Prologue

My name is Summer Blossom Whitman and I am 15 years old. I was born into a very religious family, I'm from a small town in salt lake city Utah. In my town it's either you are a member of the LDS church or the FLDS, these two churches were one thing once upon a time until they had a fall out and split the church in two. One practices polygamy while the other frowns upon it but we are both identified as Mormons. I am a mixed race girl I have ocean blue eyes but some say they turn red when I am sad or angry and I have one best friend his name is Jacob. We both wish to run away from our homes each one has their own reasons for wanting to get away. My reasons are a lot. I am the youngest daughter out of 21 children. My father has 6 wives but my mother and my father were never married. I was told cruelly so by one of my stepmothers that my mother was a nigger maid who opened her legs to a married man. When the church found out about the pregnancy, they waited for her to give birth then they stoned her to death. My father has never shown me affection in fact I am a reminder of his moment of weakness which cost him his leadership role as a church leader. Most of my sisters are married off to older men and pride themselves in being home makers who bake and attend a woman's gathering called the relief society where women meet and give each other tips on how to be perfect wives. There has to be more to life than knitting and gossiping about who's husband is getting another wife. I need to get away.

"We have a very special guest tonight, please dress your best and do something about that hideous hair" my father says sitting on his favorite wooden chair, reading the Bible. My hair is huge coily afro that needs Jesus Christ himself to make it straight, not even a straightening brush helps but my father has spoken.

I am wearing a decent long red dress and a matching cardigan every woman in our church owns a cardigan in all colors or you are not a true woman of faith. The president of our church walks in with his first wife.

"Greetings, peace be unto thy home"

"Amen" we murmur

"President Randall, we are honored to have an anointed man of God in our home" he nods and we eat in silence.

"Elder Whitman, the reason my wife and I came to your home is to let you know that I have taken interest in one of your daughters and I would love to have her hand in marriage" my father beams

"Oh my president, that is such great news in deed. I am very happy and honored that you saw a wife in my household. As you know I have 4 unmarried daughters, which one ye speak of"

"Don't be silly my husband, I'm definitely sure president here will never marry Summer rather not count her amongst the daughters who are unmarried" one of my stepmothers say

"Woman, you dare interrupt your husband while he speaks? Hold your tongue before the Lord almighty smite thee" my stepmothers bows in shame

"To answer your question Elder Whitman, I want to marry your youngest daughter Summer" I felt my lungs deflate. He can't possibly want me, tears welled up and I started to shake.

"That's great news, do you hear that Summer? What a great honor." I shook my head

"I'm too young to get married, Angela and Sofia are of perfect age. Please president,

"Blossom!" My father roared in anger

"You should be grateful he chose you" I shake my head crying

"Don't embarrass us Blossom now pray for God to forgive you" I close eyes and bow my head and so does everyone on the table

"Dear heavenly father

I ask thee to forgive me for embarrassing my elders and ask that thee give me a heart full of gratitude. I believe that the FLDS church is true, I believe that prophet Joseph Smith is true, I believe the book of Mormon is true and I believe that president Randall is led by the holy spirit

In the name of thy son Jesus name Amen" the whole table said Amen

"Father may I please be excused" he nod his head and I ran out.

"Jacob my life is over," I say crying my lungs, I came straight to his home.

"What's the matter now my Summer breeze" Jacob wants to run away from his home because he has feelings for other men and that can get him stoned to death or severe punishment.

"President Randall wants me to be his seventh wife." He chuckles

"That should be an honor, a whole president wow. You will be the envy of every girl in church. Women will kiss your ass while all the other men will be at your command. You can change a lot of things, like increase the time to watch TV by an extra hour and fight for young girls who want to go to college in other states" I give him a death stare

"I want to leave this place not change it, many have tried and they have failed. Where is Elder Newtown? He just disappeared after he tried to get president Randall arrested for marrying his underage daughter. Please let's run away. I have saved up 3000 dollars" his eyes pop

"So much money? Anyway I am going away on a missionary work to a small country in africa. I will be going away for two years to teach Africa about our church but what they don't know is that I don't plan on coming back. You could come with me if you want" I hug him very excited

"Tomorrow I will buy a plane ticket online, we leave on Thursday" I kiss his cheek

"Thank you Jacob, let me get going before I earn myself some flocking. Peace be upon thee"

"Amen and peace be upon thy household"

"Amen, bye Jacob"

Chapter 1

MPILO

"Baba" she throws herself in my arms.

"Mama always told us about you and that one day you will come back" I smile looking at my photo copy.

"You brought me back my angel. Now let's go home" we walk out of the library with people staring at us. Must be the clothes I'm wearing from the medieval times and the long beard. We get into a hotel

"Excuse me sir but we can't allow you into our fine establishment" I laugh throwing my head back

"Do you know I can bring this "fine establishment" down with just a flicker of my tail?"

"Baba!" I smile, I can never get used to her calling me Baba. Langa walks towards us with his bodyguards

"Thando, what's happening h....." He doesn't get to finish his sentence because he spots me and I see tears fall instantly from his eyes

"Mpilo?" He walks towards me and crushes me with a hug. His shoulders shake and I know he is crying, propelling my own tears. We stay like that for a while.

"Baba who's Moses here" I frown and look behind me. I find two boys standing, I know one is mine and the other is my nephew.

"Mpilo" he looks at me and chuckles

"Baba before we can hug please go take a bath, shave and get rid of those clothes" he has the biggest smile on his face

"And why are you wearing your ancestral clothing in public?" He looks at his clothing

"Because I can and the honeys go crazy" I throw my head laughing and I turn to look at my nephew

"The prince of Langaletu kingdom" he walks up to me and throws himself in my arms

"Uncle Mpilo" he says with teary eyes" I look into his eyes

"Your chosen is coming boy, have patience because what you are starting won't end well" he looks down because he knows exactly what I'm talking about

"Let's get you cleaned up and on the next flight to Langaletu kingdom I know my mom is dying to see the love of her life" Mpilokaise says with a huge smile.

Continuation of chapter 1

Jacob bought me a plane ticket online and applied for a visa, hopefully it will be approved quickly but I am not worried about that since the church gets approved easily because of the mission work they do all over Africa. I am in my room that I share with my older sister the second last born who's 17 years old. Her name is Medicine, we don't get along at all, in fact I don't get along with any of my siblings. They treat me like some pestilence and disease.

"I heard president Randall wants to marry you" she says fixing the pillow.

"Yes" I say without looking at her.

"Well I guess congratulations are in order"

"Thank you" she scoffs

"Lydia asked me to come get you, we want to do something special for you since tomorrow it's going to be announced at church that you are the next wife" I chuckle

"Oh come off it Medicine, I know for certain that you and your sisters hate me so why would you want to do anything nice for me?" I says rolling my eyes

"Hate? Oh sister that's such a strong word that the Lord almighty frowns upon. We just don't like that your blood is tainted with nigger blood. We have skins as fair as Nicol Kidman's beautiful skin while yours is....." I interject

"Beautiful! My skin is beautiful, my hair is beautiful, my eyes are blue yet I'm not completely white and fair while yours is ordinarily brown. I am beautiful and you are the ones with tainted hearts" I say covering my head with a blanket.

It's Sunday morning and I drag my feet not enthusiastic about going to church at all. We all get ready for church and carry our bibles. My sisters walk ahead of me as usual, as I wait for Jacob at our usual meet up spot. My father and his wives pass me standing there, they know that I'm waiting for Jacob

"Don't be late Blossom, you know how important today is" I nod and they drive past me. I wait for Jacob for 20 more minutes before I decide to run to church because if I'm late I will never hear the end of it. I arrive at church sweating from the running and squeeze myself at the back. I look around for Jacob but I can't see him anywhere.

"My brothers and sisters our founder and first president of the fundamental latter day saints church Jeff Weiner is in prison serving a life sentence for believing and doing the word of God. In the book of Mormon when Lehigh and his sons faced persecution they stuck to their faith and stood rooted in their belief. My brothers and sisters it is with a heavy heart this morning that I bring forth what the Lord has shown me and instructed me to do about an act of immorality committed by our very own" they bring Jacob and his other friend Paul pulling them in chains. My tears fall as I fear what will happen to my best friend.

"Brethren, these young men were caught doing immoral acts that our lord Jesus Christ himself loathes. I prayed to the Lord and asked for wisdom on how to handle this despicable blasphemous display of unholiness and the Lord showed me that they must be stoned to death" I get up and try to run to Jacob but my father catches me and restrains me

"Do not embarrass us Blossom" he hisses under his breath. I let out a gut wrenching sob,

"I just want to say goodbye please" president Randall walks towards me and comforts me.

"It's okay beautiful Blossom, say your goodbyes, as my wife you will get anything you ask for" I nod wiping my tears

"Can you just flock him and leave him be?" He smiles

"Oh my beautiful Blossom that's the lord's instructions not mine now say your goodbyes" I run to where Jacob is standing and throw myself in his arms.

"Oh Jacob"

"My Summer breeze" I wail louder

"Don't cry for me, I have money I saved up in my account. My mother will give you everything that's mine. Leave this place and never look back. There is an organisation in South Africa that I was in contact with, they know about you and they will give you a place to stay. Don't be sad, I am going home and you have gained yourself a guardian angel" I nod wiping my tears

"Leave this place please or you will die, that beautiful twinkle in your eyes will die. May the peace of the Lord be unto you" I hug him tightly and kiss his cheek.

"It has been blissful knowing you Jacob and you too Paul farewell" I hug him too

I watch as they drag them out. My heart is heavy and I am angry. What kind of God who kills people for love. This is wrong but nobody is saying anything about it.

"We will announce the engagement next week, today is too dark to announce such joyous news" I nod faking a smile, hopefully I'll be gone by then

"I can't wait to marry your freckle face and have those big blue eyes sparkle at me" I fake a laugh and I look over at Jacob's mother and she is a crying mess. I walk over to her and we sit together as the crowd goes outside to kill our Jacob and Paul.

"Promise me you will leave this place Summer" I nod

"That's my son's dying wish that you make it out of here"

" I promise" I say squeezing her hand and we sit and listen to the commotion outside until it goes silent and we know for sure that it is done. Jacob and Paul are no more

NTHABELENG

Queen mother's health has taken a turn for the worst and it breaks my heart. She has been like a mother to me and we have grown awfully close in the past 17 years. The royal family has treated me like one of their own and even gave my children titles of a prince and princess of this kingdom.

"I think we should take her to the hospital, her health is deteriorating now" Namhla says we are all in her chambers surrounding her bed

"No my children, it is time I join your father in the after life. oMajola are waiting for me. Khanyisile I love you my daughter, thank you for being the queen that you are. Strong and immovable. My children never let anyone or anything get in between you. Nthabeleng soon your tears will turn into joy. Tell Langa that I am proud of him" she then coughs a lot "Mpe I love you my son" with that she took her last breath and everyone was crying silently.

"I should let Langa and the kids know" khanyi says

"They're already on their way" Mpe says walking in. We are all sitting in the lounge waiting for the undertaker to fetch Queen mother's body.

"I am going to miss her Michelle Obama's outfits and her high tea parties" Namhla says chuckling

"I will miss her lectures about how we should only wear tailor made clothes, she would say

"Imagine a whole Queen wearing the same clothes as a manager at Standard Bank" after Tsatsi was on the "who wore it better challenge" last year" they all crack up

"To my defense at least I won" the door opens and Langa and the kids walk in followed by.....I get up faster than a lightning bolt

"Mpilo!" I look at Langa to confirm if my eyes are not deceiving me and he nods

"Is this really you? Are you my Mpilo. The man who married me and gave me beautiful children. Is this a dream?"

Because many nights I have dreamt of this exact moment but morning would come and snatch you away from me." He walks closer and with each stride my heart skips a beat

"It is me, my love I came back, our daughter brought me back." I attack him with a hug and hold on for dear life. My husband is home, Mpilo is home, My love is home.

Chapter 2

BONOLO MOFOKENG

Ntsika hasn't called since he left, I hope I was not a fling for him because I already love him so much. He said that he will be said that he will be studying this side next year. I can't wait for us to be together. The fact that my mother hate him and his family is very disturbing but doesn't change how I feel about him. Speak of the devil

PHONE CONVO

"My prince" he chuckles

"I thought since you went back to your home you have already forgotten about me" he sighs

"Never my black beauty. I have been very busy, my grandmother passed away so my family is in mourning"
now I feel bad

"I am so sorry baby"

"Thanks my love, let me get going I will call you later. I love you okay?" I blush

"I love you too Prince Ntsika Majola" I hung up the phone and continue to chill in my room listening to music

"Bonolo!" I open my eyes and find both my parents standing in front of me.

"Is everything okay?" I ask because they look so serious

"Everything is okay sweetheart, we just need to have a word with you, please sit up" I oblige and give them my full attention

"Sweetie I am sorry about how I reacted yesterday when you told me about seeing the prince of Langaletu kingdom." My heart starts pounding, I hope they don't know that him and I are dating. I nod nervously

"I just didn't want you to go through what I went through but after prayer and fasting, the holy spirit showed me that I need to tell you the truth so that you understand where I am coming from and maybe stop history from repeating itself" I nod

"Many years ago I met and fell in love with the prince of Langaletu kingdom who is now the King. I left your father for him, I left my family and my profession just to be with him. He was very romantic and smooth. He was tall, buff, broad shoulders and had that bad boy aura, every young girl's dream right?" I just nod looking at my father wondering how does he feel about his wife describing another man in that manner

"One day he went to introduce me to his family but his parents told me straight to my face that they will never accept me because Langa their son already has his chosen and he can't be with anyone else except his chosen one. Langa was so angry that he exchanged harsh words with his father then we left the palace.

After what I learned about his chosen, I was shaken a bit I won't lie and started to doubt his love but Langa had a way with words, he assured me that there is absolutely nothing to worry about, that he loves me and only me and even if his chosen would come tomorrow, he wouldn't give a damn about her. He saw the doubt in me and he asked me to elope with him. I refused at first but eventually gave in, as I said to you Langa had a way with words. We eloped and soon after that I fell pregnant and eventually gave birth. His family was not pleased and they didn't even accept my daughter" I frown, which daughter? I hope she is not talking about me because that would mean I am related to Ntsika, oh my gosh!

"We lived happily together with our daughter Lerato." Phew! She breaks into a sob and my father rubs her back

"Then one day he went to Joburg on business and never came back home again. I called and called but he would ignore all my calls until I decided to go look for him at his kingdom and when I got there he was sitting with a woman with orange hair and it was their traditional wedding day. I was devastated that he went and married another woman without my consent. He told me that, that woman is his chosen and that he loves her very much. I felt so used and I started thinking of ways to avenge myself but every witch doctor I went to told me to stay clear but I was a woman scorned so I decided with the help of my mother to poison Langa but my daughter Lerato ended up drinking the same poison from her father's cup and she died. Langa was so angry that he told his seer to deal with me. I became sick, I suffered, I was paralysed, I had painful boils all over my body. I couldn't walk nor talk. Your grandmother was bitten by a snake and died instantly. I knew it was their doing because the snake that bit her is indigenous to South Africa. The Majolas have their chosen ones for generations to generations they have their own wives chosen by the gods and once they meet them, they fall head over hills in love with them. If it wasn't for your father I would be dead by now because he went and pleaded for forgiveness" She wipes her tears.

"History repeats itself but in such a cunning disguise that we never detect the resemblance until the damage is done"
my father says squeezing my hand

"please listen. I know you feel something for the prince I saw it in your eyes, I don't want to lose you."

SUMMER

Today is the day I plan on leaving this place. I packed just a few clothes and all my documents, a fading picture I have of my mother and the pictures I have of Jacob. His mother gave me a box that Jacob kept in his closet. It contains everything that he loved. I haven't had time to open it yet but it's the only thing that makes me feel close to him.

It's now 7pm there's a 8 pm bus that leaves for to salt lake city where I will catch another bus to the airport.

Medicine comes badging in before I can hide my luggage bag.

"Oh my someone is planning on running away" I look down

"Let me go tell daddy what his nigger child is up to" she says heading to the door and I rush to block her

"Please don't" she laughs

"We don't break the rules in this house, if I keep quiet then I might as well be helping you and that will never happen" I huff in frustration

"When I'm gone who do you think president Randall will ask to marry" I get her attention

"Think about it, he wants a wife from this house and people are already speculating about which daughter is he going to marry, with me gone he will have no choice but to choose you"

"Yeah because I look the closest to you" she says, this girl is delusional isn't she fair as Nicol Kidman?

"Yes and you are only two years older than me"

"Okay I will help you. What is you plan" I smile

"Help me get to the bus station before 8 am" she nods

Dinner is at 7pm I asked Medicine to tell them that I'm not feeling well, I know they don't care enough to check up on my. My bag is already outside, I put it there earlier and now I'm sneaking out the back door. I take my small bag and run as fast as I can until I get to the bus station. I look at my wrist watch and it's only 19:20, I wait there anxiously. At the corner of my eye I see my father's car approaching and I run into the direction of the desert. It's about to get dark and Utah state is infested with rattle snakes but one thing for sure is that I'm not going back there. I run in the dark not knowing where I'm going. I find a big rock and hide behind it. I hear footsteps and dogs barking, my heart starts beating fast.

"Elder Whitman do you think she ran deep into the desert?" That's president Randall's voice

"I don't know, that place is infested with rattle snakes, she will be dead by sunrise"

"I thought I asked you to keep an eye on her"

"She told her sister that she's not feeling well but my gut told me to go check up on her" while my father was explaining there was rattling noise that sounded like a lot of snakes. I looked down my feet and I saw one coiling itself around me and I couldn't help but scream.

"She's behind the big rock" my father shouted and then he came around with flash lights that's when I saw a lot of snakes around me rattling and hissing facing my father and president Randall. President Randall took out a shotgun and started shooting at them but they were too many some were climbing on top of me, some fall from above the rock. For the first time my father looked at me pained and concerned. I knew then and there that this is the end for me.

"May God have mercy on your soul"
president Randall said

"May peace be upon you father" I said in a shaky voice and I felt a painful sting and I fainted instantly.

I woke up the next morning, the morning sun hit my face. I looked around me and the snakes were surrounding me in a protective manner. I got up and looked for my bag which was next to me. I stood on my feet and the snakes made way for me to pass. I think I'm losing my mind. I walked out and walked towards the bus station with the snakes on my tail. I'm talking about more than 50 snakes roughly. I keep on turning back to see if they were still following me and yep they were. I got to the road and that's when I noticed that the snakes were no longer following me. I got to the station and minutes later the bus came. I watched as I left Utah behind and I breathed out relieved. Clearly my mother and Jacob were looking after me in a form of those snakes. That is my only explanation to what I just experienced. I took another but to the airport.

"Mam your flight leaves in 20 minutes, please make your way to customs as quickly as possible." I didn't need to be told twice.

I settled on my seat, my first time flying. Good bye America. Now my story begins.

FIVE YEARS LATER

NTSIKA

I read her message over and over again

"Ntsika I'm pregnant"

My parents are going to be so disappointed. Mpilokaise has been on my case about my chosen. I love Bonolo with everything in me and this time I will prove every one wrong. Even if it means leaving the throne then so be it.

"So even after everyone warned you and told you about your parents' story, you still went ahead and gotten that girl pregnant Ntsika"

"Not now bro I need to think" he shakes his head

I don't even want to tell him about a dream I've been having lately of a blue eyed girl.

"The Majola ancestors punished your father with blindness, I wonder what awaits you my prince" I click my tongue

"You are enjoying this aren't you?" He shrugs

"I just don't wish to be you right now" he says chuckling. My phone rings and it's Bonolo

PHONE CONVO

"Ntsika" I sigh

"Baby"

"Why didn't you reply to my text"

"I was about to text you back to ask you to meet me for lunch" she sighs

"I'm scared Ntsika, what if you leave me?"

"I won't leave you my black beauty, I love you and our little princess" she giggles

"How do you know it's a girl?" Because I can only have an heir with my chosen

"Because I can feel it baby"

"Okay send me the location of where we will be having our lunch"

"Okay baby I love you"

"I love you too Prince Ntsika Majola"

CHAPTER 3

SUMMER

"Friend you should really come with me tomorrow to my hometown. You always work too hard, just a week away to regroup"

That's my friend Mmeli, we have been friends for the past 5 years that I've been here. He was one of the people I found at the shelter that was organized by GBV and LBGT community. Those are the two organisations that Jacob organized for me and I must say, they welcomed me with so much love. They got me into school and I finished my 12th grade last year now I'm attending university at DUT currently doing my first year in biomedical engineering while Mmeli is studying I.T but he is doing his last year.

"I don't want to impose" I say

"Impose Yani mlungu hai maan" I laugh

"I told you to stop calling me white, I am mixed race"

"Well here in South Africa you are coloured" we laugh

"Jokes aside, you are coming with me to my home town and it's none negotiable" I side eye him

"Aren't you going on a baecation with your boyfriend?"

"That one mxm I broke up with him, I think I'll be mother Teresa like you and stay single." I laugh, Mmeli has a new boyfriend every week. Him and I share an apartment. I work at wimpy on weekends and Mmeli works at Woolworths. We get by just fine, I got a bursary and Mmeli is using nasfas to pay his fees. I am free and I am happy, I wish Jacob could see me now. I watch TV for as long as I want, there is no one who's constantly monitoring me. I can drink coffee, we were not allowed to even touch it. I can wear pants although I prefer dresses. Freedom is beautiful.

Mmeli literally dragged me kicking and screaming to his home town and it's the most beautiful place I have ever seen. Well back home in Utah we are close to the grand canyons in Arizona but the mountains there have nothing on this place. It feels like home, which is weird but I can never know since my mother is black.

"Mmeli this place is breathtaking" I say holding my chest

"Wait until you see langelihle park, you will be blown away" I smile and spot what looks like a castle.

"Is that a real life palace?" He chuckles

"It is, king Langa and his beautiful orange hair Queen live there. They rule this kingdom with fairness and kindness. People here are happy and thriving. Hospitals and schools here are free and everyone who works at the farms is a shareholder and they treat everyone equally" I listen as he passionately describes his beloved kingdom and I just smile. Are there still people that are kind hearted in this world?

BONOLO

"Who is responsible for this pregnancy?" I wail

"Don't you dare use those tears on us. We are going to throw you out of the house if you don't tell us exactly who is responsible" I have no way out. I have hidden this pregnancy for 4 months now but there's nothing I can do now.

"Mama le Papa I know that I have disappointed the both of you please forgive me, I promise I will finish my studies" I'm doing my 3rd year in LLB at UCT. I am determined to finish my studies. I don't know how I fell pregnant because I was on birth control but I guess Ntsika 's sperm has super powers because wow.

"Don't come with delay tactics here just tell us the truth so that we can take you to the person responsible." My father says calmly while my mother is looking pissed off

"It's Ntsika" I say in a low tone

"From?" My father asked

"KZN, he was studying at UCT but he finished last year, he is graduating this year" my father nods

"What is his surname?" My heart beats out of my chest, I look up at my mom. How do I break her heart after everything she told me. I shake my head and my father frowns

"We need to take this pregnancy to his family as soon as possible before you start showing because if we delay they will think that you are unsure of the paternity" I look down

"Ntsika Majola" my mother faints and my father has his hands on his head and is pacing up and down

"I'm sorry" I say sobbing

ONE WEEK LATER!!!

NTSIKA

It's time that I face my parents and tell them about Bonolo's pregnancy and my intentions. I knock on their bedroom door and I hear giggles and I roll my eyes, these two go on like love struck teenagers. They invite me in as soon as they are done with whatever they were doing.

"My son" I look down

"Baba, Ma I messed up" they both frown

"I got a girl pregnant and I love her with everything in me" my dad burst out laughing like a full blown belly laugh that lasts about a minute.

"You don't know love until you have met your chosen, everything else stops even time stands still instantly" he says after calming down

"Well I felt all those things with Bonolo, I want to marry her even if it means forfeiting the throne then so be it." He nods

"Son we want you to be happy but I promise you this won't end well, I hope you explained your situation to your girl because all the love you think you have for her will fade away only guilt will remain. I tried with my utmost best to make sure you never pass what I went through but it seems the sins of the father visits the son. Good luck because when Majola and your chosen one's gods retaliate against you it will be like hell on earth." I nod and my mother looks at me pained

"Langa we need to welcome this child and introduce him to the ancestors because I don't want what happened to Lerato to happen to my granddaughter but Ntsika just know that we will never accept the mother" I wipe my tears getting up

"History will not repeat itself, the ancestors will have to accept Bonolo or I leave this place, never to look back" I get up and leave and I hear my father speak

"Good luck son and come back to me when you have met your chosen" I decide to go to langelihle park just to clear my mind. I walk there and sit on the bench, I look at the sparkling pond and throw little pebbles into the pond.

"Mmeli this place is beautiful I love it" I look up to see who does the angelic voice belong to. I see the most beautiful angel I have ever seen.

"Oh my word Summer that's the prince" I get up and walk towards them, our eyes lock and it's the blue eyed girl I always dream about. My heart beats fast. My palms become sweaty. Her eyes change colour from blue to green then red, she also walks towards me as if something is pulling her towards me.

"It's you" we say in unison and just like that the sun and moon merge and becomes an eclipse. We see nothing or no one else but each other. Lightning strikes and I fall to the ground. She rushes to me and crouches down.

"Please call my father" I plead, the guy runs leaving me with this beautiful angel who's looking at me with so much love.

"What's your name?"

"Summer Blossom Whitman"

"My name is Ntsika Majola" she frown then giggles

"Ntsika Majola" she says butchering my name but in the most beautiful way. My parents get to me and uncle Mpilo is with them

"Baba I can't feel my legs" Mpilo burst out laughing

"The father went blind now the son is paralysed"

"Welcome! future Queen of Langaletu kingdom, welcome daughter of the eclipse. You daughter of the sun and moon we welcome you." Summer and her friend look confused

"Please come with us to the palace as our royal guests" my mother says

"Yoh friend we are invited to the glamorous palace oh my goodness" the guy says. My father looks at me then shakes his head.

"You can't take your eyes off of her right?" I look down and he chuckles

"I still maintain, oMajola have a wicked sense of humour, they didn't even allow you to swallow your words" him and uncle Mpilo laugh irritating me.

"Come let's carry you, tomorrow I'll buy you the best wheelchair money can buy" they laugh again

"Leave my son alone" my mother says I look over at summer and she's staring at me.

"Please be gentle with him" she says and my mother smiles while the laughing idiots crack up some more. This is embarrassing

SUMMER

We are at the palace now, it is more beautiful than Mmeli discribed it. We are served snacks and refreshments.

"My name is Khanyisile Majola your future mother in law" I look down and Mmeli whispers

"What in the name of America is happening here? I shrug

"I am Summer this is my friend Mmeli"

"Best friend" I give him a death stare

"It's nice to meet you both" I look over at the prince and he is also staring at me. I don't know what is happening but my body is aching for his touch and my heart is yearning for his love. It's like I have been waiting for him all my life.

"Your Highness there are people outside who want to see you must I let them in?" The Queen nods then she continues to look at me

"You are not from around here right? Your accent is different" I giggle

"I've been here for the past five years but...." I don't get to finish my sentence when a man and two ladies walk in.

"Yoh Ntsika not only did you impregnate a girl but you went and impregnated the daughter of your father's ex wife?" The Queen shouts and I look at Ntsika who looks embarrassed on the couch.

"And your half sister's murderer" the king adds looking pissed and the other man is busy laughing

"Friend we are watching free royal drama, let's get some popcorn" Mmeli says and I pinch him

NTSIKA

Talk about bad timing, how can things take such a drastic turn in such a short space of time. Did Bonolo have to come today of all days? Paralysis, really?

"We apologize for coming here unannounced like this but you know how these things are done. My wife and I tried to explain to Bonolo about the history we have with this royal family but it seems that she never listened" Bonolo's father says bowing his head

"And we did tell our son not to ever look at another woman until his chosen one comes because we didn't want history to repeat itself but it seems that it did not only repeat itself it also played a cut and paste situation because here you are, Mpho the woman who killed my daughter, back in my soil when I said I never want to see you ever again" my father's voice is laced with rage. It goes quiet for a moment until a sweet voice speaks

"Your majesty, this is a private family moment, thank you for having us in your beautiful home, we will take our leave now" Summer says dragging her friend

"Mmeli let's go" she hisses through her teeth. Where is she going, I can't lose her now that I just found her, I clear my throat

"Summer you can't leave yet I still need to discuss something with you" she looks confused

"Why can't she leave? The mother of your child is here, you didn't even get up to go give her a hug" my forward uncle says

"It's okay honey you can go" my mother says

"No! Please don't leave" my father chuckles and Bonolo corks her eyebrows, shit!

"Don't worry wena my prince sort out your mess here and when you done you can give us a call and we will come running, here's my number and address." He takes a pen and piece of paper in his sling bag and jots down something

"Here you go my prince, let's go Summer" the Mmeli guy says dragging Summer out

"Now let's get back to the matter at hand, ntombazana you were told about what happened in the past but you two idiots decided to test fate. Now this is whats going to happen. We will pay damages for the child and do all the necessary rituals to get oMajola to protect her" uncle Mpilo says and Bonolo wails

"With all due respect I do not agree to that" mother earth swallow me now please what is this girl doing

"Bonolo!" Her mother reprimands her

"No, let her talk" my mother says

"Ntsika promised to marry me, we did have a lengthy discussion about this and we both agreed that I will be his second wife and his chosen will be his first wife, in fact I'm the one who came up with that solution when he wanted to give up the throne all together. I think it is not fair to expect him to sit around and wait for someone that might never come" my father looks at me

"That's between you and your man we will just get directions from him and for your information, your man here can't walk, the ancestors punished him after he met his chosen" Bonolo looks at me and I look down. I care about Bonolo so much but it's like the love I thought I had for her just disappeared and I realize that it was just an infatuation.

BONOLO

So that colored girl is his chosen? She is ridiculously beautiful and it bothers the shit out of me Wow that was quick but I am prepared to fight for my man. And what is this I hear that Ntsika is paralyzed. My mother was right these People are witches and wizards. We went back to the hotel we booked and my father has been quiet in deep thought.

"Do you see the trouble you have put us in?" My mother asks and I nod.

"Please I beg you in the name of God dont do anything stupid" my father says and I just nod

"When it happens that you get to sit down with that boy and he tells you that he is not interested, please I beg you just move on because if you force things then what your boyfriend is suffering now is nothing compared to what their ancestors will do to you" I nod again but never! Ntsika must marry me. speak of the devil, my phone rings

PHONE CONVO

"Hi" wow I'm Hi now?

"Ntsika" he clears his throat

"Why didn't you tell me that you are coming" I chuckle

"I was not allowed to tell you, they took my phone so that I don't warn you about our arrival" he sighs

"Okay, how's my baby?" I smile

"On her best behaviour"

"Ntsika our plans haven't changed right?"
Silence!

"Ntsika was it her?" I'm asking the obvious

"Do you still love me?"

"Look, this situation is messed up but I will fix it. As long as I don't do right by my chosen one then I will be permanently paralysed" I chuckle

"I don't dispute that but you and I had an agreement that you will marry me regardless, that's what you said when you took my innocence. Ntsika I am not my mother mina and I won't roll over and play dead to your ancestors. You knew this day would come now my baby and I are a situation? Rather you stay confined to a chair than to play with my feelings my Prince. Get that colored to agree to a polygamous marriage" I hang up the phone breathing heavily

NARRATED

Always close the door when you have opened it because you never know what or who might come uninvited

"I think I like this girl, she will be a perfect host for me. My days of being a wandering spirit are over" she laughs to herself

"This time I will get my revenge, I will rise once again and live through that girl. She has guts and she is brave, watch out Majolas I have found a vessel and I am going to make you pay" she laughs louder

I am in my hut and my son badges in,

"Did you feel that?" I nod

"Ntsika will be the death of this kingdom"
he says

"I didn't come out alone, something squeezed out of the portal, something ancient something bad" I say

"Something with a score to settle and Ntsika with his love triangle will give it a way in" he shakes his head

"I hope his chosen is strong enough, oMajola haven't revealed her true power, all I know is that she is the daughter of night and day, black and white, sun and moon, good and bad. She is the best of both but I think her powers are stronger than Khanyi 's." I say

"I hope they are because what's coming is bigger than what aunty Khanyisile faced" we both nod

"Her mother was a white witch with the purest heart and her best friend Jacob was her chosen temporary guardian. Jacob left her with her mother's crystal ball that possesses great power, she just needs to tap into it." Thando says joining us

"How do you know that?" I ask frowning

"Her mother revealed herself to me and also gave me some of her powers, you are now looking at Summer's new gaurdian."

SUMMER

"What was that about?" Mmeli asks

"I don't know but I can't explain how he makes me feel, I think I love him" he chuckles

"Then get ready for baby mama drama because that's where it is heading. All of a sudden the prince is paralyzed, mngane something is fishy here"

"What do you think i should do?"

"My mind is telling me no! But my body oh my body is telling me yessss, there's nothing wrong with a little bump and grind" this idiot is singing to me. ,His phone rings and he puts it on loudspeaker

PHONE CONVO

"Hi may I please speak to Summer" his voice alone sends shivers down my spine

"Speaking" I say trying to sound normal

"How are you beautiful" I blush

"Fine"

"Can I please see you tomorrow? Come to the palace for lunch"

"Oh yes my Prince we are so there tomorrow" Mmeli shouts and I grab the phone from his hand

"I don't think that's a good idea my prince"

"Why not?" I sigh

"I think you have a lot to deal with and us coming there would add to your stress"
he sighs

"You are right I am paralyzed and you deserve someone much better than me and yes I am about to be a father, my life is complicated but all I'm asking for is one lunch date then I will never bother you again please" I sigh

"Okay"

"Thank you"

"It's my pleasure Prince Ntsika"

"Goodnight beautiful and I love you so much" he hangs up leaving me shocked

"Did he just say he loves you" I even forgot about Mmeli, I just nod

"Yoh" I smile myself

Chapter 5

ORATILE

My brother and uncle Mvelo are going to visit aunty Khanyisile at Langaletu kingdom, I decided to tag along. It's been a while since I've been there and with everything that's been happening in my life, I really need a breather before going back to Joburg.

"Please let your aunt know about what you are going through, she might give you great advice without being emotional like your father and I" I nod and give her a hug. My mother is the sweetest and my father is the best man I know. I know that he is not my biological father but he has stepped up and has been a great father to me.

"I don't understand why you are going to Langaletu when you are going back to Joburg tomorrow, we didn't get to spend time with you" my father says sulking

"Baba you do know that I'm 27years old and married right?"

"To me you will always be that toothless little girl who bumped into me" I burst out laughing

"I love you princess" I smile

"I love you too muntu ka Tiny" I say running out giggling

We get to Langaletu and I must say this kingdom gets more beautiful each time I see it

"Sisi now that we are away from Mom and dad, remember the car you promised to get for me?"

"You are only 19 Mncedi and doing your first year, you have a driver and body guards. What do you need a car for?" He scoffs

"Ora you dont get it, I want freedom, the huns don't take me seriously if I'm being driven around like miss Daisy hai" I burst out laughing

"Okay I will take you car shopping when we get to jozi but if Mom and dad find out, I'll tell them that you said they gave you permission to get a car"

"Deal! Thank you Ora, you are the best sister in the world" he says kissing my cheek. My phone rings and my mood changes instantly, I sigh and answer

PHONE CONVO

"When the hell are you coming back" i bite my lip

"Tomorrow" he chuckles

"I want you back by tonight if you know what's good for you. Instead of being home taking care of me and trying to find ways for that rotten womb of yours to give me children, you are busy galavanting" I don't know how many times I have heard those words from him and his family but it still hurts like it's the first time hearing them.

"I'm sorry but I can't come tonight, I will see you tomorrow Mlu" I hung up the phone before he says anything else. I wipe my tears

"Come here baby" I turn and find aunty Khanyi standing behind me, I go to her and she gives me one of her famous warmest hugs.

