

Futhi I'm way too close with Craig now and Yes I've been vibing with Craig ever since I came from holidays. Did I tell you that we've been dating for 2 full weeks now?, oh yes we are sweetheart

Me: 'Baby wami'..

Haha my daughter replied also bashing her long eye lashes and I couldn't help but laugh at all this smiling at her

Miso:'Mami'

Craig:'Boobear,what are you laughing at? '

Me:'When I said 'Baby wami' to you my Princess decided to reply to that and I honestly couldn't help but laugh at all this'

Miso:'Mami?'

Haha hay sana she wants attention owam umntana so I had to answer that

Me:'Soso ya mama'

Yhuu she smiled at me,I looked at her she was so perfect with her big long afro on two Barbie buns while I let my long dreadlocks fall on my shoulders.

Miso:' Soso Avi Mami'

I was smiling non stop man I just loved my daughter too much for that matter especially now that she's just told me that she loves me.

Me:'Mami avi Soso too baby girl'

I don't know why she refered to herself as a second person kesana lonto I even forgot that I am in a call

Me:'Craig?'

Craig:'You guys really love each other and the bond that you share I love it'

Me:'Seriously?,thanks babe'

Craig:'When are you coming back?'

Me:'I have to drop the princess off at home first'

Craig:'Yeah Ofcourse,but please come by my place I have a surprise for you'

Honestly I didn't hear a thing that he said the only thing that I heard was "come by my place" nothing else .I knew that today kuzomele ngidliwe I mean it's been long since I did it.

Craig is romantic and all too romantic actually but today ngifuna udliwa,I'm horny almost all the time so right now I knew that I wasn't going to go to his house for nothing never I would never waste my time like that

Me:'Sure okay I'll see you now now '

He then dropped his phone and I turned to look at my daughter,she's only 11months old so you can imagine how dirty she was with all the pizza sauces and I didn't have an apron for her so now the white t-shirt she's been wearing was now brownish

We got done and went to Ackermans when I got there I bought Miso a new tshirt and sneakers,yes I was kinda loaded because I haven't been using my money lately with Hlelo and his treats there is never a time to use my money we got done with the little shopping,called a cab and went home.

When we arrived at home Hlelo was waiting for us at the doorway when he saw us he grovelled down waiting for Miso to go to him but she didn't instead she screamed at me saying baby.Hlelo got up leading us to the house

Hlelo:'Who did you say baby to because she's now telling on you'

Mxm bloody fool I just wanted to get out of his house but I knew that shit has hit the fan when Miso didn't want his daddy to take her from me.

Me:'Mxm leave me alone Big eyes'

I went to sit at the lounge and this fool was at my tail following me around like a lost puppy

Hlelo:'Are you hungry?'

Nxa!,what's up with him busy feeding me almost every chance he gets i hate him

Me:'Do I look hungry to you and what's up with you busy feeding me?'

He didn't say anything but got up,went to the kitchen,came with pizza for him only and sat down next to me. He ate his pizza closing his eyes now and then clearly enjoying futhi Miso was already sleeping so and it was getting late outside so I got up going towards the stairs with Miso on my arms but he startled me asking me weird things

Hlelo:'No you won't able to take her all the way up the stairs so leave her at the couch'

Since when I can't take care of Miso??,I was asking a wrong person and I was annoyed by all this

Me:'I've been doing this and I'm doing it again and you won't tell me what to do'

I went to put her in her bedroom,I was not going to read her a story because she was already sleeping.

I went down the stairs how could he eat like that with me looking at him and not feel any guilty conscience clearly he has a hard cold black heart futhi tears were already rushing out of my eyes at this point

He was waiting for me at the end of the stairs

Hlelo: 'baby are you okay'

Bloody fool with big eyes

Me:'do I look okay to you?'

Hlelo:'Are you Okay?, what happened why are you crying? '

So many questions that im supposed to answer and i won't

Me:' You ate alone Hlelo'

He looked alarmed and tired so he dropped his gaze

Hlelo:'but baby you said you were not hungry'

Me:'I didnt say that,I asked you if i looked hungry to you'

Hlelo:'That's a same thing baby'

Me:"No it's not and i didnt know it was pizza'

Hlelo:'Sorry babes,what do you want except pizza because it's finished'

Me:'mxm a glass of wine would be good'

Hlelo:'No no you won't have wine ever again even if you have it in your room you better give it to someone else."

Yhuu I cried more,why would he obsess over the things that I'm eating so I ran out and called a cab, he tried to follow me through the drive way but my Uber was already here so off I went to Craigs house

I arrived at Craigs house and everything was so perfect man. Everything that I used to see in the movies was right in front of me, candles were lit and there were rose petals everywhere

He did all of This from the front door up until the lounge where we were gonna sit and talk for the night but no I didn't want that i was a lady on a mission and I i hate loose ends so I had to accomplish it

So we talked and ate a lot no I was the one doing most of the eating. It was already late and Craig wasn't making any move instead he just showed me a room that I'm gonna sleep in and it had a bathroom too.

I took a shower like njani kaloku my plan had to work I can't starve while his bedroom is next to mine so I got out of my room and stood next to his bedroom door and hesitantly knocked.

I just didn't think Craig would welcome me into his room, so I opened the door and stepped inside.

The air trapped in my lungs and I froze as I saw Craig standing near a dresser, bare chested, with a clean shirt in his hands. His chest was... It was beautiful and breathtaking.

I had known he was big, but his clothes had hidden how big he was. How strong. An even coat of furry dark hair covered his chest, with the exception of his two dark nipples. A network of muscles glided under beautiful white skin. And all that hair tapered to disappear into the waistband of well-worn, jeans that showcased just enough to let me know that he was big all over.

I remembered to breathe and forced myself to stop staring at his chest. I lifted my gaze to his and once more found I breathless at the darkness that gleamed in his expression.

Craig dropped the shirt and walked—or maybe stalked was a better word—towards me.

Craig moved slowly, as if not to frighten me, placing his hands on the wall on either side of my face, effectively trapping me in between his hands. Not that I could have moved, even if I wanted to.

Craig: “I’m going to kiss you now, Melo,” he said, his voice thicker and deeper than I had ever heard it.

We stared at each other for a moment, as our combined deep breaths filled the silent room.

Despite

the cool air floating into the room through the open windows and open door, the room suddenly felt hot.

Suddenly Craig could not control himself.

He dipped his head and brushed his mouth against. I heard myself making a strange sound in the back of my throat and he brushed his mouth against mine again.

I could feel that He wanted more. He definitely wanted more, but he was content just to touch me, to taste me. He ran his tongue along the seam of my closed mouth and then gently bit my lower lip.

I sighed into his mouth and Craig used the unspoken invitation to slip his tongue inside my mouth I wanted him so bad.

It's like Lightning struck in his brain as he tasted my sweet depths. He groaned and stepped closer, pressing his body against my softness not be egoistic but I'm soft . Every inch of our bodies touched, pressed together. I brushed my free hand on his veiny arm

#Narrated

And that touch did it. Made him lose the restraint he was trying so hard for. He grabbed her waist feeling warm skin above the waistband of her pants and slammed her against him as he ate her mouth. Tried to swallow all of her sweetness whole. And the best part was that she was giving back just as good as she got. She raised on her tiptoes and met his tongue stroke for stroke, resuming the kisses when Craig tried to leave for air, holding his head in place by his neck, refusing to allow either one of them to retreat. Their tongues battled, then soothed then parried and played. Her breasts pressed against his chest, her nipples beading and pressing through her clothes to act like red-hot irons against his chest.

He settled his hardness against her, and she subtly moved her hips to fit him. It drove him crazy. He tightened his hands on her waist, hoping that he wasn't hurting her, but he couldn't let go. He wanted more. More of her delicious mouth. More of her breasts. More of her.

He abruptly wrenched free of her mouth and forced his hands to release her. He stumbled back several steps and stared at her. He almost went to her again.

Her lips

were slightly swollen, her hair was mussed and her eyes were wide and bright.

He took one step towards her, his eyes on her breast.

He went to her again and kissed her more hungrily this time. He cupped her breasts and squeezed her

She exclaimed in pain and stopped whatever she was doing while she was crying holding her breast

My breast hurt so much like something I've never felt before, I felt like crying and I did just that. I Couldn't control the tears that were running down my face and I could see that Craig was now feeling bad

The silence in the room spoke volumes, no one talked except my muffled snifs and sobs. Craig suddenly came towards me and put me on his embrace, his big buldge was now gone. I feared what he was gonna say because he cleared his throat while pulling me to him as an indication that he wants to talk

Craig: Hey are you Okay?

What a dumb question i mean he could see clearly that I wasn't okay but he's still asking me that, but what melted my heart was the way he said it. He sounded very concerned so I had no choice but to answer

Me: "No I'm not okay my breast is hurting"

Craig:"Is it because of me? Or they were already hurting?"

Me:"I don't know because I never really noticed"

I said shrugging my shoulders

Craig:"Can you please feel the next one,like um the one I didn't get a chance to squeeze?"

Fvck it was becoming awkward minute by minute and that's not what I wanted.So I squeezed the next breast and it hurt too,I even flinched like why haven't I felt or even noticed before

Craig:"Mmh okay I don't know how to say this but have you ever slept with your previous boyfriend?"

