The playboy and the girl next door.

Best friends since forever.

This was only supposed to be a wedding season as each other's plu nothing more.

But Callan Black has his hands on me, his eyes on me, and has sudd become very possessive of me.

Callan is the guy I've crushed on since I was a teen.

It's totally unrequited.

He's got a type and I'm not it.

Except, lately there's been lots of stolen glances and time spent togethomy life is unraveling and Callan is the one who's there to help me pick pieces.

He's protective, steadfast, and reliable.

I've always wanted him and now he's showing me a whole other side (himself. He's showing me a man I could build a future with.

But he's my best friend.

And the fastest way to ruin a friendship is to throw caution to the wind

CALLAN

If there's one thing I should never be in charge of, it's holding the wrings for any of my brothers on their wedding day. I was put in charge eldest brother's rings precisely half an hour ago and I've already mi them.

"You've lost the rings?" Olivia asks when she realizes I'm search them.

"No, I've momentarily hidden them." I reach into my suit jacl check the pocket inside. The rings aren't there and Olivia's exp conveys her lack of surprise over this. My best friend knows me bette know myself, so she's more than aware that when I say I've momhidden them, I actually mean I've put them somewhere really fucki and may never find them again.

"Jesus, Callan. Bradford should have known better than to ask safeguard those rings." She's got that look in her eyes that says she's charge of the situation now. It's a look I know well. Olivia's been charge of my situations since we were eight.

"In my defense, it's been a hectic half hour."

"Where were you when he gave them to you?"

"In his bedroom."

"Do you think you might have put them down somewhere in there?

"I would have thought I'd put them in my jacket, but clearly no attention drifts away as I spot Olivia's plus-one weaving his way throwedding guests who are gathered in Bradford's grand salon for pre-ce cocktails.

OLIVIA

May in New York is a firm favorite of mine. Spring is thinking about t nap while summer is getting ready to come out and play. My anticipa all things summer is high in May and my planning game is stroil looking forward to weekends at the beach, late afternoon swims durweek, long lazy days in the sun. And ice-cream. So much ice-cream.

The other thing I love about this time of year are the weddings. live and breathe only romance for the rest of my life and I'd be a hap And honestly, with the way weddings are taking on a new life with sfun new trends, I'm giddy about it all.

There's only one small problem this year: I don't have a date for the weddings I've been invited to. I'm not opposed to attending pa galas or any social event on my own, but weddings are a differen Especially so when you've just broken up with your boyfriend who evadored. My brows pull together. I've worked for Hayden for two years an he's always cared about my workload, he's never stopped by my o check how I'm coping with it. "I've got it handled. Why the concern?"

"Because we just got a call from Mace Hawkins's team."

"Jesus, how do these hockey players get themselves into so ne, I'm trouble?" Mace is the third New York Power player we've had a call the last two weeks.

"He's got a wife who's about to be an ex-wife intent on causing pr he had for him, the latest problem being she's stolen half a million worth of h those from Penelope Rush and the news has been splashed across every account this morning."

I sit forward at the mention of Callan's Penelope. Immediately, I could scrub those two words from my brain. I hate that I put them to "This just happened today?"

"Yeah. Penelope's on a rampage about it now."

I'm about to reply to her text when my phone rings and Callan' flashes across the screen. He might have been acting strangely this m but he hasn't forgotten our eleven-a.m. call.

Α This daily call has been a fixed part of our life for seven years. Even we both started working after college. The first time was on his third st. his first job. "I don't know why you're having a breakdown over this dress," Blair Sasha just after seven p.m. Monday night, her tone a little sharp ar exasperated. "It's fucking stunning and I've never seen you lool radiant."

I make eyes at her and mouth, "Stop it."

We've been at Sasha's place for nearly two hours and Blair's patidisappearing rapidly. To be fair, though, she's displayed more patien usual, so there is that.

"I can see you two in the mirror," Sasha says before gathering the skirt of her dress and turning to face us. "I agree that this dress is stuent She smiles at her dress designer who's here for the fitting. "What I'm of is whether it's too over the top for me."

"Oh my god," I say as everything suddenly makes sense. "You're about what Rhodes's mother will say, aren't you?"

"No." She squishes her face. "Maybe." Her expression turns po forlorn. "Okay, yes, a lot. That woman is so mean. You know I w okay if she says even one little thing about me or my dress or my mal anything! Oh my god, I can't do this. I can't marry Rhodes!"

"Well, that escalated fast." Blair looks at me and motions with he "This is all yours now. I should not be in charge of this."

