

Misokuhle My Queen

introduction

Love does not need to be perfect it just needs to be real. This story embarks on a journey of two fortunate lovers, Misokuhle Mimi Dube and Zwelikhathabantu Sizwe Mahlangu. Misokuhle is a quite and a simple female that lives an ordinary life just like any other female figure but that all changed when she discovers something about her prince charmer's life that will transform her lifestyle for a lifetime.

chapter 1

Polokwane is such a busy city but I guess it is not like Johannesburg because from what I have heard from my friends that live there now they say it is the most busy city because it is the city of gold, huge and amazing. It is filled with job opportunities. I have never been there but I promise myself and my younger brothers to go there one day. For now I am still in Polokwane living my life the way God has planned it.

My name is Misokuhle Mimi Dube, 25 years old and a hustler. I am a part time cashier in The Royal at the Savannah mall. I so hate this job but I have no choice because I need the money, I also work at the filling station for night shifts only on weekends which is so tiring at times.

Well I guess I shouldn't complain because they are people who don't have jobs because of the 4th industrial revolution so I should be happy for what I have. I live in Tzaneen with my grandmother, trouble some uncle and my two younger brothers, Vusimuzi and Mduduzi, they are twins, 15 years of age and very naughty. Our parents live in Johannesburg because of work but since they left when I was 11 years old they never came back but I always pray and hope that one day they will come through my room door and say "Mimi we are back" that is how my father use to call me.....now he is in my endless dreams.

I did complete my high school which is something rare in my family. My grandmother was so happy because I am the first person in my family to complete school and even go to university. I got my degree in business management and since forever I have always wanted to become a business woman and I decided to make that dream come true by going to university. After my studies grandmother lost her job. She use to work as a cleaner at some white man's house but then she lost that job because she use to steel food for us. After that incident because of this is a small world the news got to everybody's ears then she became unemployed since from that day but I am glad that she never got arrested. I on the other side had no capital/ money to start my business so what I did was to work two jobs and provide for my family which is what I am currently doing.

18:00 I am already at the filling station and ready to work. Mr Reddy is standing by the counter waiting for us, the people who will be working a night shift to sign in to show that we were present on that day.

"Miss Dube I see that you are early" he says

"As always sir" I say

"I love your enthusiasm and that makes us more money. Keep it up"

Wow! That's so nice to start my night shift

"Thank you sir and have a good night " I say with a smile walking out

I got out and did what I am specialized at which is to smile,greet,provide a service and farewell for safe driving. Other people leave tips for my smile, I don't blame them everywhere I go people love my smile because of my deep dimples that are noticeable. I love them too, grandmother says I look more like my mother specially as I have grown older.

After work I walk to the taxi rank. It is so rainy but I had no plan B than to wait. They were guys smoking weed next to me which I hated the smell of weed because it smells like urine or is it because it is raining.....mmmm I wonder. Minutes later they was a green Corsa that stopped next to the shop and a tall, dark, not muscular but thin with brown, Chinese eyes guy walked out of the car.

"Legend how is it?" The guys next to me greets him

"I am good" he says with a deep base

I kept on staring at his eyes. They is nothing I enjoy than staring what I am not use to. He had a gold teeth at his left teeth and another silver teeth at the same side but at the bottom. He saw that I am staring but never minded me at all. You could tell that he was those famous boys in the hood for all the bad doings, judging from his outfit which is so colorful, expensive labels and price tags.

"So we are going to Zab Ana's house party tonight" he says with excitement while dancing

"Yes we are so you going to give us a left right?"

The other guy asks

"I will see about that because I am still going to eat some pussy later on"

Did he just say that? Some guys don't have respect who speaks like that in public.

When I saw a taxi stop I immediately walked off without hesitation because if I stand any longer I will be there next targeted topic.

08:00 I was home and my brothers and grandmother were already prepared to go to church. No matter how tired I am I will never miss church because that is where I feel safe and free. Plus I am also singing in the church choir so I can't miss church.

"Please wait for me to bath" I say

"No greetings you just come in my house and instruct us what to do"

"Sorry grandmother" I say still walking to the bathroom

Today I will bath with cold water, it will help me to stay up at church. After I got dressed in my white body hugging dress with my white flat shoes, combed my short hair.

"I am ready" I say taking my Bible and handbag

"Finally she came" Mduzuzi says

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

He is the fat and talkative twin. He always bosses Vusimuzi around because he is so quiet and thin too. They so close which is something I love about them. Vusimuzi is an obsessed cleaner just like me and our other brother, Mduzuzi never cleans or helps around the house all he does is eat and sleep or go out with his friends and come back late

"Don't exaggerate" I say

"Oh please everyone knows that you are always late" he says

I give him a death stare and he laughs.

Everyone at home finds my death stares funny I don't know why.

"Grandmother we can go before I hit someone so bad" I say

They laugh

"Granddaughter don't ever be angry in your life because your lips gets smaller and your big eyes become bigger" she says laughing

Most people say I have big eyes and that really does make me angry or when they call me fat. When I was younger I use to be thin and all that but when I grow up I get these huge hips and a big behind, mind you they are naturally there. I never asked for them they were just given to me.

"Come on now guys we are going to be late for church" I say

We walk out with them still laughing. We place the key under the door mat for when our uncle gets home.....if he does. My uncle are those uncles that have so many girlfriends, so many kids, always drunk and never goes to church or sometimes never comes back home for the whole week, especially when it is month end he never comes home and the only time he comes back is when his pockets are flat.

Anyway back to the present moment we walk to church and when we got there the service has already began so we joined in and enjoyed the church as always. After we walked home and when we got home the boys went to play soccer while me and grandmother cooked.

"My girl you know that one day you will make a good wife"

"Yes grandmother. You always tell me that grandmother" I say with a smile

"I wish that will be soon before I die" she says

"Grandmother you are not dying why are you speaking like that?"

"Sorry just that at times I wish to see the man you will marry one day so that I can tell him myself how amazing you are"

"You will grandmother when the time is right" I say

She giggles

"You remind me of how I use to be when I was young. I was just like you"

She began to tell me her everyday story, how she met my late grandfather and how crazy in love she was. Even though it is the everyday story but it never bores.

When we were done cooking I went to go call the boys from the soccer field because it was already too late. They love complaining when you call them to come back home but I am hearing non of it. We got home ate then they went to wash the dishes.

Later we all went to sleep.

The next morning is here I prepare the bath for the boys, went to wake them up so that they can go and bath while I cleaned around the house with grandmother preparing breakfast and lunch boxes.

When they were done to bath I followed after them got dressed in my black jean, white golf t-shirt and my showing toes white high heels. I have to present myself because in The Royal shop business men and women always enter that shop for custom made outfits. I also love fashion and maintaining myself but I don't wear make-up because it burns my face, I also don't wear waves because they are not good for my hair liner. I keep myself natural and fashionable as possible.

"Sister on Saturday we have a soccer match and our coach said we must pay R200,00 if we want to go" Mduzuzi says

"Are you asking me or telling me?"

"Sorry sister. May you please pay for our soccer match on Saturday" he asks respectfully

They both look at me with cute eyes

"I will see what I will do but just so you know I am not promising anything" I say

They hug me then we walk together to the vendor at the corner to wait for the taxi there. As we were waiting the brown Chinese eyes guy came walking this time and stood there for a smoke of weed. I stare at him again and this time around he noticed that I am staring at him and we kept on stealing glances at each other. I could tell that he also enjoyed staring at me as much as I enjoyed staring at him.

Finally the taxi came and I must say I was irritated because I wanted to keep on staring at his amazing brown eyes. We got in the taxi at the front four seats with me sitting at the door and when I close the door I stare at his eyes for the last time and our eyes met for a minute there then he smiles and shakes his head. I think he thinks I am crazy but anyway it doesn't matter what he thinks because I am in love with his eyes and not him.....wait does that even make sense, well whatever.

After walking my brothers to school I got to work just in time.

"Hi Mimi" Lilly greets

Lilly is the owner of The Royal, friend and my heroine. We have been friends from grade 10. What made us friends was because we do look alike and we enjoyed people telling us that we look alike. She knows my situation at home and she has been helping me ever since. She is the one that gave me this job and she promised to pay me the same salary as the other employees because she wanted to pay me more money but I told her that she was being unethical. I even threatened her that I will take her to court and make a lie about her business.

"Hi and how are you sister?"

"You know that when I have you by my side I am more than ok"

We giggle and got in the shop. We are the first two to arrive.

"It hurts me that you live far away from here but you always make sure that you are early at work and those who leave closer are always late" she says

"No its ok"

She looks at me and smiles

As time went by the other employees got to work and did what we a paid to do.

At 19:00 we were out so Lilly offered me a left

"So how is home?"

"Better"

"Ok I guess that means the problems are lesser"

"Yes they are" I answer so sure

"How is your dating life?"

"Still single"

"And a virgin" she adds

"Yes"

"Mimi the guy that is going to date you should first pay lobola of R500 000 000,00 because my darling you are hard to get and hard to hold just like gold" she says

"Why would you even say that because last time I checked I am just a useless being. I mean like I don't know how to kiss, hug or do anything in a relationship, I am just a stupid virgin"

"Don't worry if that guy truly loves you he will teach you all those things but I would advice you to be yourself in a romantic relationship then the rest will follow"

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Oh shame he will leave me the very first day because I can't give him a kiss at the first date"
I say

She laughs and I join in Every time I am with her I feel alive and young as I am

We got in my hood then she left me at the corner shop.

"Thank you and bye" I say

"Pleasure boo-boo"

I got off her car. When I turn I meet with the brown Chinese eyes guy.

"Hi" he says

"Hi" I greet shyly

"May I please walk you home?"

"Ummmmm.....they won't be a need for that" I say after a struggle of pulling words and my voice back.

"Ok let me walk you home" he says

Didn't he hear me I said NO!

"Sir you don't need to worry yourself. I said I will be fine"

"Are you coming or not because I am waiting for you" he says holding his hands behind his back and staring into my eyes

I am not willing to walk with him home. Guys with gold teeth are not mostly likely to be trusted in my area. They say they carry guns everywhere they go and they rape girls. Their group name is PBB(Psycho By Birth).

1,2...3 I RAN FOR MY DEAR LIFE

I turned and he was still standing there with a smile on his face and shakes his head

"TAKE OFF YOUR SHOES SO THAT YOU DON'T HURT YOUR ANKLE" he yelled

When I got to my house I was relieved that he never ran after me or tried anything awkward. Oh God my feet hurts, I should have taken off my shoes like he instructed earlier.

"Misokuhle, My Queen

chapter 2

"Sister you promised us" Mduduzi says

"I didn't promise but I can go and talk to your couch" I say

"That is something better than nothing"
Vusimuzi says

I look at my waist watch for time and I will be late so I wrote a letter to their coach asking him that can the twins go at the match and I can pay at the end of the month because I am currently broke.

After putting my filling station uniform I got on a taxi to work and thank the Lord the brown Chinese eyes guy wasn't at the shops today. After what has happened I am not really sure about facing him ever again. What I do now is to hide to make sure that he does not see me and the saddest part is that there is no other route to get a taxi to the city so I have to live with hiding like a mouse in my own home town. When I went in to sign that I am in Nelly told me that Mr Reddy is looking for me so I went to his office.

"Oh my best employee please take a seat" he says

"Hi sir" I greet back with a smile

I sat down then my attention turned to the person that was next to me.

"Hi. What a small world but I must say I am glad to see you again" he says

"You know each other?" Mr Reddy asks

"Y.....es" I startle

"Well then that is great because you going to work just right together" Mr Reddy says

I swallow hard

"Misokuhle meet Zwelikhathabantu. You will be helping him around the garage and where he needs help at"

Oh God what is happening to the lovely world that you have created

"Why me sir?" I ask

"Because you are the best and most people leave tips because of you so why not you?"

"I have never had to do such in my life" I say

"Don't worry I know you will do the best" Mr Reddy says

We look at each other. He has a smile on his face.

"We are done here. Have a great day and just so you know Misokuhle I trust in you" Mr Reddy says

We both stand up and I lead the way. I can feel that the Chinese brown eyes are all over my body which makes me more nervous about this day. When we got outside he breaks the silence.

"So your name is Misokuhle after all" he says

"Yes" I say avoiding eye contact

"Where do we start Misokuhle? "

"Ok to be honest I have never trained someone to do their jobs so if I do anything wrong or say anything wrong please also feel free to assist"

"Ok then Misokuhle" he says smiling

"We are going to start with filling up the tanks of the cars that come into our garage which I know you can do. Don't forget to smile and be respectful because in this garage customers are always right"

His face changes to a confused look with one left eyebrow up and the other one down.

"Misokuhle my smile is only going to be known by you, secondly when customers are disrespectful I will also be disrespectful towards them because most things are earned and not just given"

"I don't know about your comment but I beg you to please do what is right because if you do anything wrong the blame will be on me" I beg

He smiles again

"Obedient I see. I will do what's right but not for them, for you" he says brushing my chin

Is he seriously doing this at work?

Time to go home 18:00- 06:00 its no child's play. I am tired and hungry as hell. Working with Zwelikhathabantu was so awkward there and there but I hope and think that as time goes by we will get use to working with each others.

I am walking to the rank then I hear a bell behind me, at first I ignored it because I am not use to cars hooting for me then I heard a male voice calling out my name with that I just knew it that it is Zwelikhathabantu.

"Hey girl let me give you a lift" he says with his bottom lip in his mouth.

"No thank you".

"Come on Misokuhle plus we are going to the same place"

"I don't know you that well to ride your car"

"As much as you don't know the taxi driver"

I stare at him contemplating whether should I ride or not

"Are you sure that you will take me home?"

"Yes I am sure as hell and please no running this time"

We giggle

Well I am tired so let me take this opportunity. Before I go in I make a short prayer then opened the back door and got in.

"Oh so you hate me that much to even sit at the back"

"I think it will be inappropriate if I take the front seat" I say

He giggles and drives off

"So tell me about yourself. You know I never got that opportunity to ask you at work"

We stare at each other at the rear view mirror with me saying nothing

"So you not going to talk to me?" He asks

"What do you want to know about me?" I ask looking at my feet

"Anything and everything"

"Like what?"

"Mmmmmm, maybe your age, what do you do for a living, do you have family and friends, do you have a boyfriend or are you a virgin. Things like that"

"I am a 25 years old single lady that got her business management degree 4 years back.

Working two boring jobs to provide for my two twin younger brothers and my grandmother. I am single and the last question I won't answer because it is sensitive and secretive"

He giggles

"Do you want to know about me?" He asks

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

chapter 3

It has been a month and I must say that it has been the best. I have been always looking forward to the weekend night shifts just so I can meet the funny Zwelikhathabantu. He is not that bad like I thought, Zwelikhathabantu is just a talkative, fashionable, neat and a straight talker. Sometimes he does hurt people with his direct words but he seems to care less. With the money that he doesn't accept I usually hide it somewhere around the car and even still today he hasn't seen it. Grandmother always asks about the car that drops me off in the mornings and I tell her that at work they have offered us transport.

Today it is Saturday and I am going for my night shift so today he is coming, don't get me wrong he has an amazing personality that I enjoy. When I was done I made my lunch box larger than usual, the thing is he loves my home made cooked meals so we share my lunch box together. So here's a story they was this one time he had no lunch money so I shared my home made burger with him and since from that day in his books I am known as the best cook and his wife. The "wife" naming it is just a joke, ok I guess so.....oh my, what am I saying I hope that it is a joke.

"What is wrong with you granddaughter are you trying to finish our grocery?" Grandmother asks

"No grandmother it's just food for me and my friend"

"Your friend? Is it that one that is going to give you a ride this afternoon?"

"Ummmmm no no no no not at all. It is for my friend at work"

"But ever since you have worked in that filling station you have never made lunch box for anyone"

"He is new" I answer

"He?"

Oh shoot

"I mean she"

"Mmmmmm"

PEEE! PEEEE!

That is the the sound of my transport so I have to go.

"Bye grandmother see you later and I love you" I say walking out not waiting for her respond

I got outside and he was there inside his car, I walk in

"Hi" I greet

"How are you my wife?"

"I am good and you?"

"I am happy that you are sitting at the front seat without trouble" he says

Last time he even locked the back doors for me to sit at the front. That day I was so angry at him but eventually I agreed because we had to get to work.

I laugh with him joining me as he drives off

We got to work and did what we usually do.

Today Zwelikhathabantu was so touchy touchy, at my hips, waist and steel kisses which made me so uncomfortable so I would move his hands away from me now and again.

After work he drove me to his house which was at ehostela (flats). I am frightened because places like these are not likely to be safe.

"Are you sure that this place is safe?" I ask trembling

"Yes. My wife when you have me you have got everything so don't be scared"

He walks out of the car and I follow him holding my handbag right at my breasts and holding Zwelikhathabantu's index finger tight

"My wife relax" he says

I breathe out

He looks at me with a smile then shakes his head. As we were walking up the stairs and at passages my soul broke, seeing people smoke a lot of substances others thin and you could tell that they also need help but they still feeding their lives to death but I will keep them in my prayers

"Mama may I please have R2,00" another guy asks tapping my shoulder and that made me jump and scream a bit

"Hey hey voestek can't you see that you are scaring my wife!" Zwelikhathabantu yells out

The guy took out a knife and Zwelikhathabantu took out his gun from his left shoe.

"Go away now Vovo or I will shoot your scalp open!" Zwelikhathabantu says

This man wasn't backing down

This happened so fast. Zwelikhathabantu's gun was on the floor and this guy was on top of him trying to stab him but he kept on fighting back.

"HELP HELP" I screamed out loud but nobody came out

Later they came out but not to help but to watch the fight.

Zwelikhathe bantu was being punched so hard and he had blood coming out of his nose and lips but he held on to the guy's hand that had a knife.

I had tears flowing out of my eyes, screaming for someone to help and an old man came

"Themba!" He shouted and the Themba guy stopped and moved away from Zwelikhathe bantu

"Sorry groot man" Themba says to the old man

I went to help Zwelikhathe bantu to get up. He was still strong even when his left eye and his lips were swollen. He picked up his gun from the floor.

"Legend just so you know you don't own or rule this place. In here I am the boss" the old man says

Zwelikhathe bantu stopped and faced this old man with an emotionless face then faced me

"Let's go to my flat" he says so calm

We walk to this door that had a big hole at the bottom. He took out his house key from his pocket and opened.

It saddened me that there is a person living in such a place. The walls were cracking, the paint was vanishing, it was just a small empty space with a kitchen in one corner and a bed with no base at the other side.

He went to sit on top of his bed while groaning in pain

"Ummmmm do you have water?" I ask

"Yes. Right at the bucket"

I saw a bucket under the sink with a big dish on top of it. I boiled the water, when it was done boiling I put the water in the big dish then added cold water from the bucket to make the temperature of the water warm.

"Misokuhle,My Queen"

"Yes please"

"My name is Zwelikhathabantu Sizwe Mahlangu, 26 years old an entertainer. I entertain ladies everywhere I go and they all love me. I also do have other two brothers but they live in Zimbabwe with my parents. I love partying and having fun, the only reason that brought me to South Africa is to provide for myself, I just want to make my own personal money so that I can afford my expensive clothes"

He does have some nice life problems

"Interesting" I say making a sound with my lips

"entertaining ladies" I have to ask this question because I am thinking him as a stripper.

"you entertain ladies? "

"I dance, drink and have fun for a living. I am a skhotane"

"And do you get paid"

"Yes"

O.....k understandable

We got right at the gate of my home after all the directions I gave to him. I didn't want him to take me directly home but he strictly said it won't be safe walking alone in the dark morning.

"Thank you" I say

"Pleasure"

I take my bag and fish for some money to give it to him. I took out my today's taxi money and gave it to him.

"Here"

"No they is no need for that" he says

"But I want to"

"And I don't want to take it"

"Why?"

"Because I offer help and I don't expect any returns" he says

Oh then I give up. If I had energy I will be arguing with him but today I am tired so I just say my last thank you then walked out.

"Misokuhle,My Queen"

I took his sunlight bar and walked to the sleeping Zwelikhathabantu at the bed. I woke him up

"Misokuhle my body hurts" he says

"Yes I know and that is why I want to nurse you"

He brought his head up not moving his body but you could tell that he was shocked with what I said

"Get up" I instruct

I pull him up then took off his top, he is so thin I could even see his ripe cage

"This will hurt but it will help you heal" I say

"Ok"

He was groaning in pain as I was cleaning his wounds

"Zwelikhathe bantu was that a real gun?"

"Yes"

"Is it licensed?"

He keeps quite. I guess it is not

"Then why are you carrying an illegal gun? You know that you can be arrested right?" I ask

"I know but I don't kill people so I won't be arrested plus I am only using this to protect myself because the communication that these people in this place understand is violence"

I sigh

"Zwelikhathe bantu please be safe because people that use to live like you are either arrested or six feet under and just so you know about what that old man said about owning you he was wrong because the bible says the man should never pray for another son of man"

"What?" He looks confused

It explains that he never reads the bible

"I mean the old man does not own you and will never own you"

He stares at me with a smile

After we were done he suggested that he will stay top less because it will hurt him to put on his top again. I went to make pap for him and a tomato grave since they were the only available things in his cupboards.

I let him eat then he slept while I washed the dishes. First I took his phone and it was those cheap phones that had battens, I took his numbers so that I can check up on him. When I was done I prayed so that the people at this place don't do anything to me.

Holding my breath as I was walking out of that place I finally got to the rank then got a ride straight home.

chapter 4

Zwelikhathe bantu was happy the day I called him he couldn't believe it that I called but he felt bad that he should be the one who has my phone numbers and not the other way around so he promised to make it up to me this weekend but I told him that I will go out with him if only we go grocery shopping because his house is empty. He wanted to argue but I won because I was standing my ground.

"Mimi can we go buy grocery today?" My grandmother asks

"Yes but you can write a list then I can go and buy because I was also planning on going grocery shopping with someone"

"You and the transport driver from work?"

I swallow hard

"His name is Zwelikhathabantu and we are just friends by the way"

She chuckles

"We all said that to our parents" she says

"But I am honest. He is my friend"

"Mmmmmm"

She continued to clean. The boys were out to play so it was easy for us to clean. Later the boys came back and bath, my grandmother followed and I ended then got dressed in my white jean, blue jean shirt with my white ankle showing All-stars . My phone beeps inviting for my attention.

<hi my wife I am already outside> a text from Zwelikhathabantu

<ok I will be out now>

When I got out of my room the boys and grandmother stood up like they are going somewhere

"Grandmother you can give me the list because I am leaving now" I say as I walk out of my room

"They won't be a need for that because we are coming with you"

My eyes popped out. They have got to be kidding me

"But..."

"Don't worry we won't be mean towards him we just want to meet him" grandmother says

"Seems like she has frozen grandmother so let's just go introduce ourselves so we can go to town because I am already hungry" Mduzuzi says

They walk towards the door but I stop them

"I will lead the way" I say

We walk out only to be met by our drunk uncle and his new girlfriend. I guess he is back now.

"Where are you going?" He asks with a drunk voice

"We are going to town" grandmother says

"Ok buy some beer for me too"

"Mxm" grandmother says then puts the key in the plastic and placed it in her breast

"Mama why are you doing this now? You know that I must go in the house"

We ignored him because his very same girlfriends are the ones that steel things in the house so we can't risk that again. We walk to the car, well Zwelikhathabantu's face was priceless but I don't blame him. They welcomed themselves in the car, while I still wanted to ask him if he was ok with my family joining us.

"Hi groom" grandmother greets

"Grandmother he is only my friend"

They all laughed including Zwelikhathabantu

"Good morning ma" he answers

They laugh again

"What's up my wife, well if it is about what your grandmother said well it is true you are my wife, my lovie" he says touching my hand but I yank it away from him

I gave him a death stare which made him stop smiling and focus on the road. We got to Macro and bought food for him and also for us but in a separate trolley. We got to the till and Zwelikhathabantu was waiting at the other end with my brothers.

"You look beautiful mam just like a shining star" the male cashier says

I smile and say thank you

"Do you mind if I get your numbers so that we can get to know each other" the cashier says

"They won't be a need for for that. How about you do your job and we will also do what we here for" Zwelikhathabantu answers with an angry face

"Zwelikhathabantu the guy was just being nice" I say

"Oh please not now and not right here" he says giving me a rolled up big money then walks out

"Sister!" The boys shout at me

"Was that your boyfriend or something?" The cashier asks

"He is her husband " grandmother answers

"GRANDMOTHER!"

She gave me the most scary look ever then I controlled myself.

After helping with the grocery at home

Zwelikhathe bantu asked to talk to me and I agreed so we walked out together.

"So what do you want to talk about?" I ask

"How about we go unpack my grocery then we can talk"

"Are you sure that you will bring me back home?"

"I always bring you love"

We got in his car and we took off to his place. When we got there we unpacked his grocery with light conversations and laughter now and again. Now we were done so we sat on his bed.

"You said you want to talk so now talk" I say

" look Misokuhle I know it would be weird of me to say this or maybe you won't trust me but what happened today at the grocery store made me realized that if I don't tell you today I might lose you forever so to be honest I.....I..... I love you"

After saying that he looked away and my mouth on the other side was wide open. He turned back after some time and he had tears all over his face.

"I am sorry but I couldn't hide it anymore. Please forgive me" he says

I also feel warm liquid flowing to my checks. The next thing his lips were on mine. His lips are soft, sweet, warm and irresistible. At first I didn't respond because I don't know how to kiss but as the kiss got deeper I eventually responded. I don't know if I am a good kisser but he is not complaining so that means I am doing it just right. Instead of him complaining about my kiss his warm hands move to my waist and held me tighter like I was going to run away from the kiss.

chapter 5

I am in my black slick, body hugging, backless, knee length dress with my black high heels . I did a blond fade so I just brush it.

I am going out with Lilly today. We just having a girls out with our other friends from Johannesburg their names are Nandi and Linda.

There is a knock and grandmother goes to open.
They were all welcomed judging by the noise at
the living room

"Misokuhle your friends are here" grandmother says walking into my room

"Ok grandmother I am almost done. Let me tidy up here" I say

"Ok"

I tidy up then when I was done I walked out with them screaming for my outfit, mxm I forgot how crazy they can be at times

"Why are you screaming?" I ask

"You look sexy darling and ready to kill" Linda says

"Thank you" I say looking at myself at the mirror

"Let's go" Lilly says

We all walked out saying our good byes to my grandmother. When I got outside I froze.

"GUYS A BUS!!!" I yelled shocked

"Yes let's go in and have fun" Nandi answers

She pulls me in and as we got in we are met by male strippers, looking sexy in their six packs with only their so reveling underwear

"Guys are you sure about this?" I ask

"Come on Misokuhle this is our girls out please don't spoil it. Since we grew up we only facing a lot of responsibilities so this is our chance to have fun so enjoy" Lilly says

Well she is right let me enjoy myself while I still can.

"Let's have fun then!"

They scream in joy

The strippers were dancing for us. I must say I was uncomfortable because their penises were all over my face but I really did enjoy touching their strong packs. My man does not have them, he is just thin so you can't blame me for liking their packs. Yes you heard it right MY MAN or should I say MY ZWELIKHATHEBANTU. We have been dating for 3 weeks and our relationship is fun and always miss able. I love him so much from the moon and back.

We are dancing, drinking but I was drinking an energy drink and having the time of our lives.

I wake up and my head in banging like I was drinking alcohol, my back is hurting because I was sleeping upside down on the bed.

"Oh God" I groan in pain

I turned then they is Zwelikhathebantu next to me. I check myself if I am still wearing everything and yes everything is still there. How did he get here? I mean how did I get here because last time I checked I was dancing and having fun in the bus then I slept there so how did I get to this expensive hotel.

I shake him and he wakes up. He looks so cute when he wakes up. He stretches then looks at me with a sleepy face.

"Love how did I get here with you?" I ask

"Is it wrong that you are here with me? "

"No it's just that I don't remember coming here with you"

"Well don't worry yourself about that"

I give him a confused face

"Why?"

"Why what?" He asks

"Why won't you tell me the truth?"

"Just because I won't tell you"

"Are you stalking me?" I ask

He looks away. I get on top of him then make him look at me. I love this guy's brown Chinese eyes specially on the closer view. I should start giving him a nick name about his eyes.

"So you are stalking me huh brown eyes" I conclude

"Well when you say stalking it sounds like I am those bad guys in the movies just say I was just watching or looking what's mine"

"What's yours?"

Mmmmmmm entitlement but I love it

"Yes" he answers with confident

His hands reaches for my bums then plays with them. I give him a morning baby kiss and try to get off him but he tightened his grab at my bums.

"Zwelikhathebantulu!"

"What lovie?" He asks so calmly with small red sexy eyes now

"I want to get off"

"Well how about you first tell me what were those strippers doing in that ride with your friends?"

"Just dancing for us, us touching their abs"

His one eyebrow went up and the other one down

"But love your body is more sexy than theirs" I say rubbing his topless chest

After I feel his hard penis. My eyes popped out

"You can't be real" I say

"What my wife it's still morning and you on top of me so you made it stronger"

His hands moved from my bums to my neck then he gives me the longest enjoyable kiss

"I love you" he says

"I love you more"

I got off him and what I saw was traumatic. I didn't know that he had such a huge penis. He rubs it and smiles at me

"Don't worry I am gentle and irresponsible in bed. You just wait for that day where I will have you"

I walk to the bathroom with my mouth shut because what I just heard shocked me. I bathed with these small free supplied body cloth and a small toothbrush but I have no choice because I didn't bring my things with me.

I walk out and Zwelikhathabantu was not in the room so I get dressed with my yesterday's clothes without using lotion on my body.

<love where are you?> I texted
Zwelikhathabantu

<buying breakfast at Mugg n Bean>

Where does Zwelikhathabantu get this money to buy these expensive things ?

<ok I will be waiting >

<someone is already missing me> he texted back

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Hi please take a seat" the man says

He was also looking good in his black suit with a white shirt and black Italian shoes with a skin of a cow around his shoulders.

We sat down. The mother went to get some wine and gave it to us.

"Ummmmm mam if you don't mind me asking if is this wine alcoholic or not?"

"It is not" she says with a smile

Silence

"So you must me Misokuhle" the old man says staring at me right in my eyes

"Yes sir"

He giggles

"Let me bring food" the mother says walking to the kitchen

The father was just staring at the glass of wine like they is something that he was going to find in the glass. The mother comes back with our food already in our plates. Its seven colors Sunday meal on Saturday.

"Baba say the grace" she says to the father

We hold hands then say the grace then after we began to eat.

"Lady I am Zwelikhathabantu's father. I would love it if you would call me Bab' Mahlangu and this lovely lady that cooked this fantastic food for us, is Zwelikhathabantu's mother"

"And I would also prefer you calling me Mam' Mahlangu"

They smile and I return it. I think the awkward moments are all over.

"What do you do for a living lady?" Bab' Mahlangu asks

I did expect such a question

"I am currently working two jobs one at a petrol station and the other one at my friends shop The Royal"

I expected judgments after but they was non of them.

"That's impressive" the father says

How is that impressive?

"Well at times I find it embarrassing....."

"The little things that we say with our mouths can destroy us as humans so you better watch what you say young lady" he says

True

We continue to eat with light conversations then after Ma' Mahlangu calls me to help with the dishes. In such a big house I expected domestic workers everywhere but here no they are non of them.

"Ma' Mahlangu why are they no workers working for you in such a enormous house?"

"Well I am not that old to pay people for that. I am just 98 years sexy woman with three kids. By the way why are you asking"

"No just asking"

What she is 98 and still standing I must say she is Strong and may God bless her with many more years to come.

After washing the dishes we took a tour around the house telling me how Zwelikhathabantu grew up. In a day I have just discovered that Zwelikhathabantu was the bossy one, overprotective of his positions and always loves order and neatness.

Hours later I was already to go home so when we walked into the living room where Zwelikhathabantu and his father was I told him that we should go.

"Oh yeah about that lovie I was hoping we spend a night here"

WHAT!!!

"But I don't have my things here with me"

"I will make a plan the next morning about that so chill"

I sigh

I won't argue with him in front of his parents that would be rude and I am not those ladies that have the gut to fight with their lovers in front of people but that doesn't mean I won't confront him when we are together.

We stay for a while with his parents then went to his room behind the house. If you can ask me if this is a room I would say its just a house behind a bigger house just that it is not a double story. They is a huge white kitchen when we walk in then they is spacious living room facing the dinner table room and a long passage with rooms and bathrooms.

He pulls me to the last door in the passage, I think this is the main bedroom.

We are on his bed with him sleeping on his stomach and me facing the roof and looking at each other.

"What were your highlights tonight?"

"Everything to me was perfect. Your mom's food was amazing, they were not difficulties on me, like.....everything was perfect"

He smiles. I want to bring up this decision that he made about me staying here without me but knowing first that just coming to think about it I would have been home alone in the darkness.

His hand moves to my belly and he got closer.
He was breathing right at my ear.

"I love you" he says as a whisper

He kissed my neck slow which made me moan so softly. He moves to my lips and started to remove my clothes from me like I also did to him. Wait wait wait is this really happening right now.

I stop him

"Zwelikhathe bantu I am a virgin" I say with trembling lips

"I know my lovie. Let me do my job as your husband and trust me I will be gentle"

He kisses me but I stop him

"You are sure that you not playing games with me right?"

"Yes my lovie"

He continued to kiss me slow, soft and gentle as always. His middle finger goes to my cave then plays with it.

"Aaaaaa" I moan between the kisses

He keeps on going slowly.

"Whatever pain you feel send it to me" he places my hands behind his back

Some time later he got between my legs then entered me. Oh God this is more painful than I ever thought. My nails were digging into his skin and me screaming while he also groans.