Me:"Why would you ask that"

I suddenly got so defensive,what has this got something to do with Hlelo

Craig:"You do know I studied medicine right?, So please answer me because I'm trying to find the cause of This "

Me:"You don't have to be a doctor to me"

I said rolling my eyes,I was done.I wanted this topic to stop already

Craig:"If you want me to help you,You'll have to tell me what I'm asking you.I don't even know where you picked up attitude because it's boring the hell out of me"

Me:"Okay okay sorry and yes I did sleep with him twice and it was unprotected sex which I later bought morning after pills because we did it in the morning"

Craig looked like he was in deep thoughts until he finally asked me a bomb.

Craig:"When last did you get your periods?"

A lot of thoughts were running through my mind like Where is he going with this topic,my mind was working over time and i was getting alarmed

Me:"I last got my periods 3months back which was in July but last month I had an irregular period"

Craig:What do you mean by irregular? "

Me:"my blood wasn't red,it was pink and had no clots.It only lasted for two days whereas my regular periods last for 3days and it also was not heavy"

Craig:"Fuck man nooo,this is not happening no not right now please"

He was busy mumbling things to himself but I heard him clearly

Me:"Are you Okay?"

Craig:"That might be implantation bleeding,you might be pregnant for fucks sake.Those morning after pills didn't work.

He wore his shirt and sneakers and told me he was coming back now in a minute and left me dumbfounded

5 minutes passed and he has not yet come back, 10 minutes later he came back with a plastic bag and gave it to me. I took a look at it and I found 3 clear blue pregnancy tests.

Me: "What should I do with these?"

Craig: "I want those to prove me wrong, you can't be pregnant Melo he said that with his voice breaking as if he was about to cry."

I opened the pregnancy tests with my hands shaking.

Craig: "Please don't be afraid because I'm with you every step of the way"

We took the pregnancy tests and both went to the toilet, we found out that pregnancy tests are more accurate when taken in the morning but we couldn't wait any longer so I peed on a little container while Craig was busy reading the instructions

I took all 3 of them and they all came back positive,they were all written 1 month 4weeks pregnant

I stared in horror at what confronted me,numb with shock I stood there my mind reeling with confusion and panic.

It took every last reserve of self control to contain the frightened screams that i felt bubbling inside me.My mouth agape,I couldn't take my eyes off the pregnancy tests that stared at me.

I suddenly felt cold and it was as if the air was being sucked out of me.I felt Craig hugging me from behind.I didn't want to talk anymore,I just wanted to sleep,so without any warning I just took the pregnancy tests and went to the room he gave me .

I was so mad amd also dissapointed in my self,how could I be so careless.

I place the tests on my handbag as I was going to pay Hlelo a visit.My pillow was so dump with tears,I don't know when i slept but i did

Morning came not exactly morning because i only woke up when my stomach grumbled,my hand quickly went under my pillow and i got the shock of my life because the time was already 12:30 am

As I had just woke up Craig suddenly entered and forced me to the bathroom,I took a shower without even looking at my reflection because i knew for sure that i had puffy eyes.WhenI got out of the shower the bed was already made while Craig sat on top of it

Craig:"I won't let you go Melo, pregnant or not i still love you. Just let me in.

Me:"I don't think im ready to talk about this,I'm scared Craig"

Craig:"In that case lets go feed the lil princess"

Hesana why is Craig suddenly clingy and shit,I didn't sign up for this really.He's pleading it's almost as if he doesn't trust himself and it's not a beautiful sight to watch so I take his hands into mine and make him stand up as he was kneeling before me leading him to the couch

I'm emotionless and emotionally drained so I look at him giving nothing away,he's looking at me in anticipation as if waiting for me to utter a miracle.I look at him I really don't wanna do this to him but I want to go to Hlelo's house and give him a piece of my mind ngoba I'm sure he knew about this and this could explain the food he's been sending me.

Craig:Melo say something please

I abruptly look at him I'm sure I zoned out but suddenly something clicks on my mind and I stand up

Me:No you we can't raise this baby together it's his baby too so he has to know,I'm sorry I..i can't do this to him.I can't deprive him the right to know about his baby

Craig suddenly stands up on an impulse with blood shot eyes

Craig:Are you gonna get back with him,you still love him don't You?

When I fail to respond it's like I gave him stage to vent,what a turn of but I seriously still love him

Craig:Wow I can't believe I was your rebound

Me:You were never a rebound ngoba I never broke up with him,we never had an argument just because I dated you doesn't mean I broke up with him and yes I did break up with him emotionally because I cut all ties with him so what more do you want from me?

Craig: He took a glass and threw it on the wall i watched as it's pieces cascaded to the floor I want

You,I want you dammit.

I honestly never saw him like this to say I was terrified would be an understatement

Craig:I'm sorry baby please I want you and only you

He wanted to hug me but whenever he took a step towards me I took a step backwards too I just couldn't stand this sight of him with visible veins popping on his forehead when he noticed this cat and mouse we were doing his face changed from angry to hurt

I hugged him one last time, I had to go really i had to,I had to do this for the baby inside me.The cab was already waiting for me and I had already rehearsed everything that I was gonna say ku
Hlelokuhle

I paid got out of the car and walked to Hlelo's house I had my keys so I didn't have the energy to ring the intercom so just let myself in. Barw in mind that I'm hungry but since its been long since I came here I won't go make myself food ngoba I'm a visitor. I proceed to go to the lounge and I'm met with a sight of Hlelo and his friends drinking booze, he looks up right straight in my eyes and I suddenly wanna hold on him for dear life. Every speech that I prepared suddenly vanished from my mind so i just go and sit next to him, I feel needy and i want him to cuddle me as if he read my mind ngoba he suddenly does that and i stiffen a little then relax under his touch .

They engage in light convos and I'm not talking much because I'm not used to these people. I feel myself getting drowsy so he stands up and when he comes back he gives me pizza and orange drink, I eat all of it in a second and im full but still very much drowsy

Hlelo: Ey gents let me go tuck in the lady

Did he just say tuck me in He enters when I'm done showering and covers me with the blankets. Maybe he's just doing this cos he's a bit tipsy but a part of me is grateful he's here.

This time I'm slowly drifting off to sleep and his voice is my lullaby and I can't even make out what he's saying but i heard something Hlelo:Why did you leave?

He sounds polite and chilled. The cat caught my tongue and his question carries so much ambiguity

Me: Were u mad at me or are you still mad at me?

Hlelo: What? No. No. Not mad at u. Just mad at me for not telling you

Me: I don't

He doesn't let me finish. He come closer so that his only 1 inches away from my face.

Hlelo: I would never hurt u okay?

Me: Yes but why didn't you tell me?

I can't breath. My knees are wobbly and my eyes are moving from his eyes to his lips and back to his eyes. He is just looking at me with a look I cannot read. He moves away and the heat he radiated disappears. I let out a sigh I didn't know I was holding in.

Hlelo: come let's get u to bed.

We in his room and I'm still wearing his shirt and he takes off his vest. And gets in bed with his boxer shorts. We laying in bed on our sides.

Hlelo:I honestly cannot bring myself to stay away from you.

I don't reply. Our eyes seem to be doing the talking. Communication of souls. He leans closer slowly. My heart is in my mouth, it's beating so rapidly. I stop breathing.

Hlelo: breath baby

Before I utter a mixed up reply, his lips are pulling on my bottom lip slowly but intensely. I'm spellbound but I cannot ignore this feeling of happiness at the bottom of my stomach. My heart wins and my brain takes a back seat. I kiss him back. Giving access for his tongue to explore mine. As our saliva meets and our tongues dance to the rhythm of our sync. I hear a deep manly grunt from uBaby. He doesn't stop kissing me with his hands now on my waist. A moan escapes my mouth when his hand touches my bare thigh. What's is going with you Melo? I feel like a tigress unleashed and I don't want him to stop. I'm not allowing myself to think. He stops. His eyes reduced and slightly red. He licks his lips.

Hlelo: Goodnight beautiful.

He kisses my head and spoons me when i look the other way.I got so horny and my body is not giving me rest. I can't sleep. He's warm breath tickles my neck. I'm super sensitive to his touch. His arms are resting on my waist. And something is poking my ass. I can't keep still Because I feel uneasy all of a sudden. Why did he stop? Maybe he just doesn't find me attractive anymore. My mind plagues me with these thoughts. As if he read my mind. His hoare yet sweet voice at a low volume fills the silent room.

Hlelo: Uhmm if you dont stop moving. I won't be able to exude any more self control.

Melo: I'm sorry

Tf? Why did I just apologise? Beats me ngoba I'm horny and i want him deep inside me

Hlelo: No no no!

In one swift move. His ontop of me. Missionary. Kissing me and caressing me senseless. He keeps pressing his boner on my pelvic area. His hands are under the shirt and hes gently massaging my boobs. I arch my back to meet his hands and involuntarily our pelvises are even more closer together. Hlelo releases a loud groan and moves from my lips to my neck. His breath is louder than usual and I'm literally panting. My clitoris is on vibration mode. His hands caress my belly and waist while he gently nibs on my ear.

Hlelo:You're mine and mine alone .