"Everything's a mess aunty I don't know what to do anymore. Is it my fault that I can't conceive? I tried everything, every doctor out there but for the past 5 years all

I've been getting is insult after insult. Am I God who gives children?" I say sobbing

"It's okay sweetie, now let's sit down. You know Ora you might not want to hear this but sometimes God closes your womb when you are with the wrong person" I scoff not her too

"Listen baby, I was in a relationship for more than 10 years and not even once did I fall pregnant but when I met my husband, our first encounter resulted in our big headed stubborn boy and years later our baby girl. And guess what? The guy also had a child with her wife. None of us were infertile, it was just not meant to be. I don't know your husband but the fact that he is putting pressure on you when he is supposed to be patient and supportive shows me that his heart is not in the right place" I nod wiping my tears. I went to different gynecologists and they all say the same thing, there is absolutely nothing wrong with me physically.

SUMMER

Mmeli made me change three times saying that all my dresses make me look like a church mouse. Prince Ntsika has been blowing Mmeli's phone asking if we are still coming.

"Let me put the final touch ups then we are good to go" Mmeli says putting pink lipstick on my lips"

"Isn't this a bit too much? I look like I'm going to a gala event"

"We are going back to Durban tomorrow, you need to leave a lasting impression on the Prince" I sigh

We walk to the palace and when we get there we are taken to the dining room where the rest of the royals are sitting and having lunch. The whole table turns to look at us and I feel like running away. I hear a few spoons drop on the plates but I don't see Prince Ntsika anywhere

"Summer and uh...."

"Mmeli your gorgeousness" the Queen laughs

"Yes Mmeli, what a lovely surprise. Care to join us?"

"Yes please Summer I'll sit next to the handsome guy there, you sit next to the Queen" I give him a death stare, We take a seat and they bring us starters.

"Damn girl you are the most beautiful woman I've ever seen in my entire life"
some guy says

"Mncedi if you want Ntsika to kill you then carry on" the king says

"Oh so she's Ntsika's chosen, I thought he was dating some Sotho girl from Cape town"

"Mncedi!" Another lady reprimands him

Ntsika enters in a fancy wheelchair
And the table erupts in laughter. He doesn't seem to care because he is just starting at me and I can't help but blush.

"Ntsika you can't be getting all the hot huns man, what happened to that dark beauty from Cape town." The Mncedisi guy asks and Ntsika gives him a death stare.

"Want to take a stroll with me, we have the most beautiful garden you have to see it" I nod he holds out his hand. I look over at Mmeli and he nods with a smile.

"You were right, this place is beautiful" I say and he smiles

"Aren't you tired of walking in those heels" I giggle

"It's too much right" he chuckles

"Well that's the results of having a gay friend, everything is extra with Mmeli. With him it's go big or go home" he smiles

"Sit on my lap" I look at him unsure for a second then I oblige. The goosebumps everywhere just feeling his body close to mine.

"Tell me about yourself Summer"

"Well I am originally from America salt lake city Utah. I ran away from my home when I was 15 years old." He looks at me puzzled

"And you ran to Africa, why not new York or California?" I giggle. I end up telling him everything about my family and the church, about my mother and Jacob I even tell him about my encounter with the rattle snakes.

"Wow you have been through a lot, are in deed my chosen. Those snakes are our ancestors. They protect their own." I frown

"You will understand one day"

"I'm going back to Durban tomorrow" I say looking into his eyes

"Would you mind being in a polygamous marriage" that takes me by surprise

"Are we talking marriage already?"

"Indulge me" I sigh

"I don't know. A man having or loving more than one wife seems selfish to me. That's one of the things I questioned back home. I want my husband to be mine alone because he won't have to share me with anyone else too" he nods

"I messed up Summer" he goes on to tell me about how his family has chosen ones and how he didn't listen"

"So you went ahead and dated the daughter of the woman who killed your half sister due to jealousy" he nods

"I don't know what to do, I love you so much I don't see myself loving any other woman and I know for sure that you are my chosen. My ancestors made it so that we fall in love with our chosen and have epic magical pure love. It is so for my parents. It's like they are one person if you get me" I chuckle

"And still after they told you that you went and persuaded that girl to be in a relationship with you and even fall pregnant for you, and if she retaliates then she will be seen as evil when you led her on? I'm sorry my Prince, I won't release you from your mess. I don't want to be in a marriage let alone a polygamous marriage. I didn't run away from one prison to find myself in another bondage nope" his eyes become glossy

"I love you Summer" I sigh

"I love you too" I capture his lips and kiss him slowly and passionately.

"Sort out your mess and when you have grown up then come back to me" he nods wiping his tears

"Can I call you?" I smile

"Anytime" we sit in each other's embrace for a while before getting back inside.

THE NEXT DAY

ORATILE

I say a little prayer before walking into my house. I took the first flight to Joburg. I'm surprised to find Mlu 's car in the garage, he's usually at work around this time. I walk in and step on a toy car and I look over at the lounge, there's baby's toys laying around and a baby pacifier and I frown. I walk upstairs to our bedroom and walk into a picture perfect family. My husband, some woman and a child in the middle.

I walk in and go straight to the closet that's when my husband opens his eyes

"Shit! Nomfundo wake up" the woman stretches herself only then do I notice that she's our former helper who I fired because she was flirting with my husband.

"Don't let me disturb you, I'm just packing my clothes." He gets up and his manhood is dangling around. He gets dressed and the Nomfundo woman also gets off the bed naked and dresses up too. I shake my head and continue packing.

"Baby please let's talk about this, you can't leave me." I am not hurt, I'm am pissed

"There's nothing to talk about. Nomfundo here was able to give you something I couldn't that's why you had the audacity to bring her to my house and into my matrimonial bedroom. I am happy for you Mlungisi Shezi, please don't wake up the cute baby on my bed." I wipe my tears and continue to pack

"I'm begging you sthandwa sami don't leave me, you know I love you. We can fix this" the home wrecking slut scoffs

"Mlu take us home, I'm not in the mood to listen to you and your barren wife go back and forth" I close my eyes trying to calm myself

"Shut the fuck up fundo."

"She's right, take them home" i continue to pack but he grabs my hand

"Please Mangwenya, let's talk about this please. I know I hurt you I know but I'm begging you. Give me one last chance to fix this" I laugh

"Fix what? This marriage died a long time ago when you allowed your mother and your sisters to insult me for not giving you children. Instead of standing by me, you joined them, you have proven that I'm the one with a fertility problem so let me leave while my dignity is still intact. In case you forgot I am a Princess I am royalty and I sure as hell don't deserve this. This marriage is over!" He chuckles bitterly

"You are not leaving me Ora, I will kill you and kill myself but there's no getting a divorce here. I love you too damn much. I am telling you that I made a mistake. I will fix it please my blueberry muffin" he says walking towards me and holding me. I try to fight him off but he holds me tighter and I just breakdown crying in his arms.

Chapter 6

BONOLO

This pregnancy is driving me crazy and the fact that I miss Ntsika so much is not helping. He calls me everyday but it's not the same anymore. It's like something in him switched off and that alone hurts. All the plans we made just don't seem important anymore. My phone rings disturbing me from my thoughts and it's baby daddy

PHONE CONVO

"Hello daddy" he chuckles

"How's my princess" I roll my eyes. All he does is ask about his princess and never about me

"Which one" he chuckles

"The one who's growing inside your tummy"

"He or she is fine. You seem sure that it's girl kanti don't guys want an heir?"

"I can only have a male child with my chosen" wow

"You and your family are God now? I might be carrying a boy" he sighs

"Anyway, did you try to convince your so called chosen one to allow me to be your second wife"

"No" I chuckle

"No what?she refused or you haven't asked her yet?"

"She said she's not ready for marriage and I must sort my mess out and come to her when I have grown up" he sounds pained, serves him right

"When then I guess she will settle for me being the second wife" he chuckles

"Bonolo you and I are not getting married without my chosen's consent. Tell your family that my family will be coming day after tomorrow to pay for damages ONLY" he emphasizes on the only and I just groan throwing my phone against the wall.

"Let me help you child" a voice of a woman whispers and I look around and see no one. My heart starts beating fast

"Who's there?" I ask in a shaky voice

"I am the great one who can help you get your prince and remove the chosen one out of the way. The prince will be all yours all you have to do is to accept me into your body and together we will be unstoppable" I was about to say something when my mother badges into my room

"Bonolo I was praying and God revealed to me that there's an evil spirit seeking to destroy you my child let's pray" she says already holding my hand

"Father in the name of Jesus we bind any evil spirit that is seeking to destroy what you have blessed. Your word says whatever we bind on this earth shall be bound in heaven as well. May your raging fire burn whatever evil force is hovering around my daughter right now in Jesus name Amen"

"Amen" I say faking a smile, I honestly liked what that spirit was selling but my mother had to ruin it for me.

SOMEWHERE IN THE SHADOWS

"Dammit! I was this close to getting a host but that stupid woman had to chase me out with her prayers. Now how the hell am I going to get to her? That woman and her strong prayers are a hindrance, I have to come up with a way to get to that girl. Her jealousy and her determination to marry the Majola Prince is what's making her a perfect vessel for my evil" the lingering spirit thinks to herself

MPILO

I watch she moves swiftly around the kitchen while humming. She looks so happy and thoroughly fucked. She sometimes wakes up in the middle of the night to check if I'm still there even though I have been back for five years now. It's amazing how she waited for me for 17 years wow.

"Earth to Mpilo" I smile

"I'm just grateful for having such a strong woman as a wife. I remember when you first came to Langaletu kingdom and I was crushing on you so much that I would sneak up on you at night and just wrap myself around you. I remember how Queen mother said that you are too young, soft and innocent to handle me. It turns out that you are exactly what I needed. I love you and thank you for waiting" she smiles and Pecks my lips

"You are lucky you found me waiting phela your family already organized uncle Nhla's son to marry me but Mpilokaise went all anaconda on them" I laugh throwing my head back

"And I hear you pulled a knife on them. Nxa he is lucky that he is dead because I was going to kill him myself" she smiles

"But Langa has been a true friend, he built this house right next to the palace for me because he understood that I needed my own space but I also needed to be around them" I smile

"He is my brother for life"

"There was a time he became so obsessed with bringing you home that he would fly to different countries chasing after witches and wizards looking for at least one person who can help" yeah I can only imagine how tough it was

"Everyday I prayed for oMajola to bring me home safely. It was not easy. I had to live hidden so that I was not taken to the evil king. I found an old man who helped me and put me in his stable. I lived there for years taking care of his horses in exchange for shelter and food." She wipes her tears

"I love you Nxamalala" I smile like a retard. A knock comes through the door and Langa walks in with his Goofy smile

"You are disturbing us Langa" he chuckles

"Nthabeleng!" She waves

"I'm here to watch soccer"

"Since when do you watch soccer? Take a seat and talk to me" he sighs sitting down

"I'm worried about Ntsika"

"I know, me too. I think you should sit him down and tell him about how you never gave up on your chosen even when you couldn't see"

"You are going with Mpe to Cape town right?"

"Yes definitely, I tried to consult with the ancestors about this situation and they reveal that if Ntsika doesn't win his chosen one's heart he will die rather than have the kingdom be ruled by a none goddess. That Summer girl does love Ntsika but she doubts his love" he pinches his nose bridge.

"I don't know where I went wrong with that boy. After Khanyisile and I worked so hard to make this kingdom the most successful he's going to destroy our legacy. I told him my experience and he thought this was a joke now it kills me that he needs 24hours help and now it's gone worse he is losing his speech" my eyes pop

"Yeah man, the ancestors want their bride as in yesterday and how is he going to court her If he can't even talk on the phone" he wipes his tears. This must be weighing heavily on him

"I will plead his case hopefully they will be more lenient" this boy, see his life

NTSIKA

I have lost my ability to talk now. I have to write on the paper in order to communicate. I decide to write Summer a letter. My mother has been crying the whole day it kills me to know that it's my fault. My grandfather came to me in my dreams. He told me that it's about to get worse before it can gets better then the next thing I woke up mute.

My mother walks in with blood shot red eyes.

"I feel like we failed you my son. Maybe we didn't explain enough or maybe we were not paying attention. I can't bare watching you suffer this much." I take my pen an paper and write

"You and dad did everything in your power to warn me. I am sorry I didn't listen but please don't blame yourself. I love you mom. You are my beautiful Queen and I am blessed to have you." She reads out loud then crouches down and hugs me. She is the best mother ever. I continue with the letter I'm writing to Summer. The terrible duo walk in, I see pity and hurt in my father's eyes while uncle Mpilo looks unaffected as usual.

"Your uncle here is going to consult with the ancestors and maybe perform a ceremony to appease them, everything will be okay son. I love you so much" my father says and I just smile, my stubbornness and stupidity is not only affecting me but it's also hurting my parents too.

After Mlu literally refused me to leave I decided to take a nap in the guest room. I have been sleeping so long that my body is tired. I wake up and take a quick shower before heading downstairs. I hear voices in the lounge and I decide to eavesdrop.

"Zalo kubi, she found fundo and Hlehle with me in bed. I don't know what to do now. She didn't even fight she Just started packing. But I had to threaten her not to leave me"

"Mara Mlu you don't listen, I told you to stop your nonsense with that woman. Ora is a princess and I'm sure she can have any man she wants. She is with you because she loves you. She is the CEO of Bakoena accounting firm and owns tiny beauty cosmetics company. She's the major shareholder in your company and don't forget her father made you sign a prenuptial agreement. You are going to leave this marriage with nothing and go back to a struggling business man wanna be. It's not only about your constant cheating with your employees and the random hookups but also the way you insult her and how you let Mom and Felicia treat her. What if one of your girlfriends is responsible for her not getting pregnant, women are dangerous bruh because you said it yourself that doctors don't see anything wrong with her."

"Zalo I swear if we get through this, I'll change. I'll cut all communication with fundo unless it's about the baby, I will also speak to mom and Felicia to stop with the insults. When I saw her packing I realized that this time I pushed her too far."

"Sipho" I say as I pass them going to the kitchen. They looked spooked to see me

"Hey princess" I smile, Sipho is Mlu's older brother. Him, his wife and their father are the only decent people in this family.

"I'm going to meet with my brother later on, I'm taking him car shopping" I say to Mlu and he frowns

" Doesn't he have a driver?" I side eye him

"He does but he wants to be independent"

"Okay I'll drive you" I frown

"I can drive myself thank you very much"
he huffs

"I know you can drive yourself but I just want to spoil you" I burst out laughing. I laugh for a good minute before composing myself

"Please Mlu don't make me laugh. You already threatened to kill me if I leave you so relax I'm just getting away from your cheating face for a couple of hours and I'll be back but don't take that as an opportunity to invite your hoes. There are hotels for that" I say walking passed him into the kitchen to make myself some food. I walk back and I find him right where I left him. He looks too shocked to utter a word.

"Sipho how is Mandy and the kids," he clears his throat

"They are just fine, Mandy is graduating next week" Mandy was doing BCOM accounting

"Tell her to see me if she's interested in serving her articles" he nods with a smile.

I drive to Sandton city to meet with my brother. I'm at mugg and bean waiting for him. When a tall, handsome young man pulls up a chair and sits next to me. I'm saying young man because he doesn't look a day over 22.

"Excuse me?" I'm met by his hazel brown eyes

"Damn you are beautiful" he says licking his lips haibo what's this now. I'm about to answer when Mncedi pulls up a chair too

"I see you met my friend Leroy" this Leroy guy hasn't taken his eyes off of me.

"I thought it was going to be just the two of us" I say irritated.

"Don't mind him he's here to help me pick a car" I squint my eyes

"Don't worry I don't bite, hard" Jesu mlungu! a good looking toddler is flirting with me.

"Dude don't be weird, you are making my married sister uncomfortable" he smiles and and has dimples deeper than my mom's and my mom has deep dimples.

I choose to ignore the piercing gaze of this Leroy guy through out the entire day. Mncedi finally settled on a BMW M5. I know right, for his first car he wanted a beast but I also think it has to do with this Leroy guy who also drives a BMW M6. He must be a trust fund baby. We wrapped up the day and drove our separate ways. I got home and found a car I didn't know parked in the yard. I hope it's not another hoe in my house.

"Hey baby" I frown as I walk in and I find a full house. My in laws are here. Here goes my bubble bath and wine session.

"Sanibonani" I greet my mother and father in law.

"Makoti is this the time to come home? Who do you think is cooking for your husband while you are God knows where doing God knows what" I'm tempted to roll my eyes but I just keep quiet

"Make us some tea I had to cook for your husband when we paid lobola. I knew that you are starving my son" I turn on my heels and make the damn tea.

"Makoti please sit" I oblige

"Firstly we would like to apologize for showing up unannounced in your home but when Mlungisi told us that you found out about him having a child, we wanted to apologize for how my son did things I personally urged him to come clean to you so that we can find a solution" his father says.

"My son had no choice but to make a child somewhere else, he is 35 years old even his 22 year old brother has children. I don't blame him." His mother says

"We think it's best that we honour the woman who was able to give him a child and make her his second wife." She says and I look at Mlu who's looking down.

"My daughter please know that you have a right to say no as his wife but think about it this way, it will take the pressure off from you, sometimes stress can cause infertility problems but when you are relaxed then it will happen naturally" his wife chuckles

"She has no choice but to agree, I want grandchildren" I nod then clear my throat

"Thank you my elders for your words of wisdom. I would like some time to think about this if it's okay with you"

"Of course my daughter, take as much time as you need. This is a big decision" the father says and I fake a smile.

Chapter 7

ORATILE

I'm in my office where I spend most of my time trying to get away from my marital problems. How could I have been so blind when it came to Mlungisi. I have always been a level-headed girl who knows what she wants in life. In the corporate world I'm known as a beast, I put all those egotistical chauvinist men in their place but I can't run my household. My mother taught me how to be submissive and respectful towards my husband while my father taught me how to never settle for less and how to be a strong woman. I remember the day I introduced him to Mlu, he said "baby I don't trust this man"

I thought he was being too overprotective but now I know that he saw through him.

"Mam there's a Leroy here to see you, should I let him in?" I frown, who's Leroy again

"Let him in" no! Not my brother's friend, he is carrying a paper bag noga!

"Hi beautiful"

"Hi, how can I help you" I say with a straight face

"I know how hard you work so I thought I could bring you some lunch" he says placing the paper bag from my favourite Chinese restaurant Mei Lee su in Sandton.

"Why? You and I are not friends so why the hell would you feel so comfortable to walk into my office, without an appointment to bring me lunch" he licks his lips and I take a good look at him. And he has a perfectly trimmed beard, he is more on the hairy side. He is wearing brown slim fit Chino pants and a crisp white Gucci shirt. His muscles are out to play.

"I like you, from the first time I saw you on the cover of destiny magazine and Forbes woman Africa. I know I'm younger than you and that shouldn't bother you because it doesn't bother me. I want you.

I want to know how it would feel to bury my dick inside of your pussy but it's more than just sex because I also want to know how it feels to wake up cuddling you." I won't lie and say that didn't just make my clit vibrate.

"I am a married woman, Leroy. I am a Princess and I am a business woman with a reputation. I'm sure you are a nice guy but I don't see myself dating you. Thank you for crushing on me but I'm not interested in you in any way"

"I understand you and please understand me when I say that I won't stop pursuing you until your surname is Thomson" he walks over to my desk and places a card.

"When you want to be loved the right way and body to be worshipped in the way that a princess like you deserves then call me. I watch him as he leaves my office. Bathong this boy

I decided to drive to my husband's office, after the second wife issue we never spoke and I don't want to talk about it in front of his parents who are still at my house waiting for my answer. I walk into the building. I am a silent partner in his real estate company, his PA is not at her desk so I let myself into his office. His back is facing the door and he is sitting on a chair

"Dammit Pearl I told you to lock the door. Pearl gets up and her eyes widen in shock when she sees me. My idiot husband turns while pulling up his zipper.

"Honey it's not what you think" I chuckle

"So she wasn't giving you head" he looks down

"I'm done with this marriage. I'm so done with you and your horrible family." I say turning on my heels and leave with him busy calling my name

I get to my car and drive off in tears. I don't know what the hell possessed me but I found myself scratching through my bag for the card Leroy gave me and I gave him a call

"Yeah" that's how he answers his phone

"Leroy it's Ora" I hear some shuffling

"Are you okay, you sound like you are crying" I don't know what to say I just cry

"Are you driving?" I nod as if he can see me

"Yes"

"Park on the side and send me your location. I'm on my way baby"

"Okay" I say sniffing. Moments later a car drops him off and he opens my driver's door.

"Let me drive baby" I nod and he walks around and opens the passenger door for me then he goes to the driver's seat and drives. I cry silently, he is busy stealing glances at me.

SUMMER

"Hello my daughter" a beautiful woman with an afro and blue eyes says sitting next to me at langelihle park. I don't remember how I got here but I'm sitting on the bench reading a book.

"Hi mam" she chuckles

"My name is Sunshine Washington I am your mother" my eyes pop and now that I look at her intentionally I see some similar features to mine, but she is darker than me.

"How?" I ask puzzled

"Look! my beautiful Summer, I don't have a lot of time. I need you to go back to your chosen one my child so that your guardian can teach you white magic. There is evil that is seeking to destroy your kingdom. You were born to rule alongside your husband. You and your husband possess great abilities but separately you have no powers. Take the snow crystal ball that Jacob left for you and go to your kingdom at once before it is too late. Your training must begin soon. Only you can defeat the evil witch."

"I don't understand what you are talking about, witches and abilities. I don't get it. I am from America, how can I be a Queen in African soil"

"Some of the questions will be answered as time goes on. Now all I need for you is to go to your kingdom and bind with your husband so that your powers can be unlocked, your guardian will teach you white magic. I am a white witch of salam city. I was brought to salt lake city in the late 50s. I was not stoned to death because I committed adultery but I was stoned to death because they found out that I am a witch who deliberately seduced your father. I needed his blood because he is a direct descendant of the moon goddess Rashmi and I am originally Apollonian like your mother in law. Go first thing in the morning." She gets up and bends to kiss my forehead

"I love you my Blossom" and she walks away with me shouting after her

"Wake up Summer, wake up" that's Mmeli's voice. I open my eyes and sit up.

"I need to get going Mmeli" he frowns

"I thought you don't have classes today and your shift only starts at 12"

"I'm going to Langaletu kingdom" he laughs

"Are the royals using voodoo on you? Why the hell would you want to go back there?" I shrug

"Anyway this came for you while you were sleeping" he says handing me an envelope written To Summer on the outside.

"Open it"

"Mmeli please leave my room, this private. It didn't say to Mmeli and Summer"

"Mxm" he scoffs then leaves the room. I open the letter and it's from Ntsika

"My Queen

As I write this letter to you. I have gone mute. I can no longer talk which is why I haven't called you. The ancestors have dealt with me but that doesn't bother me much, what kills me is that I met you, I looked into your big beautiful blue eyes but I let you slip away from me. I know I might not be your ideal man and with everything that is happening to me, I know that you deserve better but not having you next to me is like drowning in my own sorrows. The truth is that I love you and from the bottom of my heart I am sorry I didn't wait for you or listen to my parents. I hope you know that you are always in my thoughts and I love you forever my Summer Queen." I fold the letter and wipe my tears, I pull out my luggage set and start packing. Langaletu kingdom here I come.

NTSIKA

My uncles Mpe and Mpilo just came back from Cape town, they are busy telling my parents what went down at the Mofokeng household.

"They charged us 30k and we also agreed that when the child is born that we would like to do a ceremony to welcome her and to change her surname. They agreed to everything we requested." Uncle Mpe explains

"I just hope they won't be a problem in future. My son is already suffering for his ignorance, he doesn't need all that woman scorned nonsense or I'll go Apollonia on them" my mother says

"Mpho learned her lesson and she was very cooperative, I don't think we can expect any foul play on their side now the jury is still out on their daughter. She was pissed and couldn't even hide it." Uncle Mpilo says

"That's what you get for making promises when you are horny and thinking with your dick" my father says eyeing me. I look down in shame.

"Your Highness there's a young lady here for the young prince." The guard says and I frown, I hope Bonolo didn't follow my uncles here.

Summer walks in wheeling her suitcases. My spirit gets up from the wheelchair while my legs fail to follow suit. I sit there and watch her as she shyly drags her suitcases

"I'm sorry to disturb your Highnesses but my mother asked me to come to my home" my mother gets up and runs to hug her and so does my father

"Melo please take her bags to one of the guest rooms and ask one of the maids to put fresh sheets and fresh flowers." The guard bows and takes her suitcases upstairs.

"Please take a seat my daughter. I'm so happy you are here. Where's that flamboyant friend of yours" she giggles

"He has classes the whole week" she looks my direction and smiles shyly. I wave at her and she waved back.

"This is cute. I don't know if you would be willing Summer, only if you are ready that we perform a binding...."

"A binding ceremony, yes my mother told me about it and I am willing to do it" she interjects, my mother gets up to hug her again.

"Is it premature for me to plan your traditional wedding?" My mother asks failing to contain her excitement. Summer shakes her head shyly and my heart skips a bit. So she is willing to marry me. My mother squills in excitement. She gets up and comes to hug me. I don't know what to say even if I wasn't mute but my tears do the talking because they roll down my eyes shamelessly.

Chapter 8

ORATILE

I wake up to Leroy cuddling me so tightly. I try to wiggle myself out of his embrace but he is holding on to me for dear life.

"Leroy" he opens his hazel brown eyes and I can't help but get lost in his gaze. I snap out of it and move away from him.

"I need to get going, it's late now" I say looking at the clock next to the side lamp.

"Don't tell me that you are going back there please" I sigh, I cried in his arms and told him everything about my marriage, my cheating husband and my mother in law. He listened and comforted me until I fell asleep.

"Look, I'll order us some dinner, you can take a shower and use my clothes.

Tomorrow we will go apartment hunting then I will accompany you to go pack your clothes. The ain't no way I'm allowing you to go back to that toxic environment or I'll call your parents myself" he says with a straight face, I honestly don't have any energy to argue with him so I just nod and make my way to the bathroom.

THE NEXT MORNING

I woke to Leroy cuddling me again. I don't know when was the last time I felt this warm and fuzzy but I am happy that he didn't even initiate anything God knows I do not have the energy to fight with this good-looking toddler, okay maybe I'm exaggerating a bit. Leroy is 22 years old and he is doing honors in chemical engineering. He even admitted to befriending my brother just so that he could meet me, but I'm glad he wasn't sly about it because my brother apparently knows how in love he is with me, Not my words but his.

"I don't think I can do this" I say as we are parked outside my house. Leroy helped me find a beautiful apartment in Bassonia, apparently his father owns the building. The place is fully furnished and the security is top notch.

"Look at me baby, I will be here if you need me or if you feel unsafe just call me okay" I nod getting out of the car. I notice that Mlu's car is not around meaning that he is not home. I breathe in and walk inside my house

"I've always known that you are a slut, no wonder my son wants a second wife. You are a disgrace to all womanhood" my mother in law says sitting on my couch, drinking my tea.

"Sanibonani" I greet more especially my father in law

"Makoti you didn't come back home last night, why"

"I needed some time to think after I found my husband having oral sex with his PA." His father shakes his head

"What the hell has gotten into that boy, when will he stop thinking with his penis?" His father says sounding defeated

"Clearly you are not satisfying him, you need to up your game. Not only are you barren but you are a fridge master" I chuckle

"Well this fridge master is done with this marriage. I am divorcing your son and I'm coming for everything that's mine. By the time I'm done with him, he will go back to being that nobody he was. I am done with being insulted and disrespected, I gave this marriage my all. An I God who gives children? Your son found me a virgin so I don't have a grave yard in my womb like you and your daughter always imply but be careful Mrs Shezi, the same way you treat me is the same way they will treat Felicia by her in-laws" I then walk away not giving them the chance to respond.

I pack all my clothes and important documents, I make sure I leave nothing behind that will force me to come back. I wheel my suitcases downstairs and the devil himself walks in.

"Where the hell do you think you are going? You can't leave me. I made a mistake, that bitch seduced me but I fired her. We can work this out Mangwenya please" I wipe my tears

"No more Mlu, no more! I can't keep living like this. This marriage, your family and your cheating is too much. Let me go, you have Nomfundo and your daughter. Marry her and be happy just leave me alone" he chuckles

"I love you to death Mangwane, all the other women are just easy fucks but you are my life. I love you I'm not letting you go never!" This one thinks I'm joking, I pull my suitcases and he grabs my arms twisting them at the back in such a painful way and I scream

"You are hurting me Mlu"

"I'll do far worse than that if you won't be a good little girl and go back upstairs, start acting right Ora or I'll kill you"

"Son you don't treat a woman like that. Let her leave. When the two of you have cooled down, then you can sit down and talk"

"Stay out of this Baba, let our son handle this"

"Which is going to be Mkami, you go upstairs and forget your stupid idea of leaving me or you go out of this house as a corpse"

"I'd rather die than stay married to a weak mama's boy who can't control his dick and is too blind to see and take care of the gold that has been blessed with." I slap lands on my face followed by a punch in my face and I fall to the ground with my mouth and nose bleeding. I hear the door being roughly open and I see Leroy's Timberland boots

"Who the fuck are you" Leroy ignores him and crouches down

"Are you okay?" I nod trying to get up

"Don't get up yet baby" I nod

"You have the nerve to lay your hand on a woman. You are not a man but an animal" Mlu chuckles, and I hear a lot of commotion, furniture being trashed and things breaking. It's like a war zone. I try to get up but I'm failing

"You bastard leave my son" my mother in law shouts. I feel someone scoop me up and I just give in to darkness.

MLUNGISI

Could be cheating on me with that boy no! He caught me off guard. I'm bleeding on the floor, my father didn't even help me beat that boy up. My mother is busy fussing over me, I yank the ice cloth and throw it against the wall. Groaning

"I'm going to kill that bitch I" I say huffing

"Kill her for what? I'm surprised she stayed this long after all your bullshit. I swear if my daughter got married to a man like you I would be in jail for murder by now" my father says getting up and going upstairs leaving me groaning in pain

"Do you think she's cheating on me?" My mother shrugs

"Why is she acting like this, isn't the potion you gave her not working anymore?" She looks around

"That's why I came here I wanted to give her some but she hasn't touched any of my food and since she slept in the guest room I couldn't pour it in the bath. I also think that because she went back home recently her ancestors are fighting for her which is why I told you to make sure that she never visits her home. Royal seers are dangerous" I sigh

"I thought you said mama Sy blinded her ancestors"

"She did which is why I'm shocked as to what strong force is fighting on her behalf but worry not my son. As soon as we get to begville I will visit Mama Sy she will call her back to you. Remember we have her menstrual blood with us" I nod

"I hope she hasn't told her father yet or all hell will break loose." I get up struggling damn that boy's punch feels like it has the devil inside.

SUMMER

Tonight is the night of the binding ceremony. I am very nervous because I don't know what's going to happen. Seeing Ntsika in the position he is really broke my heart. I am in the room I was given. I just taken a shower and I'm preparing to go downstairs to see if I can't assist with breakfast.

"May I come in?" The Queen says already letting herself in. I smile and nod.

"How did you sleep?" She asks settling on the bed.

"I slept well your Highness, thank you for asking" she hold my hand

"Call me mama, mom or khanyi." I smile

"Thank you mom" she chuckles

"I know you must be feeling overwhelmed and wondering how the hell did you find yourself in this situation when yesterday you were just an ordinary girl trying to make something great of herself" I nod because she is spot on, all this is confusing

"I was in your shoes once upon a time. I was scared and unsure of how was going to be able to conquer all my enemies and live up to my great goddesses of the past" she smiles

"How did you do it?" I ask

"My husband's love kept me strong, you know baby as much as Ntsika didn't listen to us he followed his father's footsteps, by the way the King went blind as punishment from the ancestors. Langa's blindness made him stronger and wiser. I watched him grow and love me with all his heart. Ntsika will be okay, this punishment will bring about maturity and your love will grow stronger and stronger. You will be able to lean on him and he will be your source of strength" I get up and hug her

"Thank you mom, if Ntsika and I get to be half the King and Queen you and dad are then I would be content. Mmeli told me many wonderful things about you and the things you have done for this kingdom." She smiles

"Trust me when I say that you and Ntsika will be far greater than us. Look at you leaving everything behind to marry a mute, paralyzed man if that's not greatness then it is surely madness" we both burst out laughing.

NARRATED

Mpilo, Mpilokaise, Ntsika, Summer, the village elders and the rest of the royal family gather at the river bank at Langaletu river. Ntsika and Summer are asked to strip naked and to get inside the raging flowing river. Mpilokaise helps Ntsika into the river. Father and son seers chant and recite oMajola clan names. The river turns blue and spits out Ntsika while Summer is pulled under the water for some time. Ntsika is laying on the ground watching waiting to see Summer getting out but no sign of Summer. Ntsika starts to panic and tries to crawl into the river but he is stopped by his uncle Mpilo

"Do not worry son she will come out" his mother says but that doesn't ease his worry the water rises and out comes the naked Summer with beautiful blue curly hair that match with her striking blue eyes. Her skin glows as if it is covered in small diamonds. She walks confidently towards Ntsika and bends to touch him.

"Get up my chosen king" Ntsika imidiately gets up from the ground. The Queen covers them with robes.

"Daughter of day and night, may your reign be long and fruitful." Mpilo says smearing them with the blood of the sacred python of the Majola ancestors.

Ntsika walks back to the palace with his two legs hand in hand with his chosen while Mpilokaise pushes the vacant chair.

THE TRADITIONAL WEDDING DAY

Kingdoms near and far came to witness the young prince of Langaletu kingdom wed the beautiful colored girl with blue eyes that sparkle like the ocean in the Maldives. Her unusual blue hair made her look even more beautiful. She wore isidwaba isicwaya and isicholo looking like a proper Zulu wife. Her white legs looked even more beautiful. Gall was smeared over her head and she is now officially Ntsika's wife

NTSIKA

I watched as she danced awkwardly trying to mimic Thando. Her laughter was beautiful. Every man here wishes to be me, the love that is in my heart for her cannot begin to be described. I haven't gotten my speech back yet but I am happy to be dancing with my own two feet. My ability to read minds also came back which is wonderful because I lost that a long time ago when I started dating Bonolo.

She walked towards me and all I could think about was how lucky I am to have her as my wife and how I can't wait to deflower her

"Down boy" she says smiling and I frown because she didn't even move her lips

"Are you reading my mind?" She giggles

"Yes Mr husband and I still want to walk down the isle with a white dress" I look up at her and smile. She can also read my mind. This is mind blowing

"Summer your new name given by our ancestors is Nomalanga Majola, the one who brings sunshine to our kingdom" my mother says with a smile

"Nomalanga Majola, I love it mom she says hugging my mother"

"Congratulations mshana" uncle Nkululeko says with a smile and I get up to hug him

"You did well" I nod and the wedding day festivities carry on

NARRATED

Social media is buzzing with the trending story of the young handsome prince of Langaletu who kingdom wedds a beautiful blue haired blue eyes coloured girl.

Bonolo is sitting with her parents when she gets up and smashes her phone against the wall

"Are you out of your mind Bonolo this is a new phone after you broke the other one last week" her mother shouts but Bonolo breaks down

"He married her mama" she say letting out a gut wrenching sob

Meanwhile in salt lake city

President Randall bangs the table as he is watching a video clip on YouTube of the woman he had been lusting over for years. His gut did tell him that she's not dead.

He goes online and books plane tickets for him and elder Whitman to South

Chapter 9

NTSIKA

We are now in my room, the wedding festivities have died down and now it's just me and the most beautiful woman I've ever seen. She just came out of the shower and she has a long silky robe on.

"Today was fun" she says smiling, I nod, since she can read my mind I'm trying very hard not to think about the things I want to do to her. I'm sitting on the bed while she's standing awkwardly near the bed not knowing what to do with herself.