"Aaaaaaa Zwelikhathabantu this is painful"

He keeps on groaning

"You tight and warm aahhh"

"Zwelikhathabantu you hurting me"

"Hold on my baby we are almost there"

He never stopped instead he was increasing his pace which made the pain worse

"AAAAAAAAAAAAAA Zwelikhathabantu"

"Sorry the queen of my heart, sorry mother of my unborn kids, sorry my wife, sorry the mother of our home. I am really sorry" he says still moving in and out of me.

chapter 6

I am so missing my loud family now but my love is keeping me busy today and I am happy that he is inviting me out with his best friend and his girlfriend. Which means I will be keeping my mind busy today.

I bath then got dressed in my body hugging, backless, black dress with my black and red high heel sandals peep toe.

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK

Oh shoot if its him well he does knock like a policeman.

I open the door and their stood him, looking handsome and sexy in his black ripped jean, white long Nike top, black jean jacket with his white Nike sneakers. He had his usual smile on his face.

"Hi" I greet with a smile

"Hi"

"Should I let you in or should I take my bag and go?" I ask

"Well it won't be respectful if I enter your home"

I smile

"Ok let's go"

We walk out and I lock the door. When he drove off I called my uncle and told him I was not home and he was still ok because he was not coming home either way.

"You look amazing" he says

"You not bad yourself" I say with a smile

He does look amazing. I can tell that he loves fashion just like me.

He giggles

"When you say that it makes me feel like I am not looking the best like I should, I just look good and that is bad" he says with a smile looking at me

"Hahahaha really"

"Yes"

He has a smile and a frown at the same time

"Sorry my love. You look handsome" I say holding his thigh

"That sounds better"

"Not best?" I ask with a frown

He giggles

"My wife you so funny when you frown. You look.....look.....so cute like how our babies will"

I fold my arms and look at him still frowning. I hate it when my family says that and now my boyfriend says that to me oh God

"Sorry sorry I didn't mean to hurt your feelings I was just saying that you look cute"

I roll my eyes

"Whatever bra" I say

"Bra?"

I just look at him with no answer

"Did my wife just called me bra?"

"What's wrong about that"

"Girls don't call guys that" he says with a serious face

"Were I grew up from we call guys like that....."

"But I am not those guys so it better be the last time you say that to me"

I giggle

"I am serious" he says with a serious face

Oh God he looks scary when he looks this serious

"Ok sorry"

We drove in silence till we stopped to a huge gate.

"Lovie are you angry?" He asks so softly

"No, why are you asking that?"

"I see that you not looking at me and you quite"

"No I am just thinking"

No I am angry that he doesn't want me to call him bra but I won't say it because I don't want us to fight.

He sighs

"Misokuhle I can see right through you so don't lie"

"Don't worry I will be fine. So this is your Friend's house?"

He looks at me for a long time

"Please talk to me"

"I will be fine"

He held my hand and tighten it a little bit

"I am sorry if I did something that broke you but I was just saying I don't want you calling me with such words"

"Ok its cool and I understand"

Even when I don't

We walked out of the car and got in through the gigantic gate. His right hand was on my bum. Showing his position in my life, I guess.

"I love you" he says stopping me before we go in

I fake a smile. I think I am not yet good enough to say the three important words. He sighs then knocks on the door. A dark skinned Chinese black eyes, thin lady but has a good shape, judging with her white body hugging, knee length dress and a Ndebele blanket covering her arms and white morning shoes opens the door. She looks a bit older, maybe in her fifties.

"Oh welcome in" she says

We walk in. The house is tremendous, classic and clean. We wait for her to close the door.

"Good afternoon" she says

"Afternoon mam" I greet

We handshake

"Hi mom" Zwelikhathabantu says

WHAT? DID HE JUST SAY MOM!!!???

"come let's walk to the dinner table room" she says leading the way

"Why didn't you tell me that we are going to meet your mom" I whisper

"You don't want to be here" he says out loud

Which made his mother stop and stare at us

"You already want to go?" His mother asks with a sad face

"No mam we are just joking" I say faking a laughter

She smiles then continues to lead the way.
Zwelikhathe bantu laughs at me and I hit him playfully but he never stops laughing.

We enter the dinner table room. The room is vintage and neat. A man with big brown eyes stands up when we enter.

"Baba here they are" the mother says as she walks towards the man's arms

They baby kiss then the man stares at us with a serious face that is scary just like Zwelikhathabantu.

Well ok now I see that Zwelikhathabantu took his mother's shape of eyes but took the color of his father's eyelids. Nice

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

The sun is already out, shining bright. I turn and I am met by a cute face of Zwelikhathabantu and a light snore, which I don't mind at all.

I slid out of the bed then I see blood on the sheet then what happened yesterday came back to my small brain. It is true that I just lost my virginity, I gave him what he could never return or buy. The question is, is he going to stay or is going to go like another guy does now in the 21st century to tell the world how my cave feels.

I feel tears as I think about this. I went to take a shower then got dressed in my yesterday's clothes. He was still asleep so I tried to pull the sheets and it happened without him waking up, I must say he is a heavy sleeper.

I opened the door and some few notes then sneaked out.

After sometime I was home and grandmother with my brothers were standing at the gate.

"Sorry I went to sleep at Lilly's house" I say

"Good morning to you too"

I open the gate. We walk in home and I walk to my bedroom and cry my lungs out.

God I didn't mean to do a wrong in my life. I was tempted please forgive.

Grandmother walks in and sits next to me

"What is wrong?" She asks with a worried face

"I did something wrong grandmother"

"What is it?"

I show her the sheet. She takes it and stare at it a while then faces me with a scandalized face.

"I didn't mean to be that careless grandmother I am so sorry, I am sorry, please forgive me"

She stands up angry and walk out.

chapter 7

The worst thing I have done in my life was to tell grandmother about losing my virginity. She has been mistreating me like I am not her granddaughter. I understand that she is disappointed in me but what hurts me now is that she even told my extended family to come so that they can make Zwelikhathabantu pay for taking what he cannot return.

I told Lilly about what is happening home but she couldn't do anything about it. I have been ignoring Zwelikhathabantu, I even stopped working at the Shell garage. He never gives up he even pays random people to come look for me specially kids.

To be honest I am not angry at anyone and I also don't shift the blame to anyone, I am just angry at myself for being tempted.

I am dressed in my solid pockets, off shoulder long sleeve, floor length, green dress with my see throw flat shoes. I have covered my head since my aunties instructed because they are here so I should wear respectful.

I am going to town to buy milk. The milk from my township does not smell good and I don't like it. Grandmother says I am chooses and spoilt but I don't care I still won't drink that sour milk.

"Going somewhere?" Grandmother asks

"Yes"

"Where to?" Aunty Kiki

"Town"

"For?" Aunty Keke

Oh really now! do I really really have to have an interview when I go out

"For milk" I say

"Are pregnant?" Aunty Zababa

"No"

They all look up and down then I walkout shutting the door hard. Which made grandmother to walk out so fast

"Hey you, you should never shut my door like that. I hope the way you shut my door is how you shut those thighs"

My hurt broke into small Atoms. How can she say that to me? Just because of one mistake and now I am treated like a stranger in my own home.

It takes me so much strength to don't back chart her because if I were to speck I would have been known at the ungovernable kid.

I am sitting at MacDonald's drinking my milk and in thoughts. Then I feel a large hand touching my belly. I look up only to be met by an old dark skinned chubby lady with snake eyes. Her eyes are green and the eyelids are thin.

I want to scream but I can't I don't have a voice. She takes out her thin tough

"The heart of this child will make me the most powerful men on earth" she says in a male voice

She touches my face then moves to my breast

"Well you look good maybe I can make you my 999th wife"

My lips are trembling but they can't pull apart from each other and my voice is gone.

I open my eyes and I am met by flashing lights. I close them then open them again. I look at my left hand side and there stood Zwelikhathebantu facing the window with his back on me.

"Zwelikhathebantu" I say in a whisper

He came running to me with red eyes.

"My wife are you ok? Where are you hurting?"

Should I call the doctor?" He asks so worried

"May I have water" I say

"Oh yes let me get them for you"

He walks out and came back with a jug and the doctor

"Here you go" he gave me a jug and I drank it all at once

They are both staring at me awkwardly.

"Thank you" I say

"Well it is a good thing that you drank all the water because you needed extra water in your body since you are carry another little one there" the doctor says

"Wait what?" I ask

"You are pregnant"

"You mean there is a little baby that looks like me in there?" Zwelikhathabantu asks

"Yes"

They both smile.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"NO NO NO THIS CAN'T BE REAL" I say with tears

"What do you mean?" Zwelikhathabantu asks with a confused face

"I mean I can't fall pregnant now. My grandmother is going to kill me"

Zwelikhathebantu looks at the doctor then the doctor walks out.

"Why would your grandmother kill you?"

"Zwelikhathebantu I told my grandmother that you broke my virginity so she has been treating badly because I won't tell them where you live. They wanted you to pay for breaking my virginity so I wouldn't talk because I felt it us unfair"

His hands are on his hand and he is breathing out fire

"Misokuhle why didn't you tell me this I would have done something"

"I was thinking that you....."

"You don't get to think for me young lady. I am a man and they is nothing I can't handle!"

"How can you say that because as I am your girlfriend I had to think for you"

"Yes my girlfriend and for a matter of fact you are my wife but let's get this straight I fight our battles and you stay back as my wife!"

He was busy yelling his lungs out till I got home. He took me home and he told me how bad and wrong I was to take a decision without talking to him.

"You are going to tell your elders that you are pregnant because Wednesday me and my uncles are coming"

I sigh

"Misokuhle did you hear me?"

"Yes"

I stood up and walked out.

Today is Wednesday and the uncles are at the gate shouting the clan praise.

I did expect this time. 06:00 am

I am standing at the window and staring at how this unfolds.

They are speaking to my male cousin, Dumisani then they got in. I can see his father and mother with the uncles.

I am in this hot shark with just me and the traditional mat and nothing else. It was my grandmother's idea, she thinks I will be hearing what they will be talking about so I should stay here.

This morning I was so happy that my female cousins are here. They came all the way from free state and others from North west.

I am having a difficulty communicating with them since they all speak Sotho and Pedi but I am used to it. I am learning it now and again but it is still difficult to speak but better to hear it there and there.

As I was now playing with my fingers aunty Kiki walks in

"It's time" she says

She covers me in a blanket then I walked out.

I was placed on a traditional mat with me still covered.

"This is my daughter and I want this to be done in an accurate manner" a deep male voice says

I know that voice

"And you Gigi(grandmother) don't ever and I mean ever contact us" a female voice says

I uncover myself and there stood my parents in matching outfits. I have been waiting for this day all my life.

"Mimi take your things and let's go" my dad says

"And be fast" my mom says

No no no. Now they stop right there.

"Why?"

"Stop asking a lot of questions and let's move out now!" My dad says

I stood up fast packed my bags and my brother's bags

"Actually you only needed a bag not bags" mom says

"They are for Mduduzi and Vusimuzi" I say

"What?!" They both stare at me shocked

"You have two kids?" Dad asks

What are they talking about don't they know their kids

Zwelikhathe bantu's father walks in looking angry

"Where the hell is the bride?!" He says

"Bambanani?" My father says

"Zibusiso?"

"What are you doing here?"

"I am here to pay my sons damages and lobola and what are you doing here?"

"I am here to take my daughter"

Dad pulls my hand

"Wait you can't do that. She is my daughter in law" Zwelikhathabantu's father says pulling me

"No let her go she is mine"

"Mine"

"Mine"

"Mine"

"Mine you fool" dad says

"Mine you big tall baby bottle"

This is really going to take the whole day

"Guys look!" Zwelikhathabantu's mom shouts

We turn and we are met by a group of transformers. Grandmother changed to a big black and red eyes chicken while my brothers changed to big fat black snakes with green eyes.

"Leave her alone!" A male voice comes out of the big black chicken

Zwelikhathabantu's father picks me up then runs with me out of the door

"ZIBUSISO!!! COME NOW WITH THE LADIES"

We all run out. We got into this jeep and drove off in high speed.

Is this a dream?

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

This should be a dream. No no no I disagree this should be a dream.

"Dad this can't be real. They are my brothers and my grandmother, they are not animals" I say between my cries

Dad is kneeling down facing me. We are in the vintage living room of Zwelikhathabantu's parent's house. Zwelikhathabantu is sitting at the far right with his father and mother. My mom was rubbing my shoulders.

"What you saw....."

"It was not true. It can't be real"

Zwelikhathabantu came to sit next me then rubbed my thigh which made my father to slap his hand.

"Don't touch my daughter" he says

"And you had no right to hit my son like his yours" Zwelikhathabantu's father says

"Bambanani don't interfere this is not about you so stay in your lane"

"What did you just say?" Zwelikhathebantu's father asked standing up

Zwelikhathebantu got between them

"Come on now. They are more things to worry about than what you are doing right now please stop" he says in a soft low voice

"But ndodanda (son) he had no right to do what he did" his father says

"It's cool dad it didn't hurt as you think"

"Are you sure ndodanda (son)?" his father asks rubbing his son's hand

Zwelikhathebantu smiled and nodded

"Ok then" his father says

Zwelikhathe bantu walked closer to me and placed his hands behind his back. He bent down and looked at me straight in the eyes. Oh God I forgot how amazing his brown Chinese eyes are closer.

"You will be ok my lovie. Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi)"

I giggled a little

"You have already gave our child a name?" I ask

"Yes"

"Don't you think that it is too early?"

"No"

"WAIT WAIT WAIT YOU MADE MY DAUGHTER

PREGNANT?" My father and mother asks

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

chapter 8

I am 5 months pregnant and almost everything is hard to do. I can't wear certain clothes, tie my shoes or stand for a long time.

I am now living with my parents in Soweto. I won't lie and say I believe what I saw 5 months ago because it is still hard for me to believe. I do get bad dreams about them or about the chubby lady that I have met when I was relaxing at McDonalds, which reminds me to ask Zwelikhathabantu why did he take me to the hospital that day? They are questions that I need answers for like were the boys really playing soccer? Did they really go to Mpumalanga? Why me from all the people? Did they really love me or was it all for pretending?

Some of the things hurt me a lot. After making a promise to go with them to Johannesburg, loving them and even suffering myself working two jobs but how could this happen because we would always go to church how did the evil sprits got to them?

My mom has been comforting me and being nice. My dad always travels so he was not home but he is going to come back after June.

"Here is your mango my baby" my says walking in

Since I am pregnant I have been a fan of mango and chocolate. Those are the two things I only eat so far.

"Mom may I ask a question?"

"Yeah sure"

"Mom why did you leave me with grandm..... I mean that chicken"

She sighs then sits back

"I was 15 when I was pregnant with you. Your father was 22 so we were scared that he could be accused of rap. One morning me and your father decided that we should go meet a tradition healer to help us to abort you in a safe way because when we got to the hospital it was a 50% chance that I could also die and your dad didn't want that. Then that's when we met this old lady. She told us that she can help us. She did help us, when we wanted to pay her she said no when she had you she has got life because we were young we never understood that. We went back to living our lives. Years later when I was 26 we went to her house to greet and thank her for what she has done for us then that's when I saw the little girl playing with some group of friends. When you said hi mom and hi dad I knew it that you were mine but I washed it out of my brain because my memory made me think back when I aborted you. When we came back here at Soweto another traditional healer told us that you are still alive and you are living with that old lady. At first I was scared to face you because of what I did. I told your father that we shouldn't go get you because by then I still didn't know how to approach you. He was sad because he wanted to have a baby so badly but he said he will wait for me to be ready to meet you"

We were both in tears. I want to be angry at her but just realizing how much pain she went through and why she did the decisions that she made. I must say that I understand.

"I am sorry baby"

"I forgive you mom"

...

"I tell you chomi (friend) that girl you calling good is the the leader of prostitution" Zinhle says

Zinhle is my new friend. She is so bubbly as ever and I love her.

"Oh well but the good thing about her is she is beautiful" I say

"YH0000 she is just a thank God I am white"

"Zinhle!"

"What? I am being honest"

I push her just a little and we giggle

I love my new life. It is simple and fun too but I miss Zwelikhathabantu a lot. He does call at night but I miss his eyes, touch and kisses. The good thing is that I am almost 6 months because I will be going with him to his other family members in Zimbabwe. I cannot wait, I miss him God.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Girl you look distanced what's up? Or is bitsta kicking again" Zinhle asks

I giggle. Zinhle calls my kid bitsta because he/she is always kicking.....well most of the time the baby is kicking and so hard like he/she is in a ring.

"No its not the baby its just that I am missing someone"

"Oh " she looked away

She is not going to ask who because she knows who I am missing as I am always telling her who I miss always.

A dark topless guy walks pass, he waved at us. At home we have those wire gates that you can see through them.

Zinhle waved back with a smile. Trust me she doesn't love guys but she loves to act like those chicks. She is a pure virgin, wears neatly and presentable. She makes sure that when she dresses up she never shows skin.

They was this one time when her and I went to the mall and another guy asked for her name,where she lives and all the other details. Believe you me that she told him all lies so later we met this guy again at the rank then she began running away from him even still today. Hahahaha I just found my copy.

"Girl did you see how hot he is?" she says

"You mean Sbu is hot"

"Mxm" her face turns sour

I laugh at her

"You are a mood killer. Let me go home"

"I was joking"

"Mxm"

"You are angry?"

" as if you care"

"Come on now don't be like that"

She was already gone. My copy is angry with me but I know she will come knocking at my door tomorrow.

Speaking of my copy I haven't heard from Lilly and my other friends. Let me call her. When I called her it went straight to voicemail. She is the only friend I call the rest of my friends I just text them. I went to our group chat also to find out that they also have not being using it but I still texted my greetings to them.

I got back to the house and it was already clean so I just went to sleep. I didn't sleep because of the nightmares but at 01:00 I began to sleep.

I wake up and looked at my phone only to find lots and lots of missed calls from Zwelikhathe bantu. I wonder what he wants to say. I made the bed went to bath then got dressed in my black legging, yellow big, short sleeve top then placed a blanket around my waist. Mom says it is important for me to have a blanket around my waist all the time so that when I deliver the baby I don't feel cold.

My breakfast is Mango and chocolate as always then drank water. At 06:30 I began to clean around the house. When I clean I spring clean the whole house and at 13:00 I was done. Mom should be coming back from her community organisation's meetings. I went to bath so that she does not find me smelling unpleasant. I put on my blue jean balloon dress with my black flat shoes. I cover my head and place the blanket around my waist. Just as I was done mom, dad, Zwelikhathabantu's father and mother walked in.

"Baby why did you not answer your calls?
Zwelikhathe bantu has been trying to get a hold of you" my mom says

"Oh sorry I didn't hear it"

"Did you pack your bags?" She asks

"What bags?" I am confused

"Baby you know that you are leaving for Zimbabwe today" she says

Oh shoot I forgot.

I went to pack my things in my bags then looked ready to leave. Dad was not happy about me leaving without him to Zimbabwe. I was also sad because he just got back from his long term job and I have to go.

We got into this black windowed and also black in color Jeep. We took off back to Limpopo.

"How are you?" Zwelikhathebantú's mom asks

"Doing great but there are hardships there and there"

They giggle

"She also used to suffer when she was pregnant with Zwelikhathebantú" Zwelikhathebantú's father says

"I also think that this baby is a fighter just like his father. This baby kicks all the time"

We giggle

"Well with that it is true. Those are the things he use to also do" she says

We kept on talking till we arrived at their house. Zwelikhathabantu was standing outside smoking weed.

We got out and Zwelikhathabantu come up to me and kissed the daylight out of me

"I see you missing me" I say

"Missing you is an underestimate"

I missed his deep voice.

"I missed you too"

He took my bags from the boot then we walked inside with me holding his index finger. He never took my bags upstairs he just placed it at the corner of the living room.

We had dinner with his parents which I enjoyed.

At 20:00 we said our goodbyes

"We will met you at the other side" his mother says

"Yes mom"

Zwelikhathe bantu took my bag and placed his index finger in my hand then walked to his green Corsa.

"Love are we not going to sleep here tonight?" I ask

"No"

We drove off to the bush, in the middle of the trees.

"Time to clear our minds again?" I ask

He smiles

"Yes"

He walked out to my side, opened the door then took my hand.

"Will you be able to get on top of the car roof?"

"Well because I am fat I think I will break your roof"

"No you won't "

We both got on top of the car roof and looked at the stars.

"You see that star that is shining brighter than all the stars?"

"Yes I see"

"That's you and the less shining next to it that's me"

"Why should I be the one shining brighter and not you"

He places his right hand on my belly

"Its because you are my glistering star, my light when in dark, my pillar of strength and you with my kids are my priority to live and waking up every day to go to work just for you"

I sigh with tears

"Don't cry my sweet yellow bone" he says kissing my cheek

I giggle

"Where did you get that name?"

"I created it while I was missing you"

I giggle again with him joining me

"So when you said "kids" how many kids are you talking about?"

He looked up then stared at my eyes

"All the stars around us"

"What?! That's a lot"

We laugh.

He is still staring at me.

"What?"

"You so beautiful my wife"

"Thank you"

We stare into each other with no words exchanged

"So do you clear your mind every time?" I ask

"Yes every time I get I use it. Do you?"

"No I never had time for that"

"Well now since you will be with me we will be doing it together often"

"Ok then"

I looked up to watched the stars then the next thing I feel him kissing my neck.

"Specking of babies let's make another one"

"That won't happen I am already pregnant"

"Then I will put my sperm in you in advance"

I giggle. He keeps on kissing me. We got off from the roof then went to this other gigantic tree that hid us with its long leaves. He kissed my neck that made me moan. His hands goes under my dress then slides down my underwear down. He moved to my lips. "I missed making love to you" he says between the kiss. By the way we only had sex once since we met.

His hands squeezes my bums so tight. His other hand moved to my waist. I unzipped his jean and undid his belt. I place my hands at his testicles and penis. He groans still in my lips. Unexpectedly he enters me. In and out he goes out of me so slow.

"Faster faster faster" I don't know where I get this braveness but yeah I had it

He stopped and stared at me for some time

"What did you just say?" He asked not believing what I asked

I looked down shyly. He places his index finger under my chin and made me to face him.

"Don't be shy I am all yours" he says then giggles

He moved again increasing his pace just the way I wished.

So it is true about what the woman wants gets.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

After some amazing hours we finally got dressed and got in the car.

He held my hand as we drove off.

We got to his place at ehostela (flat). I still don't love this place with my soul. I held onto him tighter.

As we were walk down the passage we heard a male voice shout "Zwelikhathebantu!". We turn and there stood four men and that old man that stopped the fight between Zwelikhathabantu and that other guy the other I was here.

They is a mountain of things next to them then the old man had a lighter in his right hand.

"Please don't burn my clothes. I beg you bra job"
Zwelikhathabantu begs

"Oh you can now beg. I told you two days ago that its either you bow for me or I make your life a living hell" the old man says also known as Bra job

"You did but please don't burn what I have worked hard for I beg you"

"Now bow for your king"

Zwelikhathabantu stood still. You can tell that he will never do that to another man while he is a man himself.

"Seems like Mr hard headed man won't do what I plead for"

Another skinny light skinned guy picked up a bag and took out baby clothes. Oh my love bought our baby clothes.

"You expecting?" He asks then laughs

"Can't you see that sexy mama he came with last time has now turned to big mama" another guy says

I was hurt with what they said about my physical appearance but I said nothing. I held on tighter on Zwelikhathabantu's top.

"He also bought a dress for big mama"

They laugh. God why are they doing this to us.
God of peace please stop them!

"Are you going to bow?" The old man asks

Silent

"I will never bow for son of man"
Zwelikhathe bantu says calmly

"What?!" They all say shocked

Zwelikhathe bantu stared at me then smiled. We walked to his flat then got on his floor bed. I wish they would have taken this painful bed instead of my baby's clothes. Just kidding!

Hahaha

"Wow I didn't know that you were listening to me that day?"

"I always listen to you my wife"

I sigh

He places his head on my belly and listened to our son kick as always.

...

Knock knock

Zwelikhathe bantu woke up to open the door and a young boy in his teen years got in with plastics.

"Fana what are you doing in my flat this early in the morning?"

"Bafo (brother) I came to give you back your things and you will have to get out of this place as soon as you can"

"Where did you get my things?"

"I stole them for you"

"What?!"

"Bafo (brother) there is no time for questions and by the way you deserve it after saving my life a lot of times I owe you my life till I die. Now get my sister in law out of here before those selfish hitman kill you"

The boy walks out

"We have to leave"

We didn't bath or anything we just got up and left.

Zwelikhathe bantu was on the phone with someone

"Mawake bantu may you please let us in your house"

.....

"I will tell you when I get home so please help me out brother"

.....

"Sure"

He hung up

We drove to Bela-Bela. The house was big, not a double story but big and clean

We got out with our bags

"We are going to bath at the guest room's bathroom so that we can take our plane to Zimbabwe" he says

"Zwelikhathe bantu who is Mawake bantu?"

"My older brother. He is basically my half brother because he has his own father. We didn't share the same father but we do share the same mother. His father lives in Lesotho but because he disowned his son my father raised him"

Oh

We got in the shower together. We washed each other clean then got dressed in my red knee length, body hugging, long sleeve dress with my black high heels. Zwelikhathabantu was handsome in his red Chinese shirt, black jeans and black sneakers.

We had breakfast then washed the dishes

"Look lovie I bought you and my son something. It was supposed to be a surprise but because now they had opened it , I think it is not a surprise any more"

I giggle. Did he have to say that and remind me of those cruel people

"I still love the clothes"

He smiles

...

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

The gate opens and in the car goes in

WOW!!!!!!!!!! I am Scandalized, quizzical, shocked.
I just can't believe my eyes.

This place is beautiful, gigantic, natural and unbelievable. There is a beautiful double story house that is painted with the Ndebele drawings, little bit of gold and wood or should I say a branch from a tree because you can tell that it was not yet processed but it is already used as a decor design. There is a tremendous water fall behind the big house that keeps on flowing. There are different departments, I saw old and young ladies putting beads and gold together to make the Ndebele rings, necklaces, bands and many more, the other department is for making clay pots for traditional beer. Others were making them with clay, others were drying them and the last ones were painting them. There were others that were making the blankets. Men were melting gold other were coming out of a big hole with bars of gold and black diamonds.

The car stops in front of the house and out came every body I don't know.

We got out and people began to sing a song getting closer.

"The prince is back, the kingdom raises again, halala halala" they sang and drums began to be played by man sitting high up in the mountain which made a very deep sound

People were dancing, happy and making happy sounds

"Ndodanda (son) you back" Zwelikhathabantu's father says

"Yes baba(dad)"

He goes down on one knee. I am confused as hell.

His family are standing in different levels of the staircase. We walk towards them, on the first stairs there was a young boy that looked like Zwelikhathembantu with everything, the eyes, the lips, nose, I mean everything.

"I am Bantu" he says

We shake hands

"Are you...."

"We are not twins that is what you wanted to say"
Zwelikhathembantu says

"Most people say that but I don't see myself looking like him" Bantu says

"I am eight years older than him so please" Zwelikhathabantu says rolling his eyes

"No he means I am eight years older than him not the other was around"

"Bantu I am older"

"With age not with brains"

"Bantu...."

"Will you two stop it !" Their mother shouts

We walk walk to the other staircase and there stood a tall guy who was dark skinned with blue eyes with a warm smile on his face.

"I am Mawakebanttu" he says

"He is my older brother that I told you about"

Zwelikhathebantú says

"Oh ok. Nice to meet you" we hand shake

Tow stairs and we were standing in front of an old couple. The male was the copy of Zwelikhathebantú's father, his eyes were big and brown. The female also had big eyes just that are black.

"We are his grandparents" the female says with a smile but the male wasn't smiling at all

"Hi" I say

We move to his parents and I was given a very tight and a warm hug from his mother. One thing I have noticed about the guys that had Zwelikhathebantú's blood is that they don't smile. I wonder why?

"Welcome in" Zwelikhathabantu's father says

The big wooden door opens and I enter nature. They is a wooden floor, wooden chairs, table. I could smell the nature if wood in here. Then at the right hand side they is a living room that doesn't have a TV but just wooden uncomfortable chairs but i must say it looks neat and new.

We all sat at the dinner wooden room. Zwelikhathabantu's father sat on a larger wooden chair that had a real head of a bull on it and his mother sat on a little bit large chair that has a skin of a bull on top of it.

The workers came with those tin plats that had brown pap with earth worms and cups of water. Everyone prayed then ate. No communication was done just the sound of people eating expect for me.

We got on our plane and off we went.

After some few hours we are at Zimbabwe. Our driver had a board written "Mahlangu". I loved his outfit. He was wearing a black skinny jean with the Chinese shirt but with Ndebele colors and his Italian shoes. He was simple but impressive.

"Baba" the guy went down on his knee

"Lotjha (hi)" Zwelikhathebantu greets

"Lotjhani (hi)" he answers

He takes our bags then places them in the boot of the car that is black with black windows. What's up with this family and black cars?

We got in the limbo then made ourselves comfortable.

"Are we going to your home?" I ask

"Yes" he looks out the window

Ever since we got here he has been quiet and distanced I wonder what's wrong.

I also looked out my window. Zimbabwe is beautiful and amazing, green trees and glass.

Monkeys at the side of the roads eating bananas from the trees. What a place of heaven.

The car drove in to a jungle. The road was made of gold, I don't know if it is real or not but what I know that the road is gold. They were also animals walking freely in the jungle. God what is this place?

"Zwelikhathe bantu what is this place?"

He smiles and points another board that read
"welcome to the kingdom of Zwelikhathe bantu"
WHAT!!!!!!

"My father named me Zwelikhathe bantu because of his kingdom" he says

My mouth is still open

"So who created the name?"

"My four fathers, Zwelikhathebantú"

"They were also Zwelikhathebantú?"

"Yes. Dad says I am like them so he believes that Zwelikhathebantú is back through me"

That's crazy but you know when it comes to such spiritual conversations we have to believe the impossible.

We got to this gigantic gold gate that had a face of a bull with sharp horns and a nose ring on the nose.

Am I in heaven?

chapter 9

It has been two weeks and I must say it is hell. I have never been in such a place in my life, I eat different, dress different, behave different oh God! Everything is just new to me. Hard but I have to accept it.

"Lovie what are you thinking?"

Zwelikhathe bantu asks coming out of the shower

I was so glad that the rooms are modern. The rooms are not in the main house. What's in the main house is the the dinner table room, living room and three kitchens. Our rooms are around the main house, they are Ndebele hurts, painted with beautiful colours too. They are all different inside and ours I must say that it looks so boyish and dark but I don't have to judge it because this is not my room after all it Zwelikhathabantu's room. I must say he loves those expensive brands, even our bedding looks expensive. We have Gucci pillows for what I also do not know, his shoes are in line and neat, expensive too. His clothes are of brand names, RM which is the only common thing in his clothes from caps, shoes and tops the rest of the brands I can't spell or pronouns that's how new they are in my eyes.

"No I am just looking around the room" I say

"Why? You don't like it?"

"Well.....should I be honest?"

"Yes"

"It looks expensive and neat too" I say with a fake smile

He giggles

"I know" he says

"Love what am I going to do today?"

I have to ask because in this place his grandmother and mother don't allow me to clean or do anything since I am not yet married to the family.

"I don't know. Maybe you can change this room because I can see that you don't like the design in this room"

Did he just read my feelings

"No its not like that its just....."

"So lying you will bit your tough" he says getting dressed

I look away.

"So where will you be?"

"Out"

"Where to?"

"Hunting and I might not be home today or tomorrow"

"What!?"

"Don't freak out its just two weeks"

I give him a frown and fold my arms

"And you only telling me this now? I could have packed your clothes, made you lunch, make sure that you have everything sorted and now I have to do that now?"

He giggles

"I love you that you care a lot about me my wife but they is no need for all those things. When a man goes to hunt for his family they get things from the main house which my father will hand over to me"

"Will you be satisfied with those things?"

"Yes I was trained when I was turning 16 on how to hunt and now I am a master so don't worry yourself plus that hunting bag was used from 1913 by my great grandfathers and they always came back with a bull for their families so I will also come back with a bull"

"I hope you will be fine love and be careful" I say

Mind you it is only still 01:30 and he woke me up to watch him bath and to tell me these horrible news.

He gives me a peck on my lips then walks out. When he walks out I go back to sleep with my worried mind.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

Someone is shaking me lightly, I wake up and there stood Zwelikhathabantu's grandfather next to my bed.

"I can see that you can sleep now" he says

"Did I over sleep?"

"Yes. It is 13:00 already"

No bad dreams at all!!!

"I must say that when you here all the bad dreams go away because evil spirits cannot enter this holy place" he says looking at me right in my eyes.

I get out of bed and look at him

"Bath and you will find me at the main house"
he says

I walk to the bathroom then showed, got dressed in my floor length black and white dress, covered my head with a white cloth, put on my black flat shoes and covered my shoulders with the Ndebele blanket. I went to the main house and I got him there eating the brown porridge. As I sat down the workers also gave me mine.

We still ate in silent. Zwelikhathabantu told me that it is their culture that when you eat you don't talk.

When we were both done he finally said "let's take a tour"

He took my hand then walked around this main house. We went through the long passage that had so many doors

"These are the rooms that were built by us in 1913" he says

Oh well I can tell they old.

"Yes they do look old but you should know that they shouldn't be changed. Never make that mistake in your life" he says with a frown

"Why?"

"Because everything we have built it is how they should be and they is no other way this place should be"

The doors were made of baboo, they was no bed it is just a simple traditional mat.

We moved to the living room.

"This place also should also not be changed for it to last for the next generation"

We walk out of the house and we went into a Gorged. I wasn't scared or anything I was just feeling safe being in this Gorged.

"This place is the place of peace, love and comfort. This place is where all the kings that will be sitting on that golden chair are born." He says holding my belly

We walk deeper and then we entered a place of statues that were dressed in a skin of a bull.

"These are the past kings that lived and when they die they also die with their bulls" he says

Each statue has a name under neath, wethu, ndo, kuhle, edi and go

"What does these names mean?"

