PROLOGUE

Here i am about to walk down the aisle getting married to a man i do not even know. I've set my eyes on him how could my own parents fo this to me. When i ask I've been told it's for the best securing my future. I tried reasoning with them but still the didn't budge. I begged and begged them not to send me away but cleary they don't care about my heartbreak. I look beautiful in this gown, I've always imagined myself marrying the love of my life. I'm about to be a stranger's wife pity enough.

Nana you look so beautiful you know you've just made me the proudest mother ever. "That's my mother being all happy about the moment and I'm not"

Mom please not now, you've done enough already by selling me away "i told her"

When the time is right you will know why i did this "she tells me"

Yea whatever. The selfish parents i have. I wish i was born into another family, have parents who understand my pain. I'm all alone, sad and depressed. What if he kills me, what chance do i stand, will i ever be happy. All we do is to please this family but our happiness comes last to them. After today I'm done with them especially my father. Everyone seems to happy about tgis wedding of a shame, I've cried more than enough and it's no use nothing will change.

I'm now at the alter i feel like running away but again i will be disappointing my selfish family.

The song starts blasting through those speakers Major - This Is Why I Love You and everyone stands up. My father comes with all sorts of smiles taking my hand and leading me to my so cold husband. I have to pretend, pretend to be happy. Half way through the alter i see this very dark, tall man with a huge body and a pot of belly. He's looking at me with those big zoom white eyes, i paused a lil tears prinkle in my eyes. The tears rolling down my cheeks are not tears of joy but tears of sadness. What have i gotten myself into.

This man i call my father is smiling like a retarded, we have reached our destination the belly guy comes forward smiling shyly, i looked at him and immediately felt sorry for him. My father hands me to this man whom i don't know not even his name.

Take care of my precious jewel "my father says"

Yes sir i will with all my life "he says faking a smile"

My father walks away i feel so tiny right now, who would have thought a 20 year old being married to a man to be old to be her father. Life is something else.

Pastor - we are gathered here today to witness the matrimonial of Sibekezelo Khumalo and Mphakamseni Ngcobo. Is there anyone who feels that these two should not get married, speak now or forever hold your peace.

"It went quite and suddenly there was a male voice that shouted at the back and said -who would like to marry a dough cake- the croud laughed at the statement"

He squeezed my hand and smiled faintly. God where to from here, what will i do with him and his pot belly.

The pastor interrupted my thoughts by saying we may proceed.

Pastor - will you have this woman to be your wife, to live together in holy marriage? Will you lover, comfort her in sickness and in health amd forsaking all others, be faithful to her as long as you both shall live

Phaka - i...erm kgm....i do

What the hell did he just stutter with that deep voice of his.

I repeated the same vows after the pastor

Zelo - i do

Pastor - i would like both of you to repeat these vows after me. Can i have the rings please.

"A little boy came forward and handed the pastor the rings"

In the name of God i Mphakamseni/Sibekezelo take you to be my husband/wife to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer in sickness and in health. To love and cherish until we are parted by death. "We slid the rings in each others finger"

I now pronounce husband and wife you may kiss your bride.

He lifted the veil up and he looked straight into my eyes. I won't like he has very big beautiful eyes and nice lips his so black and I'm light in completion. Imagine oil and water.

He came close and bent his head down, I'm so tiny. He smashed his lips into mine and damn I was swimming in a pool filled with tsunami, he can't fucken kiss. I open my eyes in shock I think he noticed cause he stepped back a little. I feel like vomiting, I wanna spit his saliva out of my mouth but where will I. I have no choice but to swallow them I'm so disgusted.

The women lullulate with excitement thinking that we are very much in love but it's all pretence.

It's now the traditional wedding, I won't lie the wedding is out there it must have costed a fortune. Listening to those long boring speeches but there's this one that touched my heart. His mother spoke out from the heart. She said:

I have been waiting for this moment for over 30 years now. Not that i have always looked forward to it, because for most of those years i worked hard to protect my son. But i knew that this day would come. Makoti i may not know you personally but i plead you to look after my son and stand by him no matter what be with him in good and in bad times. I know his not you idle husband but please be patient with him. I am the only one who understands him in this family, he has been bullied his entire life till today. With time the partnership will expand and welcome children into your family. Makoti be an extraordinary mother and bring that trust and compassion and selflessness into the life of a child. Who wouldn't want a mother and a wife who is beautiful and talented. God bless you my kids.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I'm the second born at home. Sometime i ask myself is this really my family the way they outcast me when they do things. Only mother acknowledges my precense, the judge me for my looks, being fat and having this big belly is totally a turn off. I have a low self esteem, i moved out of home amd I'm renting a 1 room flat. Only my mother knows where i live. My eldest brother make sure that he makes fun of me every chance he gets, swears at me even in school they use to bully me with his friends. As for the last born he gets physical with me and their father supports them. None of them are married but for the marriage was arranged just because im not wanted. I'm used to this life even at school it doesn't bother me anymore, everywhere i go i become a laughing stock to people, they laugh at my clothing and everything. Sometimes it becomes more of a challenge cause i can't cook or iron my own clothes but I'm the best cleaner you cpuld find. I have an outside bedroom cause I'm banned from entering the house. I just got married and I'm pretty sure she will join the squad. I want to sleep but I'm afraid jumping on the bed I'll probably take the whoke bed. She's mot even acknowledging that I'm here but let me try.

Phaka - helo sisi

" eish i wasn't supposed to say that right, she's not even looking at me she just replied with an HmMMM as if I'm annoying her or something.

Let me just sleep and let her be, sometimes i even wish of committing suicide.

SIBEKIZELO (ZELO)

I'm still stuck on the words his mother said at the wedding. I have so many questions i don't know if i should ask. What did she mean, just by looking at him i see a broken man. Why couldn't his parents give me the last born since we are age mates. I hear sniffs but i ignore them. He sniffs again more like crying, oh my Goodness is he crying. Did i do something or is he crying because i ignored him "sighs"

Zelo - hey are you okay

Phaka - "sniffs" why would you agree to marry someone like me. As beautiful as you are you deserve someone better than me. Everyone hates me. I've tried countless times to kill myself but here i am i fail. "He was now venting". All my life I've never been loved the only person who understands and loves me is my mother the rest of them hate me, even the people i don't know hate me just because im different. I'm fat, ugly and black not forgetting this huge belly i have Zelo - "oky i didn't expect that" so are you trying to tell me that they don't care about your feelings.

Phaka - no, only my mother stands up for me. You know everyone works in father's company but i am here struggling, i don't even have a house of my own I'm renting a 1 bedroom flat but yet the man i call my father bought his other 2 sons houses. If you also hate me i aill understand or i can just free ypu from my world and let you divorce me.

"I've never seen a man cry this bad he even have hicupps"

Zelo - shhhh hy look at me "I'm also crying cause this is just a mess i feel so emotional". We will have to work together to make you a better man and a person person for yourself, your mum and for your wife. Allow me to help you, let me in your shadow. Remeber our vows we shared at our wedding.

Phaka - yes "sniffs"

Zelo - i may not be inlove with you but i will learn to love and appreciate you. We will be living for a week in your parents house and after that we will move into my place cause it has bigger space and we will take it from there. I'm your wife you my husband I'm here to stay and i will like yo to work with me. You heard what ypur mother said i must stick by you through thick and thin no matter what.

Phaka - you're the second person who knows how to make me feel better and yes i will work with you and thank you.

Zelo - now wipe that face and give you're wife a hug "he stood up and Jesus his so large and tall amd a bit shy.

Phaka - you're so tiny and you're the first woman I've ever kissed or even held with my hands.

Zelo - will teach each other along the way. I have dated but never slept with anyone. When the time is right we will learn together or even take classes even if we have too.

"We laughed still hugging and he didn't want to let go. I guess I'll have to buy him cologne for him to smell nice but first have to talk about losing weight once we leave this place"

Phaka - let's sleep I'm tired "we got into the bed and he was still fully dressed. I ordered him to take off his clothes, who still wears these old undies. Guess I have a lot of work to do with him. I snuggled myself next to him and he tensed a little told him to relax and we dozed off"

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

I hope my son will be fine with makoti. My husband is such a cruel man along with his kids. I long thought of living him but i stayed because of my son Mphakaseni. I should be at peace since his now married but how will i know if his eaten, bathe and taken care of "crying" let me pray "i go down on my knees and pray" :-

DEAR LORD, I PRAY THAT YOU TEACH MY SON'S WIFE TO TRUST IN YOU SO THAT WHEN THE UNEXPECTED STORMS COME IN THEIR MARRIAGE SHE WILL EXPECT PEACE IN THE MIDST OF THOSE STORMS. I PRAY THAT YOU ARE WITH THEM EVERY STEP OF THE WAY, EVERY WORD YOUR SON SPEAKS IN HIS MARRIAGE SHOULD BE ENCOURAGING, THOUGH THIS MAY NOT BE THE EASIEST

TASK WHEN ARGUMENTS AND CONFLICTS ARISE AND HOLD YOUR TONGUE WHEN YOU HAVE THE IMPULSE TO SAY SOMETHING THAT WILL BRING YOUR LIFE DOWN. Amen

Simon - you know you are wasting your time. I wish his wife beats him till Jesus comes back. I sometimes doubt that his my son his just useless. He can't even was his own clothes ayy maan. Take this basted to his father that's why i married him off i don't want him in my house or life anymore.

"I just let tears stream down my cheeks like a waterfall, I'm beyond hurt. No amount of words will make me better. I switched of the side lamp and slept"

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

I had a peaceful sleep and this man right here next to me is still sleeping. I don't blame him after the venting he had yesterday surely it made him tired. I took a good look at him he may be black but he's super cute it's just his weight that's bothering him. I look at my ring, I wonder who chose this beautiful 3 set gold mixed with silver and his ring matches mine. Mxm I got to wake up before my in-laws luckily his room has an ensuite so I'll be free, after bathing I wore my long black simple maxi dress with a head wrap and sandals. Time to go make breakfast.

Everyone in this house is still asleep but it's 6 am. I cleaned around living the bedrooms. I'm just gonna make English breakfast nothing fancy, I think someone is awake I hear footsteps.

Aunty - atleast you're a hardworking woman married to a coconut, I'm impressed.

"I just ignored her and continued with setting the table with cutleries. Aunty woked everyone up and everyone was gathered on the table. I left them and call Phaka and he was still fast asleep.

Wake up Phaka "shaking him"

Phaka - "yawns" it's morning already

Zelo - yes go bath first so we could go have breakfast.

Phaka -"he frowned looking at her" who made breakfast? I don't eat breakfast with my family. I don't even enter the house, I'm banned.

Zelo - i made breakfast. And you will have breakfast with everyone today. Your first breakfast with your wife no get up i want to do the bed.

"He sighs" getting off the bed goes straight to the bathroom living Zelo doing the bed. After a while he came out with a towel wrapped around his waist. He was uncomfortable being naked in front of her but has no choice. After he was done wearing his clothes he sat on the bed with his heart beating fast.

Zelo noticed and she kept quiet, she pulled his hand making him stand up and they went to the family house. Everyone was eating and enjoying and it suddenly becomes quite when they see them.

Muzi - can't you'll eat in his bedroom or something. You can see that you fat and you will not fit "everyone laughs except for his mother"

Sphe - let him stay I'm sure he can't even feed himself.

Phaka just looks at Zelo with watery eyes and says "i told you it won't work". I just dished out for him and served him.

Muzi - i hate eating in front of you. I feel like throwing up. "They look at him making those disgusting faces"

Zelo - "you know what I've had enough of these people even his mother is hurting" you know you are all adults but it feels like I'm having breakfast with a bunch of kids who don't have a direction in life. Why are you so discriminative against him, is it because of his weight. Is he not human like the rest of you huh. You bullies are formed as a result of poor parental guidance or total neglect. Isolating him won't put more food on your table, it won't fill up your bank account. But I don't blame you it shows you don't have a mind you depend on this cruel man you call a father, what a father you have. Instead of showing him support you guys do this to him. You know what I'm talking to empty minded people. We will go and never set foot on this house if it will make you sleep at night. Just so you know once he leaves these premises he will never ever be setting his foot her and do not contact him regarding anything. I hope i made myself clear. "I stood up" Phaka lets go sometime you have to isolate yourself from fools if you want to have a peaceful life.

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

This i did not expect om my God. She actually stood up for my son, no one has ever done that for him I'm rejoicing on the inside. The whole Mr Ngcobo and his useless son's had no come back. Everyone was quite. Now this is the wife i imagined for my son. Imdeed God works in mysterious ways.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

No one has ever stood up for me besides my mother I'm still shocked. What she did for me made me realize that I'm blessed. We've been married for hours but damn she puts me first. We are packing our clothe, i don't even have a car cause i don't earn much i don't even know where we going.

Zelo - I've requested for uber and it will be here any minute. Can you carry these bags outside the gate i will follow you behind "he took the bags and went out"

I followed him behind. Everyone was now outside looking at us. Uber arrived shortly and we loaded the bags in the car. His mother approached us with a huge smile on her face.

Bonge - my daughter i thank you "she hugged me so tightly"

Zelo - i will do anything for my husband mama. You can visit us anytime I'll send you my address i know how close you are to him.

Bonge - may God bless you and bless you womb. May you have a fruitful one and bare me alot of grandchildren while I'm still alive, go well amd take care.

Zelo - i receive in Jesus name.

"They hugged and watched the car as it drove off. She sighs heavily and goes back to the house. The atmosphere was bad no one is talking. I smirked Joyfully looking at them and went straight to my room from my morning prayer. From now onwards I'll let my daughter deal with them.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

No one has ever talked to me and my fsmily like that. My ego is bruised who the hell does she think she is, why would she stand up for Phaka. I must admit she's very beautiful even my girlfriend does not take the cup, she's just good at spending money in those useless fake hair and nails. She doesn't even want to work. If only i have someone like Zelo to back me up damn she has beauty for days.

Looking at Phaka just makes you wanna puke, he looks like his smelling his the defination of disgust. I'm older than him but i don't want him as my younger brother. I wish mother adopted him or let alone die when he tried committing suicide. Sometimes i think that his not my father's child, but he has those big eyes like the rest of us.

In school they would bully him he would cry and come running to me for help and i will bully him more. The funniest moments was when he was asked to walk around naked in school. I wanted him to be raped, i organized guys in high school to follow him and molest him but he got away. I won't stop bullying him until I'm six feet underground.

#04

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

The ride was silent I'm even afraid to utter a word cause she looks like she's still angry. She's just looking outside the window. We have just entered the surbs and i must say this place is immaculate. I wonder how much she earns, the car drives through this magnificent big house if this is her house then she's living a life.

We off load the bags from the car and God I'm even afraid to enter this house. Everything looks expensive, i follow her to the bedroom, i guess this will be my bedroom.

Zelo - this is our bedroom

Phaka - will you be comfortable with me? Are you sure?

Zelo - you are my husband after all and yes i am sure and besides we have to get to know each other.

Phaka - oky if you say so.

"They unpacked their clothes and they ordered lunch since she was tired to cook"

Zelo - don't feel offended of what I'm about to ask you. Have you ever thought of loosing weight.

Phaka - no.. yes i just.... i don't know "looking down shrugging his shoulders"

Zelo - tell you what. Me and you are going to start a gym in orser to maintain our lifestyle. I have a personal trainer and I'm pretty sure he will be able to help you. What do you say.

Phaka - let's do it.

Zelo - after loosing weight we change the wardrobe.

Phaka - thank you you don't know how much this means to me.

2 MONTHS LATER

Phaka and Zelo were now understanding each other, they way Phaka was clean at work and that ring band was not making it any easier for people. He had no friends at work he was just a loner they take him for granted and they undermined him. He now carries lunch box with scrumptious meals, his big bell is gone but still fat you can tell that his working on his weight and muscles are starting to show. His always happy and smiling but no one knows the reason behind this sudden change and happiness. It's almost lunch time and today je had no lunch his wife didn't prepare anything for him.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

I just want to spoil him today and bring him lunch. He works at my father's company as an accountant. He doesn't earn much but it's work living. I'm so proude of him and i can honestly say I'm falling inlove with him day by day. I like the way he looks at me, the way he respects me, the way he puts me first in everything. I've never dated an open guy like him. Who ever said Phaka was not man enough said the total opposite of him. I'm bringing him luch at work today.

Receptionist- gooday I'm Thobile how can i help you.

Zelo - hy I'm here to see Mr Ngcobo

Receptionist- "frowns" Mr Ngcobo as in Biggie himself. "She laughs so loud making everyone look at them"

Worker- aibo what's so amusing

Receptionist- she's here to see Biggie "still laughing"

Worker - that smelly pig don't get visits from anyone even clients don't want him. Why do ypu wнна see him

Receptionist - surely he did something wrong.

Hehe let me call him.

Mr Ngcobo on the phone "with his deep voice"

Receptionist- someone is here to see you must i let them in or will you bring your stincky ass here

Phaka - "his used to insults they don't bug him anymore" i will come down.

Receptionist - sisiwe mulinde uyeza umanuka.

Zelo - thank you "she smiled politely". She sat down and waited for her husband.

Phaka came out of the lift and froze on the spot when he saw his wife. She stood up smiling broadly and met her husband half way. They hugged warmly and gave her a peck on her lips.

That scene left every worker in shock and whispered amongst themselves. Just as they were still looking at each other in the eyes the CEO approached them.

Ndlela - ahhhh Zelo is that you.

Zelo - it's Mrs Ngcobo to you. Do i know you

Ndlela - i actually know your father. So you got Married to Biggie wait so the rumors are true.
"Everyone gasped"

Zelo - yes we are married is there a problem cause it seems as if you'll have something to say. "Everyone kept quite" thought as much.

Babe "looking at Phaka" let's go have you fed.

"They went to his office hand in hand"

Phaka - this is a lovely surprise. You didn't tell me you were coming i was actually about to go out and buy lunch.

Zelo - i wanted to surprise my husband is that a crime.

Phaka - not at all. I'm just happy that you make me happy. You are not ashamed of me one bit, you go out with me in public and show affection for the whole world to see. When I'm with you i feel alive you are my sanity. I never knew I'll fall inlove with my wife.

Zelo - i told you I'll learn to love you until i go crazy inlove with you

Phaka - if this is love i submit myself ""giggling and enjoy a warm cooked meal". Thank you for bringing lunch i could get used to this.

Zelo - "laughs" ahh Mr Ngcobo let me bounce. "He stood up and hugged her and his erection did wonders"

She looked at the boner he had and laughed walking out of the office and passed by the office and found the staff along with the CEO gossiping.

Zelo - you now have meetings about my husband, you are now meddling in my personal life this is so unethical of you. As for you "pointing at the receptionist" if i ever i mean ever hear you call my husband names i will deal you personally and you wouldn't recognize yourself. I hope this will be the first and the last time i hope i made myself clear

Receptionist- ye...yes mam

Zelo - good

She made her way out leaving everyone in awe.
Time went by and it was knock off time.

At the parking lots they saw Phaka entering a brand new car Land Rover. So now he has a car.
Their eyes burned with shock and they watched him as he drove off.

Man - never underestimate another human being

Lady - wonders shall never end.

Worker - mina i still can't believe he has a wife

Receptionist - from now onwards I'll be more respective wow "they went separate ways"

#05

NDLELA (CEO)

Why would Phaka get married to Zelo my whole Zelo something doesn't add up, what is the reaso behind this marriage after all. It irritates me enough that i have to face this he-goat everyday. Which person in their right sense of mind would marry this thing. I know of a perfect plan that will eliminate him getting him fired will be the start. Zelo was meant to be mine in the first place. I can't stand this humiliation. I need that IT guy he will know what to do.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

R1.2 million have been deposited in my account but it indicates that it been transferred from work. What the hell is happening.

Zelo - you look like you've seen a ghost what's up "looking at him"

Phaka - so.....someone sent me money "still glued on his phone"

Zelo - ok ismoko yini "getting off the bed"

He just handed her the phone and kept quite cause his still processing this. The minute she saw the notification she almost fainted with her eyes popped out.

Zelo - is this some kind of a sick joke

Phaka - maybe someone made a mistake. Who would transfer this amount of money into my account "his phone beeped, he read the email and sighed"

Zelo - and now -

Phaka - there's a board meeting today at work

Zelo - "she kept quite for a while and thought to herself, something fishy is going on" something doesn't add up here i believe someone is behind this. You know what ill go with you get ready.

They prepared themselves and left for the meeting. When they arrive at the boardroom they found everyone sitting anxiously . She held his hand and squeezed it a bit.

Ndlela - good morning everyone. I believe everyone is here.

Bheki - can you get to the point. I have important things to do.

Ndlela - "clears throat" as you all know there was a huge amount of millions that were transferred to Mr Ngcobos account this morning.

The boardroom become silent.

Bheki - are you sure of those accusations

Ndlela - our system never lies "handing them each a copy of the transaction made"

Bheki - very wel then Mr Ngcobo you are suspended with immediate effect without pay. You will be contacted once we gather all the information.

Zelo - but that there must be some sort of a mistake her. I know for sure he didn't steal that money.

Ndlela - all evidence points at him "he smirked"

Zelo - ok you know what he resigns. Phaka you don't need these backstabbing people. I'm highly disappointed in you dad. You've known Phaka all his life but today you take him as a thief hope this company crumbles down mark my words. Let's go "grabbing his hand" and another thing if we ever find out that his innocent we will be sueing this company leaving it bankrupt "they left"

Bheki - i need you to email me all those transactions i will have to look into it. The meeting is adjured.

LATER THAT DAY

Phaka was on stress mode, his levels of stress are very high. Just as he thought that he has everything together in life then this happens. His now jobless and surely his family is rejoicing for his failure. He felt emotional and weak he thought of the wife he married how will she look at him. Will je be able to provide for her? Will she stay? "He wiped his tears"

Zelo - hy look at me "sitting on top of him" you know when i first saw you at the alter i actually hated you and also hated my father. But as time went by after being married to you i grew to love you, i wouldn't have asked for a better husband.

Phaka - i feel like a failure. How am i going to take care of you? I've been trying to hustle all my life. Maybe you also get tired of me and leave.

Zelo - listen her and listen very good Mr I'm here to stay through thick and thin. The vows we shared in front of our families i will live by them no matter what right now we need a good lawyer who will look into this and i have someone in mind.

Phaka - i guess I'll have to use my last savings.

Phaka - don't patronize me i got this "she took out her phone and called the lawyer"

Voice - Sibisi Attorney how can i help.

Zelo - i need to book an appointment with as in yesturday it's very important.

Voice - he will be free on Monday at 11:00.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Bheki Khumalo (Sibekezelo's father) was angry and dissapointed at the same time. He gave this good for nothing man a job and gave him my daughter but he still has the guts to steal from. I drove straight to Ngcobo to give him my piece of mind.

Bheki - i gave that useless thing of yours a job and guess what he decides to steal from me not just any amount but R1.2 million.

Simon - his not my son he has never been one and don't mention that haliot in my house. Didn't ibadvise you not to give hin the job look at the results now.

Muzi was standing in the hall way listening to thei conversation he smiled and walked away. He took his phone and called the journalist.

This is just the beginning dear brother I'm so going to crush you and this time i will make you commit suicide and succeed.

#06

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Monday came the story made the front line on the paper's and he was the talk of the town.

Headlines:- THE FAT SMELLY MAN STEALS MILLIONS FROM THE COMPANY THAT FEED HIM.

Today was day the boardroom members came up with a conclusion.

Bheki - i want him arrested we have all the information.

Ndlela was starting to feel bad of what he did. He just wanted Phaka to be removed from the company not arrested. Maybe him being in jail will make him closer go Zelo. He will definatly go to jail for a crime he didn't commit.

Phaka was sitting at home looking at the newspaper his heart broke. Maybe he was not destined for great things. Whe he tries to pick his life up walls seem to collide. The door bell rand and Zelo opened.

Officer - goodmorning mam, I'm officer Dabeka is your husband around?

She didn't respond she just moved aside letting them in. Phaka saw the policeman and that made him shiver.

Officer - are you Mr Khumalo Mphakamseni?

Phaka - y...yes "shaking in fear"

Officer- you are under arrest for theft and fraud.
What ever you say or do will be used against you in the cort of law. You have the right to remain silent if you lawyer is not present of the court will provide you one. "They cuffef him"

Zelo - it's oky babe, don't say a word. Officer can you please do me a favour, i want him to be alone in the cell that's all i ask for "glossy eyes".

Phaka kept quite, he thinks that his world has come to an end. He felt shuttered on the inside.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

After phaka's arrest she drove straight the the lawyer's office. She had all the copies that she got from the company.

Sphiwe - something is not adding up. Why would the money would be direct transferred to his account on a Saturday morning?

Zelo - "she was a crying mess" i don't know but what i know is someone is trying to frame him.

Sphiwe - I'll contact my IT guy. You will hear from me tomorrow morning.

LATER THAT DAY

Sphiwe Sibisi is one of the lawyer's that can be trusted. His never lost a case. One thing that makes his work so easy is because his other brother is a lawyer and another is a IT guru, he can even track the hidden files.

Snazo - "whistles" boom i got the dog

Sphiwe - who is it

Snazo - yazi ulahle ngento eyodwa he forgot to wipe the information from the system and this idiot doesn't know know that there's a hidden camera in that office.

Sphiwe - what an easy case. But i need more about this guy, keep digging.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Bongekile was hurt and beyond broken hearing his son was arrested. Everyone was rejoicing at and celebrating. How cruel can these be people get. I f i die today that shows that my son will be there door mat, how can you rejoice on someone's failure. It's not even 6 months my son got married but his already facing problems. I pray makoti will stand by him. My son meeds me more than anything it's time i live my life, first step of being happy is to leave this man

I've had enough emotional abuse from him.

Simon - ay usuhlezi umuncu you're not the same woman i feel inlove with. You're unattractive.

She just kept quite and handed him the divorce paper's

Bonge - please free me and sign those paper's. I know you don't need me in ypu life anymore, and beside you won't even miss me cause you have another family and you spend too much time with them.

Simon- WHAT "to say I'm shocked is an understatement. How the hell did she find out i thought i was playing my cards right" did you dig into my personal stuff Bonge - no but you're wife sent me you're marriage certificate. Please sign i want to leave.

He took out his pen and signed. The love he had for her vanished the day he first layed his eyes on Phaka, he hated him the first day he saw him. So all the live he had for his wife vanished. Once she leaves she leaves he will bring his other wife and kids"

Simon - done "he threw the divorce paper's on her face"

Bonge - thank you "with the warmest smile ever"

She started packing every thing that belonged to her. It's time for new beginnings God knows she tried to save this family and marriage. She tried the best to have a stable relationship with her other 2 sons Sphehile and Muzikayise but their father poisoned them against her and she gave up trying. She wheeled all her suitcases out with them watching without care as she went to her car. She looked at Zelos address on a piece of paper and drove off.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

He looked broken inside out. Will he ever come out stronger after this, i wonder how is his mother holding up after i broke the news to her. Atleast my best friend Nana is here helping me in this rollercoaster, i can't even sleep "and someone decides to knock at this time of the night, i wonder who is it cause we hardly get visitors"

Nana - expecting someone

Zelo - no can you please check, I'm just in the the mood for people.

Nana stood up and attended the door and found Phaka's mother with a swollen face and red puffy eyes.

Nana - ngena mah

Bongekile started cying all over againg with her hands on her face. Nana pulled her inside of the house giving her a tight hug until she came down.

Zelo stood up as she saw them approaching

Zelo - mamah

Words failed her, she didn't know whether to talk aor cry. The pain she's feeling got he hard

Bonge - it's over

Zelo - what's over mah.

Bonge - my marriage of 35 years gone, i left him there was no use being in a loveless marriage, I've been in a loveless marriage for 30 years and I've had enough. I had to stay so i could be close to my son, since his now married there's no use for me to be in that house. My main priority is Phaka and besides his father has another family and a wife on top.

Zelo was torn apart. She knew long that Simon no longer loves Phaka's mother but didn't know that it was this deep".

Zelo - it's oky mah I'm gald you came here. Let me prepare some food for you and don't even think of rejecting it you need strenght "she went to the kitchen and came back with the plate full of food"

Bonge - how is my son holding up

Nana - don't worry yourself all will be well in no time. Trust your daughter in-law she's a fighter.

"They stayed up talking about life in general amd how much she appreciates Zelo as her daughter in law.

Bonge - thank you somuch makoti

Zelo - no worries mum. Let me go show you your room.

IN THE MORNING

Zelo woke up and prepared breakfast with everyone gathered on the table. After breakfast they will go to the Sibisi Attorneys.

Nana - being 6 months pregnant is tiring. After eating i feel like sleeping.

Zelo - ay masambe soba late.

She looked at Bongekile and noticed that she was probably crying the whole night and hardly touched her breakfast.

Zela - yazi mah the way i appreciate you as my mother in law. You are my second mum seeing you cry like this totally hurts me. You need to be strong for your sone which happens to be my husband the man that i love. If he sees you like this you will break him even more , stay strong for him. Those tears of sadness mut be replaced with tears of happiness. It's now time to dust yourself amd show the world that your divorce didn't brake you but rather made you stronger.

Nana - weMah dad needs someone ozomusiza with his new clothing shop in Cape Town. I'm sure you will like a breather and besides Paka is in safe hands.

"Since she's divorced this is my perfect timing for me to make them closer. Her being a divorcee is actuali a blessing in disguise, my prayers have veen answered. Hope she agrees to go to Cape Town"

Bonge - you girls sure know how to brighten my mood "they laughed"

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Zelo - so in other words he was framed.

Sphiwe - Mr Ngcobo as you can see on the tape. Ndlela had a strategy but stupid enough cause he forgot to wipe the information from the system and there are also hidden camera's he don't know about. Judging from the looks if things Ndlela steals alot of money from your father's company and frame other worker's for his dirty.

Bonge - so what will happen now.

Sphiwe- present all the evidence to the court tomorrow and with this information he can be prisoned for a life. Fraud is a serious allegations, by tomorrow evening Mr Ngcobo will be at his house that will be all for today.
"They walked out of the premises"

Nana - can we pass by my dad's for lunch it's around the corner

Zelo - even if we said no ubuzothi masambe still

Bonge - I'm going to the house.

Nana - ay mama you're going to Cape Town remember and start a new life masambe.

"Nana can be a bully at times but all in all she has a heart of Gold. We were friend's since primary and no one knows me like she does even my own family knows nothing about me, i last talked to them on the day of my wedding. I've tried to reach out but they blankly ignore me and they're blocked me. None the less I'm gratefull that Nana's dad gave me a position in his oil and gas company and i ended up buying half of the shares and no one knows except for Nana.

Nana - home sweet home. Baba ukuphi "shouting"

A handsome man approached. You can tell that his old but still looks young with all those muscles and the neat hair cut.

Zubby - have you come to finish all food Nana.

Nana - ahah don't startoo ehe papa this is my friends mother inlaw hope you still remeber this lovely soul did you know she's also my mother.

Zubby - we meet again Mrs Ngcobo Bongekile.