The three of us have been friends since college and haven't foun emergency we couldn't fix between us. However, Blair is not the one in charge when emotions spill over and run wild. She's the hard-as-nawe go to when we need a good slap and help navigating a situation letting our emotions interfere. Sasha is usually the one we go to want to sit in our emotions while I'm the one in the middle of the spays towho mixes pragmatism with some feelings thrown in.

I walk to Sasha and take hold of her arms. "You can marry Rhook more will marry Rhodes. In this dress. And he will love it as much as you that's all that will matter. And honey, if there's one day in a girl's l calls for over the top, it's her wedding day. You should have every ience isthing you want on your wedding day. We've got ten more weddings to go and I've just decided I may need to cancel all of them. There's no fucking way I'll survive this season if I have to spend it with Olivia killing me like she has tonight.

"Callan's being weird this weekend," Sasha says over cocktails wedding reception on Saturday. "I seriously just watched him avoid a who was desperately trying to give him her number. Have you two go that says he can't sleep with anyone at all the weddings this season?"

I eye my best friend who is currently at the bar talking with Rho another guy. "No." I look back at Sasha. "We didn't discuss it but he whatever he wants."

"And you can do whatever you want, right? Because if so, there' here who hasn't taken his eyes off you and I'm pretty sure you haven noticed."

She's right, I haven't noticed, and that's because the only guy here noticed is Callan. He's wearing a new suit and holy hell, it should b illegal. The way he fills out those trousers causes me to forget that br is a thing.

I shrug. "Sure, we can both do what we want, Sash, but I'm no looking at the moment."

She crosses her legs and settles in for the conversation I know wanted to have for weeks. Sasha lives for romance even more than I do a diehard matchmaker. The idea that a woman isn't currently looking idea she would ever entertain. "Tell me why. It's been a couple of since you and Jensen broke up, and it's not like you were heartbro why the break from dating?"

CALLAN

"I'm on my way!" Olivia says just after one p.m. on Friday afternometrything goes to plan, I'll only be five or so minutes late for the spa.

She sounds breathless like she's been running, which I highly dot wears heels everywhere. And also, she's not a runner. She swears was created by the devil.

I don't think too much about this, though, because I'm currently st the queen bed in our suite. It's our suite because the hotel screwed didn't book a room for me. When this mistake was discovered up arrival, they fixed the problem by giving us an upgraded suite. With o bed.

I pull at my tie to loosen it and bring my focus back to my conve with Olivia. "I'll see you when you get here."

It's been a long week of rumination for me while I was away fo After trying to put all the thoughts from my mind that Gage stirred up came to the realization that I can't put Olivia out of my head. She live permanently and with ease.

CALLAN

Fuck.

I have never been as turned on as I am right now.

I knew the second I laid eyes on Olivia tonight that the date I'd properties for her wasn't likely to go ahead. I tried though. I fucking tried. However, when Liv wants something, I'm helpless but to give it to her.

This dress she bought for me is sinful.

It's the lace. I'm fucking sure of it.

I've seen her in dresses this length.

Dresses that show off her breasts.

Dresses this same shade of red.

I've survived all of them.

What I've never seen her wear is lace.

And fuck if I only ever want her in lace for the rest of our lives.

I need to watch her take it off. The blush that stained her cheeks told her I wanted her to give me a show let me know she's never done anyone. And that sealed it for me. I fucking love knowing I ca something of hers that she's never given any other man.

I wrap my hand around her neck and growl against her ear, "Be me, Liv."

She moans and her eyes find mine right before she reaches for mand leads me out of the bathroom into my bedroom.

My eyes are glued to that red lace that's covering her ass so damn However, when she pulls me to her, places her hands on my hips, sp and forces me to sit in the armchair in the corner of my room, the onl I'm looking at is her face.

Gage is a lot of man to handle. That is for sure. But underneath the he's a pussycat. He just has to be managed. And since managing the brothers is what I've been doing for years, I have zero doubt Gage we part in our board game night. He grumbles about it every single time away, but he always ends up playing. And he always ends up enhimself. Men.

I arrive at Kristen's and Bradford's condo at seven p.m. and am struc by the opulence of their home. I'm not sure I could live in such lu don't think I'd want to touch anything. CALLAN

I step into the elevator that will take me up to Penny's condo and teeth. She was surprised when I called earlier to let her know I wanted her. And she tried to talk some dirty shit to me that I was quick to puto. I don't want to be here, but I have some things to say to her that she to hear.

"Callan." She's waiting for me in her foyer. I hear the hesitation voice and see it in her eyes. Penny's not a dumb woman. She knows where. However, she's clearly still trying to weasel her way out of ha acknowledge the trouble she's caused.

"I think you know why I'm here, so let's just cut straight to i having difficulty even looking at her. How I spent so much time witl beyond me because all I see now is a toxic woman.

