Jacob: This is huge for me because I'm a single father.

Mr. Collins looks at the picture of Jacob with his daughter.

Jacob:She left me for a rich man after giving birth to my princess.

Mr. Collins:You mean you have not been with a woman since she left?

Jacob:Not in a serious relationship because my daughter is my life.

Mr. Collins:We need more men like you Jacob. My brother has kids everywhere and he doesn't support them. Anyway, let's get to work.

She looked at Nyakallo in tears then she kneeled in front of her.

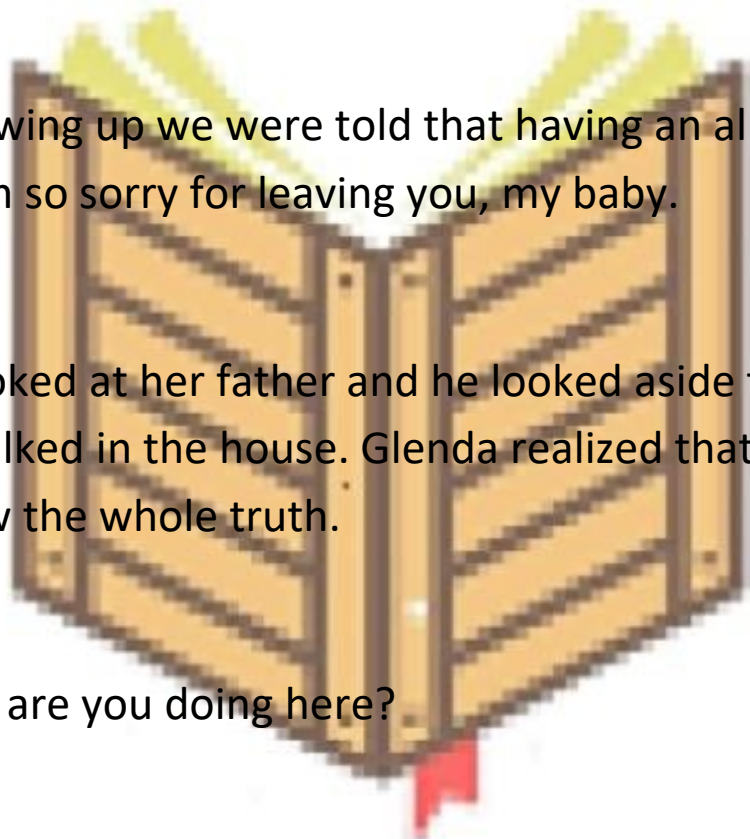

Glenda:Growing up we were told that having an albino child is bad luck. I'm so sorry for leaving you, my baby.