Bonge - it's a Miss actually "smiling"

Nana- yea papa she recently got divorced a few hours ago. The nerve of that man can you believe that he has a wife and other kids.

Zelo - i think you've said alot.

Zubby - i apologise on her behalf she intends to talk continuously with her noticing that she's talking. I wonder how she copes with her in-laws "they laughed"

Nana - eeh papa the main reason we are here is because i want you to give mum that position in Cape Townoo.

"Zubby is a very observant man, he loved Bongekile years back when she was still happily married. Zubby's wife passed away in a car accident 15 years back since then he hasn't had a stable relationship. If sending Bongekile to Cape Town will bring them closer together is the only option then it must be done"

Zubby - tomorrow we leaving.

Nana - short notice but problem sold. We need to go shopping.

"Nana has always wanted Bongekile to be her step mother. This is just the beginning for her father's happiness"

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

My life has been a curse since day one. How can i be arrested for a crime i didn't commit and I'm not allowed to see anyone. But i trust my wife with all of my heart and life, I've been secretly drafting a business proposal it's time i make a name for myself. I wanted to surprise my wife once I'm done with everything. Lord know how happy i am with her. I wonder how is my mother coping with all this drama hovering. I just pray that tomorrow goes well. I'm sure

Simon and his kids are rejoicing where ever they are but i will not let my guard down i will make it someday with or without. I've taken a decision to cut them completely out of my life. One day that man will remember that he once had a son called Christopher Mphakamseni Ngcobo.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

This case really did a number one on my bank balance but I'm not complaining. I had to sell my car to make ends meet luckily my husband has a car. I haven't seen him for the past 2 days but i make sure i send him food everyday.

My family called exchanging words saying how ungrateful i am. Me and my husband are scammers and we belong behind bars. I've never been close with my family especially my mother. If this is how they want to partake in my life then I'm cutting all ties with them. I've tried my best to be a best daughter in front of their eyes. My main priority now is my marriage. Maybe seeing him now will ease the stress levels.

How I miss those big white eyes and that dark chocolate colour of his skin.

Seeing him right in front of my eyes made me emotional I just threw myself in those arms without care.

Phaka - it's okay sweet heart.

Zelo - I miss you so bad it hurts.

Phaka - I miss you too mkami.

"We stared at each other without communication with with emotions full of love"

Phaka - you smell nice and you've become shorter

Zelo - immer kill you. How have you been.

Phaka - with you by my side lightens my spirit. You are my light Mrs Ngcobo and I'm grateful to have you. You are the only thing that makes sense in my life right now "cupping her cheeks"

Zelo - and I'm grateful to have you too. The lawyer said everything is set for tomorrow and i believe he told you.

Phaka - yes he did. Can't wait to tear up that little pussy of yours.

"They laughed as they continued to talk some more. Phaka is now definitely a changed man. Over a couple of months he has been committed in losing weight and it's doing wonders on his body. His structure is becoming something else all thanks to his chubby short wife"

Officer - time is up.

"She stood up and gave him a stolen kiss giggling like a toddler. By tomorrow she will be sleeping on this chest"

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Morning came and it was the court day. We are outside the court and damn it was packed. I guess who eber linked the story also has an agenda. I'm just grateful of the support i get from Nana and her family. Zubby made time to come support Phaka's mother, as for Michael he became the brother i never had.

My family is giving me all sorts of shade and honestly i couldn't care less, they are no longer important in my life.

I see Ndlela walking in confidence with my father on his side, they passed by as if i was invisible. My husband's family is not here, not that i expected them. I just want to sit far away from my family as possible.

Prosecutor- all rise in court!

Everyone stood up and my heart is beating on a 120 accelerator speed heartbeat. I look at him across the courtroom biting his nails with his big eyes wide open. They pulled him towards the podium cuffed.

Prosecutor- you may all be seated.

Dube - your worship, the case of Christopher Mphakamseni Ngcobo is handled by Mr Sibisi, we may begin. "Sphiwe Sibisi came forward"

Sphiwe - my client here was accused of fraud and was suspended at work with immediate effect without pay. I would like to forward the evidence in court today that was linked to Ndlela Sibalikhulu.

Some schemes try to win there confidence by claiming they're legal and endorsed by the government. These allegations are false as the government will not allow illegal activity. Mr Sibalikhulu is the CEO of The Amajuba Coporate, he has access to every office. I found these transactions your worship" handing the documents to the prosecutor" . In those documents it shows how much Ndlela misuses the funds in the finance. And in this USB, it has a video of him which practically shows how he does his dirty work and who he works with. He manipulates the system, he steal from the company he works for and pins the fault on innocent people. In results they end up lossing their jobs because of him.

The video was played on the big screen and the board members were astonished. Ndlela is indeed a corrupt person and to think they trusted him. Bheki and his family were beyond ashamed but they still jad pride in them. The scene was made live for everyone who couldn't attend. This was a big case making huge head lines.

Prosecutor- you may proceed.

Sphiwe - i plead that justice is administered fairly, this includes punishing those who are guilty of breaking the law and keeping the rest of the community out of crime. That will be all.

Prosecutor- with all the information brought forward, as a court we will have to come up with a conclusion. Court adjourned.

The prosecutors walked out with the bigs files and the rest followed. Phaka buried his face on his hand. This is the most difficult time for him, he knew his family wouldn't be here. But having his mother and wife was enough for him.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

I'm sweating, who knows what will they say.
With all the evidence that was brought forward i think it was enough, plus I trust my lawyer. I am looking directly at my family with so much hatred and they seem unbothered. It's fine God is watching and one day he shall remember us. I'm never leaving my husbands side for better or for worse, sickness and in health, for richer for poorer. I shall stick by my vows till the end.

I look at my man and a small smile creeps on his lips, he looks worn out and tired. Who would have thought that one day i will be faced with these predicaments.

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

I may look strong but I'm destroyed on the inside. I fear for my son, what if he doesn't make it? This is just too much for me. God remember me and my son, Lord deka itafula phambi kwezitha zami.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

The noise of joy and excitement was on another level. Watching the case broadcast live on television, it must be something serious.

Simon - i hope he rots in jail. Look at how ugly he is.

Muzi - can't wait. Just because he got married he now thinks highly of himself.

Simon- that's because he is a pussy. I wish Bongekile aborted him, or sends him to his father once and for all.

Sphe - can it be possible that his not your's?

Simon - his not mine.

Simon wished nothing but bad for Phaka, when ever he thinks of him he feels like puking. The face itself diguised him, good thing his mother divorced him. He can't wait for his new family to move in.

Sphe - so tymer your wife and kids when are they moving in.

Simon - ksasa mfana i cant wait. You know i once loved you're mother but feel out of love whe she gave birth to Phaka.

Muzi - tell me what did you see in her, she's just plain and black.

Simon - my eyes deceived me so "they laughed"

AT THE COURT

The journalist were bhzzing outside like bees capturing every moment. This story is big and making headlines. People were sitting anxiously waiting for the verdict.

Ndlela was sweating and constantly wiping his forehead, he knew that there was no come back after this. He regrets messing with Phaka. Imagine fight for someone who doesn't even know that you're inlove with them, and for tealing from her father's company was the nail in the coffin.

The prosecutors came back with serious faces with no emotions. Phaka's heart pounded a million times, he wishes the earth could just swallow him this minute. His mother was silently praying.

Prosecutor- with all the information and evidence that has been gathered in court, we therefore find Mr Christopher Mphakamseni Ngcobo not guilty of all the charges that were laid against him. The Amajuba Coporate will have to pay a fine of R150,000 within the next 7 days. Failure to do so, the company will be forced to shut down. Court dismissed.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

She lost it, she went crazy and was beyond happy. I'm a free man at last and justice has been served. Just can't wait to go home I've missed those home cooked meals. She clinging on mh arm as if i will run away from her. This woman right here loved me with all of my flaws, she accepted me as big as i am and i will forever cherish that.

Sounds of cameras flashing taking pictures of us as we leave the court. Journalist stopping us wanting to have an interview and I'm so uninterested. I just wasnt to go home take a long shower and cuddle my wife.

Zelo - welcome home my love.

Phaka - I'm home at last, feels like a dream.

Nana - you guys need to do a num num now.

Bonge - weNana i will seal that mouth of yours with a supre glue.

Zubby - i will help you.

Nana - but phaka needs to tap that velvet.

Nana is an outspoken person, she say what's on her mind. I sometimes think she just talks without thinking, but still stays at humble as ever. I see the game she's playing trying to be doctor love match. It seems as if Mr Zubby is falling for it. You can tell by the way he looks at her.

Michael - will leave you guys to bond.

Bonge - if you want me to slap the craziness out of you, you will walk out that door.

Nana - yeye the Queen has spoken.

They laughed and talked some more sharing emotional and happy moments. For some strange reason Zubby's children were too comfortable around Bonge. They ended up sharing their darkest secrets with her.

Bongekile later prepared for her trip to Cape Town. She told herself it's about time to put herself first, atleast she's certain that her son will be well taken care of.

Bonge - i have everything i need. I can't believe Nana damaged all of my old clothes and bought me new ones "smiling". Makoti don't forget you have a husband, nawe Phaka don't forget you have a wife. Stand by each other through thick and thin. Do not allow the devil to ruin what you have. Most people are not happy with your union. Put God first in everything you do, and pray. Prayer is the most important thing don't forget that. Same applies to you Bakhukumile "referring to Nana". Try to talk less when you're in-laws are around my girl and respect your husband as always. Wena Michael i want to attend your wedding. Find a wiman and settle down or i will find one for you.

Take care of each other please and don't disappoint me I've been dissapointed alot.

Zubby helped her carry the bags to the car and they drove to the airport. The flight wasn't that bad as she thought, she's afraid of heights and that's her weakest link.

When they arrived in Cape Town she thought she will be sleeping in a hotel until she would find a flat to rent. But seeing this huge beautiful house in front of her made her speechless.

Bongee - wow beautiful house. Who lives here?

"She asked as she was admiring the house".

Zubby - wait till you see inside.

"He took her hand and went inside of the house. The place was totally out of this world. Who ever lives here must be filthy rich.

Bonge- wow one day I'll definatly but a house like this.

Zubby glared at her, if only she knew that the house actually belongs to her. But he wouldn't like to ruin the moment.

Zubby - it's actually mines "he lies", i just want someone to look after it while I'm away cause I'm hardly in Cape Town.

Bonge - haa i wouldn't say no to my dream house never, just can't wait to cook at that kitchen. The interior design is crazy ow my word that kitchen island.

She decided to take a tour in the house, every room has it's own insuit but the master bedroom takes the cup. She never imagined herself living in a house like this.

She feels like a new person everything about her has changed. The clothing and weaves makes her look younger than she looks.

Bonge - i love the patio but I'm sorry to say this. The master bedroom is mine uzozi bona ukuthi uzolalaphi wena.

Zubby - your wish is my command your highness "he bowed his head" bully

Bonge - i heard that "they laughed"

They unpacked their clothes and rested a bit since they were tired. Later Bongekile made an appetizing dinner that left Zubby impressed.

How can Simon be this stupid he will regret it later. Tomorrow he will be he will be showing her around Cspe Town befor sending her to work. He wants to make sure she doesn't think of her ex husband one bit.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

The wife and kids arrived at home. Sphe and Muzi seemed to be more excited than their father. When Bongekile left she made sure that she took everything that belonged to her not living anything behind.

Zimkitha made herself comfortable in the master bedroom. Now that Simon got rid of the first wife she will do the rest.

Simon - sthandwa sami.

Zim - finally you got rid of that chacol. Why did you settle for less vele vele.

Simon - i believe it was witch craft.

They kept making fun of Bongekile, even the boys were laughing till they dropped except for one person. He may not know Phaka and his mum personally but they are also human beings. His not going to be comfortable in this house, you cannot build happiness on another woman's tears. As 15 as he is his mind worked like a matured person. He waited for evryone to sleep. He snooped around the house and didn't find anything. He got tired and went out for fresh air, and he thought about his current family. They may seem happy now all this will vanish within a blink of an eyes.

He started picking up stone and throwing them on the ground until he picked up a piece of paper. He looked at it and found a house address on it.

Gcina - i honestly don't like my family, well not that i don't like them. I hate what they are doing. I've only seen him on photo's and i must say we look alike. He seems to be a nice person unlike my other brother's. His just a bit darker than us. Maybe this person will help me find him, in will take it upon me to have a relationship with my brother. I have a feeling that this address will lead me to him. Look at me talking to myself, let me go sleep before i go crazy "shaking his head and he went back to the house".

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Looking at this beautiful creature beside me makes me have all sorts of emotions. Imagine the beauty and the beast she's even tiny, everything in her is just tiny. I'm so afraid of the day we decide to take each other on paradise what will go down. It's like her velvet is plastered, I've never seen a tiny pussy as this not that I've seen one "smiling". I just can't wait to tap it but first i need to work on myself and my self esteem. I want to be a man not just any man but her man i don't even know if I'm making sense.

I'm creasing my huge thumb on this tiny face.

Phaka - did i wake you?

Zelo - how will i even sleep when you're whole weight is on top of me.

Phaka - this is how we sleep moss you've never complained but today I'm killing you.

Zelo - you silly man. Goodmorning by the way "kissing him"

Phaka's kissing game is now on top notch. No more waterfall, no more swimming pool. All thanks to Zelo for teaching him.

Phaka - i want you to sit and not do nothing today I'll do the cleaning and cooking. If you want to go to the toilet I'll carry you , I'll even help you wipe your backside.

Zelo - i think i should just admit you to the psychiatric hospital.

Phaka - I'm not made.

Zelo - did i say you mad? Now I'm starting to believe that you mad cause you thinking that i think that you mad.

Phaka - you not even making sense.

He pulled her close to him giving her the warmest hug ever. They stayed in each other's arms listening to one another's heart beat.

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

It's very cold in Cape Town and i hardly slept and the craziest thing decides to happen. Zubby sneaked into my my bedroom last night claiming it's cold he can't sleep. I offered him blankets but he declined them. The next thing he climbs on top of the bed and sleeps, i let him be and i eventually slept.

He said wants me to explore Cape Town today and i must say it's very beautiful and refreshing. He keeps holding my hand say i will get lost. At first i didn't mind cause he was being sincere until he introduced me to his friends as his wife foolish me played along because i didn't want to embarass him. As old as i am having these unexplainable electronic connection in my blood. When ever he touches me it happens, I've never experienced even with my ex husband.

Zubby - Queen i need to pass by the office. There are a few documents i need to sign.

Bonge - you can drop me at the house.

Zubby - it will be actually great if you meet the staff and I've already told them I'm coming with you.

Bonge kept quite cause she had no words to say to him she knew she won't win this. This man and his daughter Bakhulumile (Nana), they don't ask you they tell you.

As we enter the building i become speechless. I though my husbands company was big but this is i don't even have the right words for it. What a big clothing store. I think this guy is addicted into holding my hand.

Zubby - Tania can you all everyone to the staff hall as in now.

The girl did as she was told. It seems as if they are scared of him, everyone is fixed on whatever they are doing it show that presences affects them. All this while he still has my hand locked in his. We arrive at the stuff hall and by the looks of things seems as if everone is here. The uniform is hilarious i tell you.

Zubby - thank you all for coming in such short notice. As i told yourll that we will be having a new manager. This Queen right here is my Mrs Bongekile Godson my black goddess, i will appreciate it if you address her as Mrs Godson. Respect her and she will respect you, if you shit on her she will definatly shit on you. Any words my Queen before i let them go "looking at her straight in her eyes"

Again he decides to put me in an awkward position. Being this Mrs Godson over night makes me want to faint. I seriously don't know what has come over him, again i have to pretend to the staff and play along. This issue must be discussed.

Bonge - i greet you all. I'm not a person with many words we will get to know each other as time goes by. But first we need to change those uniforms aykabi.

Girl - thank goodness someone notices our miserable uniform.

"The staff laughed"

Bonge - i will be seeing you guys on Monday.

Enjoy the rest of your shift "they left"

Girl - I'm just happy we get to change this ridiculous uniform.

Worker - akuzwe uCynthia usho njalo konyiwa.

Girl - that one has a crush on the big boss haven't you noticed. Plus his married Worker - imagine crushing on the boss with that flat ass. Did you see Mma Godson that package, the weist i tell you. And seems to be a good person also.

Girl - let's hope she doesn't change like Mariana "they laughed as they walk off to their working stations"

Bonge and Zubby were still in his office waiting for him to finish signing the documents.

Bonge - Zubby why are referring me as your wife to everyone. At first i thought that maybe you joking but here you are at it doing it again.

Zubby - "he looked at her for a good full minute" cause soon you are goinh to be ny wife. What you have to know is that you are my woman ow and just so you know i don't like sharing I'm a jealous type. I'm done we can leave.

My heart froze I'd still like to think that his fooling around but no his very serious. I've never pictured myself with another man other than my ex husband. Maybe he is playing a prank on me or something. I'm watching as his packing the documents on his desk. When is he going back to his house cause i can't stand this.

Zubby - let's go have lunch at my favourite restaurant.

"She nodded as they left"

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I knew nothing about pots until my wife gave me som cooking lessons. I could definatly say I'm the best in the game. Here i am slaving myself in the kitchen, why did i even tell her that today I'm treating her ow God. I don't even know half of these ingredients but i use them funny enough i tell you.

What a breakfast i made even Buddy Valastro is not good as me. Being jobless is hard, i think i need to visit the gym more often just to keep myself busy. I've come to a conclusion i don't want to work for a person anymore, i want to be my own boss. I want to buy my wife a house not a house but a home and her dream car. She sacrificed for me and i want to spoil her rotten till death decides to break us on earth, but will definatly love her even on ther other side.

Zelo - what happend to my kitchen.

Phaka - i made you breakfast hau kanti unjn wena mfazi "smiling"

Zelo - this is a disaster. You sure made breakfast "sitting down"

She took slice of of bacon and fried tomato, the taste in her mouth sounds promising she continued eating while humming.

Phaka - someone is at the gate.

Zelo - who is it?

Phaka - let me go find out "he kissed her chicks"

He went out of the house going to the gate. He saw a little boy who looks somuch like him and that confused him. It's like his seeing the younger version of him. He opened the gate and the boy took a step forward. He didn't know what to expect , he didn't know of will he be rejected or welcomed.

Gcina - sawubona buti "even the voice was deep as his"

Gcina couldn't control his emotions, he just cried and hugged. Phaka stood there dumbfounded not knowing whether to return the hug or not.

Phaka - let's go inside the house "touching his shoulders"

They went to the house finding Zelo cleaning the mess in the kitchen she turned around and looked at Gcina making her jaws dropped and she opened her mouth wide open.

Phaka- ay mkami vala umlomo phela. Can you please serve us with drinks. "They sat down"

Who are you?

Gcina - i am Gcina Ngcobo son of Simon

Phaka - did they send you? How did you even find me cause no one knows where i live except for my mother.

Gcina - no one sent me. I found a piece of paper that had an address and i came here. I had that hope that who ever lives here will lead me to you. I've been longing to meet you but i was scared. Something in me told me that i need you more than i need them. I don't like the way my father treats you, sometimes i wish I'm not part of that family. Their hearts are surrounded by darkness i wish i had meet you earlier in life. I have many brother's but they are mindless. All I'm asking is to be a brother that I've always longed for.

Phaka kept quite not knowing what to say. As young as he is he is actually acting like a man. Phaka doesn't know how it feels to to be loved by your own sibling.

Phaka - how old are you?

Gcina - 15 buti.

Phaka - wow I'm actually impressed . We can start on a slow pace get to know each other.

That made Gcina beam in excitement, they continued talking Phaka shared his horrific childhood. Gcina couldn't handle the pain. He saw that this pains him when ever he talks about it but his very strong. They exchanged numbers and Gcina left in the afternoon.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

Abigail (Zelo's mother) is a pain and a headache and that's why sometimes I cheat. I have a mistress that satisfies my needs. I haven't touched Abigail for months, it's either she's tired or not in the mood. Khethiwe and I have been seeing each other for about a year now and I am falling deeper and deeper for her. I don't even know why I married Abigail because I don't even love her and those brats of hers are a nuisance. I've been thinking deep about my life, I neglected my daughter and took care of those two fatherless kids. Zelo's mother passed away when giving birth to her, I had to look for a woman who would mother my child but I clearly failed. She made me hate my daughter for no reason, the pain in my daughter's eyes when I told her she's getting married still haunts me till today. I never took good care of her when she needed me. I remember this time when we went to buy christmas clothes she was left to clean and cook, when we came back with shopping bags we walked past her as if we didn't know her. She would wear clothes that Abigail's kids no longer wear. But it's all Abigail's doing and I was too blinded to see this. At least Khethiwe is a wise woman she would help me through this.

Bheki - do you think she will ever forgive me if I tell her the truth? My daughter suffered a lot in her hands of that woman.

Khethi - I don't want to lie she will hate you yes, but will forgive you eventually. She has to know where she comes from, she needs to know her mother's family.

Bheki - this thing has been eating me for quite some time. How did i neglect my own daughter my own blood blood and watched her being abused under my roof by a step mother and step sister's.

Khethi - i don't know how you allowed honestly, but you need to make things right by your daughter and she's your only child. How did she feel when you did all those nice things for your step kids and you did nothing for your won child. Not even once you tried to defend her but you always sided with the people you don't know. It's not too late to mend the relationship that you broke with your daughter.

These are one of the reasons i love Khethiwe she knows what to say or do. She always makes the right choices and decisions i wish i met her before Abigail. I regret that day I laid my eyes on that woman, this marriage has cost me so much pain. No use crying over spilled milk. I need to man up and start acting like a man. Imagine giving them a monthly allowance, buying them cars, taking them on trips while my daughter stood there and watched, I've never done anything good or nice for her. All that she has now is her earned hard money.

First things first I'll start by blocking their cards and they won't have access to any money. No more money no more luxury life. It's time for them to live the life my daughter was living. I will live the car's I'm even sure they will sell them when time goes by. It's about time they look for jobs and stop spending money like they drinking water.

Bheki - I need to pass by the bank. I didn't feel the baby kick today "touching her huge belly"

Khethi- she's asleep

Bheki - I'm hoping for a boy.

Khethi- I'm hoping for a girl. Imagine me, Zelo and the little one on girls vacation.

Bheki - why does your face glow when ever you speak about my daughter.

Khethi- I'm just drawn to her she's tiny and cute.

"He smiled shaking his head making his way out and went straight to the bank"

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

My communication with Gcina is something else, his a crazy intelligent kid. I thought he had an agenda but not he just wanted the brother's love. I never knew that having a relationship with your sibling is this heart warming. It's been a month and we spend alot of time together, sometimes he spends the night in our house.

The R150.000 was finally paid out and i heard that there's this oil and gas company that is looking for a new shareholder actually a new owner. After i did my research i found out it's Zubby's company, my mums boyfriend weird i tell you. His even selling it on a lower price.

I've lost alot of weight in an unexpected way, I've never though in a million years i would ever lool like this. Having all these muscles, broad chest and abbs scares me. I've changed the way i used to dress.

My wife enjoys seeing me half naked, she just goes crazy. I feel more comfortable with myself. Having people look at you with those eyes full of lust kinder triggers me and I'm happily married.

Zelo - I'm starting to feel insecure.

Phaka - come here "making sit on his lap" i know and understand honey. But one thing i assure you is i will never be something I'm not. I am still and going still be the same man you saw waiting for you at the alter. I'm still the same man who once had a big belly, if it wasn't for you i wouldn't be like this, i wouldn't be this charming. You made me a better man and you took me out of my shadow, with that i will forever be grateful. I am complete with you, you make me happy. I will never see myself gawking at another woman. Even if things get tough i will forever be with you. Now wipe those tears and help your man go get that contract. I can't wait for us to be business partner's.

Zelo - i love you.

Phaka - and i love you more my beautiful wife "kissing her"

They prepared themselves for the meeting. Phaka is buying the company and shares from Zubby. Zubby wants to be in Cape Town full time close to Bonge.

The deal was sealed and it's official Phaka is the the owner of The Oil And Gas Station. He wouldn't be more happier, he just wants to love and cherish his wife along with his new found business. He finds it funny enough that he just bought a company that belonged to a man that that is dating his mother. But than again the mother deserves to be happy. Zubby is more like a father figger to him, he even calls him son. He would say say he has gained a father in him, a brother in Michael, a sister in Nana. Who would have thought that one day Phaka will be an owner of one of the biggest companies in SA and this is just the beginning for him.

Zelo - I'm so proud of you. You made it.

Phaka - we made it. I wouldn't have done it without you.

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

I've never been treated like this before. Why didn't i find love in the first place, I'm living my life like it's golden. Good news is my son is making a life for himself. I thank the ancestors for giving my son a wife like Zelo. God works in mysterious ways. I wonder what will Simon say the day he sees his son, i hope he still remeber his words say he is not my son. Send this busted child to his father. I almost lost myself in that marriage. I'll forever cherish the man above for my answering my prayers.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

I've asked Khethiwe to marry me and she said yes. As for Abigirl i want to brake her bit by bit and her kids. I made her sign a document, cause she's stupid she signed without reading she didn't know she was signing the divorce paper's. I've packed all ny belongings, they can have the house i don't want it anyways it holds too much bad memories of my daughter.

Abi - aibo Bheki are we going on a vacation "sounding excited"

Bheki glared at her, he looked at this stupid woman infront of him. How did he get here? Why did he have to suffer like this?

Bheki - no I'm moving out.

Abi - WHAT! but why honey.

Bheki - it's about time i did the right thing. I've been a fool for far too long. It's time i fix ny relationship with my daughter. I missed all those years because of you and your selfishness. I really curse the day i met you. You made me love those busted fatherless children of yours and you made me resent my own blood. I don't even know what blinded me, just so you know i regret everything. You can keep the house and the cars, it's time for you to look for jobs. No monthly allowance from me and don't even ask for a cent from me. I have a baby on the way. Excuse me my woman is waiting for me, the mother of my child.

Melo - baba please don't do this, think about us. How will we survive? We are your kids.

Bheki - "laughed" kids you say. You are not my fucken kids. I only have one daughter and that is Sibekezelo who is now married. Angithi you guys sold her and blocked her after that. The time you were blowing up my money did you even think of her once? Did you guys even care about her? Wena Abigail i married you cause i wanted you to mother my child but no you got blinded by money and a ravishing life, making me to feed these useless trashes of yours. I hate your kids Abigail, they don't know nothing ngaphandle kokushintshana namadoda like underwares while my own daughter was suffering because of you. Whatever she has she workedbhard for it. So don't shit on me busing telling me that you are my kids nxa.

He walked out leaving them in tears. All the memories came back. Indeed they were mean to Zelo. She regrets everything she did.

ZUBBY (MICHAEL'S FATHER)

Now that i have sold my company. I'm permanently moving to Cape Town. This is making me loose myself. I've waited for years to have her as my own and now that i have her I'm not letting go. She's the most sweetest human being I've ever met. My main concern was the kids, i thought maybe they wouldn't approve of our relationship especially Michael and Phaka. They are very much supportive. I've taken upon myslef to play a role Phaka never experienced in his life. I want to be the father he never had, i want him to be a multi millionaire.

They are very close and that makes me happy, once i teach them the roles of my businesses i will be stepping down and let Phaka nad Michael take over. I want to rest and travel the world with my woman.

We Nigerian men like our woman thick, when i look at her ass i just feel my bold dancing making my machine pump in excitement. The day i make love to her, i want to make her cum a thousand time. I want to make her feel things she's never felt before. I want her to experience love and tears of joy. This is just the start to road pf happiness.

3 MONTHS LATER

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

Everything is happening so fast, i am now officially Mrs Bongekile Zubby Godson. It was just an intimate wedding. His family flew from Nigeria to support us and i must say they are lovely people nothing like my ex inlwas. I've always dreamt of visiting other countries and Zubby made my dream come true. I'm hardly at the office cause we always traveling. In my previous marriage i was the obedient wife who was a house wife taking care of her husband and kids who didn't appreciate me. I'm just happy that I'm out of that miserable marriage. If i die now i will die a happy soul atleast i got to experience how it feels to be loved.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Today is the day my machine will be put into good use. I've been watching sex tapes secretly and masturbating alot. I believe sex is nice just can't wait to play with my wife. I bought her a luxurious house and her dream car the new Mercedes Benz GLA 2020 personalized Mrs Ngcobo. I meant every word i said, i want to spoil her rotten and treat her like a queen she is. I want to make our firt time memorable, loving and sweet. Good thing i learnt a lot about sex, for the first time it helped me prep up for the first night. This will not make it awkward cause i will know how to make it comfortable for her.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Here he is living all wet kisses on my body making me weak, the heat is too strong and his not making it easier for me. His in between my legs messaging my nipples, i feel hot liquid coming out of my nuna. He then sucks my nipples twerling his tounge and that made my body rise up a bit. He kept going down in between my legs until he reached my nuna.

I never knew being muffed will be this tremendous, i see the roof going into circles making me go dizzy. My toes keep dancing and i can't take this anymore. The more he muffs me the more my body vibrates. He stops and looks at me with those lustful eyes.

Phaka - you good my love?

I couldn't answer, he kept on playing with my clitoris using his thumb. He then took his dick and rubbed it against my clit and hot flushes kept on coming out. He slowly his dick up and down making me grab and scratch his big arms. He paused and positioned himself and pushed in but it didn't go through and i flinched in pain. I tried wiggling myself from underneath him trying to run away but he pressed me down with his weight and kissed me senselessly. His mouth tastes like glucose or shall i say salt.

He slid his finger inside me and kept moving it in and out my vagina and i must say I'm enjoying the finger fucking until i felt a huge snake sneaking inside me. I felt my nuna stretch to accommodate his big shaft. His pressing it in gently but it was painful as hell.

He thrused very slowly making me loose my senses i feel pain and pleasure at the same time. I put my tiny hands on his abbs trying to push him back but he gave me a hot wet kiss that made my body melt.

Zelo - ouch ooohhhh awu awu awu

The pase increased a little bit, he closed his eyes burying his face on my neck biting every part of it.

Phaka - mother of high gods.

He kept groaning talking gibirsh enjoying the moment. He stopped and looked deep into my eyes, my legs were lifted up hanging over his shoulders. This time he had no mercy on me he just deeper and faster. I felt my cervix shift and my insides being knotted. Every stroke he gave me made me weak and more wet and his sweat dripping all over my body.

Phaka - fuck god must come back.

He stroked harder and deeper filling his seed inside me and collapsed on top of me trying to catch his breath. He rolled over and layed on his back. He flipped me over making me lay on his chest.

Phaka - did i ever tell you how much I'm crazy inlove with you.

Zelo - "giggles" yes "trying to catch her breath"

Phaka - i wouldn't trade your love for anything.

They held on each other while they exchanged breathes. He looked at those tiny round pointy breast and he instantly got hard again. The tip of his dick hurts but he can't resist her.

He putted his two fingers on her little hole stretching her muscles. He rolled her ove making he lay on her stomach and he got behind her. He lifted her butt exposing her swollen little pussy then pushed into her tightness until the mushroom popped inside of her.