"It means that him and his sibling's names ended with those letters. This was King Zhawethu, King Thando, King Lindaokuhle, King Lesedi and King Lesego"

Interesting

"And were do they get these different eyes?"

One thing I have noticed is that all these kings have different eyelids.

"Each king had different powers and their eyelids represented their powers. Green means the power of nature, red the power of fire, blue power of water, brown means you have a combination of all these powers"

What Zwelikhathabantu has brown eyes so it means..... Oh shoot this can't be real.

"Is this even real?"

"Hard to be believe but you need to start to believe the impossible because with around my daring you will keep on guessing"

That's true

We walk back to the main house with him still holding my hand.

"Just know that I have been showing you this place to let you know that it has more than 100 years and it should be like this for many for years to come"

"If this place was built by you and it has more than 100 years like this then how old are you"

"I have been living for million years"

WHAT!!!!!!

"I told you that you need to start to believe the impossible"

I stare at him with my eyes wide open

"And by the way when your son is born name him Kwenzakwenkosi. Just so you know his grandfather will die that day he is born and all his grandfather's gifts will all flow to him and they will be more greater and stronger than ever when they land on him"

I am still looking at him

"Bye see you real soon"

He let's go of my hand then walks away

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Hi there" Bantu

"Hi"

"You look far away with thoughts. What's up?"

"Well your grandfather just told me something so shocking"

He gave me a confused face

"Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/mother of Kwenzakwenkosi) grandfather is not here. He went out with my father and Zwelikhathabantu for hunting" he says

"No he was here. He just spoke to me"

He had a worried face

"But....."

"No he was here I saw him"

I walked out so angry. What is this kid trying to say that I am lunatic. I walk to the old grannies that were making clay pots.

"Hi"

They bowed down. I am confused, what do I say next.

"You need to say you may now get up" a woman's voice says

I turn and it is Zwelikhathabantu's grandmother. She is fat and cute with her light skin.

"You may get up now" I say

They all got up

"I came to help you" I say

They looked at each other like I just spoke an alien language. I looked up high at the mountains and I saw old ladies picking out veggies

"Don't worry yourselves I will just go help with veggies"

"NO!!" they all say including Zwelikhathabantu's grandmother

"Why?"

"Come let me explain how this side of the world functions"

She takes my hand as we walk around this beautiful green yard.

"Most of the things such as clay pots, planting veggies or picking out veggies are mostly done by old ladies that have stopped menstruation"

"Why?"

She giggles soI don't know.....like a lady.

"Now that is a story I will tell you another day"

"So what can I do?"

"For you. I can advise you to sleep till the baby is born"

"No ma I want to be busy"

"Well you can go wash the three foot pots or go get woods and make food for tonight"

"Oh well I can do that"

I went to wash the pots and I asked Bantu to help me turn the pots because they were so heavy. After I took the veggies that were brought by the grannies and used them to make my dinner that we will be eating tonight. I am sick and tired of that traumatic food so today they are going to eat my food. I wasn't going to do something fancy I am just going to do something relish. I made brown pap, chakalaka, red meat and beans salad. I made it for everyone. I called the teens that were there to visit their grandparents to give their grandparents and for themselves, I also asked Bantu to give his mom, grandmother and Mawakebantu food and to also take his food. I took my plate and went to eat at the main house with the rest of the family.

When I walked in they were digging in their plates like they have never ate in years.

"Did you pray?" I ask

"Yes we did" Zwelikhathabantu's mom says

"Your food is amazing" Mawakebantú says biting his meat

"Thank you" I say shyly

"Yes my darling you did a very....."

"Very very good job" Bantu completed his grandmother's sentence

I smiled and looked at them eat in relish. Wow that means I made a really good job and with my good job I just made them talk while eating.

"Ma when is Zwelikhathabantu coming back from hunting" I ask looking at Zwelikhathabantu's mom

"Mimi to be honest I am also like you I don't know when will they come back "

"Oh"

"You miss him?"

"A lot"

"Anyway how did you guys meet?" Bantu asks

"I will tell you after dinner"

We continue to eat and talk about random things. While I on the other side I thought of my love.

After dinner Mawakebantu and Bantu helped me with washing dishes

"So do you really love my brother or you just there to play with him?" Mawakebantu asks

"I love your brother from here to the moon and back plus he is my first and my last" I say

"Mmmmmmmmm why didn't you just date me?" Bantu says and Mawakebantu slaps the back of his head

I laugh at them

"Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/mother of Kwenzakwenkosi) you even have a perfect smile, beauty and all things are at the right position. I must say if my brother hurts you I will proudly kill him and keep you for myself" he says Mawakebantu slaps him again and chased him away while I laughed my lungs out.

"Please don't listen to that crazy brother of mine" he says giggling and me joining him

I wash and he wipes

"The reason I asked you that question was because I saw my brother going through pain of love while other girls played with his heart of gold. Others even lied about being pregnant with his baby only to find out that the baby it is his friend. I am giving you this personal information because I trusted you from day one that you are here to stay and I beg you to don't do the same thing like all the other girls that came in his life"

I am sad as he told the story.

"I am so sorry that you had to go through that this with Zwelikhathabantu and all I can say is I will never do that to your brother"

He smiles and I smile back

"So tell me blue eyes are you seeing someone?"

He giggles

"Wow really, blue eyes?"

"Why don't you and your brother like to be called by the colour of your eyes"

"Its because you make us feel abnormal"

"Come on abnormal means unique"

He laughs

When we were done we went back to the house then we sat in the living room and I told them about how me and Zwelikhathabantu met then went to our huts.

When I was about to walk in my hut Zwelikhathabantu's mom tapped on my shoulder

"Hey sorry"

"No it is ok" I say with a smile

"I just wanted to thank you for your amazing food and wish you sweet dreams"

"Thanks and you too"

She walks away with a smile. I got into my room, went to shower and because of it's hot I went to sleep necked. Oh yeah a night without my love, its truly going to be a long night.

chapter 10

New recipes done in this place. People have been praising my food so in the morning I would make eggs, bacon and bread or just do eggs. Midday I make home made burgers, chips and any other fats and in the afternoon I cook anything I feel like cooking. That's my new job.

It's at night and I have done my job and now I am going to sleep. I enter my room and sing my favorite gospel song. This place is so hot so I keep the door open.

"Humble yourself by the side of the lord and he shall."

"Lift you up" a male voice behind me sings along

I turn and there stood my handsome man. He is standing by the door and his eyes were all over me. He looks darker not that he was light skinned before but he looks darker and numb.

I smile and cover him with my arms around his waist. He smells so unpleasant.

I cover my nose

"Love you need to bath"

"I am not that bad"

"Trust me you are that bad"

He giggles

"I was about to go and shower do you want to join me"

"Why not"

He close the door and locks it. We took off our clothes then went in the shower. When we got there I kissed his lips, held his penis making him groan. Tonight I will be keeping him busy. I am hungry and he has to satisfy me because he left me for a very long time. After the sex in the shower we moved to the corner of the room, window, floor and finally we went the bed. 7 hours later we were done and just relaxing. His head was on my big belly and my hand was brushing his soft hair. I did not notice his waves and I must say it looks good on him.

"Lovie I missed you" he says

"Missed you too"

I kiss his forehead

"Misokuhle, My Queen

By L

I woke up at 05:00 and went to shower. I got dressed in my jean body hugging , knee length dress with my white flip flops.

"Where are you going so early in the morning?"

Zwelikhathe bantu asks in his sleepy deep voice

"I am on duty"

"What?" He sat up straight with his sleepy eyes

"Sleep love I will call you when I am done"

I went to my partner's hut

"Bantu!" I yell

He opens the door all sleepy

"Come on" he says

"Don't make you drag you out" I say

"I am up"

"Bath"

He closed the door and I went to wait for him at our cooking spot.

After hours of waiting he finally came and we did our job. At 06:30 the kids were already waiting in lines.

"I think they love your food. They have never waited for food like this before" Bantu says

"And I also loving cooking it for them"

At 08:00 we prepared breakfast for the royal family. At 09:00 everyone was at the table including the tied Zwelikhathabantu.

"What happened to the menu?"

Zwelikhathabantu asks

"Baby your wife changed it and I must say I enjoy it" Zwelikhathabantu's grandmother says

"Me too" Bantu

"Me three" Mawakebantú

"Actually all of us even the villagers"

Zwelikhathabantu's mom says with a smile on her face

Zwelikhathabantu looked at me with a proud smile on his face.

"Well seems like a lot has happened while we were gone" Zwelikhathabantu says

"Yes son" his father adds

We pray then ate even having conversations between. I was so happy to see them all this happy.

Me and Mawakebantu did our job, which is washing dishes then went to our rooms

When I got in my room Zwelikhathabantu deep in his sleep so I went to keep myself busy by making beads with the other young ladies. They were telling me how they all are crushing on Bantu but he was not entertaining them. Well no lie Bantu is a cute young man but they don't suit him, don't get me wrong I am just being honest.

As I was busy with girls I see Zwelikhathabantu and Mawakebantu talking it seems like Mawakebantu was warning him with something because of the way he was looking down. When he looks up our eyes lock but he had a sad face, I look at Mawakebantu and he had a fake smile,

I wonder.

I cooked in the afternoon then we all went to our huts. I held Zwelikhathabantu's index finger as we walked to our hut, by the way he was waiting for me at the main house and said he is not going to our hut without me.

We got in then he locked. We took off our clothes then sat in the bath tub together with my legs across his.

"Love what were you and Mawakebantú talking about earlier that worry's you so much"

"Nothing much"

"So we keeping secrets"

He smiles

"He was telling how much he loves and how much he will choose you over me when I break your heart"

"I love your brothers they are kind, loving and helpful just like you"

He smiles again

"We all got it from the Mab that raised us" he says pulling me closer to him

I feel pain but I ignore it. We got out of the bath tub then got in our bed necked.

Zwelikhathe bantu puts his hand on my belly then I felt a sharp pain again. He let's go when he sees that I felt pain

"My wife are you ok"

It hits again

"Aaaaaaaaaa!!!! "

Zwelikhathe bantu stood up worried

"Zwelikhathe bantu it hurts!!!!!"

We walks out screaming "MAMA! GOGO!"

I felt all pains that the world cab provide in that moment. I felt it on legs, arms, belly, hands oh God everywhere.

I stand up so that I can cover myself then I saw blood on the sheet. NO NO NO IT CAN'T BE NO!

I was crying my lungs out. I heard crying of a woman outside I wondered what is happening

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

Zwelikhathe bantu got in with two tall guys with a nest bed.

"Babe are you still ok?" Zwelikhathe bantu asks worried

"ZWELIKHATHEBANTU THEY IS BLOOD ON THE BED I CAN'T BE OK AAAAAAAA!!!!!!" I yelled pulling his top

He closes his ears

"Lovie relax please" he says clam

"I CAN'T WHAT IF LOSE MY BABY.

Zwelikhathe bantu what if he is gone" I say in tears

His tears flowed down his cheeks still looking at me in the eyes

"Please relax mama ka

Kwenzakwenkosi(mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/mother of Kwenzakwenkosi)

I cried and he helped the guys to carry me as they place me on the nest bed. I was in pain and I was scared of losing my baby at the same time. We walk out and saw Zwelikhathabantu's grandmother crying on her knees, Zwelikhathabantu's mom was comforting her and Zwelikhathabantu's dad got in the ambulance. I wonder what's going on.

As we walk to a place that I don't know I look up and look at the stars and pray that my baby does not die.

We got to the Gorge and they were four old ladies standing at the entrance.

"Make it fast!" They yelled Zwelikhathe bantu was at my side holding my hand. When I got in I can say that I am familiar with this place but what am I doing here?

"Lovie I will be with you through thick and thin"
Zwelikhathe bantu says with tears

What made him say that?

The old ladies took off my clothes and placed me in this natural dam which made my pain better but they were still there. A shorter old lady held my belly and smiled

"Kwenzakwenkosi is not ready to come out so please wait" she says

How does she know that my baby's name is Kwenzakwenkosi?

"I know because that is the name his great grandfathers gave him before he was even made by the two of you"

I gave her a confused look

"I can read your thoughts" she says

Oh God then I must stop thinking about Zwelikhathabantu and I busy before she says that out loud

"Mind you I heard that" she giggles then walks away

I looked at Zwelikhathebantu and he is smiling holding my belly and hand

"He is still coming" he says

I smile

While we were waiting for Kwenzakwenkosi to kick Zwelikhathebantu decides to dance his skhotane moves to make me ignore the pain. As he was dancing I just wished to take off all his clothes. Trusted me he looks charming in his swag pants and the matching top.

After some hours of giggling and having fun the baby kicks so hard and that made me scream my voice out which made the old ladies to come running towards me.

"Not yet time"

"WHAT DO YOU MEAN BECAUSE THE PAINS ARE KICKING IN!!!"

"I mean just a second now"

She closed her eyes then open them and they were white then she spoke in toughs.

"We need you to now push" the other two ladies say

I held on Zwelikhathabantu's hand and push

"AAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!!!" I push

"PUSH AGAIN"

"YOU CAN DO IT MY WIFE" Zwelikhathabantu shouts

I push then breathe and push again. I did that process for almost an hour then finally Kwenzakwenkosi came to Earth then he was placed on my chest.

Babe Cries filled the Gorge.

"MOOO! MOOO!" Sound of a bull

We see shadows of the bull getting closer and making its sound.

Everyone around us ran away but Zwelikhathabantu, me and the baby stayed behind. I was so scared so I held Zwelikhathabantu's hand tight and closed my eyes. As I was waiting for action nothing happened so I open my eyes and the bull licks the baby. The baby giggles and for the first time he opens his eyes. When we saw his different eyes me and Zwelikhathabantu looked at each other shocked. The bull walks away. The ladies came back then they went washed the baby while I also went to clean myself with the help of Zwelikhathabantu. I got dressed in a Ndebele blanket that covered my body well.

"I am happy that you were so strong and pushed to make our son to see the sun of tomorrow"

"I couldn't have done it with out you" I say baby kissing his lips which made him blush

"I love you mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/mother of Kwenzakwenkosi)

"I love you Baba ka Kwenzakwenkosi (father to Kwenzakwenkosi/father of Kwenzakwenkosi)

"I love the sound of that"

"We are both parents now" I say smiling and he kissed me

When we got back to the old ladies they all had worried faces

"What's wrong?" I ask

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

chapter 11

Nobody knows we are gone and I don't think they is someone that know that I gave birth to my son.

"Baba please take us to South Africa"
Zwelikhathe bantu tells this guy

We hold hands as we go in this car.

"Are you ok?" I ask seeing his sad face

"I am just worried about the kingdom"

He has every right to become worried but I feel like they is a reason we have to go.

We are in South Africa before we even know it. Zwelikhathebantu is still depressed about leaving home and I am sick and worried about him.

We went to his flat and when we opened the door I got shocked which almost made me fall down.

"Zwelikhathebantu this can't happen" I say in tears

I am in his arms and in tears. Who would do such a cruel thing. The boy that gave us our things that other day he was short in our flat. You can tell that it is something that happened ages ago judging from his rotten skin.

Why is this happening to us? Why us?

"I think you have to go to your parent's house so that I can sort this out"

"And where will you sleep?" I ask

"I am a man I always have a plan don't worry about me"

He calls a taxi then he helped me and our son in the taxi.

"Love please take care of yourself and don't do something that will hurt me" I say in tears

"My wife I will be back to you the next morning to come check on the both of you"

"Promise?"

"Pinky promise"

We smile then kiss and he also kissed our son. When the taxi took off I looked at him till he faded away from my eyes and tears drop again. How I love my brown Chinese eyes guy. I smile at the thought of how abnormal we met.

Sometime later I was dropped home, I thanked the taxi driver then walked in the gates at home. I wonder what they will say as I arrive in the hours of the early mornings.

I knock and there opened dad.

"Mimi?"

"Yes dad"

"Come in baby"

I walk in. I look at my baby and he is up and quite.

"You gave birth?"

"Yes" I give him the baby

He took my baby out of the bull skin held him necked. The first thing Kwenzakwenkosi did was to touch my dad's chest and giggle and went serious again looking at his grandfather.

"This kid is not normal" my dad says your child is half god and half human that explains it

"I know dad because I am also like him" I say

He has a confused look on his face. You can tell that he has so many questions to ask but he does not ask.

"Dad I am tired let me go to sleep" I say

I take my baby from him then walk to my room and sleep.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Your child.....your child...." The short old lady says

"WHAT IS WRONG!!" I say running to them then take my baby from them

I look at him and see nothing wrong

"I see nothing wrong with him"

"It just that..."

They look at each other

"What is it!" I shout

"Your child has two different eyes. The left eye is brown then the other one is black which means that he had the power of his great grandfather, grandfather and his father plus the power of his mother at the same time. What we mean is that your child is a half god and half human"

Me and Zwelikhathebantú look at each other confused. Is this even for real?

"Yes it is for real and I would advise you to take your things and move out of this place now before Zwelikhathebantú's aunty get this baby since she is looking for the power to rule the kingdom"

"But we can't do that" Zwelikhathebantú says

"You have to because if you don't your child will die or because your grandfather just died your other uncles will be here to kill you and your father" she says

"But....."

"I know it is sad to know that your father is next in the line of death but yes that is how it is.

Take your family and leave and don't tell anybody"

She went somewhere then came back with a suitcase and said we must go up the mountains and we will meet a old man that will take us to a safe place.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"I want the heart of that little wild kid" a deep voice says

She appears in the light and it is that chubby old woman with sneak green eyes.

I move back frightened then she laughs

"Why" I ask in tears

"I want the power that this kid has"

Now I move to the Gorge where I gave birth to Kwenzakwenkosi and Zwelikhathabantu's grandfather appears with another person looking like him

"This place is where all the kings that will be sitting on that golden chair are born"

I move outside the kingdom at the gates and the other Zwelikhathabantu's grandfather that looks like his grandfather that first spoke says

"this place is the place of peace, love and comfort"

I wake up breathing fast and I find Kwenzakwenkosi looking up the roof and eating his fingers.

He didn't even cry last night or do anything that normal kids do. My child is really abnormal.

I pick him up then walk to the kitchen to boil water.

"Oh my baby so you are home, I didn't believe your father when he told me that you are home and gave birth"

I smile

"We are home mom" I say

"Can I hold him"

"Yes"

I gave him the baby

"And why isn't he dressed?"

"We haven't bought clothes for him. He came early than expected"

"Oh then we need to go and buy him clothes"

I boil the water then went to bath and got dressed in my red sleeveless, backless top and my blue high waist jean with my Adidas flip flops. After mom showed me how to bath the baby.

"You should go shopping with your friend Zinhle she missed you and I will look after the baby"

mom says

"I don't have money mom"

When mom was about to answer me they was a knock on the door

Knock knock

I went to open and it was Zwelikhathabantu looking so miserable.

"Hi love"

"Hi my wife"

We hug

"Come in"

We walk in with his index finger in my hand to the living room

"Morning ma" he greets

"Morning son"

We sat down

"I will go and make breakfast" I say getting up

I made eggs and bread then dished up for everyone including father, for when he gets up. I walk back to the living room and dad is sitting in the living room and talking to Zwelikhathabantu. When I got in they went silent same time.

"Morning dad"

"Morning my daughter"

"I made breakfast and where is mom?"

"She is somewhere around the house. You know your mom and cleaning"

Ok now I get where me and Vusimuzi get this habit.....oh Vusimuzi,the snake. I can't believe that I was played like that. All my life I thought I was living with humans but no I was living with animals. How did I even survive? Why didn't they eat me? Let me wash away those past bad memories.

I got mom in their bedroom cleaning so I called her to come eat breakfast. We all ate breakfast together with me breastfeed my baby

"So Mr Dube when should me and my uncles come"

"We will think about the date and we will tell you" dad says answering Zwelikhathabantu

Oh I forgot about the damages

"Ok Mr Dube"

"Love I was thinking that I should buy clothes for the baby so....."

I am so scared to ask him money mind you it's my first asking him money.

"May I ummmmm..... please borrow your money and I will pay you back later when I have money"

He laughs

"Lovie I was here to give you money"

He took out R 300,00 from his pocket and gave it to me.

"Thank you"

"And they is no need for you to pay it back"

Everyone giggled. I know I am bad at this but if we were all alone I was going to seduce him.

After breakfast I went to wash dishes leaving Zwelikhathabantu to bond with his son in the living room.

As I was done Kwenzakwenkosi was fast asleep so I took him to my bedroom then I asked mom to look after him.

Me and Zwelikhathabantu walked out with his index finger in my hand.

" so we are going to go shopping together?"

"I was hoping....."

"FRIEND!!!"

No matter what that voice is Zinhle's. I turn and yes it was her.

"Friend where have been. I missed you" she says hugging me

We break the hug then she scans me up and down.

"You still hot"

"Thank you"

She turns to look and Zwelikhathabantu then she screams

"Friend how do you know Legend?"

"Legend?" I ask

"My nick name lovie"

"Wait you are dating?"

"In love sounds better" Zwelikhathabantu says

"WOW FRIEND"

She hugged Zwelikhathabantu so tight then pulls back

"Sorry its just that I am your biggest fan"

Zwelikhathabantu smiles

"Lovie let me leave you I will call you later"

He walks out the yard

"Wow friend you have so many surprises"

I giggle

She holds my belly

"Where is that rough kid?"

"Batista?"

"Yes"

We laugh

"He is born and alive. Do you want to see him?"

"Yes let's meet this warrior"

We walk in the house. She picked up the sleeping Kwenzakwenkosi and kiss him allover his face making him to smile in his deep sleep. Oh my baby.

We were now at the mall. We went to buy clothes at Pep. Having a R300,00 it was better to choose quantity than quality.

We got home and we found baby Kwenzakwenkosi up and that gave Zinhle an opportunity to dress up all the clothes on my baby and he was happy. All smiley and laughing.

After dinner she left. I took my baby then went to sleep.

My phone rings and it is an unknown number, I hesitate before I answer it

"Hello?"

"My wife"

"Oh hi what happened to your last numbers?"

"I changed them since my family was calling me a lot"

I sigh

"I am sorry that you have to go through that because of me"

"No its not because of you and anyway I made a promise that I will be with you through thick and thin"

My tears flow out of my eyes

"How was shopping with your bubbly friend?"

"Amazing and all the clothes suit him" I say giggling in tears

"Really?"

"Yes. He is just cute"

"And we know where he gets that right?"

I giggle

"Love I have been getting these scary dreams about an old lady and your grandfathers"

They is silence for a certain period of time

"Zwelikhathe bantu are you still there?"

Sniffing sounds are done

"Love are you ok?"

"Tell daddy about your dreams lovie "

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

I can't believe that Zwelikhathabantu didn't believe me last night but just coming to think of it, it is crazy or unbelievable.

Today me and Zinhle are going to church. I got dressed in my body hugging red knee length dress with my gold toe showing high heels.

I hear my baby talking his baby language as I walk down the passage to the living room. Kwenzakwenkosi is so abnormal and I see it myself.

"Mom how do I look?"

I give her a 360° degrees so that she can say how this dress looks on me in all views.

"Hot" she says

"Ht" Kwenzakwenkosi says

We stare at each other shocked

"Did your kid just say....."

"I think so"

"I told you that this kid is abnormal" dad says
walking in the living room

He picks him up then Kwenzakwenkosi touch's his heart and giggles.

We look at each other again.

"This kid is....."

"Is half god and half human" I say finishing dad's sentence

Mom and dad look at each other lost

Knock knock

I went to open and there stood Zinhle looking hot as always with a red pencil skirt, knee length and her white crop top but she does not show her belly with her black and white high heels.

"Friend" she says with a smile

"How are you?"

"Happy that you are going with me to my church"

I giggle. When you have a crazy friend you have everything. I went back inside to get my bag.

"Where are you going?" Dad asks

"To church"

He gave me a confused look. Dad forgets all the time. You tell him something now and a minute later he forgot.

"I told you dad" I say

"Take your baby then"

"I can't dad he is young"

"This man?"

Kwenzakwenkosi giggles and I join him

"Bye dad" I walk out

We get to church and I must say I sang till they made me lead all the songs.

After church we walked back.

"The pastor liked you and I think you must come back next week too" Zinhle says

"I will think about it"

As we were walking then we heard someone calling me so we turned and there stood Zwelikhathabantu and Mawakebanttu.

"Friend who is this handsome blue eyes" Zinhle whispers

"Friend that is Mawakebanttu, Zwelikhathabantu's older brother"

"Oh God he is hot"

"Thank you" Mawakebanttu says looking at Zinhle like a hungry lion

"You heard us" Zinhle asks

"Yes" he answers

We look at each other and laugh

"Friend I will see you tomorrow"

"Bye"

Mawakebantu does not stop to look at the sexy Zinhle till she went inside her home.

"So baby what do I hear that the pastor likes you" Zwelikhathabantu says placing his hand at my bum

"Don't be jealous. It just that I sang well so he liked my singing"

"He!?"

"Yes"

"A pastor is a he?"

"Yes, don't you know that?"

"Never been at church"

"So how did you live without church?"

"Love I do have a bible and I do read it so I don't need anybody reading it for me"

"Is that the reason you have never been at church"

"Well one of the reasons"

I giggle then he kisses my neck

"My wife today you are looking so sexy and if Mawakebantu wasn't here I would have taken you to a hotel and did all....."

"Come on now. I am still here and I am still waiting to see my son too"

We we giggle.

We get home then Mawakebantu gets the opportunity to bond with Kwenzakwenkosi while we were talking.

"So did you find out why was there a dead body in your flat?"

"Yes"

He was now looking down like it is a painful matter

"What happened?"

"I think that it was a trap. They knew that he was going to help me. He was also working with them and I think they knew that he is a snitch so they planned this trap by not burning my clothes the same time that day to really find out who is the snitch"

Oh

"Oh my God. So if he didn't take those clothes he would have been alive?"

"Yes"

My heart hurts. Why do good people die? He was only helping us

"Dose he have a family?" I ask

"Yes. I just found out that they thought he was lost only to find out that he was killed in my room since the day we left"

So long?

"Well I am thinking because he helped us that day so we should buy something for his family. We were the last people to see him so we have to thank him in that manner since he is not around"

Zwelikhathe bantu smiles

"This is why I love you. You have a heart of gold"

He kisses my lips

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

"Your grandfathers have been telling me the same things that your late grandfather told me when you went out for hunting the other day"

"Wait did you just say that grandfather told you something while we were hunting?"

"Yes"

"But how because he was with us all the time"

"What are you trying to say that I am crazy? He was the one that told me that when Kwenzakwenkosi is born....."

"we built this place in 1913" he said

"This place is more than 100 years"

"If this place is more than a 100 years then how old are you" I asked

"I am million years old" **

"Oh shoot" I say

"Lovie are you ok?"

"Yes I am fine just a bit ofsomething that I don't know"

"Are you sure?"

"Love would you believe me if I told you that I once met a person that is a million years old"

He laughs

"Never mind. Good night" I hung up

I turn to look at my son

"If only someone would believe"

I cuddle him then sleep

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

By L

As they were sitting in the living room I went to make them drinks and cookies then gave them.

"We were surprised this morning when Kwenzakwenkosi said hot" I say giggling but they didn't they gave each other serious looks

"What?" I ask

"I think you should tell her and now they is no time" Mawakebantu says

"Tell me what?" I ask

"Last night we saw a whistle from the kingdom at my place and it follows me everywhere, which that is how Mawakebantu got me. The whistle directs the worriers of the kingdom to find the next king but we can't go back there because Kwenzakwenkosi will be killed if we go back."

"I don't understand" I say

"These people are out there looking for Zwelikhathabantu because they know that he is the rightful king but he can't go back since grandfather died the day and the same time Kwenzakwenkosi was born then our father died the next night. Our uncles, aunties and other relatives are taking over our home. We know it is wrong to run away but it is not yet the right time to go back to that Kingdom"

"when the Kwenzakwenkosi is born his great grandfather will die and all the powers that his great grandfather had will be much stronger when they reach him" Zwelikhathabantu's grandfather said

"Yes yes now all that makes sense" I say standing up

They both gave me scandalized faces

"When you were gone to hunt you, your father and grandfather. I met your grandfather and he showed me the rooms, living room, Gorge, statues of all past kings and also told me that when Kwenzakwenkosi is born his great grandfather will die" I say

"What the hell?" Zwelikhathabantu says

"I believe her. You remember the day grandmother said grandfather had a twin that died when they were both born" Mawakebantu says

"Ok that one I get but how did she get to the secret place of the past kings"
Zwelikhathebantú asks

"She is gifted"

"Are you trying to say that my wife can see dead people and reach places that are secretive?"

"Yes. Remind yourself that before you left grandfather told father to do not fight with you by living this Skhotane life because that is the only way you will find your appropriate lover that will see what others can't see, who will touch what is untouchable , who will find what was never meant to be seen and will be hard to get and hard to hold just like gold"

Mawakebantu says

His family knew me before I even knew about them. How?

"Oh"

"So does that mean that my dreams were real?"

"They should" Zwelikhathabantu says embarrassed

Zwelikhathabantu gets up holding his forehead with both his hands

"We don't know if it will be ok with your father since now he wanted me to pay the damages and lobola for you but we really have to move out of this place before anything bad happens"

"And move where without me?" Zinhle asks walking in then I saw Mawakebantu swallowing hard. Oh shame what is Zinhle doing to the poor guy

We look at each other not saying anything

"This time friend I am coming with you. I don't want to be left in that broken home alone" she says

"Well you can't....."

"I promise I will be a good girl but please take me with you"

"Fine you can come" Mawakebantu says

We look at him shocked

"I mean like you are friends and I see nothing wrong with that" he adds

"You mean you lik....."

Mawakebantu throws a pillow to Zwelikhathebantu's direction before he can finish his sentence. Zwelikhathebantu giggled

"I see what you did there brother"

Zwelikhathebantu says laughing

"Zwelikhathebantu stop it" Mawakebantu instructs

"You....."

Mawakebantu gets up very fast. Gave me the baby then ran out together. Me and Zinhle are left inside the house.

"I think he likes you" I say

"Really?" she asks out of excitement

"Yes"

"Girl that is why I came back. To ask for his numbers like seriously I am also into him"

We heard the pot fall then to turned only to Mawakebantu.

"How long have you been here?" Zinhle asks

"Ummmmm" he says then runs out

We stare at each other again

"Do you think he heard me?" Zinhle asks

I shrugged

"Who did this to my kitchen?!" Mom asks as they walk in the kitchen

"Sorry mom I will clean that up"

"Friend let me go and pack" Zinhle says walking out

I gave dad Kwenzakwenkosi then cleaned when I was done I went in the sitting room.

"Mom and dad can we talk?" I ask sitting down

"Yes"

"Mom and dad may I please go to Durban with Zinhle"

"Stop lying we heard everything as we were at our bedroom"

I looked down embarrassed

"Its ok and I understand. Please send my condolences to the Mahlangu family about my old best friend and his father"

"Yes dad"

"And you also taking my abnormal grandson?"

"Yes dad"

"Oh I am going to be bored who am I going to watch now"

"The TV" mom says

"But he had become my TV"

We laugh

I went to pack my bags then said my good byes to my family. Zwelikhathabantu and Mawakebantú said their good byes too. Zwelikhathabantu placed my bag in the boot then left Zinhle's and got in the car.

"Why didn't you put Zinhle's bags?"

Mawakebantú asks

"Don't worry I will go" Zinhle says but

Mawakebantú stops her

He went to put her bags then came back into his AMG at the diving seat.

"I can see that now Zinhle has got a man"

Zwelikhathabantu says

This fool that I called my man did that on purpose. This is surely going to be a long ride

chapter 12

We arrived in Limpopo at Mawakebantu's house.

Coming back to this place gave me the bad memories that I had in Limpopo. I grew here, loved this place, educated here and found friends here but now I am filled with hatred for this place.

I am only here just because of the safety of my family.

"Wow this place is beautiful. I thought houses like these are created by computers in the movies but now I see that it is real" Zinhle says

"Yes this is one hell big house" I add

"Well thank you for complements ladies"

Mawakebantu says

"Pleasure" Zinhle says with a smile

Zwelikhathe bantu suggested that we move to our rooms to freshen up.

"Lovie Kwenzakwenkosi has his own room in this house so you don't have to bring him here"

"And what is wrong when I come with him here?"

"We need mommy and daddy time" he says

dancing a sexy dance

"I still need to heal down there before we have sex again"

He frowns

"But I want another son soon" he says

Is this guy crazy? Does he know the pain of giving birth? Or how painful your boobs get when breast feeding for the first time? Oh God not to mention the cold nipples you get when they is a lot of wind?

"I wish you knew the pain I felt when I gave birth to your son"

"Well I can say that the pain looks good on you plus we give birth to good looking kids, look at how handsome our son looks"

"He is cute and not handsome. He is still under the age of 18 for that name"

"You only become called handsome when you are 18 and above?"

"Yes"

He laughs

"Lovie that is crazy" he says laughing and his son joins laughing out loud too

This father and baby moment looks good on them. I took a picture without them seeing

I went to bath then got dressed in my aquamarine night dress , which was not too short.

I left to go make food for everyone. When I got there Zinhle was already busy.

"Busy?" I ask

"Yes"

"Need help"

"Yes please"

We cooked the 7 colours dish but with stew.

When we were done the boys came down.

Mawakebantu is looking handsome in his clean and white pyjamas then there comes my man and our son looking all township.

Zwelikhathebantu was in his DVD short pants and barefoot showing his thin hairy self then our son was in his pampas. They were talking together making noise like we were not around.

We had dinner with funny conversations

Later me and Zinhle went to wash the dishes with the help of Mawakebantu. Mawakebantu seems like a neat guy. You know those guys that wear white tops then still their top comes back still white.

"Wine?" Mawakebantu offered

"Yes please" Zinhle says

"Well for me it depends if its alcoholic or not"

"Well then....."