His words are barely a whisper but I moan in response as he kisses and gently bites my neck. On impulse, I open my legs wide and hook them so they are on his back. My hands on his bare torso. Touching him relentlessly. He takes off the top and I am exposed. Then he sucks my left nipple while his thumb and index finger clamp my right nipple.

Me: Mmmmmh

He blows and cool air reaches my sensitive nipple. I don't know if I should cry or scream. I just don't know what to do. Too much pleasure is consuming me more by the second. I am at his mercy. He reciprocates to the other nipple. My hands are just caressing his hair and my pelvic area is moving like a holler hoop. My head thrown back I can't help these moans from escaping me. He kisses my belly. Down to my belly button. Then kisses my inner thighs. By now I'm pretty sure he's seen my shaven genitalia. I squirm when he kisses my cookie. He proceeds to my legs, my toes. Leaving a trail of kisses along the way. He moves up and kisses me with a renewed hunger. Then he kneels between my legs and unexpectedly attacks my bean with his tongue. By now I'm louder and I have lost all control to him. He laps his tongue on my clit. Moves in circles. Nipples and gently bites.

Me: Hlelo.... I ... mmmh... aaaah

He continues his blissful torture. He blows cold air and and I jump a lil. My legs are wider than they have been.

Me: Please... stop... noooo.... mmmh aaaah... just... please... yesss baby

My body is in a trance. I can feel contractions and expansions. The pulse on my cookie. I reach the edge and come all over his mouth. He licks me clean. And moves up to kiss me so I can taste myself.

Hlelo: Please sleep.

Is he crazy I want him deep inside me

I'm back people can i get a welcome back nyana?

Melokuhle

It's been 2months already since I got back with Hlelo and I can safely say that I'm now 3months pregnant and the month is already September which is my Birthday month.

Everything has been pure bliss with my little family and yes I moved in with him since I was constantly at his house,I've been dismissing the thought of going home ngoba i've dissapointed my family for God's sake.

I had no lectures today and uMiso went to creche,her father will take her after work ngoba I had an assignment that I had to finish and I had already cooked so I was good .30 minutes later my Nana came through the door with his tie slightly hanging far away from his neck and I already knew that he had a long day I got up from the couch and threw myself in his arms.

Hlelo:Someone missed me.He said that giving me a long smooch that left me horny and Miso covering her tiny beautiful eyes

I took her and gave her kisses all over her face and she was giggling non stop

Miso:Mami please stoop no don't stop please stop

Yazi I don't understand people who hate their step daughters,I didn't even have to force myself to love her it just happened naturally futhi she's and will always be my baby no one will tell me otherwise

I warmed up the food then I dished up. While we were chilling in the dinning room. We listened to Miso chatting about her day. Some how we weren't even getting bored. Even Hlelo kept asking her questions.

Miso:lavi mami

Hlelo: " what about me princess."

I couldn't help but laugh. My daughter was growing up so fast. My phone interrupted me. It was my mother. I picked up and said " hi mom"

Mom:Hesana you've been so quiet and that's unlike You,unjani

Me:I'm okay mom it's just that I've been very busy lately

Mom:Very busy to even take a two minutes break to call your mother?

Me:I'm sorry Makhumalo wam I won't do that again and I love you

Mom:Hehe seems like you already want to hang up but just so you know nothing stays hidden forever

Me:I'm not hiding anything mama

Mom:Okay bye

Hlelo:I seriously don't understand why you haven't told your mom about this pregnancy

Me:This isn't easy nana trust me

We all played doll house sipping imaginary tea,after that it was already late so I bathed Miso and tucked her in and like that she was already sleeping.I went towards the lounge telling Hlelo that I wanted to lie down

When we got to the bedroom Hlelo told me he wanted to take a quick shower. I asked him why and he told me because he wanted me to blow him without worrying about the smell. I laughed. He was right though. Nothing pisses a girl's nose like blowing dirty balls. I know guys always complain about our hygiene issues and stuff. A guy's unhygienic privacies are as bad as ours. You don't wanna suck balls that taste like a rotten rat. We went to the shower together. By the time the first drop landed on Hlelo's body his dick was already excited. I poured shower gel on it and started playing with its head with my hand. I wonder who told amadoda that speaking in tongues when their dick feels nice is sexy. Baby was literally speaking a language I never heard of before as I played with his cock. The shower gel made it easier for me to give him a proper hand job and oh yes I'm no longer that shy girl I watched some tutorials on YouTube, and I was almost always horny I swear it's the pregnancy. The rules of the game changed when he directed his fingers to between my thighs. When a guy touches the right places on your body you can even forget your surname. Hlelo's fingers went straight to my clit and I found myself caught between sneezing and screaming. Like I said before, Hlelo's fingers were not made of hard material. They were soft and knew how to play with other kids. I went "ba... Ba ba babe I thought we were here to take a shower". He didn't respond to me. He let his finger do the talking. I knew he was fingering me well when I heard the wet sound coming from my pussy. That is the language a cookie speaks when it is happy. If your punani remains dry when your man fingers you there is a problem with your relationship. When you are in love your punani will say Hello when bae touches it.

We didn't even finish bathing. Things got so heated that my fingers ended up on my toes with Hlelo working hard behind me and I'm glad that my stomach still allowed me to do that. We were lucky because our shower cubicle was spacious. I was able to bend it so well and allow him a space to enter from behind with ease. I had already come twice by the time he entered me. Most girls make a mistake of only thinking they can only come when the dick is inside. Hlelo made me come before the main event. The water was still raining on us but with an adjusted pace. Hlelo had his hands on hips to allow him a super penetration. When he moved in and out I felt like singing. He went on until I lost grip of my toes. When a guy does you well your body parts will end up forgetting their roles. I went down on my knees and his Joystick followed my punani. I wanted more but I was too weak to bend further. I wanted more but I was too weak to give more. I was weak in a nice way. Being a good man that he was, he carried me to the bedroom. He was kissing me as he walked to the bedroom. We were still wet but my babe didn't give a damn. He laid me on the bed and got on top of me. I went "babe, didn't you come?". I was kinda starting to think he did something while I was away. Men's first round doesn't go on for a long time, unless if they are drunk. He told me his dick was in a very happy mode. Hlelo was full of jokes . Because I loved him I stretched my legs and let him get on top of me. I knew he had a huge urge to come. He used his strong arms to stretch my legs further and chowed the hell out of me. The way he was going fast you would swear he wanted to get me pregnant on top of my pregnancy. When nana came I thought he was trying to kill me or something. He went in and in and in so fast that I almost lost my legs. I enjoyed it though. It was our best shagging ever. You know bae fucked you well when you feel like confessing about something you did during the day.

I went “ babe, I love you so much”i was overwhelmed such that i wanted to cry and stay in the moment forever being his dick yeses these hormones and pregnancy turned me into a sex addict i want it anywhere and anytime and Nana doesn't complain but hey what man would complain to such anyway,things have been great between us and im happy..

1week later and it's my birthday,I woke up to a full English breakfast in bed and Hlelo was no where to be seen.I ate all of it and when I looked on my right I saw a note that was telling me to bath hehe there were rose petals everywhere so i thought why not brush my teeth first?

I went to the sink,squeezed a toothpaste on my tooth brush everything that I ate came back and honestly the toothpaste tasted bad and I even looked for it's expiry date but then again I remembered that it's the pregnancy

I soaked myself and got out when the water was getting cold.i moisturized myself

As I was going to the closet to check what I'll be wearing I was met by a Nude bodycoon dress with brown miquinha heels that complement my skin color,I applied my lipgloss then made a messy bun with my dreadlocks

Tears were at the verge of falling I mean I've been calling Hlelo to no avail maybe he forgot about my birthday

As I placed the dishes on a dishwasher there was a note that told me that i should be at Rocco mammas by 12pm and time was already 11:30 so I called a cab and headed there.Hlelo and his friends were there i just greeted and sat down I mean the man I love literally forgot my birthday.Instead Hlelo just got up and announced that he needs a restroom

Hlelo (Narrated)

Melo was getting impatient when I got there. She went “were you still masturbating or what?”. I laughed and asked if she saw my hand as competition and she cracked. That’s one of the things I liked about my Melo. She had a sense of humour for days. She was unlike those girls who only laughed when tickled. Melo found my lame punchlines funny.

. Melo ordered chesse burger and I ordered a light meal. I didn’t have a huge appetite. I’m normally like that most of the time. She was like “eat nana, after your mediocre performance earlier you must make sure you have enough energy. I’m going to do you the whole night”. muur!, that woman had a huge appetite for everything, and I loved it ngoba I was her first

I'm sure she thinks I forgot her birthday but i didn't, I also wanna propose to her and I know she's only 19 but I love her so I asked for attention as I was beating my glass a little and my Melo honestly looked breathtakingly beautiful

I went to stand next to her, I took her hands in mine and pulled her to me just so she can stand up and her bump I mean our baby bump was a bit visible and I began

"Miso knows why she chose You, I know why my heart chose you babe, you're one in a million, You make me want to be a better man for our little family

I love you baby and happy birthday "

She had tears running down her eyes so I just went on one knee "Baby will you please make me the happiest man on earth by agreeing to be my wife?"