Phaka - fuck holy moly

She gasped for air breathing heavily closing her eyes. He pushed more further making her scream, squeezing her tiny breasts and pounding her from the behind.

Zelo - shit it hurts "holding on tight on the sheets"

The tightness of her walls made his dick harden more. He gently rocked himself in and out and eventually grabbed her waist with both hands while pounding her. The screams and moans with gibirish filled the room.

She watched her breasts bouncing back and forth, every stroke made her weaker and weaker. He stopped and pulled her at the corner of the bed making her body face up with her legs high up in the air. He slid his dick in making her loose control biting her lower lip enjoying. As much as it hurts she will suck it up and enjoy the moment.

They looked each other in their eyes , legs flying up making Phaka suck Zelo's toes. Tears rolled down at the corner of her eyes, she is sexually aroused and he was able to locate her G-spot. He kept rubbing his finger in a beckoning motion along the roof of her vagina until he noticed her sensitive area. He thrusted ard making his kamel fill up her vagina.

My legs were shaking, i need strenght to get up and finally i managed to stand up on my feet. The sheets were bloody making a bit embarrassed and he noticed.

Phaka - come here it's oky.

"He hugged her kissing her forehead". Don't worry about these I'll take care of it.

She nodded repeatedly taking her wobbly legs to the toilet. She tried to pee but it hurts as hell. She touched it and felt it swollen and painful. She tried to pee again but no this thing is very painful and burning. She stands up and feels like going crazy. If she knew it was going to be this painful she wouldn't have done it. She tries for the last time closing her eyes taking all the pain in.

Zelo - ahhhhhhh "screaming out loud"

NGCONO HOUSEHOLD

Things are starting to spiral out of control from happiness to sourness. Muzi the eldest son is swimming in alcohol and he doesn't go a day without drinking. He was moved to an outside shack that was used by Phaka. His previous big room was given to Lungelo the fourth born. Sphesihle is hardly home he spends most of the night in his girlfriend's place. As everyone knows that Ndlela Sibalkhulu was prisoned a life sentence the position, the CEO position was vacant. Gcina tries by all means to avoid the family drama and spends most time with Phaka. Lungelo is a hardcore son who only thinks for himself. When ever he touches or try to fix things he ends up destroying it.

The atmosphere in this house is draining. Zamkithi makes sure that she makes Muzi and Sphe's life miserable day by day.

Zam - Simon i think Lungelo should earn more since he is the only son who's responsible.

Simon - i second you, i don't know what has gotten into those two, they are just destroying my home and everything I've worked hard for.

Zamkithi side smiles, everything is working on her favour. Sje wants everything that Simon owns belong to Lungelo.

Zam - I've been thinking, you see Sphe cannot take good care of that minister's daughter. I want her to marry my son and our family business will boom more since.

Simon was tounge tied cause he knows how Sphe love's his girlfriends. How will he even approach this matter. As much as he hates the idea his wife was right he thought.

Simom - I'll have a talk with Sphesihle.

Later that day in the evening, everyone was sitting quietly in the dining room table and Muzi noticed that they were not served.

Muzi - how about us.

Zam - why would I serve drunkards like you. You don't even know where your life is going. Did your mother serve you two, of course you wouldn't know cause you hated her "chucks"

Muzi - baba is this really m.....

Simon - SHUT THE HELL UP! If you want food go work like other peers instead of milking me fry. Atleast Lungelo is responsible unlike you two. You are just useless like your mother, I'm glad that chacol left my house. You know what it's time for you to leave my house right tgis minute.

Zam - you forgot to tell them that we have come to a conclusion that Lungelo marries Nqobile since his financially stable.

Sphe - over my dead body.

Simon- ow yes over my living body. It's not up for discussion. The negotiations will take place nexr week "Lungelo smirked looking at them"

Spje looked at his father with bloody red shot eyes. Firt he fired them, stripped them off their positions at work and now he wants to take something that he cherishes dearly. He stood up roughly making the huge table fall making plates and food scutter everywhere.

Gcina quietly looked at the scene with a broken heart. His mother has turned into something je doesn't notice anymore. He stood up quickly and went to his room with so much hate and anger and packed every item that belonged to him. He knows that his brother has a flat that he doesn't use, if only he could crash thier until he finishes his exams. He sneaked out of the house without anyone noticing and he ran out of the gate with his heavy bags, luckily he has cash with him all thanks to his brother Phaka.

Sphe was laying on his bed thinking about how life has turned out. The way they use to be close and happy with their father. Muzi walked in with a long face and he layed next to his brother facing the roof.

Sphe - i don't understand what's happening. We were once happy.

Muzi - if i knew that this woman had an agenda i wouldn't have allowed her in this house in the first place.

Sphe - do you sometimes think of mu.... them.

Muzi kept quite for a while. They once had a mother but too naive to notice her. They though this woman will play a motherly role to them.

Their biological mother tried by all means to be a good mother but they lished her away to an extent that they were chased out.

Muzi - i wonder where they are "sighs"

Sphe - i only i knwe what i was doing, bit i was too blind and too stupid its like i was blinded by something. Come to think of it why did we do all those cruel things to them. I made my own mother cry day and night without care.

Muzi - karma has visited us. The things we did to them are now happening to us. I think we should start looking for them don't even know where to start and i need a job.

Sphe - i heard that there's this oil and gas company which is hiring for security. It's better than nothing.

GCINOKUHLE (GCINA)

I may be young but but my mind works like a 20 year old person. The only person who treats me like a man is buti Phaka, that guy is a whole mood. The wife is so welcoming and has a pure heart i wouldn't mind living with them. After i left my father's house i requested and went straight to my brother's house, i can't be with my parents they are too toxic. I've always wished for a family but the family i have is a curse.

I ring the bell, Phaka opened and gave me that look.

Phaka - ntwana uright "looking at the bags"

Gcina - can i stay in yoi flat until I'm done with my final exams "sniffs"

Phaka pulled him inside giving him a rub on his back and they sat down.

Phaka - tell me what happend.

Gcina - "takes a deep breath" everything is falling apart, Lungelo is now the new CEO and his destroying everything. Muzi and Sphe have been kicked out of the house by my mother and they were also fired at dad's work without a valid reason. What's worse mum wants Lungelo to marry Sphe's girlfriend.

They sometimes go to bed with empty stomachs, even dad has turned their backs on them. I can't sit and watch all of that, i can't even prepare for my final exams so i decided to run away from home. That's why I'm here buti i don't have any where else to go. I just want to live in your flat until i finish writting. I don't even know where Muzi and Sphe will go cause they don't even have R10 in their accounts.

#15

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Watching my little brother break down like that all the those painful memories i endured in that house, it was too much. I made a vow to myself that i will not want anything to do with them. I couldn't let him stay in that flat alone and my wife bluntly denied to that request.

What will i do when i see them? What will i say?
What will happen? I've never thought of all this, these questions have been ringing in my head and i hardly slept.

I just have to prepare for work and try not to stress about this. My wife sorts all my clothing and prepares our lunch box. She doesn't like it if i wear suits all the time, she says it turns her on, she's becoming a sex freak i tell you.

Zelo - all set "packing the lunch boxes". Don't forget your meeting you have with the minister later today.

Phaka - shoot me, i totally forgot. See why i love you and always need you by ny side "kissing her lips"

They use one car when going to work, everyone admires their relationship. They always together, Zelo used to have her own office until Phaka couldn't take it anymore, he can't spend an hour without seeing his wife. They now share an office.

Phaka - the radio station called again, they want to do an interview with us.

Zelo - that's good babe. But you don't look excited about it.

Phaka - I'm still starting my life, i don't want my face to be all over the internet and newspaper's. I want to be more than i am now then do an interview. And i don't want anyone gawking at my wife.

Zelo just laughed at his last statement, she knew that her husband is very jealous. It has become a routine that they do everything together cause he just goes crazy.

Phaka - i won't let you carry all those, what will people say.

Zelo - hau babe it's just my handbag and our lunch bag.

He just kept quite and took the bags from her, holding her hand as they went inside the building with eyes on them.

Cleaner - if i could have a husband like this all my problems would be solved.

Worker - i wish to see him naked. Surely he has a nice round butt.

Cleaner - yoh ay that's too deep, let me continue doing my work instead of listerning to you blabbing about someone's husband "she left".

The worker stood there admiring Phaka's body structure with those broad shoulders. She had a crush on him the first fay she layed her eyes on him. The feelings are becoming stronger and stronger day by day and it's hard to contain herself. He doesn't even recognize her, she has tried every trick in the book but this man only has eye's for his wife.

Phaka - my love you see that girl over there "pointing at the worker who has zoned out looking at them", she's been giving me these weird uncomfortable vibes. I don't want her to be my PA anymore, something is just off about her.

Zelo - maybe she's just admiring you love "smiling"

Phaka - trust me i know what I'm talking about. I want Dave to be my new PA.

Dave was called into Phaka's office. Dave is a bubbly human being full of vibes. You can tell that his gay but afraid to come out of the closet.

Dave - boss P you called for me.

Phaka - have a seat "Phaka looks intimidating ever since he has started working out on his body" I'll get straight to the point. You will be my new PA.

Dave - WHAT! Tell me you joking "fanning himself"

Phaka - yes starting from tomorrow. I will ne.....

Phaka didn't even finish the sentence Dave ran out of the office screaming in excitement.

Worker - what's with the noise so early in the morning " attitude"

Dave - ow darling you should drop that attitude of yours it sucks. By the way I'm tge new PA for Boss P.

Worker - WHAT YOU CAN'T TAKE MY POSITION

Dave just went past her, Amanda was furious. She enjoyed working much closet to Boss P. She can't let Dave take what belongs to her, she saw him first she better have him first. She stormed into his office finding Zelob sitting on her husbands lap.

Phaka - don't you have manners now.

Amanda - I'm..... I'm sorry boss P. But did you give Dave my position.

Phaka - yes "answering her unbothered"

Amanda - but why. No one knows you like i do, no one knows what you like and don't like "folding her arms"

Phaka - my wife knows me better than anyone. You not fired but rather going to another department. Everyone will have a chance to be my PA. From tomorrow you will be working in Dave's position. Anything else you want me to clarify.

"She shook her head and went out of the office with veins popping out of her forehead"

Zelo - now i believe there is definatly something wrong with her, i mean did you see how dark her eye's were.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

Sitting on this chair rocking myself back and forth looking at ny daughter's pictures. So many emotions have taken over, part of him wants to fix thinga with his daughter and part of him is scared. How will he survive this. He is happy but incomplete, something was definatly missing. Looks like her husband is taking good care of her, he is giving her something i failed. Will she ever forgive me? Will we ever have a father and daughter relationship? Thinking about this just makes his heart sink.

Khethiwe is aver good woman she listens to him whenever there is something troubling him. Unlike Abigirl who was into marriage for a fancy life style. Good thing he froze all the accounts, Abigirl has been trying to contact him and his blantly ignoring her. He just doesn't want nothing to do with her, she made his life upside down.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Simon is looking at the recent transactions, his head started to spin making him have a serious headache. He definitely didn't see this one coming, why is Lungelo misusing money like this.

Simon - Lungelo "calling him with his harsh voice"

Lungelo came to the lounge with his brand new iPhone on his hand. The clothing he is wearing screams money.

Lungelo - sure.

Simon - is that the way you respond when I call you?

Lungelo - okay ufunani I'm busy.

Simon just looked at him not knowing what to say further. The son he thought was different from the other kids turns out to be the rebellious one.

Lungelo- call me when you decide to talk kunokuthi ungibumbele umlomo.

He went out as he banged the door, he got into his brand new car and drove off.

BONGEKILE (ZELO'S MOTHER)

This is the day I've been waiting for. Zubby is and I are having our honeymoon vacation in Dubai. I'm so scared I've never been outside of the country. I don't know what to expect and i don't even know what to pac and Nana is not making it easier for me.

Nana - ay mama you still undecided "sitting on top of the bed rubbing he belly"

Bonge - i don't know what to pack, I'm scared "bitting her nails" .

Nana - you should see yourself right now you look like a love sick puppy. Hehehe who would have thought that someday you will be my father's wife and my step mother.

Bonge - Bakhulumile get out of my room and go to your husbands house.

Nana - even if you chase me away. You will always see this beautiful face madam.

They laughed and continued to help her pack.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

It's almost knock off time and I'm just rapping off my paper work when Amanda walked in wearing a very short skirt.

Amanda- i bought you coffee "smiling" you've been working for hours and i can see your wife is not in the office. Is she home? "Looking around"

Phaka - thank you, you can put it on the table.

My wife's whereabouts doesn't concern you. You may be excused.

She choked in fry salavia and putted the coffee on top of the table and waited for him to drink. As he was about to take a sip Zelo walked in carrying a big box. He placed the coffee on the table and hurried to his wife.

Phaka - why didn't you call me?

Zelo - hau babe it's not even heavy.

"She saw coffee on the table". Coffee just what i need.

Phaka - ahhh love that's mines moss "sulking"

Zelo - it smells so nice "she closed her eyes and took a sip"

Amanda - NO!

"They turned and looked at her" i mean i...it was for Boss P.

Zelo - whatever my husband eats we share. We are one.

She drank the coffee while looking at Amamda, she felt a bit uncomfotable and went aout in a hurry.

Minutes later she started to have a blurr vision but ignored it cause she thought she was tired. She started to feel hot and started sweating.

Zelo - i don't feel good my abdomen hurts, maybe I'm visiting that time of the month.

Phaka stopped whatever he was doing and attended to his wife.

Phaka - you must be tired you even sweating. Lay on a couch a bit.

Zelo - ahhhh "holding her stomach kneeling down" it hurts baby " her eyes got teary" .

Phaka didnt waste anytime he picked her up in a bridal style taking her to the car. Amanda stood there with her eye's out full of regret. All she ever wanted was to be in Phaka's chest just for one night maybe he will consider taking her a second wife.

Her layed her gently at the backseat and drove like a manic to the hospital, she was starting hsve have breathing problems.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

I can sense something is wrong with my daughter. I'm having a hard to breath and I'm getting weak.

Khethiwe - baba uright "concerned".

Bheki - i think there's something with my daughter "trying to catch his breath"

Khethiwe didn't waste anytime she grabbed his phone from the coffee table and searched for Zelo's numbers until she found them. She dialed the numbers but it rang unanswered, she tried again but still there was no availability.

Khethiwe- she's not picking up. What do we do now, we don't even know where she lives.

Bheki - try her husband "breathing heavily" search for Phaka.

She did as she was told and dialed his numbers, it randed luckily he picked up.

Voice - hello

Khetgi - hello Phaka. We've been trying to get hold of Zelo but she's not picking up.

Voice - who's this?

Khethi - I'm sorry. This is.... I'm her father's wife

Khethiwe.

Voice - my wife is in hospital I'm still waiting for the doctor's.

Khethiwe - what happend? Is she oky?

Voice - i can only inform you once the doctor's are done with her. I will call you back.

AT THE HOSPITAL

Phaka was sitting impatiently for the doctor. His been pacing up and down, rubbing his head in frustration. Last time he knew Bheke was married to Abigail, who is this Khethiwe but he didn't want to think so much into it. He saw the doctor coming and holding a file.

Doc - Mrs Ngcobo

Phaka - yes she's my wife, what's wrong with her "rubbing his hands together"

Doc - can we go to the office.

"He followed him to the office with his heart pounding". You may have a seat.

Phaka - doctor what's wrong with my wife?

Doc- has she ever been sick before? "Going through the file"

Phaka - no

Doc - did you notice any changes with her?

Phaka - changes, what kind of changes? My wife has never been sick. We've been married for a year and she has never troubled me until today she complained about stomach cramps.

Doc - there's no easier way to say this "taking off his glasses and sighs". As a hospital we've never come across this situation. I don't know how you and your family to will take this but your wife.... your wife is "clearing his throat"

AT THE HOSPITAL

Doc - there's no easier way to say this "taking off his glasses and sighs". As a hospital we've never come across this situation. I don't know how you and your family to will take this but your wife.... your wife is "clearing his throat"

Phaka- doc can you please get to the point.

Doc - your wife is pregnant and her condition is very rare. We did all the necessary tests and we found out that she is have sexteplets and we also found that she took sleeping tablets, she actually took more than she was suppose to, but we managed to drain them out before it could cause anymore harm to the babies.

Phaka - my wife is pregnant. "He frowned remembering something" you said something about the babies, what do you mean if you say babies?

Doc - your wife is carrying 6 kids

Phaka - eh hh WHAT! AS in 1,2,3,4,5,6,6,6 as in 6,6 are you sure?

Doc - yes Mr Ngcobo.

Phaka - about the the pills.

Doc - ow yes its a good thing you brought her before it could cause anymore harm, if you took longer she was going to have a miscarriage.

Phaka - wow Jesus. Can i see her? Am i allowed?

Phaka followed the doctor to his wife's ward and they found her half asleep. He sat on the bed and gently shook her.

Doc - i will recommend a good gynecologist for better assistant since it's a high risk pregnancy. Make sure she doesn't stress and don't carry heavy objects since you're still in your first trimester. We will be keeping you over night for observations. Congratulations once again "he walked out"

Zelo - how many babies are we having?

Phak - 6 mkami, sperm sami sinzima "doing a tsiba tsiba dance".

Zelo - the sleeping tablets. How did they.....wait a minute Amanda!

Phaka - what about her?

Zelo- that coffe was meant for you and i drank it. She was going to drug you.

Phaka was clenching his jaws in anger. He did suspect but didn't want to point fingers. There is definatly something wrong with this girl.

Phaka - i will deal with her the hard way.

Zelo - just live it my love, let's just be happy that the Ngcobo's are fine "brushing her tummy"

Phaka - fine but she will be fired. I won't take noneses. I'm going to be a father "a nurse walked in"

Nurse - visiting hours are over sir "checking her temperature"

Phaka - I'm not leaving my wife all alone. Infact i will sleep her next to her. If yourl want to chase me out call the cops on me. Habe i will never leave my wife alone for who, and why. God don't test me.

The nurse just kept quite and looked at him not knowing what to say. Zelo was silently laughing on the inside. Once his mind is made up there's no turning back.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Zamkithi was making lunch when her husband simon baged into the kitchen looking angry.

Simon - Lungelo is gonna be the death of me.
How do you explain this "givingbher the papers"

She took them and read then smiled putting them down on the kitchen counter.

Zam - my boy is doing pretty good.

Simon - you mean spending all that money make him do pretty good "shouting and boiling with anger"

Zam - ay kahle this is just the beginning until you sign everything to my son.

She went out singing living Simon dumfounded in disbelief. Muzi and Sphe were standing listening to their conversation.

Muzi -"clapping hands" now your favourite son and wife are showing you flames. You made us turn our backs on our own mother and brother for this nonsense. You made us hate them for your own selfish reasons. Why? Was this your plan all along, to use us and toss us aside like a used toilet paper full of shit. No need to explain you chased us out of our home, I'm going to pack each and every belonging of mine and you will never hear from me ever again. I will go out there and look for my mother and brother, i just hope and pray they are still alive "he went out to the shack to pack "

Sphe - hope you sre happy with your decisions and your new found family. I'm leaving with my brother, have a nice life.

Simon stood there and watched his son's as they packed their belongings and they left right infront of his eyes.

Muzi - where are we going cause we don't even have cash on us.

Sphe - we will be using my girlfriends apartment until we are able to figer out something, I'm just glad she agreed to this set up.

Muzi - as ols as i am this is the time where i desperately need my mother. If i were to took for them where will i start. What we did was unforgivable. You see Lungelo and his mother are practically doing the same shit we did to mum and Phaka. Phaka needed us the most, but what did we do. We tossed him aside like a nobody. I will mever forgive myself for this.

Silence filled the air as they were walking amd hiking. The distance is no child's play plus it's at night. A car stopped as they were still walking. The man rolled down the window.

Man - ebusuku kangaka kuyiwaphi nemithwalo.

Muzi - ah ndoda yakithi we just need a lift to Manor Gardens.

Man - luckily that's my route but I'm passing by my bosses house, he needs some documents as in yesturday. But you can hop in.

Sphe - thanks for the lift man.

They hopped in and they allowed their bodies to relax after all they were tires from walking. They drove through beautiful house full of street lights.

Muzi - wow what a nice neighbour hood.

Man - yes wait till you see my bosses house. You see that house over there that's were my boss and his wife live.

Muzi - aibo is he a presidents son.

Man - "laughed" no his the new owner of the Oil And Gas. He suprised his wife with this house and a new Mercedes-Benz.

They parked outside the beautiful house which was black and white in colour. This was not a house but a mansion. They watched the man as he went inside of the house.

Sphe - wow i wonder how many people live here.

Muzi - uzwile nje he said his wife and his boss. We must ask if are they still hiring, he seems to be close with his boss. The man came back as these two were still adniring the house from the outside.

Sphe - your boss is filthy rich ndoda ngeke.

Man - "laughed" that's why I want to be close to him. I heard is planning on buying a factory in Umngeni.

Muzi - ngisakhumbula, are you guys still hiring?

Man - yeap for security and finance.

The rest of the journey was filled with silence. The man kept his word and dropped them off at the apartment and exchanged numbers.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Zamkithi was up and down the house banging all doors making too much noise.

Simon -what's wrong, i thought you would be happy since my kids are gone.

Zam - don't tell me about those idiots. Where is Gcina? All of his clothes are gone. Did they take him?

Simon - you only noticing now. What kind of a mother you. I'm sure he was tired of all your runting and grunting. You know my wife was a very humble soul.

Zam - so ngihlanganaphi mina, she's gone to be a humble soul else where.

Simon - sometimes i don't understand your intentions, why did you marry me if you're going to treat me like this "sounding defeated"

Zam - hau why are you sad. Was this not the same way you use to treat you wife and son, why are you complaining. Don't bore me with your shit, i want my son before i chopp your head off and feed you to the dogs useless man. How can a married man chase away his family he had for years just for a side chick. My kuku must be really good then. I want my son before the end of tomorrow.

She left him standing their like a statue. What has he gotten himself into. He sat down as he was feeling defeated. This is how he used to treat his wife and son, guess the tables have turned around and his about to get burnt in the cross fire.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I spent the night at the hospital, i just wanted to be sure if she is fine. Imagine sleeping on this small hospital bed, I'm tall and fit she's too tiny. I'm just happy that my woman is fine and she was discharged this morning. I will have to make sure that she doesn't strain herslef, no more working for her cause work can be too much stress sometimes. I'll have to hire a helper, an elderly person for that matter.

Phala - i will be working from home this week, but later i will be out, I'm having a meeting with the minister, atleast Phaka will be here too look after you.

Zelo - it's oky babe, I'll just sleep I'm just tired.
Love you.

I watched my wife as she went upstairs slowly admiring her behind. Now i have a boner, i love this woman like a mad person. I haven't shared these news with anyone, let me call my mother, i hope the network is good since she's in Dubai. My mother is rolling places i tell you later I'll have to contact my wife's father.

Phaka - I've been trying to get hold of you network inenyongo.

Bonge - I'm in Dubai sdididi remember, I'm going places, you should take your wife.

Phaks - "smiled" i will but once everyting is settled after a year.

Bonge - aibo why? Don't be stingy wena please. Make your wife happy, did you see hpw miserable i was with your father?

Phaka - my father is Zubby. Anyway i wantedbto inform you that you guys are going to be grandparents again sisnce Nana is also preggies.

Bonge- WHAT! Tell me you joking.

Phaka - I'm serious as a heart attack. Those are not the only news i want to share. We found out that we are having 6 Ngcobo's.

His mother screamed in excitement and ended up crying.

Bonge - remember at your wedding day what i said to Zelo. I said her womb shall be blessed and she shall bare you fruitful kids. There's only one thing that Simona did in your life, he chose the right woman for you and I'm thankful for that. Ngiphathele kahle yena love her and only her.

Phaka - and i intend to love her till my last breath.

AT THE OIL AND GAS STATION

Muzi and Sphe were outside the gate early in the morning to drop pff their CV's. The last time they saw this place it was not tgis beautiful. Alot has changed.

Sphe - sure case the owner is a millionaire, look at this place ndoda.

Muzi - I'm even afraid to set my foot inside. Everything i see here just screams money.

They made there way in to the reception area and dropped their applications.

Lady - you will be contacted within 2/3 days to scheduled for an interview.

Muzi - thankyou nkosazana, we will be kindly waiting for your call.

They walked out thinking of the new life they are about to startt without their father.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

There is an adage that says curiosity killed a cat, yeah, it can actually end you in a lot of trouble you might not even know the way out. That's me, how did i get myself here. Yesterday i slept with an empty stomach just because i have to go and look for Gcina. Is it my fault that he decided to pack up and leave? Is it my fault that the company i worked hard fpr is crumbling down? Is it my fault that things are falling apart? How do i expalin this. I look at her as she's making her way boiling with anger and i just know that trouble has started.

Zam - you will not get any food in this house until you bring abck my son. You want to use him for your rituals, you lie. I will make you life a living hell in this house useless man.

He just kept quiet and look at her with no emotions. This is the very same way he used to treat his ex wife and now everything had backfired. He thought of the pain he caused his wife and son. He now starting to think if did he make the right choice. A foam of guilt stuck in his throat making shiver a bit. He pulled his phone looking rather lost, he tried their numbers but took him straight to voicemail. As he was still looking at his phone having deep thought his phone rang and it was Bheki, he sighed and answered.

Simon - Bheki.

Bheki - nweri nweri. Do you have any idea how much you're costing me? Do have any idea the damage your son has caused? I'm a huge shareholder in that company and i will not watch it crumble down. I will have to pull of the investments and invest on someone who is more reliable and knows what they are doing. I will watch you sink your own company to the ground.

Simon - i understand your frustration and i promise i will fix it.

Bheki - no need cause I'm pulling out. I'm withdrawing before the ship sails "he dropped the call"

He buried his face in his hands this is not how he pictured his life.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Being pregnant is something i didn't expect but we've been playing unsafe and I'm not on any contraceptives, what did i expect though. But hearing that I'm carrying a dozens in my tummy makes me feel speacial. My husband is selfish je doesn't even want me to move from the bed, you would swear I'm months pregnant I'm just only 3 weeks for crying out loud.

Phaka - even if you pout Mrs Ngcobo you heard the doctor's order and I'm not taking any chances.

Zelo - i just need to stretch my legs. I'm tired of sleeping and my body hurts.

Phaka - should i send you to the hospital
"panicking"

Zelo - no silly "laughing" my body hurts and i just want to take a walk and relax. I've been in this bed for house.

Phaka looked at her and smiled and remembered that her father called. His undecided whether to tell her or not. Will he be causing stress if he does?

Zelo - talk to me. I can see right through you.

Phaka - eish erm yo...your father called "scratching his head"

Zelo - oh ubethini?

Phaka - i don't know, the time he called the doctor's were still busy with you.

Zelo - if his serious he will call back again.

Phaka felt a bit abd after telling her. But he can't hide anything everytime when he tries she just picks it up.

Phaka - i love you more than life itself don't ever doubt that. You are the readon I'm living a better life, you are the reason i smile amd you are the main reason of me being madly inlove.

Zelo - my very own Dr Phil you have a meeting with the minister within an hour.

His eyes popped out and sprang to the bathroom to shower living Zelo in stitches. He has totally forgot, he seriously wants this tender. He was struggling for a very long time and this is the perfect time to outshine himself, his family and the love of his life.

Luckily his clothes are packed neatly it's easy for him to choose an item to wear. He kissed his wife and ran out of the house in 220 speed. He entered his car and drove off. He arrived but luckily it seems as if they arrive at the same time.

Phaka - baba it's a pleasure to finally meet you
"they shook hands"

Minister - this is my daughter Nqobile.

The girl just smiled and blushed making her cheeks turn red.

Minister - if i were to give you this tender, what changes will you make?

Phaka - obviously to employ more youth. But most importantly i want build a shelter for the homeless. Instead of them sleeping on the streets why don't we give them a safe place. We mah not know the reasons for them being homeless but it will not kill to help the people who are in need.

"He continued to explain and the minister was impressed"

Minister - I'm impressed, i don't want to waste anymore time the tender worth 8 million is yours. Don't disappoint me.

Phaka couldn't hide the excitement on his face and he couldn't wait to go home and share the news with his wife.

Phaka - i will not disappoint you sir i promise.

Minister - very well then come to my office tomorrow so we could have everything finalised.

Phaka - i will be there, can't wait to start the project.

Minister - I'm off to another meeting you guys could stay and celebrate. Take care of my daughter.

Phaka - I'd love to but i just can't wait to go home and share the news with ny wife, plus she's not feeling well.

Nqobile- you married?

Phaka - happily married "he showed her his wedding band and her face dropped"

Minister - let's not keep you waiting then.

They stood up bid goodbyes and went their separate ways. Nqobile kept looking back hoping he will come and ask for her numbers but again she remembered his happily married.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

A Week Later

*

*

I felt pretty bad that I'll have to go back to work and leaving my wife at home. It didn't sit well with me, so i decided to call one of my guys to do a divider inside my office amd it also has a very huge space. I'll be having a room in my office, creep i tell you but it's for the best. If she's here with me i will be at peace and my mind wont be all over the place.

Amanda resigned after that saga she pulled and ran away, God knows what i would have done to her she almost killed my penguins.

Just can't wait for my woman to be huge, feel the babie kicks with all those crazy cravings.

I almost became selfish, she actually enjoys being at work and she loves working, but when ever she feels tired she will have a nap where i could watch her with those small pinky lips.

Whose knows what might happen in the "room office". When ever i think of this woman my heart jumps and my mouth curves with a big smile.

I wonder what's making you smile like that "a voice disturbed my moment thoughts of my wife"

Nqobile - "he frowned as he looked at her" How can i help you.

Nqo - tell me why you smiling first. Where you thinking about me "sitting down crossing her legs revealing her thighs"

Phaka - there's only one woman who puts that kind of smile on my face, my wife "he smiled again as his eyes sparkled with love"

Nqo - ow "sounding dissapointed". Anyway I'm h....

Her fragrance filled the office making Phaka to close his eyes inhaling her cologne.

Zelo - sorry to disturb your meeting but i need those files to be faxed asap Mr Ngcobo .

Phaka - yes Mr Ngcobo "seductively"

Zelo - I'll be at me desk.

Phaka - ay we are sharing a desk remember "spanking her huge behind"

Zelo - ay wena respect, i forgot my phone in the kitchen. "She giggled as she walked out leaving Phaka licking his lips in lust"

Nqo - "clears her throat" I'm still here remember "sounding annoyed"

Phaka - ow yea totally forgot. What brings you here again.

Nqo - you know what never mind. "She stood up feeling angry and dissapointed at. She finds it hard to seduce this man, his so inlove with his wife amd it annoys the shit out of her. What annoys her the most is that he showed his wife affection infront of her"

Phaka - ow oky, close the door on your way out sisi.

She stood there looking confused. As beautiful as she is no man has ever rejected her, this man right in front of her eye's doesn't even notices her.

The door flunged open and Gcina walked in making noise and stopped when he saw Nqobile.