"Its ok I will leave you two to catch up and I will be in my new room"

I walk to our room then I got the two babies sleeping next to each other with Zwelikhathabantu's arm around Kwenzakwenkosi's waist. I took the picture.

Memories to keep.

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

07:00 I was already up and my babies are rolled up to each other still sleeping.

I got up and went to bath. Got dressed in my pink short and white shirt with my white ankle showing tommy.

I walked down the passage then unexpectedly a door opens and Mawakebantu walks out of Zinhle's room dressing up so fast.

"That was fast" I say holding my waist

He jumps up

"Ummmm well....."

"No need to explain. I think I got it" I say giggling

I went to make scrambled eggs and russians.
Dished up for everyone . As I was busy I felt hands holding my waist then a kiss followed on my neck. I turn and Zwelikhathebantu was behind me looking sleepy and cute like a baby.

"Good morning"

"Hi"

"I said good morning and I also expect the same respond back"

He giggles and tightens his grab around my waist.

"You remind me of my great grandmother. She was just like you. Beautiful, kind and smart but most of all she was the most respectful woman ever" he says

"I thought I said say good morning"

"You see you doing it just like her"

I frown and he laughs

"Even that frown, its cute like you a baby"

"Zwelikhathe bantu don't test me" I say

He tried kissing me but I stopped him which made him laugh his lungs out.

"I was joking my wife. Good morning my lovie"
he says so close to my face

I smile

"And how are you?" I ask

"Good and you"

"Now that's a good morning" I say

I turn to continue to do breakfast. He let go of my waist then he giggles and walks away.

When I was done I went to call everyone. First I made them bath then they came to eat. Otherwise Zwelikhathebantu would have been here all nude.

As always Mawakebantu looking clean and respectable in his not tight jean and a white polo golf t- shirt . Zinhle is hot and neat in her long white summer dress with sandals. Kwenzakwenkosi was look cute in his blue short jumpsuit, mind you he was bathed by his father and I must say that I am impressed because I expected maybe a pampas not straight or not tided well, just you know when the father does not know how to bath and dress a baby. Zwelikhathabantu is in his blue jean knee length short with his white Nike top and his H&M black and white slip in shoes.

"Let's pray"

They closed their eyes then we began to pray after we ate.

"Love I am in love with your outfit" I say

He smiles

"Thanks"

"But like really Misokuhle your husband is Legend what did you expect. He always wears something expensive and impressive" Zinhle

says

"In all that I am hustler" Zwelikhathebantu says

"The other day I wanted to ask how do you know Zwelikhathebantu?" I ask

"He is the best skhotane. That knows how to dance, looks good and always dresses to impress"

"Oh I see" I say

Zinhle and Mawakebantu decided that they will both go wash dishes while I fed my baby. Zwelikhathebantu was looking at the baby eat.

"Lovie I have always wanted to drink breast milk so can I have some"

"Yeah sure"

I gave him the other breast. After he sucked he stood up with a sour face then went to the bathroom. I guess that's a sign of saying how horrible it is.

He comes back

"Is it nice?"

His eyes popped out

"Yes it is nice" he says between his teeth

Mxm his lying and I am going to teach him a lesson

"Oh really?"

"Yes" he says looking away

"Then why won't you suck it again"

"No what will my son eat"

"He has a lot and I am sure he does not mind sharing so come" I say

He stands up and looks at me

"Ok fine you got me. Breast milk is bitter"

"Then why didn't you say that from the beginning"

He stares at me with a smile

"Lovie you wanted me to be honest with you?"

"Yes"

"You the first woman who has told me that in my in life"

I smile

"And hopefully the last" I say

"Yes my wife you are the last" he say

He comes back to sit next to me and rubs my thigh.

"So I was thinking that maybe tonight we can have some quality time together"

"Oh yeah?",

"Yes just you and me in our world"

"Misokuhle, My Queen"

What a sunny day . The sun is bright outside.
Today me, Zinhle and Mawakebantu are going to buy groceries for Fana's family.

"Lovie you don't want us to have a little experiment"

"Zwelikhathebantu I am not going to repeat myself I told you that I need to heal first"

"I want my sons to follow each other"

"So you only doing it for kids and not enjoyment?"

"Well not enjoyment till I get my 40 sons"

My eyes popped out

"For what you have just said I will not give you some ever again"

He got out of bed so fast then came to me

"Come on now my wife we can negotiate" he says

"No I will be late I am sure Mawakebantu and Zinhle are waiting for me"

His hands hugs my bums then he kisses me so passionately.

"I love you"

"I love you too Baba ka Kwenzakwenkosi (father of Kwenzakwenkosi/ father to Kwenzakwenkosi)"

"Mmmmmm I love the sound of that"

We kiss again but I stopped him when I saw how the atmosphere changed

"I need to go"

"Lovie the day you heal you will regret it"

"Mxm"

I took my handbag and walked out. Zwelikhathabantu was going to his skhotane gig which they were invited by another famous DJ that I don't even know.

When I got to the garage they were already in the car with Kwenzakwenkosi.

"Sorry for being late"

"I guess bother was keeping you as always"
Mawakebantu says laughing

"Come on now" I say

We drove to Mall of the North then we went to Woolworths and bought chips, drinks, meat, pap, rice and many more.

We drove to Thohoyandu to his home. It was already packed but I am glad that we managed to send our condolences, gave them what we bought and Offered to help where we could. As we were helping I striped Kwenzakwenkosi at my back and gone he went to sleep. At 17:30 we were ready to leave.

When we got home we cooked then ate.

"Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/ mother of Kwenzakwenkosi) Zwelikhathabantu just sent me a message saying that I should take you to your house"
Mawakebantú says

"House? Did he say flat or house?"

"I thought I said it out loud. House"

"Zwelikhathabantu has a house?"

"Yes but he never goes there most of the time because he says its too big for him alone"

"He had a house all this time?"

"Yes but he never stayed there"

"Who is this guy?"

They both giggle while I am left confused as hell.

"Have you forgotten that you are in love with the one and only legend" Zinhle says

"But....."

"We get it that you are surprised because he use to take you in that useless dirty flat of his friend"

Friend's room?

"And where is that friend?"

"He passed away years back and left that room to Zwelikhathabantu to take care of it"

What? Are they rich people who do that? Prefer to be uncomfortable just because their house is too big or too cold. If I were them I would never do that.

"So....."

"Yho Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/mother of Kwenzakwenkosi) you ask a lot let's go before my brother go crazy on me because now as we are speaking he is busy sending messages non stop"

"Well let me go and pack then"

"Mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi/ mother of Kwenzakwenkosi) get out of my house!"

"Ok ok ok I am already up and ready to go"

They drove me and my sleeping baby to Polokwane at Bendor. My eyes were wide open, my mouth was waiting for the flies to enter.

The house is tremulous. Painted in dark brown and brown. At the drive way they was a red limbo. The glass door opens and Zwelikhathabantu walks out holding flowers.

"I think we should go babe " Mawakebantú says to Zinhle

"Babe?"

"Yes we are dating now" Zinhle says smiling

"She means we will get married soon and not what she is saying" Mawakebantú says

I giggled with them then they left.

"Here are your flowers my wife"

I take them. He takes the baby then with his other hand he held my waist as we walk in our new home.

Chapter 13

Me being pregnant again is something that I never thought it will happen this soon. Like seriously kwenzakwenkosi is only three years old now and so in love with his father. This time around the pregnancy is harder I am more fat, shoes don't fit, clothes don't fit and even the promise ring that Zwelikhathebauntu gave me yesterday. It is so cute and creative of him. Yes it's not those expensive rings that you buy at Sandton but it's a ring that he made with his two hands, it is made out of colorful plastics and flexible silver wire. The way my man is so creative, those stones that he last gave me are now decoration in our living room so that everyone that enters our house can see that. By the way it was his idea.

I walk down stairs and he was cutting kwenzakwenkosi's hair. Yes he does his hair and mine too. He does not want people doing our hair. I must say that my man is good with his hands. Everything that he does with his hands it just comes out perfect but the problem is he loves cutting hair in the living room while he watches TV.

"love I think I told you about cutting hair in the living room "I say

"but love I am watching TV "

" then sir you have to pick doing one thing because you can't pick them both at the same time"

I say turning off the TV. They both scream.

"you know the rules no cutting hair where people eat so move to the bathroom now"

Zwelikhathebauntu picks up kwenzakwenkosi then they left.

As I was cleaning their mass Zinhle walks in looking as heavy as I am. Oh yes we are both pregnant and if you ask me I feel like these brothers told each other that they will make us pregnant because we are both on our 7th month.

"hey"

"hi"

She throws her self on the couch

"I am hungry and tired"

"me too"

And by the way as pregnant as we are we also crave for the same things, cry at the same time sometimes and moody at the same time. I wonder why

"let's order pizza" we both say in harmony

We laugh

"I will order in" she says

As she orders in there was a knock on the door so I went to see who it may be. When I opened the door I got a shock of my life. When was the last time I met Lilly. She looks old and sick in her hospital clothes

"Lilly? "

Tears flowed down her cheeks

" come in" I welcomed her

We walk in and my two babies were back in the living room talking to Zinhle.

"look who is Zwelikhathebauntu " I say with a smile

" Lilly? " he asks confused

" you have met already? "

" yes the day he took you from the bus that's where we met"

"oh"

"why won't we give them space"
Zwelikhathebauntu says taking kwenzakwenkosi 's hand

"what about our pizza? " Zinhle asks

" I will buy you one on the way"

They all walked out

We moved to the the dinner table room, I brought cold water for us

"girl I have missed you where have you been hiding yourself? "

" I have been sick"

"what is wrong with you my friend? "

" I am HIV positive and I only have few days to live"

The room goes silent with tears rolling out of my eyes

"Lilly you are HIV but that does not mean you are going to die soon. Girl you still got the time to do what we always wished to do. Like going to Paris. Meet Romeo and Juliet like we wished"

She giggles and I also join her. We were laughing between our tears

"we were so crazy back then. We both knew that Romeo and Juliet both don't exist but we still kept on pushing and putting it in our bucket list "

" and maybe and just maybe they is a possibility that we might meet them "

We both laugh out loud then we stop

" but those days for me are now gone"

"no they are not we..... "

"there is no need for you to lie to me I already know and expected it"

She got up and hugs me

"I am just happy that I found you at last"

"I am happy too"

Our hug lasted for about some time

"I will miss you" I blurt

"I will see you again. Just put in mind that everyone that is dying next to you is dying because they are saving you to live so that one day you will sit on that golden chair at the kingdom. Just one day "

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"huh?"

How does she know about the kingdom and what does she mean?

"let me leave you" she says walking out

I wanted to walk her out but I just stood there shocked of what I just heard from her.

The pizza guy never came so I think they canceled the delivery. I stood up in an aim of going to cook but as I was about to do that the door swings open and kwenzakwenkosi came running to me.

"mommy mommy look what daddy bought for me " he shows me his soccer ball

" wow and it even has a signature "

" yes mom on the way we met Percy Tau and he signed my ball"

Zwelikhathebauntu walked in holding two large pizzas from pizza Hut.

"I see Mr has showed you what he got" he says placing the pizzas on the small table in the living room.

"thank God you bought pizza I was craving for it"

"I think I made a good choice"

We all laugh

"let me go get plates for us"

"lovie relax we can eat from the boxes. You hurt my feelings when you get up. It's like you suffer to get up"

"OK then let's say a prayer and eat" I say

We prayed then we ate on light conversations. Kwenzakwenkosi was telling us the way he is so proud of his father and how one day he wants to be like him so that he can take care of me. Oh my baby.

Zwelikhathebauntu went to bath kwenzakwenkosi while I washed the dishes that me and Zinhle used. When I was done I went to kwenzakwenkosi's room. I also promise him that I will always give a kiss by his lips before he sleeps and he also made a promise that he will never sleep without getting a kiss from me.

As I walked in his room he was up and playing with his toys.

"my baby"

"my mommy "

He jumps in the covers with a smile waiting for his good night kiss.

I kiss him but this time he does something different, he held my belly and said " cannot wait to meet you brother "

When I wanted to ask him a question he just closed his eyes and slept.

I was shocked. My son always shocks me. I walk in our room and Zwelikhathebauntu is sitting on the pillow at the floor reading his Bible.

"oh you here let me go lock the doors and turn off the lights "

He walks out of our room. As the man of the house he always does that. Insuring that his family is safe.

When he gets back we read the Bible together, pray then went to shower. In the shower his left hand moved to bum and squeezed it so tight.

We kissed as the warm water touched our skins
. As we were kissing he enters me.

"aaaaaaahhhhhhhh! "

" oh lovie"

"try faster love. Faster! "

He does that. In and out of me so fast like they was no tomorrow. I held his back bringing him closer to my body then raised my right leg up for better entrance. I think I made a mistake by giving a better excess because I just gave him more energy to hit me harder. I kiss his neck making him to groan. Some time later we stop.

"oh my God that was great lovie"

"I think you were not so bad yourself "

We bath then got dressed in our sleeping wear. Zwelikhathebauntu has pajamas now. I bought them for him because now he is a father he can't just always sleep nude.

I told him about what me and Lilly spoke about and he was so shocked. Then we made love again. "To make me feel better" he said

....

"bye bye and I will see you at the other side "
Lilly says claiming a white long ladder

" Lilly please don't do this remember our dreams and our times we shared together "

" you still have that life to see all with your new family "

" but..... "

" the gates are being closed now I have to go"

She walks away. When I turn around to go to the different direction I see the gates of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu

"this place is a place of love and peace " the twin Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather says together

" you have to get back here or all the people around you will die" they both say again

I tune to the old chubby lady

"I want kwenzakwenkosi's heart now. I want to rule the kingdom and it shall forever be mines.

Hahahaha" she says with her deep voice

I wake up and I am dripping wet. I have been sweating. I stand up to go to the bathroom but I felt a very sharp pain that stopped me from going to the bathroom. When I look at my bed it is wet.

MY WATER JUST BROKE. NO ITS TOO EARLY!!!

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"AAAAAAA!"

Zwelikhathebauntu wakes up

"lovie are you ok? "

" no love. I think the baby is coming"

He has a smile on his face

"Zwelikhathebauntu take me to the hospital now! " I shout in pain

" OK let me go start the car"

He runs out to the garage then comes back

"my car does not start"

"then do something! "

" oh yeah let me call Mawakebantu "

He takes his phone and calls him

" hi there brother "

.....

" well the same situation this side too"

.....

"ok bye brother "

He walks closer to me

" love Zinhle is also in pains and his car does not start too "

" THEN CALL THE AMBULANCE!"

"I did on my way here"

"AAAAAAAAA "

I hold his hand so tight. He was panicking

" I am sorry my wife "

" AAAAAAAAA "

I felt like pushing because if I don't I may die of these pains

" love I am going to push and I need you to hold the baby's head so that it does not get hurt"

"love..... "

" GO NOW! "

I spread my legs and he placed a towel for the kid's head to lean safely on it.

" love I don't think I can handle it"

I ignored him then began to push

"AAAAAAAAA!!!!!! "

" MY WIFE PLEASE WAIT!!!! "

He was still between my legs and trembling as hell

" AAAAAAAAA!!! " I push

" A HEAD! A HUMAN HEAD!

"YOU BETTER HOLD IT!! "

" AAAAAAAAA!! "

baby cries fill the room and Zwelikhathebauntu runs to the bathroom to vomit

" oh my baby"

I cut the umbilical cord

I place him on my chest. His father comes back

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"Well then I guess Nthandoyenkosi and Buhlebenkosi it is" Mawakebantu says

We look at him

"yes let's choose them" I say

I breast feed my baby which was so painful and Kwenzakwenkosi couldn't stop staring at us as we were breast feeding the babies.

"mommy I am hungry now" Kwenzakwenkosi says

"Zwelikhathebauntu would you mind..... "

" no I won't mind Misokuhle " he says getting up

Zwelikhathebauntu never calls me by my name.

I sigh

" my baby daddy is going to get some food"

"OK mommy"

He claimed in my bed then looked at his brother.

...

I was now clean and dressed in my black Robe De Kappa with my black Nike kicks. I need to do my hair it is so embarrassing.

We are the last ones to go. Kwenzakwenkosi went to visit Mawakebantu for two days. I think Mawakebantu saw we were both angry for each other or brother here asked his brother to take him.

I haven't spoken to Zwelikhathebauntu by the way.

"you look good " he says

I shut my mouth and pick the baby up.

We walk to the car. I went in the back seat with the baby while he also went to his driver's seat.

" would you like something to eat? "

He looks at me through the rearview mirror

" no thanks" I answer

He sighs then drives straight to our house. When we got home I bathed the baby and breast feed him till he went to sleep. I went to our room and showed again then I covered my body with the white night dress. I walk into the covers then read the Bible. As I was reading Zwelikhathebauntu walks in carrying a plate of massive food.

"dinner is ready " he says with a smile

I giggle

" my lovie is back to laughing "

I made a straight face again

He places the food on the bed, gave me my spoon to eat this gigantic rice and minced meat then sat next to me on the bed.

"Zwelikhathebauntu we need to talk" I say

He looks at me with his Chinese brown eyes and his face was expressed with regret

"Zwelikhathebauntu I do love you so much that I get jealous when girls complement you. I want to be the first person to always say how handsome you are, how much I love and how much I appreciate you in my life. I hate it when females come around and do what I should be doing to you or for you. The way I love you I really don't want to lose you. " I say in tears

Zwelikhathebauntu scooped the rice and fed me

" lovie I love you and only you. True I promise you that we are together on earth and we will be together in heaven too. In our lives there is no hell "

I giggle

" now eat my wife and make sure you full because I made it all just for you"

"so much?! Let's share"

"I was hoping that you say that" he took out his spoon from his pocket

We share together our food with laughter, kisses there and there, love and lovely conversations.

Zwelikhathebauntu went out to wash the dishes then my phone rings.

"hi mom"

"Misokuhle where are you? "

Oh yeah I never told my parents where I say because I felt like it's non of their business to worry about

" I am at Zwelikhathebauntu's place. Why are you asking? "

" because they are people here wearing Ndebele clothes looking for you "

" did they say who they are? "

" no they just spoke that they are looking for you"

I hung up

No no no no what am I going to do now?

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"lovie that was....."

"I get it Zwelikhathebauntu. You a guy and I guess now you see what women out there go through "

" true"

The paramedics walk in

"mam are you ok" the lady asks

"well I am sleepy"

"she has lost a lot of blood. Take her now! " the male says

These people are always late but they call themselves emergency helpers. I am losing my blood because they were not here in time but maybe I shouldn't blame them I am the one that pushed my baby boy out.

Zwelikhathebauntu was next to me but I stopped him when we got in the ambulance so that he can go look after kwenzakwenkosi.

We got to the hospital and my baby was taken away from my arms then I was placed in a emergency room for better check ups and many more.

...

I wake up the next morning and next to me there was Zinhle on her hospital bed reading a magazine.

"Zinhle? "

" oh hey you are up. Finally "

I smile

" what are you doing here? " we say together

" come on now they shouldn't be a need for us speaking at the same time like I mean I am not pregnant anymore " she says

We laugh

" I gave birth last night at my house "

" me too" Zinhle says shocked

"yes I know Zwelikhathebauntu told me last night"

"this is so abnormal "

" true"

"we were both got pregnant at the same time then we gave birth at the same place.....

Specifically we gave birth at our houses and our kids share the same birthdays. Oh God is great"

she says excited

I show a lazy smile.

Why? This thing that is happening to the both of us is so rare who would believe this "they are twins but they have their mothers" they is something that needs to be explained here.

The door opens and Zwelikhathebauntu, Mawakebantu and kwenzakwenkosi walk in.

"Mom! Aunty! Where is Nthandoyenkosi and Buhlebenkosi! " kwenzakwenkosi yells as he runs in our room

" my baby what are you talking about? " I ask

" mom where is my brother and sister? "

I look at Zinhle

" you gave birth to a baby girl? "

" yes" she says smiling

The nurse brought in our babies that were in the incubator. Oh my God they were so tiny.

"Good morning mommies " the nurse says

She looks so young maybe she is a volunteer. She was all smiley looking at Zwelikhathebauntu but he was not looking at her direction all his attention was on the two babies.

" here are the babies but I don't know which mother takes which child"

"maybe if you were more focused you would have looked at their name tags" I say with an attitude

"oh yes"

She looks at their name tags then gave us our babies.

"you have nice eyes" she says to Zwelikhathebauntu

Zwelikhathebauntu looks at her then looks at me clearing his throat. I roll my eyes then look at my baby

"well thank you"

"pleasure "

She walks out with a smile on her face. She is beautiful yellow born and nice but girl Zwelikhathebauntu is mine. I don't share something that can't be split into two and I don't borrow him around like he is made out of clay or paper but today is my son's birthday and I should embrace it so there is no need for me to be mad.

Zinhle's babe was so cute she had hair around her head and big blue eyes like her father and light skinned too. Well Mawakebantu looks like a white person or let me say he is half white and half black but when meeting him for the first time you would say he is white but then you will be surprised when he begins speaking Ndebele and Sesotho.

My son looked like a copy of his father, dark skinned, China eyes and brown eyelids.

"so what are their names?" Zinhle asks

"Aunty I told you when I got in that their names are Nthandoyenkosi and Buhlebenkosi "

Kwenzakwenkosi says

"kwenzakwenkosi respect! "

He makes a sad face

"fix that face and respond to Aunty in a respectable manner"

He folded his arms

"I am going to count up to 5 and if you don't do that you will go to the naughty corner"

He fixed his face

"sorry Aunty. What I was meaning was may you please choose the names Nthandoyenkosi and Buhlebenkosi"

"why? " Zinhle asks

" I had a dream and they told me that they want those names"

Zinhle looks at me but I looked away because I never told her how unique kwenzakwenkosi is.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

Zwelikhathebauntu walks in while I was moving up and down

"my wife what is wrong? "

" just... Just.... Ummm doing an excise that I use to do at the hospital "

" oh"

I went to bed and covered myself with the bed cover and slept.

...

My phone is ringing but where is it? I look for it under my pillow but it was not there, I look at Zwelikhathebauntu and he had it on his hand but he was not answering it. He had tears

I wake up and looked at the time it was 06:30 then my phone rings. I pick it up.

"hello, am I speaking to Miss Dube? " female voice

" yes. Who am I talking to? "

" you are talking Candy Dowling , I am a lawyer to the late lady, Lilly Ramaila and I would like to invite you to the reading of the will on Saturday at 11:00 at Bela-Bela "

I had no words my phone fall on the floor and broke then my tears fell down my cheeks

...

I did not tell Zwelikhathebauntu about my meeting with Lilly's lawyer because he has also being busy with his night gigs. Most of the time he doesn't come home at night but at the day time he makes sure that he spends time with his kids and me. I drove myself to Bela-Bela but I already miss my babies specially my first born since he hasn't been home for two long days.

When I got there the house is clean as always.

"hi Ma" I greet

She gives me a nasty look

"you are here to take my child's money like you always did"

"no Ma "

" yes you are. You didn't come at her funeral but you here when it comes to the will"

"Ma I didn't know if I did I would have been here for her like I always promised but sometimes I have to leave and let die"

I am such a bad friend how couldn't I come to her funeral but I should have went to check her up like she always use to do to me. Everything in that will I will not take it since I wasn't there for her like I should have been.

A beautiful young lady in her mid - years wearing a black suit walks towards us.

"hi elders" she greets

"hi" we answer

"we may go inside" Lilly's mother says with a smile like she was never rude a minute ago

We sat in the living room

"anything to drink? " Lilly's mother asks

" water please" she says

"and you? " she asks looking at me with rude eyes

" no thanks Ma "

She comes back with the drinks including mine.

What is wrong with this lady I just told her that I am good but she brings a glass for me, anyway I won't drink.

" let's begin "

She takes a sip of her water then begins

" Last will and testament of Lilly Ramaila.

I, Lilly Ramaila, being of sound mind, do hereby make, declare and publish this to be my last will and testament, any time theretofore made.

To my mother, Zizi Ramaila I give her my house at Polokwane and R200 000,00, to my older brother, Gift Ramaila I give him all my cars to him. To my little sister Joy Ramaila I give her R500 000, 00 for her to education and this money will be only given to her when she has passed and furthered her studies and to my friend, Misokuhle Mimi Dube I give her my shop The Royal and R5000, 00"

The room is quiet.

"why would my child give her friend our family's legacy!?" Lilly's mother shouts

" well it's OK Ma you may take it all that belonged to me that I was given by her" I say

"no miss Dube that is not allowed, we can't change her wishes. Lilly gave you that shop for a reason and I think this letter will explain it all"

She gave me a piece of paper.

I drove home. When I got there my handsome Chinese brown eyes man has cooked.

"wasn't Nthandoyenkosi crying "

" no" he says giving him to me

The toys were all over the sitting room, when I was about to shout them they have already ran upstairs.

After bathing Nthandoyenkosi and breastfeeding him I went to tidy up the living room. I went to shower when I walked out of our bathroom I went to check on Kwenzakwenkosi and he was fast asleep. I kissed him then went to our room.

Zwelikhathebauntu went to turn off the lights and lock the doors then came back. I was looking at my phone worried about what my parents said. I feel hands rubbing my bums. He kisses my shoulder and up my neck to my ear.

"what are thinking about? "

" nothing "

He stops then looks at me.

" I don't believe what you are saying but let me help you to remove it" he says

He takes off his pants and underwear. He was only left with his top. He slides my underwear out then pulled my legs apart.

After our love make out last night
Zwelikhathebauntu had to go to his gigs again at 01:00. We made love till 00:00 the way we missed each other.

I took the letter from my bag then read it.

°°°Dear friend

I know that you are shocked why I gave you my shop. Well here are the reasons, all this time I made it for you after getting your degree for business management I wanted to give it to you.
I operated it for some time so that I could be sure that this shop will make profit for you and yes I left is just right and ready for you. I have left R500 000 000,00 for you to continue to learn as you always wanted to and don't even think about giving up that shop for my abusive family. Yes I never told you. They use to abuse me and just to say I was raped by my so called brother when I was sixteen but that is all in the past now and I forgave them. That shop is not their legacy it is yours and yours only.

No matter where you are I will always be with you

Love Lilly your best twin friend °°°

By L

Just as we arrived the delivery guy comes with the gigantic cake. It had superman on the other side, the Barbie girl at the other half and a water fall of chocolate between this two cartoons. It is amazing, Zinhle really did a good job. We sang a happy birthday song for the twins with different mothers then Zinhle pours some homemade juice that I don't think that it will be friends with my tough. It's so green and things that are green don't really become friends with my tough.

Zwelikhathebauntu comes back then held my waist.

"we are going to drink in a count of five" Zinhle says

She did count then we all drank.

Zwelikhathebauntu had a sour face as a show that this drink is bitter just as I thought and trust me he is going to lie about the taste any minute now.

"oh God its nice " he says

See

" you like it love? "

" yes lovie"

"Zinhle give him another glass"

I am going to punish him for not being honest with his feelings

"no I think they should save it for their family. You know "

" no I did it for all of us so I could give you another one" Zinhle says

He clears his throat and looks at Mawakebantu. I think they were communicating with their eyes. These guys, they think I can't see them.

"babe I think you should safe it for the both of us tonight" Mawakebantu says

"OK then" Zinhle says

Zwelikhathebauntu breathes out loud thinking that he is saved

"no I am sure you will do another one at your house. Right now my man here loves it. Don't you love? "

Zwelikhathebauntu gave me a frown

" actually right now I am craving for a smoke" he says then walks away.

I think I just did a really great job.

Later the guys were busy with the meat while we went to change the kids into their swimming wears excluding Nthandoyenkosi. That one is all up in Mawakebantu's arms. He is in love with his babomkhulu(uncle). When we try to take him he cries like he is being beaten and I don't think that we will go to our room with Nthandoyenkosi today.

Kwenzakwenkosi was already swimming and making friends which reminds me that I have to find a school for him. He is friendly. Zinhle held Buhlebenkosi in the baby pool. She was so happy to be all up in the pool as she was splashing the water.

When the food was ready we ate without Kwenzakwenkosi because he already had friends and they were playing together.

I am horny and I don't know how to tell Zwelikhathebauntu that. I think it is that quickie that made me this horny. He is sitting opposite me so let me sign for him. I brush his penis with my feet. He clears his throat then looks at me smiling.

He eats and I do it again. This time he groaned but lower. I smile and look at him.

"mama I am hungry" Kwenzakwenkosi says

Where did he come from?

"OK let me go dish up for you" I stood up to dish up for him

As I was dishing up for him I felt his hands going around my waist with his head on my shoulder.

"playing nasty today" he whispers

"Zwelikhathebauntu I am horny"

"I see you"

"how about we go somewhere where we can have sex"

He had a smile

"we booked some rooms so we can go there"

"oh that sounds nice"

I went to give my son his food then walked to the room. When we got there we did not waste time we were doing it raw and standing too. After I went to shower then got dressed in my yellow bikini top and bottom.

"you are going to swim? "

" yes"

He walks closer to me and grabs my bums so tight.

"Zwelikhathebauntu they is no need for you to do that" I say

"why? They are mine and mine only. My wife you making me horny already "

I pushed him off me then went to where the family was sitting.

" up for swimming? " I ask Zinhle

" no me and water don't get alone"

"OK then. Kwenzakwenkosi let's go and enjoy son"

He got up happy and went to swim with him.

We are now packing our bags to go home.

"Zwelikhathebauntu is your tooth brush in your toiletry bag"

"yes my love"

Kwenzakwenkosi was sleeping with us in this bed so we couldn't have sex and my other son Nthandoyenkosi was sleeping with Mawakebantu and I sure that they did not have sex too.

All our things were packed and we were ready to go.

We got Zinhle outside next to the car with the babies in their car seats.

"why isn't the car opened? " I ask

" Mawakebantu just found out that our car keys were stolen at the safe of the reception "

" WHAT!! " me and Zwelikhathebauntu shout at the same time

I look at him

" I will go look for him" he says then walks away and Kwenzakwenkosi followed his father

"what happened? "

" I think they broke in and took our car keys"

This world does not love us. We were happy yesterday but now we are all sad and frustrated. Will we ever find happiness?

Chapter 14

Today is Nthandoyenkosi and Buhlebenkosi's birthday. Me and Zinhle are moving up and down to make sure everything is ok just for one year Olds.

"love did you call the delivery guy to deliver the cake "

" yes I did and he is on his way"

I move upstairs to bath my three babies. Zinhle was still busy buying us goodies for today's event. If you ask me this day is not for the babies we are just doing it for our entertainment because they is no way kids can swim. Today we are going to Sand River resort and anyone that knows that place, knows that it is not a place for a baby's birthdays , it was not my idea it was Zinhle's idea. If it was up to me I would have just bought a cake and make the party indoors.

I first bathed Kwenzakwenkosi then dressed him into his blue pocket short and his green short sleeve golf t-shirt, blue flip flops. I gave Buhlebenkosi a bath then dressed her into her pink and white dress with her white sandals, made her soft hair and added a princess crown. Nthandoyenkosi got dressed in his blue golf t-shirt, white short with his blue sandals . I also placed a prince crown on his head. It is so hot today.

When I was done with the kids I went to shower too then got dressed in my white short, white sleeveless summer top and my pink Nike flip flops.

As I walked downstairs Zinhle with Mawakebantu were already back.

"mama looking sexy as always "
Zwelikhathebauntu says with both his sons in his arms as they were sitting in the living room
" thank you " I say blushing

Zwelikhathebauntu was also looking handsome in his shorts showing off his hairy legs.

Actually we were all in shorts and flip flops.

" thank you for bathing my little girl " Zinhle says
" well they is nothing I wouldn't do for you "

We made a high five and laughed

" is everything packed and are we ready to go?"
I ask

" yes everything is in the car " Zinhle answers

They take the kids to the car while I went upstairs to get my bag. When I was about to go out Zwelikhathebauntu walks in. He was undoing his shorts and came towards me. He kisses my neck

" love we have to go" I say

"I will be fast"

"no Zwelikhathebauntu I don't want to smell sex on my son's and daughter's birthday "

" you will bath after"

"OK then make it quick"

He entered me immediately making moan my lungs out.

After I went to shower for like five minutes then got into my long rap around summer dress with my white flip flops.

We walk out with his index finger in my hand. I will never change how I hold his hand and I think he also likes it too.

They were already in Mawakebantu's white Land Rover.

"you took longer than expected " Zinhle says with a dirty smile

" I had to change"

She gave me a 'don't lie to me' face. I got in at the back with the kids and Zwelikhathebauntu went to the front seat but he kept looking at me after two minutes.

When we got there. The boys and Buhlebenkosi went for a tour around while me and Zinhle sated up the picnic.

"girl give me the details "

" details of what? " I ask confused

" girl tell me what were you doing with Zwelikhathebauntu this morning that made him to do not stop staring at you in the car"

I blush and look away

"I did nothing"

"don't lie"

"OK we did have a quickie" I whisper

She screams so loud that she turned people's attention to us. Plus she was the one that advised me to make a quickie before my man goes to the gigs because most of the time I was always horny. It was also my first time doing a quickie.

The boys and Buhlebenkosi came back excluding Zwelikhathebauntu maybe he is smoking wherever he is. Zwelikhathebauntu has been hiding himself these days when he smokes he says he does not want the kids to do the same thing he use to do when he was younger. Trust me I am happy that he does not want his kids to smoke weed because I don't love the smell of it but my man always comes back smelling good like he never went out for a smoke.

Chapter 14

We have been living in Pretoria at Mamelodi in a back room shark and our landlord is the most kindest grandfather ever. He leaves here alone, his kids died with their mother during a car accident and since from that day he lived on his own. He is old about 84 years old but he is still strong. We call him Baba Pull up, he prefers that because he thinks he is still charming and all that.

He has been good to me and my kids,
Kwenzakwenkosi is now doing grade one,
Nthandoyenkosi is still at crèche.