She kept quiet for a while almost as if she didn't know what to decide. After a good 2 minutes of silence she said yes and we hugged then kissed. The kiss was not the I want you now kiss but rather we poured our emotions to it. It was a good evening but then my baby was tired so we had to go home plus according to her she misses uMiso

In the car it was so quiet almost as if she was mad at me, before I could figure out a way to start a conversation she went like "If I wasn't pregnant would you have asked me to marry you?"

Honestly that caught me off guard but I had an answer

"Baby when I got to know you,I knew already that I would marry you,you're ambitious and you're everything that I have ever wanted in a woman"

Melo:"Yes you would have but why now,why not wait for me to at least work"

Me:"No child of mine is going to be born out of wedlock finish and klaar" I said sternly and that got Melo to shut up

We arrived home Melo instructed me to drive to the garage with her inside the car then instructed me to close the garage door

I closed the garage door and we sat in the car silent for over 20 minutes. My senses came back and Hlelo jr got hard jus by thinking of Melo who was inside my car and i didn't even know what she was thinking. Melo went "Nana, let's get out of this car".

She got out first and I followed. We closed the car doors to maintain the darkness in the garage. Within 3 minutes she went “baby, I’m naked. Can your dicklet see me?”. It was like my dick was under the influence of smoking drugs Nyaope to be exact. Melo had weird ideas of having fun but at that moment I enjoyed everything because it was just the 2 of us and i was surely enjoying this pregnancy .

I searched her with my hand and when my hand laid its finger tips on her my jr throbbed . You know that “ho ho ho I got her” kinda giggle? The space in the garage was a bit small, movement was a bit restricted. I grabbed her portable body and placed her on the bonnet. She placed her legs on my shoulder. I held the back of her neck and moved her towards me. She went “baby, I am wet”. I like it when a woman communicate with me during sex, be it spoken or via body language. I slowly directed my hard cock to her wetland. I felt her temperature rise and the darkness in the garage became darker. She went “baby, you you are big” and my ego was boosted because everytime we become intimate she never fails to tell me this and it's a turn on. I started going in and out slowly and I could feel her cookie muscles relaxing to show she was starting to enjoy. When she started lifting her body towards me I knew she was signalling for me to shag her harder. I increased my in and out speed and she started screaming. It was probably because of the mixture of pain and enjoyment. Call it a bitter-sweet feeling. Excuse the oxymoron. The next thing I felt her legs gripping my neck tight and her cookie got wetter. Her screams were at that stage in a 'stuttering' format. You know a girl is in sexual paradise when she stutters in her scream. After 20 minutes we were done,her legs were wobbly so I picked her the bridal style into the house

I think she was still mad at me because she went to shower and later came to bed,she was on her phone when she suddenly looked like she saw a ghost so I took her phone and what I saw took my heart from my chest to my throat

The message read "THE WORST IS YET TO COME". We both kept quiet noHlelokuhle after a while something told me to look at uHlelo yhoo he looked scary and had veins popping on his forehead

What a way to end a beautiful night, I couldn't even fathom what those words really meant ngoba I don't remember anyone who I had wronged so I don't know why someone would be out in the wild sending threats over my life and what's worse is the fact that it was from a private number.

We were both lost in our worlds as the silence took place

I was still lost in my world when I felt Hlelo hugging me from behind telling me that everything will be okay and that i must stop crying I swear i didn't even know that I was crying.Hehe yazi trust Hlelokuhle to be horny on a time like this,I mean as he was hugging me I could feel his buldge

I tried to think hard and fast on as to who could be the suspect regarding the message and i came up with a name that could do it.Kiara aka Khariya according to Melo did threaten me about me leaving her for Melo

Me:I think it's Kiara

Melo:why would you think that?

Me:well she threatened me for leaving her for you

Melo:There's one thing that I won't do,I won't live under a rock and In isolation just because someone doesn't know when she's no longer needed

Me:But baby you were crying just now

Melo:Wait whoooa who said anything about crying because of that text?

Me:Why were you crying then

Melo:I was crying because this person decided to ruin my mood after such an amazing love making

Hehe yazi as i was spending more time with Melo it's where i wanted to know almost everything about her she's intriguing.We went to Bed,well these days we never sleep with our pjays on we rather sleep naked

Melo's orders .

I looked at her lying there naked and my jr started acting up. My jr was like a lion, once it smells 'blood' there was no turning back. Maybe girls don't know about this, sometimes the dick gets so hard that it develops some pain. Next time your man cries when you say no, just know the poor nigger is in pain. I don't know if she did it deliberately or what, but she rolled a bit and her bum bared it all. Her bum was facing me and I could see the little wallet popping between her legs. It was a view that would drive any man crazy. Her cookie was cute

I slowly put it in from behind and started moving in and out. At first it was difficult to swim my dick in but with the grace of my ancestors she got wette I swear she ended up cooperating

Melo: Mmh baby Please move faster...yaas faster baby

I find myself smiling I swear I love it when she says these things

Melo:Ahhh yes yes baby I'll marry you I swear I will.

She said she'll marry me. It was during an orgasm but she said it.

That fuelled me to make love to her more

3weeks later my baby was now 4months pregnant full,the person who sent that message has been quiet ever since that day and I can't help but to Worry

Melo finally told her family that she's pregnant and her mother is currently not talking to her I can't help it but blame myself for that had I not made her pregnant none of This would be happening

Miso is grown and can talk,we were all okay and from my side everyone is happy for the pregnancy and they can't wait to meet him or her

Today its our appointment with the doctor and no we both don't want to know the Gender yet

Melo:Wow wow the heartbeat was so strong

She said this smiling widely

Me:We have a little warrior there I'm wishing for a boy

Melo:Ofcourse you would wouldn't you

I just grinned and suddenly Melo looked sad

Me:Baby are you okay

Melo:Baby I feel like this is so sudden like everything is rushing and I can't seem to keep up,Miso is still young and already she will have a sibbling.I cant help but feel like this is all my fault,a baby will take most of our time what about uMiso won't she feel neglected and resent me when shes older especially when she gets to know that I'm not her reall mother?

ME: Mom?

MOM: Kuhle

I couldn't hold back the excitement, I wanted to run in for a hug but since we haven't been talking i couldn't me: Im so happy to see you.

Mom: yes,but we don't have enough time.

me: What do you mean mon

Mom: We have to take measurements for your dress

me: okay mom

She came to me,beautiful as ever,teeth white as snow.Her smile or my Good Lord I love my mother

Mom: Don't just stand there,come give your mom a hug.

I gave her a mother of all hugs, and broke down. Feeling her close to me was one of the most precious gifts from God. My mother, I never thought I would ever see her again but hey here we are in each others arms sobbing like there is no tomorrow. Only God knows how much I missed this soul. The bond we shared that moment was just one of unconditional love. Mother's are really the precious gifts.

If only people would appreciate every single love their mother's give away before they pass on.

Unfortunately we all regret time wasted.

Me: Mom im sorry

Mom: it's all okay mntanam you'll be okay

me: I don't think I can do this.

Mom: You can, you have to I know you love the young man who made you pregnant

Me: I'm so scared

Mom: Trust in yourself child. Your prayers are very powerful. Don't underestimate your power and God's power.He is with you,guiding your every step.He is God and he is worthy. Lift him up and praise the Lord Nana.Prayer child.Pray Lwethu,let the Lord's power transform you.The power is in your hands

Oh yes It was now October and I was back home for my Lobola negotiations futhi I came with uMiso who's sound asleep

Hlelo and his family will only arrive in a week and i came home 2 days ago,but then Hlelo is Hlelo he was here already and i would sneak and sleep out at night with him as he is not allowed to enter my parental home until the negotiations are complete.

It's now the day of the negotiations and I'm so nervous. Hearing who i assume as Hlelo's uncle's say our clan name out loud from the other side of the gate made me have butterflies in belly and get scared at the same time.After reciting our clan name and and saying the reasons for their visit my elders finally let his negotiators in. I thought that they would let the poor people stand at the gate the entire day. After a while we were called in me and my 4 cousin sisters so that they could choose the woman their son has chosen to make his makoti. We all sat on the mat head bowed and a part of me feared that they would choose wrong but not so. Hlelo's father pointed at me and my elders asked if I know the people who have come to honour me with lobola and I said yes. They excused us and so they went on with their business.

I couldn't help but stress because it's been long since they were talking and there's no feed back i wanted to see my nana already. I hoped that things were go smoothly. I got dressed in a long but yet cute dress that was cut for me topped with a matching head wrap. Miso was still sleeping but that's understandable ngoba she slept late yesterday as she was on Skype with her daddy. The house is so full that we had to ask the neighbours to accommodate certain people as long lost relatives

also came I'm sure some didn't have good intentions

My mom got in and gave us food as we were instructed to stay in the room

Mom: you're pregnant for goodness sake you should have called me and told me you haven't eaten m.

This business doesn't concern you so stop stressing about things you can't control no one will stand in the way of your happiness baby trust me

Miso: Mami,Avi daddy.

Me: You'll see him soon. Hehe i didn't even know when she woke up (she smiled)

There was great cheering and singing from the women to show that all went well and ululations I couldn't wait to see my husband to be . My mom was so happy when she heard that all had gone good such that she came in the room and told me to go and serve my husband and his uncles.