Gcina - ahhh mfazi kamfowethu "giving her a hug."

Phaka - you know her

Gcina - yea, she's your brother's girlfriend Sphe. "She shifted uncomfortably, she almost embarrassed herself what was she thinking". Anyway I'm here for the card you promised me, don't tell me you forgot.

Phaka just looked at his crazy brother, he knew his about to shop till he drops. This is the way he asks for money "I'm here for the card you promised me" that's his everyday line. It's about time he gives him the monthly allowance he never thought of it till now. He took out his bank card and gave it to him.

Gcina - that's why I love you. Tell our wife not to cook. Lunch is on me.

Phaka - ngemaki kabani "folding his arms to his chest"

Gcina - our money because "he walked out and bumped into Zelo, they talked a bit and he left"

Zelo - no cooking for me today. Mr. Blessers is blessing me tonight.

Phaka - "laughed" you guys just enjoy emptying my bank balance. Are you guys hungry I've never seen you eating.

Nqo - no I'm good i actually eat before i came here.

Phaka - i was actually asking my wife and my unborn babies "with a straight face". Now Mrs Ngcobo what would you like to eat.

Zelo - amagwina and fried chips.

Nqobile stood there looking at Phaka and Zelo. This is the kind of love she wants for herself. She love's Sphe but she thinks it's not enough, his more of an indoor person. She wants more, a man like Phaka can fulfill the empty void that she has. To think of it she once hated him with passion before and now here she is lasting over him, a married man and a brother to her boyfriend. This man will never leave his wife not in a million years, why not change the man that she has. After all Phaka's wife did it, yin engamuhlula yena. She sighed and walked out looking down until she bumped into a hard chest by the entrance. She lifted her head up and saw Sphe standing right in front of her eyes.

Sphe - babe what i you doing here?

Nqo - i had a meeting with the manager. I thought you were follibg around when you said you got the job.

Sphe - "he smiled" i was serious, I'm the accountant "for some reason he was detaching from her. There's lack of communication and the spark is no longer there. How does he tell her that his falling out of love, but again he doesn't want to brake her feeling"

Nqo - let's go out tonight and do stuffs we've never done before. I feel like we drifting apart and i know it's my fault. I just have alot on my plate.

Sphe - yea you right on that one. I think we need to work on our relationship.

"She kissed him and looked into his eye's and she left"

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Everything is not looking good at all. The business is falling apart amd everything is crushing down, every investor is pulling out day by day. Lungelo surely destroying everything. His been think on selling his business and go start afresh in Cape Town without all the drama. He admits he made a huge mistake and it will forever haunt him. Amd he lost his best friend in the process. It's been months without seeing his ex wife and a year without seeing his son. This is the punishment his facing for making the woman who loved him dearly made her cry everyday without any remorse. It's true when they say what goes around comes around. His even lost weight is a short period of time. Being around his parents for a fews days brought back his sanity for a few days.

Baba - ndodana I'm highly disappointed in you. You conspired with your mother and sisters into abusing that wonderful soul. I'm very old to be stressed like this.

Where are all the people that made your wife miserable? Don't they have fat kids? They do but never abused their kids emotionally, but they made you abuse your son. This new found family, were they worth it? Did you gain anything? Instead of all that you loosing everything. I won't lie your wife was a daughter inlaw a father could wish for their son.

Simon - i regret everything i did. If only i didn't listern to my mother and sister's feeding me with nonsense i wouldn't be here. Everything is like this because of them.

Mama - if only i could turn the clock and fix everything trust me i would son. I'm deeply sorry, i though she was a gold digger and Zamkithi was the best for you.

Baba - no need crying over spilt milk. Try fixing your family and that's is she allows you back into her life. Angifunike ukuyiphatha ekaPhaka you hurt you're son deeply and chances of him forgiving you are slim. Go out there and look for you wife and kids.

Simon was deeply hurt by his actions. He wanted to vent and talk, after the talk he had with his father he now feels lighter. As much as he doesn't want to see his mother at the moment he will be oky, cause looking at her brings so much anger and hate towards her.

Hours later he drove back to his found and found the yard buzzing with unfamiliar faces. It looks like a part or something, these people are drinking like there's no tomorrow.

Everyone is minding there business, there's no way he could sleep in this house. He decided to pack an over night bag and will be spending the night at the hotel. He went to the guestroom and packed his bag, as he was walking past the main bedroom he heard moans and groans but he continued walking. These moans were getting louder and louder, he turned and went back and opened the door. He got the shock of his life, his heart stopped beating, he ran out with his mind blank, he ran out on the streets like a mad man. His vision became blurry making his sight hard to see. There's scratching and hooting everywhere until a car came out of nowhere, knocked him and left him flying like a superman. Everyone gasped in shock, his not moving nor breathing. The scene left everyone numb, Zamkithi came out running out of the house wearing a robe upside down. She saw a croud of people standing she made her way up to them walking fast. She paused as she saw Simon's body laying on the ground helplessly, she held her head in disbelief.

Zam - noooooooooooooo!!!!!!! She knelt down and screamed, while some people felt pity for her and some shaking their heads.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Every kind of machine was connected to his body. Everyone wondered how he survived this horrific accident, the Ngcobo family was in great pain. Simon's house was full of family member's and church member's.

Zam - nihamba nini, his not dead moss but already you act like you grieving for someone..

Aunty - you came out of nowhere and broke another woman's marriage, you can't build happiness on another woman's tears.

Zam - the same woman you guys labelled as a cheating skank daughter inlaw. The same daughter inlaw you guys did not want in the Ngcobo premises. The same daughter inlaw you guys enanithi ngaye she's a witch. The same daughter inlaw you guys said she claims that Phaka is Simon's son but that son belonged to another man. I didn't destroy anyone's home you did with your big fat mouths. You'll were blabbing trash about her, now you want to label me as a home wrecker.

Aunty - i thought you were good for my brother but clearly i was mistaken.

Zam - clearly you were darling. Do i look like i care, now listern here and listern good this is now my house. I'm not Bongekile that you messed with and tossed her aside like a prostitute as you said she was. Go to your husbands house and go rule there. Angithi you're a ruler phela wena, you rule people's lives like you ruled you're brother's marriage.

The rest of the family kept quite cause they knew that what ever happened in Simon's marriage is there doings, they had a hand in it.

News travel fast ever news paper articles had this incident on the front paper.

On the mewspaper it is stated Mr Ngcobo is in a critical condition and the chances of survival are very slim and his family is keeping him in the prayers. This is indeed the bad times for the Ngcobo's.

Everyone was sitting at the dining table trying to get hold of the kids and their mother. It's been 2 weeks since the incident but unfortunately Phaka and his mother are not reachable but Muzi and Sphe managed to come through and they were of great help.

Muzi - so this was the reason you chased us out of our father's house, your plan was to kill and inherit everything right? Are you that greedy? I curse the day you set your foot into this compound.

Zam - mxm as if you care about that useless father of yours. You ran away with my son Gcina. You are corrupting him in those doggy drug dealings you doing eh.

"Luckily Gcina was standing by door listening to his mother ranting"

Gcina - i went away on my own will, i couldn't stay and watch destroy another man's family. I went away because you are greedy, a headache and selfish. I'm sure your happy that father is in the hospital crippled. I wouldn't be amazed if you had a hand it after all you are after everything. Your heart is evil i cannot believe you're my mother. Atleast mum Bongekile treats me like her own son even though I'm not her biological son.

Sphe - you mean Bongekile my mother as in our mother.

Gcina - "Chucks" as if you care. But yes her.

Muzi - ukuphi "asking with a shaky voice"

Gcina - Dubai on vacation "he left them still standing and went to his room and locked himself. That's what he does ever since he came back"

Zamkhithi was hurt by the words her son spoke. All she was trying to do is to secure their future, she didn't mean for all of this. Now it hurts that there is another woman who takes care of her son while she's still alive.

Muzi - what is she doing in Dubai? wazi bani lapho?

"Sphe just shrugged his shoulders cause he was just confused as Muzi"

Aunty - akenimushaye ucingo kmele abuye eze ekhaya ezogada umnyeni wakhe.

Sphe - they are divorced nje aunty.

Aunty - ay edlozini, but emaphepheni.

At this while Lungelo was not okay, something has been eating him up and doesn't know how to fix it. But sooner or later they will know. The hospital bills were very high due to the medication now they have run out of money.

Muzi - since you handle everything now, I hope and believe that you have everything under control.

Lungelo looked down in shame not knowing how to respond and his eyes became teary. At first he thought he was doing the right thing.

Lungelo - ngyaxolisa buti, i didn't mean to do it please forgive me.

Muzi - what are you on about " now all eye's where on Lungelo"

Lungelo - i.....i sold father's company.

Sphe - WHAT!!

Zam - INI!!!

Everyone looked at him in amazement not believing what they've just heard.

Muzi - oky widayisile iphike imali.

Lungelo - i mis....misused it.

Muzi was furious and angry. He marched on to him and gave him one hell of a punch that made Lungelo stumble back losing balance.

Zamkithi came inbetween them and separated the fight.

Mama - God please forgive me for my sins "crying" if Bongekile was still Simon's wife this wouldn't have happened. How did I deceive my own son? How did I gamble with his life so bad.

Baba - ukukhala akusizi, all what needs to be done is to raise that money angazi nokuthi izophumaphi. I've never been this disappointed in my life, I've ran out of words. Kulungile masiyolala siyovukela esbhedlela ksasa.

The church members went to their respective homes and the rest of the family went to sleep.

In the morning everyone was prepared to go to the hospital, they have been visiting for the past two weeks but he seems to be getting better day by day.

Lungelo kept tossing and turning at night thinking about his father. If he hears this it will totally brake him, he now has a terrible headache from all the crying. Muzi noticed and he pulled him aside to have a word with him.

Muzi - i don't want to fight with you, your mother made you to be this reckless cause she's the most selfish human being. I thought about everything last night. I may not know you personally but you're not a bad kid. Let's hold hands like every other siblings out there, lets have each other's backs through good and bad times. I abused Phaka emotionally and Sphe absued him physically. I'm not happy with the mistakes i did in the past, i see you also taking that route. Please don't take it you're very young it will leave you broken like i am. I don't hate you but i hate you're mother's actions. It's now time to prove her wrong and stand up for yourself. Don't let her dictate your life like our father did.

Lungelo- I'm sorry buti. What will i say to dad.

Muzi - we will cross that bridge when we get there, let's go see him first amd we will take it from there.

They have arrived at the hospital and the atmosphere is sour. They made their way inside the ward and found Simon wide awake like he was thinking. The minute he saw Zamkithi he closed his eyes trying to compose his anger but it was impossible.

Simon - so you wanted to come see the damaged you've caused. I've been hospitalized for two weeks but never bothered to come check on me. Wasn't it enough for you to sleep with another man on my matrimonial bed? Do you disrespect me that much that you now bring your boyfriends to my house. I'm in this hospital bed because of you "he kept quiet and took a deep breath" i would like a divorce and i want to fix my family and i hope it's not too late.

Zam - well i did not love you Simon. I wanted you because you were rich and my son's will gain alot from you. And besides that little company of yours is gone, why would i stay and starve myself.

Simon - i know that Lungelo sold my company, but worry not i will rise again.

She took her Gucci bag, clicked her tounge, pushed her mother inlaw aside and walked out leaving everyone astonished.

Lungelo - "he knelt down sobbing" ngyaxolisa baba, please forgive me i seriously don't know what came over me.

Simon - life is too short to hold a grudge on someone and that someone is specially your son. What's done is done, it's just a pity that i will never be able to walk again my spinal cord is damaged, unless i get one of the best doctors to do an operation.

"Everyone in that moment cried silently. This is just a painful experience and a hardship that the family is facing".

AT THE HOSPITAL

Everyone was left Simon was no left alone feeling lonely and empty. The woman who always stood by him is not here beside him. He has heard that Zamkithi has moved out of the hpise and will be serving him with the divorce paper's in twoo weeks. He just wondering where is Bongekile and Mphakamseni.

Tomorrow his being discharged due to high bills that they cannot maintain. His not someone who usually prays but today he will speak fo his Almighty.

Dear God i bring myself forward. The life changes i made in the past which cannot be undone i regret with everything in me. The heart's I've hurt, I've hurt them beyond recognition. I'm seeking fpr forgiveness, i got to accept of what it is and let go of what was and have faith in what will be, i believe that someday i will walk. In life I've got to realize that there is a purpose for everyone you meet. Some are there to test you, some will use you, some will teach you and some will bring out the best in you. Now i believe and i declare that my life will never be the same again. Open my eye's and show me the light in Jesus name Amen.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I'm sitting here quietly looking at the newspapers and listening to Gcina. As much as I hate him I feel pretty bad for him. First he loses his business, but I saved it because I'm the one who bought it, I couldn't miss for the opportunity and now he's crippled and being sent home because he cannot pay the hospital bills. My mum is back from Dubai and they're spending their weekend in my house, even Nana and Michael popped up by.

Michael - hahle ntwana I feel for you. So what are you going to do because I can see that this thing is eating you.

Phaka - "sighs and shrugged his shoulders" i don't know man, i seriously don't know. Part of me wants to help and part of me wants to see him suffer.

Zubby - you may hate him all you want sonbut what you must know is kill people with your kindness. Ungabuyiseli okubi ngokubi "Nigerian accent". Pay for his hospital bills, find him a good doctor to do an operation that is required and find him a physio. Let him pick up his life back "tapping on his shoulders"

Phaka - but pops i don't want them to see me as yet. Do i really have to go to the hospital.

Zubby - sdididi fonela esibhedlela and be anonymous "Nigerian accent"

Nana - oohh ay stick to englishoo "they laughed".

Zubby - i hope you don't mind my queen.

Bonge - not at all, i trust you with my children i know you won't mislead them.

Phaka - i wouldn't ask for a better family.

Gcina - ungasitetemeli please.

"Phaka took out his phone and contacted the hospital and remained anonymous. Hw doesn't want anyone to find out that he was behind the payment.

AT THE HOSPITAL

Doc - looks like it's your lucky day Mr Ngcobo. I just got a report that someone made a full payment for your surgery and physio therapist.

Simon - "laughed" my family doesn't have that amount of money you must be mistaken.

Doc - unfortunately I'm serious, this person wanted to remain anonymous and they said it's something that comes from the heart. So you must heal so you could move on with your life.

Simon kept quite and thought of the person who be responsible but one one came in mind. Why would this person remain unknown. As he was still deep in thoughts Gcina walked in with a lot of plastic bags full of food. Simon frowned looking at him.

Simon - all this food for me. Where did you get the money from?

Gcina - m...my savings. How are you feeling?

Simon - a strangest thing just happend, someone just covered all pf my bills including the physio therapist and this person remaind anonymous. If only i could know qho it was i would have thanked them.

Gcina - God works in mysterious ways, don't think too much just focus on your health.

"Simon nodded like a five year old.

Simon - so tell me so where were you all this while.

Gcina - "his wasn't expecting thatkind of question" eehhhh erm, i friends mum. I mean i live with my friend.

Simon- i don't believe you.

Gcina - "smiled nervously" strue serious.

They continued to talk about general stuffs and later Gcina went back home finding Nana in the kitchen eating marshmallows and peanuts and he made a disgusting face.

Gcina - damn no wonder you fat. What the hell are you eating sis Nana.

"Nana just continued eating closing her eyes enjoying her snack while humming an unknown song. One foot was on the kitchen couch and another on the floor tapping to the unknown beat she created. Gcina left her and went to the guys outside.

Phaka - ntwana you back.

Gcina - yea. Sugery will consume tomorrow and the old man is beyond happy.

Phaka - good to hear that. Just don't tell him it's me.

Gcina - nah i didn't but he asked and i just brushed him off.

They continued braaing the meat and having so much fun, while Zubby sat their and watched them from afar.

Bonge- i thought you woth the boys.

Zubby - ay they talk too much just like Nana.

Bonge - ow that one is finishing Phaka's food, the fridge is empty now "they laughed"

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Muzi was sitting silently, he wanted to ask Gcina more information about his mother but again there was no time they were busy up and down and now he is confused as hell. Who could paid for his dad, why. What if they ask for the payment with credit on top. Sphe sat beside him.

Sphe - don't stress too much. I'm sure who ever did this did it from their goodness of their heart.

Muzi - why would they remain anonymous, i hope this won't be a problem when time goes by. I'm grateful that sugery will be done tomorow.

Sphe - it won't be a problem so let's look on the positive side.

Muzi - if you say so. Let me call Gcina i just need to find out if he knows about my mum's whereabouts.

He dialed the numbers and it rang a couple of times and he picked up. They were having a hard time hearing each other due to the noise on the back ground.

"Back Ground Noise"

Phaka Phaka phosa ibhola

Zelo run, run Zelo letho. Nana duck, you making us loose with that big tummy of yours.

Ma gijima run Ma

GCINA PUT THE PHONE DOWN THE GIRLS ARE BEATING US "line disconnected"

Muzi - i swear i heard mum's voice in the background

Sphe - i doubt it was noisy i even heard.

Muzi - yea it is but i heard everything man. I hears Pahak and Zelo's name man i don't kno. But i assure you i did hear mums voice.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

Sibekezelo sent me the address to her new house. I'm grateful that she finally answered my text after a very long time. Tomorrow i will be facing her, this is now harder than i thought. What will i say or do. All these questions have been ringing in my head. I just hope and pray everything goes smooth, she's been in the dark for 20 years and i just want to put light in her life nothing else. I guess my new chapter in life begins here by fixing things with my daughter.

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

Morning came too quickly and unexpectedly. Here i am driving around this expensive neighborhood looking for my daughter's house.

Khethi - i think we have arrived well that's what the GPRS says. Don't tell me that this is their house, cause if yes then wow Jesus!

They pressed the intercom and the gate opened. They drove inside with their their mouths wide open amd definatly speechless. This house i heaven.

Khethi - wow "covering her mouth with her hands"

They stepped out of the car and they found the door wide open and there was so much noise, the house was upside down.

Bheki - i feel sick and scared.

Khethiwe brushed his back assuring him that she is here for him through thick and thin.

They kept following the noise and admiring the house at the same time, until they found them at the backyard palying food fight, they stopped when they noticed that they have guests.

Zubby - nice to meet you again Bheki. Sorry about the mess"scanning around".

Bheki - please don't stop on my account, we will come back some other time.

Zubby - don't be silly. Let's go drink mans stuff while we leave the women to clean this mess " whispering, as they were about to go someone stopped them"

Bheki - and where the hell do you think you're going. "Putting her hands on her waist"

Zubby - my queen i was just, ay love it's men's stuff.

Bheki's eye's popped out the minute he laid his eyes on Bongekile, she's glowing and looking beautiful as ever. As he was still fixed on Bonge, Phaka made his way and stood next to his mother putting his arms around her shoulders making Bheki a bit dizzy.

Phaka - evening sir "with that deep husky voice"
Bheki nodded and felt ashamed of the remarks he used to insult him with.

Zelo - can we please go inside we will clean this mess later.

They all went inside and they sat comfortably on the couches.

Zubby - i will be in the room "as he stood up"

Zelo - you also part of this family so please do sit.

He sat down feeling unsure about the situation but thankful that his being recognised as a family member. That made his heart at ease.

Bheki - ndodakazi " rubbing his hands together" there's no amount of sorries that will wipe all the pain and tears I've caused you. I will just start from the beginning.

Your mother was a lovely beautiful woman , full of life and was forever smiling. Her aura demanded respect she was the pillar of my strenght until she fell pregnant. Everything was fine throughout the pregnancy but she took her last breathe whe giving birth to you. I had to look for someone to take care of you, that's were i met Abirgil.

Zelo - wow oky.

Bheki - Abigirl was a sweet woman when i first met her but things took a turn when we got married. She would brainwash me into loving her kids and have this hatred towards yoy. I cannot justify that cause i also practically took part in you misery "wiping his tears". Your mother's name was Clementine Dube from Nongoma. My life came together when i met Khethiwe, she made me realise the past mistakes that ive done. I'm so sorry my daughter, i apologise from the depth of my heart " he knelt down still crying" i know you hate me now but please forgive me someday. I apologize to you too Phaka, i regret all the wrongs i did.

Phaka - i forgive you "smiling"

Zelo - i forgave you a long time ago, you know i long knew that Abigail wasn't my mother. Her actions and treatments spoke volumes so i did some digging. And i found this huge box that has her letters and her photo's. I'm just glad that you acknowledge your mistakes. I'm just glad that she found me a man like Phaka which i will forever be grateful for, truly speaking I've never been happier.

Bheki couldn't believe his ears, so all along she knew and she kept it to herself, all the pain she buried it within herself.

Bheki - i sincerely apologize from the bottom of my heart. I wish i could erase all the past and brighten your future with only happiness and prosperity "they stood up and they hugged each other for a very long time ". If you don't mind i would like to introduce to you my wife Khethiwe Khumalo and your little sister on the way.

Zelo - "smiled and they shook hands" i hope you will love my dad even in the next life. His even gained umkhaba madoda and becoming a yellow bone "they laughed"

They chilled and shared some funny moments. Simon was suprised to know that Bonge and Simon are divorced and she re-married and is living happily, he was happy for her.

Khethiwe started to have funny painful cramps but she ignored them and continued to make food until the pain striked harder and she couldn't hold it anymore. She groaned in pain holding her lower part of the belly.

Bonge - are you oky, maybe you've been standing for too long come sit.

Khethiwe tried sitting down but the pain was unbearable, she let out an excruciating scream ever making everyone stand on their feet.

Khethi - the baby ahhhhhhhhh, i think hmmmmmmmmmm

The guys didn't waste anymore time they carried her to the car cause she was now unable to walk.

Bheki - can you drive faster "sweating"

Phaka - I'M TRYING OK!

Phaka wasn't driving that moment he was flying and the screams were making them to panic more.

They arrived at the hospital and Bheki ran inside to go get a wheelchair and he ran past the Ngcobo's without noticing them.

Aunty - aibo isn't that Bheki Khumalo nangu eyosithela nesithulo esinamasondo.

"They tried stretching their necks but he was long gone"

Khethiwe was wheeled inside and the doctor's attended to her immediately cause she was now bleeding.

The doctor's did some check ups on her and they found out that she cannot do a natural birth due to the fact that her vaginal walls of uterus are not doing any justice on her, so the only option was for a c-section immediately before they loose both of the.

In no time she was sent to the operation room and only one person was allowed in, Bheki stayed behind and the rest of them went back home.

The Ngcobo family was standing outside far from the entrance waiting for Lungelo since his father asked him to stay behind. They saw a family walking out by the entrance busy laughing and fooling around. Muzi almost fainted when he saw his mother looking all beautiful and happy as ever with a buffy man next to her holding her waist. His eye's spotted Phaka holding Zelo's hand laughing. He felt his chest close, his knees becoming weak. He watched them as they all entered these expensive cars and drove off. Everyone was mute cause all this took them by suprise. Sphe had no energy in him, Muzi lost unconsciousness right on the spot making everyone panick.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Muzi had a panick attack but the doctor's assured everyone that he will be fine asl long he take his medication. His been stressing alot lately and that was the result of him to have a panick attack. But they will have to monitor him for assurance.

Sphe - yah neh i literally became glued on the same spot. She looks happy and as for Phaka I'm still shocked.

Aunty - your mother needs to come back home to her husbands house. I don't understand why she's parading with men on the streets.

Sphe - awu ngathi ubuye ukhohlwe ukuthi you wanted her gone now that she's gone you want her back. Ay cha kumnandi ukuba wena yazi.

Baba - akanithinte uGcina nimazise ukuthi siyamudinga ebuyile kanye nomakoti.

Sphe took out his phone and called Gcina but he got the news he didn't expect.

Sphe - Gcina is in Cape Town with my mum bahambe izolo ebsuku.

Aunty - oh ayke akasakwazi nokubona umnyeni wakhe "clapping her hands once"

BHEKUNINA (ZELO'S FATHER)

I'm standing here looking at my adorable daughter. God has blessed me with yet another member, my family is growing. I wouldn't be much more happier, i ficed things with my daughter by the look of things they seem to be getting along with Khethiwe better than i expected. I make my way out since the visiting hours are over.

Zelo - she looks cute.

Bheki smiled happily and spotted a familiar face mopping the floor.

Sengadlulwa kanje ngoba nakhu sengakorobha izibhedlela "said the voice"

Bheki's eyes popped out when he saw it was Abigail. She looked old and her skin looks dark in the cheek areas, she's even lost weight.

Bheki - erm hai Abigail, i didn't see you unjn.

Abigail- I'm good Bheki as you can see. Just trying to put my life in order. How are you my daughter "she looked at Zelo"

Zelo - I'm fine step mother "she smiled innocently.

Abigail- y....you told her? Why?

Bheki - it's was long over due for her go know the truth amd beside she ready knew before i even told her.

Abigail - i know i wasn't the best mother for you but i deeply apologize for my reckless behaviour. I was suppose to be a mother to you bit i became a monster. It was awful of me to ship you just like that without your consent or approval. The least was for me to check up on you but no i let money blind me. Next month I'm going back home to Joburg to start my life afresh. Again I'm truly sorry.

Zelo - i forgave you. What's left for you to do is to pick up and dust yourself so that you can start you're life on a clean slate. I pray that God will see you through.

"She took out a stash of moneywhich she didn't even bother to count and gave it to Abigail and they left".

Zelo - yah neh we're hungry.

Bheki - you just ate before we got here, I'm not hungry.

Zelo - well my babies are.

Bheki - babies what babies "asked in confusion"

Zelo - baba I'm pregnant with 6 big heads

Bheki - WHAT! Noway.

Zelo - yes way grandpa.

Bheki - I'm still fresh to be called grandpa.
Imagine this handsomeness being called grandpa ayngeke.

On the parking lot they bumped into Muzi and Aunty carrying plastic bags.

Muzi - thank goodness i bumped into you.
"Holding his chest"

Bheki - I'll be in the car.

Zelo - " she nodded in agreement" so what's up
"folding her arms"

Muzi - i know I'm the last person you want to talk too, but i need your help. Pleasr help me to reconnect with my mother and brother.

Aunty - ay kumbi ngane yami akubamhi kahle.

Zelo - ma is in Cape Town she now leaves there with her h..... "her phone rand" eish sorry can i take this. "They agreed"

Voice - when are you coming back?

Zelo - I've been gone for like 30 minutes and you're already sulking.

Voice - i miss my wife and kids "sniffs"

Zelo - aibo Phaka are ylu crying "trying not to laugh"

Voice - "he burst into tears" i want my babies ke you can stay where ever ylu are don't come home.

Zelo - your babies are fine. Oky listern I'm on my way I'm coming home.

Voice - oky i love you.

Zelo - i love you too.

Yooo guys I'm so sorry about that i have to go before my house sets on fire.

Muzi - can i atleast have my mother's contacts or Phaka's, please sisi ngyakucela.

She scrolled down her phone and she gave him his mother's digits and she left.

Aunty - ihhhee oPhaka abadlali sebemithisile njalo

Muzi - Ntombizodwa woke unake indaba zomuzi wakho uhlukane nezabantu. Kunjena nje it's all because of you, you should know your lane. You should be in your house looking after your husband and kids but you are busy causing problems.

"She kept quiet, she has been a problematic child since early ages. Her mouth is always open and always ready to say something bad or negative about other people".

They went inside and sat down waiting for the operation to be done. After 3 full hours they were informed that the surgery was a success but he is still heavily sedated.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Afyer i left the hospital i drove straight home since my big baby was crying. When i arrived i found him curled up on the couch with his eyes swollen. Michael and Nana were in stiches taking videos of him.

Zelo - bab are you ok "now i was getting really worried"

Phaka - you left me all alone to starve, you went to the hospital and didn't think about me at all. You promised me ice-cream but you, you lied to me "he started crying all over again"

Zelo - "she knew she has no come back " oky we can go get that ice-cream "but seriously she doesn't remember promising him ice-cream"

He didn't waste anymore time he ran upstairs to wear his shoes and washed his face and came back smiling like a crazy person.

Nana - this I'm defiantly uploading i captured every moment of it "laughing"

Michael - if i didn't know i would have definatly said his the one pregnant.

They walked out of the house house busy mimicking Phaka's voice and they drove straight to ice - cream palace and they sat down. They ordered and a man came out of no where and started taking pictures of them without noticing.

Phaka - i will come here everyday.

Zelo - please don't eat too much sugar.

Michael- Phaka you made my day man.

Minutes later their phones started to buzz with notifications.

Nana - omw people are seriously going crazy about you video. I also tagged you guys, hehe look at this comment:-

"OMG is that Phaka Ngcobo the fat guy. I last saw him when he was working at Amagugu Corporate. Ay cha he use to be ugly shame but now all i could say is wow.

Zelo - i think it's time we live our lives according to us not people.

#24

ICE-CREAM PALACE

Nana was busy on her phone when one comment got her attention.

Nana - wePhaka they want me to post a picture of you before the transformation .

Zelo - you knpw what i think it's time we live our lives according to us not people. I will post pictures of our wedding day so they would know that we got married before everything.

Michael- haters will definatly follow.

Nana - it's about time they know who rules this side of town.

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Baba - i think it's about time we go back home. We are graetful that the surgery was a success. Boy's i will need you to hold hands and don't let anyone come inbetween. Life is too short to hate one another for a stupid mistake your father did. Help your father gather his strenght to bring this family back together, i put everything in your hands. Lungelo it's now time to hold hands with your brother's through thick and thin.

Muzi - we will do as you request grandpa, from now onwards we stand by each other .

Later that day Muzi decided to call his mother and surprisingly a male picked up the phone and that made Muzi's heart skip a bit.

Hello anyone there

Muzi - he. Ow God "he dropped the call and decided to sendba text"

Hy mum.

I know you probably wondering why I'm contacting you. Honest truth there's a lot i would like to share with you. Life threw horrible punches at me and i gladly accepted them. It took me long to acknowledge my wrongs.

There's alot i'd like to say to you and Phaka. Can you kindly please reply to the text.

Muzi.

BONGEKILE (ZELO'S MOTHER)

I read the text over and over again. I don't wanna lie i love ny kids more than anything. As much as they hurt me they are still my kids and i kove them . I'm just glad that he finally saw the light before it was too late. I do wantbtobhave a stable relationship with them but my main concern is Phaka. How will he handle the whole situation? Will there ever be peace between them? Will be up for anything? God i need you now more than ever "letting herself cry out all the pain she endured in that house"

Zubby - ssshhh it's oky my queen everything will be oky. You're one of the strongest woman I've ever come across and feel inlove with, where's that woman who is good in giving advice to people who are broken? Where's that woman who knows how to fix broken spirits.

Cry all the pain out if it will make you feel beeter. "She cried until she hicupps" feeling any better my queen.

Bonge - thank you, i guess i needed that. When will we fly back to Durban?