"Come to bed" I say in my mind and she looks at me then plays with her fingers

"You don't have to be shy, and we won't do anything that you are not comfortable with. We can just cuddle and sleep" she shakes her head and I frown, she gets up and unties her robe letting it drop on the floor, she's wearing red and black lace lingerie damn I lick my lips. She looks down and I get up as I walk up to her and lift her chin up, I look into her big blue eyes that sparkle like the ocean. I get lost in them before capturing her lips, I kiss her hungrily but gently. She puts her arms around my neck and moans softly. I lead her to the bed and she lays down not taking our eyes off each other. I continue kissing her all over her body I swiftly take off her underwear as I'm massaging her clit with my thumb. She is so wet already, I bring my face close to her nuna which smells amazing and I start to lick her up, sucking and tongue fucking her until she cums all over my face. I Move up and come face to face with her. I take off her bra and suck her breasts, kissing her neck, her moans are so loud I keep on muffling them with a kiss.

"Baby this is going to hurt a bit but I need you to relax and keep your eyes on me" I say through my mind and she nods, I rub

Majola right at her wet entrance for a little while before pushing myself in. She screams loud but I kiss her to hush her up. I try and try until the Hymen breaks and her cookie walls expand clenching Majola. She's now crying silently. I kiss her slowly while moving my waist a little. I thrust into her gently and she starts to moan again. I stroke her down gently and deeply, she's so tight, this is the best night of my Life since I was born. I increase the pace as I feel that I'm about to reach planet Mars. A few thrusts and I become undone. She closes her eyes and tears stream down her eyes.

"I love you so much my husband" she says with her eyes still closed"

"God I love this man" she says in her mind. We cuddle until I hear her snore lightly. Throughout the night I wake her up and pipe her down because I can't get enough of her warm tight nuna. She didn't mind each time she would give me access. I love my chosen.

SUMMER AKA NOMALANGA

This man did things to me last night that gave me so much pleasure, I can't believe I am a woman now, a married woman for that matter. Ntsika left me in bed alone so I get up and take a quick shower before heading downstairs for breakfast, I am famished. I walked into the dining room where everyone is already seated.

"Oh my gosh my Prince what did you do to my friend, she can't even walk probably!" That's Mmeli's voice embarrassing me. I thought he couldn't make it since it's exam week.

"Good morning" I greet shyly uncle Mpilo laughs.

"Good morning baby, I would ask how was your wedding night but we can see with the way you are walking that it was lit" I giggle shyly, I look over at Mmeli

"I thought you can't make it this week"

"After I saw how beautiful you were and how the Prince was dancing I wanted to come witness the biblical miracle" I frown

"What are you on about now?"

"The prince can now miraculously walk" mxm this idiot.

"Dear, when you are done eating please come with me to my room and bring your snow ball, your training begins today" Thando says. She is very weird, she always dresses in white and has chunky beaded necklaces and earrings on her eveytime.

"So you don't greet your husband" Ntsika says in my mind

"The one who left me in bed?" I answer

"You looked thoroughly fucked and tired I didn't want to disturb you" do I not turn pink Thando and I are in her room. I have the crystal ball in my hands which looks like a normal snow ball to me.

"I need you to concentrate on the crystal and think about your past pain and anger.

I think about the day one of my step mothers told me that my nigger whore mother was stoned to death. The crystal ball starts to shake and piercing blue light shines brightly making the whole room

"Good now look into the crystal ball and it will show you what you need to know" I concentrate and I see my father and president Randall in a plane taking off. President Randall has tattoo of an eye on his arm but it is hidden, I look again and see the lady who's carrying my husband's child stab her own stomach and I scream. Everything returns to normal. The crystal ball is no longer shining and the room is back to it's original state.

"What did you see?" I didn't realize I was crying. The door burst open. The king and Queen, uncle Mpilo and my husband walk in looking alarmed

"We heard you scream is everything okay?" I shake my head crying and I tell them what I saw in the crystal ball.

"What does Bonolo stabbing herself mean?" The Queen asks

"I am sorry mshana but it means your daughter is going to die by her mother's hand before being born" Ntsika's eyes become glossy, as much as we never spoken about his daughter I know he was looking forward to being a father

"And what does the tattoo I saw on my former church leader reference?" He sighs

"It means that your church leader is a fallen angel" I frown

"When the devil was cast out of heaven he wasn't alone, he had his followers and your church leader is one of them. He wants you, half witch half sun goddess half moon goddess to carry his seed which will be the Leechion, meaning that the child born from the both of you will possess so much power that he will be able to wake the dead or walk in and out of heaven without being affected by God's glory but relax oMajola beat him to it and already planted a seed" my eyes pop

"What do you mean planted a se...."
Before I could finish the sentence a huge snake make its way to me and I start to scream

"Relax Nomalanga it won't harm you. It's just here to welcome you and the little gift inside you. The snake disappeared and I calm down. This is too much

"I think president Randall is coming to get me. I saw him and my father on a plane

"That's your husband's fight not yours"
uncle Mpilo says.

BONOLO

"I'm not going to church I don't feel well" I say faking being weak

"Oh my baby maybe I shouldn't be going to church, I'll stay here with you" I want to roll my eyes but I can't

"It's okay mama, you two can go I will be fine and I get worse I can always call you.
Dad needs you today since it's the day of sacrament."

My father nods

"Call if you need anything okay?" I nod and watch them leave. I'm laying on my bed looking at Ntsika and tha coloured's pictures. All of a sudden he can walk meaning that they were making me a fool. I don't bloody care about him marrying me anymore I just want the Majolas to pay for what they did to the women in my family. From my grandmother to myself

"Unknown spirit" nothing

"Hello ghost voice" silence mxm I feel stupid

"Hello child" I jump up

"I need your help to take down the Majolas"

"You have come to the right person, all you need to do is to welcome me into your body and I will reek havoc to the Majolas. I will destroy them one by one until there's no one left" I smile at that thought

"Okay so how do I go about it"

"I can't enter your body while you are pregnant, the fetus is a pure Majola a snake to be exact, I can't dwell in the same place as a Majola" I frown

"If you truly seek vengeance then the fetus will be a small sacrifice"

"Okay, how am I going to kill it?"

"Go outside the gate I put the spear of destiny. Stab your stomach and chant these words: spirit of the most feared high ranking witch I welcome you in to my body. Then the fetus will die as soon as I enter your body"

"But I will bleed to death"

"No child, there will be no bleeding, the fetus will just cease to exist but we can pretend you are still pregnant, I can even make your stomach grow" I think about for a little while and decide what the heck

, it's not like Ntsika was going to marry me anyway" I went to the gate and saw a small silver spear and I stabbed my stomach but surprisingly it didn't even hurt nor penetrate into my skin

"Good, now invite me in child" I chant the words 2 times before I feel overwhelming, bone chilling, hair raising evil enter me I immediately see a woman standing in the garden screaming

"No! My granddaughter what have you done!" She screams with tears falling from her eyes. I feel my self being looked inside a spiritual prison. My soul is not one with my body.

"You lied to me" I say as I feel my soul being trapped

"That's what you get for having evil thoughts against people, you are lucky I didn't cast you out of this body now you will sit and watch as I kill your annoying parents. Especially your mother for thinking she can burn me with prayer"

Chapter 10

ORATILE

I open my eyes and look around, I don't know my surroundings. I try to figure out where I am but I don't know this place. I think about my marriage and my life, I just break down and cry. The door swings open and a beautiful woman wearing Xhosa traditional clothing appears and smiles at me

"You are awake nontombi. Sit up I brought you soft porridge, you need to eat to gain back your strength" she smiles warmly. She looks like she's my mother's age and has this calming aura around her.

"Where am I?" I ask sitting up and I flinch instead

"Hei take it easy my child, I'm sorry I didn't introduce myself. My name is Nontsizi Thomson I am Leroy's mother" my eyes pop

"My son brought you here yesterday. You have been sleeping since yesterday" i nod not knowing what to say.

"Where is Leroy,?" She smiles

"He's with his father and siblings. They all can't wait to meet the woman that stole Leroy's heart" oh my word what's wrong with that boy how can he tell them about the silly crush he has on me? I decided to fake a smile and thank her for the porridge.

Mrs Thomson gave me clothes to wear and showed me the bathroom. I took a long bath. When I was done I stood in front of the mirror in the bedroom looking at the dress Mrs Thomson gave me. It's not my style but it fits perfectly. I touch my busted lips which are swollen and the purple bruise on my cheek and I cry all over again. I feel Leroy's hands as he hugs me from behind looking at me through the mirror. I turn around and hug him sobbing.

"Thank you for saving my life. My husband has never put his hands on me before but he sounded serious when he said I'll leave that house as a corpse." I say crying

"I wish I got in there earlier before he put his hands on your beautiful face" I stop crying and look up at him because he's taller than me while I'm tiny little like my mother

"Why did you bring me to your home and why did you tell your family about the crush you have on me" he smiles

"I brought you here because I wanted you to be away from jozi a little bit and also to be surrounded by crazy people who will take your mind away from what's happening in your life. And I told my family that I'm in love with you not crushing on you, because what I feel for you is love. I understand you are going through the most right now and I will be with you every step of the way but as I said before I'm not letting you go until your surname is Thomson. I will wait right here for you to love me and for you to forget about the stupid age difference that really means nothing to me." I keep quiet because I don't have a come back for all that

"Let's go meet the rest of the family, they can't wait to meet" he says kissing my forehead.

I walk downstairs slowly, this house is ridiculously huge and beautiful. It reminds me of Langaletu palace but is a tad bit smaller. The architecture is amazing, the high ceiling, the shape of the huge windows and the natural lighting is breathtaking. The art around the house is amazing but one particular painting on the wall catches my eye. It's a painting of a woman in the middle of a field looking down at her bloody hands. I walk closer to it as if it's calling my name.

"Exquisite isn't it" a big bold voice behind me says, I turn around and find Leroy's replica but older. He must be his father

"It's beautiful and evokes a lot of emotions in me, the shades of grey the artist used describe exactly how I feel. The woman is looking down but yet her eyes tell a story of pain and regret" I say looking at the painting again

"That's what I was hoping to achieve when I was painting it. I call it Thembakazi" I turn and reach out my hand

"Oratile Shezi" I say with a smile

"Alex Thomson but you can call me Tata."
He says pulling me into a hug instead and I see Leroy smile

I meet the rest of the family, except for one brother who is a sangoma and is currently in his ancestral hut. Leroy has two older brothers and one little sister.
The two brothers are married and the sister is in matric.

"So sis Ora are you a real life princess?"
Ntsiki Leroy's little sister asks

"I am, I am a princess at Ngwenya kingdom." I say smiling the other brother walks in wearing his sangoma cloths, he has long dreadlocks and is just as tall as Leroy in fact everyone here is taller than me. He looks at me and Starts burping, sneezing and chanting stuff I don't know. He's now shaking vigorously, it's very scary and he is loud but his family don't seem fazed at all. As soon as he comes down he looks deep into my eyes

"Your husband and mother in law fed you muthi to stay in your marriage no matter what your husband does, they want you to be their slave and cash cow. Because you are royalty they blinded your ancestors so that they don't see what they are doing to you but your biological father's spirit is fighting on your behalf hence you keep on walking in on your husband's infidelities. You need to be cleansed as soon as possible because they have your blood of which they will use to summon you back into your home and your marriage." I am a crying mess and within an instant Leroy is next to me comforting me.

"Will you allow me to help you my princess" the sangoma brother who's name is Lubanzi says and I just nod through my tears.

MLUNGISI

I don't know where the hell she is and it's driving me crazy, I asked my p.i to look for her but since her phone is off he can't find her. He also tracked her car but the car was found at some apartment in rosebank. I am losing my mind, what if she told her father.

"Don't look so worried son, she will be back in this house very soon" my mother says patting me on the back

"Don't lie to your son Deli, that girl is not coming back here. I would be ready to sign divorce papers if I were you" my father says walking into the kitchen

"Why are you like this? Instead of supporting your son you are busy making things worse. Don't forget that you are also benefiting from that girl's money, her father gave you that supermarket because our children are married." He chuckles

"The king gave me that supermarket because he is a good, kind man unfortunately his daughter married a useless Mama's boy with no back bone. I don't mind giving it back to him, we don't deserve it after the way we treated his daughter and you mother and son will reap what you sowed." He then leaves the kitchen whistling

"Don't mind him son I called mama Sy. She will be coming here tonight. Tomorrow morning you will have that girl back in your arms and this time we will make sure she never goes anywhere near her home" I nod swallowing a lump that's in my throat.

It's just after 10pm mama Sy came as promised and she is in my bedroom with my mother and I.

"Your wife is getting help from a powerful sangoma in east London and and the man who's supposed to be her husband is with her. Why didn't you call me earlier because now that she has met the man that's approved by her late father, it's going to be impossible to separate them" my heart is pounding, I feel sweaty all of a sudden. This can't be!

NARRATED

Two white men touch down South African soil at OR Tambo airport. Their first trip is the home affairs immigration offices in the East Rand

"Peace be upon you my lady, my name is Christopher Randall and this is my friend James Whitman. Five years ago our daughter ran away from home in America and came to this country. I believe she is here illegally and would like the assistance of the authorities to issue her with a notice and warrant of deportation"

"May I please have her name and possible date of arrival into South Africa"
Randall tells her all the information including her social security number.

"Sir the system shows that the lady in question is now a South African citizen. She came to the country under the FLDS church migrant group but applied for citizenship which was approved a year ago. Because she is no longer a minor and she obtained her citizenship legally we cannot approve your request. My advice is that you locate her and have a talk with her to go back home but as a country we cannot get involved" the two men feel defeated "Can you kindly show us where is this place" they show the lady the headline of the new princess of Langaletu kingdom. The lady tells the two men how to get to the kingdom.

They take the next flight to KZN and book into a hotel. The next day they make their way to Langaletu kingdom. They are allowed into the premises and led to the lounge where the King and Queen are seated with their two royal seers father and son duo and the white witch Thandolwethu.

"Peace be upon your kingdom great king and gracious Queen I am Christopher Randall and this is my friend James Whitman we are looking for our daughter who ran away from home five years ago, we believe she is in this kingdom Randall says.

"Greetings, we welcome you into our kingdom, what is the name of the daughter you are seeking?"

"Summer Blossom Whitman" the king chuckled

"You mean Nomalanga Blossom Majola, our Princess and future Queen of Langaletu kingdom, Thando go call Noma please" the men looked at each other, Mr Whitman is just happy that his daughter is alive while president Randall is pissed off that his plans might be ruined but he hasn't given up on impregnating Summer yet even if it means forcing himself on her just to get his way.

Nomalanga walks in hand in hand with Ntsika her husband looking beautiful and confident, not the little church girl who lived in the shadow of the church.

"Peace be upon you my daughter" Mr Whitman says with glossy eyes

"And unto to you dear father" president Randall looks at Summer with nothing but disgust on his face

"You laid with a man Summer and he left his bastard seed in you. Have you any idea what you have done you evil child!!"
President Randall says shouting

"Indeed I have laid with my man, my husband and we are expecting the heir to this kingdom, when last did you have a talk with your old pal Lucifer? Is it why you wanted me to carry your evil seed" president Randall's eyes pop and shift uncomfortably while Mr Whitman seems lost.

MPHO MOFOKENG 'S END

Mpho and Sabata enter the house which is unusually cold. Something seems off but their concern is their daughter Bonolo whom they left sick in the morning.

"I think we need to pray, something is off. I hope our daughter is fine" Sabata says

"Let's go check on her" Sabata shakes his head

"Let's pray first" Mpho nods and hold her husband's hands

"Heav....."

"Oh just shut the fuck up, it's now my turn to speak" Evil Bonolo says

"Who are you and what have you done with my daughter?" You can tell that it's Bonolo but her voice and eyes are different. She looks and sounds evil. her eyes are hallow her voice is disturbingly evil.

"I am the highest ranking witch but you can call me Selina, your daughter is gone. She vacated her perfect body just for little old me to make myself home and reek havoc on those who dared me, you little miss prayer warrior are first to feel my wrath"

"Jesu....." Mpho doesn't even get to finish her sentence. Selina chanted a few words and her neck snapped. Bonolo's soul screams in pain as she witnesses her mother's death unable to do anything while sabata crouches down looking at his wife's lifeless body, he closes her eyes and breaks into a sob. He starts praying internally

"Stop it!!" But sabata continues praying until Selina disappears. Sabata sits there holding his wife's body not knowing what to do. He keeps on praying for God to wake up this woman whom She has loved from the age of 10 years old.

Chapter 11

NTSIKA

I watch him as his face changes into a shocked expression. He storms out leaving Mr Whitman behind, Mr Whitman looks confused and doesn't know whether to follow him or stay behind with his daughter.

"Blossom what are you talking about?
Why are you so disrespectful to the president of our church. You know the consequences of such blasphemy and unruliness" my wife chuckles

"Father open your eyes. That man is hiding behind the name of the Lord almighty while he is pushing his own evil agenda. He is one of the fallen angels from the beginning of time. Have you not asked yourself how come he is strangely well preserved for a man who is in his 60s. You are almost 55 yet he looks younger than you and do not tell me about the glory of God preserving him. Don't you pray to the same God? How can God talk about love and forgiveness of sin then turn around and instruct people to be stoned to death? Father open your eyes. That man is evil" Mr Whitman shakes his head

"May God forgive thy blasphemous tongue. The world has corrupted you my daughter but I pray ye find thy way back to the heavenly father's bosom" with that he turned and left. Noma chuckles

"That's the thing with church cults my daughter, they have a way of turning its members into foolishly loyal members and they become convinced that everyone is wrong while their church is the only church that's going to heaven"

"Mshana you need to be prepared because they will not give up that easily on your wife" I nod. I look over at my

Queen and have our telephatic conversation

"Are you okay?"

"I just feel bad for my fathet, he is so invested in this church, there's nothing you can tell him"

"Unfortunately he is not the only one, even here in South Africa there are those kind of churches. Some people even eat grass and snakes, some drink petrol or are being sprayed with inserts repellent. They don't see anything wrong with their actions. It's truly bad" she then bursts out laughing, she laughs so hard that tears roll down her eyes and she turns pink

"I'm sorry but petrol as in gas that we put in our cars? Grass oh no! You are playing with me" she says out loud now everyone understands why she's laughing and they join in. It might be funny but it's actually pretty sad if you think about it.

I have been cleansed and I even steamed for hours in lubanzi's hut. He gave me something that made me vomit and out came something slimy that looked like a centipede. I have heard of witchcraft but I never believed in it until today when I saw that thing come out of me. I am very grateful to Leroy for everything he has done for me. I honestly don't know what I would have done without him, my phone has been off so I decided to open it and messages from my parents, my brother, my aunt Nthabeleng and from that witch of a husband came flooding in. I decided to call my parents first, they must be worried.

PHONE CONVO

"Oh thank God princess, I've been worried sick about you. I tried calling you but your phone has been off and your husband's phone rings unanswered. I was even planning on coming to to Joburg tomorrow" my father says and I get all emotional from hearing his voice and I tear up

"Baba he hurt me" I can hear him breathing heavily

"What did he do?" I tell him everything from him having a child to him and his mother bewitching me

"Dlamini's son has lost his touch if witches can do as the please to my family. I am sorry my child but are you safe now I, where are you now? I will get the jet ready and fly out now" I smile at how my father is so overprotective

"I'm in East London Baba, I think I'll stay here for a little while because Lubanzi is still working on healing me, in the meantime I need you to help me find a good lawyer who will handle my divorce and I would like it to be very soon please I want that man out of my life as soon as possible"

"Consider it done princess, you leave everything to me. I will handle that boy, your mother and I are coming tomorrow in East London, we can't just relax and not know where you are" I was definitely expecting that.

"Ok Baba I will be waiting for you and please tell mom that I love her" we say our goodbyes.

Leroy walks into the room and sits on the bed.

"How do you feel?" I shrug

"My parents want to come see me. I'm sure they will book into a hotel so if you don't mind can you please drive me to them in them when they arrive" he frowns

"My parents in law cannot come to my home town and stay at a hotel, this house is big enough to accommodate them and besides my mother will be offended" I sigh and nod

"I just came to say goodnight" he says with a smile

"Please don't go, spend the night with me" he clears his throat then gets up and takes off his clothes until he is left with only a vest and briefs. My eyes land on his huge dick print and I swallow sweet nothing. He switches off the lights and gets into bed. The two side lamps are still on so it's not dark. He gently lays my head on his chest.

"Why do you love me?" I don't know why I ask him that but I just do, I lift my head to look at him as I am waiting for his answer and he smiles

"Well I don't know why I love you but I just do. It just happened, I remember the first time I saw you, they were a keynote speaker at the woman in business conference, I was there accompanying my mom who was being honored for her contribution in woman empowerment. You were wearing a royal blue cocktail dress with a matching headwrap. You were so nervous before getting on stage that you kept on biting your perfectly manicured nails. You kept looking around for someone but no one came. When you got up on stage and the spotlight was on you, you kept on looking down and wiping your forehead. Anyone could tell you were nervous and that's when I whistled and clapped my hands until everyone followed suit, you started to relax a bit. I knew there and then that I want this woman next to me for the rest of my life." Wow I'm lost for words, I remember that day and I do remember someone cheering me on in the crowd. I was a little sad that my husband didn't show up after he promised to come support me. I'm sure he was busy humping some whore somewhere

"What will your parents think if you marry a barren divorcee who is older than you" he smiles

"My parents are not judgemental people, they want their children to be happy and live their own lives. My mother has known how I feel about since that day. She wasn't sure about me persuing you since you are married but she said whatever I decide she will stand by me" I nod

"You don't have to feel pressured into starting anything new with me or anyone else for now focus on dealing with closing this chapter of your life. I will patiently wait for you" he says kissing my forehead and I get that ticklish feeling. I look up at him and watch his Adam's apple move up and down. I am so turned on already

"Make love to me" he lifts my chin up and looks into my eyes

"No baby it's too early I will wait for you to be ready"

"Please" I say looking at him with pleading eyes and he kisses me on my nose

"You are still hurt baby, heal first" this guy doesn't he get that I am horny. I slip my hand inside his briefs and I rub his manhood

"Baby what are you doing" his voice is now husky and deep, I move my hand up and down his rock hard dick as his breathing changes. Damn this boy is packing.

"Princess now you are applying to be fucked" he took out my hand, took off his briefs and boy did he fuck me from behind, sideways, on top, over and beneath. Did this man just rock my world? I ended up crying in pleasure. Like real tears ladies and gentlemen the 22 year old Leroy Thomson is a sex god.

The morning after the most memorable night of my life, I am shit tired and satisfied. I wake up to an empty bed and the events of last night play in my mind. I am dickmatized and I respect Leroy, I will never again call him a boy ever again. He is a man of many talents, he walks in carrying a tray and I immediately become shy.

"Good morning baby" he says placing the on the side and planting a kiss on lips

"Morning" gosh whats happening to me.

"I brought you some breakfast, it's not gourmet food but it's from the heart." I smile and thank him, it's just toasted BLT sandwich and a glass of mango juice. He is looking at me intensely and all of a sudden I can't hold a stare. I am certified gone girl, sigh!

SUMMER

"Today we're going to learn how to conjure up a spell that can freeze time" freeze time, I am tempted to laugh but I don't want to come off as being rude so I keep a straight face

"Magic works better with emotions hence I always say channel your anger which is the strongest emotion. I'm only telling you to channel your anger for training purposes but in a real fight you need to step away from your anger because it can destroy you. Concentrate and focus on the crystal ball. The spirit of your mother will show you the right words to use" I focus and concentrate

"Harder child of a nigger whore" I get angry at those words and I feel the ground shake

"You are so weak Nomalanga, you couldn't even save your friend" I get extremely angry and shout

"What no man can stop I can and so shall it be, now stop!!!" I say screaming with my eyes closed. Moments later I open my eyes and I see Thando standing like a statue, not moving at all, I snap my fingers crossed her face but nothing she doesn't even blink. I walk out of the room we were using to practice and I head downstairs everyone is frozen, even the clock on the wall is frozen. This is so fascinating, everyone seems so vulnerable. I headed back upstairs and concentrated on the crystal ball and words came to me

"As it was before so shall it be at once" and just like that everything returned back to normal and Thando moved

"Congratulations Noma you are a natural, it took me years to be able to do that but to do it in an instant. now we need to do spells without channelling your anger, you need to be ready for when the time is right you will face off the highest ranking witch and it won't be easy at all"

We practiced through out the day conjuring up many spells including how to make my own lightning bolt. I am getting there slowly but surely now all I need it to be able to control my emotions. I don't know what the future holds but I hope I will be able to fight the witch and win.

TWO DAYS LATER

MLUNGISI

I am in my office, I haven't been sleeping for the past couple of days. My mind is just all over the place, my parents left yesterday and Mama Sy as well, she promised to look for ways to bring Ora back to the house and that as soon as I see her I must give her a call.

Nomfundo came over with our daughter last night, I don't know how she knew that Ora is not home but I think my mother is behind this. I honestly don't have time for her. What if Ora comes and finds her in the house? But I couldn't chase her out. I needed to release some steam and having her around was just what I needed.

"Sir there's a Mr Moloji here to see you"
Pearl says disturbing me from my thoughts. The Moloji guy walks in wearing a formal suit holding a brown envelope

"Good morning Mr Shezi, I'm Mr Moloji. I am here on behalf of my client Mrs Shezi. This is a divorce settlement agreement, the offer stipulated on this contract expires today around 4 pm of which after that a new divorce settlement will be drawn up where you get absolutely nothing as it is stated in your prenuptial agreement. You will find that Mrs Shezi is being more than generous in this agreement seeing that even if you contest the divorce, you won't win due to the infidelities in your marriage which resulted in a child outside your marriage" no no this cant be happening, I swallow hard

"You have until the end of the day to get back to me after that the offer expires" he then exits my office leaving me in total distraught.

I look at the divorce settlement agreement and she is offering me the house, the two cars that she bought for me and 200k. An option to sell 40 percent of my shares at market value which is stipulated that I can sell or buy her 60percent shares at market value. She knows I can't afford to buy her out. I can't lose this business. I called my lawyer to have him look at this agreement before signing but there is no way I'm giving up on her, ever!

Chapter 12

BONOLO/SELINA

I walk into the waiting room dressed to kill and I take a seat crossing my long legs. I'm wearing a short trouser red suit with red sole Jimmy Choo 6 inch heel. Walking through walls helps, I get to take anything I want from any shop.

"Mam they are ready for you, just go straight then turn left at studio no.9" I smiled and got up from the chair as I cat walk into studio.

They put a microphone on me and I was shown where to sit.

"Ladies and gentlemen welcome back and for those who just joined us. We have an exclusive interview with Miss Bonolo Mofokeng from Cape town with a very sad story about the thriving kingdom of Langaletu. Let me give you a brief description of this kingdom: Langaletu kingdom is situated right at the heart of KZN, it is a hidden small secluded village with the most beautiful breathtaking landscape. It is totally independent from the government and has the best service delivery compared to other villages. It is led by the mining guru billionaire Langa Majola and Queen Khanyisile previously known as Maletsatsi Lesia. The villagers are share holders in the farming and mining businesses the kingdom produces. All the kids from that village are given bursaries after matric then they return to work for their village. Langaletu kingdom is a place where everyone wishes they were from. Now miss Bonolo tell us what information you have on this incredible kingdom" I think I will kill him just for singing their praises this stupid presenter

"Thank you Jeremy in deed from the outside looking in Langaletu kingdom is an African dream destination but that kingdom is built on blood." I hear gasps from the camera crew

"That is a huge allegation Miss Mofokeng, do you have any proof of what you are claiming" I fake some tears

"My mother was married to the prince of Langaletu kingdom who is now the king. They got divorced because the Queen came into the picture and she killed my sister whom I never got a chance to meet because I was not born yet. When my mother tried to speak up through the media she was silenced by being threatened that they will kill her mother of which months later my grandmother died from a snake bite that's indigenous to South Africa. My mother never told me this because years later I met and fell in love with the prince of that kingdom

Prince Ntsika Majola and I even fell pregnant" I break into a loud sob

"Viewers at home we are taking a short commercial break don't go anywhere, we will be right back" he turns to look at me

"Are you okay to continue" I nod

"I need people to know the truth and I need justice for my family" he nods giving me water and waiting for me to calm down

"We can proceed"

"Welcome back, we are still with Bonolo Mofokeng with a very heartbreaking story. Social media is going crazy with Bonolo's story but I will read the comments a bit later so keep them coming on #our life on channel 222, let's continue"

"My family went to Langaletu to report the pregnancy as it is done in our culture. When my parents and I got there we found the coloured girl who is now married to Ntsika. She was already staying with them in the palace as Ntsika's fiancé. The king told me to my face that I will not marry his son because they have already chosen a wife for him, he also told me that the baby I'm carrying will be a great sacrifice to their ancestors just like my little sister was. I didn't understand what he meant until weeks ago when the blue haired blue eyes Princess appeared in my home and snapped my mother's neck and took my baby out of my stomach with a snap of a finger. My father had to lie to the police and say it was a robbery gone wrong because he knew no one would believe him. Soon after that witch did that to my family she disappeared into thin air. The Langaletu royal family practices witchcraft I'm telling you. I know you might not believe me because I cannot prove this" I say wailing

"My dear viewers, my producer just confirmed an article from years ago claiming that Queen Khanyisile is a witch and killed her husband's daughter then fled to Ngwenya kingdom which she disappeared in front of an angry mob" I nod wiping my tears

"I lost my grandmother, my mother, my sister and my unborn baby but no body will believe me because I am a nobody. My father is mourning my mother but nobody will believe him. In this country it's not what you know but it's what you can prove, the royal families get away with a lot in this country" I say wiping my tears.

"Ladies and gentlemen you heard it for yourself. Let me read your twitts

"I knew that there's something wrong with that family. How can they be that handsome and rich?"

"They need to be burned alive that's what we do to witches"

"This sounds like a woman scorned to me"

"The fact that there was an article about the king and his wife years ago proves this girl is telling the truth mina I believe her and the government needs to do something"

That's the views from our Twitter fans. I would like to extend an invitation to the Langaletu kingdom to answer for all the allegations against them. We would like to hear your side of the story, that's all from me folks I'm Jeremy Meyers and this is Our life on channel 222. where we unveil the truth as it is, goodnight and God bless"

SUMMER/ NOMALANGA

We are all watching the TV with our mouths wide open. Is this girl insane. Aunty Nthabeleng is already busy writing a statement and my father in law is on the phone with with his brother who is a lawyer. The guards come badging in "Your majesties there's an angry mob outside carrying petrol bombs and other weapons. We need to vacate the palace through the secret exit because I don't think the guards at the gate can hold them off for long." We get up and grab essentials and run outside through the secret exit which leads to the back of the palace into the woods. Two H1 cars are already waiting for us. We get in and drive off. We look through at the rearview mirror and see the palace go up in flames.

"I should have struck them with my powers" the Queen says looking angry

"That would have proved what that thing was saying on TV. I'm afraid that Bonolo is dead because that was not Bonolo" uncle Mpilo says

"Where will we go?"

"Let's go to my house in zimbali"

"That won't work my King, people know that you own that house. We need to get out of KZN Langaletu kingdom has fallen" Queen Khanyisile sheds tears. She really loves this kingdom.

"I just got a message from Thabo, he says we must go to East London, there's a safe place for us there" aunty Nthabeleng announces

"We have to drive there I don't think the private jet is ready" one of the guards say. I look over at Ntsika and I squeeze his hand. He looks up at me with blood shot red eyes and offers a weak smile. I am a Queen to be without a kingdom.

ORATILE

"Thank you Mr Thomson, I don't know how to thank you for agreeing to take in my sister and her family"

My father says. Him and my mother arrived two days ago and the Thomson family have been generous enough to let them stay. We were all watching the show of the girl claiming that my aunt's kingdom is that of witches. My father was so stressed out and worried about both my aunts. Mr Thomson offered them refuge in his home seeing that it's big enough to accommodate everyone. I really don't know what to say, I have never met such selfless people"

"Please my king call me Alex, I'm helping king Langa because we went to the same university in the states. He was very kind and humble. You would not even tell that he was the prince because he treated everyone the same. We both did art history and we were in the same class. We both did double majors. He did business administration while I did architecture." My father smiled nodding

"Besides we are a family now right Ora and Leroy?" I cough and Leroy laughs

"Am I missing something here" my mother asks

"No mama" I say looking down

"Well my son here has had a crush on your daughter for a long time, since when Pundo"

"Mama why are you calling me that name in front of Ora" I giggle

"Pundo" he raises his eyebrow

"I'll get you for that" I blush

"Wonders shall never end, Oratile ojola le Pando? (Are you dating)" I shake my head

"Mama it's Pundo" I say

"It's Leroy" Leroy says irritated.

"I look at my father and he is looking at Leroy intensely. I need to stay far from Leroy while my parents are here. He sneaked into my bedroom last night but tonight I'm putting my foot down because if my father catches him. All hell will break loose.

NARRATED

Mr Mofokeng we are here to take you in for questioning" Sabata sighs

"What is this about, I thought I gave you all the details you needed"

"New evidence has come to light, your daughter claims that the princess of Langaletu kingdom is behind the death of your wife through witchcraft" he chuckles

"And you believed her, my daughter is not well mentally. How can witchcraft kill my wife when I told you intruders killed my wife" the officers look at each other

"My daughter is angry at the prince for not choosing her, she is a woman scorned." The officers nod

"Can you please make a statement at the police station"

"I'll follow you behind" the police officers nod and leave as Sabata follows behind

Chapter 13

THREE MONTHS LATER

MLUNGISI

Everything is a mess, my lawyer advised me to sign the divorce papers because according to the prenuptial agreement I signed prior to the marriage I actually get nothing except what I came with into the marriage which was nothing but an old honda and a business plan. I sold my 40 percent shares for 4 million rand. The two cars I got as part of the settlement are gone. One was hijacked while the other was stolen at the club I went to with one of my booty calls. Two weeks back I came back home and found the house empty. Someone broke into the house and took everything. All my clothes, shoes, perfumes, couches even the dining room set, everything. I had to buy everything I lost which cost more than a million. I honestly miss Ora, it's what they say. You never know what you have until it's gone.

"I need my own car, I can't be taking a cab every time I want to go anywhere" that Nomfundo irritating me, I have been staying with her since Ora left. I don't know what makes her think that she can start to demand things. She doesn't want to work or make something better of herself, all she does is sit around waiting for me to provide. She doesn't even have a matric certificate or plans to improve herself. From having a CEO of wife to having a gold digging, useless whore.

"If you need a car then get a job and buy yourself a car" she blinks rapidly

"Kodwa you are my man, you are supposed to provide for me" I chuckle

"Women out there are securing the bag. They are university graduates, they are independent. They don't use their bodies, prostituting to get what they want. What example are you setting for our daughter? Nomfundo I am not your breakthrough mina. A dependent woman is a turn off to me. If you asked me for money to open a business or something then I would understand, not a car." She rolls her eyes and I shake my head. I grab my car keys and leave, I need a good fuck to get my mind off things.

I met a candy at the club and she's sure sweet as her name. I'm burying myself inside her warm cunt, fucking her doggy style. I booked into a hotel and boy is this girl doing things to me. I get off the bed and dispose of the condom while Candy is in the shower. I take my phone and I'm met by a lot of messages and a text from my brother

"Where the hell are you? Your house is burning" that's a message from Siphho. I get dressed, put some few notes on the bed and rush out

I get to my house and in deed the house is on fire, there's fire fighters and paramedics. My heart beats fast. I hope Nomfundo and my daughter are okay. My brother comes running to me as I park the car

"Where the hell have you been?" I shrug

"Is my daughter okay?"

"There was no one in the house. Neighbours say that Nomfundo left with her bags and the baby . Soon after she left the house there was an explosion. The police have opened an investigation of arson" could it be that Nomfundo burned my house down. I sit on the pavement with my hands buried my face.

How can Nomfundo do this to me, to our daughter because that's her home?