Kwenzakwenkosi was happy when he went to school but his brother was so sad that his older brother is leaving him behind at crèche. They love each other and they just always remind me of Zwelikhathebauntu and Mawakebantu they so close and I don't think they can leave without each other. I am studying at Tshwane North TVET college but I am not at school always I just keep my studies and my work equal. I got to school Monday, Wednesday and Friday then I go to work at my new job at Baba pull up's spaza shop on Tuesday and Thursday but I mostly work night shifts.

"my babies have you gotten your lunch boxes?"

"yes mommy"

"OK then let me walk you to school"

Nthandoyenkosi's crèche is closer to where we currently live so we walk him there then I went to wait at the bus stop with Kwenzakwenkosi. Later when his bus came I also got on a taxi to school.

After class I went to go buy some groceries. Lilly's money did help us like she knew that I would need it. By 14:00 I went to get Nthandoyenkosi from crèche then walked home. Kwenzakwenkosi is wise he always walks home but at first I was so worried because I thought that maybe the people from the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu have taken him.

When we got home we found Kwenzakwenkosi sitting with Baba pull up then Nthandoyenkosi ran to hug his brother.

"how was school? " Nthandoyenkosi asks

" it's so hard, like very hard. You will also see for yourself. Grade one is hard"

I wanted to laugh at Kwenzakwenkosi's respond but I held my laughter. Kwenzakwenkosi loves frightening his brother.

"hi Baba Pull up" I greet

"hi daughter "

I walk pass them to go and make dinner. As I am cooking I am thinking about Zwelikhathebauntu. I miss him, I wonder if he is eating where he is or does he sleep and does he clean around the house because I know he can untidy when he wants to.

As we were eating at the main house we were also watching TV. Then we saw Zwelikhathebauntu dancing and looking colorful and expensive in his clothes. Girls where screaming for him others were touch him in a very seductive way. What did I expect I am the one that left so he should move on with his life, I guess.

"Nthandoyenkosi there is daddy"

Kwenzakwenkosi points

"oh that's him"

"and he looks like you " Kwenzakwenkosi says

They both laugh

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

As we were standing there I see both Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfathers then they both say "go back"

I screamed my lungs out then the babies began to cry.

"Zinhle they were there just now"

"what are you talking about? "

She is calming down the babies

" Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfathers they were there "

She looks at the direction that I was pointing then looks at me again confused.

Zwelikhathebauntu and Mawakebantu came back with a trembling Kwenzakwenkosi I tried to move but my body wouldn't let me. I try to scream but my voice is gone.

" Misokuhle let's go! " Zwelikhathebauntu yells

Everything happens in slow motion then my tears drop down my cheeks

" if you don't go back to the kingdom and save it you will never and I mean ever find peace.

Continue running away more people around you that love you will die" a whisper of a male voice says

I see Zwelikhathebauntu breaking down crying like a man that has lost hope. As I have frozen my son had white bubble substance coming out of his mouth.

"everyone around you will die just for you to sit in that kingdom chair" said Lilly the day before she died

"you know what to do right so do what's right"
the voice says

I unfreeze and rushed to Kwenzakwenkosi. We called a cap then we sent him to the hospital. I see a golden whistle following us and I just knew it that the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu knows where we are.

I held Zwelikhathebauntu's hand so tight then my tears fell on his lap.

"I love you" I say

He kisses my lips then squeezed my hand. We got to the hospital then my son was given the attention that he deserves. We sat at the waiting room waiting for the results.

The doctor finally came after 8 hours

"Kwenzakwenkosi Dube"

"we are his parents " Zwelikhathebauntu says holding my hand as we stood up

" oh well your son is not sick and the bubbles you were talking about are not visible in his system so your son is fine and ready to go"

What?!

Zwelikhathebauntu went to his brother while me and Kwenzakwenkosi went back home. When we got home it was dark and silent. I went to pack my two son's bags and my bag too. After I wrote a letter to Zwelikhathebauntu

°°° Zwelikhathebauntu Sizwe Mahlangu

Love I am sorry for doing this to you but I have to do this to safe my kids. I had a shop given to me The Royal that I use to work to. Lilly gave it to me to take care of it, while I am gone please take care of it till I come back. Just know that I love from here to the moon and back. I will come back with my PhD home. I promise I will be back for our love. °°°

"Kwenzakwenkosi make it fast we have to go" I say

"is dad coming with us? "

" yes"

"I know his not"

"my baby I am doing this to save you and I know one day you will thank me"

"mom where is the Kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu? "

" why you ask? "

" I was there with grandfather and he said we have to go back to the place of love and peace"

"this is a place of love and peace"

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather once said

"we will go there son one day"

He smiles

We went to get Nthandoyenkosi from Zinhle's and Mawakebantu's house. Luckily she was all alone. It was hard to convince Zinhle with a lie but finally she gave in then we took off to a place that I don't even know but I had faith that I would find a place that we will start a new life there. I was crying and praying that I am making a right choice.

Chapter 16

I can't believe that I passed with great and high marks. I didn't know who to call or who to celebrate with but I guess I will just be happy in my soul.

"mommy mommy " that is Kwenzakwenkosi
he comes running pulling Nthandoyenkosi

" hi mommy " they both greet

" hi my babies "

" mom Nthandoyenkosi was singing and everybody loved his voice"

Nthandoyenkosi looks down shyly and I hug them both. My baby can sing how amazing that is but they don't smell pleasant.

I close my nose

"where were you guys? "

" school and crèche " Kwenzakwenkosi says

" but why do you smell so bad today "

They stare at each other with Nthandoyenkosi wanting to cry then his brother hugs him going to Baba pull up's house. I am sorry but they do smell bad.

Later Baba pull up came to give me food

" here you go my daughter "

The food smelled unpleasant too

" Baba why are feeding me this rotten food? "

He smells the plate

" they is nothing wrong with my food and it is so disrespectful of you to say that about my food"

He walked out angry and I got back with my washing.

When I was done I went back inside the main house and I got them eating so I thought I should apologize for what I did.

"Baba I am sorry I didn't.... " I couldn't continue to speak because I ran out to vomit since the bad smell of that food got to me.

The last time I did this was when I was pregnant with Kwenzakwenkosi. I still remember when I threw away my uncle's bunny chow that day and just coming to think of it I wonder where is he.

Anyway I may be pregnant again. When I was pregnant with Nthandoyenkosi I ate everything never got morning sickness or anything that would show that I pregnant. Instead of me to know that I was pregnant Zwelikhathebauntu woke up one morning telling me that he had a dream that I was pregnant with a baby boy then that day we took a test and it came back positive.

I turn my back and Kwenzakwenkosi was standing at the door looking at me with a worried face.

"mommy is ok they is no need for you worry yourself "

He walks towards me then touches my belly.

" Sphiweinkosi has finally came "

" Kwenzakwenkosi what are you talking about?"

"my other younger brother that I was playing with at the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu and he said he will come to Earth and be my brother"

After him saying that he walked out smiling like he didn't drop a boom.

The boys were now so in love with Baba pull up's bed they say that they will sleep there forever.

I cleaned then bathed and got dressed in my white black less dress showing my boobs too with my white and gold high heels. I was going to get Kwenzakwenkosi's report from school.

"mommy mommy " they both ran after me as I was about to walk out the gate. They look clean and cute in their black swag pants and their matching tops. They were wearing the same things like how twins would do.

" Good morning mommy" Kwenzakwenkosi greets

"morning my mommy " Nthandoyenkosi followed

" good morning babies "

They open the gate

" we are coming with you to get my report"
Kwenzakwenkosi says

We went on a taxi to his school and we got to his school. We went to his class and his teacher was happy to see Kwenzakwenkosi.

"Mr K how are you? " the teacher says

" I am good mam and this is my mother"

"hi mam"

"hi"

We handshake. Kwenzakwenkosi saw his friends then went with Nthandoyenkosi to them.

"Kwenzakwenkosi is so wise if you ask me. He was able to get straight A's in all his subjects and me and the principal decided to put him into a boarding school for him to get better education and training for soccer because that is what we discovered that he was also talented to but we couldn't make a decision for him when he has parents so you have to fill up this paper you and his father. You may bring it back next year if you still want your son to go" the teacher says as we sat down in the class "is it a must that his father must sign up this paper"

"yes, if he is not dead"

"OK mam I will keep in mind "

" here is your son's report and a invitation to his awards on the 15th of November "

I had tears in my eyes. My boy really did work hard and I will keep praying that he continues like this for his lifetime.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

The next day I woke up and woke the boys. They don't want me to bath them anymore, specifically Kwenzakwenkosi he says at school they told him that it is rape he even said he will bath his little brother. I wasn't hurt by his words because you could tell that they came from a good side.

When I went to living room, that's where they sleep because they can't sleep. They was this one time I slept with them and they kicked me out of the bed in their sleep and since from that day I just never want to sleep with them.

"Kwenzakwenkosi and Nthandoyenkosi wake up"

They jump out of their blankets. The way my kids love school they don't even waste time to wake up like I use to do.

They went to bath with the boiled water that we boiled and kept it in a water bottle warmer. I went to make porridge and lunch boxes which is brown bread with nothing. They love it. I cleaned around the room

When they were done they packed their bags and lunch boxes.

"mommy can we go on our own today? "

Kwenzakwenkosi asks

" but..... "

" we will get to school and we will be safe" he answers

That is what I wanted to say, you see having a kid that could see the future in a blink of an eye

"OK but please be careful and get to school in time" I say

" we will. I love you mommy " he says

" I love you too mommy " Nthandoyenkosi says

" I love you so much and just so you know when you come back from school go to Baba pull up's house because I will be studying tonight "

" OK mommy" then they left running

I went to bath but they was no water warm water in the water bottle warmer anymore I guess my kids used it all. I bathed with cold water and went to school

...

When I came back I went to my room to study.

Kwenzakwenkosi and Nthandoyenkosi did come to greet me then they went to Baba pull up's house.

At 19:00 I went to give them good night kisses then they went to sleep.

I was waiting outside my examination room then I heard two Divas of the school talking.

"girl did you see Zwelikhathebauntu doing his thing on Saturday at fill up" girl 1 says

"I did. He is one cute guy shame" girl two says

"yes I know he is cute and that is why I am going to make him mine tonight as he will be at fill up again " girl 1 says

" haven't you heard? " girl 2 asks

" heard what? " girl 1 asks

" they is a rumor that says that Zwelikhathebauntu is taken and has two kids"

"but I never saw them so I will take him as he is still single baby"

"trust me he posted about it on his Instagram on the 17th of January this year saying that he has found his other half and a copy of himself in his two sons and no one will replace them or take their spaces in his heart "

I blush at that statement and knowing that is the every same date we first dated just made me blush even more.

After some time we went into our classes to write our paper.

I went to work the next day and I asked my male friend by the name of China to borrow me his phone because I wanted to look at Zwelikhathebauntu's Instagram account. When I got there I just couldn't believe that he was taking unexpected pictures of me but didn't show my face though but he updated the world about me and him. My favorite picture was the one that I was pregnant with Kwenzakwenkosi with my long green dress looking at myself in the mirror then he wrote 'I am going to be a new father and I will forever love my wife to be for carrying my seed in her'. They was this other one that I hated which was me crying for chocolate then he wrote 'cravings have gotten my wife to be' but I was laughing at the same time. Every picture had 801,777 and still counting likes. People really do love him and I am also starting to miss him but a mother have to do anything in her power to protect her kids.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

After getting their reports I decided to buy them McDonald's and they were more than happy.

"Brother do you know that mommy and daddy are having another baby?" Kwenzakwenkosi says which made his brother confused

"I mean they will have another you" he elaborate further

Nthandoyenkosi laughs

"so where is the baby? " he asks

" in mommy's belly"

These kids. They are talking about me like I am not here with them or older than them and who the hell said I am pregnant.

"Kwenzakwenkosi you need to eat and stop telling lies"

"but... "

" SHUT UP KWENZAKWENKOSI AND EAT!! " I yelled and everyone looked at us

" sorry mom" he says with a sad face

We got home so late so they slept in my bed.

At 00:00 I hear the roof making noise like they is people on it. I look at my kids and they were sleeping. I went out to see what was happening on the roof. Unexpectedly someone pushed me so hard that I hit the floor so hard.

Kwenzakwenkosi woke up and began to cry.

Two guys jump off the roof then followed by a chubby lady in a black dress.

"I finally got you" she says in a deep voice closer to me

"who are you and what do you want? " I ask

" I want what you have"

Her tough moved from my lips to my boobs and sucks them but I pushed her so fast then she hit her face on the floor. She stood up with an angry face.

"you must never fuck with me because I will fuck you so bad you fucked up good " she says pulling me by my hair which made Kwenzakwenkosi and Nthandoyenkosi to scream more louder.

" take those bullshit kids we are leaving with them" she says to this other guy in black

"what about the lady? " he asks

" oh this one we will leave her. The day I make her main I fuck her good, for now I don't want to be tempted I want to focus on getting that kid's heart"

"what about the other kid? "

" WOULD YOU JUST WITH Your STUPID QUESTIONS AND JUST TAKE THOSE KIDS NOW!!! " she yelled making my room shake a bit.

They pull my babies roughly. They were kicking and screaming while I also screamed for them to stop.

" PLEASE LEAVE THEM ALONE!!!" I screamed in tears but they heard non of it then the walked out riding their brooms.

"MY BABIES!! " I ran after them

Baba pull up came out of his house and hugged me so tight.

" BABA MY KIDS!!! "

" what are you talking about? "

" THEY HAVE TAKEN MY BABIES!! "

He went in the house then came back holding his head

" who did that? "

" the witches "

His eyes popped out

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

Chapter

My life is just miserable. I just can't forgive myself of the choices I made. I was being a mother trying to keep her kids safe and far away from the kingdom's situations. Its been two weeks of my lament. Sometimes I would go to Nthandoyenkosi's crèche or go wait at Kwenzakwenkosi's bus stop hoping that they will come back to mommy's arms but still nothing. I can't eat, sleep or do anything because I am lonely. They was this one time when I wanted to call Zwelikhathebauntu but I thought how will he think of me, a mother that ran away and lost her kids on the way. My option is not to go back to Zwelikhathebauntu but at the same time I need his help.

Baba pull up keeps on bringing that old lady that I use to call grandmother to me which brought back all the trauma back of her and my brothers transforming. I don't know why she wants to help me now while back then when my parents wanted to take me she wanted to kill them and me.

My life has been just a laughing stock for the haters. I have lost weight but my belly keeps on getting bigger like I am those people that don't eat all my food groups types.

Baba pull up enters my room after knocking for some hours with me not answering

"oh thank God you are alive. Good morning " he says

I look at him without saying anything

" Misokuhle I know you are still angry at me because of I brought my friend but I know she can help you. She also helped me. She is not those heartless gifted doctors..... "

" Baba pull up don't talk what you don't know. You don't know if she is a good person or not. Sometimes what's meets the eye is not the same as knowing the person "

" you sound like you know her but trust me she will help you"

"I DON'T NEED HER HELP!!! "

" YES YOU DO AND I WILL TAKE NO FOR AN ANSWER BECAUSE I AM ALREADY HERE FOR YOU!! " grandmother says. Mxm why do I still call her grandmother

" YOU BETTER GET OUT OF HERE BEFORE..... "

" BEFORE YOU DO WHAT? KILL ME?"

I keep quiet and walk back step by step as she got closer to me.

"Misokuhle I raised you, I loved you and I still do. I became a mother to you and I will still do like I always did" she says closer to me

"no don't turn the tables and make yourself look like a victim we both know that you not! " I say yelling my lungs

She moves back a little then sits on my undone bed.

" Bobo(Baba pull up's real name) please leave us"

He walks out fast without hesitation then this old lady looks at me with a sad face.

"it all began when your mother fell in love with an older guy that she loved a lot but her parents were not supporting their relationship because of their age gap. She got pregnant very young then she wanted me to help her abort you and I agreed. The day came when I had to abort you, the plan was to make her go into her deep sleep so that she does not feel the pain when I abort you. I took my herbs and I was ready to kill you, in the process your mother's belly turned gold which was something unusual. I tried to touch her belly but I would burn if I did that. Your mother was still in her deep sleep then I went to ask my mother that was still alive back then about what I saw. She told me that you were gifted and chosen by the royal family before you were even born. I couldn't kill you, you supposed to be a secret since many people and kingdoms were seeking for your heart for power.

I was meant to train you about your gift when you 21 years old but then I fell in love with you and I did not want you to suffer because I knew that if I train you then you would have to suffer a lot. All those gifts that you had and still have are powerful than ever and now they are past on to your 3 sons. One that could see the future, that could sing and the last one that could see things that others can't see. You couldn't know those things because you were never trained for."

"so I was gifted? "

" still are but you need training for that"

"what happened to you transforming you and my brothers "

" well those are my kids we were cursed by my mother in law when her son died. She blamed us for his death because I was gifted just like you"

"what about uncle, cousins from free state and North West? "

" I did that with my magic. It was just imagery people that have lived years back"

I am speechless I can't believe that I have been living a lie.

"I am sorry if I hunted you but I just wanted to save you"

I slide down to the floor and tears take control. She stands up and walks to the door.

"WAIT! " I scream

She stops

" well that's another thing I came here to tell you about. Misokuhle you know where these kids belong. They have their own father and their own home. You know what to do what's right and now do it and just so you know if you don't listen to what I tell you right now you will curse the day you were born because the gods never plays when they punish you. "

Then she walks out

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

I wake up in Baba Pull up's room.

"Kwenzakwenkosi, Nthandoyenkosi! " I call out

Baba pull up came in like he has been running.

" you are up? " he says

"yes and where are my kids? "

" don't you remember that they took them? "

What happened in the early morning came back to my mind then I scream in tears. Baba pull up embraces me.

" the witches took my babies! " I say in tears

" and I believe you" he says

I look at him

"did you also see them? "

" no I was in my sleep"

"but how and why? "

" I don't have the answers that is why I called my female friend that knows these things "

" when is she coming? "

" now"

Oh

I went to my room cleaned around with still tears. I don't know if they are eating or comfortable where they are. I no since I left home I never prayed or go to church, maybe that is why these bad things are happening to me. I have forsaken God. I went down on my knees then prayed.

Some time later Baba pull up calls me to his kitchen because his friend has arrived. When I walked in the kitchen I could not believe my eyes. GRANDMOTHER!!!!!!

"MISOKUHLE?! " she yells surprised

My mouth is wide open. My eyes are about to pop out.

" Misokuhle my child" she stands up and gets closer to me and I walk back

"what are you doing here? " I ask in a whisper and tears going down my eyes

" I am here to help you"

"I don't need your help, I don't want your help and JUST LEAVE MY LIFE THE HELL ALONE!!!!!"

I then walk back to my room and sleep in tears.

I can't go back to Zwelikhathebauntu. I just can't,
I love him but I think he has moved on with his life. What would his girlfriend say as I walk in and say our kids are taken?

I am on my bed contemplating whether to go to Zwelikhathebauntu or find my own way to get my kids. Grandmother walks in with food.

"you have to eat for your son" she says

"I can't eat. I don't even know how my kids are as we are speaking "

" I am sure their save now eat for you baby"

I gave her a confused face

"yes you are pregnant I can see with your nose"

"and what is wrong with my nose? " I ask trying to look at my nose

" eat before we can go to Zwelikhathebauntu "

I tremble

" do we have to go today? "

" yes or if you want your kids cooked when we get there"

I sigh and eat. I didn't know that I was this hungry but I know within a second I was done and asking more.

I lotion I notice the belly and here the stupid me thought I wasn't eating all food groups. I got dressed in my mini dress with my high heels.

Closer we got to his house was the more nervous I got. Baba pull up's van stops right at the gate. I walk out alone but him and grandmother stay inside.

"won't you come in with me? " I ask

" our road ends now it is all up to you. Good luck " grandmother says then they drove off.

This is hard just like I thought. I jump the high fence with the help of the bins at the side of the road then got in the yard. I don't knock I just pull the door and fortunate for me it was not locked. I tip toe in then I hear moans upstairs. I want to just give up but I have to do this for my kids. I open the door and expected there was a girl having sex with Zwelikhathebauntu on our bed.

"Zwelikhathebauntu can we talk " I say

He pushes the poor girl off him then she fell at the other side. Zwelikhathebauntu's eyes land on me

" Misokuhle? " he says in a whisper

" ummm please get dress so we can talk"

I went to sit at the living room. To be honest I was hurt by what I saw in our bedroom but I am the one that ran away and now I have to live with it. This house smells like sex and I even feel uncomfortable sitting here.

We comes down with his gown and sits right opposite me and spread his legs so that I can see his penis.

"long time no see"

"Zwelikhathebauntu our kids are lost and I need your help to get them"

"LOST? HOW? WHEN? WHY? " he says standing up

His eyes are turning red and his hands skin is also turning red

" THIS IS ALL YOUR FAULT. IF YOU DIDN'T LEAVE MAYBE AND JUST MAYBE MY KIDS WOULD HAVE BEEN HERE WITH ME!!!! " he yelled with his deep voice that made me tremble

He walked Closer to me and held me by the throat so hard that I couldn't breathe. I couldn't even talk, today feels like my day I will die.

Chapter 17

My belly is also showing just like Zinhle's. Yes we are both pregnant again. If you ask a scientist I don't think they can answer me why this is happening to us. I think it..... Well let's just leave it where I say I don't know.

Its been a month and I haven't seen Zwelikhathebauntu since that day, according to Mawakebantu Zwelikhathebauntu is doing his gigs. This is madness my kids are out there and their father is doing "gigs" I am so disappointed in him, big time.

I have no choice but to pack my bags then go get my on my own children because the person that should be helping me is out there entertaining people.

It is 03:00 I take my bags and some money then out I went to Zimbabwe.

As I got off a group of man comes then they take out their guns pointing them right at me.

"GIVE ME YOUR MONEY" one says

Trust me I was not even nervous, I don't know why?

" I don't have but you can take my bag and watch if you want to as long as you get me to the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu " I say calm

They stare at each other not believing what I just said.

" why do you want to go there? " one of them asks

" I want my kids there and nothing else "

" mam that please is not safe anymore. They rape and kill people there since the king has passed on his brothers have been mistreating people so I won't allow you to go there"

"but I have to get my kids"

"well we can take you there so that you can save your kids" the other fat man says

We got in their Toyota van then we drove to the kingdom. They took me to the gold road that we went through with Zwelikhathebauntu last time we came here but they stop where the gold road begins.

"why are you stopping the car? " I ask

" this golden road is only stepped by people that are meant to step on it. We will burn if we step on this road. It was prayed for from 1913 by the forefathers of this land and that is how blessed this road is. The chosen and brave people step here" the old man says

"what if I also get burnt by this golden road too?

" I ask

" you will never. I can feel your gift from where I am sitting"

I give him a confused look

"go you will be late" he says

"ummm.....here is my bag and.... "

" they is no need for you to give us that. The only thing that you can do for us is to turn this kingdom to the kingdom of love and peace again like it should be"

 "this place is a place of love and peace"
Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather once said

I walk out with my belongings then look at them one last time.

"thank you " I say

They smile and drove off. I step on the Golden road and it lights up, I move back then it turns off again. My heart beats fast but I have to get to my kids. I take two steps forward and I see a

Rhino looking at me in the jungle then walks back to the dark jungle. I keep on walking but a little bit faster this time then I hear an Elephant's sound of communication. I run and a Lion roars which made me cry while running then a Leopard jumps off to the other side of the jungle without stepping on the golden lighted up road. I scream then ran fast while looking behind me making sure that these animals are not following me. I bump my body to something that was hairy and warm, I turned slowly to see what it is. "MOOO" I scream standing in the same spot. Me and it looked at each other in the eyes and it went quite. Then it moves slowly to the left and there was the gate. I look at this bull and it just minded its own business. The gates open, the bull turns then made a sound of communication again looking at me then walks off. I step in then turn to see the bull and it was nowhere to be seen. Why is this kingdom now dark like it does not have street lights? I don't care how I get there but I want my kids in my arms.

I step into the dark hoping to see the light but the unexpected happens, someone pulled me fast holding my mouth. I couldn't see his face or where we are going because it was just dark. I close my eyes and pray to God.

We get into mud house with heads of people and dead bodies everywhere. I spot my kids and Nthandoyenkosi was caged and crying then Kwenzakwenkosi was sleeping looking up like a already dead person. My tears drop then I was also caged. The chubby lady with deep voice and green eyes walks in laughing.

"babe you finally brought yourself to me"

I say nothing and looked at him/her with rage

"look how Sexy you are. No lies you are the first Lady in this kingdom that has ever been pretty. The rest them are a different story " she kisses my lips without me responding then he laughs " babe you will get use to me being all over you" she say laughing again

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

My tears were already dropping down my cheeks to his hands on my throat. His eyes were red, his hands were burning. I was ready to die but then Mawakebantu came as I was about to die.

"Zwelikhathebauntu what are you doing?! " he pushed him then he fell at the other direction

Zinhle came to me with tears and her baby behind her back.

" are you ok? " Zinhle asks

I am now in tears as Zinhle comforts me and Mawakebantu holding his crazy brother saying his clan praise. Zinhle takes me to there car and locks us in there as I told the whole story to her. She was very angry at me for leaving Zwelikhathebauntu and I also felt bad because I am the person that turned him into this monster that he is today.

Mawakebantu comes into the car drained like he was fighting a battle. He gets in the car and sighs out loud.

"how is he now? " Zinhle asks

Mawakebantu looks at me with a worried face

" Zwelikhathebauntu Sizwe Mahlangu is surely angry at you and he may kill you any time he wants to so I suggest you come with us and live at my house for some days because trust me he is not going to calm down any time soon"

"do you.....think that.....maybe he can forgive me? "

" for now let's just say I don't know "

We drove to their house and I spent the whole evening in my room asking God for forgiveness and for him to look after my kids. I kept on crying like they is no tomorrow.

The next morning I woke up with the mind that I will go to the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu on my own without his help. I bath then got dressed with my yesterday's clothes and walked to the living room. I don't know what said I must go there but I found myself in the living room with Zwelikhathebauntu's red eyes looking at me with anger and a sorry look at the same time. Mawakebantu and Zinhle were there but I did not mind them at all my eyes were at Zwelikhathebauntu.

"Good.....morning " I say with trembling lips

They didn't answer me

" let me guess you were going to escape or run away like you did last time " Zwelikhathebauntu says

I look down playing with my bag that I was holding.

" yes I was. As the mother I had to do something to get my kids" I say with a low tone and tears flowing down my eyes

"mother? The same mother that lost her kids " he says again

" brother don't you think that you are a little bit

hush? " Mawakebantu says

" Mawakebantu do you need me to remind you that Misokuhle is not your wife"

"I think we should give them there time" Zinhle says and pulls Mawakebantu

I was scared and standing in the same position and silence filled the room. I could feel that his eyes were all over me.

"Zwelikhathebauntu.... I am sorry. I didn't mean to hurt you.... I was just doing it to save our kids as one day my mother called saying that they was the people of Zwelikhathebauntu looking for us then I knew that I had to run away without you since these people are looking for you so I thought I should run away without you"
I say in tears

He makes a funny face still sitting, crossing his legs and his index finger pointed to his mind like he is thinking of something.

"I see but I thought I was the man and you the woman"

He got up and got closer to me. I stood there closing my eyes waiting for a slap but nothing came. I open my left eye and he was looking at me with his brown Chinese eyes and no emotion.

"I will have to think about your offer before I act"

"but my kids are out there and I don't know how they are or..... "

He lifts up my head slowly, mind you all this time I was looking down.

" I thought I am a man you the woman so lady know your lane"

He scans my face then walks out

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"are you ok?" all the ladies in the taxi asks

"I will be fine" I say

Zwelikhathebauntu was next to me but he never minded me at all. He was holding the sleeping Kwenzakwenkosi which was also my worry right now. Nthandoyenkosi was enjoying Mawakebantu's company like he has known him for a long time.

We drove behind the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu to a place that I never knew existed, it looked so amazing. They are two mountains then in between them they is a river flowing to the gigantic water fall, on the green fresh mountains they were five houses and not just any five houses they were those mansions that were amazing.

I pick up Nthandoyenkosi but he just wanted Mawakebantu which reminds me of when he was young. Buhlebenkosi was in her mother's arms and never wanted to leave them.

"let's go cooking for dinner "

Zwelikhathebauntu's mother says

"oh" I say walking with her to the first house we approach but Zwelikhathebauntu stops me

"Misokuhle and me will start at our house"

Zwelikhathebauntu says

He pulls my hand then we walked to the top house on the mountain. It is a glass house and it is amazing too. It is the largest house. We walk in and it is neat as ever, he disappears around the house while I admire the beauty of this house. Most of all I love the view of the valley in the living room.

"I want us to talk"

I turn and he was standing against the wall. I went to sit down on the soft white couch.

"ok"

"I wanted to say sorry for what I did last time. I didn't mean to. Sometimes I become angry and I can't control my anger then my powers take over please forgive me"

"I forgive you. I also apologize for not listening to you and doing the things they way I shouldn't
" I say

" before I forgive you I just want to let you know that in our relationship let they be a man and woman. I don't want you to be doing what I should be doing I want you to do what you should do as a mother. I don't want you over working with duties that are not meant for you"

I sigh

"I get it "

" I forgive you but I still have to punish you" he says with a serious face

"what's the punishment? "

" we sleep in separate rooms "

" better than nothing "

He smiles then I went to help at the other house. It was so fun being with people that you love again but my mind kept on thinking about Kwenzakwenkosi, when will he wake up? We ate dinner with silence it was just sad. After helping with the dishes I went to our house. When I got there I went to Kwenzakwenkosi's room and I heard Zwelikhathebauntu crying so I guess he is not yet up. I move to my room then went to shower and got dressed in my sleeping clothes. I went back to Kwenzakwenkosi's bedroom and he was now all alone. I went closer to him then gave him a good night kiss. Nthandoyenkosi is not coming back home any time soon he loves Mawakebantu and he is never leaving his side, just like the way he was when he was young.

I walked pass the main room and I heard groans. I try to open but the door is locked. I get a knife from the kitchen drawer then tempered with the main bedroom door. I want to see this. When I walk in the bed is still neatly made then I head to the bathroom were I heard the sounds

"Misokuhle.....aaaaa, lovie that is the spot" he says

Is there another Misokuhle here? I open the door and there he was closing his eyes, sitting on the toilet seat and exciting himself calling out my name in the process. I giggle which brought him back to Earth. He got up very fast and fixed himself.

"Misokuhle how did you get in here? " he asks with his red eyes

I laugh so hard that I can't stop. I turned to walk to the bedroom and that's when I was grabbed roughly to the bed. He kissed me so hungrily, we missed each other a lot we didn't even take off each other's clothes we were ripping off each other's clothes. He gets on top then try to enter then that chubby lady came to my mind then I punch Zwelikhathebauntu.

"WHAT THE HELL WOMAN!!!" he yells

He walks to the bathroom then I ran back to my room with my ripped clothes. When I got under the covers I cried so hard.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

I am dizzy and this mad house is hot.

"Nthandoyenkosi mommy is going to take you out of here don't cry my boy"

"OK mommy but what about Kwenzakwenkosi?"

"what about him? "

" they tried to kill him but they couldn't because he fought back and he never woke up since from there"

"he will wake up my baby"

I pray to God that he may find someone who will help us out of here.

"sedi la ka mponesetse tsela(my light show me the way) " Nthandoyenkosi sang and I joined him singing

My baby had an amazing voice just like his mama. I am so proud to be his mommy. That chubby lady came back with a guy that had a red snake skin.

" shut up you fools. You can't even sing" she says

The snake guy moves towards Kwenzakwenkosi then tries to touch him but moves away very fast.

"ssssssss" he makes a sound then falls down

"what's wrong now nyoka ?" the chubby lady asks

"ssssssss" he says closing his eyes

After some time he came back to his normal self but was still quite . He looked at me and Nthandoyenkosi then nodded.

"pinky pinky let these people go" he says

"YOU ARE CRAZY" the chubby lady says

"pinky pinky let these people go"

The chubby lady slaps him across the face

"are you crazy. Do you know how powerful these people are? With their power I will be respected and rich. I will be ruling the world like I should "

" Ladela is million years old and still counting. He is older than us and trust me he has more power than us. He will kill us bit by bit"

"Ladela had died you fool!"

"but that doesn't mean he won't protect what's his"

The chubby lady paces up and down then takes a spare then cuts the man's head. We scream. This was my first time to see something like this in my life. Nthandoyenkosi was crying.

"close your eyes my baby" I say

The chubby lady came towards me then held me by the throat.

"SHUT UP! YOU SEE WHAT YOU MADE ME DO?!"

I saw Nthandoyenkosi wanting to open his eyes but I told him not to. I kept on telling him to close his eyes.

" I AM GOING TO KILL ALL YOUR KIDS INCLUDING THE ONE IN THAT BIG BELLY. "

She touches my belly

" oh how nice he can hear voices of all dead"

He takes some herbs then forces me to drink but I am not giving in.

"DRINK YOU STUPID FOOL SO THAT YOU CAN ABORT THIS BABY NOW"

"NO I WILL NEVER DO THAT! "

" OK ok"

She walks back to her kitchen of herbs then comes back towards me.

"so you don't want to drink then I will take that thing out myself "

He takes some yellow substance the rubs it around his penis. Then walks in my cage, took my legs then spread them apart into different directions.

" please don't do this to me, please" I beg with tears

"baby boy you may watch daddy pleasuring mommy. Wouldn't you like to see that? "

"NTHANDOYENKOSI LISTEN TO MOMMY DON'T OPEN YOUR EYES"

Nthandoyenkosi begins to sing that yes Jesus loves him the Bible told him so. The chubby lady walks to him then slaps him across the face. He fell to the other direction with his closed eyes and tears.

"NO NOT MY NTHANDOYENKOSI. YOU ARE MEAN, RUDE , SELFISH AND EVIL!!! "

" I am glad you know my personality my baby so now let's proceed. Where were we? "

He walks towards me then I begin to kick, fighting back with tears and screams. He shuts my mouth with his hand then try to force himself inside me but I kept on fighting. Then they was a moment where I give up, his penis was already rubbing against my vagina.