Zubby - in two weeks time my love. I'm sure the poor guy has fainted why don't you reply to the text "smiling"

She grabbed her phone and texted back:-

Muzi i no longer live in Durban. I will be available in two weeks time, but i will let update you.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

He couldn't believe that his mother texted back honestly he was just trying his luck and God came through for him. Now what's left is to rich out to Phaka but doesn't have his contacts nor house address. Guess he will just have to wait for those two weeks. After the incident he had at the hospital the doctor found out that his having heart disease even though they did not specify , at the moment he doesn't want to tell anyone cause he doesn't want them to stress about him, they are still focusing on his father. He keeps taking medication as instructed.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Phaka has been very clingy, i don't understand, he has all the hormones, morning sickness, cravings amd I'm just perfectly fine. His so inlove with ice-cream and Amahewu, what a combination.

We decided to have our own page on facebook and Twitter Zelo and Phaka amd damn we have alot of followers in a short period of time. We posted our childhood pictures, wedding and our current pictures. Most people are amazed about Phaka's spirit. Some comments were nasty and some were encouraging.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I have fimally agreed to the radio interview since they have been nagging me. I saw today's newspaper article and i was making headlines. This picture looks like it was taken at that ice-cream palace.

I'm happy with my life changes, my wife makes me happy and alive, my business is booming. We have started to build the shelter for the homeless and i must say I'm pretty impressed. I see everyone glued on the tv screen at the cafeteria. I see my picture pop up and i ask one of the workers to turn up the volume.

WHO IS HE? THE MYSTERIOUS MAN WHO SUDDENLY BECAME FAMOUS. RUMOUR HAS IT ALL THAT HIS FILTHY RICH BUT LIVES UNDERCOVER. IF YOU WANT TO KNOW MORE ABOUT HIM AND HIS LIFE STAY TUNED AND LISTERN TO DJ ZAZA ON *****FM FROM 12 TO 3PM. WE WILL DEFINATLY LIKE TO KNOW ABOUT THIS GUYS. THIS IS SAMANTHA

NDABA REPORTING TO YOU LIVE IN DURBAN.

Phaka slowly turned and walked away back to his office to make a few calls regarding the farm he wants to buy back in KwaZulu.

1 WEEK LATER

DAY OF THE INTERVIEW

Everyone was glued to their radios at home, hospitals, farms and nation wide waiting for the show to start. Some were happy for him and some were hating saying he just wants attention. The staff members at his workplace were gathered in the boardroom since it was big to accommodate everyone. Muzi and Sphe walked in looking lost.

Muzi - what are we doing here again?

Man - our bosses will be having an interview live on radio. Sshhh the show has started.

Dj Zaza - good day every listeners, i know most of you guy's are wondering who is this man behind the expensive suits. Guy's if only you could see what i'm seeing, the power couple. I actually admire you guys and you look cute together. So tell me more about you guys, will start with the lady here.

Zelo - well I'm Sibekezelo Ngcobo known as Zelo married to this wonderful man right her next to me. I actually don't talk much "she smiled"

Dj Zaza - and your beauty is magnificent. Let's talk about the gentle man here, who are you? You have been keeping everyone on their toes.

Phaka - "laughed with that horskey deep sexy voice" the name is Mphakamseni Christopher Ngcobo. Where do I start?

Dj Zaza - tell us about your childhood life. I see your pictures are trending on social media platform.

Phaka - I didn't actually have an exciting childhood. My life was miserable as always and people were making it worse since I was bullied a lot. But my mum did all she could to put that smile on my face, she was my best friend and a best mother a son could ever ask for.

Dj Zaza- i see ypu getting emotional there. So tell me about your love life where did you guys meet and how?

Phaka - it was actually an arrange marriage. I meet her the day she walked down the aisle with her father looking beautiful as ever. As ugly as i was she feel inlove with me. When we got married i had nothing like nothing at all. I was just an accountant living in a 1 bedroom flat. All the glitters that i have today it's because of her, she pushed me and backed me through every obstacle. She wpuld fight everyone who made bad comments about me. I fell inlove with her fiestyness, she knows which buttons to press when I'm not oky. I love my wife more than life itself.

Dj Zaza - wow even your eye's sparkle when you talk about your wife you even made her cry . So what did you do for a living?

Phaka - I'm actually the new owner of the Oil And Gas Station. I recently bought another business which is Amagugu Coporate, I'm also building a shelter worth 8 million for homeless people, I'm also in a process of buying the farm back in KZN. To answer your question I'm just a business man who's a hustler.

Dj Zaza - wow I'm speechless and impressed. Thank you so much for agreeing to be here with us to know more about you and sharing your experience. So listener's who ever wants to follow them on their pages on facebook it's Zelo and Phaka on twitter it's Zelo_Phaka01.

Thank you somuch for listening guys and please my people don't drink and drive. Peace!

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

The interview was the best wish i could parade on the streets and walk naked but work awaits me. We headed straight to work finding everyone waiting for us. They minute they saw us screaming and cheering fpr us, it was overwhelming. Just a year ago i was nothing and today I'm something. Having a wife like Zelo just makes my life easier and smooth. I pray whatever obstacle we face we shall concor them all.

Phaka - oky everyone thank you somuch fpr making us do a grand entrance "they laughed" we may go back to work. "They all went to their work stations while Phaka and Zelo went to their office".

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

I couldn't believe my eyes and ears. So the owner that they always praise is my own brother and i work for him and his actually my boss and i didn't know. This is too much and it's even hard to process. The person i use to totally undermine is actually my own boss "wow" . My throat became dry instantly. I watched them as they walk away without even noticing me hand in hand. I'm even amazed that Zelo stayed all this time and made him a better man, by the look of things they are so much inlove. My heart is beating very slow, i think I'm going to have another panick attack. I found it hard to breathe, my heart is failing again. My knees are getting weaker and weaker. I tried to control my breathings but it was too impossible. If i die today God please accept my soul i offer myself to you, everything hurts. I let my body take over and i fell.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

Everything happend so fast, from the interview go Muzi loosing himself and collapsing. The paramedics came right in time and he was rushed to the hospital since he wasn't breathing. Phaka showed me another side of him a side of kindness, the side i never knew it existed. After allthe suffering we caused him he still had the hearts to care. He went with Muzi to hospital in an ambulance. I had to go the house and change since i urinated myself out of shock "chucks". When i arrived i took a shower and soaked the clothes that smell pf urine. I have no car so i am forced to take a taxi to the hospital, atleast i smell fresh. How am i going to face him? What do i say to him? I ended up having positivity and went inside finding Phaka looking outside the window. Damn he looked good.

Sphe - "clears throat" i don't even know what to say or even begin. "He tried to continue but his voice failed him and ended up bursting into tears"

Phaka - "he looked at him with somuch emotions running around his head. Part of him wants to have a relationship with his brother's and another part is scared to death. Seeing him like this looking all broken is a fucked up situation" it's ok Spha "they hug for the first time and that made him cry even more until he was calmer"

Sphe - I'm sorry brother, i .....

Phaka - i forgive you, let's focus on Muzi everything else shall fall into space "they sat down as they waited for the doctor"

SIBESIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

What an incident, i never expected this at all. I will try not to stress i gotta think about my penguins, but i can't just sit and not worry about my husband. Is he fine wherever he is? Are they giving him a hard time? I ended up calling Gcina to go to the hospital. I also called his mother but didn't take the news lightly.

AT THE HOSPITAL

Gcina arrived and found Muzi and Sphe speaking to the doctor at his office.

Doc - "sighs" he had a heart failure again.

Phaka - again "shocked"

Doc - yes he fainted a few days back and we discovered that he had a panick attack.

Phaka - will he be fine? How bad is it and what's the cause of it?

Doc - we actually discovered that he has Coronary heart disease also called CAD atherosclerotic heart disease. It actually caused by alot of stress.

Sphe - I'm so lost.

Doc - ok so this diseases develops when the major blood vessels that supply your heart become damage. The coronary arteries supply blood, oxygen and nutrients to your heart. A buildup of plaque can narrow these arteries, decreasing blood flow to your heart. Eventually the reduced blood flow may cause chest pains and shortness of breathe. A complete blockage could cause a heart attack. At this point chances of him surving are very slim unless we get a new heart donor for him "he walked away"

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

It's so peaceful and the air is so refreshing. I look back, part of me wants to go back and another part of me wants to stay here.

Everything is so soft but if I stay here I won't be able to fix the heart's I've broken, fixing my life and correcting my mistakes. I still need my mother's love "I sigh as I look back". If I go back will I be happy? Will I be able to live in peace? . I guess it wouldn't be a bad to start my life all over again.

He started walking along a white long passage full of sunshine.

He started to shake uncontrollably on the hospital bed. Machines were beeping like crazy.

Doc - were loosing him "shouting"

He shaked until he stopped and everything was dead silent.

Doc - did we loose him? Can i have the time of death!

BONGEKILE (PHAKA'S MOTHER)

My day was going just fine until i got the devastating news ever. My son is in hospital amd his having heart problems. Could it be too much stress? I should be celebrating my son's victory but I'm crying tears of sadness and pain. I booked the earliest flight for tomorrow. I'm having a mental brake down and i thank Zubby for being the man that he is and i appreciate him alot. His helping me pack my bags and his also coming along even though i told him to stay behind but he insisted on coming with, i decided to let him be. I just pray that my son is not in a critical condition.

My lovely people i hope you are enjoying your last day in 2020. I hope and pray we achieve more in 2021, remember always put God first. I wish you a happy new year and don't forget to wear your masks always. Love you all

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

After leaving the hospital i went straight home. I took Sphe with after seeing him that distraught and very quite. Our childhood wasn't exciting but this moment right her made things a bit complicated, hope one day he will accept me as his brother. Whe we arrived at home we found Zelo passed out on the couch, i scooped he up and took her to the bedroom. I found the guys busy on the kitchen.

Sphe - wow you're house looks like a mall "and now remembers the guy who gave them the lift once said this was his bosses house, his even afraid to sit on the high stools in the kitchen"

Phaka - mall, you're insane "shaking his head"

Gcina - you haven't seen nothing yet. Wait till you see my room it's aboom.

Sphe - you have a room here "sounding shocked"

Gcina - yea, after i left home this is where i was all along. Buti Phaka when is mum coming?

Phaka - in the morning.

Sphe received a call and his facial expression changed when he heard the news. He sat down trying to balance himself not believing. He though things were going alright all along.

Phaka - what is it? Was it the hospital? Talk man you scaring us now.

Sphe - my girlfriend just dumped me saying saying I'm not good enough for her and that i earn peanuts. She asked me to move out of her apartment wow.

Gcina - the one and only Nqo.

"Sphe nodded his head". At this point we are homeless. Ntombizodwa banned us to set foot on our father's house and ordered her daughter and husband to go live in our fathe's house. All this while we though Nqo understood the situation but clearly she didn't. Where will they go now, guess it's time to go live on the streets.

Zelo was standing by the passage listening to their conversation, she felt bad for them. What she has learnt in life is that, no matter how bad people treat you, don't treat them the same rather kill them with kindness.

Zelo - you can live in my place till you get back on your feet.

"That came out as a shock cause no one was expecting it. Phaka was amazed. Sphe went down on his knees and hugged her legs.

Sphe - i don't even knlw what to say or how to thank you but I'm very much gratefull.

They sent Lungelo a text informing him about the movements and to pack while at it. They only came with close, everything in the apartment belonged to Nqobile.

He cannot thank his brother's wife enough for what she has done for them. Zelo's house was still in one piece with furniture inside, just needs some spring cleaning.

SIMON (PHKA'S FATHER)

I thank God the operation was a success. The doctor's say i was out for two full days, my body is still tired and my back is aching. I hear that my kids were checking up on me even in the dead. It's just annoying knowing you can't do things for yourself. I can't go out, i might get an infection which will require another surgery. I must heal first.i option to listen to the radio for the updates. What has my country been up to while i was asleep. I close my eyes listerning to the sound of the radio.

Am i crazy or what, is it me or is it the radio releasing false information. I need to sue them when i get out of her. "The nurse made her way in"

Nurse - finally you're awake, i thought the doctor was lieing. Ow you listening to the repeat. Ay cha this guy has made his name for himself.

Simon - i think were being feed wrong information here.

Nurse - they were live yesterday. I even stalked the guy "she took out her phone and scoled down her gallery" this is the guy right here, my crush. "She gave Simon her phone". I wish i would marry him one day, but i don't think this guy will ever cheat he love his wife dearly.

Simon's hand were shaking, so the omnibus interview he just listened is real. So Phaka made it in life and his now a multi millionaire. How's it even possible, he felt his bed wet and became ashamed. He took the phone and gave it back to the nurse.

Nurse - you should have seen the type of clothes he was wearing here at the hospital. You should have seen the nurse's drooling over him.

Simon- hospital, this hospital doing what "asked out of curiosity"

Nurse- i heard his brother was admitted.

Simon - brother admitted, which brother?

Nurse - i don't know Mzamo , Menzi something like that "fixing the pillows and checking the drip"

Simon - Muzi "his heart skipped a bit"

Nurse- yes that one.

Simon - what happened? "He was now starting to sweat in fear"

Nurse - heart problems and he needs a new heart as in today, shame poor guy. His been in a coma for day's now.

They nurse walked out leaving Simon dumbfounded and zoned out. So his son is in the same hospital as him fighting for his life. Is this still a punishment for his doings. If yes God please punish me and forgive my kids.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

Morning came and we have to go to the hospital to check on Muzi if there's any progress. This is draining Phaka more than anything.

I noticed something yesturday in Sphe's ex apartment. They way Nqo was looking at my husband like a snack didn't sit well with me, even Sphe noticed but kept quite. Let not this be another Amanda, what if he gets attempted and cheat? What will happend to me?

Phaka - i know what you thinking "sitting next to her holding her hand" . I saw it too and honestly she was making me so uncomfortable, that's why i pulled you mpre close to me cause her eye's were burning my skin.

Zelo - I'm just sacred that maybe won't find me attractive anymore, maybe you will fall for her and leave me.

Phak - NEVER in a million year's i would live the love of my life. I love and enjoy waking up next tou you, seeing those full boobs full makes me horny. I see woman everyday and no one comes close to you. They can lust over me but no woman will ever tluch what belongs to my wife. And thank you for carrying my penguins "brushing her tummy leaving wet kisses on her neck. Gcina barged into their room disturbing the moment making Phaka annoyed"

Gcina - mama is here "jumping up and down waving his hands in the air"

Phaka - how old are you again?

Gcina - 15 "he went out"

Phaka left Zelo fixing the bed and went for a quick shower since he was in the gym and his sweaty and minutes later he was done. His phone beeped indicating that there was a message.

Phaka - can you check that message babe maybe it's the contractor's. They were suppose to send me a list of items that they will need.

Zelo - wow "throwing the phone on the bed and her eyes became teary instant. Phaka rushed over to her cause he noticed she was crying.

Phaka - babe what is it?

Zelo - check your phone you will find the answer "she sat down and wore her shoes"

Phaka - WTF who in their right sense of mind would fucken send me this. God is testing me, I'm being tested here. If i don't sort this out now it will become a problem. Baby i will meet you at the hospital "he kissed her and he walked out banging the door. She has never seen him this angry and pissed. What will he do to this person"

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

He drove like a manic to the minister's house, he didn't even wanted to get inside of the gatehe just parked outside an marched to the house trying to calm his anger down.

Minister - what brings you here in the morming, is everything alright with the cotractors?

Phaka - everything is good. Where's your daughter?

Minister - she left for work, you can come check her later on on you could drive to her workplace.

Phaka stood there and thought for a while, why not play the game she's playing. Next time she would know never to mess with people's husband's. Embarrassing her in front of the world won't be a bad thing.

Phaka - it's oky I'll just call her and set an appointment.

He arrived at the hospital finding everyone there but unfortunately there's no progress in Muzi's case. He's still in a coma not responding to any treatment given and the doctor's are starting to lose hope.

A nurse disturbed their silence of peace.

Nurse - greetings, excuse me sire "referring to Phaka" there is a man that will like to have a word with you. He told me to be on the look put for you incase you come to the hospital.

Bonge - you can go. Maybe it's someone who needs help son.

He didn't want to go but didn't want to look disrespectful in front of everyone. He nodded and followed the nurse along the long passage not knowing where his going. What if it's one of those pranks, he doesn't trust anyone other than his wife.

They went inside the ward and saw the man he thought he will never see again. His feet became wobbly and he wanted to turn and walk back. He decided to walk towards him, it's time he faced him and not become a coward.

Simon - ndondana "with a shaky voice Phaka remained quite not too sure how to respond". I know I'm not your favorite person, I've done horrible things to you and your mother. Honest truth my sister made me believe lies that she created in that sick head of hers and stupid me i believed her not knowing I'm tearing my family apart. I hate myself for everything i did. Can you please grant me this one request, please call your mother for me i know she's here, please son "his eye's became teary"

Phaka sighed as he looked at him with begging eyes laying on his hospital bed. He went out to go call his mother.

Phaka - he request your presences, and he didn't tell me why.

Bonge - aibo "shocked she turned to look at her husband Zubby"

Zubby - you can go, I'm sure he won't bite.

Phaka - pops are you sure. I mean h.....

Zubby - I'm sure. I will be in the car with Gcina.

Gcina - if I'm going to sit on the driver's side
"they walked out"

On the other side of the entrance Sphe walked in with his hands buried in his pockets. He saw a nurse carrying a lot of heavy files and he offered his help.

Nurse - woah thank you "wiping her unexciting sweat on her forehead. Sphe smiled admiring this dark thick beauty madam. His been always been attracted to slim yellow bone. Her skin is flourishing with that melodic voice.

Nurse - "snapping her fingers at him with beautiful shaped nails" are you still here with me or you're in yoir own country world.

Sphe - you're beauty is making me like this , seriously I'm captured "he looked at her name tag Angela Cele" indeed you're an angel.

Nurse - I'm flattered "holding her chest dramatically'

Sphe - will be having a braai at my brother's place this weekend and i was told not to attend unless if i bring my plus one. Can you be my plus one.

Nurse - and what will you introduce me as?

Sphe - my wife "he took out his phone and gave it to her" don't try to deny me my rights.

Nurse - "at first she was hesistant but ended up punching her numbers"

Sphe - i prefer if you save it as my wife not by your name "she smiled innocently and did as she was told"

Nurse - done "handing him back his phone"

Sphe - thanks i will call you. "He kissed her cheeks leaving her flushed drawing circles with her toes and watched him as he walked out.

Phaka saw him approaching and his has that silly grin on his face he can't even notice him.

Phaka - you're smiling like an idiot, what's the catch. "With that deel voice"

Sphe - "he jumped in fright making him scream a lil" you startled me wena maan. I just saw my beautiful wife "smiling like a retarched"

Phaka - huh, as in Nqo "asked in confusion".

Don't tell me about that one, that ship sealed a long time ago.

Phaka - that reminds me "taking out his phone and showed him the pictures". This right her made my wife cry this morning. And this bitch once came to my office to seduce me in front of my wife. How can you send a married man picture's of your private part. I want to deal with her and I'm so clueless how.

Sphe - i long knew that there's another man involved but i didn't know it was you "looking at the picture's"

Phaka - clearly this girl is sick in her head, how can she stoop so low.

Sphe - I'm not even made or heartbroken I'm just upset that she had to go for a married man who happens to be my brother. Tell you what play her like the fool she is. Agree on meeting her and then boom i tag along. I just want to see her facial expression.

Phaka - will she get off my back cause honestly i don't want to fight with my wife over stupid hores.

Sphe - it will trust me, but i will advise you to inform your wife about the plan.

Zelo - what plan "approaching them from the behind"

Phaka informed her of the plan he thinks it might be right to get Nqo of her back.

Zelo - oky count me in Sphe - then it's settled. Let me go and see the old man cause Musi enjoys sleeping here.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

My relationship with my brother is getting better day by day. He showed me that loyalty is very important. If it was another guy he would have jumped for the opportunity. I admire his honesty and charisma.

I decided to go see the old man today since im off and try to make ends meet with my mum. As I'm approaching i hear a familiar voice. No it can't be, is this the same woman that gave birth to me. I stood there like a froze chicken not knowing what to say. My eye's blinked with tears.

Bonge - come give ypur mama a hug.

"She opened her arms for me, i didn't waste anymore time or object. I just threw myself in her arms and felt the mother's love and cried in her arms.

Sphe - mama I'm sorry "still crying"

Bonge - it's oky son we all make mistakes. I thank God for bringing yor head back to ypur senses. "Wiping his tears"

Phaka - sorry to disturb the moment, dad said i must remind you that you have a meeting in an hour.

Bonge - ow yes i totally forgot. Simon think about what I've said.

Simon - you said, who's that dad?

Phaka - "clearing his throat" it's my step dad Mr Simon.

Simon - step dad "asking Bonge".

Bonge - after i divorced i re-married.

Simon - WHAT!!

Bonge - take care amd make sure ypu recover, your kids still need ypu "she walked out"

Simon - Phaka wait before you go. Who's that man that your mother married?

Phaka - Zubby Godson.

Simon's eyes became dry making it hard for him to blink. So she married a man that always had a crush on her. So he was still waiting for her all these years. He waited for the opportunity and he striked. Maybe dieing will be the best option. He took the pills and looked at them. He swolled one by one until his eyes became heavy and he allowed darkness to take over.

#28

SIMON (PHAKA'S FATHER)

I didn't recognize her, i felt my crippled legs getting weak and i knew right that moment that i have peed on myself. What have i done to my family, i lost a good soul over what exactly nothing. God has punished me enough. I've never seen her skin so glowing, I've never seen that happy face before, that smile she had on her face was happiness and more. It pains me to see her so happy with another man even Phaka has warmed up to him and already calling him dad. I admit i have failed tremendously in life, basically from hero to zero in split seconds. Come to think of it all of the people that used to help me destroy my family, they are still happily married and living with their families. How can i be such a fool, i was a fool amongst fools. This is too much for me and i cannot stomach it guess i was not making her happy after all. She didn't even wait for me she just moved on like i didn't exist just like that. I don't blame her i blame my stupid self. I never though that one day i would try and commit suicide.

Doc - we will have to keep a close eye on you. You are suicidal, suicide is not a game. I'll option for a therapist to walk this journey with you. Remeber suicide is not an answer to your problems. Face them and fight with your demons don't take the easy way out.

All this time he was blabbing talking nonsense. I just want to die why can't they just understand. The pain I'm feeling is too much.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

Zelo's place is pretty cool, it's actually 100% better than Nqo's apartment. Once i have enough moola in my account i will definatly buy this house.

Lungelo - hehe so the girl sent nude pics to buti Phaka.

Sphe - yeap, honestly i don't care yazi.

Lungelo - remember that crazy idea that my mum had pressuring me to propose to her.

Sphe - why didn't you do it. I thought you like her.

Lungelo - she's not my type that's why i was delaying the whole thing. I didn't feel it.

Sphe - ya neh. So you up for the braai this weekend.

Lungelo - yeap, it's about time i have a relationship with my brother's and i must admit i lobe my new room it's a high i tell you.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

This girl is starting to be a nuisance period. Sphe adviced me to but another phone and make sure i don't register it using my name as well as the new sim.

All the pics she sent i transferred them to the new phone and wiped every cnversation we had on my phone as well as hers witout her knowing. If i want to play this game i must make sure that nothing leads back to me. My wife does all the talking with this skank and my wide finds it ver amusing. I don't want anything that will cost my marriage.

Zelo - this girl is so obsessed with you it's starting to bore me, sending all those pics makes her looks desparate. This is another Amanda, i wish to know where she is.

Phaka - I'm just happy Sphe advised me with this i would have done something worse honestly and ruin my reputation I'm just trying to build. I don't want anything breaking my wife's heart.

Zelo - thank you for considering my feelings amd being honest with me that alone truly means alot.

Phaka - i would do anything to put a smile on my wife's face. You are one hell of the most important thing that has ever happened to me and i would never allow you to slip away from my heart.

Zelo - and i love you too.

He kissed her i a very slow motion making her eye's become drunk inlove. Phaka smirked looking at her lustful eyes.

Phaka - let's go have a shower "pulling her towards the bathroom"

After showering she went to the closet to look for something respectful to ware since her father and mother in-law are around. Phaka followed shortly wiping water dripping from his head walking towards the closet and found Zelo bent down looking for only God know what.

This site right her was making him crazy, he noticed that that she shaved again. Wherever he sees her he becomes hyper sexual and his boody rushes with hunger. He slowly walked towards her and grabbed her ass.

Phaka - don't move, your position is making me go crazy wifey.

His voice was now more deep and very sexy making Zelo become wet instantly. He bent down and muffed her from her bend and she balanced herself with the shoe rack. He licked her ass like there's no tomorrow, he slid his middle finger making her inhale the sexual aroma closing her eye's. He riched for his shaft massaging it up an down.

Phaka - still good, i don't want to to bend for too long.

She nodded in agreement, this is an advantage of making love with a pregnant woman carrying multiples of penguins. You have to find the most comfortable position and I'm not complaining.

He made her stand facing him and he picked her up making her sit on the closet counter and made her open her legs wide open with another on his shoulder. He positioned himself and entered the heaven's making her gasp for air biting her loer lip. At that moment Phaka was in could 9 enjoying his mystery world.

"Fuck" as he started to move slowly in and out of her. That slippery and warmth made him go crazy.

"Ohh heavens" he cried like a small baby, he can never get tired of his woman. The pace quickened up and sex emotion was starting to take over. He went deep but not too deep.

He started pumping her a little bit faster making her scream in a squeaky voice grabbing his neck.

He then moved faster and faster groaning in pleasure.

"Jesus don't kill me" he said in that deep husky voice. Zelo went crazy not knowing what to hold on to. The screams and moans were too loud, the closet counter was starting to brake on the side because of the heavy movements.

"Babe give it to me harder" she tells him as she was running out of breath.

He wasted no time and went faster making her scream even more. She held on to those muscline arms as he went on and on. Their sweat was all over the place.

"Maria mother of Jesus" he cried "mamayo I'm burning" minutes later he came and groaned out loud.

Zelo - damn i don't feel my legs"trying to catch her breath"

Phaka- you are seriously going to kill me Mrs Ngcobo "still panting and balancing himself on the closet counter. He picked her up and they went for a quick shower"

Zelo - I'm hungry.

Phaka - let's go make food.

They went downstairs finding Zubby and Bonge on the couch cuddling.

Zubby - next time remind me to bring me earphones along. My ears drums are damaged.

Bonge just looked at them and smiled. She never knew that one day that his son will be this madly inlove, good looking not forgetting a millionaire. Who would have thought that one day she would be a grandmother of 6 and still more to come. Who wpuld have though that life will turn out to be this beautiful for him. God really works in alot of ways. She's gratefull that he doesn't have any grudges against his brother's and father. If she does now she will rest in peace.

Phaka - eish "scratching the back of his head and they cracked into laughter. As they were still laughing there was a loud noise of falling and breaking items"

Zelo - i want my closet counter "she burst into tears making Zubby and Phaka laugh and she cried even more and they went silent after seeing that the situation is getting bad". You will pay for this.

SIMON (PHAKA'S FATHER)

TWO WEEKS LATER

I was slowly slipping into depression. I see them everyday on tv holding and kissing, showing her affection which i failed to do. She's owning a clothing store in Cape Town, she now wears expensive brands, living in a luxurious house. I was very stingy towards her, i never wanted her to work cause i wanted to ask for money from me all the time and sometimes make fun of it. I was suppose to make her life shine like this and what did i do i turned my house into a circus. Worst news my son is still the same and there is no change, he had a seizure in one of the days. I'm drained and tired, i was also examined and was told that my spinal cord is swollen and the screws where taken out. I had alot of fuild at the back that needed to be drained out. Thee most devastating news is i won't be able to walk again no matter what i try.

I took it upon myself to make a decision without informing anyone but i will write my kids letters to make them understand my decision. What will i be living for cause honestly i have nothing to hold on too. Ntombizodwa will never know peace in her life and i will make sure of it. Today is my last day on earth, I'm glad that i made peace with my wife and kids. Bongekile will always be my wife even in the next life. I let it all sink in i have failed in life but there's no turning back and undo the wrongs but rather fix my son's life. I don't and won't have regrets of the decision I've made. This is the best decision I've ever made. I'm going to be a grandfather and I'm happy that he has a wife that truly adores him even though it was an arranged marriage.

I look at these doctors wearing surgical coats, masks and gloves.

Doc - take a deep breathe and think of all the good moments you once had on this planet.

I feel my breath being sucked out of my body at that moment i know God has accepted me.

SIBEKEZELO (ZELO)

I look at my husband sitting at the edge of the bed with his big eyes wide open and i knew right that moment that all is not well.

Zelo - what's wrong "folding the washing"

Phaka - that was the hospital we are needed and it's urgent.

Zelo - his not dead my love and don't even think about it. Be positive.

Phaka - ok "sighs" for you I'll stay positive.

Zelo - now get your ass up amd lets go I'll fold these later.

Gcina - am i also needed, I'm still young and all.

Phaka - stop whinning like a woman.

He made funny faces as they drove to the hospital, when they arrived they went straight to the doctor's office since he was already expecting them.

Doc - i apologise for calling youll in such notice but I'm afraid i don't have good news. Well i could say i have good and bad news.

Phaka - start with the bad first and take us out of the misery.

Doc - your father was not getting any better so he optioned for the easy way out. He donated his heart to his son. Mr Ngcobo was slowly slipping into depression and that lead him try to attempt suicide by drinking alot of pills.

Phaka - why were we not informed about this "sounding frustrated"

Doc - because he wanted to die peacefully without you guys trying your best to stop him. He believed it was his time. I don't have all the answers you may have but he wrote letters for you guys. "He opened the drawer and took out the letters and gave it to Phaka". He said don't hate him for a decision he took cause it made him happy.

Sphe - so h...how's Muzi?

Doc - it's a miracle his very well and breathing on his own. Surprisingly he woke up at night. He is still heavily sedated which is understandable.

Sphe - wow, so dad is no more.

Doc - I'm sorry for your loss. His body was sent to the mortuary right after the sugery. Don't hold on to the past, try to over look things by seeing the future.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

This is hard to believe that my day is no more just like that. Maybe it was for the best amd maybe his in a better place. I wonder what made him slipp into depression.

Lungelo - yah neh life.

Sphe - we have to contact the rest of the family.

Gcina - i wasn't close to him but he was starting to change for the better.

Life is full of thorns you just have to be careful not to step on them. Who would have thought that one day we would lose our father this way. It's sad cause I wanted him to see me perish, getting married and have a lot of kids. I don't hate him but I was slowly forgiving him for his mistakes.

Phaka - let's go home, I'm not even going to the office I just want to rest.

Later that day they informed the family members and they were beyond broken. They thought things were okay on their side but clearly it was going South. They have lost a breadwinner, a person who always knew whether they were hungry or not. His father long ago accepted that he would be losing his son. He somehow had that connection in his dream and he was prepared for any outcome. On the other hand his mother was devastated.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Days went by and we found out that his funeral cover has lapsed due to nonpayment. It was a stumbling block for me because I had to pay for everything, Muzi is still in hospital and he will be released on the day of the funeral and live with us. My wife orders. Lungelo called me earlier saying aunt Ntombizodwa is a commanding nuisance who wants everything that belonged to my father. Muzi is not here so it's a must I man up. This woman is surely a devil in human form it's time she knows that she doesn't belong here.