ORATILE

I've been back in Jozi for the past two months now, Lubanzi assured me that I am totally free from witchcraft although I still bath with herbs and steam from time to time. My relationship with Leroy has been a total bliss. We spend so much time together that we have become best friends, the relationship I have with him is what I have always longed for Mlu and I to have. Speaking of Mlu, I haven't spoken or heard from him and that makes me happy. I got a call from Mr Moloji letting me know that the divorce has been finalised and I'm officially a single woman. I can't wait to share the big news with my man. My mother was not happy about me and Leroy dating while I'm still married so I lied and said I broke things off just to put her at ease, I begged her not to tell my father because he was ready to pounce on Leroy.

I make my way to his apartment. I have the keys, I know he is still at varsity because he has a class today. I make way inside and start cooking, I am planning a romantic dinner for two but Mr Thomson is going to have to start with dessert because I brought a sexy little number with me.

I hear him fiddling with the key. I run to the sitting room where there's a romantic set up with rose petals and romantic music playing softly in the background, scented candles everywhere. I take off the silky robe and it drops to my feet. I'm wearing a black thong lingerie set I'm holding a whip and handcuffs. It's about to get kinky up in here. I hear his foot steps

"Suprise!" Oh my god it's not him, it's his two brothers Lubanzi and Mxolisi oh my gosh

"Uhm.." their eyes are popped and mouths are hanging

"Oh my gosh I thought it was Leroy I'm so sorry please turn around" they both turn around and I put on the robe and run upstairs. I lock myself in the bedroom, oh my gosh. I'm so embarrassed I will never look at them again, I end up falling asleep.

I hear banging on the door

"Baby open up please" I get off the bed and walk to the door and unlock. He towers over me as I look down in shame.

"Are they gone?" He kisses my forehead

"No they're still here, they will be sleeping over for a couple of days, Mxolisi came to buy blankets for the gifting ceremony of his wife's family, you know jozi has the best and affordable blankets" I nod

"How am I going to face them after they saw me naked. I thought it was you" I say in a breaking voice

"Baby it's an honest mistake please don't worry about it" I scoff

" easy for you to say, you are not the one who was embarrassed in front of my family and why didn't you let me know about your brothers coming to your place, you know I always come as I please to your place." I'm getting angry at him now this is all his fault

"Okay you are right I should have called you the moment they called me to tell me that they are at my place eating strawberries and cream." He says being sarcastic. I walk over and sit on the bed.

"Let me see what's underneath the gown" I fold my hands across my chest and give him a blank look

"Come on, so my brothers get to see what was meant for me but I'm not allowed to see" I give him a death stare before looking around for something to hit him with, I take my shoes and throw it at him

"Get out!!!" He lifts his hands in surrender and walks out. I take the other shoe and throw it at the closed door. I breathe in and out trying to calm myself down, it's official I hate Leroy

LEROY THOMSON

"It's going to be a long nine months" I say throwing myself on the couch

"I hope you are packing in that wallet of yours, you impregnated a whole princess Leroy" I chuckle

"I started saving from the very first time I laid my eyes on her. I can't believe she's pregnant, are you sure bro? She told me that she can't have kids" he chuckles

"The Thomson sperm doesn't play, but I also think her ancestors closed her womb on purpose because they saw that she was married to a piece of shit" I nod

"Speaking of that piece of shit, how far are you with destroying him" Mxolisi smirks

"I burned down the house yesterday and today I'm organising another hijacking, by the time we are done with him, he will go back to begville with nothing but the clothes on his back" I nod smiling, message Beeps through my phone

"I'm hungry" from Ora, I know she won't come down. I dish up for all of us, luckily she cooked enough food. I take both our plate to the bedroom I walk in and she's now wearing her pyjamas. I guess I really won't be seeing the lingerie set she had on.

"Is it safe to come in" I say walking in and she gives me a death stare. She takes the plate and starts eating

"I got a call from my father's lawyer, the divorce is finalized. I am officially a free woman" I smile

"Not for long, I'm marrying you soon" she chuckles

"Don't play Leroy, I'm sure there's a decent lady in varsity who is around your age who you can marry not a divorced woman" I shake my head pissed

"Are you starting your shit about age again? How many times must I tell you that I love you and you are the only woman I intend to marry or you want me to fuck that stupid mentality of yours?" She shakes her head and starts tearing up

"I'm sorry it's just that, you are handsome and mixed race every girl's dream guy.

What if you see someone else" I get up and walk to the door

"Then clearly you don't know how much I love you. Your happiness is what I live for, everything I do even before you became mine has always been for you. I work 10 times harder at school so that I can be worthy of you but what's the point of all that when you are just pushing time with me" I walk out leaving her crying.

NTSIKA

We have been in east London for the past three months. Mr Thomson and his family have been very supportive and welcoming. Him and my father seem to be very close. On other news, Bonolo's father really came through for the family. He went on the show that aired Bonolo's story and claimed that he is now estranged with his daughter and that she is a woman scorned even said that his wife was killed by intruders. The social media was now apologetic but the damage was already done. My father's mine shares plummeted next to nothing, although it didn't even put a dent in my father's pockets he worries about his workers who might lose their jobs because of the investors who pulled out as soon as Bonolo's story broke. Langaletu is also in shambles, the vulnerable will suffer the most but my father has no plans to return as yet. He needs for us to deal with Bonolo's witch before we can go back. My father wanted to buy a house but Mr Thomson refused and said we can stay here for as long as we want. Thando and Nomalanga are training outside and I'm sitting with Mpilokaise in the lounge. Nontsikelelo, Mr Thomson's youngest daughter walks in carrying biscuits and hot chocolate.

"I made some biscuits for you" she says looking at Mpilokaise who smiles and takes the tray

"Thank you nana" does she not giggle like a school girl and she exits

"I think she has a crush on you" he shakes his head

"She is a child, she's 18 years old if I'm not mistaken"

"So? I also see the way you look at her"
he sighs

"She can't handle what I am, she's too young and fragile" I shake my head

"The same was said about your mother who was more than 10 years younger than your father but she surprised everyone"

"Yeah but it took its toll on my mother, she used to pretend to be strong during the day but when night came I would hear her sob. She used to call my father's name in her sleep. I would sometimes get into bed and cuddle her and she would cry through out the night. That happened for years. I would never want to put anyone's child through that. I should just forget about love."

I sigh

"Just because your father was trapped into another dimension doesn't mean you will suffer the same fate."

"Wake up Ntsika, this is no more our parents's fight but ours. That witch is powerful and we might lose some lives in our family. We are the next generation to fight this witch"

Chapter 14

SUMMER/NOMALANGA

I have been training everyday without fail. Thando has taught me so much but my mother has also been helping me by coming into my dreams and teaching me spells. I am 16 weeks pregnant according to the doctor I've been attending here in east London and my bump is now visible and cute. I haven't seen Mmeli in a while but we speak on the phone almost everyday. He tells me the state which Langaletu is in and it breaks my heart. Apparently some council members have used this as an opportunity to oppress the vulnerable community members. He also told me that many people have left because they couldn't handle the new leaders as they call themselves. The last couple of months have been difficult for the family especially Ntsika who feels responsible for the whole thing with Bonolo. I swear if I am carrying a boy and he also pulls this shit of a love triangle I will deal with him harshly. In other news my husband can now talk, he woke up one day and was able to talk which was great. It got frustrating sometimes when I had to be his interpreter of some sort, the Queen has been really sad since the fall of Langaletu but I know one day it will be back to its glory again.

"Mom are you okay? You've been sitting there staring outside the window for some time now" she smiles faintly

"My beautiful daughter" I smile feeling the warmth of a mother's love that I've been yearning for all my life.

"I need you to be strong for your husband, oMajola are calling the King and I home and I'm worried about Ntsika. He has so much power but he doubts himself. He allows his heart to be heavy and that clouds his mind. A great king is not perfect but he learns from his past kings, from their mistakes and their great decisions." I frown

"What do you mean that oMajola is calling you? You and father are very young and at the prime of your lives. Yes Ntsika still needs you and so do I." She smiles

"For the greater good sacrifices must be made. You and Ntsika deserve to live a long and happy life. Away from evil witches. I will do everything in my power to stop her and so will your father okay?" I nod wiping my tears. I don't know what all this is about because my mother told me that I will be the one to defeat the witch.

"Let me go take a nap mom, I'm feeling tired" she smiles. I get to the bedroom and immediately fall asleep

"Hello child" I look around and I'm in a forest. The Bonolo girl is standing right in front of me.

"I see you are hard at work to kill your one and only aunt" I frown

"What do you mean?" She laughs

"Mommy dearest visits you in your dreams but neglects to reveal the whole truth to you" she shakes her head

"Your mother is not originally a white witch dear niece. She is my one and only twin sister. The most evil woman gave birth to us and taught us everything we know about dark magic. We ruled the whole of salam until they started hunting and burning witches. Our mother was burned alive while sunshine and I fled. She went to salt lake city where she was taken in by a white witch while I on the other hand was taken in by the high order of witches in the forest of dead souls. Evil is in your blood dear child. It's only a matter of time before it starts showing itself. Why do you think the fallen angel wanted you to carry his seed? Join me your aunt, help me get my revenge on the Majolas. Together we will rule and take over the stupid kingdom of Langaletu. Even the twins you are carrying will one day kill each other for the throne. Evil is what we are child" she walks closer and I step back

"Hitis mistis rumpus" I say chanting a spell to create a shield around me

"Impressive but just know I'm coming for the Majolas and I won't mind killing my twin sister's child to get my revenge"

"And you will have to go through me witch and for my family I will do anything to protect them. Don't forget I have a secret weapon, I'm not only a half witch but I am half eclipse" I say before chanting another spell to wake me from my sleep. I sit up wondering if the witch is telling the truth, is she really my aunt?

LEROY THOMSON

She walks into the kitchen wearing formal clothes, she has some of her clothes here as do I at her apartment. I slept on the couch last night, I was so pissed off by her lack of trust in our relationship.

"Good morning" she says looking down, both my brothers are in the kitchen sitting on the barstools having breakfast.

"Makoti" they say in unison. I'm staring at her

"Leroy can you please accompany me to the car?" She says avoiding looking at my brothers "Aren't you going to eat something?"

"I'll grab something at the office" I nod

"Have a great day princess" Mxolisi says smirking and I give him a death stare. I know he is enjoying seeing my woman uncomfortable.

"I won't be coming back here after work"
she says as soon as we get to the parking.
I just nod

"Uhm will you come over to my place later on?" I shake my head

"I'm going to east London for the gifting ceremony this weekend so I'm driving down with my brothers" she looks down disappointed

"I forgot about that, have a safe trip" I nod

"Let me get going then" I nod and turn around leaving her there.

ORATILE

I watch him as he leaves me standing there with no goodbye kiss or anything.
My parents and the rest of my family are invited to the gifting ceremony but Leroy didn't say anything about me going. I get into the car and drive to work, upon arrival I find Siphos, Mlu's older brother waiting for me outside my office and I frown

"Hello bhuti" I greet

"Sisi how are you?" I say opening my office and showing him in

"Please take a seat, can I get you anything, Tea coffee or juice?" He shakes his head and we fall into silence for a little while

"Mlu is in hospital" I frown and he sighs

"It seems like karma has visited him and it's not intending to leave anytime soon. The house burned into ashes, his car was stolen last night and Nomfundo emptied his bank account and fled with his money. All this got too much and he suffered a major stroke. His left side is not working. To make matters worse he can't afford to pay for medical bills so they transferred him to a government hospital" I sigh

"It's really sad shame but what I'm trying to figure it is what does that have to do with me?" he is taken aback by my question but I don't care. Mlu and I are divorced

"He asked me to look for you because he needs to see you and apologize" I chuckle

"I'm not going anywhere near that man. He threatened to kill me and hit me, cheated on me and embarrassed me. I'm done with him and his family, no offense Siphon I just want to close this chapter of my life and move on"he chuckles

"Don't you think it's strange that everything you left him with in the settlement is vanishing, the hijacks, the arson"

"What are you insinuating? That I have a hand in whatever is happening to him?"

"Do you?" I chuckle

"And I guess I even went to the bitch he cheated on me with and got her to steal money from him right? Get out of my office Siphon and don't ever come to my office without an appointment ever again" he gets up and puts both his hands on the table

"I see which ever dick you've been riding has suddenly given you confidence but rest assured princess if I find out that you or your high school musical have a hand in what my brother is going through then I'll show you why they call me ta Siga" I chuckle

"You don't scare me" he takes out a gun and puts it on the table and I instantly shake, fear overtakes my whole body

"You had the lady fuck off" Leroy's voice says at the door and Sipho doesn't turn to look at him he's still looking at me. Leroy walks in holding a paper bag.

"Leroy he has a gun" Leroy chuckles

"How pathetic, pulling a gun on a woman. I'm starting to think Shezi men are little bitches hiding behind their witch mother's thighs" Siphho turns to Leroy and points the gun at him and pulls the trigger shooting him four times and I watch him fall screaming then faint

I wake in a hospital bed, all I think about is Leroy getting shot and I scream his name. The door swings open and the doctor walks in.

"Miss Ngwenya I need you to come down, your blood pressure is rising and it's not good for the baby especially now in the first trimester" I frown

"What baby?"

"You are 8 weeks pregnant Miss Ngwenya" I touch my stomach, I'm going to finally be a mother I smile but my smile quickly turns into a frown as I realize that I might raise this baby alone. Siphos killed my Leroy. I break down and cry

"Miss Ngwenya come down, your fiancé is worried sick about you" I stop crying and look at the doctor, what if Siphos brought me here and told the doctor that he is my fiancé and he wants to shut me up for killing Leroy. I'm busy thinking on how I should tell the doctor about what Siphos did. As I'm about to say something Leroy walks in with his brothers, he's walking on his own it's like he was never shot

"Leroy?"

"Hey baby, you scared me. Are you okay" I shake my head

"How? I saw him shoot you four times. I touch him. He is wearing a different shirt from the one he was wearing earlier.

"Don't worry about that as long as you and my baby are okay then I'm happy" I frown and shake my head

"Leroy I'm not crazy, I saw Siphos shoot you I saw you fall to the ground now here you are without even a single scratch" he avoids eye contact and his brothers look at each other.

NARRATED

Mpilokaise is at the pond situated at the far south of the Thomson's ranch. There are a few ducks floating around the pond. He sits on the chair contemplating on whether to tell Ntsika of what his grandfather Majola said in a dream. This has been weighing heavy on him.

"I see you found my favorite spot" ntsiki says sitting next to Mpilo

"It's a beautiful place" she smiles

"You seem miles away is everything okay?" Mpilokaise sighs

"A problem shared is a problem half solved" she says smiling

"The former king of Langaletu kingdom came to me in a dream and told me something disturbing and I don't know whether I should share it or keep it to myself"

"Deep down inside you know the answer to that" he pinches his nose bridge

"Would you want to know if something is going to happen to your parents or if they will die soon." She thinks for a second

"If me knowing won't change their fate then honestly I don't want to know" he nods

"You are a smart girl, thank you"

"Woman" she says

"Excuse me?" She scoffs

"You said I'm a smart girl and I'm correcting you, I am a woman" Mpilokaise chuckles

"So you are not pure anymore?" Ntsiki gasps

"That is none of your business and besides being a woman is not only about sex it's also about your state of mind. How mature you are and how you handle yourself"

"Well to me ntokazi as long as your a virgin you are a little girl but since you crave to be a woman I can fix that so that your state of mind can match with your physical state" he says with a smirk and ntsiki turns pink instantly, she gets up and leaves Mpilokaise in stitches

LEROY THOMSON

"Leroy I'm not crazy, I saw Siphos shoot you and I saw you fall to the ground now here you are without even a single scratch" shit how am I going to explain this to her, I clear my throat

"I was wearing a bullet proof vest" she frowns

"How did you know that you were going to get shot, why would you wear a vest just for fun?" How do I get out of this one

"Makoti, the Thomson family is extremely rich and has many enemies, this idiot baby daddy of yours doesn't want body guards so he wears bullet proof vests sometimes and well, luck has it that he wore it on the day he needed it" Mxolisi says saving my ass

"Okay I understand and we thank God that he was wearing it or I wouldn't have been able to forgive myself if anything happened to him. What happened to bhuti Siphos?" I clear my throat

"He ran away thinking that he is leaving me dead but moments after he left I got up and carried you out" she nods skeptically I too don't believe myself but that's the story and we are sticking to it. The doctor walks in

"Right, mommy and daddy would you like to see your baby?" She nods smiling and I kiss her forehead. We got to hear the baby's heart beat which was just magical. The doctor says it's too early to tell the baby's gender but I'm hoping for a girl. A mini Ora would just be perfect, the doctor discharged her giving her vitamin pills.

"Are you still going to eat London?" I nod, we are now laying in bed

"My brothers are leaving this evening, we will follow tomorrow, my father is sending over his jet" she nods

"We need to talk about the baby" she says avoiding eye contact

"I'm listening" she sighs

"I swear I was not trying to trap you, I thought I can't have kids because Mlu and I tried for years with no luck."

"Trap? Why would having a child with the woman I love be a trap? I hate your lack of trust in me, in our love. Why can't you see that I love you, tell me what must I do to prove myself to you" she tears up

"I am sorry it's just th....."

"What? You don't love me?" I interject

"I love you so much" she answers looking into my eyes

"Prove it" I say caressing her cheek

"How?" She asks

"Marry me" her eyes pop

"I just got divorced, it's too soon. What will our parents say?"

"Do you love me?" She nods

"Marry me Ora" she looks at me with glossy eyes

"The day you get down on one knee with a diamond ring the answer will be a definite yes" she says smiling and I smile too

"I love you" we kiss and make passionate love.

MLUNGISI

I've been in hospital for a few days now, Nomfundo stole all money. I know someone must be helping her, she's not that smart to cook up such a plan on her own. I lost everything in these three months I lost absolutely everything. I haven't seen my brother since yesterday when I asked him to convince Ora to come see me. My parents walk in, my mother has blood shot eyes. She looks like a mess

"Son" my father says looking like he has the whole world on his shoulders

"They killed my son, they killed my Siphon" my mother says breaking down and I frown

"What are you talking about? I was with Siphos yesterday."

"Thugs broke into your brother's chisanyama and shot him 4 times, he died on the spot." This can't be, my brother can't be gone.

"What are the police saying about his shooting?" My mother wails

"Robbery gone wrong, you know how useless the police are son but what's odd is that nothing was taken. What kind of robbery is it where they don't take the money?" My father is right, I smell foul play

"His wife wants to lay him to test this coming Thursday, will you be out of here by then?" I look at her and shrug. My guess is that the King, my father in law is behind all this.

"I will ask the doctor to discharge me tomorrow but I'll be moving around with a wheelchair until I heal" my father nods while mother wails louder. Later that evening one of siphos friends comes into the ward undetected by the nurses since visiting hours are over.

"Masoja"

"Mlu" I sigh

"Do you know who's behind this?" He nods

"Your ex wife's boyfriend" I chuckle

"The pretty boy" he nods and I clench my jaws

"Please tell me you are planning to avenge his death" he shakes his head

"We can't even if we wanted to. The boss says that boy is a no go area. I tried to ask what he meant but he is not saying anything. He said anyone who goes after that boy will be considered an enemy" I frown, I told my brother that his bloody gang is useless. He joined the gang to get protection for his chisanyama business but now that he needs them the most they fail to avenge his death.

DORAH

I can't believe my sister is getting married to one of the Thomson brothers. Mxolisi is a snack and a half but that's not where my eye is, The little brother Leroy is who I'm after. We met a while back when his family came to pay lobola for my sister and I have been crushing on him since then. Tomorrow we are going to the Thomson family with my sister and I must say I am pretty excited.

"I can't believe you are moving out" I say sulking. Sharon and I are thick as thieves, she's turning 24 and I'm 21 years old. The Thomson family paid lobola over a year ago but we had to put the festivities on hold because of our parent's death and Sharon's pregnancy.

"Don't sound so sad, you can visit me anytime. Besides who knows maybe we might be married into the same family. Are you still crushing on Leroy?" I giggle

"He is part of the reason I'm so excited about tomorrow. If I play my cards right then I'll be Mrs Thomson."

"My advice little sis is that you fall pregnant for him, that's the only way to get him to marry you because you can't give him love potion, his brother is a powerful sangoma." I nod

"How did you bag Mxolisi vele you never told me." She smiles

"I guess the Booi ancestors were on my side because he just fell for me. You know I once hinted to him that you have a crush on Leroy and he said, Leroy is very complicated and only his soulmate can handle him" I smile

"Oh trust me, I can handle him pretty well" I say looking at his profile on Instagram. I love this guy.

There he is. Oh this man is just everything and more. He is wearing a Xhosa traditional attire and he looks so good with his tall mixed race self. His gorgeous hazel brown eyes and the beautiful smile of his that makes me melt. We have exchanged gifts now people have started eating. There's the royal family from KZN. The Thomson family is well known not only in East London but around the world too. The father is well known for his art while his mother was the first black woman oncologist in south Africa.

Marrying into this family is like striking gold.

My sister comes to me and hooks my hand.

"Let me go introduce you to everyone" she says winking. We get into the house and her mother in law greets us with a warm smile

"My children I would like you to meet the King and Queen of Langaletu kingdom" we bow in respect

"It's very nice to meet you your Highnesses especially Queen Khanyisile, you are in deed beautiful" my sister says still bowing

"Thank you but you my dear are the most beautiful today because it's your day" my sister giggles. Leroy walks in holding hands with some woman and I frown.

"This is my sister Dorah, I'm not sure if you remember her" my sister says looking at Mrs Thomson

"Yes I remember her, Mr and Mrs " Booi have beautiful girls God bless their souls" she says patting my back

"Leroy you remember my sister right?"my sister says to Leroy who looks at my sister and smiles

"Oh yeah Debbie or Dina eish" he says scratching his head

"It's Dorah" my sister corrects him

"I was close, anyway nice to see you again Dee. This is princess Oratile my woman" my sister frowns and I'm about to explode

"I didn't know you are seeing someone, isn't she older than you?"

"Sharon in this family we don't judge people. Love has no age. Oratile is a good woman and my son loves her meaning we love her too. I don't want to hear anything about her age again" Mrs Thomson says and I can't help but give this pensioner a death stare. Who does she think she is to take my man.

ORATILE

I'm sensing a vibe from these two ladies. The sister to the bride is giving me nasty looks and I don't know why.

"Baby I'm going to see my parents outside" he nods and pecks my lips in front of his mother and my aunt. This guy though. I look over at the two ladies and they are giving me death stares

"Princess" my father says hugging me

"When did you arrive?" My mother asks

"In the morning around 9 am, we flew here" my father frowns

"You and who because your brother didn't come" me and my big mouth

"Me and Leroy" my father raises his eyebrows

"Is he the one responsible for that pregnancy or is it your ex husband" my eyes pop

"Uhm...I...h" I look down

"You can't talk now Oratile?" My father only calls me by my full name when he is angry. There's no use denying that I'm pregnant.

"It's Leroy" my mother claps once and my father gets up and marches to the house. I run after him and when I get to the house Leroy is on the floor and my father is busy throwing punches at him

"Baba please stop!" my screaming falls to deaf ears.

"Ouch!" I scream holding my stomach. My father stops and they both run to me. At least my plan worked

"Are you okay princess?" My father asks looking concerned

"Do you need a doctor, is it the baby?"
Leroy wiping blood from the corner of his mouth

"I'm just experiencing some cramps" I lie, Mrs Thomson helps me to sit and they bring me a glass of water. Mr Thomson looks at his son and bursts out laughing

"You don't waste time do you" my father shakes his head

"I want 200 cows for her. Just when I got rid of one bastard you don't even give me time to be the only man in my princess's life." Leroy looks down

"Cows are not a problem here in the Thomson household." Mr Thomson says chuckling. Leroy looks up at me and I mouth "are you okay" and he smiles and mouths "Thank you"

SUMMER/NOMALANGA

"You seem distracted today, what's the matter?" Thando asks and I sigh

"The witch came to me in my dreams and she claims to be my mother's twin" she sighs

"Has your mother said anything about that when she visits you in your dreams?"
I shake my head

"Then don't listen to that witch, she wants you to lose focus. Don't let her play mind games with you. Anything you need to know your mother will reveal in due course" I nod

"We will resume training tomorrow, we don't want to scare the guests" I nod. I decide to take a walk and visit the barnyard. I keep myself busy feeding the chickens and the pigs

"Don't you just wish we could stay here forever?" That's my husband's voice behind me

"We have a kingdom to run" he sighs sitting next to me

"Why can't we be like ordinary royals who eat people's tax money and do interviews" I chuckle

"That's because we are not ordinary royals, we are oMajola and we will triumph over everything"

"Are you sure you are American?" I giggle

"I hear you my Queen but at what cost?" I look down

"Questioning our destiny means that you question our love too. The challenges we are facing are the price we pay for our love. Look at mom and dad, their love is epic but it was not easy. They lost a lot, uncle Mpilo and aunty Nthabeleng their story is the most painful but at the end of it all their love story makes it all worth it"
He kisses the back of my hand

"When did you become this smart" I chuckle

"I'm a biochemical engineering student that alone speaks volume"

Chapter 16

BONOLO/SELINA

I have been struggling to get my hands on that man Sabata. His house is encamped by angels. I want him dead, I am Selina a high ranking witch I will not be defeated by a mere mortal. I'm in my cave in the forest of dead souls when I feel a presence.

"Show yourself" a blinding white light appears "Sister?"

"Selina" I chuckle

"You can only enter these caves because of the evil that flows through your blood, that white armor doesn't scare me"

"I came to ask you to stop what you are doing because it won't end well for you. You can still repent and do some good in the world. It has always been my wish for you to use your powers for good. Our mother died because she was evil" I laugh loud

"Oh sister, wake up. The world is evil, with or without me men will always envy each other, men will always hate one another and even kill each other. I just capitalize on the evil that is already in their hearts. Warn my niece because when the time comes and I get my revenge on the Majolas I will not hesitate to kill her"

"But they have a secret weapon sister, they have a demi god in their midst and trust me sister, he is more powerful than you." I frown

"Impossible!" She chuckles

"Fate has brought him right to the Majolas. He wines and dines with them. Soon he will be fighting side by side with your enemies. Choose your battles wisely dear sister" she says disappearing. What is so special about these majolas? This is frustrating.

ORATILE

My parents left this morning, my father was disappointed at me for not taking enough time to heal after the divorce but he said what is done is done. My mother on the other hand was very happy that I am finally going to make her a glam mother as she puts it. She says she has a very good feeling about Leroy unlike Mlu. My mother never liked him and she was very blunt about it. My man walks in holding a tray full of goodies. Isn't he the best?

"You are spoiling me baby" I say with the biggest smile on my face

"You deserve it"

"I should be the one catering to you after the beating you got from my dad" he chuckles.

"I knew he was going to beat me up but I wish you could have given me a heads up before telling him"

"My mother is the one who snitched on me, I was planning to tell them after the first trimester but yoh tiny saw right through me" he smiles

"Thank you for faking being in pain or I would have been in ICU by now" I giggle

"Anything for you baby daddy" he laughs so beautifully, I can't get over how handsome this guy is, dammit! and he is all mine.

I just woke up from my nap, all I do is eat and sleep. I swear this pregnancy is making me so lazy, it's only the first trimester but I'm always tired and sleepy. Leroy and I decided to stay two more days. I honestly love this place, my baby promised to take me horse riding as soon as I wake up from my nap. I'm going to make a quick snack first. I walk out the room closing the door, as soon as I turn I almost bump into one of those girls from yesterday, I think her name is Dorah.

"Oh sorry I almost bumped into you" I say with a smile and she gives me a death stare

"Isgogwane esi nje ngawe sifunani ebantwaneni? What does a cougar like you want from children?" I chuckle

"Oh honey Leroy is not a child, he's a man" she sizes me up

"Is that why you trapped him with a baby?" I decide to keep quiet and walk past her not because I can't answer but I don't want to stoop to her level.

"I'm talking to you Gogo" I still ignore her and I reach the stairs

"Let's see if he will still love you if you lose that pregnancy" and I turn to face her but she pushes me with so much force I try hard to balance but I can't, I roll down the stairs. I place my hands on my stomach trying to protect my baby. I hit my head hard and it's lights out for me.

LEROY THOMSON

"Those were some mean punches" my father says sitting next to me. I'm sitting on the bench near the pond feeding the ducks.

"I didn't even feel a thing" he chuckles

"Are you going to tell her the truth" I sigh

"Maybe I'll come clean after she gives birth." He nods

"My mother has been coming to me in my dreams, she wants me to help the Majolas" he smiles

"Lubanzi told me" i nod

"Do you think she will understand?"

"She's carrying a mini you, she has to understand. Son you are a good man. I am very proud of you and I now my sister is proud of you too." I close my eyes remembering the day I lost my mother

"I still wish I had done more to save her, what is the point of having all these powers if I can't use them to save those who are close to me" he sighs

"Your mother's destiny was written by her own hand. Now that you are about to become a father, you will understand."

"Can you send a letter to the Ngwenyas?"
He laughs

"So eager Thomson" I smile

"My mother confirmed that she is my soulmate" he nods

"Your brother told me about her seeing you get shot" I sigh

"I told her I had on a bullet proof vest"

"And she believed that?" I chuck

"Mxolisi is very convincing"

"Damn right I am" Mxolisi says from behind, he joins us on the bench

"Keep your sister in law away from me"
he laughs

"Dorah is harmless it's just a little crush that will fade away"

"but I don't need her giving my woman nasty looks" this idiot laughs. We hear a loud scream coming from the house and we rush into the house only to find Ora laying on the bottom of the stairs motionless. My mother is the one attending to her.

"What happened" I ask trying not to panic

"She fell and rolled down the stairs, I was coming from the kitchen when I heard her screaming, I think she hit her head. Let's take her to the hospital" my mother says wiping her tears

"Let me try to heal her first"

"Leroy she is pregnant, we need to go to the doctor first. You can try to heal her as soon as we find out if the fetus is okay" Lubanzi says and I nod swallowing a lump in my throat. I pick her up bridal style taking her to the car. I wonder what happened.

DORAH

What have I done? I am pacing up and down the passage. I hear Leroy asking what happened and him healing her. I didn't know he is a sangoma too. My palms are sweaty, I hope she dies. I decide to go to my room and pray to the Booi ancestors to come through for me. My sister barges into the my room.

"Tell me you had nothing to do with that bitche's fall" I look down

"Dammit Dorah!" I wipe my tears

"I just got angry at the way she was ignoring me." She scoffs

"I told you that we will come up with a way to get rid of her once and for all" I scoff

"Did she see that you are the one who pushed her" I nod

"We had an argument before I pushed her." She sighs

"You better pray that she doesn't wake up because when she wakes up and tells them what happened. They're going to hate you and I will have to cut all ties with you, loyalty is everything in this family" I swallow hard, that bitch better die.

NARRATED

Leroy gets to the hospital Mr and Mrs Thomson are with him. He screams for the doctors to help. Tears and snot are all that's visible in his pink face. They attend Oratile as they wait in the waiting room. Mxolisi and Sharon walk in followed by Lubanzi, his wife Lumka and the Majolas.

"Have you heard anything yet little bro?" Lubanzi asks, Leroy shakes his head

"Let's hope she doesn't die" Sharon says and Leroy gives her a death stare

The doctor walks calling the family

"I'm Doctor Oliphant. Miss Ngwenya is critical but stable. We did a CAT scan which shows that she hit her head hard. She might suffer from severe migraines or worst case scenario could be memory loss. She also has a broken leg and a dislocated shoulder. We have put her on an induced coma so that her boy can heal without putting strain on her pregnancy. The baby's heart beat is still fine but it's too early to talk if the fetus will survive" the room falls into silence.

"Can we see her?"

"I can only allow one person and only for a few minutes." The doctor says walking away.

"Be strong son" Leroy nods following the doctor, in the meantime Dorah and share looks. They both hope that she at least suffers from amnesia if not death.

MLUNGISI

Burying my brother was the most painful thing ever, knowing that he was killed and there's no justice for him is enough to drive me crazy. I want that pretty boy's head on a silver platter. I want to hear him scream in excruciating pain. So he is a tough guy huh? I remember when he came to my house and fought me for my wife. That boy is really disrespectful and I think he is part of a gang, that's why he thinks he can do as he pleases plus the fact that he is rich. I decided to visit the gang leader and find out as much information as possible about this Leroy guy, then I can deal with him my own way. I park my brother's car at the famous car wash in diepkloof, that's where the gang leader apparently spends most of his time. I struggle a bit with my walking stick but I manage. The stares I'm getting are pissing me off but there's nothing I can do.

"Heita" I greet some scary looking guy who is smoking.

"I'm looking for Ta zakes" he sizes me up

"You are you?"

"I'm ta Siga 's little brother" he nods and gestures me to follow him. He gets to some old man, old enough to be my father's age. He whispers to the man's ears before turning to me.

"Sit down" the man says with a coarse voice

"How can I help you young man?"

"My brother was murdered by a young man who's now still walking around as if my brother wasn't part of the most feared gang?" He sighs

"I will tell you this because your brother was a good soldier to me. That boy saved my life. I know you won't believe what I'm about to tell you but it's true, I was renting at one of his father's apartments trying to lay low after I killed another gang leader's brother, they found my location and came after me with guns blazing. I don't know how but he took 28 bullets for me. Now I know this might sound like a lie and I can't explain why he didn't die but all I know is that he shielded me until my gang members came to kill the other gang. I made a promise to him that he will always be protected by my gang." I chuckle, this man thinks I'm a fool neh but anyway it's fine I will let it slide.

I just arrived at my brother's house, my parents haven't left yet. My mother is a mess.

"I asked Mama Sy to perform a ritual on your brother's corpse so that he can get his own revenge on whoever did this" I nod

"That's a good idea I don't know why didn't I think of that" she sighs

"She says the person who killed him is not entirely human so he won't be able to haunt him" I frown

"I don't understand" she chuckles

"I think mama Sy is losing her powers son, everytime I talk about bewitching Oratile or getting justice for your brother, she has excuses." Now I'm confused, that Leroy is not only a bullet proof monk but he is also not human? Something is not right here.

SUMMER

I'm sitting at the beach, watching the waves as I indulge on the ripest mango. I rub my tummy and I look up as Ntsika runs to me carrying two boys, who are laughing and playing together.

"Mommy!" They shout in unison

"My babies" Ntsika comes to sit next to me and rubs my tummy

"I love you mkami" I blush and kiss him. All of a sudden I hear screaming, we break the kiss and we find one of the twin boys holding a big rock and bashing his brother's head with it. Blood is splashing everywhere but he doesn't care. I get up to run to them but for some reason they are out of reach. I'm running but I can't get to them. I am a crying mess. Then out of nowhere the witch appears laughing.

"Evil runs in their blood, they are bound to kill each other for the throne." She laughs.

"What's that sound?" She asks getting annoyed

"Baby, wake up your phone is ringing" that's my husband's voice. I get up and grab the phone answering it

PHONE CONVERSATION

"I've been trying to get ahold of you kanti where the hell are you royals" that's Mmeli's voice

"Hey friend"

"Don't hey friend me, come back home, the kingdom is suffering" I press the loud speaker button

"I don't know when will we be able to come back, we are still to hear from the King and Queen." He sighs

"My mother is thinking of moving, the crops are dead, all the farm animals are gone. Now there's a plague that seems to be reeking havoc, the people of Langaletu kingdom even went to radio stations to plead with the king and Queen to return." I look over at Ntsika and he shrugs

"Yoh Summer this place is like a ghost town, even those council members who tried to take over the Kingdom were striked dead by thunder."

"That's hectic friend and thank you for letting us know. I will let the king know." We talk some more until we hang up. I sigh and look over at Ntsika

"I think I'm carrying twins" he frowns

"I keep on dreaming of two boys, one kills the other by bashing his head with a rock."