I came with Miso who immediately ran to her father demanding to be picked up.

Hlelokuhle

I can't believe that Melo is now mine and mine alone, everything that they wanted during Lobola negotiations I gave them ngoba every single cent that I gave them was worth it. They raised a respectful humble girl, to be honest she's every woman's dream girl for their son and every man's dream wife

It's been a week since the negotiations and we're home at my home, I'm a very Xhosa traditional man except I have an English surname and for some reason that is weird, today is the day where she will be named by her in-laws and a Xhosa welcoming ceremony called UTSIKI

When I looked at my bedside she was not here only Miso was here only because last night she slept with us, I checked the time and it was already 06:30am, I didn't like this one bit I mean she's pregnant for Goodness sake and it's still way too early for her to be awake as yet. I just wanted to take her away from here

As I was still pondering she came through the door smelling fresh with water in a kettle.

Melo: Hey nanam

She said this coming closer to me and kissing me on the mouth but I quickly gave her my cheek

Me:Morning breath baby

She laughed like really laughed softly before she talked

Melo:Baby we will spend a lifetime together so I might as well get used to your breath

If I say I'm not flattered I'd be lying because I was,she came close again and kissed Me,we fought for dominance in that kiss until she gave in and moaned on my mouth

Melo:Baby pleaseee stop I'm getting horny and I still have a lot to do

She whined

God she looked so beautiful with that baby bump out there showing on her traditional gear,she was wearing a Xhosa skirt (amajeremani)which showed her shape perfectly with a scarf on her shoulders to be honest if it was for me she'd be wearing just a dress not all these things

Melo:Baby I came here to tell you to take a bath,should I bath Miso or you Will?

Just the way she cared about Miso still surprised me how can someone be just beautiful inside and out

Me:Eish baby you'll have to wash her because after I finish bathing I'm going to the kraal so we could finish the process of slaughtering

Melo:shucks I completely forgot about that babes okay let me bath her using the Vaskoom

She woke Miso up who first brushed her little eyes,so she was also having a sleeping beanie on her head covering her perfect little afro.She washed her and made her wear Umbhaco with Tommy takies that had beads all over and fixed her afro into two bunnies which she made as if she's making braids while also hooking beads on them and a little calamine on her face.She truly looked like an African

Princess she is we took photos for Instagram

Melo:Baby breakfast is ready so come and eat or should I come with it here?

Me:No baby I'll go to the main house for it don't worry

She took a towel and placed Miso on her back while going into the main house

Me:Baby isn't Miso heavy I mean you're pregnant for God's sake

Melo:Worry not babes I'll give her to your mother

Melo

Whoever said that being a wife was easy she was lying,I'm a lazy person by nature so I had to wake up early do breakfast for everyone

So after I bathed Miso I got into the main house and it seems like everyone had just woke up, water to wash hands was already ready so I summoned them to the lounge so they could eat. They all went to the lounge by all I mean Hlelo's family and extended family of course

So I took water to them, they all washed their hands, I went to the kitchen and Hlelo's brother's wife came in my rescue by supplying the food. I had made sour porridge, Full English breakfast, green salad, fruit salad and a freshly squeezed orange juice so when everyone was done dishing for themselves I had already dished for Hlelo and asked a neighbor's kid outside to go and give Hlelo his food which he did Hlelo's mom: Uphi uHlelo (where's Hlelo)?

Me: He went to the kraal he said something about finishing Slaughtering

Hlelo's mom:when is he going to eat ?

Me:Oh he ate already

That seemed to shut her up,they were getting ready to eat without praying to I took Miso off my back and she shouted for everyone's attention I mean she's only 1year six months but you would swear she's 10years old wit the way she does things

Miso:Nooo piz stop,nima piz...(no please stop,please stop)

Hlelo's mom: What Miso

Miso:Mami can I pray?

That seemed to shock everyone on the table and I gave her a nod

Miso:Don't look at me you can't eat without praying to God

Hlelo's dad:Pray baby

Miso:God please this is Miso,they were eating without praying but please forgive them,God thank you for this food that we're eating and for my Didi,My mami,my mami's bhabha on her stomach and Me:amen

Miso:But I wasn't done Mami

Me:But baby you were gonna say everyone's name even your creche friends

Miso:Oh soli mami (sorry)

They started talking about how I was a good mother on Hlelo's kid and Hlelo got in and came straight to me and gave me a kiss on the lips just a baby kiss in front of his family

Me:Hey Nanam

Hlelo:I missed you Cakes

Miso:Daddy please call me

Hlelo: But why Soso?

Miso:please daddy

Hlelo:Soso?

Miso:Nanam?

She said this as serious as possible faking me and laughter erupted on the table,I was so embarrassed

2Months later and that means it's now December and I'm now 7months pregnant,I was given the name Alakhe.

The name simply means that I should build their home, be who they trust so that their home would remain standing

Everything has been pure bliss futhi I passed with distinctions so that means next year I'm doing my second year, Hlelo has been indicating that he wants a white wedding but u told him that I won't walk down the isle looking like a whale so he better wait for me than to ruin my photos of a life time

On this particular day we were lazing around the house, oh and I'm no longer able to go up and down the stairs with my big stomach so we took our clothes to the guest room near the lounge which is downstairs. It's temporal just until I give birth then we'll go back to the master bedroom

It's a Friday and we ain't going nowhere so I got up from the bed and went to the kitchen wearing my little robe with just a panty underneath I didn't tie it so my bump was out there, I went to the fridge took out 3 slices of pizza and warmed them while drinking mango juice in the mean time

When they got ready I went and sat on a bar stool and dug in when I was about to finish Hlelo came and took my last slice

Me: "Please put that Slice back now"

Hlelo: "But im eating it baby "

I cried futhi I was surprised on how close m tears were, so i ran after him with that big stomach I had to get my pizza from him, How dare he take it from me

Hlelo: "Baby please sit down I'll warm you another slice please Magambu otherwise you'll fall while running after me" ..he said this laughing silently as if what he said was amusing

Me:"No I don't want another slice I want that one"

Hlelo:"It's already finished babe"

I cried for a good 30minutes futhi I didn't even want him next to me

A while later I woke up in bed while he was cuddling me from behind I guess I fell asleep,i got up from the bed and went straight to the mirror I had red puffy eyes talk about crying over little things

I went to take a shower,I heard the shower door opening only to find Hlelo entering the shower he was being sneaky almost as if he feared me so i can fully say that he was walking on egg shells

I felt bad but I was not gonna say anything

A while later he spoke

Hlelo:"Baby can I please wash your back?"

Me:"Sure please do"

He washed my back in a very erotic manner futhi I was turned on but I wasn't about to have shower sex hell no it's so slippery and difficult so i wasn't about to do it shame

Once we were one Hlelo asked to moisturize me and I agreed futhi I already knew that he wanted something in return he got done and made me wear his pyjama top

Hlelo went to the kitchen and came back with McDONald's,my cravings were all packed in the fridge only because Hlelo says that he didn't want me waking him at night only because I'm craving something that is not in the house

So we both ate together in one plate he then took the plate to the kitchen and came back and brushed my stomach while his little Prince was making my stomach a soccer field. We were too curious only because he said that i was carrying a Girl and i said it's a boy so i basically won

Hlelo:"Baby the gents are going out tonight"

I knew he wanted to go out but i was gonna play hard to get

Hlelo:"Son please tell your mother that daddy wants to go out yes boy tell her"

He was talking to my stomach

Me:Baby you no longer talk about Zack is he still your friend"

Hlelo:"That fucker is no longer my friend,rhaa he fancied you in my watch so no I'm good with backstabbers"

Me:"So you wanna go out?"

Hlelo:"Not with you though I know you wanted to go out too I could see that in your eyes"

Me:"Why not though?"...I was offended I said this frowning

Hlelo:"Baby have you seen yourself?,you're flames and this baby bump looks cute on you so no i can't have fuckers starring at what's mine yoh I'd kill someone"

Me:"Mmh okay there's somewhere where we can have our party without any fuckers as you put it"

Hlelo: "Don't tell me about Eyadini"

I got up from the bed and connected my phone on the music stystem on our bedroom I specifically put body party by Ciara and put next on Particular.The song played I was so serious but hey you can never be serious with Hlelo around because he was laughing at me all along

So I became serious more just to boost my ego

Hlelo:"Wow,you Go Mamma bear"

I couldn't hold it in i laughed

Me:"Who's Mama bear?"

Hlelo: "I'm cheering for you baby how are you?"

I took a chair from the lounge and put it in the middle of our room and commanded Hlelo to sit there while I strip for him with my big stomach

I lap danced and twerked on top of him,while facing the other way and i could feel him getting hard I got up from him and took of whatever I was wearing while he did the Same,he quickly poured a shot of cognac for him and finished it in one go he was getting tipsy

He placed his erection up I bounced on top of him and slipped in his member while he wasn't aware

Hlelo:"Yes baby ohh"

I got up without taking out his member and slid back down and bounced on a rhythmic pace with Ciaras body party which i put on repeat because its fire

I bounced faster and hard on him he was in so deep,he held my waist

Hlelo:"Ahhh baby,wait ahh stop"

I stopped and picked up my pace grinded him in circles

Hlelo:"Ahh yes baby like that"..it was as if his voice was strained and that only made me to bounce faster

Me:It's Coming baby i can feel it please wait for me
He dug my bums while I listened to my body as the intense wave of pleasure came,I didn't want it to come I was scared and i didnt think i would survive it

Hlelo:Let go baby

Me:Ohh Yaaas baby

Hlelo:"Oh yaas Bella oh my God "

I kept quiet, he tensed after he gained consiousness that he called me by another wamans name Miso's biological mother to be exact

I honestly had no words or even strength to ask Hlelo why he called me Bella mind you he was still inside me so I got up from him and went to the bathroom to wipe our juices I then got inside the bed.