"ohhhh baby I am now close don't cry daddy has got you" she says

I closed my eyes now allowing anything to happen to me. As I was waiting I hear something hard hitting the floor. When I look up there stood Zwelikhathebauntu and his spare, he has cut this chubby lady's head. Why do these people always aim for the head? I do a mental note to ask him.

"Zwelikhathebauntu you came" I say in whisper

He did not answer me, you could tell that he was angry but he did help me out of my chains. When I was free I ran to the still crying Nthandoyenkosi that closed his eyes so tight then Zwelikhathebauntu ran to pick up the sleeping Kwenzakwenkosi.

"baby you may open your eyes everything is ok now" I say to him.

He opens his eyes slowly then his eyes looks up.

"daddy? " he says

I didn't realize that he was behind me. He moves away from my arms then runs to Zwelikhathebauntu.

" I finally meet you daddy" he says hugging his father's legs and Zwelikhathebauntu had a smile on his face.

He picks him up then we gushed out of the mad house to his dim taxi. When we got in we were met by the whole family there, Zinhle, Buhlebenkosi, Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother, his mother, Bantu and Mawakebantu on the drivers seat.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

I am now making breakfast after I have checked Kwenzakwenkosi. I am worried about my son and also my husband. I am sure that they are disappointed in me. Zwelikhathebauntu walks in the kitchen as I was dishing up, I look down shyly

"I made breakfast for you" I say still looking down

"Misokuhle sit down I want to talk to you"

I went to sit on the kitchen high chair opposite him.

"wh....."

When he was about to talk Mawakebantu walks in while breathing heavily like he has been running.

"Zwelikhathebauntu your son is shaking uncontrollably we need you now!!! "

We both stand up I was about to walk out with them but then Zwelikhathebauntu stops me.

" My wife please stay right here and look after our household" he says

"come back with my baby Zwelikhathebauntu " I say in tears

" I will come back with our son just stay" he says then kisses my lips

He walks to the door

"I will be waiting here! " I yell then he blows a kiss and I catch it in the process.

After they left I cleaned the kitchen then went upstairs to check on Kwenzakwenkosi and he was still in his sleep. I shake him but he does not wake up. What if he is dead? I get closer to him and he is still breathing but why isn't he waking up. It has been too long. I get in bed with him and cover my arms around him.

Later I feel someone shaking me lightly, I open my eyes and Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother was staring at me with another old lady wearing all white from head to toe.

"get up mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother of Kwenzakwenkosi / mother to Kwenzakwenkosi) so you can get dressed "

I get up confused

"where are we going? " I ask

" get dressed so that we can go" she says giving me the all white clothes

I get dressed then walked downstairs. The family was there. Zwelikhathebauntu was in tears. I walk to him and we hug each other tight.

"I love you" he says for the first time in a long time

I look at him with tears

"I love you more"

We hug again

"if you don't mind we got to go now" the all white lady says

I frown. I don't like her at all, she looks all godly but I don't trust her.

"where to? " I ask crossing my arms

" oh lovie this is Lubelihle and she is taking me to the kingdom"

"and why her and not your uncles? "

She rolls her eyes. Did she just roll her eyes?
Girl even though I am pregnant I can rearrange your face darling.

Zwelikhathebauntu takes my hand then we walk to the main room.

" lovie today I am going to be a king" he says with a smile

Is he crazy?

"and you are dressing up and leaving us. We have two kids not feeling well and one on the way then you decide to leave "

" we have a baby? "

Isn't it showing? Maybe it's the clothes I have been wearing.

He touches my belly then the picture of what that old chubby lady did when she touched my belly came then I punch him so hard.

" WHY ARE DOING THIS!?! "

" I am sorry" I say trying to help him but he pushed me away.

He walks to the bathroom then locked the door. I sit at the edge and wait for him to come back. He opens the door and he is fully dressed in his Ndebele attire.

"so you are going? " I ask with a frown and folding my arms

He giggles

" I still can't believe that your frowns are still funny "

" Zwelikhathebauntu Sizwe Mahlangu I asked you a question "

" yes I have to go. My father died and I have to take over"

"take over? Zwelikhathebauntu take over? Is that all you care about taking over? Your father just died, you were never at his funeral or when he took his last breath but today you are here claiming his chair. Kwenzakwenkosi is in his deep sleep and we don't know how to wake him up. This morning we just got the bad news about Nthandoyenkosi but you haven't told me what's wrong with him or where he is. Your baby mama is going through trauma but you are too blind to see that "

He stares at me

" but don't you think that when I sit on that chair everything will change? "

" wow did you just get that we all need you now!

"WHATEVER YOU DO IN YOUR LIFE DON'T EVER MAKE A MISTAKE TO RAISE YOUR VOICE
AT ME! "

I nod with a funny face

" I give up. I am not going with you to that kingdom knowing for a fact that I am leaving tears at home" I say going out

I walk to the living room

"sorry family but I am not going to this function. I will be here home you may all go"

"well I also wanted to say that we are also going to Lesotho since my other family wants to meet my wife to be and my child " Mawakebantu says

At least I am not the only one. Bantu's phone beeps

" oh no family I can't make it I am going to write the next day so I have to study and fly back to South Africa " Bantu says

" by the way we don't need you to be there we will just put him on the chair and that's all"

Lubelihle says

"and since from when things are done like that?" Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother asks

"today"

"don't worry family I will go" Zwelikhathebauntu says walking down the stairs

Everybody is hugging him but I didn't I went to Nthandoyenkosi's room and luckily he was there and sleeping. I sing for him a song while brushing his hands

Some time later Zwelikhathebauntu drove out with that fake lady. I am hurt that he did not stay with us as we are going through the rough patch in our lives but only God knows.

Chapter 18

It's been a month and Zwelikhathebauntu hasn't got back home. Things are getting worse as we are all sitting in the living room we are frightened of our tomorrow. We are living in fear. I am scared of my kids, Nthandoyenkosi is sleep walking with a knife at night wanting to kill his brother. Kwenzakwenkosi always has blood on his hands and I never sleep. What did I do to deserve this life? I was never a murder , a culprit or even a evil witch and all this things are happening to me. Why my God? Why?

"because you are able to pass this that is why" a voice says

Here we go again I am going crazy. I can't hold this anymore I break down and cry.

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother and his mother comforts me. This is the life I am living now tears after tears with no food at all. My baby is always kicking and sometimes he kicks so hard that I cry at night all alone. They were times where I wanted to abort the baby or even kill myself but I couldn't.

"be strong my baby be strong "

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says

" I can't, I don't think I can anymore." I say in tears

"yes you can, yes you will and yes you must now get up, wipe those tears because you are making the devil to dance on your head, you should remember that the devil is always under your feet because that is where he belongs under your feet." Zinhle says

"Satan is under my feet and there is where he belongs under my feet" Buhlebenkosi sings

She has a beautiful voice just like Nthandoyenkosi. I smile and join her then the family sings too.

We were singing out loud then we saw Nthandoyenkosi walking down the stairs then he joins. For the first time we have smiles on our faces and filling our hearts with a little happiness.

...

 "go around the kingdom"

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather says

"will you also be coming with me? " I ask

" no that place is too dark and evil for my soul but you may go because that is where you will find Zwelikhathebauntu" ***

I wake up and move to the bathroom I need to release number 2. I pushed so hard that in the next minute I heard baby cry. I opened my legs and my baby was floating in the toilet with his legs in the toilet hole and crying, seems like his legs came out first then his head followed. I didn't feel pains or wetness like usual. I pick him up and cover him with a warm blanket then called the ambulance.

Minutes later I was in the hospital and I was taken care of. Bantu comes in alone.

"how are you feeling mama ka Kwenzakwenkosi (mother to Kwenzakwenkosi /mother of Kwenzakwenkosi)" Bantu asks

"I am fine and where is everybody else? "

" well fortunately Zinhle also had given birth this morning so she is also admitted to the room next to you "

" not again " I say

" yes again"

"is the baby a he or a she? "

" she" he says with a smile

"you will be an uncle again "

" uncle oh no look at how fresh I am. Have you ever seen a fresh uncle like me? "

" then who should they call you? "

" uncle charmers"

I laugh so hard with him joining me.

"I am sure they will call you uncle charmers" I say with a smile

We giggle again then the room goes silent again

"so what will his name be? "

" I was thinking that we wait for his father to come back and his brothers to get well then we can name him"

"I am sorry about what is happening in your life currently " he says looking down with his hands behind his back

" it's ok only God knows"

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"Zwelikhathebauntu! Zwelikhathebauntu! " I yell out in the dark

I hear his cries but I can't see him

" Zwelikhathebauntu where are you?! "

" Misokuhle you were right and I am sorry " he says then cries again ***

I rose up in tears. Oh I am still in the hospital I will be staying here for some time actually till my baby is ready to face the world. He is premature and now he is staying in an incubator which is hard for me because I have to breastfeed him in the incubator.

"morning mommy it's time for milk already " the lovely nurse says

I get up to shower then feed my baby. With all my kids they is nothing that I enjoy with them when I feed them they look at me in my eyes then they dance as they enjoy the milk. He also has the brown eyes and the dark skin just like his father. This is so sad all my kids look like their father and they have nothing in me.

He stars at me and I see his father in his eyes then tears flow out of my eyes.

The gospel old ladies come in my room singing and inviting God in my room. They sang and I sang along.

"Mimi is the name right? " a old lady asks " second name"

"still the same man" she says giggling with me joining which reminds me of grandmother

"OK then it is my name"

Her face turns to a frown

"what are you doing here? "

" huh? "

" when I ask you don't ask back miss. I asked you a question "

" I just gave birth yesterday... "

" you know you are different from everybody else. You saw the first man that built that place and he was the one that showed you around the kingdom, you saw the big five animals before saving your kids which was the sign of power, the gold road lighted up as a sign of being chosen in that kingdom, you hear voices every night and day as you see what others cannot see and everybody and everywhere you go can feel your gift. Mimi you are one of a kind. One in a million but I am so angry at you that you are here and relaxed while you need to fetch Zwelikhathebauntu. You need to find him before it is too late because he is the only one that can help to wake up Kwenzakwenkosi and get back the soul of Nthandoyenkosi. Pack your things and go now. "

" what? What about my baby? " I ask

" he will be here with me so go before the sunset "

" how the hell am going to get there before the sunsets? "

" here" the other lady says

She pours so liquid water in a circle then pushes me to step in it.

"don't allow any destruction and remember the keyword to come back is kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu " she says before I fade away

I get to another side of the world which I don't know. The grass is burnt, the place is dull and ugly.

" what do you want here? "

I turn and it was a tree talking, old and dull.

" I am here looking for Zwelikhathebauntu "

" hahaha you mean that guy that claimed to be king with his edited teeth and his colorful clothes like a candy land" it says

I nod then walked away from it

"you will never find him. He is already dead ssss"

I look down and it was a snake talking

 "don't allow any destinations" that lady said before I faded away ***

I ignored and still continue to walk

I got to this dark whole that I dreamt about then
I remembered Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather telling me to walk in because there is where I will find Zwelikhathebauntu.

As I walked in my eyes landed on something that I couldn't believe. Oh God who would do this to a human. My tears flow out of my eyes like a river

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

Someone is kissing my lips which is what made me wake up. As I opened my eyes the brown Chinese eyes were staring at me.

"my wife"

"my king "

I look at him and all the nails and glasses were all gone.

" Zwelikhathebauntu you have healed! " I scream in excitement

He giggles then gets off me

" we should get going" he says

I look around and we were in our house in our bedroom. We went to shower together then we drove back to Zimbabwe and firstly went to the hospital to check my son and he was in the incubator. I feed him with his father staring at us.

"sorry I wasn't there for all of you when you all needed me the most"

"I guess it was a test that we will also pass just one day to tell a testimony"

He smiles looking at me

"what's his name? "

" I haven't given him a name because I wanted everyone in our family to be there when we name our baby" I say

"fine by me which reminds me that we should get our family together then"

"yes I am almost done "

I love staring at my kids eyes just like I love staring at their father's eyes.

We drove back to our place in Zimbabwe and the whole family was shocked to see us Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother had fainted and they was tears shared everywhere. We entered our house then elaborated the whole story to them. It was so sad because everyone was now crying but I was just glad that the kids were with Zinhle at the hospital.

"I know the lady that can help us wake up Kwenzakwenkosi " Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says

She stood up and walked out. I cooked lunch for the family then we ate. Me and Zwelikhathebauntu decided to wash dishes then his grandmother walked in with the three old ladies that helped me give birth to Kwenzakwenkosi.

"here they are now let's begin"
Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother

We upstairs to Kwenzakwenkosi's bedroom. The three ladies prepared their things in the room then they called Zwelikhathebauntu to come sleep on the traditional mat next to Kwenzakwenkosi.

They also make Zwelikhathebauntu to go in the deep sleep then they was this tall lady that will enter to the other world with them to update us with what they are doing. It was so scary because her eyelids were already gone and they was only that white part left of her eyes.

"Zwelikhathebauntu is in and walking in the room Kwenzakwenkosi is in" she says

It goes silent again

"Zwelikhathebauntu has got him and now they are coming back but wait..... IT'S A TRAP!!!!

we are praying and crying as both their bodies begin to tremble so fast.

"AAAAAAAAA AAAAAAAAA AAAAAAAAA NOOOOOO!!! "

" WHAT IS HAPPENING!!! " I scream in confusion

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"Zwelikhathebauntu" that came out as a whisper

He looked at me then tears that flowed out of his eyes. He is hanged with his hands and legs on the tree then has glasses and nails all over his body and blood flowing out non stop

"Misokuhle you shouldn't be here" he says looking down

"I wouldn't be anywhere"

I got closer to him then tried to untie the chains

"why won't you just give up on me? " he asks

" because you are a king, you also the father of my kids, I love you and I will be with you through thick and thin"

"I think you should take back the sentence king because I am not"

"well you are in my heart even when the whole world can't see it" I say done untying him

He couldn't walk so I took his arm then placed it around my shoulder, held his waist then walked out the dark whole. As we were about to reach the circle that will return us back to the hospital the trees and snakes came our way. They picked up us then placed us in some under world cage. I kept on kicking and screaming but they heard non plus who is going to hear me. I don't think they are people in this place it's just old and dusty.

"oh today we have the stubborn wife with us how nice" Lubelihle says

I knew it

"what do you want from us? " I ask

" I want your lives. I want you to die then me and my husband can rule the world "

" you crazy. You know that you can't rule what you are meant to rule. You can't want what you don't have. The positions in life that we are given are for us for a reason and you want to take what's not yours. Darling in that case do whatever you want with us but take my word you will never rule the world ever" I say so calm

"IF IT WAS NOT FOR THE GODS THAT YOU HAVE I WOULD HAVE KILLED YOU A LONG TIME AGO" she says then walks out

Fool wanting to rule the world she will never

"Zwelikhathebauntu are you there? "

" I am next door you"

"are you safe? "

" yes and you? "

" I want to get out of here"

He laughs

"Zwelikhathebauntu this is not funny we have to get to the hospital before the sunsets or we will be here for ever" I say looking for a place to go out

"maybe we should just give up"

"no never. We will get out of here soon hold on let me look for a place that we can use "

He laughs again

" here goes my wife being brave and hopeful "
he says

" I have to my love "

" but sometimes we have to accept that we were defeated "

" not now"

I kept on digging and seeking ways to get out of here but I was too late because the sun has already set. I was now crying and seeking ways to get out.

"don't worry my wife we will get Out"

"how and when? " I say with tears

" don't worry we will "

I finally gave up then sang a song that we sang last time

" Satan is under my feet and there is where he belongs under my feet" I sang

A white bird comes then stand by the door, it looks at me then Flies away. After some time lots and lots of animals walked in and opened for us.

"thanks " I say

I take Zwelikhathebauntu then we walked to a place that we don't even know and slept under the tree with the hope that it does not talk too.

I wake up and we were in a place that we don't know but it is amazing. They were stars around, the Golden river flowing silently then a gold crocodile walks out and begins to speak.

"finally you arrived" it says

I wake up Zwelikhathebauntu

"Zwelikhathebauntu wake up! "

He wakes up looking around

" what's wrong? " he asks

I point

" baba" he says relaxed

"your wife looks shocked to see me"

"yes she is " he says looking at me with a smile

" don't worry makoti (bride) I am your father in law "

I relax a bit

" they is no, time you need to get out of this place as soon as possible. Kwenzakwenkosi's soul is at the wrong place and he is not scared because he thinks it's a movie in his dreams. I would advise you to go now"

"but how because the sun has already set yesterday and I don't remember the place the circle was" I say

" you can go in the river then you will get to the other side" he says

"father look at me powerless and destroyed"
Zwelikhathebauntu says

"just go in there now before it is too late"

We walk hand in hand to the river then looked back at the crocodile and it was no longer there.

"I love you" Zwelikhathebauntu says

When I wanted to answer him back he pull us down in the Golden water. I wonder where will we be

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

"THEY HAVE TOOK THEM" the old lady says

Their trembling increases by their speed with me and the family worried.

Zwelikhathebauntu's mom and grandmother hold my hands tight at the both ends since I was breaking down in tears. The lights turn on and off, I almost peed on myself.

"sedi la ka mponesetse tsela (my light show me the way) " I sing in fear

The lights stop turning on and off and their trembling speed decreases.

" I think they are finding their way home" the old lady says

"keep on singing I think it is your voice that helps them find their way back home" the other old lady says

I get closer to them then begin to sing while holding their legs. They have stopped trembling which is joy to my soul.

After some time of singing then they both rose up at the same time.

"daddy" that was Kwenzakwenkosi's first word in a long time

I was so happy I even hugged him so tight

"my brave baby" I say in tears

"mommy you squeezing me" he says

I let go of him then I kiss him all over his face

"mommy may I please have water? "

" me too my wife" Zwelikhathebauntu says

I gushed out to go and get some water. I also ran back then gave them their water.

"now I am hungry " Zwelikhathebauntu says

" no problem I can cook something now. You and your son can go and bath while I am busy in the kitchen "

I went to cook. Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother had to take the three old ladies back to where they live. I thanked them so much and I wanted to thank them by cooking for them but they wanted to just get to their home. Zwelikhathebauntu's mom said she needs some sleep.

Zwelikhathebauntu and Kwenzakwenkosi walked in talking and giggling out loud. I gave them their food, they ate like they have never eaten in years.

It is so nice to see your family getting back to normal little by little.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

Nthandoyenkosi runs in shouting

"DADDY, KWENZAKWENKOSI!!!!!"

He hugs his father first then moves to Kwenzakwenkosi which was a very long hug. My two handsome sons love each other and I love it.

"you are both back! "

" yes we are" Zwelikhathebauntu says with a smile

"which reminds me that we must go to the hospital to see your other son when you are both done" I say

"Siphiweinkosi has arrived?! " Kwenzakwenkosi yells with a smile on his face

" who are you talking about son? "

Zwelikhathebauntu asks

" my brother daddy. I use to play with him at the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu "

Me and Zwelikhathebauntu stare at each other

" he is the best daddy. Trust me you will also love him. He looks like you but he is more rough when he plays with me and I hate it but I still love him" Kwenzakwenkosi says then gets up to go put his plate in the sink Nthandoyenkosi follows him.

"brother we should go brush our teeth"

Nthandoyenkosi says to his brother

"I just went to bath with daddy they is no need "

" brother you want to get sick? "

" no but.. "

" so let's go brush our teeth"

They head upstairs

"seem like our second born is an obsessed cleaner just like his mother" Zwelikhathebauntu says smiling

"hey! " I push him lightly

He pulls my arm then kisses him so slowly and sweet.

" even after a very long time you still have the soft lips" Zwelikhathebauntu says

I blush

"thank you if that is a complement directed to me" I say

He laughs then I notice that he does not have his gold and silver teeth actually he has a huge space where they use to be.

"love what happened to your gold and silver teeth? "

" long story"

I laugh so hard

"we have grandpa in the house" I say still laughing

He looks at me with sad eyes and that is what made me laugh at him more. My handsome grandpa. Hahaha

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We were walking to my car. I miss driving.

"ready to go" I ask

"yes " they all say

We drove to the hospital. When we got there the nurse directed us to his incubator. I pick him up and place him in my arms.

" everyone meet the new member of the family"

I say

"YAAAAAAA" they say

We laugh

"so what's going to be his name? "

Zwelikhathebauntu asks

" Siphiveinkosi" Kwenzakwenkosi says

"I love it" Zwelikhathebauntu says then looks at me

"yes I also love it"

"Siphiveinkosi welcome to the family my little brother" Kwenzakwenkosi says giving him a kiss

Nthandoyenkosi also followed with a kiss. Zwelikhathebauntu took him from me he had tears in his eyes that were not willing to flow down.

"I love you" Zwelikhathebauntu says then the baby smiles while opening his eyes mind you this is the very first time my baby is opening his eyes.

"mama where is Khanyakwenkosi? "
Kwenzakwenkosi asks

We all look confused

" Babomkhulu's (uncle's) baby girl that was born the same day as Sphiweinkosi" he adds

"Mama ka Buhlebenkosi(mother of Buhlebenkosi /mother to Buhlebenkosi) also gave birth? " Zwelikhathebauntu asks

Oh shoot I forgot about them

" oh yes Bantu told me the other day but I forgot" I say with my eyes wide open

"we have to go see them then. Where are they?"

"I think they are in the next room "

Oh this is bad

" I think we should go and buy them a cake with balloons before we go to there room" I say

Zwelikhathebauntu called someone to buy that for us and in no time it was delivered to us. We went to their room with our smiles.

Nthandoyenkosi ran to his Babomkhulu(uncle) and Kwenzakwenkosi ran to hug Buhlebenkosi so tight. I think they are close friends judging with how comfortable they are with each other.

"hi family " Zwelikhathebauntu greets

" hi" they say back

"sorry we were not here when the little angle was born " I say

" it's OK you were also going through some stuff too and I am sorry that we were not there for you " Zinhle says

" actually I don't have a problem with that. Anyway what's her name? "

" Khanyakwenkosi " Zwelikhathebauntu says

We all give a look

" yes daddy her name is Khanyakwenkosi " Kwenzakwenkosi adds

" well ok then her name is Khanyakwenkosi"

Mawakebantu says

Mawakebantu walks towards his brother then looks at our son

"what's his name? " he asks

" Siphweinkosi" Zwelikhathabauntu says

"well he does look like his father"

"as much as the girls look like their mother but have their father's blue eyes"

We laugh

"let's eat cake" I say

...

Zwelikhathebauntu has been cutting our hair today because our new family members are coming home today. Outside people are busy with decorations and food just to welcome kids that are not even a month old home. If it was up to me I would have just stayed at home and gave my baby breast till he sleeps but no Zinhle wanted this big family dinner outside our houses. Not to say I hate her idea but sometimes things should be kept simple.

"Yho yho yho lovie have you been taking care of your hair while I was gone? " Zwelikhathebauntu asks with a disgusted face

" not really"

I have been covering my head all this time since Zwelikhathebauntu left and trust me it is a mass.

"my wife I should never leave your side if your hair is going to look like this" he says

"I am sorry I didn't take care of my hair"

He smiles then begins to do my hair.

Hours later we were all done and had dressed up to go get our babies. I couldn't stop looking at myself in the mirror. Oh my God I love my ginger hair cut, it looks good on me.

"you love it? "Zwelikhathebauntu asks behind me as he kisses my neck slowly with his on my hips

The picture of that chubby lady comes back to my mind then I stop him

" I think we have to go. I cannot wait to see our son" I say taking my baby's bag of clothes so that he can change

He gave me a confused look but I never minded him. We walked outside and there was a white luxurious car standing outside, a limousine.

Wow!

We both go in and there was baby beds in there, it was just filled with baby things. I had a confused look

"don't make that expression because we both know that it's our husbands that did this" Zinhle

says

"yes we both did this because we don't want you to drive with our babies, change our babies in the public toilets or even our babies sleeping uncomfortable in your arms"

Zwelikhathebauntu say holding my waist

"is there a need for this? " I ask

" don't ask " Zinhle says

We went to the hospital, we bathed our babies then drove back home. When we got there everyone was already outside around the table. We said the prayer then ate with laughter all around the table.

Chapter 19

We hear baby cry. I get up slowly then went to Sphiweinkosi's room. When I got there Nthandoyenkosi had a knife in his hand and he was standing next to the baby's cot.

"NTHANDOYENKOSI WAKE UP!!! " I scream

I pulled him then he walked towards me with the knife.

" ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU!!!
ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU!!!
ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU!!! "

He came running then the moment he stood by the door Nthandoyenkosi threw away the knife then slept right on that floor. I went to take the crying Siphiweinkosi while Zwelikhathebauntu attended Nthandoyenkosi.

"daddy how did I get here?" he asks his father

"you flew with a star my boy"

Zwelikhathebauntu says to him with a smile

I am in tears I thought this was all over but now I see this still continues. I hugged my baby so tight then went to see Kwenzakwenkosi and he was sitting at the edge of his bed with a holy Bible.

"Kwenzakwenkosi why are you not sleeping?"

"I am scared of Pinky Pinky" he says

"who is that?"

He does not answer me he moves to his bed and sleeps. I wonder what he is talking about.

...

The next morning I am doing breakfast for everyone and I feel hands around my waist then I jump and punch Zwelikhathebauntu again.

" sorry..... "

He walked away then I continued with cooking. I think these memories are going to hunt me for life or I should just go to church. This is so sad, I only seek God when I am in hardship and this is wrong. When was the last time I went to church and praise God, when was the last time

I prayed to God and when was the last time I read my Bible. This is so wrong I need to repent from what I use to do. Maybe that is why all these things are happening to me because I have forsaken my creator.

When I was done with breakfast I invited everybody to the table. All my kids were eating their breakfast while I breast fed my baby. Their father did not come downstairs to eat with us I think he was still angry at me.

"get done so that I can bath you" I say to them
"mom that is rape I told. I will both me and Nthandoyenkosi then you can bath Sipiweinkosi because he is still small"
Kwenzakwenkosi says

Oh I forgot about that

"OK then Sir" I say

They laugh

"mommy today can I go see Babomkhulu (uncle) today? " Nthandoyenkosi asks

" oh you may"

"me too mom but I am not going to uncle I am going to Buhlebenkosi " Kwenzakwenkosi says

" you may also go but bath first then you may go"

They ran upstairs to bath together. I went to get their clothes then I cleaned around the house after I have placed the baby in his cot.

The boys went out to visit and they were so happy. The house was so quiet and that brought back all the bad memories that happened last night. God what is happening to my kids? Why them? I wonder.

Zwelikhathebauntu walks downstairs looking good in his swig pants

"I made breakfast for you" I say

"Misokuhle we need to talk" he says with his deep scary voice

He went to get a glass of water then stood at the other side of the island at the middle of the kitchen. He takes a sip then looks at me angrily

"are you cheating on me? " he asks

" What?! No I am not. Why are you asking that?"

"I don't know. Maybe it is because you don't let me touch you anymore"

"I do it just..... "

" JUST WHAT MISOKUHLE, JUST WHAT!?"

" LET ME EXPLAIN! "

He throws a glass and it hit the wall. I tremble

" TALK MISOKUHLE WHAT IS WRONG WITH YOU BECAUSE I DO WANT MY WIFE BACK! "

" I WAS ONCE RAPED!!!!!! " I yell out with tears

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

They is silence

"well I was almost rapped that day you saved me"

He just walked up to me then hugged me so tight because I was fighting for him to let go of me. He picked me up then placed me in bed then took off his underwear and Jean then I stood up trying to run away but he held me then placed me back on the bed he lied on top of me then looked at me straight in the eyes.

"Misokuhle look at me" he says with tears in his eyes

"NO ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU LET GO OF ME! " I say with my eyes closed and fighting for him to let me go

" Misokuhle you are going to look at me" he says to my ear then I went wet

What is going on?

I looked at him slowly

"I love you and I will never hurt you. Know I what you to let me in you without thinking about that day" he says

"Zwelikhathebauntu I can't..... "

" yes you can yes you will and yes you must"

He kisses my neck, then I felt the liquid between my legs.

"my wife you are still ok" he says getting off me

then got dressed

"then why are you not making love to me then?"
I ask

"so that you can hit me again. No thank you" he pecks my lips then walks to the bathroom

What just happened? I open the covers and they was so much liquid on the sheets like I just had sex. I took the covers and cleaned every corner of our room. Zwelikhathebauntu got out of the bathroom looking good in his Jean and grey round neck top. By just looking at him I craved for him in me.

"I will be at Mawakebantu's house " he says
then walks out

I wanted to ask if is he going to eat his breakfast but I was too late because he was already long gone.

After cleaning our room I went to eat his breakfast then Zinhle, Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother and mother walked in making noise

"mommy!!! " Zinhle yells

These people never knock even when it is locked they always walk in, I think they have keys for every house in this yard.

" I am in the living room! "

They walk in with Zinhle singing.
Zwelikhathebauntu's mom and grandmother came and hugged me.

" come my kid" Zwelikhathebauntu's mother
says

We stood up then walked together in the main room. We sat on the bed with her holding my hands

"I want to say thank you. Thank you for taking care of my great grandchildren and my grandchild. I to give you this" she gave me a necklace that covered my whole neck and looking so amazing with gold and diamonds. It is so heavy.

"this is heavy " I say

" it's real gold and real diamonds. It is for Queens that will make a good history in the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu.

Zwelikhathebauntu's mom didn't have it but you, you deserve it till you give it to a person that will also do the same good history like you" she says

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

I had tears and her too.

"thank you" I say

"they is no need for that. Now go bath so that we can go treat ourselves"

She walked out then I went to shower and got dressed in my floor length red skirt and my white long sleeve top with my white ankle showing All-stars I also covered my hair. Every time when we are here we have to always dress respectfully.

I called Zwelikhathebauntu to come get Sipiweinkosi and a second later he was in our room.

"lovie I am here" he says

"oh yes thanks, Sipiweinkosi is in his room may you please look after him while I am gone"

"ok"

"at 14:00 when he wakes up please feed him my breast milk that is in the fridge then place it at the bottle warmer. At 16:00 put him back to sleep if still I am not back yet and if the boys come back from their Babomkhulu's (uncle's) house make them go bath immediately then you can feed them anything you want. At 20:00 they must be in bed"

"so much duties, where are you ladies going? "

" I don't know, that is why I am telling you all these duties till I come back"

"yeah I will do all the duties " he says giving me a kiss but I pull him to give more of his tough

I held him by the neck then I fall on the bed with my back still pulling him. Trust me I want him now! I undo his pant but then he stops me.

" babe relax. I thought you had a trauma "he says with his one eye brow up and the other one down

" yes I did but this morning you did something that made me want you"

"I need answers for this"

"now give it to me" I say continuing to undo his pants but then he stops me again

"they are people downstairs waiting for you" he says

"what is wrong with you? Am I not sexy for you anymore? "

" no lovie..... "

" just get off you are so heavy"

He moves while laughing at me and I went downstairs.

"we can go now" I say walking down the stairs.

Mind you I don't even know where we are going.

"you look amazing " Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says

" thanks ma"

"let's not waste your beauty, let's go " Zinhle says

Oh God I have missed her bubbly self.

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother took my hand then we walked out. We got in Zwelikhathebauntu's mom's car then drove off to town. When we got there we had a message which I loved then later we went window shopping and closed our fun day with us going to the restaurant.

We got back home at 19:00 and I was just missing my babies and my honey.

I got in my house and there was silence in the house, maybe they are in their beds but it is still early and I know the boys don't love sleeping early. Zwelikhathabauntu walked downstairs wearing a black suit, where is he going? And where are the kids?

"you home love"

"yes love. Where are you going? "

" we are going somewhere "

" you and who else? "

" me and you"

"come on, me looking like this? "

" and what's wrong with your outfit? "

" I am sure you are going somewhere elegant and I can't go there looking casual plus who is going to look after my baby? " I ask

" just come please. The kids are safely with grandmother please come or we will be late"

He pulled me then we got in a black limousine. We drove off. We got into a dark room in the restaurant.

"Zwelikhathebauntu why is it dark in here? "

" I want to do this for you" he says turning on the lights then my family, friends, kids and Zwelikhathebauntu's family screamed will you marry me.

I looked at Zwelikhathebauntu and he was already on one knee

"Misokuhle Mimi Dude, Ma Dube, My lovie,
The mother of my kids, The one and only woman that will continue the nation of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu, the one and only lady that owns my heart and lastly my Queen may you please be my Queen officially?"

Oh my God

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

Later after the amazing dinner we went back to our homes in the limousines. They were three black limousines the first one was me and my family, the second one is for Mawakebantu and his family then the last one it had Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother, mother and

Bantu.

In our limousine the kids were making so much noise about their cartoons and even their father was joining in making more noise with them.

We finally got to the yard then the family sang for us. My parents are going to sleep in our house so I am more than happy then my friends chose to go sleep at the hotel. I don't know if I should call them friends because since this night has began they have never spoken to me but I wasn't going to let them spoil my night.

As we got in the house we were full and ready for bed. I went to show my parents to their room while Zwelikhathebauntu went to bath the two old boys because when it comes to their father it is not called rape mxm these kids.

My mom helped me bath the little one then went to sleep. I was the only one up trying to make my last born sleep.

15 minutes later he was gone. I went to shower then put on my sexy white sleep wear. I cat walk to our room and Zwelikhathebauntu was deep in his sleep. I got on top of him to get his attention then he snores out loud. Today he sure is sleeping and it would me hard for us to make up.

I wake up to a person whispering in my ears

"I love you so much and that is why I am marrying you my lovie" he says

I smile

"Misokuhle you up. Don't tell me you heard that" he says looking nervous

"unfortunately for you I did and I love you too"

He smiles shyly

I get on top of him and slide down his pants and underwear.