"The doctor hasn't detected that you are carrying twins right?" He says getting into bed and cuddling me"

"Yeah but babies hide from the soner machines all the time. What if I really give birth to twins and they end up killing each other?"

"We will have to ask Mpilo to consult with the ancestors. Please don't stress about it, it could be what the witch told you and now you are projecting it into your dreams." He might be right

"You are not evil My beautiful Summer Queen. You are kind, loving and very humble. If indeed you are carrying twins they will have that part of you inside them" he says before capturing my lips with a sultry kiss.

"I love you"

LEROY THOMSON

I take her warm hand into mine. She looks so peaceful and beautiful, this woman is my everything and she just has not idea how deep is my love for her. There are things that I'm keeping from her not because I don't love her but I am afraid that I will scare her off. I just hope when the time is right and she gets to learn the truth about me, that she will be able to look past everything else and just see me for me and not what I was born as.

"She's beautiful"

"Father, what are you doing here?" He walks closer and touches Ora's forehead

"She was pushed" I frown

"What do you mean she was pushed?"

"Someone in your house is seeking to destroy my daughter in law, keep her on her leash or I will kill her. She almost killed my grandson because of jealousy." I nod

"As much as I wanted to see my daughter in law, I am here on a more pressing matter" I chuckle

"I knew it, is the council seeking my presence again? You know I hate that place. It's hot and humid." He shakes his head

"The serpent goddess needs your help" I frown

"Medusa?" He nods

"I'm listening"

"The Majola family must be protected at all cost. I will be sending your half brother in due course to help you. Selina and the order of witches are gathering an army against the Majolas" I chuckle

"Mere mortals? What have they done to piss off a whole fleet of witches"

"Apollonia did the impossible and almost got away with it. She almost defeated Selina, if Selina didn't think fast and opened a portal she would have perished. You must know that Selina is a high ranking witch and if the Majolas and a descendant of a sun god Apollo can do this then surely darkness can be defeated..the witches council is on edge now and they want to make an example by killing Langa and Khanyisile. That's where you and your brother Remi come in." I smirk

"I look forward to an epic battle. I haven't had those since I was 16 years old when we defeated the cronomites" he laughs

"Your mother was so pissed, she wanted to kill me. If I wasn't immortal I would be history by now" we fall into silence, he knows my mother's topic is still very sensitive to me.

"I miss her too" I chuckle

"That's the price she paid for loving a Greek god" he looks down

"I don't regret falling in love with a human" I know I can never question his love for my mother

"Because she gave me you Leroy, even though you decided to betray me and look like your mother and her brother" he says chuckling

"I love you too Harold" he laughs

"I'll get you for disrespecting me, take care of my beautiful daughter in law and kill those sisters, your cousin will get a new wife" I shake my head

"He is my brother Harold not my cousin" he laughs then disappears.

"Hi" I look over and find Ora staring at me, did she just open her eyes or did she hear my father and I taking?

"Hey baby you are awake?" She nods

"Water please" I rush to the tap and get her a glass of water and help her drink it

"Are you okay?" She nods

"The baby" she's panicking

"The baby is fine" she nods

"I heard voices, were you talking to the doctor?" I nod

"Tell me the truth, is my baby okay?" I smile

"Our baby is just fine. Do you remember what happened" she nods with glossy eyes

"She wanted to kill my baby, the hate in her eyes send shivers down my spine. I think she's obsessed with you" I nod

"I will fix it my love" I say bending over and kissing her dry cracked lips.

DORAH

"Leroy just called, Oratile is awake" Mxolisi says entering the kitchen. My sister and I are busy making lunch"

"That's great news baby, pity Dorah is going home just now, she wanted to see Ora" I frown looking at my sister then I look at Mxolisi faking a smile

"Yeah I need to prepare for an exam. I'm writing on Tuesday" he nods

"We will drop you off on our way to the hospital" I nod. He exits the kitchen, I wait a little while before turning to my sister

"Are you chasing me away now?" She shakes her head

"What part of Oratile is awake didn't you hear? She must have told Leroy what happened by now, I want you to pack and go back to res until I tell you that it's okay to come back. Don't go home Dorah" I nod wiping my tears.

"I will give you money to take the bus to UCT. Leroy has the meanest temper amongst the brothers so I suggest you do as I tell you. If indeed that witch snitched on you, I want you very far from the Thomson's wrath. In the meantime I will work on breaking sugar mama and her Ben 10 up." I smile, I know my sister always has my back.

SUMMER

I think I am ready, I have learned all that I could learn. Thando has been amazing and I am happy with how she has diligently trained me. I haven't encountered my mother in my dreams of late but I always feel her spirit whenever I use the crystal ball.

"I spoke to my father, construction is underway in Langaletu kingdom. He is rebuilding the palace and Alex is the one in charge of the architectural design of the palace"

"Wow baby that's wonderful news, Mmeli will get off my back" he chuckles

"He means well" I take his hand and place it on my tummy

"Wow such strong kicks" I smile

"Are the Thomsons back yet from the hospital?" Before he could answer we feel the ground shake all of a sudden and we frown looking at each other

"Did you feel that?" Yeah we get up and run downstairs only to find a tall man and woman wearing all black with long nails strangling the King. And the other woman is on top of mom who is fighting her off

"Motus hutis" I chant a spell directed at the woman on top of mom and she coughs getting off her. The king lifts his hand and scepter shaped as a snake appears. The man is pulled by a huge snake. The king falls to the ground coughing. I run to the mom while Ntsika runs to his father.

"Not bad daughter of Sunshine" the woman says then she opens her mouth and screams. We close our ears as everything that is glass breaks. I instruct Ntsika to bring his father close and I chant a shield spell. The woman stops and laughs

"That won't protect you for long" she chants a spell and the barrier around us breaks. Mom opens an umbrella and shields us again. The man chants another spell but the barrier seems strong.

"You can't hide in there forever, we are here for Apollonia 's head

"You will have to go through me first" dammit what is Leroy doing here?

"Little boy, you are too young to die. Run a....." He doesn't get to finish the sentence when Leroy pulls out a fiery sword and sways it separating his head from his body. The flaming fiery sword disappears into his body, I am shocked and so is everyone.

"Brother!!!! Impossible! A Demi god? The woman screams, She chants a spell and they both disappear.

"Are you guys okay?" We nod as mom closes her umbrella.

"Who are those two and what did they mean that they want my wife's head?"
The king roars in anger

"I'm afraid great King that your wife here pissed off the order of witches when she almost defeated the high ranked witch"

Leroy says and I frown

"How do you know that and what are you, where's the sword you used?" He chuckles

"So many questions my princess, I am Leroy Thomson" he says walking away. Thando and Mpilokaise walk in and stop on their tracks when they see the mess

"White witch,.my family is in the car including my pregnant wife to be so please fix this mess." Leroy says leaving us dumbfounded

"What happened in here?" I sigh

"Long story. As it were before so shall it be" I say chanting a spell and fix everything to its original state.

SHARON

We are finally allowed back into the house, apparently the royals were busy with some ceremony. Drama in this family, Leroy hasn't said anything about how Oratile got injured but I take it she doesn't remember anything. We walk into the house and everyone is fussing over her. I'm tempted to roll my eyes.

"Baby I'm going to lie down a bit" I say to Mxolisi walking upstairs

"Where's your sister?" Leroy asks in a bold scary voice

"She went home" he chuckles

"Sheron my brother loves you and your daughter very much, I would hate to see him miserable because of me killing you and leaving your daughter without a mother" I look over at Mxolisi and he gives me a blank stare

"Baby are you going to allow your little brother to talk to me like that?"

"What did you do to piss him off Sharon?"
What?

"Wow! I thought married a man only to find that married Leroy's bitch"

"Sharon!!!" Mrs Thomson shouts

"No mama, a little boy who sleeps with older women has the guts to disrespect me and my husband says nothing about it" the room went silent. Mxolisi looked at Leroy with pleading eyes, he knows Leroy has a mean temper

"May I please be excused" the Oratile bitch says

"Of course Baby, you will be using one of the rooms this side. We don't want you using the stairs again especially with that broken leg" the entire time Leroy hasn't shifted his gaze away from me.

"Brother please calm down" Mxolisi begs

"Nontsizi get Ora away from here now!"

He says breathing heavily mzuzu he is referring to his mother by name. See the power they have given him?

"I'm tired mina I won't stand here for nonsense." He literally flew to where I was and pinned against the wall with my legs dangling in the air.

"Tell your husband how you and your sister pushed my woman down the stairs" he says talking through his teeth

"Son please calm down, she is your brother's wife. There's a peaceful way we can sort this out" Leroy let's go of me. I was climbing the stairs how the hell did I get here so fast?"

"It was Dorah not me, I would never do that, the only thing I'm guilty of is helping her get away after she told me what she did" I say crying and coughing

"No baby that's the second thing you are guilty of, the first thing was not telling me as your husband what your sister did. Things wouldn't have escalated like this"

"Leroy?" Oratile calls his name life she doesn't believe that it's him. I myself don't understand what just happened.

ORATILE

I saw him flying and grabbing Sharon pinning her to the wall like a piece of paper. I'm questioning my sanity right now, he walks over to me and I step back. I notice a hint of sadness in his eyes but I don't care. No human can move that fast. He picks me up bridal style and walks with me to a guest room. All this while I'm starting into his eyes but he is looking straight ahead with his jaws clenched. He throws me ontop of the bed and sits

"What are you and don't lie to me Leroy"
he sighs

"I'm your man and the father to your unborn child" I scoff

"I saw you, you flew and moved with the speed of lightning. Don't make me a fool, don't tell me you were wearing invisible strings that were being pulled and they made you seem like you were flying. I know what I saw" this idiot laughs at me making me angry.

"I am Leroy Hesus son of Mary Thomson and Herold Hesus god of light and fire. I am half human and half god. Alex Thomson is my uncle and my mother's brother. They took me in when I was 18 years old after my mother died protecting me from the cronomites. It's a long story but just know that I have super powers and I am immortal." I frown.

"Wow" he kisses on my lips and the damn hoe in me kisses him back

"Don't leave me. I'm still the same Leroy you know" I look down and he lifts my chin up

"So you were not wearing a bullet proof vest right" he shakes his head

"I knew it" he laughs.

"I love you but I don't approve of how you handled the Sharon situation. She is your brother's wife, you disrespected him by godhandling his wife" he laughs

"Godhandling huh?" I nod giggling

"You need to apologize" he sighs

"I will but I wanted to handle this myself because your father in law is ready to kill them for touching his precious daughter in law"

"Mr Thomson?" He chuckles

"Keep up baby, my biological father" my eyes pop

"That man would kill for you so would I but he doesn't have a conscious like humans do. I wanted to deal with Sharon my way" I nod

"What now?"

"Sharon and Dorah are as good as dead" I shake my head

"Take me to him, I'll plead on their behalf. Sharon never did anything to me" he chuckles

" Oh trust me baby, Sharon is behind this, she might even be the mastermind." Yoh! Why am I not scared?

CHAPTER 19

ORATILE

I am watching this man sleeping next to me snoring. I look at his handsome features and I still can't believe he chose to love me out of everyone. There are more beautiful women out there but he went for a 27 year old divorcee. My very own Greek god literally

"Starting is rude" he says opening his ridiculously gorgeous hazel brown eyes

"I'm not staring just admiring what's mine"he breaks into the most beautiful smile I've ever seen

"I thought you would be on the next plane to Jozi right now, running away from me." I smile

"Well why would I run away from the man who has my heart?" He smiles like a retard

It's now later in the day, I'm sitting in the lounge with Nomalanga, Thando and Ntsiki. Everyone else went to Langaletu kingdom while Mrs Thomson went shopping. I'm resting my leg on top of the coffee table and my arm is resting on the cushion. Sharon comes walking down the stairs, my eyes lands on her neck which is purple and guilt takes over. She heads to the kitchen and comes back with hot chocolate cups. She made one for everyone, I wasn't expecting her to make one for me. She places a cup next to my foot

"Peace offering?" She says with a smile and I reciprocate the smile

"Leroy apologized this morning and I know it's your doing, thank you very much. We are in love with the Thomson brothers and it would be in the interest of this family if we get along" I smile genuinely

"Cheers" I pick up my cup to drink

"Don't touch that drink my daughter" the tallest man I've ever seen with a long beard stands before us. Noma gets up quickly mumbles foreign words

"I am not here to harm you white witch, I came to protect my daughter in law." Oh my gosh, he is Leroy's father I bow my head

"Your uhm godness I mean your awesomeness it is an honor to meet you Mr Harold Sir" he chuckles

"It's okay my daughter now you drink this" he says pointing at Sharon to drink my coffee

"You choose, death by hell fire or your own concoction. You think you can poison my daughter who is carrying a god?" Sharon shakes crying.

"Drink!!!" He shouts and Sharon takes the cup

"Your godness please" he holds out his hand signaling me to keep quiet

"She will die by her own hand, think of the child you are carrying. She was going to poison you and watch you die from organ failure." I swallow hard

"Drink up dear" Sharon sips while busy crying and I can't help but feel sorry for her

"Take care of my granddaughter oh and Missy, any last words to your little sister?" he says disappearing

"Let's rush her to the hospital" I say crying. Only then do the ladies snap out of it

"It's no use, I'm as good as dead. Please help me call my daughter and my husband so I can say my farewell" I shake my head crying

"Surely Lubanzi can do something or Thando's father." I say sniffing

"Ora just relax, I will call my brothers. She got what she deserves, don't stress my nephew or niece over nonsense" Ntsiki says giving Sharon a death stare

NTSIKA

I can't believe this is what my beloved kingdom looks like. Mmeli wasn't lying, this place looks like the after effects of an apocalypse. Mr Thomson is with his workers giving out directions while the rest of the family is addressing the crowds that came to apologize to the King and Queen.

"My father and his father's father led this kingdom with integrity and honesty. We are the most successful kingdom in the whole of KZN. Community members had shares and no child sat at home unemployed after passing matric simply because there is no money to go to university. Our beautiful landscape was one that dreams were made of and you had direct access to your King and Queen but one TV interview of a bitter scorned lover made you turn against your kingdom and destroyed it. Now you go on radio stations begging us to come back. In case you didn't know, my whole family is rich and well educated, I can buy a huge land and live there in harmony until my ancestors remember me. I chose to follow my father's footsteps because I believe in his vision for this kingdom. This is my home, I love this land, from the serenity of langelihle park to the river banks that flow through mount Langa." My father says addressing the crowd

We spend the day giving out food parcels and medication to those who are ill.

"How was your day baby?" I smile

"It was a lovely day. Giving out food parcels and all, the drought has affected everyone badly and don't get me started on the plague." She sighs

"Majola ancestors don't play"

"You don't have to tell me about that. I know first hand how they deal with disobedience"

"You won't believe the day I had" I snuggle up close to her because I know it's gossip time with my Queen

"Ora's father in law is a real life Greek god" I frown

"Mr Thomson?"

"No silly, Herold Hesus god of light and fire well that's what Ora told us. No wonder Leroy has powers yoh Sharon tried to poison Ora and the father god made her drink it instead. Sharon will be dead soon" wow

"Seems like you had a colourful day today"she nods

"Now Ora feels guilty and we told her that it's not her fault"

"It's not her fault, it was either her or Sharon and I personally still need my cousin around"

The past three months has been difficult for my family. Sharon's confession and her death almost broke our family apart. When Ora narrated what happened I was mad as hell, I wanted to snap Sharon's neck right there and then. I really don't understand why her and her sister hated Ora so much. Speaking of the sister, she is now confined to a wheelchair and is paralyzed for the neck down. Apparently she fell from a flight of stairs, no need to guess who's behind her fall. Ora and I are back in Joburg, I paid lobola for her which was extremely expensive. King Nkululeko didn't have mercy on me but I am not complaining because she's worth every penny and more. She moved in with me and she's now 24 weeks and yes we are carrying a princess.

"Hi handsome" I frown, I'm on my way to Ora's office, a shapeless skinny woman greets me seductively

"Hi" I say passing her as she looks at me like I'm her next meal. I get to the office and my princess is a crying mess.

"What's wrong baby?" She wails throwing herself in my arms. I wait for her to calm down

"Talk to me baby" she sniffs wiping her tears

"I just had an argument with my ex's sister and she said so hurtful things"

"What things?" She sighs

"That I killed Siphon and I'm that Mlu uses a walking stick, I had no idea that Siphon died" did you know?" I hate lying

"No I didn't, the last time I saw was when he shot me and left me for dead"

"She also said that you are going to leave me because I'm old."

"Is she the woman wearing a green skirt and black lace blouse" she nods mxm Ora though crying over that unfortunate shaped cow

"We talked about the age thing, you and the world make it seem like you are a hundred years older than me." She sniffs

"I know it's just these hormones"

"It better be, you are my wife now and I don't want you to stress about useless things when we could be happy making love." She giggles

"I'm sorry my husband, how can I make it up to you" she says seductively

"Maybe if you can blow me I will forget silliness" she giggles and unbuckles my belt, it's about to go down

MXOLISI THOMSON

I'm angry, I'm hurt and I don't know who to blame because the person I should blame is no more. I haven't been talking to Leroy for a while, he probably thinks that I blame him but the truth is that I don't blame him. I just can't face him, he almost lost Ora because of my wife.

"Hi" Lord help me it's the weird girl from Langaletu kingdom

"Hi" I greet back

"Do you want a hug?" I frown

"No" she shrugs

"Hugs are a transfer of energy and auras, good or bad. I radiate good energy now I just meditated." She says opening her arms. I walk up to her and take the damn hug so that she can get out of my sight. We hug and all of a sudden I feel better, a warm and fuzzy feeling as if I'm floating on a cloud of marshmallows and happy thoughts. She breaks the hug.

"A cold shower perhaps?" She says pointing down with her eyes and I look down too. I'm so embarrassed a bloody boner. She turns and leaves me wanting more of her. Mxolisi you just buried your wife.

SUMMER

We are still in east London, I am as big as a whale and I'm always tired and hungry. The palace is almost done now, the king and Queen including uncle Mpilo and his wife are in KZN staying at the hotel so that they can be close to the kingdom and monitor the development process of the palace and other places that were destroyed by the mob. Ora and Leroy left just after Sharon's funeral. Mxolisi is broken, especially because he really loved his wife a lot. Sharon did confess that she tried to poison Ora and that she ended up drinking her own poison. What was very puzzling though was that she never mentioned the Greek god who practically forced her to drink her poison. I guess she didn't want to cause a rift between the two brothers, which was a little too late if you ask me. I'm sitting with the very awkward Thando, I have known her for months and she even trained me but I tell you this girl is strange. Always quiet, always wearing white colour dresses. She zones out a lot, and always gives you one word answers. Ntsiki tried to befriend her but gave up, the girl hardly ever smiles or laughs. All she does is chuckle here and there.

"Thando I think my water just broke" she stares at me blankly and out of nowhere a sharp pain shoots through my lower abdomen to my back and I let out a scream. Mrs Thomson comes rushing to me. I'm already screaming like a mad woman

"Where's my husband? I need him, he did this to me?" Mrs Thomson chuckles

We are now at the hospital, Mrs Thomson booked the whole first floor with security guards everywhere. Ntsika is right next to me irritating the shit out of me.

"Mrs Majola I need you to breathe for me. When I tell you then you give me a big push okay" the female doctor says to me. I nod with tears coming out of my eyes.

"Now push" I push

"You are doing so well baby" I give him a death stare

"Now breathe Mrs Majola" I take deep breaths

" I can see the head, give me one big push" I push with everything in me this goes on for some time until I feel a bit of relief and a loud cry fills the room. "It's a boy baby" Ntsika says with a breaking voice.

"There's another baby in there Mrs Thomson please push again" bloody hell, I'm shit tired. This can't be. I'm tired

"I can't" I try to close my eyes but the doctor slaps my thighs

"You will kill the baby that's inside if you don't push. I know you are tired but you can do this. One big push" I push as much as I can, as weak as I am. I feel relief one more time before passing out.

NTSIKA

"Why is the baby not crying" I ask with teary eyes already. The doctor is working on the little boy who looks very small and underdeveloped. My other son was rushed out to be cleaned

"Dr do something please" the poor doctor is busy trying to revive him but it's clear that he is not waking up. I look over at my wife and I know this is going to break her.

"I'm sorry Mr Majola, he didn't receive enough nutrients and oxygen in his mother's womb. He must have been situated in a place where he couldn't receive any nutrition. It seems that the other twin was dominant and was in a better position to get all the nutrients." The doctor and the nurses leave the room. It's just me and my wife now, my heart is heavy. I am happy to have a son but I'm also sad for the one we lost

"Do not be too sad, he was not meant to live. He was the evil side to the good side, the bad in the good, the darkness to the light. His heart was going to turn evil and kill his brother. Your ancestors want your reign to be a happy and peaceful one hence they removed the thread before it's born." A woman who looks like my wife but darker says. She's very beautiful with Noma's blue eyes. She is clearly her mother

"Is he the one the witch was talking about that he will kill his own brother for the throne?" She nods

"So it's true that she is your twin sister" she sighs

"Selina and I shared a womb. We were born from a very evil woman who taught us evil things but I didn't like it, I always questioned their evil deeds. I was taken in by a white witch when we fled salam and I learned that my heart is pure hence I couldn't understand Evilness. Summer is just as pure but unfortunately our blood is tainted by darkness. The surviving son is pure and is like summer and I while the twin who didn't make it was like Selina and our mother" I nod in understanding

"Take care of my daughter and my grandson. You are more powerful than you know but you lack confidence, Apollonia is your mother and you are 10times what she is. You just need to find your inner strength son" with that being said she disappeared.

I am at signature restaurant in Sandton waiting for my idiot brother who is more than 30 minutes late. I am tired, my feet are sore and my brain is fried from the back to back meetings I had this morning, Mncedi is inconsiderate really.

"Are you ready to order mam" I sigh I turned her away two times already. I wanted to sit and eat with my stupid brother but I don't care about that anymore.

"I'll have a rib eye steak smothered with mushrooms sauce and roasted Mediterranean vegetables. Oh and a glass of freshly pressed carrot and Mango juice please" she looks at me surprised, I might be pregnant but I need to look after my body before they take my man "And a slice of death by chocolate cake please" as I said I'm looking after my figure or I would have ordered the whole cake. She jots down my order and leaves

"Sisi wami, sorry I'm late" mxm I ignore him and scoff

"I'm sorry" he says kissing my cheek, he knows I can't stay mad at him for long.

"You're lucky I love you" he chuckles taking a seat.

"You should actually blame your man" he says looking pissed

"What did he do?" He shakes his head

"Some bitches are thirsty hoes, some chick with big boobs and fat ass has been throwing herself at Leroy. My boy let it slide until today when the bitch tried to kiss him and he slapped the shit out her now she went to report him at the dean's office. I had to testify against this crazy chic" yoh I'm glad my man is doing his last year, some bitches are thirsty out there not that I blame them. The waiter brings my food and I dig in.

"Princess Oratile Ngwenya" I look up and it's my ex husband with his cousin.

"Mlungusi" he chuckles.

"How does it feel sleeping next to the man who made another woman a widow and children fatherless?" I huff

"Look Mlu my brother and I are trying to have a peaceful lunch her please excuse us" he laughs

"I can't believe I ever loved you" now it's my turn to laugh

"Loved me? You loved money you didn't work for and pussy, any pussy pink blue red big small bushy smelly it doesn't matter as long as it's pussy so don't stand there and lie to yourself" I say sipping on my juice

"That pretty boy will leave you when he realizes that you have a rotten womb" I chuckle and take out my purse putting 800 bucks on the table.

"Mncedi let's go" I say getting up and taking my hand bag

"Oh and Mlu! My womb isn't rotten it just doesn't accept filth" I say brushing my tummy. A slap lands on my face and I immediately see stars. My brother tried to punch him back but his cousin holds him back

"Now I know you are definitely tired of living" says a tall buff, handsome guy wearing all black and shades

"Who the fuck are you?" Mlungusi asks sizing him up

"Young man take your sister out of here while I take out this crippled trash."
Mncedi doesn't need to be told twice

"See you later princess" he says taking off his shades and winking at me. Lord knows if I didn't love Leroy as much as I do my underwear would be drenched. This man is all shades of handsome.

ORATILE

Leroy bursts into the house looking scary. I have never seen him this angry in my life and I must admit, I am shaking in my size 6 slippers.

"I can't find that piece of shit anywhere, I can't believe he had the guts to put his hands on my woman" my brother side eye me

"Baby it's okay, I'm fine" he gives me a death stare yoh

"Look at your cheek baby, it's red and swollen, I wasn't there to protect you. I'm going to kill him with my bare hands when I find him" I cringe at the thought of him killing anyone

"No need for that brother, he is swimming with the sharks in the Atlantic Ocean" the handsome guy from earlier pops up from no where and I hide behind Leroy

"You are the guy who saved her?" He nods then looks at me

" You are indeed a beauty, damn! For you I'd leave all my hoes" he says with a smirk

"Baby this is my stupid brother Remi" I hold out my hand but he pulls me into a hug

"And this is Mncedisi her brother" he nods at my brother and turns his attention back to me.

"Do you perhaps have a sister?" I shake my head

"You are gorgeous, ditch him and take me. I'm all god baby and I'll take you places" I giggle

"Like the Atlantic Ocean" everyone burst out laughing

"Don't mind him baby he's an idiot" The Remi guy is a flirt I tell you but he seems like a nice guy.

"Did you really throw him in the Atlantic Ocean?" He chuckles

"I did and don't feel bad about it" he turns to Leroy

"We need to talk" they leave me and my brother to go "talk" I wonder what that's all about, I'm tempted to go eavesdrop.

"Did that guy just appear out of nowhere? My brother asks looking spooked

"Yep" he frowns

"And you are so chilled about it sis I'm freaking out, he's talking about dumping your ex in the Atlantic Ocean and you don't even cringe"

"My husband is half Greek god and half human and his brother is a Greek god and so is his father. That's all I'm going to say, if you need anymore information then ask your friend"

MXOLISI

There she is at the back of the house. It looks like she's meditating. I know I should be mourning my wife but I hardly slept last night thinking of the warm hug she gave me, Damn it! I can't think about anything else but her. I decide to sit next to her and clear my throat

"Can I join you?" she opens her eyes and stares at me. Lord why does she have to be so creepy. She continues staring at until I get uncomfortable and I break the stare and look down. I feel so weak now

"Come back to when you are man enough to handle me until then please leave you are disturbing my peace" she says closing her eyes. Fuck! I get up and leave with a tail between my legs

"She said that?" Lubanzi asks laughing, we are sitting at the bar and I'm narrating what transpired earlier this morning and this idiot is in stitches

"Yoh I was so embarrassed" he shakes his head

"What were you thinking, she's a witch and she's a guardian to the blue eyed girl" I sigh

"I felt something when I hugged her" he chuckles

"It's called witchcraft, she probably chanted some spell to make you feel better"

"I want her" he laughs

"Good luck with that, that one looks like she can chew you up and spit you out" I sigh

"Can't you give me some muti to be strong enough to handle her" he burst out laughing again

"Mxo don't make me choke on my drink please" he is laughing so hard that tears roll down his eyes.

"You need balls of steel bro" he says after calming down

"I thought you can be my wing man" he shakes his head

"Dude even my ancestors fear that girl and wena you want me to be your wing man, just forget about her bro" never! I want her even more now

SUMMER/NOMALANGA

I'm staring at this little human being that we made. He looks so tiny and perfect I love him with all my heart, I don't see anything evil here just a sweet little boy.

I'm at the hospital mortuary to view my other son's body.

"We will have to give him a name"

"Jacob, I'm naming him after my best friend" I say wiping my tears

"I'm sorry baby I know this is hard" I smile

"I understand that it had to be done but it still hurts. I just hope he in a better place now and he will be our little angel" he hugs me tightly. I love my husband so much, he is my source of strength.

We are now back in my ward and I'm holding my surviving baby in my arms breastfeeding him. My parents in law walk in with gifts and flowers

"Look who we have here" Mmeli walks in

"Surprise!" I laugh

"Hello mommy! I smile

"Say hello uncle" he frowns

"Hey wena, dare call me uncle and I'll show you" he says kissing the Baby's cheek

"Don't kiss my son I don't know where those lips have been" these two though.
everyone takes turns holding the baby.
We decided to name him Langelihle

Majola after the park where Ntsika and I first met. I love it I love him

"I hope they won't call my son Lihle"
Ntsika says, I don't get why not it's a short cut to his name.

"And what's wrong with that? Maybe he will be as flamboyant as his aunty" Mmeli says and Ntsika gives him a death stare causing us to all laugh.

"As soon as they discharge you, we will have a funeral at the Majola ancestral burial grounds" the king says and I nod.

LEROY THOMSON

I walk into our bedroom and I find Ora already sleeping. I'm sure Mncedi left already, that's how long I took with my brother. I don't know how I'm going to tell her about me leaving her for a while. I get on top of her and part her legs.

"Baby maan I'm sleeping" I go down on her, she doesn't wear underwear when she sleeps so I have easy access. I suck on her clit and she lets out soft moans I lick, suck and nibble on her nuna. She whimpers and jerks up and down.

"Oh yes baby" I insert one finger and thrust her slowly

"You like that?" She nods I insert another finger and lick her anus. She starts shaking

"Baby! Leroy"

"Yes my love" I know she's about to cum I stop and go up to her and start kissing her much to her frustration. Without warning I slam into her causing her to scream my name. I give her two slow but deep strokes and she cums undone. I don't wait for her to calm down I flip her like a pan cake and ram into her as she assumes the ass up chest down position

"Faster baby" I up the pace as instructed and fuck her thoroughly until we both reach the gates to heaven.

"That was amazing" she says smiling

"My daughter is traumatized" she laughs.
I clear my throat

"Baby I have to go away for a while" She lifts her head and looks into my eyes

"No" I sigh

"Is that why your brother was here? To take you away from me?"

"It's not like that baby"

"You are not leaving me pregnant Leroy I need you" shit! This is harder than I thought

"Baby there is a war coming and it can destroy not only our families but the world as we know it" she chuckles

"Who died and made you the world's saviour huh?" I sigh

"Very bad people are after your aunt. Do you remember that day when you came back from the hospital, we felt the ground shake in the driveway and I asked all of you to stay in the car?" She nods

"Two very dangerous witches were attacking your aunt and the king. If I didn't show up when I did, you would have buried her. Baby the witches of the dark world are gathering and forming an army of witches. Remi and I need to go out and kill them before they kill everyone in the Majola family. Your cousin hasn't found his true strength yet and his wife will hesitate to kill her aunt which will mean everyone in the Majola family will die. Is that what you want?" She shakes her head crying

"I won't be gone for long and I'll be back in time for our daughter's birth."

"I watched aunti Nthabeleng go through life alone. I didn't believe when they said she had a husband. My father always thought that uncle Mpilo abandoned my aunt. Don't make go through that please" I kiss her forehead

"I love you so much, so so so much I could never leave you. I will come back home before you know it and we will communicate as often as possible please give me your permission." She's sobs

"I love you Leroy and I'll be right here waiting for you. Thank you for fighting for my family. My father is very fond of aunt Khanyisile I know if anything would happen to her it would kill him. I still need that woman so do what you have to do but come back to us Leroy" I smile faintly, that's why this woman is my soul mate.

CHAPTER 23

NONTSIKELELO THOMSON

"Are you going to tell us the truth or do we have to beat it out of you" I am dead.

"Yes I'm pregnant, I am so sorry I disappointed you." I say sobbing

"Kodwa Ntsiki with all the sex talk we had couldn't you have used a condom or contraceptives huh, why did you have to go and destroy your future like this?" My mother says sobbing too. I'm so disappointed in myself.

"Who's the father?" I wail louder, how do I tell them the truth without breaking their hearts

"I don't know" I say playing with my fingers

"You better know, I am so disappointed in you." My father says

"It's okay, go to your room but this is not over yet" my mother says saving me from my father and brother's deadly stare. I went to my room without even looking at anyone I'm so ashamed.

I'm on my bed crying my eyes out. I don't know how long I was expecting to hide this shame. I tried to terminate the pregnancy but I chickened out twice at the doctor's office. A soft knock comes through the door, I am in no mood to deal with anyone so I keep quiet but the person opens the door then I feel someone sit on the bed.

"Ntsiki" I get up quickly only to find Mpilokaise sitting on the bed. What is he doing here?

"So you are pregnant?" I nod as I wipe the tears

"Who is the father?" I shake my head. I'm too embarrassed to tell him, I was crushing on him badly but he was just not into me so I gave up but now here he is in my room.

"I don't know" I say sobbing

"What do you mean you don't know?"

"I... I went to a house party of one of my class mates a couple of months back, I think they put a date rape drug in my drink because I woke up later in the evening smelling of semen. I took a bath and rushed home, my nuna was sore but I couldn't remember what happened to me. I asked one of my friends and she told me that a group of guys were having sex with me while I was drunk. She was laughing and said I needed to let loose, I just bought morning after pills and wanted this whole thing to go away so I decided to keep it to myself until I found out I was pregnant last week." I say sobbing.

"Sssssh Its okay, stop crying it's not good for the baby" I scoff

"It's not good for the baby? My life is messed up because of this baby. I have brought shame to my family, I wish I could just have a miscarriage because I don't have the guts to abort." He looks at me displeased but I don't care this is how I feel.

"Tell your parents I'm the father" my eyes pop

"No why would I do that" he holds both my hands

"I'm sorry that happened to you. I wish at the time when it happened that you at least opened up to someone, there are STIs that you should get checked out for and they would have been able to take DNA samples of the semen inside you to be able to tell who was responsible.

Those kids can't just get away with raping you, including that so called friend. This is a very serious offence but don't worry we will deal with that later, for now I want you to tell your parents that I'm responsible for this pregnancy and that we have been dating for a while"

"I don't think that's a good idea, I don't want you to take the blame for my stupidity. My father and brothers will beat you up" he chuckles

"I'm a man, I can handle it but for now I need you to do what I asked. Will you do that for me?" I nod

"I will take care of you and the baby I promise you. I will pay for damages and he will take up my surname. I will make sure you continue with your studies. Please allow me to take this responsibility."

MPILOKAISE

I left her room after she cried a river of tears and fell asleep. I don't know what

I'm doing but it feels right I've been running away from love and commitment because of what my parents went through only to take responsibility for a whole human being.

"Can I have a word with you" it's Lubanzi startling me as I'm about to enter my room.

"Uhm sure" I opened my room, he walks in and sits on the couch while I sit on the bed. He is staring at me from one sangoma to another I shouldn't be intimidated but he is scary right now.

"What are your intentions with my sister"
I frown oh! I guess he saw me leave his sister's room.

"I love her and I'm sorry I couldn't wait to express my love for her I ended up impregnating her. I am willing to do right by her and my baby." He stares at me and shakes his head

"Thomson is going to kill you for a bastard child" I frown

"Cut the bullshit Mpilo I heard what you and my sister were talking about. I don't know if you are plain stupid or too noble for your own good" I clear my throat

"Please allow me to do this, your sister is a good person and doesn't deserve to be shamed in that manner." He shakes his head

"What if you meet someone else? What happens to my sister. Let's deal with things as they are than encounter a problem later on" I sigh

"My word is my bond. I will love and take care of your sister until my ancestors call me home." He sighs

"She can't handle what you are kganyapa"
I look down

"You of all people know how protective kganyapa is. I will keep that side of me away from her I promise but from the first time I met her. The Majola in me took a liking to her I just never acted on those feelings but I swear to you mkhulu I will never hurt your sister." He nods

"I will keep your secret and thank you for doing this" he says with a smile as he gets up and pulls me into a bro hug

"You are a good man" we chill for some time and plan the best way to tell their parents.

THE NEXT DAY

"I opened my home to you and your family and you see it fit to deflower my only daughter!!!!" Mr Thomson is spitting venom. He is beyond furious.