All these movements I was doing them quietly I mean I'm 7months pregnant for God's sake so I can't be stressing over people who can't seem to get over their dead exes. As I was laying there under the covers there's only one song that was ringing in my head

"Have you ever loved somebody so much

It makes you cry

Have you ever needed something so bad

You can't sleep at night

Have you ever tried to find the words

But they don't come out right

Have you ever, have you ever? Have you ever been in love

Been in love so bad

You'd do anything to make them understand

Have you ever had someone steal your heart away

You'd give anything to make them feel the same

Have you ever searched for words to get you in their heart

But you don't know what to say

And you don't know where to start"

It seemed like this song was the one matching with my situation right now, I guess he never loved me the way I thought he did. This means a lot I can't believe I've been his fool all along, when he didn't want me to take down Bella's photos I mean they're literally all over the lounge

So all along I've been in competition with a dead woman, he tried to cuddle me during the night but I didn't want anything that had to do with him so I kept slapping and pushing his hands away from me.

Hlelo: I just want to hold my baby please is that too much to ask?

He's got a nerve If this was any other day I would've smiled but I didn't. I saw that I won't sleep because of him so I let him hold his son that was inside of me.

The sex was steamy but things didn't end well I mean i got out of my comfort zone just so we won't have a boring sex life but he rewards me by calling her name,if I was the one who did that I'm sure he would be asking me if he's really the one who made me pregnant..

Me:Do you still love her?

Hlelo:Umm.uh please it was a mistake babe let's leave this as if it never happened

Me:So you want me to be a rock when it comes to my feelings and act like all is well?,you want us to sweep it under the carpet for how long Hlelo

I was fuming I don't wanna lie .

Hlelo:Yes I still love her but I love you more

Then something clicked on my mind it was Miso's birthday and Hlelo said these words to me

"Hlelo:'I still remember how she asked me to take photos of us immediately after she gave birth,I still remember how she asked me to kiss her,I still remember how she asked me that whatever happens our baby's life should be the first thing that I consider."

Hlelo:'she basically sacrificed her life for our daughter and I'll forever be greatfull for that but what about her?,she won't see her grow'

I don't know where I stand with him I'm so hurt I never thought he would ever hurt me like this

Kiara/Khariya

It's been long since you've heard from me right?,well I was just laying low Hlelo is mine and mine alone so the bitch must not get too comfortable

Me:Wow that was a nice fuck damn you know your story .

I said as i was climbing off Zack,yes we've been fucking together I guess us planning a vendetta on the couple brought us closer and we all have needs so why not help each other out it's a no strings attached anyway

Zack:Thanks lover

It seems like Zack forgot why we met at the very first place so I'll have to remind him

Me:I heard that the bitch is pregnant and that they got married with Hlelo

Zack:What are you talking about

Me:well Hlelo and Melo are married im even surprised that you don't know this I mean aren't you guys supposed to be friends?

Zack:Well if been keeping track of Melos movements and tomorrow shes meeting with her gynae so let's put our plan to kidnap her into action tomorrow

Me:Now you're talking

She won't know what hit her.

UNKNOWN

Me:I need to go home she needs me it's been long since I've been here

Boss:Well you'll have to complete the mission Don't come here unless you have all the coordinates on as to where these Moofvkers took those documents they need to go down then after that we'll see about your request you know that I need you simply because you're one of my best recruits

I just sighed there was no way out of this

It's a monday morning and we have an appointment with Dr Ndaba who is our doctor well Melos doctor

I honestly don't know why I called Bella during our love making,yes the feelings are still there because she gave me an ever fixed gift That will always be my tatto,my first child Misokuhle.She basically sacrificed her life for our daughter I sometimes feel guilty that I'm the one who let her go through with the pregnancy

I love Melo with everything in me,she's feisty and she challenges me so she's totally different from any other female I've ever dated.I don't even want to imagine how she must be feeling because of me,I knew that I messed up but ever since she asked me if i still love Bella our talk is no longer long she only replies on 1 word answeres,I dont know what's going on in her mind so as we were getting ready for the Appointment I talked

Me:Before you go,

She looked at me in a shocked manner

Me:Yes i know you want to go,but first I just wanna know,To hurt me with no concern What will i say to my family uMiso?

If she asks about my you.

Who will be there to hold me tight?

When i feel so lonely

Who's going to fix my broken heart?

Now that it is breaking apart.

How can i manage to sleep a wink?

Yet in my tears i cannot help but sink?

Where am i going to hide?

Where will happiness come from?

Now that my sadness is starting to form..

Why me? Please tell me why

i dont want you to leave me.

I love you so much, why can't you see that?

I fell for you unexpected

Melo:Wow I didn't know that you were a poet when you liked

Trust her to joke on times like this

Melo: Life has been a rollercoaster in such short space of time a reckless drive in a road full of potholes

These scars are like inputs on my diary

These cigarettes are for the anxiety

That hits me when I think back.

A story of holding on And never backing down no matter what life throws

They carry good memories They tell a story of triumph still in writing

No matter how hard I fall I won't stop fighting

These bruises are a testament of my journey so trust me I'll always love you I won't let go of you that easily now give me my rights before we go

Her rights are sex,she says it's her rights even when I'm mad she just say give me my rights then get angry after you're done.We've been receiving baby clothes and we already have a nursery I guess we both can't wait to meet him,we even have tapes of scans,photos and a lot of family videos

We did a quickie then went to my toyota fortune which is Melos obsession and headed to the Dr

#Narrated

The road was clear no traffic jams or convoy just nothing so the lovely couple was driving feeling refreshed while listening and singing along to Mafikizolo's song "Standwa sami I've been thinking about you" while making couple videos in between

When suddenly a car came out of no where and hit Melo's side twice causing the car to spiral out of control,Hlelo completely let go of the steering wheel trying to shake Melo when the car hit a pole and stopped

Melo was in shock and wasn't functioning well,Blood was oozing down Melo's face,Hlelo quickly dialed an ambulance and called the police and gave statement.Melo had blood in between her legs,she felt numb like nothing was real it all seemed like a fairy tale

Dr Ndaba quicky attended to them doing scan and searching for a heartbeat but there was none Melo immediately knew that her son have gave up on life,he died inside her body with a part of her.

She felt everything going in slow motion while Hlelo had his hands on his face covering his tears,she felt numb like she was drowning or even day dreaming it felt like a night mare NO a day mare because it was still morning

Hlelo was hurt but did wanna leave her side,she zoned out and started to brush her 7months old baby boy she was dying silently, she felt her walls close in on her and Hlelo kept saying "We're going to be fine". As time went by Hlelo's family came inside her ward tryin to talk to her,how could he be so strong almost as if nothing happened

She started to feel numb,as she came to terms that she will never feel his kicks ever again,the cravings and the imaginations this was their stop but she wasn't crying she felt light headed and boom it was lights out for her with Hlelo calling her name

I woke up to a doctor performing a cpr on me while Hlelo had his hands on top of his head.

Doctor:"Stay awake Mrs Lindsay please do that for me

Hlelo sprinted and engulfed me in a big hug,shame uDaddy his eyes were blood shot red while his fresh tears landed on my forehead

Hlelo:Don't ever do that again to me baby please I can't afford to lose you the same way I lost Miso's mom.

I was just numb all along I kept zoning out now and again

Doctor:"so should we do a cesarean delivery or natural birth?"

Hlelo jumped to answer

Hlelo:"I think it should be cesarean Doc I don't want my wife to go through that trauma

I was fuming immediately why would delivering my son be a trauma?,I want natural birth for him

I guess I said that out loud because the Doctor and Hlelo they looked at me immediately clearly shocked because i've been silent the whole time so I had to say it again to show that I meant what I said

Me:"I'm taking natural birth for him,I can't fail him twice no I can't"

Hlelo:"Baby what do you mean fail him twice?"

Me:"I failed to carry him to life,he died inside me I mean I could have protected him but I didn't,what kind of a mother am I?"

I said this crying not because of the fact that I'm giving natural birth to him but because I failed him,what kind of a woman am I Am I really a woman?,do I deserve to be called one?it's all my fault he died

Doctor:"Well your bp level is on a normal range so I'll just give you an injection to induce your labour"

Me:Baby I know you hate me right now,but please can you please be with me when I give birth to him?

Hlelo:"Baby are you sure about this?"