"I missed him" I say with a naughty smile

"lovie don't you think it will be wrong because your parents are here? "

I don't mind him I just pull up my sexy night dress and place it at my waist then take his hard penis and insert it me and it felt good. I go up and down moving my hips giving him what we both have missed.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

I had this huge smile on my face

"yes!!! "

It is a gold ring with a black Diamond on top of it. It looked quite different, rare and expensive. He placed the ring around my finger then I pulled his face and kissed him so passionately and slow.

" EWWW!!! " everyone in the room says while hiding their faces

" come on she is mine now" Zwelikhathebauntu says

"hey you haven't paid lobola yet so chill" My dad says

"I am hungry now let's go eat" Bantu says

"yes uncle charmers let's go eat" all the kids say following him

We got into a room that was all white and gold with the view of a water fall and the green mountains. They were two huge chairs, they are white and the edges are gold. We went to sit on them, then our kids followed in their plan white chairs , after it was Zwelikhathebauntu's mom, grandmother, his brothers and Zinhle then the rest followed at their own manner.

Food was fed to us and we were having amazing talks left, right and center.

"Zwelikhathebauntu don't you think that now we should be thinking about the lobola? " My dad asks

"well before that they are things that need to be finished first before the payments occur" he says

My phone beeps and it is a message from my university telling me that I will be graduating on the 15th of November at 10:00, I got up and screamed in excitement .

"love look" I gave him the phone then he read it and jumped up and down with me.

"lovie is going graduate on the 15th of November " Zwelikhathebauntu says

The family clapped their hands and all the guys making whistles.

" mommy the same day that I am going to get my Awards " Kwenzakwenkosi says

Oh shoot

I looked at Zwelikhathebauntu with disappointment. What if Zwelikhathebauntu and the kids can't get to my graduation, will I even make it to the graduation because I have to go to Kwenzakwenkosi's awards

" we could make time for all of those things so now relax. I will make a plan, I always make a plan" Zwelikhathebauntu says

" I would love to make your dress and your suit" Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says

"I will also redo your hair" Zwelikhathebauntu says

"I will be making your nails and make up" Zinhle says

"with the nails I agree but make up no baby it burns my face" I say

Everyone laughs

"I will be the camera man from the awards to the graduation " Bantu says

" me and your mom will be cooking for you so that when you come back you will all eat

"Zwelikhathebauntu's mom says

" I will be the driver " Mawakebantu says

" I will be walking you and your son to that journey to your stage of success " my dad says

" we got everything covered now enjoy your engagement party " Zwelikhathebauntu says

This family is all I have. I won't be needing anything or spend anything because everything is just right in front of me.

After so many pictures we drove back to Zimbabwe but my friends stayed behind. Trust me I have already forgot about them. Also my parents decided to stay in South Africa to wait for Zwelikhathebauntu's uncle to send the letter to them.

When we got there we just went to sleep.

"lovie wake up" he says

I am so tired what does he want

"mmmmm"

"lovie I am horny "

WHAT?!

After that long drive he still wakes up at night or..... what is the time? I look at the digital clock at the side of my bed and it is 03:00 and we just got back at 00 :00, this guy must be crazy.

" no Zwelikhathebauntu I am tired just sleep " I say with my sleepy voice

" but..... "

" I am tired "

He turns me to face the roof then gets on top of me

" Zwelikhathebauntu I said I am tired and I..... "

" you may sleep "

When I was about to answer him he enters me.

" aaaaahhhhh "

...

" MOMMY MOMMY MOMMY " the boys run in then jump on our bed

Don't they see that mommy is tired

" Zwelikhathebauntu take your sons I want to sleep " I say with my eyes still closed

" come boys let's leave mommy to sleep " he says taking the boys out with him

I took my sleep peacefully

Some time later I wake up and I am still tired but I have to wake up to make dinner.

I went to shower then got dressed in my other sleep wear then went downstairs and Zwelikhathebauntu has already cooked dinner and was now eating with the boys while he also fed the little one his baby food. I am impressed that the house is not untidy like it would be when you leave these boys all alone.

"hi"

"HI!!! " they all yelled while waving at the same time

" well the family looks happy "

" actually we miss you " Zwelikhathebauntu says walking towards me and kisses my lips

" EWWW" the two boys say

"he is mine! He is mine " I say to my kids

They laugh. I ate with them and no lies my handsome husband to be can cook.

Chapter 20

Today is the day. My love made page on my hair and had a Grey colour. Zinhle made amazing Grey nails short and neat just the way I love it. Grandmother made a long a long classic dress that I also love and my shoes were also Grey with diamonds like my dress.

"there is only one thing needed " grandmother says

" and what is that? "

" your spiritual necklace "

She placed the necklace and I just looked complete.

Zwelikhathebauntu walks in. He has been coming here to tell us about time and I think its for the 100th time now

" people we are late I am..... Wow lovie you look fantastic " he says

Grandmother and my mother giggle

" I am done so we can go "I say

He took my hand and kissed my lips so slow.

" Zwelikhathebauntu respect us we are still in the room! " his grandmother shouts but he never stopped instead he placed his hands on my hips and kissed me harder

" Zwelikhathebauntu you are missing up the lipstick! " Zinhle says mad

We break the kiss then we giggle. I look around and Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother and mother were all gone and Zinhle is standing by the door mad.

" sorry I didn't mean to " Zwelikhathebauntu says

" and now I have to do it again. You should stop begin together when we are around because you can't keep your hands off each other " she says

We giggle

Zwelikhathebauntu walks out then she did my lips again. We agreed on only lips make over than to do my whole face.

When she was done we entered our limousines then drove off back to South Africa mind you it is 00:00 and we all dressed up, crazy but hey I couldn't wait to get into my dress.

Hours later we were at Kwenzakwenkosi's school and we so tired. As the awards were in the process Bantu came back with energy drinks.

"the number one student in the whole school is Kwenzakwenkosi!!!! "

The whole family got up screaming and Zwelikhathebauntu said his praise clan, I on the other side was in tears this is so amazing.

The bothers sang a song about how success is in their veins. Most people were taking pictures and videos.

Later we went to my school and I was called to the stage and all I could do was to dance when I got there and people were screaming for me. I even got an award for my hard work.

"I LOVE YOU LOVIE MY WIFE!!! "

Zwelikhathebauntu shouted taking a video of me

This day is the best day of my life. When we walked to our cars people where taking pictures of us because we were with the famous Legend.

Others were asking him if I am his lucky girl and others asking if we are his family

Now we were all standing behind him as he spoke to them

"yes this is my wife to and these are my kids.
These fabulous people all together are my family " he says holding my waist

Zinhle was posing like she is the one who is the famous legend but my friend and I still love her.
You go girl!!!

As we are sleeping I hear Zwelikhathebauntu talking alone and moving like he is fighting in his dream. I shake him but he won't wake up this time I shake him screaming out his name but still he is not waking up.

I hear Sipiweinkosi crying I had to stand up to go and get him but when I got there Nthandoyenkosi was back to his sleep walking this time he had no knife at his hands he just had the baby in his arms with red fleshing eyes.

"I told you that I want to have power so I going to take what belongs to me now"
Nthandoyenkosi says with that chubby lady's voice.

I scream while praying then Kwenzakwenkosi walks in and looks at Nthandoyenkosi.

"Pinky pinky get out of my brother or I will tell grandfather that you are being mean" he says so soft Nthandoyenkosi puts back the baby in his cot and sleeps right there on the floor.

I look at Kwenzakwenkosi

"mommy can we pray because I am scared of pinky pinky "

We went to his room then prayed together. Oh God after thinking that this has stopped now is coming back may you please help us.

The next morning I wake up and I am in Kwenzakwenkosi's room. When I was about to get up Zwelikhathebauntu walks in. He did not greet or ask any questions he just picked me up then walked to our room.

"lovie I..... I have a gift"

I look at him so that he can continue

"with my gift is either I change to fire especially when I am angry or my soul can leave my body when I am sleeping and I saw you last night fight with pinky pinky, I also wanted to fight but my dad and grandfather didn't allow me too. That is why my body was shaking uncontrollable. "

" but you trembled earlier before everything happened "

" the soul always travels faster than the body"
he says looking down

"does that also mean that Bantu and our kids has your powers"

"Bantu can only turn to fire and my kids are all filled with your gifts and not mine which it is a good thing because they won't grow up like me"

"so how do you think we may stop this pinky pinky from coming to our son because right now I can see that he or she only controls Nthandoyenkosi when he is asleep "

" well they is only one way and I need you to pack all out bags we are leaving today and right now. Don't tell anyone"

He walked out of the room and I began to pack everything that we will need. After I went to bath the boys and dressed them into their matching jeans and jackets then made them breakfast. I also went to bath and got dressed in my long sleeve floor length dress with my flat shoes and covered my head.

Zwelikhathebauntu came back went to bath then came downstairs to eat. We walked out of the yard with a different path when we got out of the yard that is when we saw a donkey. I sat on the shelter side if the donkey and Zwelikhathebauntu drove the donkey where we want to go.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We got to some old and a, burnt place. There is a woman standing at the door.

"you are 10 seconds late" she says

"oh Ma you were waiting for us? "

Zwelikhathebauntu asks

" yes, let's go inside "

We all got off the donkey and went in her small hut.

" would you like some coffee? "

" yes please" Zwelikhathebauntu says again

Kwenzakwenkosi and Nthandoyenkosi are sitting on both their father's lap while I am sitting next to them and carrying my baby

Siphiweinkosi who is a month old.

The lady gave us all coffee and no lies I was expecting those tasteless coffees but no she proved me wrong because this coffee taste so creamy and warm, I love it.

"Zwelikhathebauntu we need to start with our work so bring all your sons here" she says

Zwelikhathebauntu took them and gave her.

"what is she going to do to them? " I whisper
" she is going to cleanse them"

They all walk out with the kids.

"are we also going to be cleansed? " I ask

" we should and even at our house"

"oh"

The boys and my little baby come back node and shaking with droplets of water all over their bodies but my last born is smiling and kicking like nobody's business, he is just happy.

Me and Zwelikhathebauntu are told to go cleanse ourselves at the river while she looks after the kids

"lovie you should come in the water"

Zwelikhathebauntu says

I walk in the water node and began to cleanse myself. This water is so cold like freezing cold. I walk into Zwelikhathebauntu's arms as we walk out the river and yes I found warmth in him. This guy is warm blooded.

Unexpectedly he kisses my lips as his hands cover around my waist.

"Misokuhle I love you and trust me lovie we will pass this war in our lives together and I want to also say thank you for not running away in hard times instead you run away to save what belongs to us and I want to thank you for all that you are doing in my life and to our kids also to what you do to our house, all the cooking, washing, cleaning, ironing, loving and making our home a warm home for all of us"

He takes my lips and kisses them slow with his lips that are sweet and soft. A tear drops as I realized how much I love him and how much he loves me too.

"I love you too" that is all I can say.

...

"thank you for coming to visit me I hope you also come next time" the lady says

I don't know her name but I make a mental note to ask Zwelikhathebauntu when we are home.

Our clothes are burnt so today we are wearing the clothes that she made for us last night.

"we will come back grandmother " the kids say
" thank you for everything ma" I say
"it a pleasure my baby" she says and hugs me

Me and the kids got on the donkey then waited for Zwelikhathebauntu. He was talking to the lady about something.

"mommy may I have the cupcakes"
Nthandoyenkosi asks
"sure"

I gave them the cupcakes that the lady has done for us. The cupcakes are so amazing so I also join them as they eat . Zwelikhathebauntu got on the donkey and we went back home.

When we got there Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother and mother are standing by the door. As they saw us they came to hug us.

"I am glad you are all safe" they say

They invited us to Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother's house so that we can have dinner with them then later we went to sleep at our house.

...

Someone is shaking me and I open my eyes

"lovie get dressed right now they are coming! "
he says then runs out

What is he talking about?

Anyway I get dressed after brushing my teeth then went to wake up the boys. They also get dressed but you could see that they are tired. The whole family comes to our house then through the window I see people coming and also singing a song about killing us.

We went out of the yard the same way we got out when we escaped when I gave birth to Kwenzakwenkosi. We saw a car and luckily it was those man that helped me the other day to get to the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu.

"not you again " the driver says

" hey! guys these are the people that are going to save our sisters and brothers that are caged in that kingdom " the other one says

" can we hop in? " Zwelikhathebauntu asks

" yes but where are you going? "

" how about South Africa? "

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother asks

" well we were also going there so let's go"

We all got in with our babies then off we went.

We got there at 03:00 and all our kids are sleeping excluding Kwenzakwenkosi.

"this is where we end" the driver says

"at least we are closer to ehostel (flats) "
Zwelikhathebauntu says

We all got out. I got Siphiweinkosi at my back, Zwelikhathebauntu had Nthandoyenkosi at his back, Zinhle has Thulawenkosi on her back, Zwelikhathebauntu's mom had Buhlebenkosi on her back and Kwenzakwenkosi was just walking on his own as we follow his father.

We got to ehostel (flats) then we went to Zwelikhathebauntu's room.

"my grandchildren you were living in this place?"
Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother asks

"yes grandmother "

" my heart is pained" she says

We let the babies sleep on the bed then we all slept at our on corners. Everyone was already asleep but not me and Zwelikhathebauntu. My head is on his shoulder and his hand is at my left bum as we watch the stars through the window.

"I love you " I whisper

" I love you more my wife" Zwelikhathebauntu whispers

I look at my ring then I feel important to him, I sigh and move my hands around his waist and closed my eyes.

...

We wake up and they were guns pointed at us.

"I got you now Zwelikhathebauntu and now you will bow for me" the old man of this hotel says

Zwelikhathebauntu was so angry and Bantu was already turning to fire but Zwelikhathebauntu reprimanded him as they spoke through their eyes then he stops

"I am going to count to three and you are going to bow down for me"

Zwelikhathebauntu had fixed his eyes straight at the old man not blinking with anger.

Why does this old man want Zwelikhathebauntu to bow down so much? He killed Fans, almost burnt our things, beaten up Zwelikhathebauntu when I first came here and even still today he is still making us to suffer like we are humanless.

"1,2,3" he counted but Zwelikhathebauntu is still sitting next to me and looking at him straight in his eyes

The old man was so angry that Zwelikhathebauntu was not obedient.

"BOYS TAKE ALL OF THEM AND LOCK THEM UNDER THE FLATS ROOM!!! "the old man says

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We all stood up with them having their guns pointed at us. Our kids were now crying and we were all angry and worried at the same time.

The moment we stepped out there was a group of people standing outside the door with weapons.

"let them go" a old man says

"come on people there is no need for..... "

The silly old man couldn't finish his sentence because the people were already beating up his boys so bad. The old man ran away and Zwelikhathebauntu looked at him with anger. Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother pulled all the kids outside. The people beat the boys up till they was blood coming out of their faces.

"LEAVE THEM I THINK THEY HAVE HAD ENOUGH BABA" Zwelikhathebauntu says to the old man

"STOP!!! " the old man told the people

The people stopped

" we need to get to that ruthless man" the old man says

Zwelikhathebauntu took my hand then we all walked to an office, a very small office next to the exit door. Zwelikhathebauntu knocked on the door but they wasn't a respond.

"son let me handle that " the old man says then kicked the door open

The silly man was ready to go with bags on his table. When he saw the three of us walking into his office he trembled like he was walking on ice.

" what.....what are you doing here? " he asks with a shaking voice

" WE WANT YOU OUT OF HERE!!! " the people say

The people got in the office and picked him up and walked outside with him then he was made to kneel down on the floor as they place a car wheel around his neck then poured petrol all over him. The people kept on screaming that the old man must die.

" Zwelikhathebauntu my son take your chance "
the old man says

Zwelikhathebauntu walked forward to the old man

" HAAAAHA HAHA you go Zwelikhathebauntu so you going to kill me your king, your God ? "

Zwelikhathebauntu just looked at him

" you are a fool I was going to make you rich and I was also going to make you rule the whole flat and the whole world if we continue our friendship " he says

Zwelikhathebauntu is still quite and looking at him with his hands in his pockets

" if you were God you were not going to promise me the materialistic things but you would have promised me my heart, body and soul something that could never be bought something that is hard to get, hard to hold just like gold" Zwelikhathebauntu says

"I am gold and I know I am and one day and only one day you will bow down for me" he says

Zwelikhathebauntu took out a lighter from his jeans and weed then light up his weed.

"Baba you are not my creator and you will never be. Now take my words to your peaceful death like I once said I will never bow down or pray to a son of man that is not what I was created for .

I will only pray and bow down to God who never force man to bow down for him. RIP Mr Zababa this is for fana"

Zwelikhathebauntu threw lightened up weed on the old man then he was on fire the next minute and screaming out loud.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

Chapter 21

I thought that seeing a person die in front of me would hunt us but nothing happened at all. I am not saying that what we did was right but I do feel free, the freedom that we deserve from the first place.

Today I wanted us to go to church and leave life the right way and also ask God for forgiveness. We were all living at Zwelikhathebauntu's house here in Pretoria.

We were all dressed and ready to go. We got on the AMG taxi like car then drove off to church.

We got to church and we all enjoyed it and yes people loved my voice.

"I didn't know that you can sing"
Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says
"thanks "

That is all I could say. We got back home and began to cook.

Now we were all at the table eating and talking like a family then there was a knock on the door, Mawakebantu went to open and came back with a sad face then he was followed by hit man behind him with their Ndebele attire. They all bowed down and said Zwelikhathebauntu's praise clan.

"my king we need you back home " the one with a big spear says still kneeling

" but the uncles are still..... "

Zwelikhathebauntu wanted to say but the man cut him short

" that is why my king we are also going to find help from the other kingdoms"the man says

We all turned to Zwelikhathebauntu

" pack your bags we are all going!!! " he says

We all went to our rooms and pack.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We got on the taxi with these men. We drove off to a place I don't know. I had Sphiweinkosi in my arms, Nthandoyenkosi slept on my lap then Kwenzakwenkosi slept on my left arm.

"he is the strongest one from all the kings that have ever been in the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu " one of the hit man says

" who are you talking about? " I ask

" Zwelikhathebauntu "

" we have been searching for him for some years now but he was always fast to move" the other hit man says

"we need him and the other kingdoms to save what his forefathers has built because they built in for a reason " the first hit man says

I don't know what to say

...

I wake up and I was in bed with my babies besides me.

" Zwelikhathebauntu! " I yell out

He walks in running

" are you ok lovie? " he asks

" yes, and where are we? "

" we are at the kingdom of Zulubakhetha "

I gave him a quizzical look

" we are at Kwa-Zulu Natal at the Zulu kingdom"
he elaborates

"oh "

I got up and went to brush my teeth. The kids were now all up and playing with their father.

"daddy I am hungry " Kwenzakwenkosi says

" me too daddy "

" oh let's wait for mommy to bath all of you then we can go"

"daddy may you please bath us I miss you" they say

I laugh and their father joins me

I went to bath then they followed me. We walked out then the whole family was there including the King and the Queen with their four sons.

"this is the whole family " Zwelikhathebauntu says

Does that mean I and my kids are the last ones to wake up.

" oh greetings " the King says

Breakfast came

" so prince Mahlangu how can I help you because if it's wasn't for my wife I would have kicked you all out" he says

"I came with all due respect to ask for help to fight back my father's kingdom "

The room went silent

" do you know that your father turned my older brother into a chicken because he loved your mother"

Zwelikhathebauntu's mother looked down shyly

"I didn't know and yes I agree that what they did was wrong but I am here to right all the wrongs that my father did. Yes he did them for a reason and yes I am here to continue what he has done "

" I will not and I will never forgive what your father did to my brother!!!! " he got up and walked away

Thank God that the kids had their own table at the other room

" sorry please stay here I will go talk to him so that he can think about it " the Queen says walking away too

We continue to eat then Zwelikhathebauntu's mom got up and walked out too then Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother followed her.

Will this storm ever pass?

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

After the awkward breakfast I went to sit outside on the grass mat then watched their beautiful land. It is neat, colorful and big.
Kwenzakwenkosi already had made a friend with the older boy which his name is Zulubakhetha, yes same name at his father,

maybe he is the next king after his father.
Anyway Kwenzakwenkosi found a friend in him and they went to herd the cows.
Nthandoyenkosi was with his Babomkhulu
(uncle) reading some gigantic book, the girls were with their mother in the their room. Bantu has been charting with someone since forever.
Zwelikhathebauntu's mother and grandmother were also in their room since at the morning and Zwelikhathebauntu with Siphiveinkosi walk towards me then they sit next to me.

"hey lovie"

"how are you? "

He place his other free hand around my waist then placed his head on my shoulder

"worried"

"I get it love but why do we need him? "

"he has the power of wind and we need him to fight those people I call uncles"

I look at him and he also did

"I love you and be careful about this plan I don't want to lose you" I say

"noted" he says with a smile

We sit in silent then the King Zulubakhetha called Zwelikhathebauntu in. He gave me our last born then walked in with the king. I hope he agree so that Zwelikhathebauntu can get what is meant for him to get for the generations to come.

Siphiweinkosi begins laughing and kicking, what an active baby.

Some hours later Zwelikhathebauntu came back with a smile.

"I love you should start packing our journey is beginning " he says giving me a kiss on my right cheek

I got up happy and went to tell the rest of the family to also pack.

After we got on our car then the king and his family were also following us with their family and their hit men behind us.

" so love where to from here? " I ask

" to the other kingdoms" he says

We drove off to the other kingdoms around South Africa.

1. Kingdom of Ade (skills of making guns)
(Afrikaans)
2. Kingdom of Andrew (skills of fighting)
(English)
3. Kingdom of Anzatshilidzitshau (power of controlling nature) (Venda)
4. Kingdom of Chulumanco (power of controlling rocks) (Xhosa)
5. Kingdom of Hanyani (power to control people's body) (Xitshonga / Tsonga)

6. Kingdom of Mosimanegape (power to fly) (Tshwana)
7. Kingdom of Pula (power of rain) (Sesotho)
8. Kingdom of Lerumo (power of storm) (Pedi)
9. Kingdom of Zonkiziwe (power to shake the land) (Swathi)
10. Kingdom of Zulubakhetha (power of wind) (Zulu)
11. Kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu (power of fire) (Ndebele)

As all the kingdoms have combined with their families we began training I even called grandmother and she came with Vusimuzi and Mduduzi. We were all preparing for the war.

Now we were all sitting around the fire. It was hard for us to communicate but all thanks to their translators when one of the Kings speak the translators translate for their kings and their families

"so guys don't you think that our gifts should be our secrets?" the king of the kingdom of Ade asks

"king Ade it is time for the world to know who we are and why we are living. We are sick and tired to fake our names for people to love us, we are sick and tired to hide ourselves in holes and also tired of hiding how gifted we are because we are scared to be killed and now it is the reason why we will fight so that our next generations live free and love what they have even when that means we must die then let the war begin" Zwelikhathebauntu says then got up and disappeared somewhere in the bush

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We wake up. Oh God I didn't know it was this painful to sleep in a car. I get out and strengthen my muscles.

"mommy I am hungry" my boys says

When I was about to answer them Zwelikhathebauntu and Bantu came pulling six Bulls. My mouth is wide open, I didn't even realized that they were not in the car. The boys ran to them

"hi kingdoms I brought food " he says waking up everyone

He gets to me then kisses my lips and laughed while his hands were behind his back. Plus he looked sexy top less.

" you shouldn't be shocked about what your husband can do" Queen Ade says then walks towards where the food is

I went to bath at some dam then went to help the ladies with Siphweinkosi sleeping on my back.

"don't you have a nanny Queen Zwelikhathabauntu ? " Queen Andrew asks

" no I don't"

"how many kids do you have? "

" 3 boys"

"and still counting " Zwelikhathebauntu says as he held my waist behind me then kissed Sphiweinkosi

Queen Andrew looked at us and smiled.

" are you still OK my wife? " he asks

" yes I am still OK and I am having a good company"

"OK I was checking you" he says then walked away

We were cleaning the bull's skin

"new love" Queen Andrew says then walked away

Why didn't she leave when Zwelikhathebauntu was here? If I knew better I would say she is nosey. Anyway I continue to clean the skin.

At 12:00 training began so I took Sphiweinkosi to his grandmother and I found her sitting with all the kids and sewing something

"hi Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother"

She looked at me angry

"I am also your grandmother and you hurt my feelings when you say that" she says

"sorry grandmother "

I sat next to her

" it's time so bring my grandchild here" she says with a smile taking him

The baby laughs too

"grandmother is making you a jersey " she says

I looked at it and it was cute with the yellow colour.

" I cannot wait to dress him this up, it looks amazing" I say

"thank you but I think now you should go for your training "

I kiss her on the cheek then ran for training. When I got there Kwenzakwenkosi and Nthandoyenkosi were playing soccer with the other boys. I miss them a lot but they love playing and I am sure they haven't bathed yet the way they love playing.

" ready for training? " grandmother asks

" yes grandmother "

I closed my eyes then relaxed

" let the souls communicate with you" grandmother says in a soft voice

I relaxed then heard voices but they were so many of those voices whispering so I couldn't understand

"listen to them" grandmother says

°°°" go back to the kingdom"the voice says°°°

"AAAAAAA!!!!!! "

I open my eyes and grandmother looked at me angrily

" you must learn to serve your gift without any distractions" she says

I looked at her confused then Zwelikhathebauntu walked in

" everything still ok my wife ?" he asks while kissing my cheek

"I am still ok"

"how is her training and you? " he asks grandmother

" she is getting there and I am fine thank you for asking "

" can I take her for a minute? "

" we were already done" grandmother says

Zwelikhathebauntu took my hand then we walked to watch the river as we sat on the big rock. I was sitting in between his legs then he took out his weed and smoked.

"love you need to stop smoking" I say moving a little bit distance away from him

He looks at his weed then me and threw it away then got closer to me then held my waist and kissed my neck.

"I will stop" he says in a whisper
"then give your packet of weed "

He gave me a confused look

" don't give me that look bring it here because I know you have been smoking all day long"

He took it out slowly. I took it and light it up and burn it

" lovie that is money" he says

"I know dangerous money that we don't need because it is harmful "

We giggle

" I wonder how I will survive without it"

" you will, you can and you must. Do this for our family"

He kissed my neck again. We walked back to the people and they were already sitting around the fire, we joined them and we began to eat.

Zwelikhathebauntu and Bantu never slept in the car last night. They were busy plotting the plan for today because today it is the time the war begins.

"boys mommy is up" Zwelikhathebauntu's mom says as she enters the car with them all clean.

Siphiweinkosi is already in the match Jersey and socks that his great grandmother made for him.

"Kwenzakwenkosi" Siphiweinkosi says

I scream my lungs. My baby just spoke his very first word. I was so happy that I even kissed him all over his face.

"Kwenzakwenkosi baby Sphiweinkosi just said your name" Nthandoyenkosi tells his brother

They also jump around. Grandmother comes to us with plates

"here is your breakfast " she says giving us breakfast

After our breakfast I went to bath then went back to the car.

Today we are cleaning the car and packing everything where it should be as we about to take our journey to the kingdom.

" we are all ready now get in your cars and let's go" Zwelikhathebauntu instructed everyone

We got in our cars with out kids and off we went.

...

The next day we got there then the Queens and their kids are going to be left at the Gorge. It is the only safe place that is outside the kingdom. The man will go to the kingdom.

"Zwelikhathebauntu please be safe" I say to him
" I will come back just look after our family "

He kissed me then hugged and left.

The other Queens were so relaxed and I was busy moving up and down, very worried about this war. How many people are going to survive this war? Not to say I love seeing people die but during wars this is what you worry about.

" QUEENS WHERE IS MY SON XABISO? !!! "
Queen Chulumanco asks

We stare at each other

" he hide in the car because he wanted to go with father" her little girl says

Oh now shoot me. We have a child in danger and I know they will ignore their phones if we want to call them.

" who will go out there to get my son!?" she says in tears

I close my eyes and try to listen to the voices

°°°" go back to the kingdom " a voice says °°°

" I will go"

They all looked at me like I am crazy but we have to save that kid so I will go.

Chapter 22

Me and Queen Anzatshilidzitshau we are already outside hiding behind trees. Queen Anzatshilidzitshau is a quiet person and aims good when throwing stones, she is so fit and has a beautiful dark skin. She looks so young and I was shocked when they mentioned her age and told us that she has 10 kids.

"I think we should walk in" she says

"but..."

She was already walking in the kingdom and I also followed her. We got in then we spot Xabiso crying not knowing where to go in this rain and storm.

We run to him

"Xabiso what are you doing here?! " I shout at him

He looks at me with a pity face then I felt sorry for him

" don't ever do that again. Come your mom is worried about you " I say more calm this time

When we were about to out of this rain and Storms a witch stops right in front of us. Queen Anzatshilidzitshau picks up a stone then aims for the female's eye then she ran away with the witch following her.

" RUN!!! " she yells

I start to run but then I was stopped by the other witch again. We were pushed to the other kings that were caged. I wonder if Zwelikhathebauntu is there too because I know if he is part of them he is going to kill me this time around.

" GET IN YOU FOOLS!!! " one witch says

Queen Anzatshilidzitshau tries to fight back but she was stabbed with the sharp broom at her back.

" NOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!!!! " I screaming with King Anzatshilidzitshau while closing Xabiso's eyes.

My heart sinks . This is all my fault maybe if I did not allow her to follow me she wouldn't be stabbed at her back like she is not a human.

" GET IN! AND IF YOU ALSO TRY SOMETHING FUNNY I WILL ALSO KILL YOU NOW GET IN!!!! " the witch says

I got in broken with tears following out of my eyes and my loud sobs. I held Xabiso in my arms as I cried.

" Our father in heaven please be with us as we go through this storm. I cry to you God and may you please hear my voice and please help us because we are already powerless and defeated " I say in tears

I heard the clan praise of Zwelikhathebauntu and his voice too.

" I told you that he will come" Bantu says from one of the cages

"we thought he had ditched us" another king answers

He entered at the Golden road and a whistle rang so loud as it floated on the air. All the attention was on him even the so called uncles come out of the main house.

"the beginner of life created my forefathers to build this land for a reason. You begin to take what does not belong to you and think it will last longer?! . The ender of life can also end the lives and the situations we are in everyday in our lives and today your days in this yard have ended! " he place a spar on the ground

We heard rumbling at the mountains and there came lots and lots of Bulls being leaded by the bull that had a bell at its neck.

I was nervous of what might happen next.

" who are you? " one uncle asks

" I am one of the grandchildren from my forefathers, the blood of them flows throw my capillaries and veins. Their different personalities I combined in my soul and their gifts are in my hand. I am Zwelikhathebauntu Sizwe Mahlangu "

The people that have been slaves gather and begin to bow down.

Zwelikhathebauntu transforms to fire.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

As he was on fire our cages the unexpected happens, all our gates open.

"LADELA GET ALL THE BROOMS AND MAKE SURE THAT THEY ARE IN THEIR POSITIONS " the older uncle says

" PULA!! PULA!! PULA!!! " King Pula yells

Then the rain rained harder. We looked at him

" what? They is no war without luckies " he say again.

King Lerumo also added the storm.

" I will try and help with removing the brooms from them" King Mosimanegape says and takes off

King Zonkiziwe shacked the land to course some destruction. King Chulumanco build up rocks to hide me and other people in there even Queen Anzatshilidzitshau . The only people that were at that war was the hit man, uncles and the kings.

All I heard was the sound of guns and screams of pain.

I wake up the next day and I feel warm. I sit up straight and I was wrapped around Zwelikhathebauntu's arms in some room. I shake him and he wakes up fast like I just scared him from his dream.

"are you ok? " I ask

He rub his eyes

" good morning " he says

" morning "

He walks out of the room the comes back with a cup of tea .

" Zwelikhathebauntu where are we? "

" in the kingdom "

I look around and now I see it is the room that was built in 1913.

" oh so is Xabiso safe? " I ask

" yes he went back with all the kings that survived "

" what do you mean with all the kings that survived?" I ask worried.

It better be not what I am thinking

"3 kings we have lost and they is only 1 king that needs treatment and that's it" he says looking outside the window. I don't want to add anything because I am hurt since we are the ones that invited them to this war.

Knock knock

I want to open the door. The guy kneeled down.

"my Queen king Zulubakhetha wants to meet you"

"OK we will be there and thank you" I say

I close the door then we changed then walked out. The field is filled with blood, holes and smoke everywhere. This was world War III. We went to our Hut and there he was lying in that pool of blood with his Queen crying.

"King Zwelikhathebauntu and Queen Zwelikhathebauntu I just want to say thank you for taking your time to come to my house and ask for help just when I gave up that people will never love me. For you Zwelikhathebauntu to be strong enough to come to my house and right the wrongs that your father has done shows how strong and a brave man you are. May you please continue doing that for your nation and all the other nations. Keep on combining these kingdoms the way God wanted them to be. Queen Zwelikhathebauntu please help my wife to raise my sons and please by her said. Now it's time for me to go and sleep "

King Zulubakhetha says then closed his eyes and he was go.

I comfort the Queen while I was also in tears. Many have died just for Zwelikhathebauntu to be king just like Lilly said. I guess this is a sign of something that I don't know yet about but I am glad that God gave me the chance to see today's sunrise and I hope to see the set too.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

"Ngiyosala ngingedwa ethuneni lami (I will remain alone in my grave)

Amagugu alelizwe ayosala emathuneni (all precious treasure remains in the grave)

Nigiyolala (I will sleep)" the people sing as all 93 coffins enter and we standing up.

Yes 93 people has left the world during this war.

All the kings, trusted hit men and some kids.

All the kingdoms were all here even Mawakebantu's family from Lesotho. After the kingdoms the people followed behind them.

We were also burying Zwelikhathebauntu's grandfather and father since they were also not buried back then.

All the coffins were made out of gold. The pastor began with prayer then Zwelikhathebauntu was called up front to say a speech as a king.

He had glasses in his eyes but he did not make them flow down his cheeks.