"I'm sorry Sir. I take full responsibility for the pregnancy and promise to do right by her"

"She's 18 years old for heaven's sake. Couldn't you wait to do things properly? She had dreams and I'm sure you took advantage of her because you know better." I look down

"Baba calm down please. They are both young and they didn't know better. He is willing to take responsibility and ntsiki is writing her final exams soon. She will go to varsity and fulfill all her dreams. This is not the end of the world for her" Lubanzi says and Mr Thomson calms down a bit

"You will marry my daughter am I clear?" His wife shoots him with a stare

"We will not force these kids to get married. He will pay damages. My daughter will not be tied down to a marriage" Mrs Thomson says

"I will marry her" I say looking at Ntsiki she looks up, she has been playing with her fingers and her head bowed the whole time.

"Are you sure that's what you want marriage is a huge step" Lubanzi asks and I nod

"I will let your parents know. I am disappointed in both of you but what's done is done there's no going back" Mr Thomson says now a bit calmer, that wasn't as bad as I thought.

LEROY THOMSON

PHONE CONVO

"How's my little princess"

"She misses you"

"And does mommy miss me too?" she giggles, my favourite sound in the world

"I miss you Leroy more than you could ever know" this one is horny I can tell

"I miss you too my beautiful wife. I can't wait to return and bury myself inside your warm tight and scrumptious pussy"

"Ah Leroy, you see now I'm wet" fuck!

"I'll video call you tonight, I want you to show me how wet you are for daddy"

"Okay baby"

"I have to go now my love, I'll call you tonight I love you"

"I love you too Leroy stay safe"

"Always babes" I hang up and find my idiot brother smiling at me.

"What?"

"You are so whipped, it's cute" mxm

"Let's get down to the business at hand"
he nods

"We are looking for 4 witches, they reside in that cabin over there and one of them is a cronomite" I take out my fiery flaming sword and Remi heats up and turns into a flaming being. We go in and slay the witches like nothing

"I'm leaving the cronomite for you bro" I chuckle

"Oh well thank you very much kind sir" I say cutting off the half witch half cronomite's head off. Remi sets the entire cabin on fire

"Next stop Egypt, get ready for Egyptian mummies" I chuckle

"Bring it on bro"

NTSIKA

We buried our little Jacob in the Majola burial grounds. Everyone in the Ngwenya and the Thomson family came to support us. The palace is almost done but there's just a few touch ups here and there.

Nomalanga has been surprisingly strong and has accepted that Jacob was not meant to live.

"In about a month's time you can move back into the palace." Mr Thomson says, we are now standing outside admiring the work he has done. The palace looks better and more splendid than before.

"Son when we return to the palace we will also be holding a crowning ceremony for you and your wife. We are officially stepping down as the King and Queen of Langaletu kingdom" my father says dropping a bomb

"But father we are still young and we are not ready to lead this kingdom" he smiles

"One can never be ready for such a great responsibility. I was in my mid 30s when I became king but I too wasn't ready. Know who you are and you will never fail.

Majolas are powerful and mighty throughout our history, we have been serpent kings. Out of all the Majolas in Africa our family has been entrusted with sun goddesses and now demi gods. We are more than conquerors through this surname which also earned us a lot of enemies too but we thrive, son. we thrive through and through." I nod, I look over and my wife and our son and I know that no matter what we will be the best King and Queen.

ORATILE

"I don't understand what you mean, he up and left his pregnant wife for some war?" I really am not good at explaining this to my father

"Baba he didn't want to leave but if he doesn't, many people would die.." he frowns, sigh! Here goes nothing

"Baba Leroy is a demi god, him and his brother Remi are on a witch hunt to find and kill witches who formed an alliance with the witch that wants to kill aunt Khanyisile. If he doesn't go fight them then the Majolas would be in grave danger." He sighs

"I just don't want you to end up like your aunt Nthabeleng." I get where's coming from.

"I won't and even if I do, isn't it a sacrifice worth making? Would you survive if anything happened to aunty Khanyisile." He shakes his head

"You know how much I love your aunts" I smile

"He will come back to me. For his daughter more than me" I say rubbing my tummy, it's only been a couple of days but I miss him so much.

"Let's go back to the others and please don't tell mom about Leroy being away, you know how she gets" he nods bringing me into a hug. I swear I have the best father I'm the whole wide world.

MXOLISI THOMSON

I haven't been able to keep my eyes away from her, she moves around so swiftly and she oozes confidence and self consciousness that is very intimidating. She is not dominant in a alpha kind of way but she has that thing that tells you that she needs to have an alpha not just any Tom who thinks he can handle her.

"Stop staring at her it's creepy" Luba says laughing

"Fuck off" I say clicking my tongue as I walk towards her. I take a deep breath before shooting my shot

"Hey" she looks at me with a straight face no emotions whatsoever. Is she even human?

"Hi"

"Look woman I like you. I just buried my wife I know it's too soon to move on but I'm not talking about us getting married, I just want to get to know you, I think there must be something there you know? Give me a chance and stop with your insults. I am a man and I know what I want." I take a long breath

"Are you done?" She's not looking at me, she busy picking up flowers now. I just poured my heart out and she looks unbothered.

"No I said I want you" she stops and stares at me. It's like she's piercing through my soul. I do the unthinkable and grab her waist, I smash my lips into hers. She doesn't kiss me back but I won't allow my ego to be bruised. I move my hand to her ass and squeeze it a little. She gasps which gives me access to invade her mouth and suck on her tongue. The chemistry is there wow!

"Please don't subject us to live porn" I pull out of the kiss and I whisper into her ear

"Tell me I didn't feel that alone" I look behind me and shit it's her father, now I'm embarrassed

"I'm sorry Sir" he chuckles

"Are you really sorry" I look at him for a while then I look at Thando

"No Sir I'm not"he laughs

"You are still standing after that kiss, it means she likes you" I blush and turn to look at her and she has that creepy stare of hers even tilting her head. Her father leaves us shaking his head.

"You can leave too" I frown

"I thought we can talk about the kiss" she stares at me

"Mxolisi leave before I turn you into a rat" she says focusing back on her flowers. I scratch my head. What the hell just happened? This child is frustrating.

SELINA

Two more witches in Mozambique were found dead. Somebody is hunting us down and is killing us mercilessly. I'm in my cave with the witches council.

"Do you have any idea whose behind this attack?" I shrug

"Our own is being hunted and killed execution style."

"I think the Majolas are responsible for this" they look at me like I've grown horns all of a sudden

"Your obsession with those humans is sickening, how can they pull such murders of high ranking witches? Just because they almost defeated you doesn't mean that we are all weak like you."

"Sister Gee came back with a dead brother when she was sent to kill the goddess Queen and collapsed and died before she could say anything else. They were both powerful witches but they ended up dead. I once made the mistake of underestimating those Majolas and almost paid with my life." I say and they nod.

"Can't we send a decoy" I shake my head

"There are two seers and two white witches, It won't work but I have an idea" they look at me to continue

"The fallen angel from the Americas" they nod. I know he will join forces with us or I will expose him to his church members.

NARRATED

Everyone is now back at East London except for the king and Queen. They are still stay at the hotel together with Mpilo and Nthabeleng. Lubanzi has been keeping his eye on his sister as he notice

some changes in her. He is praying that it's not what he thinks because he is ready to kill however is responsible.

Nomalanga and her husband are in the bedroom, Ora went back with her parents to Ngwenya kingdom and everyone else is watching TV. Ntsiki gets up running again to go throw up for the 3rd time since they got back

"Nozala do you see your daughter wants to bring shame to the Thomson family"
Lubanzi says drawing everyone's attention

"What are you on about mkhulu" he sighs

"I think she's pregnant" Nontsizi's eyes pop, as far as she knows her daughter is still a virgin. She's in matric for Pete's sake

"What makes you say that?" Nontsizi asks in a shaky voice, not her only daughter. Ntsiki walks in looking pale and flushed

"Nontsikelelo Thomson who impregnated you?" Alex asks straight to the point. Ntsiki sheds some tears looking down confirming their worst nightmare.

ORATILE

"Push princess Oratile push" I push as hard as I can, I have been in labour for the past two hours and I'm getting tired already

"Come on you can do this, one last big push I see the head" I push with my all and I feel a bit of relief before I dose off.

"She's beautiful baby well done my daughter, you have made me a grand mother" my mother says and I smile. It's been two weeks since I spoke to Leroy. I'm worried sick about him, he has never taken this long without talking me on the phone. I look down at our our daughter, an exact replica of her father. Even her eyes look golden brown just like her father. She's so beautiful.

"He promised that he'll be back for the birth of our daughter Baba, where is he now?" I say wiping my tears that keep on falling on the baby"

"Stop crying Ora, the baby can feel your negative energy and that's not good. You are not the first woman to be left by the baby daddy. I went through the same with you when your father died but I focused on you and forgot about anything else."

I sigh, she doesn't know the real reason Leroy went away, she thinks he left me.

"We spoke about this princess. Now it's time to be strong and look at the bigger picture" I nod wiping my tears I know for certain that he would give anything to be with us right now. I may doubt a lot of things but I don't doubt that man's love for me. He has proven it over and over again.

My parents left, they will be coming tomorrow. The doctor is keeping us overnight for observation then we will be discharged in the morning. I'm looking at my angel, I haven't even given her a name

yet. I'm waiting for her father to name her.

"Oh my baby where is your father?" I say wiping my tears, she then touches my forehead and like a movie being played in my mind or a vision I see Leroy and Remi being held in a cage. Two women are watching them, Leroy and Remi seem to be in deep sleep. She removes her hand and the vision stops

"Oh my little goddess, you have super powers too. Your father is in danger baby" I get up and put the baby in the cot and reach for my phone and I immediately call Mr Thomson.

PHONE CONVO

"Hello"

"Mr Thomson it's Ora"

"Oh hey baby we are on our way to your kingdom as we speak. The king told us that you have put to bed, we can't wait to meet our little princess"

"Okay but that's not why I'm calling, how do I get hold of Leroy's biological father. It's very important that I speak to him" he keeps quiet for a while

"I think you need to call his name three times and if he wants to then he will pop up I'm not sure though, Leroy has a medallion that he uses to summon him but you can try calling him. Harold Hesus god of light and fire three times"

"Okay thank you Baba, I'll see you when you get here" we hang up and I look over at my daughter

"You perhaps don't have any idea how to summon you grandpa nana" she does cute baby sounds

"I guess that's a no." I take a deep breath and....

"Harold Hesus!

Harold Hesus!

Harold Hesus!

God of fire and light" I look around but nothing. I'll have to tell my aunt about

Leroy. They might perhaps have an idea how to save him. I am so worried I can't even close my eyes

"Name her Kalama it's Hawaiian meaning blazing fire" Harold stands tall looking at his granddaughter. I didn't even see him appear I was dosing off.

"It's a unique beautiful name I'm sure Leroy will like it" I say getting up

"Father, I called you here because I think Kalama has a gift" he chuckles

"Of course she does, she has the blood of a god in her" I smile

" It's been two weeks and Leroy hasn't contacted me which is unlike him, the longest he would go without contacting me is two days tops. I have been so worried because he promised to be here for the birth of our daughter. I asked her where her father is retorically and she placed her hand on my forehead then boom! I had a vision of where Remi and Leroy have been captured." He frowns and moves to Kalama playing with her

"Show grandpa where daddy is" my daughter places her hand on his forehead

"Incredible! This is a beautiful gift to have."

"Worry not my daughter I will bring them home" I nod wiping my tears

MPILOKAISE

It's been a crazy couple of months. So I did make an honest woman out of Ntsiki and my ancestors even approved of her and I'm so happy about that. We are back in Langaletu kingdom which is more beautiful than before. Ntsiki will be coming to stay with me here in Langaletu, the King gifted us with a piece of land. I have already started building our house there. Although it will take a couple of months to be ready. I just can't wait to have my wife all to myself.

"I changed him again. I swear he's doing it on purpose" Ntsika says walk in with Langelihle. I laugh at how frustrating he is.

"You are laughing, soon you will also experience what I'm going through" I smile like a retard

"I'm excited, I can't wait to meet him or her" I had to come clean to my father about the real paternity of the baby because there are rituals I need to perform to formally introduce the child as mine, it's a goat thing. To my surprise, he was very proud of me and even gave me half of his shares in various companies. It's safe to say, Ntsiki will never go hungry. The Thomson brothers dealt with everyone who was behind the raping of my woman.. even those who were there watching and not doing anything showed up dead. I'm glad she got some sort of justice.

"I'll remind you once he or she is born. Are you hoping for a girl or boy?"

"Honestly, I would be happy with just a healthy baby but Ntsiki is hoping for a boy. It's refreshing watching her all excited about becoming a mother. There was a point in time when she hated the baby I feared she would secretly abort."

"My princes you have a guests" the guard says

"Show them in" Ntsika says, in walks Lubanzi and Mxolisi, they must have come for the crowning ceremony which is in three days time. Yep my boy is going to be king.

"Royals" Mxolisi says

"Hey guys, what a pleasant surprise"

"Yeah someone couldn't wait to come here" Lubanzi mumbles

"Where's my wife?" I ask

"In Ngwenya kingdom, your cousin gave birth she chose to go there even when we told her we are coming to see you" I chuckle

"It's the Baby fever"

"Yeah my parents and aunt Nthabeleng went there too. They will return tomorrow." Mxolisi keeps looking around

"She's at langelihle park" he frowns

"Who?" I laugh

"The one you've been looking for since you got here"

"I don't know what you are talking about" we all laugh at him. He is so whipped and can't even hide it

"I'm going to smoke" he says getting up. As soon as he leaves we burst out laughing.

MXOLISI THOMSON

"Just go straight, you will see a big sign written langelihle park," I thank the guard and make my way to the park. I walk into a beautiful serene park with a sparkling pond, tall majestic trees, white pables on the ground. This place is amazing. She's sitting on the floor making a necklace while humming. She's dressed in her usual white attire and has a guitar next to her. Her back is facing me as I walk slowly towards her

"I felt that you were coming today so I came here to make a necklace for you" she says not turning to look at me

"Really! Then I'll wear it with pride"

"Come sit next to me" i oblige only then she looks at me. No smile no emotions as usual

"You play? She nods

"Please play something for me?" She pierces me with her weird stare and I just smile. I think I'm getting used to her weirdness

"Do you love me Mxolisi" that question catches me by surprise but I answer her truthfully

"I'm falling deeply in love with you" she nods looking down at her necklace

"Don't you find me strange" I laugh

"You fascinate me" she nods and picks up the guitar and starts playing while singing. She doesn't have the world's most wonderful voice but it's soothing and calming. I listen as she sings a song I've never heard before but it's beautiful to listen to

"Thank you that was beautiful" she chuckles.

"You are beautiful Mxolisi" I frown.

"Man are not beautiful, they are handsome" she looks at me intensely again tilting her head

"You have famine features which make you look beautiful." I don't know how to feel about that but I smile

"Can I kiss you?" I ask crossing my fingers

"Please do" my ears must be playing tricks on me. I bring her lips close to mine. I brush them with my thumb while looking straight into her eyes and I capture her lips slowly and beautifully. She kissed me back and I feel like I'm floating on air. She's such a good kisser, I get lost in her soft luscious lips

INAUGURATION CEREMONY

I can't believe I'm being crowned Queen of Langaletu Kingdom. A girl from the deserts of Utah is now royalty and I have super powers. Isn't life a trip? I'm wearing a long turquoise flowy Ralph Lauren show stopper dress with a sweetheart neckline and black Gucci heels. I feel like a million bucks, if only my step mothers could see me now. The daughter of a nigger maid, who used to spend her days in the chicken coop and feeding the pigs. I wipe my tears as I stand in front of the mirror.

"You look beautiful my Queen" my husband says looking at me through the mirror

"A 21 year old Queen" I say chuckling

"Queen Elizabeth was also young when she was crowned Queen" I wiped my tears smiling. Good thing my makeup is waterproof

"Promise me that you will always keep me grounded, you know it's easy for all this to get into one's head. Remind me where I started so that I never take anything for granted. All this feels surreal and it's easy to lose focus" he smiles

"The fact that you recognize the need to stay grounded is assuring enough that you will be a great Queen. You are the most humble person I know so worry not my Queen." His faith in me is all the strength I need to get up there and address my people.

The crowning ceremony went extremely well, more than I thought it would. When it was my turn to address the people, I was very nervous. My mind kept on trailing back to when they wanted to eat us alive after Bonolo accused me of being a witch, but I soldiered on and remembered that if they start with me, I can turn them all into chickens, hahahaha! I'm kidding

"That speech was amazing my Queen" uncle Mpilo says smiling

"I think most people were charmed by the American accent." My husband says and I hit the back of his head playfully. The Thomsons are here as well but King Nkululeko couldn't make it because Ora gave birth. The guards walk in with my father and I get up from my chair

"Peace be upon thy household"

"And unto thee father" I greet back walking towards him

"I'm looking for the King and Queen I have a very important message in fact I am here to warn them about the war that's approaching." I frown and pull him to the table

"Speak freely father I am Queen and my husband is the King" my father looks at me with teary eyes then without warning falls on his knees sobbing like a child. My eyes pop, the strong head of the family and elder at a huge church down on his knees is not a good sight to behold at all.

"My daughter you were right, we have been deceived. President Randall is an angel of darkness. A week ago I was going to see the president about something concerning the church. His office door was not closed and I heard him plot an attack on this kingdom with a witch. They were talking about how they were going to attack you on the 19th which is the day after tomorrow. I made sure I snuck out before they could see me and booked the next flight to come warn you. The witch was talking about exposing him to the church about being a fallen angel. Forgive me my Blossom, I should have believed you" he says wailing

"How do we know that you are not working with them? Maybe this is just to confuse us so that we let our guard down" daddy Langa says

"I swear on everything I hold dear. I might have been a bad father to Bree but I would never knowingly bring harm to her." I smile

"Get up father, the Lord almighty will smite me for allowing an old man to kneel" he smiles too

"I don't know if there is a God anymore or if he is a lie too" I shake my head

"There is a God, almighty and powerful not the cruel stone throwing God that president Randall portrays him to be. He is kind and forgiving" he gets up and wipes his tears

"How is everything at home? Medicine and Valerie, Suzan are they married now?"

"Medicine is married to president Randall and has triplets, two boys and a girl" I smile

"Thank you very much for warning us, we need to prepare for the attack, possibly lure them away from this kingdom." Mom says

"Yeah a faraway place where no one will get hurt" we nod and everyone gets lost in their own thoughts. The moment I have been training for has finally arrived, God be with us

"Tell me you will not be fighting too" I say holding her hand. We are now sitting outside in the garden, I pulled her out as everyone was discussing the so called "ultimate battle"

"I have to fight, we will be fighting witches and I am a witch too although I don't use dark magic" I shake my head

"I just found you, losing you would kill me, Thando mina I love you" for the first time I ever met this woman I see a full blown smile

"Make me a woman tonight please" she says with glossy eyes

"I would love to deflower you but I cannot do that because it would feel like I'm saying goodbye to you" she becomes serious again

"I love you too" I shake my head

"Don't do that, don't you tell me you love me like you are saying it for the last time." She sighs

"Your brother Leroy will be there fighting alongside us. He is strong and with his flaming sword he will kill many witches. I cannot see my future, I have tried many times to look into it but I don't exist nor does my offspring but realities change. Queen Khanyisile was supposed to be dead by now but fate brought us to your home where we met demi gods, I might live and bare you many children" she says touching the necklace she made me

"I am coming with you on the day of the battle and if you die then we will die together" she shakes her head

"Your daughter needs you, she just lost her mother" I sigh

"Then don't go"

"I have to go, I'm needed" I nod with a heavy heart

"Please make me a woman" she says
staring into my eyes and for the first time
I see fear and vulnerability in her eyes.
She takes my hand and leads me to another house just a short walking distance from the palace. The house is new I guess it was built together with the palace

"Who's house is this, it's beautiful"

"It's my parents' house I nod and she leads me to her bedroom. She's wearing a white chiffon dress, she just removes clips on her shoulders and the dress falls to her feet. She's now in a matching white bra and underwear, she turns around and moves her long dreadlocks to the side. I watch her perfectly shaped body as I unclip her bra. I lay soft kissed of her neck and I turn her around to face me.

"You are so beautiful my white witch" I capture her lips as my hands roam around her perfect pointy boobs. I take my time worshipping her body as she moans softly. I give her a mind blowing muff dive, sucking and blowing warm air into her nuna. She cums right on my tongue and she breathes slowly trying to come back to earth. I break into her hymen while she takes it like a star. I make sweet memorable love over and over again.

"I love you" I whisper into her ear as I collapse on top of her

"I love you too Mxolisi" she says smiling awkwardly.

NARRATED

Leroy and Remi are passed out inside two witches forest hide out in Australia. The aboriginal witches also practice voodoo which was how they were able to capture the two brothers. They have been hearing of the blood trail of their kind that the brothers have been leaving and they want to kill them to avenge the many of their kind the brothers have killed.

"Nala tomorrow we take them to Papa po. He will harvest all their powers and we will be more powerful. All the surviving witches will bow down to us."

"Make sure you have tied them pretty well Ra because if they escape their fire will burn us"

"Hei it's mighty strong no one can bypass my spell" they are sitting watching the cage. The brothers are trapped in a circle drawn by a white chalk. As they are busy talking, Harold appears and grabs Ra by her neck and breathes fire into her nostrils causing her to burn from the inside and she dies instantly

"Untie my sons or follow your friend"
Nala looks frightened, never in her life has she seen the god of light and fire in person. Unable to look into his eyes as they shoot blinding light out of them. She gets on her knees and pleads for her life

"How do I know you won't kill me after setting them free?" Herold becomes angry and charges toward her, he grabs her hand and she screams in pain as the fire in Harold hand melts her skin and bone like acid.

"Okay okay!" She chants a spell and Remi and Leroy wake up from they're slumber.

"Please don't kill me, I will run and....."
She didn't to get finish the sentence when Leroy cuts her into half

"Get me home I need to see my daughter and you I never want to see you again.
You almost got me killed before meeting
my daughter because you can't control your dick. You know witches are masters of illusion but you fall for their charm" he says clicking his tongue. If he could teleport he would have left the moment the witch undid the spell

"I'm sorry brother" Remi says pleading.

CHAPTER 26

ORATILE

Kalama is so cute, my father is obsessed with her, my brother is worse. I can't believe I am finally a mother after so many years of believing that I am barren. I guess aunty Khanyisile was right when she said that sometimes God closes your womb if you are not with the right person. Leroy is the right person for me. The love of my life, the ying to my yang.

"The princess is asleep now" my mother says placing her in the cot. I just showered and I'm ready for bed.

"Thanks mom, I don't know what I would have done without you" she smiles sweetly

"Well if it wasn't for you being naughty and bumping into your father's trolley I wouldn't be this happy and loved so thank you baby. I know Kalama will bring as much joy as you have brought to me." I laugh through my tears

She exits the room and I immediately fall asleep because I know I know my little goddess will be up any moment now.

I'm in deep sleep but I hear voices. I think there are people in my room because I hear whispering

"She looks like you"

"Who else is she supposed to look like?"
my heart races, that's Leroy's voice, I pretend to be asleep but it's hard to contain my excitement

"Are you going to be hostile towards me in front of the princess, I said I'm sorry bro"

"Remi leave! I need to spend time with my woman. We will speak tomorrow, father said we need to go to Langaletu kingdom for the final battle.

"Bye princess, I love you bro"

"Mxm" I feel Leroy getting into bed and cuddling me

"Aren't you going to greet your man?" I turn and I don't know where the damn tears are coming from but I find myself sniffing them away.

"I saw you and Remi passed out in a cage and two women were watching you I thought I would never see you again. " he gets up and switches on the side lamp.

"What do you mean you saw us, how do you know about the witches?"

"Well your daughter Kalama has a gift, she placed her tiny hand on my forehead and that's when I saw a vision of you being in captivity, I summoned Herold and he said he will take care of it" he perks my lips

"You and Kalama actually saved our lives wow! That idiot brother of mine insisted we go to a bar where the aboriginal people let loose. We drank a few beers then a ridiculously gorgeous woman walked to our table but since I'm a happily married man I decided to chase her away. She was suspiciously perfect Ora but my idiot of a brother was already taken by her. He later snuck out of the motel we were staying at to meet that girl. When I woke up in the morning he was gone. I knew he followed that girl. I went looking for him with a medallion we use to connect. I found him but unfortunately I got trapped before I could draw my sword He was already passed out, I guess I followed too" wow Remi's love for women almost cost me my man

"I'm sorry I couldn't be there when our daughter was born." I smile

"It's okay I understand" he captures my lips and kisses me hungrily

"How long until you heal" he asks after breaking the kiss

"Three months" he frowns

"I'm not waiting that long" he banna! He lifts my night dress up and parts my legs

"Leroy what are you doing?" I mean I'm wearing a pad and I'm bleeding

"I'm healing your stitches, the only thing that will be left is the bleeding but as soon as it stops. I'm burying my dick inside you" he says pacing his hand over my underwear, I feel some warmth and then some relief. The irritation I had was now gone.

"There you go, now we will wait for the bleeding to stop" he says with his cute side smile. I need to throw a gratitude party to the women in business conference organizers for making me a keynote speaker because I wouldn't have caught this wonderful man's eye.

MPILOKAISE

"Are you also going away to fight?" I nod

"My brother is worried about Thando not coming back, should I worry too? Am I going to be a widow at the age of 18?" I sigh

"I don't want to promise you lies because I don't know what's going to happen but trust me baby I will fight with everything in me to come back to you and my son" she smiles faintly

"My brother Leroy has supernatural powers, your sister and Queen Noma are witches. What are you going to be doing there? Throwing bones, Can't you stay behind?" I chuckle

"I have supernatural powers too"

"What powers?" She asks wiggling her eyebrows

"I transform like my father into a huge mystical creature known as kganyapa or inkanyamba. It's a huge snake with a deadly tail" she burst out laughing

"You my husband are funny" I laugh too

" Please allow me to make love to you"
she smiles

"You don't even have to ask my love"
I slowly lead her to the bed, I watch her as she takes off her clothes, I take off mine too and I go straight to the baby pump and leave wet kisses.

"I don't want to lose you Mpilo" she says with a tearing up.

"When I come back, I am going to make you so happy. I'm going to take away all your pain and past trauma. You will be the most spoiled wife in the whole universe."
She smiles through her tears

"You already did all that myeni wami. You took away the shame and made me a wife. I love you" I gently push her to the bed and make love to her all night long. It was slow and full of emotions. If oMajola and oNxamalala carry me home tomorrow, I'm glad I got to experience the love I've been trying so hard to avoid.

NARRATED

Viviana the oldest witch of the eagle tribe in the south of Brazil walks into the witches council meeting. She is most feared and respected. She takes a seat and sighs

"Nala and Ra are no more. We went from 129 strong high ranking witches to a mere 17. I am wondering if going to this war won't mean the end of our kind forever."

"We have the fallen angel who will fight alongside us tomorrow. None of them are aware of the attack, we have the element of surprise" Selina says

"In all the centuries that I have lived, I have never feared going into war like I do now. But this is no longer about the teaching the sun goddess a lesson but it's also about avenging all the witches who have died" Cleo says the witch from the icy mountains of Colorado.

"Randall what are your thoughts?"

"I want the man who deflowered my Summer. I want to taste his blood before I move inside of him, breaking every bone in his body. Then I will be satisfied, we attack at midnight" Selina smiles

"Langa, Khanyisile and their seer are mine" Selina says

"What are we going to do about the demi god in their midst" Ruby the witch of the Amazon asks

"I have a special ancient knife that kills demi gods but it must be wedged straight to the heart." Randall says

"Then it is settled"

THE NEXT DAY

Remi pops into Ora's bedroom while Leroy is busy saying goodbye to his wife and daughter.

"Beautiful lady" Remi says greeting Ora

"Remi, you gamble with my man's life again, I will kill you" she says getting up and pointing at Remi. It is a funny sight to behold because Ora is tiny like her mother and Remi is tall and buff like his brother and father

"I learned my lesson" he says holding in a laugh.

Leroy hugs Ora and kisses her on the forehead.

"I promise I'm coming back for you and our daughter." Ora wipes her tears

"I know you will daddy" Leroy smiles and goes to Kalama

"Take care of mommy until I come back. I love you" Kalama lifts her hand and places it on her father's forehead. The plot, the demigod killing knife, the time, the fallen angel and everything that the witches were planning played like a movie until she removed her hand.

"Thank you baby, you really have a beautiful gift but please do me a favour, don't show mommy the battle tonight okay" Leroy says whispering and Kalama giggles and makes baby noises.

AT THE PALACE IN LANGALETHU

Everyone who will be battling is up and preparing to go to battle. They made sure that all their loved ones left with the Thomsons.

"I can't believe this day has arrived. I hope no one dies or gets sucked into another dimension" Mpilo says

"I just got married, what if history repeats itself, mama was a young wife too when she lost you" Mpilokaise says to his father

"Royals" Leroy says appearing with Remi.

"This is my brother Remi and we will be joining you. Langa and Khanyisile you are excluded from this fight so is Mpilo"
former king Langa frowns

"You want us to sit and do nothing while our kids fight? Who made you the leader"

"Well my King, I'm Remi and I'm a god so frankly speaking I am higher than you so yah no grandparents allowed." Khanyisile frowns

"We are here to help but this fight is for this generation" he says pointing at Ntsika, Noma, Thando and Mpilokaise.

"If you force to go, you all will die give your weapons to your children and go to East London, the witches attack at midnight" Leroy says. Khanyisile looks over at Nomalanga and gives her her the umbrella for protection. No witch can penetrate it's shield. Langa gives Ntsika his scepter. As soon as Ntsika holds the scepter his eyes change colour to blue like his wife's eyes and the scepter changed colour too. Langa, Khanyisile and Mpilo leave the palace with heavy hearts. As much as they wanted to argue deep down inside they knew that this was not their fight 12:00 MIDNIGHT THE LONG AWAITED BATTLE OF THE NEXT GENERATION BEGINS. WHO WILL DIE AND WHO WILL MAKE IT OUT ALIVE, NEXT INSERT WILL REVEAL ALL.

CHAPTER 27

12 MIDNIGHT

18 persons appear in the palace dining room area. It's quiet and empty they assume the royals are sleeping.

"Hmm I'm sure they are snoring and drooling over the pillow, now who to kill first?" Selina says with a smirk

"Hello witches!" A voice startled them. They looked around but couldn't see anyone

"Show yourself?" Viviana says shouting

"Let's take this party elsewhere shall we?" Remi teleported everyone into a different dimension. The witches and the fallen angel were shocked to find everyone ready for battle.

"We have a traitor amongst us" Selina shouted looking at each and every witch. She banked on finding the Majolas unprepared. The element of surprise has been taken away, now it's a fair fight and that scares her Randall ignores Selina's outburst, he looks over at Ntsika and sees an easy target. He charges towards Ntsika but Noma chants a shielding spell.

"Cute, fighting for your man" Randall says breaking through the Shield with ease. Noma tries to open the umbrella but Randall already has Ntsika by the throat, Ntsika lifts his scepter up and a huge Vietnamese python appears wrapping itself around the fallen angel. Ntsika lifts the scepter again and a black mamba appears with its potent venom the mamba strikes Randall a couple of times. Randall's body becomes swollen instantly and the big python squeezes tight , Randall tries to wiggle out but the kiss of death from the mamba is making him weak. Viviana gets an uneasy feeling, their secret weapon is dying so quickly. She tries to come to Ntsika but Ntsika suddenly transforms into a male version of his mother. He floats in the air with power and energy radiating from him. He opens his mouth and acid shoots out of him mouth burning Vivianas face. She screams in excruciating pain

Randall finally bursts and the snakes disappear. He lays there with every bone in body broken just as he wished to kill Ntsika in that manner. Leroy smiles at Ntsika and nods then faces Selina.

"Where is that coward Apollonia!" Selina screams.

"You wanted a fight so here you have it. You are nothing Selina, accept defeat and your kind will be spared" Remi says

Selina charges towards Remi chanting a spell the ground cracks open into two and Remi falls inside. Leroy pulls out his sword but Selina is quick to chant a protection spell prohibiting Leroy from getting to her. Selina takes out the knife of destiny that can kill an immortal demigod. Noma chants a spell removing Selina's shield.

Leroy charges towards her but Selina is quick to stab Leroy on his chest, Leroy staggers a bit losing his breath and falls to the ground.

"Thank you my great niece, it's like you read my mind when you removed the Shield" Selina says laughing and she instructs Ruby to attack

Ruby lays her eyes on Thando

"Mmm a white witch" she chant a spell and a lot of bees surrounded Thando as they sting at her painfully. Ruby charges to Thando and grabs her by the neck. Mpilokaise transformed and hits ruby with his tail, Ruby staggered a bit. Thando coughs and takes out a beaded necklace and wraps it around Ruby's neck and chants a spell that cause necklace to glow and penetrates into Ruby's neck and cuts her head off.

ORATILE

"She's heating up, maybe we should take her to the doctor" my father says

"How do I explain her eyes when your wife fainted. How do you think the rest of the world will react?" Kalama started crying and the brown part of the eye just disappeared. There's no pupil, no iris just the white part of the eye.

"Herold Hesus

Herold Hesus

Herold Hesus

God of fire and light" imidiately my father in law appeared. My father was spooked but played it cool as usual

"I'm sorry to summon you father but Kalama's eyes changed and she's heating up" Herold immediately went to Kalama and stared at her.

"She's healing someone I assume her father must be injured" I frown

"I don't understand, should we take her to the doctor?" He shakes his head

"In all my years and I have been around since the beginning of time. I have never come across a being such as Kalama. She must be connected to her father and feel him dying and she is healing him" my eyes pop

"D.... Dying? I thought Leroy was immortal" I ask with my voice shaking

"Leroy is immortal, however because he is half human there is a knife called a destiny knife that can kill him if wedged straight into his heart. I'm guessing that is what happened and Kalama here is healing her father. Let her be, by the time she is done, she will go back to normal. Do not disturb her" I nod wiping my tears

"Can't you help them fight?" He shakes his head

"The rules set by the other gods do not allow me to join the fight. This fight is written in the history books. Leroy is supposed to die but somehow him meeting you changed all that. If truly Kalama can heal him then you my dear have the most powerful being in your daughter."

"You sent Leroy to war knowing exactly that he is going to die?" he sighs

"My daughter, Leroy is made for war. He enjoys it. As a god battling is what we do, whether he went on this fight or not his destiny was already written. He was going to die either way but meeting you changed all that. Your biological father must have had some kind of powers." All this is too much, I look over at my daughter and her eyes are now glowing. Yoh!

"I'm Nkululeko her father" my father says extending his hand to Herold

"I'm Herold, Leroy's biological father and the god of light and fire" he says shaking his hand

"You have cancer in your prostate. Get Leroy to heal you or our little miracle here if her father does not make it" I give him a death stare and he raises his hands in surrender, God please be with my husband.

MXOLISI THOMSON

We are all sitting in the living room. Everyone praying to whatever it is they believe in. I'm so agitated, I can't sit still. I keep on going out to smoke, I feel someone pat me on the back and I turn to find her father

"I'm scared" I say to him after turning back looking ahead.

"I'm scared too. I haven't spent enough time with her after being away for 17 years of her life. Both my children are there and I'm scared. The ancestors are not revealing anything. All I want is for them to come home. My son is about to become a father, I want him to experience that moment. Thando my awkward daughter has a boyfriend. I need to walk her down the isle" I chuckle

"She'll probably wear black since she always wears white" he laughs throwing his head back

"She asked me to give you this" he hands me a small box. I look at it and shake my head

"Open it son" he squeezes my shoulder gently and leaves. I open the box there's a bracelet made with beads, white big beads and there's a small note.

"If I make it out alive, I'm yours forever." I smile at that, couldn't she say she loves me?

BACK AT THE BATTLE FIELD!!!