Me:"If you're on my side then I'll have the courage to do it,I know I failed him and it's all my fault but please forgive me babes"

Hlelo:"Hey it's not your fault baby it was God's plan for this to happen"

The doctor came and injected me and exactly one hour later I felt excruciating Sharp pain on my lower abdomen which woke me on my nap

I danced my way through many contractions, moving my hips in a simple figure-eight I timed them and they varied from 15 minutes apart to an hour apart. Still, it was exciting because I could tell things were happening,so I was finally going to see my son

Since I was laying down – the contractions had slowed a bit. They indicated I was dehydrated and wanted me to drink water – but that made me nauseous. They did a cervical check and I was 2-3 centimeters dilated and I still had to wait,

By this time, the contractions were getting pretty intense and difficult to bear with and I was having some tremendous back pain. I asked to get up and walk around or to be able to get into the toilet but my doctor and the nurses said that since my baby is no more I need to stay on my left side in bed. The back pain was getting so intense that I had to have someone press on my back as hard as they could during each contraction. I started vocalizing during each contraction to get through it. Sort of a low sound, a cross between an Ohm and an Ahhh.

Hlelo looked scared and to be honest I was getting scared too I could hardly imagine spending hours more in bed dealing with the back pain without being able to walk around or use water to help deal with the pain. So, I asked for some pain medication and received a shot of Nubain in my IV. It took the edge off the pain and made the whole world seem very fuzzy and surreal. Sometime after this, the delivery room was cleaned and I was moved down to that room.

I could no longer bear the contractions and the Doctor had told me that they will be worse painful since my boy is no more

I was in a zone in my own little world and not too aware of what was going on around me. I did feel pretty agitated if someone forgot to press on my back during a contraction and it seemed to me like I was almost screaming "Back Pressure!" at them at the start of some of the contractions and Hlelo was there thought it all the time was now 16:30pm

Dr:She's complete

I started off pushing on my right side, wrapping my arms around my left leg and holding it close to my chest. After a while, we switched to my left side. Next and where I think I spent most of my pushing time I was kneeling on the bed, facing the head of the bed, which had been raised so that I could rest my arms and my head on the top of it between pushes. Each time a contraction came, I would sit back into something of a kneeling/sitting squat. I would occasionally brush my stomach hoping to feel a kick but there was none

I wasn't in a hurry when I was delivering him,when th doctor said I must push I would just cry

Hlelo was holding my hand and would kiss it now and then with tears running down his face I finally got done and my baby was washed and given back to me

He looked so cute and it showed that he was gonna have long hair,he was Hlelo's photocopy

The family came inside to see my dead son,then were crying and I was just looking at them feeling tired my baby also had a bit Mark that matched with the one of Hlelo's family since they all have it

I kissed him repeatedly while Hlelo took pics with the two of us

Doctor:Is he going to be buried with other babies who also die at birth

Me:No I'm going home with him

Hlelo:"His name is Phiwokuhle"

Well we're all Kuhles so he must fit the part

Me:Yes he is Phiwokuhle lyazi Lindsay"

Hlelo:"Why the name lyazi?"

Me:"The Lord knows why he gave me this child only to take him away from me before time,he knows why he took him away from us"

I looked at my son and sang Beyonces song "Heaven couldn't wait for you "

I fought for you

The hardest

You made me the strongest

So tell me your secrets

I just can't stand to see you leaving

But heaven couldn't wait for you

No heaven couldn't wait for you

Heaven couldn't wait for you

No heaven couldn't wait for you

So go on, go home

You showed me love was all you needed

At this point I was crying while clothing my son

2months later it's now February

I became an adult at the age of 19 when I held my dead baby boy in my arms. Just 3 weeks after his birth, long after I had held him, and wept, and clutched the memorial box the hospital made for him with his footprints and my bloodstained dress and the tiny socks, and wept more, I sat in his nursery on the rocking chair and rocked back and forth while holding his clothes and toys

It seemed somehow fitting that he had died in the end of December. The weather was bitterly cold and I took a grim satisfaction in how the bleakness mirrored my mood. It seemed only reasonable that the trees should be bare, the streets part frozen and the skies a dull grey. I was secretly pleased that South Africa appeared to be grieving along with me, that the world seemed as frozen as I felt.

Yet it's hard to grieve when you have a small child. My 1 year 9 months old daughter would strike up conversations with people in town

Miso: "Mami's sad because bhabha died" was a particular favourite,

Miso: "I had a brother but she died in Mummy's tummy."

Complete strangers would whisper: "Oh I'm so sorry," reach out for the briefest of gestures and then continue on their way.

I mean she's young but it seems like she is 10 years in a body of a toddler, but funny enough she expected everything to be as it always was and so I forced myself to horse around, to take her to the playground and chase her, to read stories while she sat on my knee. Trips around the neighbourhood were fraught. Standing in playgrounds I would bump into people who had last seen me heavily pregnant: "Oh did the baby come already?" they would start to say before breaking off.

At my daughter's nursery school one of the other mothers had been due around the same time. By coincidence her baby came 2 months early, on the day I lost Phiwokuhle . I found myself unable to talk to a woman who only a few weeks earlier I had had breakfast with once a week. Her daughter was beautiful. I couldn't stand to look at her face.

Worse was the news that a close friend was unexpectedly pregnant with her third child. As the months ticked by, during this period when the grief was supposed to lessen, I would only have to see my friend for my heart to feel shattered once more and bear in mind that I'm a Midwife in the making.

The grief of A stillbirth is unlike any other form of grief, stillborn grief is different. It's different because there are no happy memories to sustain you, no sense of who that person was and what they meant to you. Instead you're left grasping at something permanently just out of reach, that might have been, that should have been, that wasn't.

And no one tells you how to deal with that grief. They don't tell you how to react when you find yourself sitting on floral chairs in a dimly lit room trying to think hard and sometimes find yourself holding your stomach out of the blue

Under South African State law a stillborn birth does not have to be registered, but I needed some sort of recognition that my handsome boy had existed. I couldn't bear the idea that he should leave no impression on this world. And so the Catholic priest at the hospital had baptised him and said we could pick up his certificate from his church. Unfortunately, in the turmoil following his birth, he forgot to tell us which church that might be.

Almost two months after Iyazi's death I met a woman I knew vaguely outside my flat. "Has the baby come already?" she said, a smile spreading across her face. "No, he died," I blurted, unable to couch it in less brutal terms. We stood in silence. "I'm so sorry," she said, and then, grasping for words of comfort: "You know, they say when that happens it's probably meant to be." Unable to speak, I nodded and fumbled my way inside. In the hallway I screamed.

Because a lot of the time I didn't feel sad or depressed or disconnected; I felt really, really angry. Angry with people who were pregnant, angry with people whose babies hadn't been stillborn, angry with people who tried to empathise by talking to me about their miscarriages, angry even with those who were just trying to help.

With family and friends I was closed in, unable to talk, desperate for them to change the subject and move on. "How do you feel?" they would ask and I would think: "Awful, as though my soul has been ripped out of my body is that what you want me to say?" Instead I would mutter: "Oh OK, not great, but you know..." and hope that they would leave me alone. I didn't want to share my experiences, to talk about how I felt, to discuss grief. I wanted to shout until my throat was raw and weep until my eyes swelled shut. I wanted to hit things and people. I even wondered if taking a boxing class would help.

All day I would sit at my desk trying to write poems that spell exactly how i feel. And each night once my daughter had gone to bed I would weep uncontrollably over my husband. I had no idea how to talk to Hlelo because i still blamed myself for his death. He was so busy keeping it all together, because one of us had to. Going to work, putting the kids to bed, preparing dinner and then holding me while I wept.

"I just want lyazi," I would say. "I know, mami, I know." I wanted to ask him how he felt, but every time I formed the words my throat felt blocked. "Are you OK?" I would whisper in bed at night, knowing he would say "Yes" even if it wasn't actually true.

Like my daughter, I found myself telling complete strangers what had happened. As the days crept on I increasingly felt as though I needed to control my grief, to contain it in some way. I was tired of weeping every evening. Tired of standing in the house with tears pouring down my face, unable to speak to well

To my husband I was tired, too,

I thought that maybe I wouldn't have coped with two children. Depressed, angry and the creeping thought would worm its way into my head: "This is why Iyazi died because you can't cope with your emotions."

"There are books that can help you," my doctor had said that first awful morning when I woke in the hospital, my thoughts reduced to the phrase: "My baby boy is dead." He wrote down a list of books that he recommended for me.

For most of my life books had provided the answer to all my problems. I had comfort novels for when I felt sick, fast-paced crime stories for those moments I didn't want to think, old favourites I turned to repeatedly throughout broken hearts and work disappointments, read and reread in good times and bad. But now I didn't know where to start. Comfort reads failed to comfort, new novels were put down one or two pages in, non fiction seemed too real and fiction too unreal.

I walked in a library and sat on the floor surrounded by a pile of books with titles pulled at random from the self-help shelves. Books about grief and loss, books about healing and moving on, books specific to stillbirth. I flicked through the pages hoping for a jolt of recognition, a sense that the author understood how I felt. None of them worked. Yet these books, though often beautifully written, they left me equally cold. This was their experience of grief, movingly rendered, but ultimately without meaning to me it's like they didn't feel what I feel.

For the first time in my life books were failing me. I found myself unable to look away from newspaper reports of celebrities who had lost their children in the same way, reading endless articles Yet even these similar sad stories, while filling me with a ghoulish sense of companionship, seemed removed.