I look at my father's house and it looked vandalized, they yard is dirty but yet they claim that people live here. I asked my wife to stay behind cause i don't want here stressing she has a high risk pregnancy to stress about not unnecessary things. I made my way in and found them sitting on the mattress as soon there eyes landed on me their mouths were literally on the floor.

Ntombi - ufunani wena la haven't you done enough damage with that cult of yours.

Phaka - i was expecting this. Don't you get tired of runtting like a toothless dog. It's funny how you fight for everything you've never worked for in this miserable life of yours. Do you fight you inlaws like this when someone dies, strip them off everything sinve you're a greedu busted.

Sometimes i wonder why gogo doesn't send you to your father's house.

Ntombi - what the hell did you just say you busted child.

Phaka - ow your mother didn't tell you. Mkhulu right here is not your father. Your father is that drunkard Zulu. Who's the busted child in this house me or you. So what im trying to say is this was never you're home to begin with go and fight them in your father's house not here. This is our house our father's house. Once the funeral is over i want each and every ant leaving here to pack there shit and go out that gate. This house is belong to us.

Ntombi - ma why keep quite when his insulting you like this.

Her mother was now a crying mess and everyone was waiting for a response. Baba was smiling standing alone at the corner. He longed wish for this to happen and ut has finally happened Phaka standing up fpr himself and brother's. Marriage really built him to be a better man.

Ma - I'm sorry "sobbs" it was never my intention to hurt you like this. I made a mistake please forgive me. Baba please.....

Everyone gasped with this revelation, no wonder Ntombizodwa was rebellious and so irresponsible. She's not a Ngcobo after all. Baba just stood there and looked at his wife sobbing with crocodile tears, he smile and shaked his head and walked out living her whaling out loud throwing herself on the floor.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

The atmosphere was tense and i didn't really care less knowing that i caused all the drama. Why would i care about her feelings when she made my life a living hell in my own home. I'm no longer the old Phaka that they use to bully and make fun of. I will be standing my ground from today onwards, tolerating bulshit has ended. I look at ma's facial expression after telling Ntombizodwa, it was actually priceless. Everyone was shocked and i held my head up high making my grandpa smile in agreement. Honestly it felt good like a huge painful stone has lifted off my shoulders and i feel less tense and free. I see baba standing under the tree looking outside the gate i decided to go to him and apologize for my behavior earlier.

Phaka - Ngcobo "he turned around and looked at him"

Baba - aah i knew that someday you will make me proud. Remember when i told you that one day they will worship the ground you walk on and you didn't believe me.

Phaka - ay baba, maybe do you have to remind me?

Baba - remember what i told you after you got married about your wife "smiling".

Phaka - that she will be the woman who will wipe my tears and put smile on my face

"grinning"

Baba - and more is still yet to come just watch the space. I'm glad of the encounter that you pulled there, you were brave and made me proud son.

Phaka - I'M sorry about you know the r.....

Baba - kanti relax i long knew was just waiting for this day to come and it has finally come.

Phaka - so what are you going to do about it?

Baba - nothing son. I'll just wait for the wife called karker to visit them "they laughed and continued to talk about the funeral arrangements, later they drove to the hospital to check on Muzi".

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

I almost lost my life because of the unknown hatred that i had. I'm thankful for a second chance in life and i will make sure that i will embrace this chance for the best. But something has been worrying me, my brother's are not well and i can see that but they refuse to tell me saying everything is fine. I need to use the bathroom I'm so pressed and i need someone to help me stand i can walk on my own.

Muzi - excuse me miss can you help me stand.

This nurse has been on my side ever since i woke up. Her dark skin beauty makes her look more beautiful. She helped me stand and gave me the walking stick and i took baby steps to the bathroom. When i came back my ward was filled with noise, seriously i don't know how baba manage to be around them.

Sphe - mafavuke don't tell me you abusing my wife "kisiing her cheeks making her blush"

Lungelo - i never thought I'll see this day. The whole Phe is inlove aykhona.

Muzi - clearly I've missed out on a lot. This shows that you won't suffer, hold on for your dear life. She's been taking good care of me

Phaka - that reminds me i need someone that will help Zelo. You know her pregnancy is a high risk one so i don't want to take any chances.

Hiring a nurse to look after you at home will make you recover quickly.

Sphe - do you know how expensive nurses are.
Why not get some i mean anyone who is in need of a job. You have babies on the way and the funeral preps damaged your pocket alot.

Baba - his right son just look for someone who's going to have reasonable pay check than the expensive one.

Phaka - i don't know anyone "he sighed"

Angela - I'm sorry to intrude your conversation but theirs my neighbour who is indeed of a job as in tomorow anything will do at the moment. I just want her out of that house "looking down playing with her fingers"

Phaka- why "frowning".

Angela - cause "clearing her throat" her step father and brother's rape her every chance they get and her mother defends them "wiping her tear"

Sphe - but if we take her won't we put her at risk maybe Blackberry yami"

Angela - "thought for a while" if maybe sis Zelo or mama go to her place it would be nore better since they are women.

Sphe - oky.

Muzi - ngyaphuma ksasa which means it's something that has to be done today.

Phaka - can we have the address luckily my mother is still around.

Angela was ecstatic that her friend will be out of that hell hole and do something for herself. She has endured abuse since primary at her early age but kept it all inside. Her step father brought his drunkard two sons along to live with them and ever since they have been making her a sex doll. She sometimes sleep outside, if I'm around i help her out but if I'm not around life is jard for her. She's my only one true best friendi will never turn my back on no matter what.

Angela - here "handing them a piece of paper" please don't tell them that i told you cause they will cause havoc.

They stayed a little longer and later on they all went to Phaka's mansion.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I found my two favourite woman having strawberries mixed with coke, that's her everyday juice and damn it taste bitter. I look at my mother's face and i can tell that she's having a hard time swallowing, shame I'm just happy
I'm not in that position she's in.

Bonge - that God you back. You're wife has been missing so so badly "standing up trying to run away"

Zelo - ah mah we still having our shakes and i don't miss Phaka. I almost forgot have you ever tried scones dipped in condence milk, let me go make it for you, you should try it "she stood up excitedly and ran to the kitchen"

Bonge - i can't take this anymore.

Phaka - now you know what i will be facing for the next entire 7 months gosh sengyabona. Anyway we need to talk.

They sat down and waited for Zelo to come back to talk about the issue at hand as Phaka informed them abojt the issue.

Bonge- how old is she "sounding heart broken".

Phaka - not sure 19.

Zelo - ok so now that we know the situation it's better. And they were right the nurse will be hella expensive and the girl will be good if we pay her R5000 plus she will be living with them in the house, cause she will be coking and cleaning for them too.

Bonge- i will also add a little.

Minutes later they drove to Petermarizburg to Nomkhosi's home town. They drove and asked around until they were parked in front of a one room house. There were no windows, a white girl peeped through a window and saw a car she's never seen before in her entire life.

Mawe - fusegi doti, what are you looking at "slapping her at her back of her head, she looked down not knowing what to say until a knock came through. Mawe opened the door and saw expensive people standing at the door"

Mawe - what has this prostitute done now. Who did she rape this time around. It's not enough that she seduces my husband and his son's
"speaking out loud"

Bonge - can we come in. "She moved aside and let them in"

Mawe - can i offer you anything. We only have stout in this house.

Phaka - don't bother yourself.

Bonge - the reason we are here is because we would like you daughter to come assists back at home. She will be basically taking care of someone who is physically ill until they get back on their feet. Once he becomes better she will come back.

Mawe - hehehe "clapping her hands" this useless white goat knows notheing rather than opening her legs for married men. Take her i don't need her anyway she comes with somuch baggage. She's no use to me anyway. Don't come back when things get tough for you.

Sipho - who's going to feed us free food now.

Phela she has good food "sounding drunk"

Bonge - "she kept quite and observed the situation and it was too much for her" nana go take your bag and lets go.

She took her bag that only has 5 dresses that her friend Angela bought for her. She's the only person that has cared about her well being. She only owns one pair of shoes, two panties that have hige holes on jer butt area and a dishwashing cloth that she uses to wash her body with. And she has no cosmetics. She looked at he mother with teary pained eyes one last time and she went out without saying a goodbye. She left with a broken heavy heart. She said a little prayer within herslef for God to protect her as she is going on a journey with stranger's.

NTOMBIZODWA (NTOMBI)

You know when it's first time visiting your relatives you just become a lost tortoise that has no direction. You know when you have a feeling that your family has turned against you. You know when you belittle in their presence and you have no power over anything. This is how I'm feeling right now, the shame that I'm feeling is putting me on the spot light. The daggers and stares were too much making me so uncomfortable. I've been up and down not knowing what to do or say or say to everyone else. As for my mother, well she disappeared after the confrontation and no one cares about her whereabouts. This is total humiliation and the revelation was too much for me.

Is this how Phaka felt when we humiliated him in front of everyone? How did he cope and survive all those obstacles? How did he stay so strong?

Everyone is disgusted by my presence, come to think of it I look nothing like the Ngcobo's but so much like Zulu the drunkard. A whole me didn't know her true identity. I've been living a lie for 45 years.

I need answers, I don't even know if I have any questions for my mother. What hurts me the most is that the same thing that my mother did I'm also doing it to my own children. Mdlalose is not the father of my kids but our neighbor. If this comes out I will be doomed and I will lose my marriage.

BONGEKILE (BONGE)

She looks fragile and very scared. How can a person do this to another human being. Having a different colour skin doesn't mean you're different, being unique doesn't make you a different person. She's clinging on her plastic bag, her eye's wondering around and it shows that she's not comfortable. As a mother I'll have to step up and play a motherly role towards her, will she ever be comfortable around the boy's. We arrive at the house and i give her a side look without her noticing. Her facial expression is unreadable. I see her opening her mouth wider and wider but quickly closes it when she noticed that I'm looking at her.

Bonge - welcome home "i give her the warmest smile ever".

Khosi - t...thank you "still hugging her plastic bag".

This girl is beyond broken and i can tell by looking at her eye's that she has given up in life and lost all hope. I just need to find a way to talk to her, make her trust me, us. I want he to let the pain all out and live her life like the child she is.

Bonge - come let me show you to you're room.

"She nodd and follows her behind looking down". You will be using this room for tonight. Tomorrow we are going to the funeral but you will stay behind. After the funeral they will fetch you. If any of my boy's give you trouble please don't be afraid to tell me, if you're scared of me tell my daughter in-law. She's only a year older than you. "She nodded", you can freshen up so we could have have dinner later on. "she walked out living her admiring the room with a little bit of excitement but then again remembered she was never bound to be happy. She opened her plastic bag and took of her clothes and looked at her torn panties and shed a tear. This is her first night without any sexual encounter".

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

Muzi - baba "in excitement".

Simon - ndodana we meet again.

Muzi - i tried going to the ward but they told me that you were moved to another hospital. Are you oky?

Simon - "laughs" in this world I'm very much alive son.

Muzi - you can now walk, you look much more younger "walking towards him"

Simon - yes son i can walk. I don't have much time i have to go back. Look after your siblings since you're the oldest and accept Zubby in your life as your own father. I came here to take away the pain that you feeling now i need you well and kicking for my goodbye ceremony. "He put his hands on his chest and sucked all the pain out". Wake up it's the new day, don't give them a hard time they were only protecting you from heartache. I maybe no more but will always be with you in spirit. Tell you're mother i will always love her and I'm happy that she's happy. I know this girl maybe way too young for you but you were meant to be, treat her good and you shall forever be blessed.

Muzi - what girl?, who's Zubby?

Simon - in due time you will know son. Till we meet again "he watched his father as he disappeared into the heavily mist. This place looks cold and everything is just white. I hear a voice calling me and being roughly shaken. I opened my eye's and found my mother looking at me with worry written all over her face".

Bonge - God you gave me a fright "sitting down felling defeated"

Muzi - I'm good ma. I had a weirdest dream ever about dad telling me things i don't even understand and some of them didn't make sense. Wait a minute what did he mean he said he will forever be with us in spirit. "He touched his chested", the pain is gone he took it but how is any of this possible.

Bonge - I'm sorry but you're father is no more. His funeral is today. I'm sorry.

Muzi - why wasn't i told about this?

Bonge - you were still weak so the doctor said you wouldn't handle the pain. But he left you a letter. I'm sure in that letter he explained everything.

Muzi - i don't even know what to say or feel it's just shocking. Wow.

Bonge - I'll be outside. You can go change "she walked out"

Muzi - wow i don't even know what to say. I hope his in a better place. Guess I'll have to read the letter later on to find closure.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

My father was layed to rest and we gave hima befeating burial even though it was hard. Looking at the coffin going down it hit hard to know that his no more. I may not know him but he was my father.

Sphe - thanks for everything man you wiped away the shame.

Phaka - he was also my father ypu know "he chulks".

Muzi - yah neh. I'm still finding it hard to believe that his no more and i wasn't told.

Phaka - trust me it was for the best that you didn't know plus we didn't want to take any risks.

Muzi - who ever donated their heart to me i will forever be gratefull. I want to thank the family for giving me a second chance or maybe a little bit of compensation will do.

Sphe - i need a bathroom "he knew where this conversation was going. He decided to find a quite place and read his letter"

Phaka - hmmm i heard about the dream, mum told me "looking at him and trying to change the topic".

Muzi - it felt so real and it left me more confused.

They saw Zelo approaching them with two plates neatly placed on the tray. Phaka noticed her small swollen feet and that didn't sit well with him.

Phaka - MaNgcobo can you go to my shack and sleep. Don't even try it "with a serious face"

Zelo - i wasn't even going to argue with you I'm dead tired. "She went to the shack living the boy's digging the food in so much hunger. She threw herself in the bed and immediately dozed off".

Muzi - she's been working ever since we got here.

Phaka - just waiting for the cleansing to take place later this afternoon sonwe could go and rest.

Muzi - baba is not oky. Its seems as if something is bothering him.

Phaka narrates the dejavu that happened and it left him shock.

Muzi - so Zodwa is not a Ngcobo wow yes yes.

There was a commotion outside the yard and they went to see what's going on.

Phaka - you gotta be kidding me.

Muzi - WHAT THE HELL IS THIS MONSTER DOING IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE, "that angry voice made everyone become silence. Trouble is about to start".

NGCOBO HOUSEHOLD

Muzi - tell me Zamkithi what the hell are you doing here? Wasn't it enough that you killed my father with your bitching ways? Wasn't enough that you brought different men in my father's house in his presence huh?

Bonge - Muzikayise! Watch your mouth before i chop it into pieces "she warned him with a serious tone".

Muzi - this is not not over "he looked at Zamkithi with somuch hate and range in his eye's and went back inside the house".

Lungelo - woman we just buried our father and you are here barking like a dog. Have you got no shame.

Zam - wena I'm still your mother, don't talk to me like that. Anyways I'm here to mourn my husband. What is she doing here "pointing at Bonge"

Baba - she will always be my daughter in-law and still a wife to my late son and the ancestors approve. Question is what are you doing here?

Zam - it's my house too " she wheeled her suitcases to the house and went to the master bedroom". Who ever is using my master bedroom can they please move their rags.

"Ntombi and her daughter stood up shamefully to go pack their daughter's belongings"

Anita - kodwa mah nawe you told us not to buy a house with my husband. Look now what's happening. Why do you guy's fight over other people's inheritance. Look where you're greediness lead us to.

"They finished packing and they took their belongings to the living room"

Zam - now all of you i want you out by tomorrow morning. The madam of this house is back. "She marched to her bedroom leaving them in disbelief"

Baba - let her enjoy my son will deal with her.

Bonge - baba i should take my leave, it's getting late.

Baba - travel safe ndodakazi. You will always be my daughter.

"She bid goodbyes to the rest of the family and she left"

BONGEKILE (BONGE)

After leaving at the Ngcobo's i drove straight home. I just want to bath and sleep. The cleansing went well and i also had to partake to avoid isinyama.

When i arrive at home i find Zubby watching rugby and the house smells so refreshing and clean.

Zubby - queen you back "kissing her cheecks".
How was the funeral?

Bonge - it went well, the boys truely impreesed me. They managed everything without anyone's help, everything was going smooth until Zamkithi showed up and caused havoc.

Zubby - i don't wanna know. But what's more important is that everything went well and my wife came back in one piece.

Bonge - "she blushed" ay suka where's Nomkhosi?

Zubby - in her room, she's a very shy girl.

Bonge - let me go see her before i go freshen up.

Bonge went to Khosi's bedroom without minding she opened the door without knocking. That Made Nomkhosi scream in fear thinking maybe it's Zubby, seeing her this frightened made Bonge's heart ache in pain. She scanned her naked body and her eye's drooped when she saw her torn underwear.

Bonge - hy babe it's me nothing to be afraid of "she calmed down abit". Can we talk if you don't mind. "She noded and quickly grabbed her dress to wear it"

How are you "sitting on top of the bed".

Khosi - good "playing with her fingers as she sat slowly next to her".

Bonge - did you finish your matric?

Khosi - yes "still looking down"

Bonge - i don't mean to offend you. But how?

Khosi - with a help of a friend.

Bonge - hmmm a good friend you have. Tell me more about this friend of your's.

Khosi - "she beamed with excitement" well her name is Angela and she's my neighbour. She's actually more of an older sister that i never had. When ever i visit her home they will treat me like one of their own. When ever she visits she will bring something new for me. She bought me clothes and cometics, if ever i run out of pads i normally use newspapers "she said that with a low voice, this is the first time sharing her hardship life. The only person who knows about her life is Angela".

Bonge - a true friend you have. Tell me more about your family.

Khosi - " she sighed closing her eye's preventing tears from falling down her cheeks" well there's nothing to share or say about my family. My childhood was an adulthood. I experienced somuch pain under my mother's watch from the age of six. "She kept quite taking a deep breath". Everything changed when mama brought Malume Siphoh into our lives. The love she had for me turned into hate. I tried so many times to tell her that Siphoh and his son's touch me inappropriately in my private part areas. "She laughed through her tears" mind you i was only six and i knew nothing and i still remember it like it was yesterday. I was called a liar, she said i seduced them cause i wanted it. I was labelled a prostitute. Ever since then i decided to keep the pain inside of me and bury it. Ever since then i became a snack to them, i became their breakfast, lunch and supper. Being an albino is a curse. I hate myself.

Bonge - no, no, no you are not a curse and never was. Your mother failed to nature a beautiful gift infront of her. You're unique and that means you're special. She faild to care for the most expensive gift and someone else will take care of that gift.

Khosi - "She burst into tears painfully" i don't wanna go back there. Please don't send me back. I've never sleppt so peacefully without someone pulling my leg and forcing themselves in me. For the first time in my life i slept in peace without horror and fear.

Bonge - and no one will ever touch you again. Think of something positive, dream big. What did you want to study after matriculating?

Khosi - psychology. I want to help broken women like me.

Bonge - and your prayers have been answered. Next year you will be going back to school to pursue your dreams. But first I want you to heal and be happy. Block all the negative energy and you shall conquer the world. Do not fear us we are now your newly found family.

Khosi was a crying mess. She longed to study but her mother told her that she's a waste of energy. If she goes to school she promises herself that she will work hard and make it in life without her mother.

Khosi - thank you so much ma "she knelt down hugging her feet"

Bonge - ay ay stand up before i slap you.
Tomorrow morning before i leave i want us to go shopping. It's very therapic and i know you would love it. I want you to have a new life with new people. "She stood up". I'm tired i need a long night. Ulale kahle "she walked out"

Bonge left her room with a broken heart. The girl has had a terrible life and a traumatic childhood. I hope now she feels better because she cried all the pain out.

I took a long relaxing bath not forgetting to add bath salts to relax my muscles. After bathing i went straight to bed and i was dead tired.

Zubby - I'll give you a foot massage.

Bonge - i need it after that therapic session i had "she narrates the story to him". So tomorrow I'm taking her shopping just to keep her mind busy.

Zubby - why not take all the girls out. I can book you guys a spa treat. Bakhulumile will be very happy.

Bonge - weeeee Jesus you want me to go with that daughter of mine.

Zubby - there you said she's your daughter after all "they laughed and slept peacefully cuddling"

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

After cleansing we went straight home.

Everyone is extremely tired, we all came back in the same car since it was already late we went straight to my house. First thing i did when we arrived was to bath my wife cause i know her, once she says something she sticks to it. I had no other option but to bath her. She was having a hard time opening her eye's, shame my poor thing. She even slept naked and i let her be, i switched off the aircon and covered her with a warm blanket making sure she's warm and i went downstairs to the guys finding them eating from the pot.

Phaka - sies piglets. If my wife sees you guys kunganyiwa straight.

Muzi - muyeke he doesn't understand the pleasure were receiving from this food "they keep digging and licking their fingers"

Phsks - i think Nomkhosi cooked cause she was all alone.

Muzi - Nomkhosi, who's Nomkhosi manje.

Phaka - ahhhh this punck. The girl that was meant to look after you but you decided to heal yourself in the spiritual world. You know what let me go sleep you guys clean up your mess "he went upstairs"

Muzi - so this guy lives in this paradise wow life neh. "He kept quite and though of all the bad things his done to his brother who has his back today".

IN THE MORNING

Nomkhosi is a person who normally wakes up very early in the morning to escape the reality that she was living under. But for the past two days she has been waking up like every other normal person. It's been long since she had a decent meal and she enjoys cooking more than anything. Her body feels more relaxed and more calmer knowing that she's out of that hell hole. She woke up and opened the curtains letting the sun shine in her room and for the fresh air to come in. For the first time after so many years she wakes up with a smile plastered on her face.

She brushed her teeth and took a quick bath to feel fresh and smell good too. She went downstairs to the kitchen to make breakfast and it seems as if everyone is still asleep and it's already eight o'clock. She found the a mess in the kitchen with pots flying around in that beautiful kitchen island. Everything was black and white which made it more beautiful. It was not a big mess after all, minutes later she was done cleaning the kitchen and the rest of the house looks clean and fresh.

Now that she was back to earth reality kicked in she doesn't know what to make for breakfast, she doesn't even know how many people are in this house. She optioned for soft porridge which was the easiest and quickest to make. To make it more favourable she added a pich of salt, sugar, rama, and mayonnaise, with a little bit of viniger. Just the way she likes it, she dished up for herself and sat on the high stool in the kitchen and she enjoyed it eating with her eyes closed. She heard footsteps approaching and her heart pounded a bit.

Zelo - yooo ay I've never seen anyone enjoying the white porridge like you do. Is it your favorite, judging from your facial expression.

Khosi - "she smiled nervously" I'm sorry, I just couldn't help it it's my favorite.

Zelo - I feel like having it too. Is there any left?
She nodded and Zelo dished up for herself.

Zelo - no wonder you were in porridge land this shum kind is very nice "she dished some more".
What the hell did you put in her "her eye's became glossy".

Khosi - "she panicked in fear not knowing what to do" i...i, ow my God

Phaka - everything alright in here "asking with his deep voice making Khosi shiver in fear"

Zelo - "she burst into tears" t..the porridge is way too nice.

Phaka - ok so what's making you cry my love "his trying so hard not to laugh"

Zelo - don't you get it Mphakamseni liphelile, it's finished.

Phaka - ow boy "he looked at the mucus coming out of her noise" I'm dead.

Muzi - who died "everyone was now in the kitchen"

Phaka - she finished the porridge and now this happens "whispering".

Khosi - "sighed in relief she thought maybe she was in trouble" it's oky i can make another one.

Zelo - "she stopped crying and smiled through her tears and mucus" oky. "She watched Khosi as she cooked another porridge".

Muzi - do all pregnant woman behave like this "blurting out".

Zelo - BEHAVE LIKE WHAT. MUSA
UKUNGIHLEBA.

Phaka - "it was too much for him. He tried so hard not to laugh but no maan it's just too much he ended up laughing".

Guys this is Nomkhosi and ma said she will be staying with you guys for the time being, but when time goes by we will take her cause my wife will be needing assistant here and there.

Muzi zoned out looking at her.

Sphe - if it's her that cooked yesturday than i don't mind, she's definatly a great cook.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

I've never seen such an innocent beautiful albino in my life. She looks so young with those innocent eyes but something keeps pulling me towards her. Her beauty is out of this world, how does one maintain to keep her skin so silky smooth. Ow heavens could this be my love at first sight, i could be dreaming or just being crazy cause I've never felt this way.

Sphe - back to earth Muzi. Ay ndoda we've been talking to you for almost an hour but you look like you've seen a ghost.

Muzi - huh eeh.

Phaka - dude your porridge is getting cold. Your stares mfethu zishaphi ngawe kanti.

Bonge - i wonder what's wrong with him.

Zubby - love at first sight i can guarantee that.
His not even blinking.

Zelo - if his not eating than I'm having his share.

Phaka - babe are you not yet full this is your fourth dish "he asked with a concerned voice".

Zelo - no " she ate without care".

Everyone was done eating and Khosi was doing the dishes and felt her skin burn and her heart pounded so fast that she almost lost balance, thinking maybe Muzi will turn out to be like Siphos and his sons. Bongani noticed from afar and went to help her with the dishes.

Bongani - i think my son is captivated by your beauty "wiping the bowls".

Bongani - maybe it's his first time seeing a person like me and i scared him.

Bongani - nongqwenkwenkwen look at his mouth and eyes, isn't that the look of admiring the beauty. Who zones out for an hour looking at a person.

Nomkhosi has never seen a man looking at her like that before. If people don't look at her in disgust they say nasty comments. She stared back at him and there was something about him that she can't put her finger on. Muzi on the other hand tried so hard to keep his eye's off her but but he can not. "What the hell is wrong with me" he asked his inner self.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

Ive never done shopping before so i don't know how it feels like. I don't even know how the mall looks like, i don't even know how Nandos, KFC, and all those scrumptious burgers taste like. Zelo gave me her expensive t-shirt which still has a price tag on it. Who buys a t-shirt that cost R400 definatly not me, the leggings she gave me fit perfectly with those nike takkies. We were wearing black and white with sunny hats and sunglasses. I've never wore something so expensive in this my existing life, i feel like a brand new dollar person. This family made me feel welcomed and i must say i feel like a human being who's being treated like a another human being.

All those oils and creepy hot black stones landing on my back made my blood rush in a calmer way. I've never been so relaxed, it's like a huge stone has been lifted off my shoulders.

I'm surrounded by carzy pregnant woman and dam they are so weird, especially the food that they eat. The shopping was something else, I've never had so much clothes. I actually own alot of pair of jeans which is unbelievable. I swear to God i will be burning those two miserable panties i have.

Khosi - thank you. I've never had so much fun let alone been spoiled like this beside my friend Angela. I don't even know how to thank you I'm just out of words. I can't believe i actually own a phone, the whole Nomkhosi. I swear to God that i will forever cherish you guys. I bless you from the bottom of my heart. "Wiping her tears"

Nana - Jesus what a speech. You ruining your make up you should see how ugly you look. You see how fat i am it's not even funny, i feel like giving birth now. This was the longes nine months ever, I'm actually approaching the tenth month. Do i really h.....

Bonge - Nana Bakhulumile shut up tuu.

"She pouted with her thick lips making the girls laugh. She never gets tired of talking. They continued having having fun taking alot of picture's posting them on Phaka and Zelo page. Bonge was at her utmost happiness knowing that Nomkhosi is slowly let going of her traumatic past which was absolutely progress".

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

DAY'S LATER

BlackBerry is seriously driving me crazy I'm going insane. I can't go a day without thinking or talking to her. She is makeing me something that I'm not, some kind of an obsessed man. I'm just afraid to share what i feel inside. Her sweet angelic voice just makes my knees go weak insanely. I asked her to spend a day with me since it's her off day and luckiky she agreed, I'm tired of playing hide and sick. Nomkhosi went grocery shopping with Muzi, Lungelo is out only God knows where too good thing I'm all alone. I asked Nomkhosi to help me prepare a special dish for my lady before she went out.

The knock on the door makes my heart skips a beat. I opened the door finding Angela looking all sorts of delicious with those tight jeans and that made Mapholoba jurk up.

Angela - "laughed" what the hell is he doing jumping up and down "pointing at my dick".

Sphe - just come in already "as soon as i closed the door i turned around and kissed the living day lights out of her".

Angela - oky what was that for "panting".

Sphe - woman you drive me crazy. I'm done playing mind games with you, truth is i want you, not that i want you but I'm inlove with you "looking straight in her eye's".

Angela - "blushed" What took you so long nigger. Do you have any idea for how long i have been waiting for you to say those words.

Sphe - amadlozi avumile "the ancestors have agreed" you gotta be kidding me, so i was suffering all this while for someone who actually love me too damn you woman.

"He came close to he so close that they were exchanging their warm breathes" i love you woman "he muttered".

Angela - i love you too.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

We have no food in the house decided to go buy groceries and i took Nomkhosi along so that she could familiarize herself with Durban. I stole my brother's Range Rover, hope he won't kill me but he hardly uses it anyways. I like food from Pick n Pay it's always fresh. I'm pushing the trolley while i watch her pick up the food items and i don't even know what she's picking, I'm a bad cook in that department. The short dress she's wearing is pushing me to the edge cause her thighs are all out and visible. She let her braids loose and i must admit she looks hella hot and i notice every male gawking at her like some kind of meat ready to be chewed and that annoyed me.

Muzi - don't walk far away from me nawe.
Entlek yazin hold my hand.

Khosi - huh hold your hand, why? "She was confused as hell".

Muzi - i don't like the way all these men are looking at you.

Khosi - oh oky, I'll walk next to you then.

Muzi - hold my hand and i won't repeat myself
"he said through his gritted teeth, she noticed how piglish pink he was it was pickable that he was angry. As scared as she was she hand no choice but to hold on to his hand".

The way he was suppressing tightly on her hand made her wonder if is he not disgusted by the colour of her skin. Everyone was giving them weird looks and some taking pictures

Muzi - I'm sorry sweet heart.

Khosi - that's why i don't like going into public places.

Muzi - you know some people intend to have baby minds don't mind them. Let them make us famous i wouldn't mind being on the cover page with you by my side "she blushed". Let's go pay for these.

Cashier - sawubona.

Muzi - am i alone?

Cashier - erm no "she keepy quite and looked at him more like drooling over him".

Muzi - sisi don't look at me like that I'm taken and happily inlove.

Cashier - she must be lucky "the embarrassment was too much".

Muzi - she heard you. Pinky face will you manage those.

Khosi - hau it's not even heavy "laughing, seeing that laugh made him smile idiocically".

Muzi - after you Ma lady. "They went to the car with full plastic bags and they loaded them in the boot".

Lady - some girls are born lucky.

Cashier - you can say that again.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

I feel safe around him but i don't want him being on the sport light because of my albinosim. His family is one hell of a loving family, i longed wish to be in this kind of environment. I've never been so carefree.

I always thank God for not making me fall pregnant under that painful environment. I don't know how it happened but i still thank God for not contracting any diseases, I'm grateful that he kept me safe under his shadow of his wings. We passed by the beach after grocery shopping dipping our feet in the sea with that cold breeze passing through my sculp.