Remi shoots out of the earth crack and lands on his feet. He looks around and his eyes land on Leroy who's not moving and has a knife on his chest. Remi sees red and turns into an inferno being and attacks every witch. He is able to kill 8 witches before Selina chants a protection spell to protect the rest. Remi looks over at Mpilokaise

"I need a tornado that cages them inside a twister, blue eyed girl! I need you to Sheila them using that umbrella and white witch I need you to throw lighting bolts. They all nod

"Mpilokaise gets up high and starts causing a tornado, a twister forms and Noma closes it up with her umbrella. Selina and the witches try to break the shield but they can't. Thando chants a spell of protection, protecting the protection of the umbrella making it impenetrable. Remi picks Thando up and flies with her to the top of the twister. Remi shoots fire inside while Thando shoots lighting bolts. Ntsika lifts off and joins the party throwing in inferno balls. The witches burn most melting because of the heat they were experiencing. Nomalanga was watching as the witches we melting. A woman appeared out of nowhere and Noma was about to chant a spell but the woman walked into the fire and pulled Selina. Selina was burned badly but still alive.

"Mama" Selina spoke

"It's time to come home my daughter"
Selina looked at me

"Please ask Ntsika to forgive me for everything including our daughter. I am also sorry for everything I did to you. It wasn't my doing, I let jealousy consume me"

"Bonolo?" She nodded and looked like she was in so much pain

"Farewell" they both said as they disappeared. Remi and the rest came down and he ran to Leroy removing the knife feeling his pulse.

"Is he alive" Thando asks and Remi shook his head with tears threatening to come out

"Why is he glowing on the stab wound?"
Thando asks

"Could be that father is taking him home"

It is done! The witches are all dead!!!!

FIVE YEARS LATER

"Kalama how many time did I tell you not to use your powers in public?" She giggles

"But mommy there's no one watching and it's tiring holding both the ice cream and the phone" Ora scoffs

"Eat your Ice cream first then you will play with your phone"

LANGA MAJOLA

Today is Mpilo and Nthabeleng's farewell party. They are both moving to Swaziland. They both needed a change of scenery. My wife and I are still in KZN but we moved out of the palace and bought a house at umhlanga rocks. The past 5 years have been amazing, after the epic battle that took place we appreciate life more, we appreciate each other more. Each day is a gift that we do not take for granted. I thank the gods of light and fire who fought alongside my children and basically saved our lives. My Queen and I had already made peace with the fact that we were going to die but oMajola pulled a rabbit out of the hat at the very last minute.

"Are you ready my husband?" I smile at my orange hair chubby Queen. We have come a long way and our love keeps getting stronger with each passing day.

"Yes my Queen" she giggles

"I just wonder how you will survive without your partner in crime" she says fixing my shirt

"When I have you, I have everything" she smiles

"What do you think about Lwandle moving out and renting an apartment near campus?" I sigh

"I don't think that's a good idea. She's only 17 years old I want her next to me so that I can keep all those hungry boys away from her"

"She 20 Langa and she's been a good girl. Let's trust her to take care of herself. Let her experience university life on her own. She will have guards with her all the time and she will come back home at least every month. Please my King" I hate that she has me wrapped around her fingers and she knows it

"Fine! I want the 3 body guards to live right across her apartment and she comes home every fortnight" she smiles

"That's better than nothing, I'll let her know, I'm sure she'll be so happy." She e walks out and I spank her butt causing her to giggle like a school girl.

We are at the the palace, the event organiser went all out with a huge Marquee at the garden and a beautiful elegant décor. The Thomsons and the ngwenyas are here, I spotted some of the Zuma family members as well.

"Are you really leaving me man" he chuckles

"Swaziland is not in another dimension or something, you own a private jet. You can come see me anytime and you know that our wives are inseparable." I nod

"Do you think it's really over? I mean the fighting, the fear of death, the enemies" he sighs

"One can never be too sure but truly speaking, I'm tired man I just want to spend time with my wife and grow old with her without all the royal drama. Our kids are stronger now" I get him he suffered the most being away from his family. I would be tired too. I look around I see my family laughing and having a good time, Ntsika my son has made me so proud, he had stepped up and he is doing such a phenomenal job being a King at his age he has achieved more that I did when I was his age. Him and my daughter Noma are expecting their 3rd baby. Everyone in the kingdom is very fond of her.

"Mommy uncle Remi is here!" I put on my lipstick and my heels. I'm wearing a red body hugging dress and matching heels

"Hi Remi" he whistles and I roll my eyes.

"Your brother is in the study" I don't understand why can't we book a flight like normal people, how can I teach Kalama about not using her powers in public when we teleport to KZN for aunt Nthabeleng's farewell party. Leroy walks in looking gorgeous in reaped blue jeans and red a golf shirt. Matching with Kalama who's wearing the same blue jeans and red top.

"This is what I call family goals, the Hesus family looking gorgeous" Remi says smiling

"Last time I checked our IDs say we are the Thomsons" he frowns and I laugh.

"You look beautiful baby" I blush as he pecks my lips. I will forever be grateful for the second chance our daughter has given my husband. In deed Kalama is a special child. We keep on discovering new gifts all the time. She is smart far beyond her age, I'm even thinking of home schooling her because she gets bored at day care and a bored Kalama is a dangerous Kalama. Herold is a frequent visitor here, he has such a great relationship with his granddaughter, they sometimes disappear together and she'd tell me stories about how she met other gods and they treat her like a princess.

We teleport to Langaletu kingdom, luckily the party hasn't begun yet. Everyone is here. Five years ago we almost lost Leroy and till to this day everyone in the Thomson and the Majola family celebrates him. Thando is heavily pregnant with her second child with Mxolisi. I honestly didn't see that union coming but they are happy and in love. As weird as Thando is Mxolisi is her perfect match. Ntsiki and Mpilokaise are also going strong, they have a beautiful baby boy. My father did have prostate cancer but Leroy healed it as soon as he was strong enough. Apparently healing such a huge illness takes its toll on you but Kalama was able to bring back her father from the dead and was still blubbly and playful the next day. That daughter of mine is an incredible I tell you.

MPILO

My wife and I are leaving south Africa, we bought a beautiful country house in Swaziland just to start afresh. We have been through a lot and I believe I have dedicated enough of my life to the Langaletu kingdom. My son is more than capable of protecting this kingdom alone. I have so much faith in him and my daughter Thando seems to be settling in well into her role as a wife and a mother. There's really nothing keeping us here.

"I'm so excited about leaving this place Nxamalala, does that make me a bad mother, friend, grandmother?" I laugh

"It makes you a good wife" she giggles

"I'm being serious Tu"

"You are the strongest person I know, our kids look up to you. Baby you have done your part more than me. You have raised beautiful loving very much grown and married adults so don't worry about leaving them behind. Besides, Swaziland is not that far. If they miss us, they can hop on the plane and come see us" she wipes her tears and smiles. I'm so happy that I didn't listen to the late Queen mother because this woman right here is my strength.

"My parents are my heroes, both of them. Okay my father the most" Thando says surprising me

"Yes he was away from us for 17 years but we had mom, aunty Khanyisile, uncle Langa, and all our cousins. We had love, but he was alone in a strange world and in a different time. He had no wife to kiss him goodnight at least I hope not," the crowd laughed and I smile

"You are my hero dad because you fought to come back to us and when you did it was like you have been there all along. You and mama deserve all the happiness in the world. Your love story is not sad at all because here you are, together and happy. We will miss you and promise to at least allow you to settle in for a month after that we will be popping in like we leave just next door" she hugs us, I swear marriage has made her less weird ish.

I'M ALIVE!!

My heart stopped and I welcomed death. I knew it was over the moment the knife pierced through my heart

My life literally flashed before my eyes. At that moment my wife and my daughter came into my mind. When I saw my mother smiling at me I knew for sure that I left the land of the living but all of a sudden something pulled me back and I was falling into a bottomless pit until I heard my wife's voice and I woke up in hospital. They told me that Kalama healed me and I replied that "she didn't heal me, she woke me up from the dead" they knew I was right because the doctors didn't understand how was I still alive. Well my daughter can now lift objects with her mind, she sees into the future, the passed and the presence. She also can manipulate the elements which is strange because my father is a god of fire and light while she controls earth, fire, wind and water. My father has been trying to find out what exactly is she but we haven't found out about the origin of her powers as yet.

"Daddy can I visit Africa for the holidays, pretty please!" She says giving puppy eyes, Africa is Mxolisi and Thandolwethu's four old son

"I'll talk to mommy first"

"Thank you daddy, I'll go tell I'll go tell Africa I'm coming over" I frown

"I didn't say yes I said I'll speak to your mother first" she giggles

"Mommy will say yes, you are the hard nut to crack" she says running out. Did I also mention that she's too smart for her own good?

MXOLISI THOMSON

5 years ago after the epic battle I asked for Thando's hand in marriage. My family felt that it was too early to move on after just a couple of months of burying Sharon but I didn't give a fuck. I wanted to marry this beautiful awkward woman and I didn't care what anyone else said. A few months after paying ilobola for my weirdo, we found out that she was carrying our little boy Africa. I couldn't be happier. Kalama is visiting us for the holidays and so is my daughter Nonhlanhla. My wife is heavily pregnant which is why I decided to work from home so that I can be able to help her with the kids.

"You look tired butterfly"

"I feel tired, I can't wait to pop this baby out and tying my tubes because you Mr Thomson and your sperm don't adhere to contraceptives" she says rubbing her bump.

"Not happening, I want two more babies" she frowns and tilts her head. That used to intimidate me a lot but now I'm used to it.

"Maybe I can chant a spell that makes you fall pregnant and carry the two you so desperately want" I laugh throwing my head back

"I don't mind at all, I bet I can do a better job" she scoffs making me laugh more. She knows I'm joking, I fainted during Africa's birth I just don't know how women do it.

"Uncle Mxo can we go to the mall please, Africa and I want to buy matching phones" I'm surrounded by weird women, Leroy's daughter is another one

"You don't need matching phones Kalama, the ones you have are just fine"
she frowns

"But they're boring now, we need something new like your phone" I chuckle

"I'm not about to buy you kids the latest iPhones"

"Why not?" I sigh

"Because you are too young to have such an expensive phone and i can't afford to buy two" she thinks for a while

"Africa is fine with his phone, you can buy me the iPhone. He doesn't have a problem right Africa?" My traitor of a son nods and I'm left speechless

"We will have to call your parents first to ask if it's okay for us to buy you another phone" my wife says saving the day, at least the parents will be the ones who will look bad when they refuse.

LWANDLE MAJOLA

Finally!!! I get to live on my own, my father is too much. I had to beg and grovel to get him to agree to me living on my own. I am doing my first year in LLB. They got me a 3 bedroom apartment but I'll be staying with my personal aid Nokuthula. She's just a few years older than me but not old enough to be the boss of me. I'm really not a wild girl, nor am I a party animal but the royal life gets too much sometimes I just want freedom. I'm all settled into the Anglo cluster residence. This building is beyond beautiful and cosy, not the enormous houses I'm used to, which is quite refreshing.

I'm not allowed to drive myself so I have a driver, I settled for something less conspicuous just a Kia Sportage. I'm done with my classes but I want to grab something to eat before calling my driver to come pick me up. I get to MacDonald and there's a guy there counting coins trying to pay for a big Mac.

"You are R12 short" he scratches his pockets but there's nothing, he clearly doesn't have it.

"If you don't have it please move, you are holding up the line" the cashier says dismissively

"You can charge it on my card I don't mind" I say softly

"Thank you" he says looking down. I smile and walk out with my bag of food.

NEXT DAY

"Remember in a civil case beyond reasonable doubt does not have as much impact as in a criminal case. That will be all for the day, I'll see you on Monday" I pack up my stuff and walk out

"Hi, I never got to introduce myself yesterday" it's the R12 guy from MacDonald. I didn't even know we attend the same class.

"Okay" I fold my arms and wait for him to introduce himself

"I am Pheny Nxumalo"

"I'm Lwandle Majola it's nice to meet you Zwide" he smiles shyly

"Nice to meet you too, uhm Thanks for your help yesterday. I would like to do something for you to thank you. I could wash your car or something, I really don't like handouts." I frown

"I don't have a car"

"I can tutor you for free if you like. My name is there on the tutor's list."

"Aren't you a first year student too?" he shakes his head

"I'm a third year student, I finished up early so I came to Mr Nkosi's class because I washed his car so I'm coming to collect my payment" he says with a smile. There's something about this guy maan, I don't know what it is but he is cute, very cute but you can tell that he is struggling by the worn out clothes he is wearing. I like that he is neat and clean even under the rags he's wearing.

"I'll sign up for tutoring sessions but I will pay you and it's not up for debate" I leave him standing there.

LEROY THOMSON

"I think I know what she is" my father says appearing at my office. I run one of the most successful pharmaceutical company called Hesus pharmaceuticals.

"I'm all ears" he sighs

"She's a guardian"

"A guardian! What the hell is that?" He takes a seat

"The guardians are born once every millennium, she is a powerful being that's neither god nor human, they are usually born from a fallen star which is puzzling how come she was born from a human womb. They live for 1000years until a new guardian is chosen. Her powers are yet to develop and need to be guided until she is at least 18 years old. She has powers to wake the dead not just you. If gods or anyone finds out what she is they can harm her which is why you need to make sure that she is protected all the time." This is all confusing

"I don't know what to say, you haven't told anyone of the other god?"

"They don't know about her powers but they have met her. There's a lady in the mountains of Canada who knows about Guardians apparently her father was one and he died on the day Kalama was born."

"Is she dangerous?"

"Very but only to the enemy. Guardians live a quiet normal life helping and healing people here and there. They don't like war but fight to protect their own."

Kalama is the first female guardian born of a human being. I suspect the fallen star merged with the embryo inside Ora's womb" I nod,

"Where's she anyway. I popped in at your house but she wasn't there.

"She went to visit Mxolisi, my brother."he nods

"Remember what I told you son, make sure she doesn't use her powers in public. Nothing that will attract the outside world." This is going to be difficult I need to fetch her from my brother's house because knowing her she'll come up with a good reason why she had to use her powers in public.

PHENYO NXUMALO

"Who is she?" I'm busy cleaning her room.

"What are you on about sthandwa?"

"I know that smile, you my boy are in love" I shake my head.

"I don't have time for love, I have you and Njabulo to take care of." I pick her up and place her on her wheelchair while I make the bed. Changing the sheets and putting fresh clean ones.

"Everyone needs love baby, you also deserve to be happy and judging by that smile, whoever it is you are smiling for makes you happy"

" She's a first year student, she's the one who bought that big Mac for Njabulo. I was R12 short at Macdonald but she paid with her card and that's how I was able to buy biscuits as well." She smiles

"Sthandwa, girls like her want rich guys, I can't afford her so I don't want to set myself up for heartbreak." She shakes her head

"Not all girls are the same son. Some just want to be loved and cherished. Money is not everything"

"In these four walls sthandwa Sam money is not everything but out there, money is everything. To even ask for a girl's number is money because they judge you on which phone you are using" she laughs

My name is Phenyso Nxumalo and I am 25 years old. I live with my mother and my little brother Njabulo who's 14 years old and in grade 8

It has always been the three of us for as long as I remember. my father left to look for work when Njabulo was only a year old and he never came back again. My mother had to step up and be a father to us. She worked as a domestic worker and put us through school until I finished my matric. 5 years ago on her way back from work she was hit by a drunk driver and was left paralyzed from the waist down. I had to drop out of my first year and drop the bursary so that I could take care of her. I was lucky that the same bursary sponsor gave me a second chance after I explained my situation and now I'm doing my 3rd year in LLB. I do odd jobs here and there, anything to put food on the table and take care of my family. Yesterday it was Njabulo's birthday and I wanted to surprise him with a big Mac. He always sees it on TV, man you should have seen the smile on his face, it was priceless.

NTSIKA

Today is the council meeting and Zamani is my newly appointed advisor. He hails from this kingdom and His father was my father's advisor so I guess his old man taught him about this role.

"My king" he says walking into the throne room. I asked him to come before the council meeting begins because I want to get to know him first.

"Please call me Ntsika, I hope you and I are going to have a good working relationship and take this kingdom from strength to strength." He nods with a smile

"It has always been my father's wish that I follow in his foot steps, and it has been my wish to serve the kingdom that took me to school and made me who I am today."

"Aren't you going to miss practicing medicine?" He chuckles

"I will be working at the clinic when you don't need me. Helping the sick is in my blood, I love it and I believe I can do both" I'm happy with that.

The council meeting went well everything seems to be in order and I'm very happy. Nomalanga walks up to us with little Langa on her tail

"Hey Baby" she says smiling

"Baba!" My son runs to me wanting me to pick him up.

"Hai Langa, you want to kill your father boy, you are so heavy" he giggles. Zamani clears his throat

"Where are my manners, baby this is Zamani my personal advisor, man this is my wife, Queen Nomalanga"

"Nice to meet you my Queen" she smiles

"Nice to meet you too Zamani, baby I came to remind you that we have a doctor's appointment in an hour's time" I almost forgot

"Snap! It slipped my mind, Zamani I'll have to take a rain check on that lunch invite" he nods and I walk him out.

ZAMANI

I have heard rumours of her beauty but the rumours don't do her justice. That woman is gorgeous and those eyes are just captivating. I drive out of the palace and go straight to my father's house.

"How was your first day as the personal advisor to the king?" My father asks with a twinkle in his eye.

"It was good. I like the King, he seems like a noble man" he nods

"He is a noble young man just like his father."

"And the Queen is the most beautiful woman I've ever seen." He nods

"She is, she's originally from America and has a white father" interesting! I think I just met the one, I'm sorry Ntsika. You seem like a cool guy but you have what should be mine, I'm coming for the blue eyed Queen.

MPILOKAISE

"Yes baby, I'm cumming" she screams as I thrust into her faster. It does not take long for me to reach my peak as well. I roll to the side breathing heavily.

"That was amazing" she says with a smile

"Yeah baby" I say cuddling her

"Baby I'm going away to the mountains for a couple of months" I cross my fingers

"So you had to soften me up with your dick first before dropping a bomb on me"
I laugh nervously

"Baby the ancestors want me to fast and pray for 60 days. Majola also needs to shed it's skin" she frowns

"What do you mean by that?"

"It's a seer thing, you won't get it,"

"But why do you have to go for that long, the longest you've spent at the mountains is 3weeks max"

"I know my love but I'm just an instrument played by our ancestors." She nods but I can tell that she's not happy at all

"When are you leaving?" I sigh

"Tonight" she scoffs

"Wow!" I try to kiss her but she pulls away roughly getting out of the bed. I really don't want to leave but there's nothing I can do.

I find her taking a shower so I decide to join her. She has her back facing me, I know she heard me when I entered.

"Baby please, I can't leave when you're this angry." She turns to face me, turning off the tap and her eyes are red, she's been crying."

"It's okay, don't mind me. I'm just going to miss you, we can't even communicate and you know how your son gets when you go to the mountains, he becomes difficult to handle" I sigh

"I know baby, I will speak to him before I leave" we share a passionate kiss.

LWANDLE MAJOLA

I can't stop thinking about Phenyoy, there's something sweet and gentlemanly about him, he doesn't look or speak to me the way most guys do. He looks humble, I'm intrigued. My class just ended I'm walking out but someone shouts my name

"Lwandle! It's Lwandle right?" I nod

"I'm Nomsa, do you want to grab some lunch with me, I'd like to be your friend" I was just about to answer when Phenyoy spoke behind us

"Ladies" I turn and smile at him

"What is it? We are not interested in signing up for your stupid lessons. Can't you see that you are disturbing my friend and I . Leave errand boy" Nomsa says looking disgusted. Phenyio doesn't say anything else he just turns to leave but I stop him

"Wait! Nomsa or whatever it is you call yourself, I don't have rude friends mina so no to the stupid lunch. Phenyio let's go" I say walking to him. He stares at me like he's trying to figure me out.

"I'm sorry about that, wanna grab some lunch my treat" he shakes his head

"I...."his phone rings and he looks at me

"I need to answer this, I'll see you around"
he walks away answering the phone but I follow him.

"Sir please you can't throw us out, I'm expecting some money tomorrow please" he says with a breaking voice and somehow my heart just shatters my heart. He hangs up and puts his hands on his head.

"Talk to me Phenyoy"

" my land lord threw us out, I haven't paid rent for three months but I was going to pay" he says trying hard to stop the tears, he keeps on swallowing hard.

"I need to go" he says walking away but I'm following behind

"Wait I'm coming with you" he doesn't say anything so I follow behind, he stops a taxi and gets in, I get in as well. He's not talking to me it's like his mind is not even here. We get off and I literally run behind him. We get to a little house, there's a woman who's crying on a wheelchair and a boy next to her, people are busy taking out their clothes and furniture. This is a heartbreaking sight.

"Mr Mkhize please just give us one last chance, we have nowhere to go" Phenyso begs the short fat man

"I'm tired of always wondering if this month I'm getting paid or not, I'm not running a charity here I also depend on this money" he says instructing the men taking out the furniture to hurry. Phenyoo looks defeated

"Sir, I can pay what they owe and two months extra please don't throw them out." He shakes his head

"New tenants are moving in today. 10 years of excuses I'm done. I have kids to feed too." I sigh

"Take important documents and clothes, you will stay with me until we figure out something." He looks at me like I'm crazy but I move from him and walk towards the old lady and the boy

"Sanibonani my name is Lwandle Majola. You can come live with me until we find a place to stay for you guys" the old woman sobs

"It's okay mama, please stop crying" I make a call to Nokuthula explaining the situation. Moments later she shows up with two guards and a 3 ton truck. They really don't have much stuff, the furniture is old and worn out. I tell them to pick important things and we make way to my apartment, Luckily the building is wheelchair friendly.

"Thula please make something to eat for everyone and please refrain from calling me princess please and tell the guards as well. Phenyoy and his brother will stay with the guards across." She nods and I show Phenyoy's mother where she'll be sleeping"

" thank you my daughter, may God bless you " I smile

"It's nothing Mama, I'm glad I was able to help" she nods

"If I was able, I would at least thank you by cleaning around and doing your laundry"

"You are my guess Mama, don't stress about anything" i walk out of the room and find Phenyó looking lost and stressed in the living room.

"Hey" he turns and looks at me

"I'll make sure we are out of your house by tomorrow"

"You don't have to do that with me you know" he frowns

"Act all brave, I know you don't like handouts but you are taking my blessings away by refusing my help. Phenyoo at some point in life we all need help, it doesn't make you weak but it makes you human. You will move out of here once I get a proper place for you to live and that's not up for discussion, now go freshen up dinner will be ready soon." I say walking away but I feel his eyes on me as I climb the stairs. I need to speak to my mother about helping them.

LEROY THOMSON

"What did she do this time?" I ask walking into the principal's office. She's in preschool I really don't understand how a 5 year old can be called to the principal's office 4 times in one month.

"Sir your daughter shouldn't be in this day care. In fact she should be in university doing her last year, she is rude and condescending. She has a smart mouth and basically is the leader of this whole establishment. She tells her teachers how to teach and quite frankly I'm tired of her disrespectful nature." I sigh, Ora and I did think of home schooling her, if ever we needed a push then this is it.

"I understand Mrs Van wyk and I apologize on my daughter's behalf. We will be taking her to another school where she can cope." She nods getting up

"Kalama is an adult trapped in a 5 year Old's body I tell you" i don't entertain her statement I take my daughter's hand and leave

"What's wrong with you Kalama?" I'm driving back home with her at the back folding her arms like she's in deep thought

"With me? Nothing but with that school everything is wrong. The teachers are lazy, they always tell us to colour while they play with their phones and if it's not the colouring then it's the singing. We don't play games to stimulate our minds. I might as well stay home and watch the discovery channel" God! when other parents got a bundle of joy I got a grumpy old woman

"It's okay baby, we will find you a very good teacher who will keep you on your toes" she smiles

"How about some Ice cream Princess?"

"Tin roof from wollies and sugar cones sounds nice" I nod and drive to the nearest mall.

"What happened this time?" Ora asks as soon as we enter the door

"We need to home school her, she's bored out of her mind at that day care" she sighs

"I saw this coming, I'll put up an ad for a grade 5 teacher. We will see how it goes."

"I bet he/she won't last a week" she playfully hits me with a dish cloth

"Then you Mr will have to hire her and make her you p.a I'm sure that will be challenging enough for her" I chuckle.

"Can you believe the principal suggested that she goes to university because she is an adult trapped in a kid's body" I say shaking my head and she bursts out laughing.

"I was thinking that we would take a family trip to Canada, I wanted us to go to that lady that Herold was talking about, the daughter of the last guardian. I want to get more information and how to handle Kalama, what do you think?" She sighs

"There's nothing wrong with her, she's just misunderstood baby. I don't think we need to go all the way to Canada for that." I nod

"In that case I'll ask Remi to take me there just to feed my curiosity. We will plan a family trip to a destination of your choice."

NOMALANGA

I've been thinking of visiting home in America. I've been speaking to my father over the phone and I must say that our relationship has truly grown. He told me that after the fall of the church most people went to join the LDS church and others left for the city. Most polygamous marriages ended. He still has 3 wives while the rest left. I'm at Langaletu high school to speak to the girls about the importance of contraception. This is a very touchy subject because parents don't want their children to be taught about sex, but the teenage pregnancy is alarmingly high.

"As I was saying ladies. It is very important you wait for the right time to have sex. I broke my virginity at the age of 21 with my husband. I'm not saying wait for marriage but I'm saying you should wait until you are mentally and emotionally ready. Never feel pressured into doing it because your friend is doing it, that's her choice and trust me there's always consequences. Condoms are not one hundred percent guaranteed but if you really must have sex then use protection."

I get off the stage and greet a few learners and teachers.

"My Queen, you are indeed beautiful" one of the learners says with a smile

"Thank you darling and you are beautiful too. I like your afro." I say touching her soft her

"She's right you are beautiful" a male voice says behind us

"We meet again my Queen" I smile

"Za...." I try to remember his name but nothing. He laughs

"Don't tell me you already forgotten my name?" I shrugs

"It's Zamani" I nod.

"It was nice seeing you again" I say already walking away from him . I'm sensing some weird vibes from this one. I hope I'm wrong about him

ZAMANI

I watch as she walks out with her cute pregnant self and I feel my dick getting excited.

I came to see my sister who's a teacher here.

"Bhuti" she says hugging me

"Lil sis" she leads me to her classroom and we have a chat.

"She comes here every month to bring sanitary towels and talk to girls about the importance of hygiene and taking care of themselves." I smile

"I'm in love with her" she laughs so loud but stops as soon as she realises that I'm serious.

"Bhuti, she's the Queen, she can't leave her husband for you"

"I know that Phumi, that's why I need your help" she frowns

"What kind of help?"

"Keep the king occupied" I smirk

"Kodwa bhuti a whole king, that won't be as easy as the time I helped you destroy your best friend's marriage. They are royalty and have seers who can sniff bullshit a mile away" she's right

"I'll think of a way around that don't worry. I am the king's advisor which puts me at a slight advantage. Don't worry sis, we can pull it off"

"What's in it for me" she asks with a smirk

"Except fucking the King, I'll buy you a new car" she screams hugging me

"Let's do it bhuti" music to my ears

PHENYO

It's been 4 days staying here but I'm restless.

My brother seems to be having the time of his life, being transported to school with a car, having a scrumptious lunch box and watching TV with lots of different channels. I on the other hand have been thinking of what to do to get a place to live. I can't expect to stay here forever, I walk into my mother's bedroom to bath her as usual but I find the Nokuthula lady dressing her

"Thank you Sisi I'll take it from here" she bows and walks out the room

"Sthandwa are you okay?" I ask finishing up.

"I'm okay my son, now I know why you were smiling like a retard the other day, Lwandle seems like a very nice lady" I sigh as I sit on the bed

"I don't want her to think that we are taking advantage of her, Njabulo is already getting used to this life and I know pretty soon it will be taken away from us" she looks down

"It does feel good to be bathed by someone who's not my son, don't get me wrong Phenyo but you are a young and a male child. You shouldn't be subjected to such things."

"Mama we spoke about this, I am here because you gave me life, you have done so much for me. So I love taking care of you, I was thinking of dropping out and getting a full time job, when we are financially stable I will finish up. She sighs

"I can't tell you what to do son because I'm powerless to even be useful to myself. Whatever you think is best my son.

Although I wanted you to finish your studies."

LWANDLE MAJOLA

My mother and I are standing at the door listening to their conversation. After I called her she decided to come and see for herself what I was talking about. Apparently dad went to visit uncle Mpilo, I couldn't help laughing when mom told me about dad visiting Swaziland, he couldn't wait at least 2 months before going to his twin.

"Son, you will finish your studies" my mother says walking in. Phenyos eyes pop and he bows

"Your Highness" his mother says, I forgot how famous my mother is with her orange hair.

"Hello I'm Khanyisile Majola, my daughter told me about your situation and I'm here to help. Young man, I understand that you are a proud man but leaving school is not an option. I have already secured an apartment in this building for your family and a live in nurse to help you with your mother before you start thinking that this is a handout, I want you to tutor my daughter and I've also secured an apprenticeship with Majola attorneys, you will work there on weekends with no pay" I look at Phenyoy and his eyes are glossy, he is trying not to cry but he fails so he starts sniffing.

"Thank you very much your majesty" my mother smiles

"Please call me mama or mom, I'm sure your mother won't mind" Phenyoy's mother shakes her head smiling

"Kids please excuse us I need to speak to Mrs Nxumalo alone"

"I don't know how to thank you" he says as soon as we walk out of the bedroom. I look at him with so much admiration.

"You can thank me by being my friend" he looks at me then looks down

"Why would you want to be friends with me?" I smile

"Because I like you very much and I think you are cute." Okay Lwandle stop it now

"I like you too Lwandle and I would be honoured to be your friend" I open my arms for a hug and he walks slowly towards me. The butterflies in my stomach, he's slightly taller than me and I'm a bit on the chubby side thanks to my mother. I just melt in his arms, he hugs longer than he should and I take in his scent, he doesn't smell expensive but he smells clean and fresh. I like the way he smells I like him very my much

NTSIKA

I don't remember the last time I went out to a club, I think it was during my varsity years if I'm not mistaken. When Zamani invited me to go clubbing with him, I was a bit sceptical but my wife encouraged me to go and have fun. Her best friend is coming over for a sleepover, I'm glad I won't be around. Mmeli is draining sometimes, Noma walks in as I finish dressing up.

"I think I have changed my mind, you can't go out looking this handsome." I peck her lips

"Are you scared that they will take me away"

"If you allow yourself to be taken away then there's nothing I can do." I smile and bring her into a hug

"You are the owner of my heart and my dick so rest assured wifey"

"Or you can stay in and watch house wives of Dubai with Mmeli and I" she smiles mischievously

"I'd rather chew glass" she laughs

"I didn't know there was such a dope place in our kingdom" I say as we park outside the club.

"It's actually my club, I opened it a couple of months ago after my divorce settlement came through. I figured I should open a club seeing that it's the only thing we don't have in Langaletu kingdom. We do need a little fun as a kingdom after all." I nod, the people in the club look like they're seeing Barack Obama or something, some even avoid eye contact while others bow and take pictures of me

"I'll have a Heineken" he frowns

"I thought you would have some whiskey or something"

"I'm royalty and I'm in public, I don't drink open alcohol. Although any form of drug or muti won't affect me I'm not in the mood to kill anyone for trying to poison me. I'd rather avoid all that" he swallows hard

"We can bring the whole bottle for you" I shake my head

"Beer is fine thanks" he nods 3 ladies walk up to us wearing skimpy outfits

"Kodwa bhuti you didn't tell me that you are chilling with the King" a lady says with a huge ass and hips but has a tiny waist. She looks like the female version of Zamani.

"Phumi you and your friends are intruding, I'm sitting with the king today unless you don't mind chilling with my little sister and her friends."

"It's okay" I say faking a smile. The Phumi girl keeps on twerking right near my face. I've run out of places to look, her huge ass is not even that appealing. I'm sure it's implants and they look painful if you ask me.

"My King, are you having a great time?" I nod

"But you are not dancing?" She pulls me up and starts grinding on my dick.

I grip her hand and whisper in her ear

"Meet me outside in 5 minutes" she bites her lower lip and continues to dance

"I'm going home now" he forwns

"It's not even midnight yet" I chuckle

"I'm too old for clubbing" he laughs, I instruct my guards to follow me.

"Goodnight old man" I walk outside and wait for that Phumi chic

"Sorry I took my time, I wanted to make sure that my brother is not suspicious of anything. Where to, I know a nice hotel just a few kilometres outside Langaletu kingdom. It's very discreet" this one has lost her mubbles.

"What do you think this is?" She blinks a couple of times looking confused

"Do you know I could have you beheaded for the stunt you pulled in there right now? Now you listen to me. I am King Ntsika Majola and I am married to the most beautiful woman that my ancestors have chosen for me, if you ever touch me or look my way again, I will kill you. I will deflate that fat ass of yours if you think you can walk up to the king and talk to him anyway how. I respect your brother but trust me I won't hesitate to kill you" I say leaving her standing there like a statue.

ZAMANI

That was easier than I thought, my sister's ass can make even the noblest cheat. I must say, I'm very disappointed in Ntsika. I thought it would us drugging him to be more willing if you catch my drift.

"Ladies, who's going home with me tonight?" I feel like popping champagne

"Me!" The two girls that came with Phumi say in unison

"I'll take the both you" my happiness was short lived when Phumi walks in looking like she got left by the last train.

"Don't tell me the man is a two minute noodle" she chuckles

"That son of a bit insulted me, he called me names." Don't tell me he saw through her

"What now? Don't tell me you want out" she shakes her head

"Hell no, in fact I'm more fired up than ever. I know a very powerful sangoma at manzini kingdom. I want his dick deep in my throat and for him to swallow his fucken words..I am Phumi Mkhize, no one says no to this ass" she says looking pissed and I can't help but laugh. I know when she gets like this, it's game over for the blue eyed Queen and that's where I come in and mend her broken heart and the divorce settlement she'll get from divorcing him will be a cherry on top.

LWANDLE MAJOLA

My mother stayed only a couple of days before leaving. She and Manxumalo seem to have hit it off. They were carrying on like old friends. Pheny and I have been getting real close. They moved 5 doors from me but we eat dinner together every evening. With each passing moment I fall deeper and deeper in like with Phenyoy but I am afraid to start something, I want him to make the first move because of all the things my mother did for him, he might feel obligated to date me and that's not what I want. I want him to be with me because he loves me.

I kind of hinted to my mother that I like him, I wanted to be sure that I don't have a chosen one that might pop up from nowhere phela with my family you will never know. I might be starting another war of ages being with Phenyoy but my mother assured me that there's nothing like that. The only man who can get between Phenyoy and I is my over protective father.

I just finished with my last class for the day, I want to surprise Phenyoy with a shopping spree. I know he will refuse but I'm adamant about giving him a new look. Maybe that might boost his confidence a bit.

"Hello beautiful" I'm roll my eyes, this guy has been asking me and doesn't want to take no for an answer.

"Hi" he licks his lips and I'm immediately disgusted

"Can I take you out for lunch?" I scoff

"The answer will always be no even if you can ask me tomorrow so stop wasting your breath, besides I'm waiting for my boyfriend" he chuckles

"The ice Queen has a boyfriend? I'd like to shake the hand of the man who melted your icy heart and for your info I always get what I want and you my dear are everything I want. I can just imagine that jelly ass twerking on my dick" I cringe disgusted to the core, I spot Phenyoy and I smile, he walk up to us and greets

"Hey baby" I say hugging him, he looks at me surprised

"Baby? So you're dating an errand boy. go wash my car so that you can buy your lady lunch" he says giving him his cars but I push his hand away

"You're too kind Lwazi but my boyfriend and I are actually going to the mall. For any future car washing duties or anything else please look for someone else and I would very much appreciate it if you would stop flirting with me. My errand boy here is enough for me" I say pulling Phenyos hand

"What did you do that for? Njabulo needs a new school bag. I need that money, I know you want us to be friends but I need you to understand that there are certain things I need to do to earn money okay" I smile at him

"I am not ashamed of you being the so called errand boy but I will not allow you to be made a mockery by the likes of Lwazi. If it was any decent polite person I would have even helped you wash the car" he smirks

"A whole princess" I smile shyly

"Please accompany me to the mall, we can grab some lunch there" he nods and I call my driver and within minutes he arrives and drives us to the mall.