"today we are collided with sad reasons of all our loved ones. They have played their roles in ourselves and we will forever be thankful for their presents in ourselves. They were there in each and every step of our lives and for their golden hearts they will forever be remembered in our memories. Rest in peace and meet the light to all our heroes and heroines that have fallen " he says then looked down

I think he was now crying and that is when his brothers got up to go comfort him as they got off the stage.

" King Zwelikhathebauntu has spoken let's bury their bodies so that their souls reaches the gates of heaven in time" the pastor says

"Nkosi sikelela iAfrika (God bless Africa)

Maluphakanyisw uphondo lwayo (may its dignity raise high up)

Yizwa imithandazo yethu (hear our prayers)

Sibe moya munye (to be united in one spirit)

Noma sekunzima emhlabeni (even through hard times in this world)

Sihlukunyezwa kabuhlungu (when we are painfully abused)

Nkosi siph' amandla okunqoba (Lord give us strength for victory)

Silwe nosathane (to fight the devil) " we sing

All the coffins went six feet under. Rest in peace king and Queen Anzatshilidzitshau, King Hahyani, King Ade, King Zulubakhetha and all the other hit men. May all their souls meet the light and rest in peace .

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

At 02:00 in the morning everything was done and dusted. People where now in their cars and moving back to their homes. We had to sleep in the huts since our houses behind the kingdom where burnt down. The uncles are banished out of the kingdom and Zwelikhathebauntu instructed them to never come back.

Me and Zinhle where doing dishes then grandmother walked in with three men and two women. They bowed down before me.

"my Queen " they all say

Who are these people? But I must say they all look like Zwelikhathebauntu but the ladies are light skinned.

" hi" I say

They got up

"Queen Zwelikhathebauntu these are Zwelikhathebauntu's father's siblings that were have hidden long time ago "

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says with a smile

" you mean these are your kids and are Zwelikhathebauntu's uncles and aunties? "

Zinhle asks

" yes "

Me and Zinhle stare at each other not knowing what to say next. All I heard was 'hidden' so that should mean that Zwelikhathebauntu does not know them too.

" HOW COME FATHER DID NOT TELL ME ABOUT THEM?! "

" Zwelikhathebauntu please baba Ka Kwenzakwenkosi (father of Kwenzakwenkosi /father to Kwenzakwenkosi) calm down "

" MISOKUHLE I CAN'T MAN! I CAN'T! JUST COMING TO THINK OF IT I WOULDN'T HAVE ALLOWED THOSE PEOPLE TO TAKE WHAT MY FOREFATHERS HAS WORKED FOR. NOW LOOK AT THE DAMAGE THEY HAVE CAUSED, 93 HAVE DIED BECAUSE OF THEM, BECAUSE OF THEIR SELFISHNESS MISOKUHLE SO I CAN'T CALM DOWN!!!!!! "

When he is like this I can't talk to him or control him. He is out of control and he could kill me now as he turns to fire. I opened the door and ran out to go and ask for help. I was in tears.

" HELP HELP"

The uncles came out with Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother.

"Zwelikhathebauntu is out of control please help" I say as I go breathless

The ran into our mud house. As they ran there I became dizzy. Zwelikhathebauntu's mom and grandmother ran to me then my eyes closed.

...

I wake up and I am covered with ice in the Gorge . Zwelikhathebauntu saw me opening my eyes and stopped crying.

I sit up straight and I don't have clothes on.
What happened?

"I brought you this" he says handing over a baskets of candy

It had all sweets you could think off. Yes that is Zwelikhathebauntu for you, he will buy you things when he is ashamed to say sorry to you.

Trust me, I love to be spoiled by him when he is ashamed to say sorry because he never allows you to do any thing.

He waked closer to me and kissed the living day light out of me.

"I love you "

" I love you more" he answers

And that is also my way of telling him indirect that you are forgiven.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

Chapter 23

A lot has happened but I am thankful to God that we all still see the sunrise. Yes they have been changes done. After the funeral the uncles helped to cleanse the land in the kingdom and yes Zwelikhathebauntu finally forgave them and I am happy that Zwelikhathebauntu's father also knew his siblings. We have built a huge house behind the kingdom. We are now going to all live together in the same house, 13 bedrooms with their bathrooms, 3 bathrooms, a big white kitchen, a large table in the dinner table room, gigantic movie room, enormous TV room, tremendous lounge, titanic garage with 50 new cars inside and also including the green Corsa.

Zwelikhathebauntu says it is going to be Kwenzakwenkosi's first car and all the other generations first car. We also have built some buildings then named it after all the past kings of Zwelikhathebauntu. King Zhawethu mall, he is the first king that built the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu with his other brothers, his name is Zhawethu Zwelikhathebauntu Mahlangu. King Thando transportation, King Lindaokuhle hospital, King Lesedi cakes shop, King Lesego hotel, king Nkosingiphile spa, King Bambanani pack and lastly king Zwelikhathebauntu barbershop and King Zwelikhathebauntu feeding scheme . Yes that is the legacy. His grandfather and his father's statues have also being done and they are also staying at the Gorge. Me and Zinhle are now the housewives because our husbands don't allows to do what they should be doing. We do all the cooking, cleaning, taking care of the kids, washing and just spending their money. Lilly's shop was given to her husband to take care of it because Zwelikhathebauntu didn't allow me to work there but every time I am in South Africa I do pass it just to check if everything is still fine.

We have moved to Zimbabwe permanently and I must say I love it here. We only go to South Africa for family issues or just a vacation. The social media has been on our tails because we have built all the buildings that we own so now people think we want people to love us or we are replacing the government but then they still go to those buildings to buy or get help from and others think we are evil and want to kill everyone and make them zombies, well with that I laughed at it. Who creates such lies, yes people never stop talking and I have accepted that they will never stop. Zinhle has been in and out of court because she punched another lady for calling her a gold digger. To be honest they call us gold diggers the headlines are always THE GOLDEN DIGGER WIVES but I mostly don't entertain such comments.

Today it is Christmas eve and we are going to buy the kids toys. The guys went to South Africa for their feeding scheme and they will come back before tomorrow I guess.

"come guys let's go" I say

We got into our limousine. When our husbands are not here we mostly get on the limousine then get drivers but when they are around we drive our car. I don't know where the difference is but yes that is what we do.

We finally got to the toy store then they bought their toys. They were all over the shop taking every toy. Buhlebenkosi took a dark skinned baby doll.

"my child don't you want the light skinned baby doll? " Zinhle asks

" no"

Zinhle took the light skinned baby doll gave Buhlebenkosi then took the dark skinned doll and place it at the shelf but then Buhlebenkosi jump up and down, rolling around crying for the dark skinned doll.

"COME ON BUHLEBENKOSI THEY IS NO NEED FOR YOU TO DO THAT!" Zinhle yelled but her daughter never stopped

" I want the dark skinned doll mama. I am a Ndebele and not a white person " she says crying

Yes we ended up taking both dolls and also bought the tittle ones their toys. We got back home. I wanted to spice up our relationship so I ask our driver to take me to the adult toy shop and bought all the nasty things. It's been some time since me and Zwelikhathebauntu had it. We are going to enjoy our Christmas night.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

I open my eyes so slow only to be met with Zwelikhathebauntu staring at me.

"good morning "

" morning my wife. Now please get out of the bed" he says busy kissing my cheek and opening the covers

I am so tired but I have to wake up. He had a camera all this time.

"what is the camera for? " I ask

" lovie may you please brush your teeth so that we may go down stares"

I brushed my teeth with him still following me with his gigantic camera. When I was done he took my hand then we walked downstairs. We also meet Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother, mother and Zinhle also facing cameras that were held by Mawakebantu and Bantu. We laugh at them then we walked down. All the kids are dressed in red, white and green. The boys are wearing their red top Robe de kappa and green Robe DE Kappa pants then under their top they had their formal white shirt and a black bow tie with their white kicks. The girls were in their red dresses and white at the edges with their white flat shoes and green short Jackets . They were also violin people behind them then when they saw us they began to sing a merry Christmas song. The little ones were crawling everywhere and eating everything so their fathers ended up picking them up. Even all the guys are wearing like the boys in their same Robe DE Kappa.

Me and Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother were already in tears of joy. When they were done to sing Nthandoyenkosi ran to me then wiped my cheeks.

"don't cry mommy, mama will laugh at you" he says

These kids refer to Zinhle as mama then me mommy.

"mommy is just happy son " I say smiling in between the tears

" marry Christmas " they all says

" marry Christmas to you to" we say

We went to sit at the dinner table room then the waiters came and gave us our breakfast, which means we have a chef today. We thanked them. Sphiweinkosi was all over the floor making his father run around not wanting to eat his food. I try to help but he never allowed me he said 'lovie you deal with this everyday so rest for today' .

After we were told to go bath then got dressed the way the baby girls were dressing. It was so cute that we all dressed the same. The three man of the house were up and doing all what we do everyday.

The photo group came with their things including father Christmas which the kids were all over him and he was giving them candy that is why they were all over him.

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother hugs me, this woman loves me shame more than Zwelikhathebauntu and that makes me shy around her.

"isn't this amazing? "

" it is grandmother and thanks all to God for making me meet people like you"

She let go of me smiling

"the photo people are waiting for us so let's go take photos " Zwelikhathebauntu says

We all went outside took a lot of pictures till the kids got tired and began to run around and became unruly . If they take pictures they no longer smile they show angry faces making the whole picture ugly. Zwelikhathebauntu was angry and that made me laugh at him more then he will end up laughing with me.

At 12:00 we got our lunch.

We went to bath and got dress in our sleeping wear then went to eat dinner. After dinner everyone was now on the floors sleeping on their bellies. Like we were all full and all we wanted was our beds.

We got on our beds and sleep. What a Christmas

The next day we wake up did breakfast. We sat at the table and talked about yesterday which we all laughed about .

At the midday the man were outside with the kids as they ate their dry meat and sipping on their Coca-Cola.

The ladies are in the laundry room and washing the clothes.

"tonight I want to spice our romantic relationship " I say

They laugh

" me too girl" Zinhle says

"we better close our ears tonight "
Zwelikhathebauntu's mom says smiling

" they will be no need for that because we will be low" I say

We laugh then continued to do our work.

Later we made dinner then Zinhle's family and my family walk in and I was screaming my lungs out. I had missed my parents, grandmother, Vusimuzi and Mduduzi also Baba pull up. I hugged them and kissed them.

I am so happy right now. We were sitting all together in the TV room and my dad with Zinhle's father told us folktales till we all went to sleep.

Zwelikhathebauntu told me to go put the kids in bed then he will meet me in our room.

"go in the covers boys" I instruct

They go in their covers while I place Siphweinkosi in his cot. Thanks God right now they all sleep in the same room till they grow up and want to sleep in different rooms.

I kissed them

"good night mommy " they say

" gotit mommy " Siphweinkosi says

" good night my babies "

I went to the girl's room and said my good night, followed to Zwelikhathabauntu's grandmother and mother, My parents, My twin brothers, Baba pull up then lastly my grandmother.

I went back to our room and they were roses everywhere and candles lighting up the room then they is a huge white chair and a pole in front of it.

"Zwelikhathebauntu? "

" oh you are in please lock the door and sit on the chair"

I did as instructed. He got out of the bathroom with the Christmas underwear only. At least he does not have those rips any more, he is only fit and has some meat not like before.

He played a slow song then cat walked to me. He stripped for me so slow. His penis is all over my face. I was the one doing the touching all over his body. He poured cream on his chest then he gave me strawberries. I only dipped one strawberry on that cream then the rest of the cream I linked it with my own tough.

"love they are also toys that I bought but before we get there I would like you to help me get dressed in my sexy number 1" I say

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

My phone is ringing so I wake up to answer it.

"hello "

" good morning my child and please don't tell me that you are still asleep at 09:00 " my mom says

I look at the watch at the side of the bed and yes it is 09:00. I look at the side of the bed and Zwelikhathebauntu is not there. Oh so he did not wake me up.

" I just woke up mom"

"well you will be the bad bride so I was calling to inform you that Zwelikhathebauntu's uncles have gave us a letter and we should go home"

WHAT?!

" oh"

"what? you don't seem happy? "

" I am, I am it's just that I am still shocked by this"

"OK I will have to go call my club members to let them know about this function "

She hung up. She is so excited about this.

When did they send the letter? I did the bed then went to shower. I walked down stairs and they was no one there.

" anybody home!?"

" in the kitchen "

I walked to the kitchen and Zwelikhathebauntu's mom and my family was having breakfast.

" good morning " I greet

" morning " they greet back

" have you packed? " my mom asks

" no "

" really Mimi I have called you so that when you get out of that room you have your bags. Why are you like this? " my mom says

" sorry mom I will go pack after breakfast "

" and why are you up so late? "

" no its OK most of the times she is the one that wakes up and does breakfast and today is the time she also relaxes " Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother saves me

I eat then went to pack my bags.

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother walks in

" is everything packed? " she asks

" yes"

"oh ok I wanted to help"

"where is everyone else? " I asks

" they went to the kingdom and they will come back later"

"oh and why wasn't I informed about this"

"it's all Zwelikhathebauntu's orders" she says with a smile.

She helped me with my bags then walked me out. We got on the limousine then to the airport and back to South Africa.

Chapter 24

Its been a week home and finally today Zwelikhathebauntu's uncles are coming today. It is 03:00 in the morning and we are already up and preparing for today. My mom's club members slept here and they are busy in the kitchen. Zinhle also came to help to help, My father's friends were also busy outside.....oh and my forever drunk uncle. He will be the one representing me with other uncles today, he better not embarrass me. Me, Zinhle and Biokanyo were cleaning around the house. Biokanyo is my drunk uncle's first born. We are the same age and she speaks Pedi and not just this Johannesburg Tshwana but that deep Pedi from Limpopo. Yes it's hard to communicate with her because it's Pedi or you shut up because they is no way he will speak Zulu or any other culture. Yes she understands Zulu but she won't answer you back with Zulu, she will speck her Pedi , whether you understood or not that's your busy but today Zinhle is my translator so we good.

The time is 05:00 then we hear people outside the gate calling my clan praise. Mom runs to us

"go into your room. They are here" she says pushing us

She closes and locks the window

"and why are you locking windows? " I ask

" I heard Ma Manna's daughter escaped during the lobola to go and have a quickie and they were caught busy so I don't want that to happen to you too. That would be embarrassing " she says closing the door and locking us in

Wow now I am being locked. First it was my phone being taken away from me, second the burnt all my full panties and told me to wear sexy under wears for my husband then gave up my pants to charity and now I am wearing this hot blanket in this hot day . Yes that is what I was facing during this week.

Biokanyo speaks Pedi walking up and don't. I look at Zinhle to explain what she is saying

"girl you really don't want to know what she is saying " she says

I stand and the top of my bed and see what is happening outside. My male cousins went to open the gate. I went to stand at the door to listen.

" WHO IS ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU BETWEEN YOU!?" that's my uncle

" it is him" that's Bantu

"no its you Zwelikhathebauntu " that is

Zwelikhathebauntu

Is he serious now denying that he is Zwelikhathebauntu. What is happening there?

" because you both look same I will beat up the both of you then" my uncle says

I heard people screaming to stop my uncle at the same time people running.

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

Someone is pushing me then I am kicked. I opened my eyes and I am on the floor, I look up and all the boys are on the bed with their legs everywhere around the bed in this unfamiliar white bedroom. Zwelikhathebauntu walks in.

"sorry our kids can't sleep " he says with a smile

" and you still placed them in the same bed I am sleeping in "

" they insist so why not"

I look around

"oh well by the way we have our new home here in Mpumalanga " he says

" oh, is it ours or we are sharing with the family?

"ours without the family" he says

Oh I will miss them.

"we only live together when we go to Zimbabwe which I have decided that we only go there occasionally and not permanently live there since we will be getting married soon" he says

"oh so we have to find new schools and uniforms for the kids"

"that has been already done and you will also be taking and getting them from school they will be no driver that will be driving them to see school"

Well that could keep me busy

"OK"

"lovie our wedding will be on the 30th and 31st of December so prepare yourself because tomorrow you are going back to your home" he says

What?

"that's in like a few days and how am I going to plan our wedding? "

" oh yeah about that I was worried but where I was born your mother and my mother will be the ones choosing all those decoration things because we are doing a traditional wedding "

Oh yes I wasn't hopping for a white wedding myself because I am no longer a virgin and I am marrying a traditional man so yeah. I don't mind my mom and his mom planning because I know my mom knows what I like best and what I dislike so I am not that worried.

"OK I don't have a problem "

" you know when my late grandfather told me that I will meet you one day and to marry you will delay because you will be the greatest Queen ever in the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu. He even praised you that you are the strongest of them all. I was only 13 years old back then and I didn't believe a thing that he said because I thought he was just jealous that I found my new girlfriend only to find out that what he said it is still coming after 13 years. I am happy that you are in my life. Even though your uncle beaten me up because of having our three already grown sons without paying for lobola or damages, I know deep down in my heart that I would have done that the very first time I saw you at that rank as you stared at me and I am sorry if you feel like I have wasted your time"

I kiss him

"you have never wasted my time and you will never"

"I love you" he says

"I love you too"

"we both love you more " the older boys says

" I lve you " Siphiweinkosi says

We all laughed. I always knew that he will learn fast to speck judging by the way he stares at people's mouth every time they speck.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

Mom came to open the door laughing.

"MOM!! what is going on? " I ask

" your uncle has beaten up your brother in law and your husband to be because he scored three times "

We laugh

" your drunk uncle has beaten up Zwelikhathebauntu because he has three sons with you and still didn't pay lobola. Yeah my girlfriend you have the best uncle ever" Zinhle says

"but are they ok? " I ask

" my baby you don't want to know because your uncle was stopped by your father and your other uncles " mom says still laughing

By the way what are they doing here? Because they shouldn't be here

Wow! I really hope that my uncle must not embarrass me but then seems like it went the other way around.

" anyway they are calling the three of you to the TV room " my mom says

We walk in a line looking down. We sat down on the traditional mat still facing down.

" which one is the bride? " the older uncle asks

" this one" Zwelikhathebauntu's uncle points

Ululating followed at the kitchen

"you may all go now" my uncle instructs

We walked back in the room and the moment we got in my mom locks us again. We scream in joy

"finally my girlfriend you are married " Zinhle says with a smile

I smile back

Yes things are getting better

...

After making breakfast and cleaning I am going back home and I mean Zimbabwe.

" Misokuhle it is 04:00 in the morning " my mom says with her sleepy eyes

" yes mom I want to get back home early "

She had tears

" I am hurt. Don't you miss me like I miss you? I wish I could take this time to spend time with you" she says

Ohhhhhh mommy

"so what do you want to do today? " I ask

She smile

" I have got an idea and everything will be on me

" I say

She smiles wider then walks back to her room.

At 08:00 when I was done to bath we went to a spa, which relaxed my body. Please don't ask where I got the money because Mr Mahlangu always gives me the allowance of a amount that I won't state but I will say it is enough for me but it increases every month with R100 000,00 which is more than enough .

After our spa, we went shopping then went to eat and lastly we went to eat ice cream and that is how our mother and daughter day ended. When we got home Zwelikhathebauntu and my kids were already waiting for me so I packed my bags and left home. It was hard to leave because mom was crying as always, right now I think she is pregnant like seriously.

Chapter 25

We have been preparing songs for this Friday. And now we hear cars hooting outside, we know that they are already here. I was not allowed to go out but I am standing at the window to see everything. My family is inside the yard while Zwelikhathebauntu's family is outside the yard at the gate. They were both singing different songs, like a competition. I could see Bantu, Mawakebantu and the kids also singing. I was so happy to see them. Me and my bridesmaids were painted with mud around our faces and old clothes. We will only be allowed to go out tomorrow.

At 01:00 that is when they stop singing.

"wake up, wake up"

I open my eyes and I meet my mom's eyes.

"oh mom what is the time? " I ask

" 04:30 it's time for us to go to the river "

Her and the other old lady woke up all my other bridesmaids. We got on my aunty's car then we drove to the river. When we got there we bath then got dressed into our new clothes and our old clothes were burnt.

We drove back and the moment we got off they was ululating all over the yard . I got to our room. We all bathed then I got dressed into my brown two piece and my blanket.

Cars are hooting outside.

"THEY ARE HERE!!!! " Mduzuzi yells outside our window. That is his job today.

" OK!!! " we yell back

My father walked me out of the house with my family singing behind me. I was facing down then I sat on the traditional mat.

Zwelikhathebauntu's family gave my father, mother, uncle, grandmother, My other grandmother from my father's side and my other grandfather from my father's side gifts. They were so happy dancing for their gifts later my umbrella, blanket was now filled with money. Really the royal family had given me money. At 11:00 we went to change then got dressed into our Zulu attire.

Our families met each other half way then he took my hand after my father handed me to him.

"you look amazing..... actually you are hot"

Zwelikhathebauntu whispers in my ear

I blush

We went to the big tent that is decorated like a Zulu land. It was is beautiful, I knew it that I could trust those two fabulous ladies.

"this is amazing " I say

" yes it is" he says

We sat down then speeches were done. Later we ate the most amazing food ever then we danced our traditional dance. I was dancing for my husband and his groomsmen where standing behind him, squeezing his shoulders and praising him for choosing me to become his wife and he was brushing his chin and smiling feeling proud of himself .

I went to sit down after some time dancing I was tired of dancing .

"you dance amazing " the groomsmen say

" hey hey you guys this is my wife you don't get to be complementing her that is my job."

Zwelikhathebauntu says

They laugh and walk away. He turns my chair so that I face him. He kisses me so deep and so nice.

"HEY HEY ZWELIKHATHEBAUNTU. I AM GOING TO BEAT YOU UP. THE WEDDING IS NOT YET OVER. YOU CAN'T KISS MY CHILD LIKE THAT IN FRONT OF ME!!! " my father says

The people laughs at him and we joined them. I never thought that this day will come.

" Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

They are kisses all over my face.

"mmmmmmm"

"wake up baby" he says

"wow you already chasing me out of your house

" yes I am chasing you out of OUR house. Now get up" he says pulling the sheets away from me.

I got up went to shower then got dressed in my white Jean high waist skirt and covered my head with my white crop top that did not reveal my belly at all.

I walked downstairs and I found Zwelikhathebauntu in his white jumpsuit with All-stars.

"I am done and where are our kids? "

" my wife you done let's go"

He took my hand then we walked out and there stood the green Corsa. I stare at him and he smiles.

"we are going back in time" he says

He opens the door for me then I walked in. It is clean and renovated.

"it looks brand new " I say

" it is brand new inside not outside and while Bantu was renewing it he found coins or should I say money that was supposed to be your taxi money that I rejected but you placed around the car" he says looking at me in the eyes

"ummm I thought you were those blessers that shower you with their money then look for something in return " I say not looking at him

He giggles then starts the car.

We drove for hours and hours till I saw a board written Johannesburg. I look at him with a shocked face, he saw that I am starting at him but never minded me just like the day I first met him.

"Zwelikhathebauntu where are we going? "

We stop at the robots then he kissed my open lips. I didn't move my lips till he insert his tongue in my mouth. We kiss till the robot opened.

We got some place that looks dirty and busy. This is not how I expected Johannesburg is. It smells horrible, the streets are dirty, yes the buildings amaze me but you can't see its beauty in these streets, the taxis I driving their own rules in these streets, they is so many people here you cannot see your feet, people's bags are being taken in the daylight, homeless people are everywhere and any place. It's just the worst place I have ever been.

"Welcome to Johannesburg my wife"

"oh"

"you don't look happy " he says with a worried face

" love yes it is true that I always wanted to get here but right now I wish I never been here. They is no even one gold I have seen so far I have came here....."

He laughs

"lovie when they say the city of gold they mean like the gold was first found here back then not that you will literally see gold" he says then laughs harder

"oh can you please take me home"

He drove us to my home at Soweto

"Misokuhle, My Queen "

By L

We danced till Zwelikhathebauntu's family went home. When they left I got into my room the ladies were in their under wears.

"take off your clothes too" Zinhle says

"yes let's see what Zwelikhathebauntu sees in you" my cousin Olanda says

I take off my clothes slowly. When they see my matching bra and panty they scream in excitement.

They throw cream all over my body then placed fruits all over and we took pictures.

" we have a surprise for you" my cousin Ratama says

"and what is that? " I ask

" we call photographers to take you nude pictures and make it an album for your husband" she says

I look at them shocked

"thank you " I say still shocked

We took lots and lots of nudes. At 00:00 that is when we went to sleep.

03:00 we all woke up then went to airport to Zimbabwe.

I am so tired I couldn't sleep at all so I had to put sunglasses till we reached our mud house. When we got in Zwelikhathebauntu's aunties dressed me up into my Ndebele attire, it is so heavy and hot on this sunny day. My blanket and my umbrella is covered with sweets all over. When they were done they walked out. Some time later we heard whistles outside then my father came in held my hand out and I went to sit on my golden mat next to my family and extended family . I was also facing down but then I quickly sported Zwelikhathebauntu in his Ndebele attire sitting at his golden chair. His family gave my family also their gifts then it was time for me to give Zwelikhathebauntu his gift. I place the traditional mat first then made him sleep on it. I put too much lotion on his face so that he cannot see because he has been staring at like I am some meal.

"lovie remind me that you should never bath me"
" he says

I giggle then wash the lotion off his face then covered him with a blanket. The ladies with sticks came and beat him up he then ran away till they stopped running after him. I was laughing my lungs out.

He came back then they made a big circle I was sitting on my traditional mat next Zwelikhathebauntu's chair. He couldn't stop staring at him. His aunties came in the middle of the circle and whistled the whistles . Then the uncle came to instruct us that the wedding may begin, the two aunties came back to whistle then we were called inside the circle to dance with them.

Me and my girls were defeated by them they were stopping us any minute they get. Well they grew up being learning this while some of us just learnt weeks back so that is why we were defeated.

The girls and I went to sit down while the boys sing there songs and people ululating for them and praising them.

"Lomntwana ngiyamthanda ma'gents(I love this girl my friends)

Buhle bakhe buya khanya ma'gents(her beauty is bright my friends)

Nhliziyo yakhe eyathandeka(her heart is a heart of gold)

Ma'gents neyamyeka(my friends she's the best)

Ngiyamthanda(I love her) " Zwelikhathebauntu sang as others were singing also after him

I was blushing all this time as people dance and sing in excitement.

He was now done singing and charming me. He came and kissed me. We sat there outside and ate our food. People were now having their own conversations and others came to congratulate us.

"you look amazing today" he says with his charming Chinese brown eyes

"you are also charming "

" oh my, so does that mean I will be getting some tonight? "

We laugh then he kissed my cheek

" well it depends if the kids will be there or not" I say

"oh my wife they is no need for you to worry because I got that covered" he says with a naughty smile

"you better don't eat me rough "

" I will think about that but I am not promising "

" then forget about me giving you tonight " I say making a mad face playfully

He touches my arms while smiling but I remove his hand

" I am kidding my lovie, My wife and the mother of my kids" he says with a smile then pecked my lips

We were done eating and now we were watching the kids dancing. I am impressed with our kids they were dancing well.

Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother called me as she held the two little babies. I walked with her in some hut that had only old ladies in it.

"here is our new Queen " Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says to them

" please sit down " the very light skinned old lady says

I sat down on the grass mat. They introduced themselves then began with their advises, some I knew, some were making me shy to hear old ladies talk about it but they were all noted in my small mind.

After the talks they helped me dress up into some white mermaid dress that had a touch of gold at the edges of my waist. They place my large hat on top of my head to indicate that I am married with sliver and diamonds all over shoes. I looked expensive, simple and hot.

"thank you " I say

" wait, let's not forget this" Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says placing the necklace of

Queens that she gave me the other day

Wow I look complete

They smile

" all thanks to me" Zwelikhathebauntu's mom says walking in

"and me too because I did it" grandmother says

We laugh

"my son says I must give you this"
Zwelikhathebauntu's mom says handing over a piece of paper and a small box

" we will be outside if you need us"
Zwelikhathebauntu's grandmother says

They all walked out. I opened my letter

~ my beautiful wife. I just want to tell you how I feel about you. When the first time I saw you as you stood there alone looking at me I felt my heart beat very fast and that is why I couldn't look at you in your eyes but just know that when you walked to the taxi I couldn't stop looking at your bums as you walked they shake like a jelly. From that day I couldn't stop thinking about your body shape. Everything about your body is large and never fading away and that is what attracted me to you but the day you got in my car and told me about yourself in that moment I knew it that you are the wife that I have been looking for, for so many years. In that moment you stole my heart and I knew that you the only female in my life that will stop me from my ungovernable life. Yes you did change my life to the man I am, today I am a father, a good brother and a husband. I never thought in my wildest dreams that I will get married at the age of 32. I feel proud of meeting you in my life and happy that you have been in my life in the good and the bad times. I want to apologize for all the wrongs I did to you and I want to say thank you for standing right by me. In you I found myself a cheerleader that is always right there when I need her and for that I respect you and I still promise that I will also stand by you through thick and thin. I love you My Queen ~

I feel so loved right now. When I open a small box it is a golden ring and diamonds around it with a big black diamond in the middle. I pick it up and it is so heavy. This must be the real gold and diamonds . They is a small paper so I take it and read it

~it is made by me and my brothers. I hope you love it~

I smile and close the box. What can't this family do. They cut hair, they renovate cars, they build houses, they know how to dance and many more.

I heard people screaming so I walked out to see what is happening. When I got out the cow was running around the yard throwing the panties and chairs everywhere.

The cow saw me then ran towards me. People kept on screaming that I should move back to my mud house but I couldn't move so I closed my eyes waiting for it to drag me but they is nothing that happened. I opened my eyes slowly and it just stood there and stare at me.

The men came running.

"stand still my lovie" Zwelikhathebauntu says

I brush the cow then it just sat down and went to sleep.

"how did you do that? " one of the man asks

" it shows how welcome she is in this place" grandmother says

Zwelikhathebauntu came to me, held my waist then kissed me

"I love you " he says

He also looks good in his white and gold slim fit suit.

" you look so handsome "

He smiles then kisses my lips again. He holds my left hand, he sees the ring and smiles wider

" are you still good? " he asks

" yes I am still good"

"did you get your letter? "

" yes and I must say it is so charming. As we speak I feel loveable "

He looks at me with his Chinese brown eyes and smiles

" I also received my album of nudes and I must say you look sexy. I am horny as we speak and I might eat you now"

"what?! No we are getting married and we are not having any sex here" I say

"and yes you are right. Since you both done as the power couple I think it's time now to go" his one aunty says

We walk hand in hand following the two aunties that have already started whistling to the tent.

OH MY GOD!!!!!! This place looks like heaven, the colours are white and gold, they is a small bridge and fake river under it but it looks real as the water flows. Our chairs are tremendous with white and gold and also a skin of a bull on them,

I felt like a Queen or something important.

My family and his family were so happy for us and I was more than happy.

We sat on our chairs then speeches were made again. We ate Ndebele food even earth warms. At first I hesitated before I ate and when I get to eat them I kept on asking repeats.

The skhotane people were here and also dancing. I enjoyed their dance, Zwelikhathebauntu ended up getting up and dancing with them. He knows how to dance, for really. People were taking videos of them. I am sure they are going to trend after this, I can even imagine the headlines 'Mahlangu handsome groom dancing on his wedding day or Legend is back baby with a dance on his wedding day' .

His family walked in wearing cow skins including my babies and they was a moment of silence even the Dj turned off the music. Me and Zwelikhathebauntu held each other's hand under the table. The older uncle begins to pray, the next uncle said the clan praise.

"Today we are gathered here for the wedding of our beautiful couple and we are thankful for everyone that came. This is the first time in our lives to see such a wedding in this kingdom, yes they were weddings in this kingdom but it was never full like it is right now so once again thank you. The man standing in front of you is Tataumuzi and I am the second born of the six kids, just after Zwelikhathebauntu's father . I am here to announce the next king and Queen of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu" Zwelikhathebauntu's older uncle says

People started clapping hands

"Zwelikhathebauntu and Misokuhle Mimi I want to announce you as the new King and Queen of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu "

People screamed in joy and dance too. The aunties came and dresses me into a small bull skin and a crown then the uncles dresses Zwelikhathebauntu into his long and thick bull skin and a crown. People screamed louder as we are dressed.

" King and Queen may you please stand up" his older uncle says

We got up hand in hand then people clapped their hands and screamed in excitement

"I announce you King and Queen of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu "

They was more joy in the tent. Us and the people got on the dance floor and began to dance. Zwelikhathebauntu held my waist and kissed my neck.

" I couldn't have made it without you " he whispers in my ear and I smile

Finally King and Queen of the kingdom of Zwelikhathebauntu. We had gone through troubles , fights, tears and trauma but it was all worth it. If someone told me what I have gone through 6 years back I would laugh at them in the face and think that they are crazy.

This is my story and I have embarked on it and they will be no turning back. What has been done has been done because it had to be done, My present should be celebrated because I don't know what the future holds for my family. What I know for sure is today I vow that

I will love my husband in any ill condition

Support and stand by his side in any situation

Continue the production

So that they shall be the next generation

Till the day of our final destination

Am I everything that you want

And I know that this once was

But is that still who we are

Cause I, I want you to love me

As part of who I am and not just because

And you know that I go through things

But deep down inside I know you never forgot that

They say will never make it
We were going too far
But we went a distance you and I
And here we are, here we are
I hope you still have patience
To try and reach for the stars
We still trying to make it to the sky carry on, carry on

Thando lwethu (our love) baby is amazing
We sometimes don't deserve it Noma bathi thina solahleka (even when they say we will get lost)
Love is navigating and we are almost home

Angikaze ngithande umuntu ngalendlela (I have never loved another person the way I love you)

Ngawe baby mina ngiyaziqhenya (I am proud of you my baby)

Uthando lwakho baby olwangempela (your love my baby is real)

Angifuni omunye umuntu ngifuna wena (I don't want another person I only want you)

Thando lwethu (our love) baby is amazing

We sometimes don't deserve it

Noma bathi thina solahleka (even when they say we will get lost)

Love is navigating and we are almost home