Muzi - this is refreshing.

Khosi - first time seeing the beach.

Muzi - "chucks shaking his head" worry not sweetheart. You will be seeing it everytime when ever you want.

They kept on walking enjoying the cold sand juggling inbetween their their toes and later they went home.

Muzi - i wonder ihleli nobani inkabinyami.

They went inside finding the couple watching a movie, as soon as they saw each other they ran into each other's arms.

Angela - OMG Look at you looking all ravishing.

Khosi - friend, wow I've missed you "they held onto each other and they hugged so tightly".

Angela - and wena Sphe why didn't you tell me that my friend is around. Wazikahle ukuthi she means alot to me. You sneaky rat.

Sphe - eish maan Berry i forgot you know mean forget easily.

Khosi - wait a minute, you two are dating, how?
When?

Sphe - ay Pinky usufuna sihlebe (you want us to gossip).

Angela - i didn't think you would come, you know considering your mother.

Khosi - so you are the one who told them about me. Yazi I've been asking myself how they knew about me but i was afraid to ask.

Angela - i told them, i just wanted you out of that house and God answered my prayers.

Khosi - ohhhh what will i do with you mara eehh, look at the changes you have made in my life. I will forever cherish you.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I've just arrived at KZN and this place looks magnificently breathe taking. The valley of a thousand hills i could definatly leave here no doubt. I'm hear to seal the deal of the farm I've recently bought just a few documents that needed my dot on it amd everything is mine.

After sealing the deal i wanted to scream out loud in excitement, the first thing i did was to call my wife and she was so happy that she ended up crying. I cannot get use to her crying and these hormones are totally messing with my wife and i love her even more.

John - welcome on board son "shaking his hand". Thank God the grandpa owner is gone. Imagine we are all growing white hair but we still manage to look after the farm.

Phaka - I'm glad to be on board baba. I know you have families to take care of, so i will not make any changes or fire anyone. You guys will continue with your daily routines. And another thing i heard yourll earn R3500 but yet you do alot of work.

John - that man was greedy, we have suffered alot in his hands. As old as i am he treated me like a dog and he had no thank you.

Phaka - everything is about to change now baba starting with your salary.

Celiwe - this calls for a celebration. Care to join us?

Phaka - would love to but my pregnant beautiful wife is waiting for me at home.

Celiwe - ow you're married?

Musa - you sound dissapointed. Who doesn't know that Mphakamseni is Married to Sibekezelo. You should check internet more often.

Celiwe - thee Phaka hawemah how come i didn't notice you. "Screaming outloud attracting more eye's".

Phaka - ok that's my que to leave. Baba we will communicate over the phone. I put you in charge. Yazi you look somuch like someone i know but i don't know who.

John - "laughs" who would look like this old man kodwa.

Phaka - no serious but i don't know who. I will look for someome who would come and assist you on this side. I take my leave now, keep well.

They watched him as he drove away, they were happy that finally Naidoo sold his farm to someone who's actually younger, someome who will understand the struggles and hardship they go through. Celiwe's mind was in a pit hole. Such a young rich admirable man made her clitoris throb sexually without him touching her. How would it feel once he caressed those hands on her body.

3 MONTHS LATER

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Life has been humble for us with no drama except for Nqobile breathing down my neck. Funny enough she thinks we dating, some woman are seriously stupid. If only she knew what we have in store for her she wouldn't be this desperate to ruin someone's marriage. She's threatening to go to the newspaper's to spit shit that I'm having an affair with her. Once I'm done with her she wouldn't have thought of messing with me.

I love how my life has turned out, we are now five months pregnant and guess what we are only having a set of boy's. These hormones have gotten worse, we hardly go to work cause we have been constantly sick lately but doctor's say it's normal, she will be fine when time goes by.

My farm is doing extremely well and the relationship with my brother's has gone very tight. Who would have thought that one day we would have this tight bond that we have between us. I want to suprise them with something but first I'm still looking at their behaviour and how they carry themselves.

I'm happy for them that they have maned up and they are both in stable relationships. At first i didn't approve of Muzi and Khosi's relationship because of the age difference but they proved to me that age is nothing but a number. Muzi is thirty five and Khosi is twenty, but hy if they happy who am i to stand in someone's happiness and they actually look good and happy together. Sphe on the other hand has lost all his senses, BlackBerry is seriously driving him nuts. Lungelo went to study abroad, his young after all and he still needs to find himself. Being a pilot was his first option and luckiky he got accepted in the University of United States. The registration fee and accomodation was a steep and it left me bankrupt, but I'm not complaining I'm happy that he followed his dream. If he fails I'll cut his balls.

We decided to drive down to KZN today the guys have been so eager to visit the farm. They are actually more excited than i am. As for Mama Penguin i don't know how she will survive this long distance since she has back pain issue's.

Zelo - I'm hungry "and she's in the urge of crying".

She just ate full kitchen few minutes ago, sometimes i forget she eats for the whole nation.

Phaka - what would you like to eat?

Zelo - tripple deck pizza with pepperoni and cheese not forgetting a double cheese burger with large chips from steers.

"I bought her items as she requested taking a five minute break from driving".

I bought a new car Hyundai HI G (Mircobus), since I'll be having a huge family i have to prepare myself. It's very smooth on the road and we all fitted perfectly. Gcina refused to come with us cause he enjoys playing with Zubby's Polo Vivo Comfortline, kids born in privileges i tell you. Micheal and Nana tagged along with their partner's also.

Angela - how's you're twinky doing?

"Nana gave birth to a baby girl two months back but you wouldn't tell".

Nana - my princess is fine ow God those little lips and those cheecks, how can i forget those tiny hands. I jsut feel bad that i left her behind but i trust my mother inlaw. You know w.....

Jack - babe they only asked you how's the princess.

Nana - mxm spoil mooder.

Nana was blabbing all the way, she never gets tired of talking. Her husband was starting to fall asleep cause she had no full stop.

Angela and Sphe were right at the backseat engaging in their own conversation. Zelo was fast asleep on Phaka's lap and Khosi was starrng outside the window thinking deeply.

Muzi - Pinky are you oky. You seem to be miles away.

Khosi - just thinking about school. What if they don't like me?

Muzi - don't even think about it. Wena nje just think of this handsome face and you day will be good.

"She smiled and blushed". That's the smile I'd love to see everyday. "He kissed her hand making her flush like red tomatoes, Muzi smiled looking at her pink adorable face".

Khosi - stop starrng, the last time you stared at me lasted for an hour. So don't stare "he Laughed out loud throwing the weight of his head back thinking of the staring contest he did".

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

Now i understand most of the things that did not make sense at that time. The dream, everything is happening like I'm replaying a tape, it's like I'm re-living my life. The girl my father kept referring to was Nomkhosi my Pinky Fancy Face.

His exact words :- i know this girl might be young for you, but you and i were meant to be. Treat her right and you shall be blessed.

Zubby turns out to be the best step father any son could ever wish for. I'm just happy that he treats my mother like a queen.

The letter my dad left me was heartbreaking, I'm breathing because of him, he took his last breathe because he was saving me, he sacrificed his own happiness because of me. I blamed myself for everything but again he told me to man up and live my life, but he only has one request. For his house to be taken care of and turn it into a home and i will honour his request. Zamkhithi will have be prepared for war.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

For the pas three months i have been attending therapy and anger management classes and i must say it really helped me alot. I had so much anger in me but i was unaware of it. I no longer fear darkness. Muzi practically forced me to attend classes and I'm thankful, he took his time to attend classes with me. He knows about my past life experience but his still sticks with me. Next week I'm starting school and his mother paid for everything and i couldn't be more happier. Angela and i are still best of friends, Nana and Zelo are also preety cool friends not even once they have mislead me.

Muzi confessed his feelings for me a couple of weeks back. I was uncertain and i needed a motherly advice. Mam Bonge was the best candidate to assist me and i know she will never push me into the dungeon.

Her advice was :- not all mean are cruel, not all mean enjoy seeing other woman's pain, not all men have wicked hearts. What does your heart say? Do you feel anything for him? How do you feel around him? Does he make you happy. Talk to him about these stuffs, let him know what you scared of. I'm not sweet talking just because his my son, but I'm trying to open up your mind of what's expected between the two of you. Don't judge people because of their past mistakes, i know he made alot of mistakes growing up which I'm glad he told you. Think with your heart but not with your mind.

Talking to her really helped me. I've never had these kind of conversation with my own mother. So i later took a decieve and try this dating department and it's been a month and I'm happy. Intimacy, I'm gald we touched based on that topic and i won't have any issues being intimate with him, and besides therapy is there to guide me in times like these.

What I've learnt is pouring out your heart in your diary really helps, it stabilizes your anger and relaxes your mind.

Ive been looking for my father lately, i have a picture of him which i stole from my mother's belongings. With the help of the guys we actually found him and he works at the farm. Phaka said he saw him and he looks exactly like me, guess having his picture helped alot. Which means i will be seeing him, what if he also doesn't accept me? What will his family say? Does he have any other kids? I hope he accepts me cause honestly i wouldn't handle another rejection. Guess I'll just have to wait and see how this journey unfolds for me. Will it be a pleasant one or a heartbreaking one?

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I've hired a driver to drive us to KZN cause honestly i was too tired to drive and my wife is not making it any easier for me. Thank God we have arrived, spending the weekend here won't be bad at all it will be actually refreshing.

Nana - Ow my i could live here.

Jack - ay ay ay I'll send you back to Nigeria.

Nana - but babe this place is magnificent.

The farm has complexes for worker's who work far from home and they were recently renovated and they were now more homely. As many as they are it will be able to accommodate ten people.

Phaka - since we all tired. We will check this place out tomorrow. Every couple went to their own complex to relax and prepare for a new day.

Celiwe on the other side was exquisitely happy that she will be seeing Phaka for the rest of the weekend. She walked out and asked one of the guards which complex was their boss assigned to, she has an important message for him and cannot wait for tomorrow and the guard showed her the way.

She swayed her shapless ass approaching the door with all the cleavage hanging out.

Celiwe - i can't wait for him to have me, he won't deny me looking this sexy for him. "She said to herself pulling up her sagging cleavage. She knocked twice and Phaka opened the door wearing only his boxer's. This sight made Celiwe's clitoris spit out hot venom and she pressed her thighs together".

Phaka - can i help you "he looked at the jelly cleavage with his eyebrows up".

Celiwe - i just came to say hai and just to make sure that you have settled in well. "She was having a hard time to speak her voice out, the dick print was making the situation even worse. She thought of him pumping her from the behind making her scream his name".

Phaka - we good. If you don't mind I'm really tired and i need to rest.

Celiwe - i can give you a very good massage.

Zelo was standing behind the door listening to their conversation, she was not mad nor hurt. This is what her man has to go through everyday. And she somehow feels sorry for him. She was too relaxed, she went back to bed and slept.

Phaka - there's only one woman who's allowed to do all that to this body and that's my wife. Word of advice stop degrading yourself to married men it makes you look cheap. Now if you don't mind i would like to have a peaceful slumber with my wife. "He closed the door on her face leaving her stunned. She slowly turned around and walked away with liquid dripping inbetween her thighs".

Celiwe - shit! Why did he have to bring that useless wife?

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

Muzi - i will sleep on the floor.

Khosi - don't be silly, i know you don't bite you can sleep on the bed no funny business.

Muzi - phew thank God, "holding his chest dramatically taking off his clothes.

Muzi is the type of man that sleeps naked and he feels comfortable like that".

Khosi - "gasped looking at his long big curved bhazooka" you will sleep like that "trying to avoid eye contact".

Muzi - i will put cushions inbetween us you won't feel anything.

"She was not too sure about him sleeping naked besides her". Just get in the bed and relax i won't touch you i promise.

She got undercovers said a little prayer and slept facing the other side giving him her back but it was difficult falling asleep.

Muzi - goodnight sweetheart.

Khosi - goodnight "she said with a soft voice and that soft voice made Muzi's bhazooka jurk up. He tried forcing to sleep he was also having a hard time, the pains were starting to kick in".

Muzi - Pinky.

Khosi - mmmh.

Muzi - can i atleast hold you? Can you atleast sleep in my arms?

"He removed the cushions and he pulled her towards him". I know I'm asking for too much, can you atleast face me?

She sighed and turned around to face him, all the fear she had vanished away. She snuggled herself so close to him that there was no space between them. He tried so hard to control himself but it was too much everything was hot and she smelled heavenly.

He started kissing her but she did not respond that made him bite her lower lip until she followed his lead. She relaxed and let her blood flow through her veins , Muzi is the first man to ever kiss her this passionate. He squeezed her tiny butt making her panties soaking wet and she let herself all in. If this is her imaginary world then it must not stop. He started kissing her neck taking off her panties. He took off her night gown and kissed her again and his hands caressed on her boobs, he went down and sucked her rosey pink nipples and he was now on top of her. His bhazooka was now hard as a rock, he kissed her body going down to her temple rubbing it slwowlly.

Khosi - M....Muzi

Muzi - relax we won't do anything Fancy Face.

He continued to caress her clitoris with his fingers, he gently rubbed the point, within few minutes she reached her clitoral organism. He smoothly rubbed the point in circulation motion. At this point she was extremely arosed making her reach the blended organism. The licking, touching, massaging and caressing on her breasts made her highly stimulated to a point she moaned out loud loosing herself. He stopped licking her and positioned himself.

Muzi - tell me to stop Pinky and i will stop.

That moment he was rubbing the tip of his long big curved bhazooka against her viganal making her more wet and biting the sheets.

Muzi - tell me to stop Pinky.

Khosi - pl....please don't stop. Just put it in already.

He slid his bhazooka in her nuna but it jammed, he moved back and tried to enter again but still there's no luck.

Muzi - damn baby girl yin ufake isuper glue yin la.

"Khosi smiled nervously cause she was feeling a bit of pain but didn't want to spoil the moment".

He pushed and pushed until he was successfully in making Khosi stiff up a bit. He felt dizzy as he started to thrust slowly, the temple was extremely hot making him sweat.

"Fuck" he said as he kept on moving slowly in circles making her moan in pleasure.

He has had alot of sexual encounters with different women but this one right here is making him weak. He kissed her lips as he kept moving in and out of her. The fire is too much and he couldn't hold himslef any longer. He began to move faster and faster groaning and cursing. Minutes later unexpectedly he released his juices in her, which was realistically unbelievable.

Muzi - WTF did i just last for fifteen minutes!? Unbelievable, me Muzi a chicken.

"He got up and went to fetch towels to clean themselves". My person you made me a chicken, did you put something in their?.

Khosi - aibo no.

Muzi - it doesn't feel normal babe ngeke i lasted for fifteen minutes you are definatly something else.

"He pulled her close to him kissing her forehead with a wide smile on his face". What the hell are you doing to me woman. "He heard her slight snores not believing that she's fallen asleep so quick". What a num num i had, this night takes the cup.

"He shook his head laughing as he slept".

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

I'm standing in the middle of an ocean. How did i get here? I see people only wearing white and that got me wondering how can we walk on top of the ocean. I hear a familiar voice calling me from a distance, i turn around only to find my dad walking towards me with his hands on his back.

Muzi - baba.

Simon - i did tell you we will meet again son.

Muzi - where are we? This place looks peaceful.

Simon - this is my home son. You've made me proud "tapping on his shoulders". I'm yet to be a grandfather again, God is surely blessing me, even in this other side.

Muzi - huh, what do you mean?

Simon - remember treat her right and you shall be forever happy. The name is Nezibusiso she comes with blessings. Take care of my granddaughter.

Muzi - you have a granddaughter "asking in confusion".

Simon - soon you will know. Don't worry about Zamkithi I'll deal with her at the right time. Till we meet again son.

Muzi woke from the dream sweating. What a wierd dream he thought, why does his father always have to speak in ridils if he wants to communicate with him. What granddaughter? Maybe Phaka, but no his having a set of a soccer team of boy's, i wonder what he meant.

I look at my woman next to me and she's still sleeping. I can't believe i lasted for fifteen minutes inside her , i look at the watch and it was already half past seven in the morning, what a short night i had.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

Last night was epic, i know i may sound out of content but I'm seriously inlove with my BlackBerry. I know we've dated for three month's but i can't seem to hold myself so i asked her to marry me. At first i thought iwas moving too fast but my heart yearns for her, i want her next to me at all times. My thick madam has this fire in her but at the same time she's down to earth. I wouldn't ask for a better partner besides her, she completes me.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

This woman of mine hardly sleeps, ever since she fell pregnant she has become a light sleeper. Her back gives her problems now and again, but we were advised that she will have complications when months go by.

We have been on a deal breaker on finding someone who looks more like me to play the game and luckily we managed to find him, Nqo will never know what hit her.

Zelo - the guy you found, did you lay down the rules with him?

Phaka - yes, i just want this girl off my back. You know last week she was at my office wearing only her underwear, sitting on my office couch and i assume she was waiting for me, luckily I wasn't in Muzi was there. I literally had the couch removed, only one person is allowed to sit butt naked in my office.

Zelo - i just hope this plan won't backfire.

Phaka - watch and learn mama penguin.

After breakfast they decided to take a tour around the farm.

Nana - i hope there are no snakes here.

Zelo - i saw a huge anaconda passing by your room yesturday night, "she knew that Nana had huge phobia for snakes but she was provoking her purposely".

Nana started jumling up and down dusting herself, she ran down the kraal not noticing that she's going deep in the mud.

Nana - help I'm drowning! Anaconda, anaconda is pulling me down. "Screaming her lungs out making thd guys laugh and Zelo was making a live video of her".

Jack - my love stand up and you will see that you're not drowning.

"She kept quite and stood up and noticed that the mud was actually below her knees".

Nana - I'm not dramatic, the snake made me fall right into the trap.

The scene was hilarious to watch, there's never a dull moment with Nana. Their laughter erupted the whole farm making the worker's to laugh too.

Celiwe was looking at Phaka with eye's full of affection, he had his hands on a very beautiful pregnant woman and she saw a huge difference. This woman had a huge behind with wide hips, her skin was flourishing smooth. Her clothes were simple but yet still looked pretty good. She looked at he own clothes that were starting to wear off colour, with her messy brown hair that was hard as a stealwool. Her skin had alot of blemishes and she immediately lost her self esteem. She didn't think that the wife would look this good, how can she be this stupid to think a man like Phaka would fall for someone her. She looked at the couple's and saw that she wouldn't fit even if she tried, their life style is ten times brighter than hers. She vowed never to mess with Phaka again even though it would be hard cause she has attached strong feelings for him.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

I've never had so much laughter in my life, Nana is a whole mood to be exact. Watching that whole scene made me wonder how crazy are these people, even her husband couldn't contain himself. This family is full of life. As I was still admiring the dramatic Nana, an old man drops his tools and stand right in front of me with his mouth wide open, I looked back at him and noticed that he looks exactly like the man in the photo.

John - Skhanyiso sikababa is this really you, oh heavens you have decided to shine upon me and my family today.

Khosi - I'm Nomkhosi not Skhanyiso "as she said in a polite manner".

John - that's the name I gave you after you were born.

Nomkhosi looked at this man thoroughly and noticed it's the same man on her picture, the same picture she stole from her mother's belongings.

John - "he smiled not believing his eye's" you have grown to a beautiful princess. You also have the same birthmark as my mother on your left elbow and you also have two little extra fingers on your hands.

She checked her elbow and she saw the black mark, she looked at her hands and saw the little fingers on the sides.

John - your mother's name was Mawe Ndwandwe. I've been searching for you all over until i lost hope.

Khosi - so you're John, John Skhothane?

John dropped down on his knees loosing all his strenght. For fifteen years he has been searching for her until he gave up, now twenty years later he gets to see his daughter he longed wish for. He vowed never to get married or have any other kids until he finds his daughter.

John - ngyabonga somandla, i knew that one day you will remember me. You finally you heard my cries, those sleepness nights i had thinking about my one and only child you gave me.

Khosi - get up baba, "she helped his stand and they both cried in each other's arms".

Phaka - we will give you guys a moment.

Khosi noticed that Muzi wanted to stay behind but assured him that she will be fine.

Khosi - i will be fine Muzi, shush now go with the others.

Muzi - oky oky, call me if you need anything. "He so badly wanted to kiss her but circumstances were stopping him other wise, he walked away".

John - what did you feed that man, you can tell by the way he looks at you that you mean alot to him.

Khosi - "she smiled and wanted to change the topic" so where have you been? My mother says you got married to another woman and never bothered to check up on me.

John - i will speak nothing but the truth, after this i hope you will not hate your mother. Let's go sit down.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

John - your mother and i were very much inlove until she became pregnanat with you. I came from a poor background back then and her family was well off. When her father found out that she was pregnant for me he arranged marriage for her with a wealthy man. I thought maybe she wouldn't agree cause we loved each other, suprisingly she accepted the proposal and said i won't be able to take care of the baby cause i come from a poor family, atleast the man will take care of her and the baby. I didn't even fight for our love cause i knew her mind was made up. So i decided to let her be and all i wanted was my baby. Months went by and she got married and they were happy at first, the man obviously thought that the baby was his. Things changed after she gave birth, her husband found out that the child was not his and he started abusing her physically. A year later i heard that she had a miscarriage after being beaten by her husband. Mind you I never saw you and i didn't knew how you look like, until one day she came by my house late at night with her bags. That's when i got the chance go see you and hold you in my arms, heard your first cry, saw your first laugh at that time you were a year old and six months. That's the day i gave you the name Skhanyiso cause you were my light, my pride, my joy. My mother was over the moon cause you looked and still look exactly like her, you were her first granddaughter. The next morning when we woke up your mother was no where in sight and that was the last time i saw her even her family was looking for her and no one knew where she was till today.

Khosi - so she lied and painted you the bad guy, wow I'm out of words.

John - if my mother saw you now she would even slaughter a kitchen for you just for a celebration. She would be overwhelmed and she was more hurt than i am.

Khosi - what she's still alive. Kanti how old is she?

John - seventy eight years. She has been waiting for you all her life. Where's Mawe by the way.

Khosi - "sighed" i last saw her four month's ago, "she than began to share her struggles growing up and the hardships she faced. John was quite and his emotions were unexplainable. To think that he trusted Mawe with his only daughter". That's how i met this family they have showed me nothing but love.

Khosi - that young man, what's his nam again?

Khosi - Muzi.

John - hope his not taking advantage of you because of the situation.

Khosi - not at all, infact he helped me discover myself and find myself, he helped me experience things i never knew existed.

John - if you say so. I would like you to meet the rest of the family.

Khosi - won't they have a problem with me and my situation. I mean I'm different. Your and kids won't they have a problem.

John - i don't have a wife and i don't have other kids. I made a vow that i won't get married or have any other kids until i find my own. My mother is an albino, my nephew's and niece's are also albinos. So i knew the time your mother was pregnant that you will be a gold coloured.

Khosi - gold coloured pho baba there's no such "they laughed and saw the guys have come back". I would love to meet the rest of my family.

Nana - i need a bath. Wait for me before you leave.

Jack - it's a family time babe.

Khosi - you guy's can come i don't mind.

Muzi - are you sure Pinky Face?

Khosi - ofcause I'm sure my love.

"They all went to freshen up since they were all muddy minutes later they came back looking all fresh".

Micheal - damn i feel free after all that mud i had on me.

Phindile- you're so dramatic kodwa.

"They all went to the car and decided to pass by the shops and buy them some groceries".

Khosi - thank you guy's that means alot.

John - thak you very much my kids, your parents taught you well and you shall be blessed.

"They drove through the bumpy road living heavy dust behind. Luckily the car was high enough to pull through the the gravel road.

John - and we have arrived.

They all went out of the car following John to the house. Atleast her father's home looks more decent and it's homely, unlike the one room shack that had no windows she used to live in. The family was sitted watching wrestling discording who's going to win and what not. The noise was too loud, when Khosi and her father entered the living room it became silent. Gogo was sitting quitely on her corner the soon as her eyes landed on Khosi she couldn't control the emotions.

Gogo - ohhh mntanom mntanami, Skhanyiso sethu, my first grandchild "she opened her arms and embraced her". Do you have any idea how much i suffered for all those year's. I always prayed that when ever God decides to take my it must be the day he decides to life it must be the day he decides to bring you back, now i can rest in peace.

John was also emotional, seeing his mother praying everyday for Skhanyiso to come back brought pain to his heart. Praying for someone not knowing whether they still alive or dead. God finally remembered them.

The day went perfectly well as they introduced themselves each other, sharing their childhood moment's. This house was full of erupted jokes and hormoney. The family was also happy to be embraced by Phaka and Zelo's precense as they would see them on television and on news paper's. They were amazed by their humbleness. The laughter became sour when Khosi had to tell her story and how she grew up. The family was amazed by her mother's behaviour.

Gogo - oh ngane yami we will have to do the introduction for the ancestors to welcome you home, imbeleko must be done before i leave. Mkhuseleli will slaughter you a chicken before you leave, you must make dumplings with it it's very nice.

Khosi - ahhh gogo you don't have to.

Gogo - nonsense i want you to eat one of my chickens, something that comes home from your grandmother. They very nice and meaty trust me you will enjoy.

Nana - we forgot the plastics in the car. "She stood up and took the kids to help he carry the platics full of groceries".

Aunty - haaa heee you bought the whole town.

The family do buy groceries but they don't buy as much as this. It amazed them how much did they spend on tese varieties of food.

Gogo - sibusisiwe isandla esiphayo. You are blessed my children.

They decided to cook some delicious aroming food and help aunty in the kitchen.

Aunty - Skhanyiso don't disappear on us again. We have nothing to give you but love you shall find.

Khosi - i promise aunty, i will visit more often infact every month.

Zelo - there's no porridge in this house "opening and closing all pots and she burst into tears".

Aunty - porridge "sounding confused".

Khosi - it's her favourite. "Aunty noticed her stomach and started to panick".

Aunty - yoh jesu i will cook it for you don't cry sisi. "She tried to be quick as possible".

Zelo - ahhhh just the way i love it "she was moaning and tapping her feet to the imaginary beat as she ate, she frowned looking at her bowl".

Zelo - why does God have to finish everything i love somuch "she started crying all over again making the guys laugh".

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

After a day well spent with Khosi's family we went back to the farm. I must admit they are one hell of a welcoming family and they are very unique. I just want to rest after the food they have been dishing us with i can't even breath and someone is still upset on the porridge issue and she looks hella sexy when she's this mad.

Zelo - I'll be in the bathroom.

"Since when do we bath separately, i decided to join her i know she's avoiding me and I'm just finding this fun somehow. She didn't even bath she was just passing by the water".

Phaka - mama penguin what did i do? Why are you this mad at me?

Zelo - you want me to forgive you right?

"I'm so tall and she's so short imagine being scolded by someone shorter than you, pretty hilarious i tell you".

Phaka - yes, cause i didn't do anything. You said it yourself it's God not me. Ok i will do anything for you to forgive me.

"She's busy walking up and down the room butt naked and damn that reverse yomhlaba is not making it easier for me".

Zelo - anything.

Phaka - i don't like the sound of this but yea anything.

Zelo - go lay down on the bed, don't wear anything and close your eye's I'm coming.

Phaka - "at first he was reluctant but obligated" ok but what are you doing. "He tried getting up but he was pinned down, she cuffed his hands on the headboard and she started smashing strawberries on his body using her hands making it dripp juices".

Zelo - this will teach you never to mess with me, don't talk or else I'll chop your balls off.

Phaka - chopp, haaaa and how will i shove them inside of you if I'm balless.

Zelo - shut the hell up.

She got on top of him and she started kissing him roughly and he was blindfolded. She started playing with those smashed strawberries caressing on his abbs down to his big snake massaging it gently. She then started licking the strawberries and his big snake was already popping veins. She continued licking his abbs as she went down got hold of his anaconda and started stroking it as she putted in her tiny mouth licking the tip of his dick making Phaka shake in vibration. She licked it going on in circles and playing with his balls at the same time, she then sucked him like there's no tomorrow.

His breathing patterns were escalating to another level uncontrollably. God save your son as he cried, he tried moving his hands but they were tied to the headboard.

Please mama P i want to touch you he explained but that explanation fell int Zelo's deaf ears. She held the big snake straight up as she helped herself slid it in and started moving in circles in coconut slow motion holding on tight on his chest.

Awe please call Clientele I'm deing he said as he was breathing heavily underneath. She bounced up and down shaking her reverse yomhaba like she's playing hoola hoops and then hit it side ways making scream Jesus name.

Jesus forgive my sins, my funeral cover ow fuck he was loosing himself as he tried to free himself from the chains. Zelo had no mercy on him as she rocked him back and forth.

My black card pin 14456 shit! As he cried.

Mama Penguin fuck you killing me give it to dadda P, she moved faster as she was dripping sweat twerking on top of him screaming in pleaseure. He cursed trying to take off the blindfold but failed. His body tensed up as he started pounding her from underneath making Zelo scream out loud and she collapsed on top of him trying to catch their breaths.

Zelo - will you ever mess with me "panting".

Phaka - damn you woman, i will never mess with you ever again.

"She got off him and she untied him and he took off the blindfold, his eyes were bloodshot red". I love you Mrs Ngcobo.

Zelo - i love you too Mr Ngcobo "as they dozed off in each other's arm with sticky sweat mixed with strawberry juices".

Celiwe was standing outside the window as she was peeping through the window and saw everything. This woman is pregnant but sure knows her game in bed, his even singing his bank card pins. What's that Mrs Ngcobo has that i don't have, she was so horney right now. She thought of calling Spoty they dog but thought against it why not grab one of the guard's so that she could also ride him like the pregnant woman did. She called Madoda who's a security guard at night and lied that she needed assistant on carrying heaving boxes. He agreed and followed her behind, she let him in and she shut the door locking it.

Celiwe - please just one round "as she took off his overall".

Madoda - one round you say. "He wanted this so bad since his girlfriend deprived him of sex this morning, so why not fuck a free pussy. Celiwe nodded as she thought of Phaka taking of her clothes as Madoda was".

She layed her naked self body on the bed opening her legs wide showing off her fat bushy cookie. Madoda was now left with his vest and trunk, he climed on top of the bed and started kissing her but something was not right. He continued kissing her but this thing was unbearable he stopped and got off the bed and wore his overall.

Celiwe - what the hell is your problem. Why you chickening out. I'm offering you free pussy. Yin are you afraid that useless girlfriend of yours will find out, come on no one will know.

Madoda - don't call my woman useless, at least she doesn't smell inbetween her legs. You must learn to bath and try treating that thing you called a virgina. You smell like rotten eggs. "He unlocked the door and went out, she touched her private part and smelled her fingers indeed she was smelling unpleasantness. She had a bad odour and it was unbearable, she sighed getting off the bed as she went to the bathroom and started scrubbing her nuna with water and soap but the smell was still there. She sat down on the bed and wondered what could be wrong with her. She always sleeps with Spoty but never had a problem. As she was still thinking she noticed a yellowish liquid coming out of her and it smelled pretty bad that she ended up opening the window's.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

Muzi - you family seem to be nice people.