"This is too much, I can't accept this" he's been singing that song every shop we went to.

"Last stop wollies, I need to buy some things for Mama and Njabulo too" he sighs and follows behind

I bought everything I wanted to buy for them, it's safe to say that Phenyso has a new wordrope. We are now having lunch at spur. The waiter takes out orders and leaves.

"I'm coming back right now" I nod , he's probably going to the bathroom.

Moments later someone taps my shoulders and I look behind me only to find Pheny holding a red rose and a small teddy. He gives them to me and sits down

"Thank you princess. I used to think God hates me and my family after my father leaving us and then my mother's accident. I concluded that I wasn't God's favourite until I met you, I know you are not doing this for pay back but I swear princess I work my fingers to the bones just to have enough money to marry you and I will make you the happiest woman in the world. I give you my word, I know I have nothing and I'm not your ideal type of guy but I swear Lwandle I will never make you regret meeting me" I smile widely

"Did you say you will marry me" he looks down

"Well when the day comes and you get down on one knee just know that the answer will be yes" he looks up smiling he gets up to sit next to me and plants a kiss on my cheek but I go in for a full kiss. His lips are so soft and he kisses me slowly and beautifully. We only break the kiss when the waiter clears his throat carrying our food.

"Does that mean you are my girlfriend now?"

"Yes I've been your girlfriend for a while I was just waiting for you to catch on" he shakes his head.

"You know I can't afford to take you out on dates but I w...." I don't let him finish

"I don't want a relationship based on material things. Money doesn't move me Pheny. I grew up in it around it with it everywhere, I chose to come live alone and keep a low profile because I'm tired of being fussed over. Please don't think you can buy me because being a daughter of a billionaire it's going to be a futile exercise. Just love me, respect me and be honest that's all I ask" he looks at me for some time then smiles

MXOLISI THOMSON

My wife has been in labour for the past two hours, I am losing my mind waiting for her to give birth. I'm shit scared, the way she's screaming is really scary.

"She'll be okay bro, Mlu and Leroy are here, my parents are already on their way to jozi. Ora took Africa for a while.

"Why is she taking so long, the last time we spent an hour max and Africa was out" I say frustrated

"Pregnancies are not the same" Leroy says

Another two hours later we hear a cry of a baby, the doctor opens the door and signals me to come in. Last time she gave birth I was traumatized so I refused to be in the room while she gives birth.

I look over at Thando and she looks tired the nurse comes with a wrapped baby and soon as I see her I fall in love. She is perfect, she's beautiful. I kiss my wife with tears blinding my sight

"Thank you MaThomson, I love her and I love you" she smiles with tears rolling down. The nurse takes the baby promising to bring her back

"Have you thought of a name yet?" I shrug

"Azania" she says with a smile

"I love it baby! Africa and Azania our little family"

Leroy and Mlu walk in just as then the nurse walks in with our little Azania wrapped in a pink receiver

"She's beautiful" my daughter is born with albinism and she very cute.

"Makoti thank you for this beautiful gift"
Thando smiles genuinely I swear motherhood has made her less awkward.

My parents arrived and everyone is going crazy over how beautiful Azania is. They are even fighting to hold her which is a pleasure to watch. They will be discharged tomorrow but I can't wait to have them home.

NARRATED

"It's a good thing that you came now, their seer is away for months. I am going to give you something that will make you look appealing to him, he will be like he is looking at his wife." Phuti and her brother nod

"Somadla I hear you but according to the king he can't be bewitched" he mumble his clan names

"Worry not like I said their seer is not around its easy to get to him without him being around" Phumi's face beams with joy. All she has been thinking about is getting into Ntsika's pants

"How are you going to get him to a hotel"
Phumi asks her brother on their way back to Langaletu kingdom

"I will throw a house warming party for the house I just bought at zimbali. Which will explain your presence there, worry not. I have a good feeling about this"
Zamani says making his sister smile

"I just want to see his face the next morning when he wakes up next to me.
He was so arrogant as if he is incapable of cheating, he's a man, all men cheat especially when they see my fat ass" Zamani laughs because he knows that if they were not related, he too would have teared up that ass a long time ago.

PHENYO

My relationship with Lwandle has been amazing, is it early to say that I'm in love?
Well I'm in love. She is just the sweetest most loving woman I've ever met. My mother can't stop singing her praises, don't get me started on Njabulo. She's so humble, you would never guess that she's a princess of the famous Langaletu kingdom.

"Hey lover boy, you are looking handsome, wanna wash my car?" I smile, it's not the first time washing her car but this time she's much nicer and flirty, must be the new clothes. Everyone has been checking me out. One girl in my class went as far as asking if I'm new, who knew that wearing new clothes can transform a person.

"Sure, I have a class now but I can wash it around 12" she throws the keys at me and winks

"I want it spotless errand boy" I nod

I park her car and fetch my buckets in the storeroom. I fill them with water and I start washing.

"Hey baby" I turn and find my princess looking more beautiful than this morning.

"Hey" I stop what I'm doing and walk up to her giving her a sultry kiss

"I wanted us to catch a movie and I already booked it online. Can I help you so that we can be faster" I nod and watch as she folds her sleeves and we get working. She's so focused on what she's doing, i can't help but stop what I'm doing and watch in awe. She's so focused and beautiful. I take a little water and splash on her face

"What the!" I laugh at her and she frowns

"Phenyo maan" she wipes herself sulking"

"The movie will start before we even get there. Please be serious" she looks so adorable when she's sulking

"Okay but it's hard to focus when you're this beautiful" she blushes tucking her hair behind her ear. We carry on until the car is spotless. The obnoxious girl comes with her friends.

"Lover boy, my car looks spotless as usual, how much?" I frown, she always pays me 80bucks

"It's 80 bucks" she smiles

"How about I give you 100bucks plus a kiss" I frown and I hear Lwandle chuckle

"No thank you, the 80 bucks is fine and besides my girlfriend and I washed the car together so are you going to give her a kiss too" she looks behind me and sizes my woman up

"Here you go" she says taking out a clipa

"Keep the change oh! Girlfriend stena ke bosso" she says walking away with her skinny friends laughing. I sigh and turn to look at Lwandle

"Tomorrow I'm going back to my rags, it's like I've become visible all of a sudden, that very same girl once called me dirty because I'm poor now she's talking about kisses"

"Well you better get used to girls throwing themselves at you now that you have a girlfriend. Human species are sick, they only want you when you are taken."
She says smiling

"I love you" I just blurted it out but it feels so right saying it

"I love you too lover boy" she says giggling

NTSIKI

It's like I'm in a trance or something. I feel myself getting up from sleep and going to my husband's ancestral hut. I take a cloth once I'm inside and wear it around my shoulder. I burn the sage and I start calling on Majola clans and started praying. When I open my eyes. A green beaded bracelet is next to the burning sage.

"My daughter, give this bracelet to King Ntsika, make sure he puts it on everywhere he goes and perform a cleansing ceremony first thing in the morning" I look around but I don't see anything or anyone all I hear is the bold voice

"How do I do the cleaning ceremony, I am not a sangoma like my husband I wouldn't know what to do" I say bowing my head to the voice

"You have been chosen to be his helper while he is away. Just go to the river of Langaletu with the king and you will know what to do" I nod in understanding

I woke up the next morning tucked nicely into my bed, what a dream I had. Maybe I should speak to Queen Nomalanga about it. I get up to make up the bed and something falls, I bend to pick it up and it's the bracelet from my dream, meaning it wasn't a dream at all.

"My King, my Queen" I say bowing

"Ntsiki how are you? Nawe you are always cooped up in the house, you should come chill with my wife when she doesn't have duties or better yet, you can accompany her"

"Thank you my king, I actually came to give you this and also ask you to follow me to the river so that you can be cleansed. My Queen you can also come with" they both look at me like I'm speaking a foreign language

" I don't understand Ntsiki" the King says with a frown

"Your ancestors have chosen me to be an acting seer while my husband is on his meditation journey. Please wear that bracelet and follow me to the river" I hope they get it now

NTSIKA

After the cleansing ceremony we went back to the palace and found Zamani waiting for me with a bouquet of flowers.

"I hope you know I don't bet for your team right?" he burst out laughing

"These are for your Queen" I squint my eyes and he continues to laugh

"Jealousy doesn't suit you your Highness, actually I bought these flowers to apologize to your wife for taking you out once again" I frown

"Who said I want to go out?" this one thinks I'm his friend

"Well I'm having a house warming at my house in zimbali and I'd like you to be there as my friend" he scratches his head

"I kind of told my cousins that I'm friends with the king of Langaletu kingdom" I sigh and look at my wife, this idiot gives my wife the flowers.

"I'll get ready" I say walking out but Ntsiki whispers in my ear

"Do not take off that bracelet" I nod walking away, I wonder what is that all about

CHAPTER 34

We just arrived at my house in zimbali, Phumi outdid herself with the decor and the music. This looks like a proper sophisticated party.

"Your house is very beautiful, my family and I have a house a couple of blocks from here." Of course they do.

"My King, I would like to apologize for my sister's behaviour the other day. She told me how displeased you were and for that I humbly apologize" he nods and we have a sit. I introduced him to all my friends and cousins. The ladies were drooling over him, I don't get it . I am more handsome than he is or is it because he's a king?

One of our cousins brings a glass of whiskey for the king, already has the muti that Somadla gave us. I'm crossing fingers that he drinks it.

I watch as he gulps down the glass of whiskey at one go and I smile. I watch him as he lets loose a bit and starts enjoying the party. I signal Phumi to come sit next to him just to test the waters and we'll I'll be damned the King of Langaletu has his tongue deep in Phumi's throat. What happened to "I can't be bewitched" Phumi is so excited she's even sitting her fat ass on his lap

"Are you still okay my King?" He nods with a smile. Phumi is busy twerking on his manhood and inkosi yethu seems to be enjoying every minute.

LEROY THOMSON

"Can't we take the baby with us?" Kalama is obsessed with Azania. Ora and I came to drop off Africa at his parents's house now that Thando and Azania have been discharged from the hospital.

"No baby she needs her mother's milk she can eat solid food like us so we have to leave her behind"

I watch as she sulks, on our way home driving on the freeway Remi appears next to Kalama. Luckily I was the one driving, if it had been Ora I'm sure we would have been in an accident. I swear Remi is an idiot

"Are you trying to kill us?" Ora asks holding her chest

"Kalama was going to wake your assas up" Ora shoots him with a death stare while Kalama giggles

"Remi what's wrong with you?" He sighs

"I think I'm in love" I burst out laughing and Ora joins me

"You! In love? Come of it dude, you don't know the meaning of the word love" he chuckles

"I know more about love than you humans do, I've seen true love, the bloody Cupid aimed for my butt and now I'm hopelessly in love with a human with big breasts and a flat ass" trust Remi to crack me up, Ora even has tears coming out

"Who's this girl, I'd like to meet her" he scratches his head

"I kind of already invited her for dinner tomorrow night. I actually came to borrow a car. I need to fetch her from Soweto"

"What's her name?" Ora asks after collecting herself

"Zanele"

"What the hell were you doing in Soweto?" I ask laughing

"I'm glad you find this amusing. I'm telling you she's not like the models from Paris fashion week I always hang around with but damn she makes my heart feel foreign things"

"Now I'd like to meet this Zanele chic"

"She has two kids with different fathers I guess I'm a father now" yoh Remi

LWANDLE MAJOLA

I get up from the couch and strip naked, his eyes are small and full of lust. He is sitting on the couch watching my every move. I sit on his lap and take off his shirt. I trace my hands all over his upper body. Every curve, he is like a beautifully carved sculpture. This whole time we are staring into each other's eyes. He claims my lips while softly caressing my breasts. He breaks the kiss but goes down and sucks my nipple's. swiftly gets up and I wrap my legs around his waist and my hands around his neck. He puts me down gently and takes off his pants and briefs. My eyes involuntarily look down on his rock hard member and I swallow hard. Without warning he puts his finger inside my nuna rubbing my clit and finger fucking me. My moans feel the room he stickd out his finger and licks it making me feel good about myself.

"Lay down" he says, his voice is now husky and deep. The lust in his eyes makes me want him more than ever

I lay down and he opens my legs, and plants soft kisses on my thighs, he goes up to my nuna and he licks me up sucking my nuna

"Oh baby yeah!" I moan

He tongue fucks me, blowing warm air while rubbing his thumb on my clit driving me insane, I scream in pleasure as he takes me places I've never been before.

"Are you ready for me baby" I bite my lower lip and nod.

We are both breathing heavily, looking up at the ceiling in the sitting room after a steamy session. I sent Thula on an errand but I'm sure she'll be back any moment now. That was the best sex I've ever had. Yes I'm not a virgin. In high school I had clumsy sex with some guy but I ghosted him the next day.

"Thank you for being my first" my eyes pop

"You were a virgin?" I ask shocked and he nods. The way he took the lead and made my body feel, he must be lying.

"I love you princess" I smile getting on top of him and riding him senseless. He deserves it after all.

PHUMI

"Let's take this to the bedroom my King" he nods and follows behind I sway my fat as passing my cousins I hear a few whispers

"Why does she always get the hot guys" I laugh doing the victory dance inside. I pass Zamani and whisper

"See you on the flip side" he winks. We get to the bedroom and I switch on the lights as I push him seductively on top of the bed.

"I'm going to fuck your brains out my King" I climb on top of him and this mother fucker has passed out. A glowing green bracelet on his left wrist catches my eye. I watch as the bracelet falls off his arm and turns into a huge green python. I get up quickly rushing to the door but it's locked. I can't seem to open the door, I scream but it's no use because the music is loud. The snake slithers towards me and coils itself around me I try with all my might to fight it off but I fail. Oh my god I feel my bones break. This is the end for me. I am looking at this huge snake squeezing the life out of me as it opens its huge elastic mouth, Goodbye cruel world.

NTSIKA

How did I get here? I'm walking on a rocky path, following a stream that leads to the mountains. This place is foggy and misty, I cannot see clearly where I am going but something is propelling me to move forward.

"oMajola have you forsaken me?" I suddenly feel overwhelmed with feelings of being deserted. I carry on walking not having the slightest idea of where I am going. Am I dead? Where is my wife? Those are the questions that keep popping up in my mind but I have no answers to.

I try to remember how I got to this place but all I remember is being invited to a house warming by my advisor. I have been walking for what seems like an eternity, my feet are killing me and I am very thirsty. I walk until I come across a huge rock and I decide to rest my feet. The water looks clean and sparkling. I take a sip of the water while I rest.

"My King" I look up and I find Mpilokaise in his ancestral clothing.

"Bafo" I say getting up

"Today I am not Mpilokaise your brother and your best friend. You are in the spirit realm of the Majolas. I am your seer and I am here to reprimand you my king" I nod fully understanding that this is not my goofy brother

"You have allowed yourself to be accessible, attainable, available to everyone and anyone. A life of a king is very important, ordinary people should long to even stand in the same room as you. Have you ever seen Langa go clubbing or attending umemulo of one of his kinsmen? You have been given abilities but fail to use them when it matters. Do you know if Nomalanga hears of how you had your tongue deep in another woman's throat could leave you? Being her chosen doesn't make you her ultimate or her only. When you're grandfather died your grandmother was able to move on with your great uncle. Do not take oMajola for granted. Your arrogance got you here, you knew something was wrong from the moment that teacher walked in" I look down in shame. I am disappointed in myself, everything Mpilokaise is saying is true. I have disappointed oMajola and my wife.

"How can I fix this my seer" he chants and mumbles foreign words

"You need to appease the ancestors by slaughtering two goats to wash the kingdom from the blood of the siblings and one goat to apologize to your wife" I nod in understanding

"Now go, my wife will perform the cleansing ceremony.

"My king wake up" I open my eyes and I find a pair of blue eyes staring at me. It looks like I'm at home in my chambers.

"How did I get here?" I ask my wife as she snuggles closer to me

"It must have been a wild party hey, I don't know when you arrived I found you in bed last night when I came to sleep. I tried waking you up but you were having none of it. I even gave you a blowjob but still you were not responsive." I chuckle and she laughs

"I'm sorry about that but I'm awake now, how about that blow job" she giggles going down on me.

ORATILE

Tonight we are having dinner with Remi's lady friend Zanele from Soweto. I honestly can't wait to meet her, I'm busy cooking up a storm with Kalama on my tail.

I'm done cooking, I've slipped into something decent and Kalama is looking cute in her Elsa printed dress.

Remi walks in with a tall dark in complexion chubby lady, Remi was right she has big breasts.

"Hey guys, this is Zanele my woman" I watch as she smiles. She has a beautiful smile

"Baby this is my little brother Leroy, his wife Princess Oratile but we call her Ora and our little dynamite here is Kalama.

"It means blazing fire in Hawaiian" Kalama says smiling and Zanele smiles back.

"So Zanele, where did you meet my crazy brother in law?" She giggles

"We met at clicks at Mandela square in Sandton. I work there as a cleaner, he almost tripped on a wet floor that I was cleaning. He bit my head off until I showed him the Caution sign. He apologized and asked to take me out for lunch to make it up to me. He had lunch and we became good friends since then" I look over at Remi who's all smiles.

"So are you guys just good friends" my husband asks, Zanele nods shyly while Remi shakes his head

"She's my girlfriend, she's just too shy to admit that she likes me too" who said dark skinned people don't blush.

My weird daughter gets up from her chair and touches Zanele's forehead.

"Kalama stop it" I warn

"It's okay Sisi" Zanele says. Kalama sits back down and starts tearing up

"Aunty Zanele I'm sorry your mother didn't believe you when you told her that your step father is touching you inappropriately and that he is the father of your first daughter. I'm also sorry that your teacher promised to help you only to also hurt you and give you your second daughter. You live in a small shack and you struggle to feed your children, you haven't touched your food because you are planning to say you are full and ask to take the food home so that you can feed your daughters" Zanele breaks into a loud sob before getting up

"I....m" she runs out unable to say a word

"I'm sorry mommy" Kalama says wiping her tears and I hug her

"It's okay baby" Remi gets up looking like a mess and walks out.

ZAMANI

It's been forever since Phumi went into the bedroom with Ntsika. It's now 10 am. Aren't they tired of fucking? What if the potion wears off and Phumi is still in there. I decide to go knock but I don't get a response I push the door but it's locked.

"My King! Phumi!" I shout but no response so I decide to break the door and I'm met by an empty room. The bed doesn't show that anyone was sleeping on it. This is strange, did they leave while I was sleeping?

I park my car at the palace, Phumi has been missing for over a day now and she left her phone behind. I don't know if she is with the king or what but I have a very bad feeling about this. The guards lead me to the throne room and I find the king sitting on the throne. His wife right next to him and the wife of the seer as well

"We have been waiting for you" the King says and my heart starts beating fast

"My King" I bow trying to mask the fear in me

"For what reason would you feed the king of Langaletu muti?" I visibly shake

"M....my ...k.king I don't know what you are talking about" he nods

"Your sister already confessed everything I just need to hear it from my personal advisor's mouth" I sigh, if Phumi confessed everything then I'm done for. It's over for me

"My king, it is not what you think" he gets up and lifts up a sceptre and a huge snake appears

"The Mkhize children will disappear with no body to bury, what a shame for your old man, who was loyal to this kingdom until he retired. I fall on my knees and beg for my life.

"I'm yet to have children, the Mkhize generation ends with Phumi and I. Please I beg you to have mercy my King"

"Why!" He roars, his voice vibrates and echoes throughout the entire room.

"I am in love with the Queen" he chuckles

"All this trouble because you lust after my Queen?" I nod with tears streaming down my face.

"You and your sister shall be slaves to the Majola ancestors in the spiritual realm." The snake slithers towards me and wraps itself around my entire body suffocating me, the more I fight the more it squeezes me. I closed my eyes feeling my bones break and my heart rate slowing down. I gave up fighting and gave in, my love for married women finally killed me.

I feel so ashamed, that little girl told my sob story in front of Remi and his family, now how am I going to look at him? Remi thinks that I'm staying in the house he came to pick me up at earlier but I lied, that's just a House that I picked that looked decent. I'm actually renting a small shack behind the house next door. I ran outside now I don't know where to go from here. I don't even have money on me, I sit on the garden chairs and sob. I think it's safe to say that Remi will want nothing to do with me after this. I'm burying my face in my hands when I feel someone sit next to me I already know it's Remi, I look up wiping my tears and mastering the weakest smile ever.

"I'm sorry I ran out like that, I'm suddenly not feeling well, Please take me home."
He doesn't say anything but instead takes me into his arms which was a bad idea because I find myself sobbing again.

"I love you Zanele, you and the girls are done suffering. I will take care of you with everything in me, please give me a chance." I shake my head

"You can't love me Remi, I'm damaged goods. I'm ugly, I'm fat and dark skinned. People call me a gorilla and here you are a handsome tall man saying you love me, My life has taught me that people are too good to be true. They say one thing and do the opposite," he gets up and pulls me up then he hugs me.

"I need you to trust me, close your eyes and hold your breath." I do as told and I feel a lot of wind hitting my face.

"You can open your eyes now" I'm met but the most breath taking mountain top with a little snow covering the mountain. I start to visibly shake, I let go of him with my lower lip trembling

"How?" This is impossible! Oh my gosh this man is a Satanist.

"Baby please relax, breathe in and out slowly. I will never hurt you, this is my favourite place in the world" he smiles, I try to calm myself

"I am a Greek god, son of Herold Hesus god of light and fire, my mother is Tishai god of time and space. Leroy is my half brother, I have lived for more than five centuries but I've never longed for love. I was satisfied with sleeping in Reno and waking up in Dubai until that day I saw you. The old man wearing a dipa struck my heart with his bow and arrow, it was game over for me."

"A Greek god as in the mythology, Zeus and Hercules kind of God?" He chuckles

"Yes" I frown

"Isn't that a myth? Make believe for movies?" He laughs

"Just like God in heaven, greek gods are real too. History may make it out as though it is a make believe thing but we are real and not a figment of people's imagination." I nod

"Where are we?"

"This is Alaska, I love this place. Especially right after winter. The snow is still around but it is melting slowly, if you look over there. It looks like the snow is glowing because of the sun's rays." I smile, it does look magical

"Please be mine" I look into his eyes and I see that he's being genuine. I close my eyes and shut all the negative voices in my head, I take a leap of faith and I choose to trust him.

"I am yours" he smiles then attacks me with a bone crushing hug.

"First thing's first, I want you and my children out of that shack by tonight. I'll speak to Ora to take you guys in until I organize a home for us"

"Can't we go to your house? I don't think I can face your brother and his wife right now"

"I'm kind of between places right now?" I frown, that's basically saying I don't have a place to stay. He sighs

"Baby I have houses in unlikely places. I was a bachelor until now, I have a house in Bali, I have a place in Cambodia but here in South Africa I never got a place because I only came to visit my brother."

"Okay"

"I'm going to buy you a huge house and a beautiful car, my kids will go to the best schools, I'm going to marry you and give you demigods" I giggle, if this is a dream then dear lord please do not wake me up.

PHENYO

I'm sitting under the tree waiting for Lwandle to finish with her class. I've been sitting here for almost an hour but at least I was able to start on the assignment I was given today in class. Life has honestly been amazing, my mother is also doing great now. No more bed sores because the nurse Queen Khanyisile hired takes her out for a stroll in the park and even takes her to swimming classes. My love for Lwandle grows daily, I know there is no such thing as perfection but Lwandle is just perfect for me.

"I hope I'm the reason for that smile on your face" I must have been lost in thought because I didn't even see her coming

"You definitely are my princess" I say getting up and claiming her soft luscious lips. I put away my laptop and hold her bag as well and we walk out of the school premises hand in hand

"Hot dogs?" I nod, a limo stops in front of us and my heart starts pounding. What if it's king Langa? I heard that he is very strict when it comes to Lwandle. The door opens and out comes a tall middle aged man

"Phenyo Nxumalo" I nod and the man attacks me with a hug

"Finally, I've been looking everywhere for you. My name is Ben Khumalo, is there a private place where we can talk preferably where your mother can be present if she's still alive and I will explain exactly who I am" I look at Lwandle and she nods. We get into the limo and give the driver directions to our place. My mother is surprised to see us walk inside the house with a stranger. Ben introduces himself to my mother and we all settle down giving Ben our full attention.

"I met your husband Phila Nxumalo years ago in Jozi while we were Searching for greener pastures. We tried to find work but we failed. Phila was about to give up and come back home, he told me he left his wife and two boys behind. Another guy was planning a heist and needed two men. I convinced Phila to go with me because I knew that he didn't want to go back home empty handed. We did the heist and it was successful but unfortunately he got shot as the cops were chasing us. Before he drew his last breath he begged me to find his wife and kids. He asked me to give you his share of the heist which was 5 million. I searched for you everywhere but I couldn't find you anywhere, I just knew that his first son's name is Phenyo. You would be surprised how many Phenyo Nxumalos are out there, I gave up looking and focused on building my empire but I made sure I kept your money until last month when I came across your name in my company. I was going through bursary recipients and your name popped up and that is how I was able to finally locate you. Manxumalo, Phenyo please forgive me for taking so much time to give you closure. Phila was a good man and he loved you guys so much. Please give me your account number so that I can fulfill my promise" I was in tears, my mother was sobbing silently while Lwandle was now busy comforting her. I gave him my account number because my mother no longer has a bank account.

"Mr Khumalo I think you made mistake, you said it's 5 million not 20 million" he chuckles

"Well the 15 million is interest. I want you to know that you have a father in me. From today onwards, you will never lack anything." He gets up and hugs us. I don't know what to say, our father didn't abandon us after all.

My wife has been giving me the silent treatment, I don't know what to do now. She went as far as moving out of our chambers, Ntsiki was able to perform the cleansing ceremony to wash the kingdom off the Mkhize children's blood and to apologize to my wife. I had to tell her the truth that I kissed another woman and allowed her to sit on my lap, what pissed her off more was that I was going to sleep with her if the ancestors didn't intervene. Today is her doctor's appointment and I run after her as she takes her bag and is about to leaves the palace.

"Baby wait up, isn't it your appointment with the doctor today?" She stops and turns folding her arms

"Yeah, so?" I frown

"I thought we were going together like we usually do" she chuckles

"That was before my unfaithful husband cheated on me." I sigh

"Can I go now King Ntsika" I nod and head back into the house. I didn't want to argue with her especially in her condition.

"Can I have a word with you?" She's back from the doctor's appointment and now she's relaxing watching TV in the lounge.

"My Queen, you have every right to be mad at me, hell I'm mad at me too because I allowed myself to be vulnerable to the attack of the enemy. It was reckless and stupid of me and I will never ever do that again but I want you to know that I would never in this lifetime or the next look at another woman and find them attractive unless I'm in some kind of spell of which that was the case with that teacher woman. You are everything I need in a woman and even more. When I count my blessings, I count you twice because woman you are the best gift from oMajola. I love you please forgive me my Queen" she wipes her tears

"If you ever kiss another woman I swear Ntsika I'll kill you." I smile

"I will never ever do that again I promise. Am I forgiven now? I miss my wife" she nods

"I love you so much. You, little Langa and our baby girl in there are my life, thank you for forgiving me" I say smashing my lips into hers and she welcomes me with a sexy moan. Make up sex here we come, no pun intended.

CHAPTER 37

ONE YEAR LATER**

NARRATED

The doors of a small whimsical but traditional chapel opens and the former King of Langaletu kingdom walks in holding his only surviving daughter's hand as they walk in slowly on the red carpet leading to the altar. Yes princess Lwandle Majola is getting married to the love of her life, she's looking like a true princess in her ball gown ivory wedding dress with a sweetheart neckline and Swarovski crystals hand stitched around the entire dress and a beautiful sparkling tiara. As glamorous and romantic her dress looked she opted for a small intimate wedding with close friends and family only. Phenyoy is standing at the altar in a black tuxedo and an crisp ivory shirt, waiting anxiously for the woman he loves.

A year and a few months ago Phenyoy was a nobody but today he is marrying a princess. He is marrying royalty, tears blind his vision when Lwandle, his princess walks towards him looking so beautiful and innocent. He can't help but to thank God for this damsel who rescued him and his family from distress.

"This is my princess, take care of her or you'll have me to deal with" Langa says as he gives away his pride and joy to another man. It took a lot of begging and pleading from Lwandle for him to finally agree to give her hand away in marriage.

Khanyisile had to resort to emotional blackmail and silent treatment to get Langa to even accept that Lwandle is getting married.

The lovers stand in front God, the pastor and their families promising each other forever. Phenyo's emotional vows had everyone in tears, especially his mother. Their love was evident and beautiful to witness. Langa smiled at how Phenyo looked at his daughter, like he saw nothing else but her. He knew deep down in his heart that Phenyo loves her and would do anything to make her happy. He squeezes Khanyisile's hand and whispers

"I love you more that he loves her"
Khanyisile giggles because she also can see the love Phenyso has for Lwandle and it reminds her of how much Langa loves her.

LWANDLE NXUMALO

We did it, I am officially Mrs Nxumalo. I am so happy that I get to spend the rest of my life with such an amazing and selfless soul. When Mr Khumalo gave my husband 20 million I started thinking that he will flip on me, you know how money changes people but he remained ever so humble and focused. With the help of Mr

Khumalo he was able to buy a decent house and invest the money right after paying lobola for me of course. His mother was very happy when his son decided to marry me and my mother was supportive too. As for my dad, well I'm grateful that Phenylo is still breathing.

"Congratulations mzala, you and your husband make such a beautiful couple." My cousin Oratile says with a smile, my niece then places her hand on my tummy.

"Aunty Lwandle, there's a baby in here and he is a gift from mkhulu. He's going to be my husband" she says giggling. I have been suspecting that I'm pregnant because I haven't seen my period but I thought it could also be the stress of the wedding preparation.

"Kalama what did I say about using your powers? You need to speak to mommy first before using your powers" she looks down

"Sorry mommy" she's so cute

"It's okay my angel and thank you for telling me about your husband to be" she giggles and runs off.

"You know uncle Langa is going to kill your husband for impregnating you before you finish your degree like he promised" I sigh, part of the agreement to allowing me to marry Phenyo was that I finish my degree before getting pregnant.

"Well there's nothing he can do now, what's done is done and I couldn't be happier being pregnant for the man I love. My husband" I say meaning every word.

I am princess Lwandle Majola and now Nxumalo. My mother taught me to be kind and humble, to treat everyone equally. She taught me to help everyone and never to expect anything in return. I am happy I listened to her because I found myself a good man while I was doing my duty as a princess and as a human being in general. I am Lwandle and this is my story

ZANELE

He bought my kids and I a beautiful four bedroom single storey house with a beautiful garden and a double garage. I'm currently doing my first year in business administration at the age of 26. Remi truly wiped my tears away, it's been a blissful year full of traveling and love making. Did I mention how much I love having sex with him? He is such a great father to my girls and they call him dad. At first I was skeptical about allowing him into their lives, I was afraid that the same thing that happened to me at the hands of my step father will happen to them too. I didn't even feel comfortable leaving them alone with Remi but being the loving man that he is, he understood my fears and made sure that I was comfortable. Now I trust him completely, he has proven himself over and over again. I'm with the kids at spur, I'm waiting for Remi to join us. He has been sitting in the car while the kids and I were busy with some shopping.

"Thank you mommy" my eldest daughter says with glossy eyes

"What's wrong Phili?" Tears finally fall, I get up and sit next to her hugging her

"Thank you for being the best mom ever and for always doing your best to take care of us. Thank you for bringing dad into our lives. We are so happy" I wipe her tears and she wipes mine.

"Come dimpho don't feel excluded" she giggles and joins in the hug

"Isn't this cute" Remi says behind us

"Daddy!" I swear these kids love Remi more than me.

We ate lunch and drove back home singing and laughing. I swear happiness looks so good on us, I wish my family could see me now. After my biological mother threw me out and convinced my whole family that I seduced her husband then pinned a bastard child on him, she threw me out in the cold. I was doing Grade 11 then, my biology teacher took me in and promised to take care of me and the baby. As soon as my daughter Phili turned 6 months he started demanding sex from me and because I had nowhere to go I had no choice but to lay on my back. I became pregnant again that's when he threw me out as well and said yena he doesn't want a gorilla like me. I struggled with my kids, I dropped out and worked as a cleaner while pregnant.

I don't hate my children, in fact they are the ones who kept me sane. I was the laughing stock, the black sheep of the family, the ugly duckling but look now. Happiness is choking me now, my kids go to the best schools and they are happy and well taken care of, not to mention spoiled by their father and and uncle Leroy. We arrive at home, Remi and the kids stay behind taking out the shopping bags.

"Surprise!!!!" I hold my chest blown away by the faces in my house. I'm confused because it's not even my birthday, I smile awkwardly not knowing what to say I turn to look at Remi because I only know Ora and Leroy, everyone else is a stranger, he is on bended knee with a small velvet box containing a beautiful pink diamond ring.

"Zanele Nkata I love you and the girls so much. You have given my life meaning, you are the most beautiful and loving woman I've ever met and everyday I fall deeper and deeper in love with you. You are strong and hardworking, you have overcome everything that was meant to break you and still you stand without even a hint of bitterness in you. I love you Zanele, please marry me and make me the happiest man in the world" I didn't hear half the things he said because I am shocked, happy but shocked. He wants to marry me?

"Say yes mommy" I want to say yes but I'm too damn emotional to utter a word so I just nod.

"Is that a yes?" I nod again. He slides the ring in my finger and gets up before capturing my lips. Everyone cheers for us.

"I love you" I say honestly without a shadow of doubt in my heart. An older replica of Remi comes towards us and hugs me unexpectedly.

"Welcome to the Hesus family my daughter and my grandchildren" I smile and look at my beautiful ring. Everyone comes to hug me congratulating me. I don't know half the people in the room but their genuine warm smile makes me feel really happy that they are here to celebrate this moment with us.

This past year I have learned that no situation is permanent, there's always a silver lining. After the rain comes the sunshine and a rainbow, I have learned that sometimes beauty is in the eyes of the admirer. Especially when the beholder has been told how ugly they are. I have learned to trust and to love. I have learned to forgive and that everything bad that has happened to me was preparing me for this day. My name is Zanele Nkata and this is my story.

REMI

"Baby please" I have been eating up her pussy while rubbing my thumb on her clit. She's has exploded in my face a couple of times and now she wants the magic stick inside.

"Please what my love? Tell daddy what you want and how you want it" she moans as a softly bite her clit

"I want your big Greek cock inside of me, I want you to fuck me hard daddy" oh she drives me crazy when she talks dirty to me. I give her what she asked for and fuck her brains out. Taking her from every angle, she even gets on top of me and rides me hard until I cum shouting her name. It's a good thing Leroy took the girls or they would be traumatized by now.

"Thank you for choosing me" she says laying on chest listening to my heartbeat.

"Thank you for trusting me with your heart too. You are my life now Zee and I will do everything in my power to make you happy"

"I am happy baby, I'm so happy and sometimes I fear that this is all a dream. I fear that the kids and I will wake up and find ourselves in that small shack again." I kiss her forehead

"That will never happen"

I have been with all kinds of women from all four corners of the earth. I've smashed models, actresses, slay Queens. You name them I fucked them all but when I met Zanele something in me moved and for once it wasn't my dick but it was my heart. I have learned that beauty is skin deep, I have learned that the so called broken ones love most, I have learned that you don't actually have to father a child to be a father. I have learned that no matter how many pussies you smash nothing compares to the pussy of the one you love. Sex is much more meaningful with the one you love. My name is Remi Hesus and this is my story.