Her features wobble. "Why are you here? I mean, it's a unexpected surprise, but I've been wondering why you called out blue."

"I can spell it out for you if you need me to, but I'd rather you no my time. I'm here to make it clear I won't tolerate you fucking with anymore." She takes only a few seconds to figure out which path to go dov me. Then, she removes the pleasant mask from her face and says, manipulating you. You know that, right?"

"I suspect the only woman who's been manipulating me is the c currently looking at. Olivia doesn't have one bone in her body that allow her to manipulate anyone."

She folds her arms across her chest. "I have never tried to mar you."

CALLAN

I'd fucking like to be.

OLIVI

You say the sweetest things to me, Callan Black.

I'm sweltering my way through July. New York is having record ten I'm alternating between begging Callan to take me to the beach as ofte can (everyone should get a boyfriend with a helicopter); driving him walking around his condo naked as often as I can (I highly recommence every woman out there; men say yes to so many things while un influence of naked asses); and wishing more brides chose indoor we Callan and I have attended four weddings this month and I've vowed r

I also spend the month alternating between wanting to fire my colline (he keeps ghosting me for days at a time because of his divorce night that's apparently interfering with his ability to work...buddy, we've problems and the rest of us keep showing up to work); having di Callan's parents' home (Hayden was right: their mom is ecstatic that and I are together, and she has begun hosting way more Black dinners); praying that the current stock market rally continues becauseeing my stocks slowly go back up in price; and texting back and for Harper trying to get her to settle on wedding plans.

I can't decide which is more stressful this month: the heat wave, with my contractor, or dealing with Harper. By the time the Black weekend away arrives at the end of the month, I'm a hot mess.

e. "Oh my god!" I cry on the morning of the Friday that we're leav the Catskills. "I didn't bring my hat!"

Callan reaches for my hands to stop me from madly pulling my suitcase apart. "Babe. Stop. We can get your hat on the way cafternoon."

I know he's just trying to help, and I know he's right, but my entines and is filled with some kind of weird turbulent energy this morning that en as heget a handle on. This causes me to snap, "We're already going to be wild byfor time. I don't want to have to stop on our way out. And stop telling I this tostop. It annoys me. And don't call me babe. By the time we arrive at the Catskills, it's after 11 p.m. We're both ti ready to fall into bed, but Callan's family are still awake and want to some time talking.

Callan's mom insists I sit next to her. Callan smiles at me as he ta seat across from me next to Bradford. His smile says I've got you, I get you out of here soon.

I talk with Ingrid for twenty minutes and answer all the questions for me. We also talk about my parents' trip and the fact they're curre Perth, which is in a country Ingrid desperately wants to visit one day.

After Callan draws his mother's attention, I turn to Gage who's sit the other side of me. "Did Luna get to sleep okay?" His daughter has sleeping in new places.

A dark look crosses his face. "She didn't come."

"Why not?"

His jaw clenches. "Shayla put a stop to it."

This surprises me. Gage and his ex have been in a good place for year. "What's happened? I thought you two were good now."

"We were. Until the asshole she's with cut in on that."

"Shit. I'm sorry. Is there anything I can help with?"

"No. I'm handling it."

The way he says this tells me he's not treading lightly like he did long after they broke up. Gage is one of the best fathers I know a daughter comes first above everything else in his life. He let Shayla go with a lot of shit after they broke up. He did that for Luna's sake. But think any treading lightly is off the table. I think Shayla's in for awakening. OLIVIA

The rain eases by Sunday morning and Callan and I head out for a h after breakfast. We talk about our week ahead and he shares with me tl having dinner with a guy tomorrow night who may invest in his (expansion.

I learned last night while listening to him and his father talk, that is the one who has encouraged him to find an investor for this expansithe pieces of the puzzle fell into place for me at that point.

Callan loves risk, so I've wondered why he's not just backing with the business growth he's chasing. He hasn't built a company the his by not backing himself in the past. Now, I know this change behavior is because his father has put this idea in his head.

We make some plans for the week ahead and he tries to conviagain to run with Slade's ideas for my remodel. He also expresses fru with Harper over the fact she's told me she doesn't love my suggesti her wedding but won't put the time in herself to figure out what sl want. I agree with him, which I know surprises him. I've never said word about my cousin, but lately, I'm feeling used. And I'm wishing I said yes to helping her with the wedding.

After a long, lazy lunch with everyone, we drive home while liste the playlist I made with some of our favorite songs.

When the country song starts playing that Callan turned up once one of our other drives home, he looks at me with a shake of his head.

I grin. "I know how much you love your country."

We get back to his condo around five p.m. after stopping a co times along the way. Callan heads into his gym after we unpack while my lunches for the week and do some life admin.