Khosi - yea, i actually thought maybe I'll be the only one who's different but the genes run from my father's side.

Muzi - I'm happy seeing you this happy.

Khosi - I'm just glad i got to see my dad and the rest of the family, i will definatly visit more often.

Muzi noticed how happy she was. He so badly wanted to ask about her mother but didn't want to spoil her mood. But at some point he would have to ask her even though it's a sensitive topic.

Muzi - Pinky do you ever think about your mum?

Khosi - i don't want nothing to do with that woman. She showed me that she can never be a mother to me.

"Muzi noticed how pink she was and that meant she was angry and he didn't mean to upset her.

Muzi - I'm sorry Fancy Face. I didn't mean to upset you. How about you give me that fifteen minutes "cupping her face".

Khosi - i won't hear the end of this neh.

Muzi - not until you tell me what did you put in there that made me not last.

Khosi just laughed at him not believing how crazy her man is. It's not her fault that he didn't last longer than he anticipated worstly she doesn't know nothing about sex. What ever Siphos and his kids were giving her was not sex but rape.

Muzi - i love you Pinky.

Khosi - and i love you too.

He loves her no doubt, he loves her more than life itself. Their relationship is still new but he cannot see his life without her.

Muzi - marry me "he just said out of the blue as he took out a small red box".

Khosi - huh "she was stunned and somehow she saw how serious he was. They have been dating for a month and a few days on top and already he's asking her to marry her, she's still wants to pursue her dreams and she's going to school next week. What will happen if she rejects".

MAWE (KHOSI'S MOTHER)

If anyone told me that one day the man i chose to love over my own daughter would do this to me, i would have chosen my daughter over and over again. I've watched him and his son's molesting her since she was six year's old. She cried out to me, as a mother i should have protected her, i was suppose to be her sheild but i was an enemy for what for a man who abuses me emotionally and physically today. Ever since Nomkhosi left with those people i don't even know them, life turned against me i have now become their babrbie doll, their prostitute as they would call me. I catered and natured for these boy's but today they have the nerve to open my legs and exchange me like some kind of football. Each day i smell different semen, each day i smell different sweat. The pain Nomkhosi used to feel is now being felt by me. I thank God that she didn't fall pregnant in the process but God didn't have mercy on me. I'm pregnant and i don't know who's the father of this baby I'm carrying. Is it Siphos or one of his son's?

I look at Bathi the last born sweating on top of me with my legs wide open. His groaning and moaning with his eye's closed, while his other eldest son is already naked stroking himself waiting for his turn. Bathi pulls out after he releases all his cum on top of my stomach.

Zipho - dunusa "i do as i was told, I'm tired of crying, I've been silent for three months and the pain is slowly killing me. This is the same way my daughter use to feel, her cries that she cried silently for years, her hurt, i feel it too. I'm being torched the same way.

I was suppose to be their mother and they were supposed to be my kids. His breathes out loud meaning his done, he stands up cleaning himself and walks out of the room like nothing happend leaving me sobbing in pain.

I'd rather go hustle and stay on the streets than to live like this. I will go look for a job, with only grade nine who would want hire an old pregnant woman.

ZAMKHITHI (ZAM)

I just feel suffocated in this house, it's way too hot for my liking and this fan seems to be making it more hotter. I haven't been able to sleep for the last past three months, I'm a walking zombie. My eye's are swollen and baggy. I have been seeing things lately, things i can't seem to explain but i know they scary cause of the sounds it makes. It doesn't go a day without breaking a thing in this house. Whenever i try to fall asleep i feel like there's someone next to me or watching me, but when i look or touch i feel and see nothing. I always see shadows and i believe this house is being haunted. I think I'm having a paralysis. I think someone is bewitching me, come to think of it the car won't even start, i've called all kinds of mechanics, Indians, whites but nothing. Abaloyi are making things hard for me. I'm starting to run low in cash, i buy food everyday but it vanishes the next day. Maybe someone breaks in at night and steals all the food. This is just one fucked up situation.

NTOMBIZODWA (NTOMBI)

How the hell did Mdlalose find out about the kids? I know Cijimpi will never snitch on me. For the last couple of months it was a struggle for me, i watched my marriage crumbling down just like that. My inlaws are not making it any easier for me, they have been rejoicing that everything is going South. My kids are devastated especially Aneso since ngihlala naye. Anita is in a better situation cause she's living with her in-laws. I tried reaching out to the Ngcobo's since they are the only family i knew and grew up in, it just didn't end well. I know I'm not everyone's favourite and I've done alot of bad things in the past. Couple of days back i did a lot of thinking and came up with a conclusion to just give up and try to reconcile with my biological father Zulu maybe he will accept me with warm hands who knows. I've packed everything that belonged to me and i will leave this house in peace.

Mdlalose - uyaphi "as he stared at the bags".

Ntombi - to look for a place to stay i think it will be better this way. I tried and it failed, my marriage failed.

Mdlalose - and who's fault is that?

Ntombi - my fault and i don't blame anyone but myslef. I thought i was doing the right thing.

Mdlalose - i knew a long time ago that i cannot have kids but that didn't give you the right to go behind my back and solving my issues. I know you were trying to prove a point to everyone that we can have kids, i know what you did was to make me a man amongst men but you went about it the wrong way.

Ntombi - I'm sorry. I wish you all the best take care.

Mdlalose - don't make me mad, take back those bags and pack the clothes were they belong. If you promise me to change your ways we may work on our marriage. What will our kids say, don't give my family that satisfaction. I know you not perfect you have your flaws but please don't leave me.

Ntombi - don't play like that "as she wiped her tears with a sad heart".

Mdlalose - do i look like I'm joking. All I'm asking is for you to change your ways and be a better mother to our kids.

Ntombi - i promise to change thank you for giving me another chance.

I never thought i will see this day. First thing i need to do is to apologize to my later brother for pushing him into the lions cage. I made my brother's house a circus, being given a second chance means alot. I won't mess this opportunity. God heard my prayers.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

I don't know if i took the right decision but my heart feels happy and my family was also happy for me. Muzi suggested to pay the bride price later this year than once his sorted out his life and once I'm also done with school he will give me the wedding of my dream. That was fair enough and we both oky with the agreement even though it's going to be the longest engagement ever.

The weekend at the farm was splended and refreshing, i felt like staying behind but then again i have to prepare for school. I've been so caught up in my own world that i haven't had time with the girls.

Khosi - so Angela ukaso "pointing at her engagement ring".

Angela - i don't know why these guy's are in such a hurry. Part of me is happy part of me is scared.

Khosi - I'm just glad that mina noMuzi managed to talk things through and understand each other. Communication is the best key in a relationship try talking to Sphe and share you're fears.

Zelo - i will support you in what ever decision you guy's make, as long as it makes you happy at the end.

Angela - I'm happy and I'm just having cold feet. So Khosi we doing this right?

Khosi - indeed we doing it.

Marrying Muzi will be a huge step but the best decision I've ever took. My love for him is on the verge of making me cry. Where was he all my life? Where was he when i was drowing in sorrows? No use crying over spilt milk, no use mopping around in my past i got to focus on my future.

Zelo - welcome to the family boMrs Ngcobo the reload.

Angela - as for the reload sisi aykhona.

I look at the two beautiful souls who are forever smiling. I'm grateful that i have them as my friends and sister's. I love them with evrything in me.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

I didn't know that going out with my siblings could bring us so close together and be this refreshing. I learnt alot about them, to even think that both of them are about to get married startles me. Just years ago i was the blacksheep of the family but now we have a tight bond that no one can't separate.

Today is the day i deal with this Nqobile issue once and for all. We recently found out that she's bipolar, when she wants something she goes for it even if it means killing. For my wife's safety i have to do this.

Sphe - bookings have been confirmed room 405, camera's installed with no sound.

Phaka - dude are you sure you will be able to pull this through?

Mafa - trust me. With that amount of money you paid i won't let you down.

Sphe - the camera's in your house are now active, don't leave you house until the mission is completed.

Phaka - in that case let me go to my wife I'm sure she's worried.

Muzi - you seem to forget that we also have wife's, feels good to say My WIFE "emphasizing the word word wife".

Nqobile was sitting comfortably on her dressing table applying make up. She's finally have the man of her dreams. A man that promised to leave his wife for her, tonight is just about the two of them. The excitement she was in made her forget her medication. She wore her sexy matching undergarments, sprayed her seductive perfume and applied her red lipstick then made her way out.

She received a text:- Pavilion Hotel room 405. I HATE WAITING.

She squealed in excitement clapping her hands talking to herself.

Daddy will make mommy pregnant again.

Shaun sit down you bad, bad, bad child i will tell your father. Ok i won't tell daddy be a good boy and mommy will buy you ice-cream. Look babe mommy has arrived at the hotel. Sit here quietly and don't move an inch.

She parked her car and sprayed her perfume again attracting eyes. Nqo has a typical model kind of body, and she's very tall.

Making her way to room 405 made her feel some sort of special, the door was slightly opened she decided to invite herself in and she was welcome by red roses and a room full of candles. A lavender scent filled up her nostrils making her inhale with a huge smile on her face.

Mafa - my love, i told you to be patient with me.

Nqo - "gasped" i didn't know you were this serious about me. I'm honored to be the woman who will be by your side as always.

Stupid her did not recognize that this man in front of her is not Mphakamseni Ngcobo but Mafa Mthimkhulu. Mafa grabbed her hand roughly and started kissing her throwing her on the bed.

Nqo - i see you like it rough "as she giggled making Mafa become annoyed".

Mafa - strip naked "in a commanding voice".

She wasted no time she took off her clothes making them fly in the air. Mafa was busy tearing up a condom wrapper, he took out the condom and he slid it in his cock.

Mafa - foreplay is not my style get on your knees i want your behind.

"She excitedly got on her knees making her nuna be all out and she thought it's about to go down.

Mafa held her waist roughly making her flinch, without warning he shoved himself in her anus making her scream her lungs outloud". I'm an asshole man sweetheart i don't do pussies.

He started to move as she was crying in pain, she tried running away but he pressed her down and continued pumping her behind.

Nqo - ok, ok i get it please stop it hurts i can't take the pain anymore.

Mafa - it's going to be a long night honey, it's all about me and you remember.

Her anus was starting to tare up as Mafa went on and on causing more pain. He was having the best time of his life while Nqo has lost all her strenght, she can't stand, walk, her body hurts, her voice is gone from screaming. This man here infront of her is not the sweet Phaka she knows rather saw a monster.

As Mafa was still trying to catch his breath, she took all her time trying to gather her strenght to open the door and suprisingly it was locked. She wanted to scream for help but her voice failed her. Her lips started to tremble in fear.

Mafa - we not done sweetheart, we still have a long way to go, i still want you. "He got off the bed and went close to her and grabbed her ass making her groan in pain"

Nqo - please take me home, i will not tell anyone about this. I can't do this anymore it hurts.

Mafa - wear your clothes.

She started to shiver as if she was cold, Mafa had a heart after all and decide to drop her off at the hospital.

The doctor's attended to her and her anus was stiched up.

Hours later she started scratching herself making red marks on her body and saw things that no one else saw. She started to limp around like a mad woman making noise causing a scene.

MAWE (KHOSI'S MOTHER)

I'm tired of them it's time i do something, it's time i stand up for myself, it's time i defend myself before i loose my little sanity that's left. I don't care what happens to me after this. I don't care if i live or die, i just want to serve justice of my daughter.

I've poisoned the food with rat poison, i see them sweating as they are still eating. I look at Siphos who's holding his stomach trying to control his breathings.

Bromodione is a rodenticide that is meant to kill mice and rats. In human bodies it prevents the blood from clotting, it causes brain damage, be in a coma or even death.

I did my research very well and i decided to overdose so they could die a quick painful death from internal bleeding. They are having a hard time breathing, Bathi the youngest was having a seizure pity he died pretty fast. I want to watch these two carefully die infront of my eyes.

Mawe - this is for all the pain you caused me and my daughter. The sleepless night's she had because of you. Killing you will be the best decision I've ever taken. I don't even know where my daughter is beacause of you, i was a bad mother because of you. You deserve whatever pain is coming your way. This thing I'm carrying who's the father amongst you three huh. I'm about to rasie a child i don't even know who the father is.

Sipho - i....I'm sorry.

Mawe - WILL YOUR SORRY BRING BACK MY DAUGHTER YOU BLOODY PERVET BASTED. I HATE YOU!

White foam was coming out of their mouth and their eyes rolled back and that was the end of them.

Mawe - what's left is for me to do is turn myself in for murder. Maybe jail will bring me peace.

ZAMKITHI (ZAM)

I cannot believe this, how can God let this happen to me? Who could do something so cruel by waking up someone from the dead? I saw him with my two eye's, i saw Simon and i instantly became blind. Is he not dead? What did he want? It's pretty obvious that he is the one that has been stealing food in this house and making my life a living hell, but how?

I can't bring myself to live in this house anymore, i need to save myself from torture already I'm blind. How will i even make it to the road. I have been cupped up in this house for far too long surviving only with water, i can't seem to do anything for myself. I take baby steps and i don't even know where I'm going I'll just follow whatever i touch and allow my feet to take me wherever they decide to take me. I hear cars and i assume I'm on the main road and i don't even know which direction to take. I gobble with my legs following the soft grass, i think i lost my way cause i can't find the grass anymore. A huge wave comes towards me honking, i stop and try to listern from which direction the noise is coming from. I felt hot air coming towards me and i felt a stinging sensation on my back making my bones crack. I fell down on the ground and i stumble trying to run away from whatever is hitting me. Minutes later it sinks in that I've been knocked down by a truck. I felt my chest close finding it hard to breathe. I wish i could see my kids one last time, i wish that one day the Ngcobo family will forgive me for all the pain I've caused them. I felt my spirit leaving my body, no one could have survived this my body was beyond repairs and I'm glad i left the world of the living. I look at my body and felt my spirit cringe. I saw a film of my life, the pain I've caused people, the horrible things I've done, the heart's I've broke.

I see Simon standing from a distance i decided to make my way to him.

Zam - why didn't you kill me from the start instead of torturing me?

Simon - the plan was to make your life a living hell, which I'm glad i did.

Zam - i guess i got to pay the price.

Simon - and you did.

He smiled and walked away. He looks more younger and very much handsome. Who knows maybe i can correct my wrongs and be a good wife to him. Who am i kidding even Jesus himself haven't accepted my soul.

MAWE (KHOSI'S MOTHER)

Officer - so you poisoned them.

Mawe - it was the best thing I've ever done. Can you do me a favour, can you please find my daughter i just want to know is she's safe wherever she is.

Officer - what is she doesn't want to see you?

Mawe - it's worth a try sisi, "officer Cele is so close to her and they spend alot of time together. She took out a picture and handed it to the police officer".

Officer - oky I'll see what i can do "she looked at the picture and her eye's popped out". Wesis are you trying to tell me that Nomkhosi who now calls herslef Skhanyiso is your daughter?

Mawe - y...you know her, ow my goddness where does she stay?

Officer - i don't know yazi but she's doing fine where ever she is judging from her picture's she posts. "She then took out her phone and logged in on her facebook account" see she even looks happy. I heard she's engaged.

Mawe - ow my God "she looked at her picture's not believing that her daughter made it in life without the mother's love". I know i wasn't the best mother but help me find her.

She continued scrolling down looking at her picture's with a heart full of pain. Until she came across a picture of her and her father. Her heart panicked in fear thinking how did they find each other. She looked at another picture captioned Mrs Ngcobo to be. Her chest tightened finding it hard to breathe in and out. Did she go to the village to go look for her father? But I've never told her anything about her dad. And now she's getting married. Later she was taken to her cell as she was arrested for murder and was sentenced life to prison but that didn't affect her at all and she was happy more than anything. It's been six months already but she's loving every minute of it.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

That man did a number one on Nqo. The reason why i still have the evidence is to back myself up just incase she decides to open a case against me. But i don't that will be happening anytime soon casue I'm yet still not done with her. I got her admitted to the lunatic hospital if that's what they call it, and i admit she's very much insane. I'm not a bad person I'm just doing what every man would have done to protect their family.

Mama P has gone pretty big and she's always tired.

Zelo - amasi awekho "and she's in a vurge of crying".

Phaka - amasi, but we don't even buy that. Infact asiwadli nokuwadla babe, you don't even like them. "Oky i shouldn't have said that".

Zelo - i want them now "she's pretty mad".

Phaka - oky oky I'll go buy them for you.

Zelo - are you cheating on me Christopher Mphakamseni Ngcobo, "making Phaka frown in confusion, she just asked this question out of the blu". You know what I'm coming with you I'll shoot all those monsters who keep looking at my husband. YOU ARE MINE AND MINE ALONE "she marched to her room".

Phaka - what the hell just happened. God don't turn your back on me i need you now more than ever. When is she giving birth i miss my sweet wife.

Zelo - ehe you still have time to talk to yourself masahambe "he watched her as she walked out with a penguin walk and smiled".

Phaka - one month left bekezela ndoda "as he followed his wife to the car".

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

I've been feeling under the weather lately and it worse in the morning, I've gained weight, my stomach looks bloated and it's becoming bigger day by day. Muzi literally dragged me to the hospital, he was now more concerned about my health. What if i have something inside that's cancerous or dangerous. We were sitting patiently waiting for the results, i think i got sick the day after my introduction. My father finally did imbeleko for me and now i feel more like a family member.

Doc - congratulations Mr and Mrs Ngcobo
you're twenty six weeks pregnant.

Khosi - WHAT!

Muzi - that's like six months or so. Are you sure doc?

Doc - 100% sure. Can you please follow me so we could do an ultrasound just to check if is everything oky with the baby.

"They followed him to the room, she layed on the bed and lifted her t-shirt up, a cold gel was applied on her tummy". Here's your baby there
"a heartbeat filled there ears making Khosi cry".
Your baby looks fine and healthy well can't seem to see the gender since it's hiding it. I will prescribe medication for you that will help with the nausea. You will be doing weakly check ups.

Muzi - thank you for giving me the best gift Fancy Face. "Kissing her forehead".

I'm so dissapointed in myself, this means i have to quite school and look after the baby. I'm looking outside the window while Muzi was driving and stealing glances at me. When we arrived home i just threw myself on the bed and cried.

Muzi - i know this came as a shocker and i know you're not happy. I admit I'm happy at first i questioned my manhood but i guess bra God had a better plan for me. Your life won't stop because of our baby growing inside of you, your plans will continue as planned nothing will change. I won't stand in your dreams and happiness my love. Once you give birth we will hire someone to help us with our baby girl cause I'm sure mum will be dealing with the penguins.

Khosi - and already you are assuming it's a girl, didn't you heard what the doctor said. We can't see the gender. "he thought of the dream he had, so this is what his father meant".

Muzi - my father told me already and he also gave her a name Nezibusiso. Heh baby this means you got pregnant the time i lasted for fifteen minutes that's if my calculations are right. Ay uyaloyo moloyi wami.

Khosi - mxm you silly "they laughed". So Muntu you were serious about what you said about school and stuff.

Muzi - i meant every word my love. I won't stop in your way to pursue your dreams. I'm here for you we got each other's back.

Khosi - i can't believe I'm pregnant. We going to be parents.

Muzi - thank you Pinky.

It's good to know that i will continue with my studies and he will not stand in my way. Just the support system from him that will be enough. I wonder where's Mawe and how she's doing, i can never run away from reality she's my mother after all.

NOMKHOSI (KHOSI)

I've been getting inboxes from my facebook being informed about my mother's arrest, i even asked for proof to confirm if is it really my mother and indeed it was her. How did she get arrested? What did she do? At first i didn't trust this officer but Muzi and his brother's did a background check on her and she was a real a cop.

I've been delaying to go see her for far too long i decided to face my demons today. I'm anxious and scared at the same time. Muzi Kept rubbing my back to keep me calm and it helped alot.

I see her coming towards us with her hands and legs cuffed in that orange uniform and my eye's popped out when my eye's landed on her stomach. I try to control my breathing thinking of the human inside me.

Mawe - Nomkhosi thank you so much for agreeing to come see me.

"There was some silence, she sighed sadly". I know you hate me and i don't blame you. I simply called you here to apologize from the depth of my heart. When you left karmar delt with me, i got to feel your pain, hurt and anger. I was suppose to protect you from vultures and evil, i was suppose to be your shield and your protector but i failed you as a mother. I'm pregnant as you can see and i don't even know who's the father between Sipho and his son's. I ended up killing them by feeding them rat poison and it felt good to finally watch them die after everything they did. I know you have met your father and it was selfish of me not being honest with you. I'm happy that I'm paying the price, i may be asking for too much please help me look after your brother or sister. If i die now i will know that there is someone who is taking good care of them. Please Nomkhosi even if you do not forgive me but please accept my child. Mkhwenyana I'm sorry we meet under these painful circumstances. Look after them with all you got, be a father any child could ever wish for and i bless your marriage.

Khosi - i don't know, can i atleast think about it.

Mawe - yes ofcause, I'm not rushing you into making any decision. Thank you again for coming to see mee keep well and i love you.

She stood up and i watched her mother walk away chained with those heavy chains, i felt bad for her but again i don't want her back into my life. What do i do?

Muzi - let's go Pinky, will talk about this when we get home. "We left the Westville prison and drove straight home".

Khosi - this is hard i don't even know what to do babe, i was suppose to vent out to her but i just became mute and now she's asking me for this huge responsibility. What do i do my love?

Muzi - what ever decision you take muntu wami I'll gladly support you. Don't rush into things take your time.

Khosi - what will i do without you kodwa?

Muzi - aysuka let's go prepare you guy's something to eat i know you hungry, you'll find me in the kitchen. "He walked out of the room and i sat there thinking outloud".

Khosi - God what do i do? The child she's carrying is innocent. I still don't trust her but she's asking for a huge favour. If i open up my heart and accept my little brother or sister won't i be opening a tin of worms, won't it bring me more pain. If i refuse how will the babe survive in jail, i don't even know my mother's family. I'm about to make a huge decision and i hope this decision will not haunt me forever.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

She decided to go into labour at 00:00 on the dot. I did say it my wife was carrying little witches, who gives birth at this time. I look at my beautiful wife peacefully sleeping from that hectic delivery. I didn't know that virginas stretched like that i ended up fainting luckily i woke up from the dead when the fourth babe was being delivered and I'm still in traumer. I don't think I'll ever survive from that, I'm never making her pregnant ever again my wife almost died pushing those big heads out.

I look at my penguins, they were so pinkish black and so tiny. Is it me or my eye's are deceiving me they look older than me, maybe I'm hallucinating. I kiss my wife's forehead and i let her rest. Mum and dad will be arriving tomorrow as well as Bheki and his wife Khethiwe.

I go home with a happy heart smiling like an idiot, i can't believe I'm a father of six souls. I should open up a sperm factory to produce more sperms. I don't shoot blanks but i shoot multi milky sperms.

SPHESIHLE (SPJE)

Here we are looking at eight pregnancy tests and they all say the same results positive. Deep inside I'm happy but don't want to show, I'm even afraid to look at my BlackBerry and i don't know what's her expression in all this. What if she doesn't want to have a baby with me, what then? I glanced at her and i see her biting her nails in fear and i just knew something is wrong.

Sphe - Berry yam what's wrong?

Angela - I'm sad cause you not happy.

Sphe - me not happy? I actually thought you are the one who's not happy. To tell you the truth I'm super excited.

Angela - ngampela?

Sphe - why wouldn't i be happy when my wife makes me happy and I'm about to be a father because of her. I loved you from the first day i saw you and i still love you now.

Angela - i love you too.

Who would have thought that one day i would be this happy inlove. I love my BlackBerry more than anything and i vow to make her happy.

I saved up alot of money to finally buy the house that belonged to Zelo. I now call it my home and i just love it the way it is Sphe - Zelo gave birth today.

Angela - we will pass by the hospital and check up on them, I'm so happy for her.

Sphe - my father's surname is surely growing.

Angela - you seem happy about that.

Sphe - you wouldn't understand sthandwa sami. Now that you're also expecting I'm sure his happy. I sometimes wish my dad was alive to experience this happiness with us and see the light that's shinning upon us.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

God i need to put in extra hours at work and work extra time. Father was not lieing when he said he will deal with Zamkhithi. Gcina and Lungelo were informed about the passing of their mother and they seemed not to care. Atleast Gcina went to pay his last respect and for Lungelo it's understandable his very far.

The cleansing was done to chase away the evil spirits, and i demolished the whole house after that and built it from scratch. Today i did the final touches and I'm just waiting for her to take off the blindfold. I just can't wait to see her expression on her face.

Muzi - ready?

Khosi - yes and i will kill you for abusing me.
"She took of the blindfold and gasped looking at this modern double story house infront of her".
Don't tell me you..... you sneaky sly. How did you pull this off? Why didn't you tell me?

Muzi - it was meant to be a suprise nje muntu wami. Do you like it I'm not sure about the colour though.

Khosi - i don't like it.

Muzi - ow.

Khosi - i love it, why are we still standing outside. Come show me the inside dude.

Muzi - you got me there for a second there. Yazi wena you almost gave me a heart attack.

She laughed as she opened the door and got the shock of her life.

Khosi - ow my God i can't wait to have sex in this kitchen it's out of this world.

My wife has become a sex addict and her addiction is something else.

I watch her as she scans her eye's around and she paused looking at her big picture on the dinning room wall. My baby is so overwhelmed and crying. Thank God she's crying tears of joy.

Muzi - I'm sorry Pinky for making you cry.

Khosi - what will i do with you, i love our home it's way too better than the way i imagined it.

Muzi - i love you.

Khosi - i love you too.

3 YEAR'S LATER

Life has been good for everyone in the Ngcobo family. Unfortunately baba passed away a year ago and it was the hardest time for everyone. The penguins are now three years and they are pretty grown not forgetting that Mama P is pregnant yet again with another set of sextuplets after Papa P sworn that he will never make his wife pregnant ever again and she's due anytime. Business has been booming, Phaka signed over his two businesses to his brother's just for gratitude. The farm was signed over to Muzi and the shelter for the homeless was signed over to Sphe and they seem to be doing pretty well for themselves. Phaka is now into taxi association and he recently sealed a contract with them.

Sphe and Angela have a beautiful daughter who's a year old, Sphe is the sweetest father any daughter or son could ever wish for. Angela got promoted at work as a matron cause her work was magnificent with the patients and she has a heart of gold. Their life has been nothing but peaceful.

Muzi and Khosi spend most of their time travelling. Nezibusiso is two year's and six months. Khosi's mother gave birth the same day as Khosi. Cause Khosi has a good, loving heart she took in her mother's baby which is her sister and they are taking good care of her. They do visit prison from time to time.

Nqobile decided to take her own life, she jumped out of the building from the 27 floor when she discovered that her ex Sphe is happily married and now has a family. She felt pain knowing she left a good man that loved her dearly for someone who was never in love or interested with her. The year's have been very rocky for her, her father tried all he could but nothing was working. She was too broken to be fixed.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

How did i get her pregnant again, this pregnancy is making her even more crazier than the first one. Ever since she came into my life she became the light of ny life, she respects me and loves me regardless anything. When i look at the picture's back then i just laugh. This woman gave me all the reasons to live and i have no regrets that our marriage was arranged. It's actually something to remember and not forgettable.

She's a blessing any husband could ever ask for, I look at her munching the peaches without care. Thank God the penguins are asleep cause it was going to be a wrestling match. We are having a set of girls this time around and the house is big enough to accommodate each and everyone of us. She's truly my heaven saint and I don't see myself falling for another woman.

Zelo - what, why are you standing there looking at me like a lost puppy "as she asked with her mouth full of peaches".

Phaka - can't I admire my beautiful wife. You look beautiful.

Zelo - mhhh i don't trust you.

Phaka - but i know you do trust me when i tell you i love you.

Zelo - if you love me bring me more peaches then. I swear I'm never getting pregnant after this. What's the use cause they look somuch like you and nothing like me.

Phaka - I'm sure the girls will look like their gorgeous mother.

Zelo - ithi uyadlala wena, didn't you see the scan they looked exactly like you.

Phaka burst into laughter his woman was surely losing it. He keeps falling in love with her more deeper minute by minute making him insanely in love.

SPHESIHLE (SPHE)

Past three year's i got to achieve alot of things with the help of my brother. The highlight of my life is my traditional wedding, this woman right here is my everything. My BlackBerry is my peace and happy place. I don't think I'll ever survive without her. I once thought Nqobile was the one for me, honestly speaking i never loved her guess i was blinded by flashy life style that she gave me.

MUZIKAYISE (MUZI)

I look at my sleeping beauty right beside me. Did i mention the love i have for her is making me loose my mind. When ever i think of her my heart skips a beat. Not forgetting to mention that she's a good psychologist.

Nezibusiso is alot of work she's tripple the trouble and there's Khanyisile who's an angel. I never thought my wife would love her sister as her own. We practically treat them as twins since they were born on the same day.

Another part that makes me emotional is the love and support our brother has shown us. After everything we put him through he still looks out for us. On our wedding days he played the fatherly role even though I'm the eldest he took charge and not even once he complained.

Gcina moved permanently to Cape Town i guess Zubby is treating him like an egg.
Lungelo is doing his last year he can't wait to be back home.

A tiny knock disturbs my missionary thoughts and i just knew it's Nezi, Khanyi never disturbs our peace. I open the door and i saw her grinning showing those tiny teeth and i just knew she has done something wrong.

Muzi - what did you do?

Nezi - dada tivi pheyiye duduh phihlilililili "as she screamed slinding down the steps and she never gets hurt".

I rushed down stairs only to find my new plasma tv broken. How did she pull it from the top, i look at her she's standing there clapping her hands in excitement thinking she did a great job. Raising a toddler is no childs play. I feel sorry for Phaka, but we do babysit from time to time and yerrr it's one hell of a mission plus chaos. But all in all we are good parent's dispite the challenges we faced in life.

MPHAKAMSENI (PHAKA)

Don't judge the book by it's cover, every person in life has their own purpose, they have their own journey to fulfil. Never look down on someone else not knowing what tomorrow might bring you. Everyone is going to hurt you, you just gotta find the one's worth suffering for. Have a clean heart and you don't wish another fellow human evil. Life will let you get away with something for a while but sooner or later you will pay the price, everything you do in life causes the effects that you experience and when you get the bill be prepared for it.

When i look back on my life i can see the pain I've endured, the mistakes I've made and the hard times I've faced. When i look at myself in the mirror i see how strong I've become and I'm proud of who i am today. Don't Block your blessings by seeking revenge on people that wronged you let it go and trust God to fight all your battles. Accept what is let go of what was and have faith in what will be. Yesterday is history tomorrow is a mystery and today is a gift of God which is why we call it present.

I love my family more than anything, we managed to start over everything again, when you restart your life you get another chance to make things right.

There's a quote that says :- jealousy is only found in the people who are overwhelmed by their failures.

My life was not an easy journey but managed to conquer all obstacles and tribulations I've faced. With my wife and penguins beside me I know all things are possible. Our journey hasn't ended it's still yet to begin. The journey of Mphakamseni The Arranged Man was definitely an interesting journey.