My increasingly concerned husband suggested counselling. I sat at home day after day and willed myself to pick up the phone, but I never made the call. The thought of sitting in a room with strangers and discussing Phiwokuhle made my skin itch.

Finally, and in desperation, I began to look on the internet. In the early days following Phiwokuhle's death Hlelo had spent some time looking through sites dealing with stillbirth loss but I've never felt that comfortable online. My mother, sister and brother travelled to Durban in the aftermath of Phiwokuhle's death. My aunt wrote me a letter so beautifully worded it made me weep. My closest friends came too, taking precious time out of busy lives to sit with me. In return I barely spoke I really had nothing to say

For all their compassion I craved the anonymity of strangers. I spoke a couple of times on email to someone, who had talked about her experience of stillbirth on a friend's website. Her daughter was also called Phiwokuhle and I started reading her blog, After Phiwokuhle. Sparse, angry, often extremely funny, it made me weep, yes, but also laugh in recognition. From there I tracked down other sites and found myself increasingly in contact with other people whose babies had died.

I still wanted Phiwo. I still dreamed about him, tried to picture him, imagined what he would have been like, but I no longer felt as though I was encased in sorrow. I still looked at the memorial box, but I no longer needed to obsessively go through it.

The dreams we had of holding our baby and watching him grow are gone. So much of what we wanted and planned for are lost. This left leave a large, empty space inside me. I blamed myself for his death maybe if I didn't ask Hello for a quickie we wouldn't have gotten in an accident I had so many what ifs

For the first time in months I started to imagine a return to normality, to those chaotic family afternoons, to weeping with laughter and not loss.

Throughout it all I still knew that there was a community of people who understood what I was going through. I talked to them less as my grief became less overwhelming, but it helped to know that they were always a mile away.

Amanda who is my therapist was right when she told me that the pain would change. It has, and with it has come holidays and laughter and the bad jokes of old. Yet throughout it all Phiwokuhle is still present, and I will not wish him away. For the 30 weeks that I carried my son inside me I was gloriously, life-burstingly happy. I can not change his story, but I carry him with me still.

We became a tight family but then my sweet Mother in law changed into she devil. We found those people who caused that accident through surveillance cameras and are going through trial

Today was my last appointment with my therapist, she has been helping me deal with the loss of my son. We both attended Therapy as husband and wife and our therapist told us that The death of a child can also lead to marital stress. If there have been unresolved issues in the relationship, they can reemerge often with greater intensity. Different grieving styles of husband and wife can also cause hurt and misunderstanding, exacerbating the pain they already feel. While not all of these marriages end in divorce, a large number of them do.

Which makes me think about the fact that after our child was born I didn't even want my husband to hug me it somehow felt like he was gonna get me pregnant, she told me those were just fears as nobody ever gets pregnant by cuddling.

Therapist: I personally feel like you're okay now and you're both ready to face the world again.

Us: I've never been so happy to finally let go of the pain.

Therapist: Even if it's 1 O'clock in the Morning call me as I'll always be at your service.

We got out of her office and took Miso who has been with the receptionist during our Therapy session. We headed to McDonald's and ate there and also brought take aways so we wouldn't cook when we get home, it's Friday after all.

We were heading home as Love potion by Mafikizolo was playing and we were singing along.

Me:Kutheni ndingalali ebusuku booh s

thandwa sami yeah

Baby I've been thinking about you.

Hlelo:Awundilalisi baby

Me:No baby marn please don't do this .

Hlelo:"Did you pour me a love potion oh

My baby I can't stop thinking about you"

Me:Baby you gave me love potion

Hlelo:"No it can't be like that you're the one who did"

Us:Udenza ntoni yooh

Kutheni ndingalali ebusuku booh

Es'thandwa sami yeah

Baby I've been thinking about you

Udenza ntoni yooh

Kutheni ndingalali ebusuku booh

Es'thandwa sami yeah

Baby I've been thinking about you

We ended up being silly and my baby girl was sleeping on her seat.

We Got home and Hlelo got a call from his friends apparently they were planning a night out and they were already on the way to our house.They all got here.

Sipho:Let's go gents and also there will be our ladies so that Melo doesn't get bored.

Me:No count me out,i don't drink well even if i did when im at a club I just feel out of the place.

Hlelo:Is it because of what happened last year?

Me:No babes I was already like that.

Mandla who is once of Hlelo's friends got in looking frustrated as ever.

Hlelo:Mans are you okay?

Mandla:No I'm not okay bro's I won't be able to come with you guys.

Them:Why Not?

Mandla:Well I've been living with my daughter who I conceived through a one night stand for a month now since her mother died,apparently she does infront of her and everything that she did as a hokker she did it infront of the kid.Now she's weird such that she can't even talk all she does is to hide every time she sees someone and the nanny that i got for her resigned today.

Me:How old is she ?

Mandla:She's Miso's age

Me:Seems like she needs therapy,where is she?

Mandla:She's in the car let me go take her.

Sipho:Why did he hide it that he's been struggling.

Mandla came back with a cute underweight baby, she had her head on Mandla's neck holding him tightly

Mandla: This is her, her name is Limnandi.

She put her down and immediately she got behind him,

Miso: Maaaaami ambiye (Mommy I'm hungry) she screamed as she came to the living room where we were and immediately Limnandi cried silently

I guess she was scared of noise and as soon as Miso saw her she ran to her almost tripping.

Miso: Mmmbaa nana.

She kissed Limnandi and gave her a hug which she participated in.

Me: You can go guys we'll be Okay, have fun.

I went and took both the kids with me to our play room.

A man of honor is not the man in a tuxedo on his wedding day. A man of honor is a staying man. He knows what it takes to be a great husband and dad and he gets himself committed to fulfilling it. A woman of virtue is not the woman in the gown on her wedding day. A woman of virtue is a staying woman. She knows what it takes to be a great wife and mother and gets herself committed to fulfilling it.

Anyone can make a decision to get married as it requires nothing more than a decision by a man and a woman to do it, and a formality to approve it. A marriage starts with a ceremony but it only becomes great by perseverance. Marriage is a lifelong bond that is stronger than your feelings or your circumstances. It's a commitment to love someone even when they're being unlovable, respecting them even when they're not acting respectably and seeing the best in them even when they can't see the best in themselves. Marriage is a constant series of decision that all start and end with, "I choose you. I choose us."

It takes a man of honor and a woman of virtue to make a commitment to never quit, to never settle, to bear all things, to believe all things, to hope all things, and to endure all things.

The children and I were sleeping in our bedroom, I looked at Limnandi and thought of what she went through or what she saw. Some women don't deserve to be called mother's because they don't care about their kids.

When I bathed them Limnandi had a thing to scratch her cookie and I thought maybe she's allergic to Miso's soap, but what I saw made all the blood on my face run out. Someone old tampered with her virginity, which makes me think about the type of nanny she had, how could she not see this?

What's worse is the fact that Mandla didn't leave any of her food so she ate Miso's food which she gladly accepted as if it's been long since she ate. A woman was known for her ability to nurture her husband and children. A woman was known for cooking and cleaning not because it was her job per se but because she took care of her family in anyway possible. My mother was the most hygienic out of us, she was also the Doctor of the family because when you got sick she was the one who knew all the remedies to make you feel better. She was also the one to make sure you eat healthy regardless of how you felt about eating vegetables. A woman used to nurture her family firstly because no one can nurture a family better than a woman and secondly because she grew her family into a well kept and healthy family.

I got down on my knees and prayed hard and I also prayed for my husband.

Hlelo

It's been long since we were her and it was fun but I missed my wife so bad.

Mandla:"Melo is what I call a woman,she's different from her age mates and she has a big heart too.She makes you to be your good self and if you ever think of cheating on her you'll have me to deal with"

Said Mandla startling me from my thoughts,and I smiled immediately

Me:"I feel like this title or term woman is a heavy golden crown.. Not every female is meant to wear that crown.. Personally females should earn being called a Woman.. I feel like there are certain things that a person , A female to be precise should go through and be groomed in such a way that you can call them a woman without any Hesitation Or Doubt,like a certain level of maturity should be Reached, level of Being a responsible person, the way a person carries themselves.. how ambitious they are.. their drive of making a difference..

Thabo:"And that person is Melo,you're such a lucky motherfucker "

Mandla:"Preach Hlelo preach"

Me:You're all scared of commitment

Thabo:"Not really just that I always get the ones that ring that MTN 173 song on their vaginas"

We all laughed

Me:I have to go home man I miss my wife

Mandla:Will you miss me my love

Mandla said that looking at me he knows how much that pisses me off.

Me:yeses fuckoff Bhova.

When i got home,i arrived on a beautiful sight We need more women to pray for us men.

A man leads therefore he exposes himself to more danger trying to protect his family.A good man is under attack for merely being a good man.

I am such a lucky man to have found a woman who stands her ground in a world were modest appearance no longer exist.I consider myself lucky that no other man besides me will see my woman's thighs, her breast, her bums or her stomach. I'm lucky that no other man will get to see my woman on social media sticking her fingers in her mouth, taking sexy and provocative poses while dressed half naked. No man will see her twerking or grinding, no man will get the privileges I will get. I joined her on the prayer
